ALUMNI RETURN TO CAMPUS!

VARIOUS BOOKS ARE ADDED TO T. U. LIBRARY

As a supplement to the list carried in one of our early fall issues, there follows a list of some of the books purchased for the University Library collection during the spring and summer:

Another of George Gamow's interesting, non-technical, and informative treatments of a specialized scientific subject, "Mr. Tompkins Explores the Atom."

"Microbes Which Help or Destroy Us," by Paul W. Allen, D. Frank Holtman and Louise A. McBee.

"Background to Modern Science," edited by Joseph Needham and Walter Pagel; a collection of lectures delivered at Cambridge University by eminent British scientists.

Axel F. Gustafson's "Conservation of the Soil."

A most attractive as well as useful book by Daniel J. Foley, "Garden Flowers in Color."

Vernon L. Parrington's "Main Currents in American Thought; an interpretation of American literature from the beginnings to 1920."

"The Arts of Costume and Personal Appearance," by Grace M. Morton.

"Decorating the Home," by Ethel Lewis.

"Doctor in the Making; the art of being a medical student," by Arthur W. Ham and M. D. Salter; one of the ever-helpful career books.

A. L. Rawlings' "The Theory of the Gyroscopic Compass and Its Deviations," a highly technical book, but of special wartime interest.

David Lawrence's "Nine Honest Men," a 1936 history of the Supreme Court.

"American Diplomacy in Action; a series of case studies," by Richard W. Van Alstyne.

An interesting item of Florida material, the 1944 issue of "Apalachee," the publication of the Tallahassee Historical Society, containing papers on various phases of Florida history. William B. Hesseltine's "The South in American History."

Twenty-seven volumes of the valuable series, "The American Nation; a history," edited by Albert Bushnell Hart; thus making available in our library the complete set of 28 volumes, covering virtually every period of American history in works by recognized historians.

A series of useful, practical booklets on art by Charles X. Carlson, including titles such as "The Direct Technique of Water Color Painting," "Simplified Pencil Drawing," "Essentials of Pastel Painting," "A Simplified Art Anatomy," and "The Simplified Essentials of Oil Painting."

Other material on art includes two titles by Charlotte H. Young, "Practical Fashion Sketches" and "Fundamentals for Fashion Illustrations"; "Cartooning is a Funny Business," by S. G. Faier; Arthur Zaidenberg's "Drawing for Illustration"; and the "A. D. C. C. Record of Advertising Art; a record of the exhibition of advertising art sponsored by the Art Directors Club of Chicago and presented at the Chicago Art Institute."

Spanish Class Has Visitor

The intermediate class of Spanish was honored Wednesday morning of last week by the visit of the famous Spanish writer, Cuca Vidal, accompanied by Dr. Fernandez, well-known Cuban journalist.

Miss Vidal recited some of the works of her collection and also a poem by the learned writer, Ruben Dario. The speakers were enjoyed by the class and were asked to return to the group again. The professor of this class is Mr. Nova.

Dr. Mildred Babcock

DR. BABCOCK IS SPEAKER AT MEETING

Dr. Mildred Babcock, head of the education department at the University told the women of the Federated Clubs building last week, that "liberal arts colleges are on the way out." In an address on "Education in the post-war world" Dr. Babcock said that the schools of the future would prepare the student for practical living and this can only come about through a greater "work-study" program in education.

A program of Thanksgiving music by the Mitchell P-T-A. choral group preceded by Dr. Babcock's address. Luncheon was served under the direction of Mrs. J. C. Moneuse, social chairman.

Dr. Babcock has developed the education department a great deal since her arrival at the University. The reading clinic has been established and the Future Teachers of America has further progressed under her guidance.

She plans to represent the university at a convention soon at Gainesville.

Student Council Changed!

An amendment was passed by the student council to change the name council to senate. This amendment was placed before the student body at the first following assembly. The president of the student council, Virginia Smith, introduced the amendment after discussion from various members of the student body, Catherine Bowen, Betty Faye Cumble and Manuel Alvarez, all members of the student council, the amendment was voted upon. The votes were cast by standing. Arguments for the bill were (1) it has proved successful by other colleges, and (2) the parliamentary body of the U. S. is called the senate. The amendment was unanimously passed.

La Tertulia Installs Officers at Dinner

Amidst the festive Spanish surroundings of the Spanish Park restaurant the La Tertulia, Spanish club at the University of Tampa, carried on the installation of its officers.

The newly elected officers are: Josephine Ramil, president; Manuel Alveriz, vice president; secretary, Carmen Palacio; reporter, Gloria Ficarrota. Mrs. Lois Nova is the sponsor of the club. The members discussed the difficulties of mastering the Spanish language at their dinner.

The main course of the dinner was chicken and yellow rice, Spanish bean soup, salad and for dessert, cream cheese and figs.

Those present were Rose Arce, Jinie Cusmano, Gloria Rodriguez, Gloria Franco, Mary Leone, Rose Marie Kelly, Sara Hale, Matthew Aprile, Mary Li Calsi, Gloria Ficarrota, Manuel Alveriz, Jo Ramil and Carmen Palacio.

Welcome To Alumni

The president of the student body, University of Tampa, issues a cordial welcome to the University Alumni who are attending the Homecoming celebrations today and tonight.

It is with great pleasure that we extend our greeting for it is you to whom we owe the foundation of our University. It was you, the present alumni, who helped to organize the present sororities and fraternities, and all of the extra curricula activities that have promoted our standing. It is you who laid the plans for our student government, giving us something on which to advance as the necessity arises.

We realize that without you and without the basis that you laid, we could make no progress; we would have had no active student body, and with this in mind, we can show our appreciation best by extending a continuous invitation to visit your school and our school.

VIRGINIA SMITH, President
University of Tampa
Student Body.

Students, Faculty Are Guests at Service

The students and faculty of Tampa university rose a little earlier this morning in order to render a few moments of praise and thanksgiving at the annual BSU sunrise service held "down by the riverside." The short worship period held a deep meaning for all of us.

Immediately following the service the group enjoyed a warming breakfast of coffee and doughnuts in the dining room of the First Baptist church.

Christmas holidays will begin terminate Tuesday, January 2nd, at 8 o'clock.

Students Give Various Plans For Thanksgiving Holidays

In response to the question: "What are you planning to do during Thanksgiving holidays?" These were the replies received by the reporter.

Gladys Ford: Show Dot and Ginny Rankin a wonderful time at my home in Bradenton. We may go to the beach, and to a football game. No one knows what else.

Laura Richards: Go to the football game and loaf.

Maggie Haylik: Spend the week-end at home with my family.

Duane Locke: If I have time after I finish catching up on my lost sleep, I want to read Plato's "Republic," and Voltaire's "Candide."

Barbara Lacy: Eat turkey dinner and do to the football game. I may go to Lakeland too, but I'm not sure.

Betty Anne Smith: I will visit Bill's fiancée in Orlando, and plan to have a wonderful time.

Kitty Martin and Lois Sanchez: Go to the football game.

Betty Ruth Israelson: I'm having a visitor from Quincy, Fla. We plan to do EVERYTHING!

Ronnie Constantine: Eat three turkey dinners.

Betty Faye Cumble: I'm going to catch up on all the shut-eye I have lost! Then I'm going to sleep and eat, and sleep and eat!

Mrs. Alberta Simpson: I hope I can cook a good dinner for my husband — if he can come home from Alabama.

Billie Higginbotham: I celebrated at Plant Park replacement center last week, so for this week I will have to clean house, study and catch up on correspondence.

Martha Jane Coler: I celebrated last Sunday because my brother was home then.

Eugenia Exum: I'm going to try to take time off from crabbing in the bay to go to the football game.

STUDENT BODY PRESIDENT
WELCOMES ALUMNI

News From Dean's Offices

1. Students eligible for the annuals from last year are asked to call at the business office for them.

2. Appointments for tuberculosis tests should be made by all students interested in taking them.

3. Mid-summer semester grades are available. (That is if you care to get them.) Note from the editor, who hasn't been the same since she went, I want to see about mine.

4. There are 70 students who are enrolled whose records are incomplete in the dean's office. If your name is on the bulletin board please see the dean because no college credit will be given without complete records.

5. Freshmen are asked to attend their meeting. Where is your school spirit?

HOMECOMING IS MARKED WITH VARIED EVENTS

The University of Tampa plans to stage many events at their homecoming this afternoon.

Established in 1931 as a junior college, the young University has grown so rapidly that before the war the enrollment was close to 800 students. Thousands of our alumni are now scattered throughout the state of Florida and the entire United States. Many are stationed all over Europe and the Pacific.

Many of these are looking forward to attending the several events of the day, renewing acquaintances and visiting the historic campus once again.

While not as large as some of the other colleges in the south, this college nevertheless intends to have several events to honor the alumni. The students are expecting many of the out of town alumni members.

Most of the afternoon, until the picnic, the students will guide their friends around the campus and through the dormitory.

After the picnic there will be a parade featuring the freshmen students. They will wear their "ratcaps" of red, yellow and gold. Behind the walking freshmen class the upperclassmen members will ride in decorated cars; there will be a prize for the best decorated car.

The three sororities will carry out traditional plans by entertaining their alumni members. The Delta Kappas at the Floridan, the Sigma Thetas at the Terrace, and the Alpha Gammas at the Terrace.

The final event of the activities will be the dance. This will be the spotlight of the celebration.

Bob Porton's orchestra will play from 9 til 12 for the occasion.

Alumni Board of TU Make Plans for Big Homecoming

The board of managers of the alumni of the University of Tampa held its annual meeting at the University last Wednesday night on Nov. 22nd. Bill Moody, president of the alumni presided. The president of the student body, Virginia Smith, was also present.

The group made plans for the annual homecoming to be held Wednesday, Nov. 29th. School will be dismissed at noon in order for the students to escort the alumni about the campus.

The alumni will get together to talk over old times at a picnic supper to be held at the tourist center in back of the school. The cost of each plate will be one dollar. Those on the committee are: Mrs. Crockett Farnell, Mrs. Walker Gilmer, Miss Alice Lee Sewell and Miss Mary Colura. The active students assisting the alumni are Betty Faye Cumble and Manuel Alveriz.

After the picnic supper the alumni will hold their annual election for their officers for the coming year. They will be announced at the dance later in the evening given by the student body. The nominees were put on the ballot by the nominating committee of the board of managers at their meeting Sunday. Additional names may be placed on the ballot by nominations from the floor.

The nominating committee comprised the following members: Crockett Farnell, Earl Hatcher, Mary Colura and George Spoto. The chairman was George Spoto. These members were appointed by Bill Moody. The meeting was held at the home of Crockett Farnell, 201 East Comanche. Ballots were prepared at that time for the election.

SOCIETY

Ask Aunt Carrie

Dear Aunt Carrie:
What's the best way to teach a girl how to swim?

PUZZLED.

Dear Puzzled:

Well, that requires technique. First you take her hand. Then you put your left arm around her waist. Then gently take her left hand and let her paddle. Of course, if its your sister, just push her off the dock. P. S. If a girl looks good in a bathing suit, the boys usually look good, too.

Dear Aunt Carrie:

I never get any exercise anymore. I used to play tennis but I never could seem to get on the ball so I quit. Anyway, it was only a racket. What's your suggestion for exercise?

CRISCO KID.

Dear CK:

You might try any of the following: Jumping at conclusions, letting your nose run, kicking about the way this school is run, or throwing a fit.

Dear Aunt Carrie:

I'm in love with a taxi-driver—he drove me to it. But every time I take my girl friend out with us in his taxi, he always says, "I'd certainly like to meter." How do you think he likes me?

RED RIDER.

Dear Red Rider:

Oh, fare! By the way, you certainly have a gift-of-cab.

Dear Aunt Carrie:

I'm in love with the garbage collector but he's so slop-py. And he always collects my garbage last, which is a dirty trick. How can I make him come clean?

POOR-WHITE-TRASH.

Dear PWT:

Make him pay you to clean up your yard. That ought to rake you in quite a bit.

Dear Aunt Carrie:

I met a cute Lt. at the Nite Club party the D.K.'s had the other nite, but a friend from my home town came in and I had to leave him. How can I get a date with him? He knows where I live.

MORNING GLORIA.

Dear MG:

He left Thursday.

Dear Aunt Carrie: I lost a feather the other nite that I was supposed to bring in to the STP Scavenger Hunt. I spent two hours trying to get it from a pigeon, won't you give it back? Someone said you had it.

MEMBER.

Dear Member: Nope. Guess that's another feather in my cap.

Dear Aunt Carrie: This man shortage is terrible. We never have any men over 17, or under 70. What to do?

HOMEBOY.

Dear Homebody: I thought I explained to you that the Boy Scouts still met on Tuesday nights. But it's not my fault if they only know now to pitch tents instead of woo.

Love,

AUNT CARRIE.

STP Alumnae Are Guests of the Members at Luncheon

The alumnae group of the Sigma Theta Phi sorority entertained alumnae, active members, and pledges at their annual homecoming luncheon Saturday, Nov. 25, at the Tampa Terrace hotel. A Thanksgiving motif was carried throughout the decorations. The centerpiece was a pumpkin filled with fruit. The alumnae who were in charge of arrangements were: Mrs. Don Schersten, Mrs. Edward Gumaer and Alice Lee Sewell.

The alumnae officers are: President—Mrs. Luther Sparkman. Vice President—Mrs. Joe Wilson. Secretary—Mrs. Carl Terry. Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. Ed Gumaer.

Treasurer—Mrs. Henry Clayton. Reporter—Mrs. Don Schersten. A scavenger hunt was held Nov. 17 at the home of Clara Ann Bittman for members, pledges and dates. Prizes were won by Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Bluemie, Lt. Robinson and Lorraine Oglesby.

After the scavenger hunt a buffet was served, which was followed with dancing and other entertainment.

DK's To Entertain The Alumnae at Floridan Hotel

The Delta Kappa sorority will entertain their alumnae at their annual Thanksgiving breakfast tomorrow at the Hillsboro hotel. A Thanksgiving theme will be used throughout, with the navelty place-cards and the centerpiece. Those in charge of arrangements are Rosalie Mathis and Virginia Smith; invitations, Bette Garrison and Gloria Stathis. The alumnae members who wish to attend are asked to get in contact with Mrs. Walker Gilmer, the alumnae president.

Following the breakfast several of the members will take a basket to a needy family in Tampa. Each member will contribute to the basket. Those in charge of the Thanksgiving basket are Kitty Martin and Catherine Bowen.

Last Friday night the officers of Plant Park were guests of the sorority at a nite-club party in the ballroom. Featured on the floor show were Billie Higginbotham, Ruth Hardy, Glenna Hill, Peggy Mack, Catherine Bowen, Virginia Smith, Lois Sanchez, Bette Garrison, Kitty Martin. Rosalie Mathis was mistress of ceremonies.

Harriet Manning and Mary Fulton were hostesses and greeted the guests at the door.

Coca Cola, potato chips and cookies were served throughout the evening by waitresses in frilly aprons. Cynthia Moran and Billie Higginbotham.

DK's Are Winners In Volleyball, Defeating AG's

Intramural Volleyball season closed last Thursday, with the Delta Kappa defeating the Alpha Gamma sorority. This was the championship game for Volleyball Intramurals. Both the D. K. and A. G. had one defeat. The Delta Kappa team won the first game with a score of 15-6, the Alpha Gamma took the second game with a score of 15-10, then the Delta Kappa rallied in the last game to take the championship, with a score of 15-5. There was lots of good old spirit shown at this game and really made all the players and the spectators enjoy themselves.

The Alpha Gamma lineup was as follows: Violet Conte, Marie Bordit, Ebbie Parks, Laura Richards, Evelyn Jewel, Carmen Palecio, and manager Betty Ruth Israelson. The Delta Kappa lineup was as follows: Lois Sanchez, Aquilla Baker, Glenna Hill, Catherine Bowen, Margaret Havlik, Peggy Mack, and the manager, Jayne Lee.

Miss Moffatt has ordered a Loving Cup for Intramural Sports. This cup is to be awarded to the sorority with the greatest number of wins for the current year. The cup will be inscribed with the sorority's name and the year it was won. Every sorority and the non-sorority teams should enter in the competition and try to get this cup. The cup will be theirs for a year and will be worth working for.

The Intramural Basketball will begin the following Thursday after Thanksgiving. All the teams are expected to be ready for action by then. Come on out all you gals and show the good old Tampa U spirit.

Alpha Gamma's Give Homecoming Banquet

The Alpha Gamma sorority held its annual homecoming banquet Monday night at the Tampa Terrace. This banquet is given each year to entertain the alumni. The theme of this banquet was "Thanksgiving," place cards, centerpiece, and autumn colored flowers were used. The committees were composed of Marie Bordit and Violet Conte for the reservations, arrangements were in charge of Dot Jackson and Laura Richards. Pledges, alumni, and regular members attended and a good dinner was enjoyed by all.

Plans are being made for a Christmas party to be held before the holidays.

Brush and Palette Plan To Have Gallery

The Brush and Palette club held its monthly meeting on Nov. 14, discussing plans for having an art gallery in the University of Tampa. The plans voted upon are to set aside one or more of our vacant rooms, exclusively, for the works of art students of Florida. Any student of art may submit his piece d'art to the Brush and Palette club for consideration. This club, by a majority vote, will place the selected work in the gallery.

The Brush and Palette club, under the supervision of Mr. Borchardt, is sponsoring a movement to make Tampa the art center of Florida.

The Florida State Federation of Art will hold its annual art exhibition in Sarasota, Dec. 1-6, inclusive. All members of the Brush and Palette club are invited to attend any one or all days. We heartily urge that you attend this exhibition.

Any student of the University of Tampa who wishes to become a member of the Brush and Palette club must submit a sample of his talent to the club for approval. We are striving to make the Brush and Palette club the best art club in the state.

The Seminole Indian mural, by Mr. Borchardt, in the lobby, has been the object of many admiring eyes, not only by those of the University of Tampa, but by outsiders as well. He is planning to decorate a great deal more wall space with these colorful scenes of Florida history and life. Let us show him how much we appreciate his efforts by giving him an encouraging word now and then.

Newman Club, Dates Have Weiner Roast

The Catholic Newman Club had a wiener roast November 20 at the home of Miss Antoinette Wadsworth, 6207 North Rome. After sitting around the fire and eating the varied refreshments, the group went into the house and danced.

Those in charge of arrangements were Miss Mary Julia Mena and Charlie Cuervo. Others attending were: Miss Hanley, Adviser; Manuel Alvarez, Rosalind Arce, Alice Arias, Marea Bordt, Frank Comparetto, Ronnie Constantine, Jeannie Cushman, Sara Hale, Margaret Havlik, Rose Mary Kelly, John Kersha, Mary Leone, Sam Leto, Antoinette and Mary Licalsi, Duane Locke, Andrew Martinez, Carmen Palacio, Millina Tomasino, and Raymon Younglove.

Fashions

By KITTY MARTIN

Costumes and formals made headlines during the past few days. The D. K. "Night Club Party" and the D. A. R. program were the occasions for a crop of beautiful formals.

Peggy Mack has a new pink taffeta, with full skirt, wide straps over the shoulders to a low-cut back edged in silver embroidery. Dot Mallard's pale yellow net, over a low cut slip of darker taffeta, blended into the pastel shaded chorus, as her voice blended into the harmony of voices. Betty Ruth Israelson's black taffeta with the Irish lace ruffle around the drop shoulder was very becoming.

Others that caught our attention were Ruth Hardy's plaid taffeta skirt and red jersey blouse, Eleanor Fisk's sky-blue moire taffeta, Billie Higginbotham's light blue taffeta with the bustle of ruffles, Barbara Lacey's lavender net with the deeper colored grosgrain straps over otherwise bare shoulders, and Quella Baker's beautiful black velvet and net off-the-shoulder.

Miss Moffatt's starlets modeled some lovely costumes the other evening. Pink chiffon went well with Tony Wadsworth's blond hair. Dot Gonzalez' costumes were almost as beautiful as her dancing; one had yards and yards of flame-colored chiffon; the other, gold cloth top and gold encircled green net skirt with multi-colored sequins.

The "Rhapsody in Blue" dancers wore pretty light blue jersey costumes with fitted top, long snug sleeves, and brief circular skirt. The "Turkey in the Straw" outfits were very cute, especially on Moffatt, the last minute pinch-hitter.

On Other Campuses

Slim waists and hips at the risk of becoming muscle bound is the newest slogan for members of Florence Scott Libbey Hall, women's dormitory at the University of Toledo.

Each night they all come streaming from all parts of the rooms to listen to the record player and bend up and down to the instructions of the speaker on the record.

BOUQUETS TO MISS MOFFATT

Bouquets certainly go to Miss Moffatt for doing such a swell job in working with the alumni and students on homecoming activities. Let's tell her how we appreciate it.

Tampa U. Recalls Memories Of Their Dear Old Alumni

By MARIE GIBSON

Though we are all excited with the ideas and plans for Thanksgiving holidays, and the celebration of homecoming again, you can be assured that the students of Tampa U often think of those who have walked the paths before us. Not many years ago this story consisted of names of places within the United States, but now we realize that we are represented in every corner of the globe. Just as we are wondering where our forerunners are, we imagine you alumni are wondering where your former classmates and friends are.

Among the teaching staff are Olga Martinez, Katherine Perdicaris, Frances Piazza, Emme Jane Sacrey Beynon, Elisa Alvarez, Ruth Morgan, Norma Rollins, Frances Alexander Moshell, Elva Forsgren, Doris Akard Stalaker, Wanda Byrd, Nouna Hitchcock Lee and Martha Powell.

Our contribution to government labor is quite large too—those outside uniform, I mean. Flossie Rogers is working with the Censorship Department in Washington, Kitty Cappello and Arthur Burrows are working at the shipyards in Tampa, Patty Berg is working at an airfield in Greensboro, N. C., Betty Howard is working at Hendricks Field, Sebring, Florida, and Teddy Velousis is chief clerk of the Ration Board in Tarpon Springs.

June Hunt is in Trenton, New Jersey, and we hear Nita Medina is working in Jacksonville. Betty Savu has recently resigned from her job as head of the recreation department in Hollywood, Fla.

Among those working in and around Tampa are Bill Moody, Anne Lazzara—at the Exchange National Bank, Butch Wilson with the National Airlines, Dorothy Thonneson as field secretary for the Tampa Council for Girl Scouts, Jane Hughey as a reporter for the Tribune, and also Peggy Neef; Lucy Lee Marsh is an outstanding reporter for the Times; Dora Ann Berry is working with the Western Union; Ann Moore is working with the American Can Co., and Alice Lee Sewell is working with the concrete company.

Some of our Tally girls this year are: Dorothy Pratt, Emma Mae Murray, Alba Pelaez, Jeanne Hill, Angie Castelland, Charlotte Curry, Dalia Lera, Leila Belle Lee, Ina Gotler.

We have a few on the waiting list—waiting for their husbands to return: Emma Jane hopes Howard will return from Italy soon; Martha Powell doesn't have a husband as yet, but she is waiting for Joe Carr. They plan to be married as soon as he returns. Mary Cantrell Goodsen has been seen carrying her baby girl for walks in the park often. Mrs. Eleanor Mercer Cline expects Pete home from England soon; and Mrs. Ruth Jolly Schersten expects Bob about the same time. Priscilla Williams traveled to California to wait for Jack. Dot (Hill) will join her when Bob Anderson says he is on his way. Celeste Dervaes hopes Jimmy Whitehead will come soon so they can be married.

Betty Jo (Adair) is staying here at home while her husband is on special duty in Florida. Betty Lou and Doyle are having a good time learning to keep house together. He is working for an oil company here. Peggy Bluemle is staying at home while Bill is in Key West. Lois Crespo Buce, a grad of '41, is not letting Lt. Buce get out of sight these days—he has just returned from 28 months overseas. We can't blame her.

Mrs. Davis Greene and daughter are with Elliot at Dale Mabry Field, Tallahassee. Mr. and Mrs. Dick Jubey have a little boy. Mrs. Jubey is the former Patricia Washburn. Marie Lewis Schlichter is in town with her husband.

Cora Shield is working in the accounting department at Sears, and Ann Marie (Hargan) Prytyka is working in the advertising department at Maas while waiting for her husband to return from Hawaii. Leila Farmer is in town and has a baby girl. Gloria Guterrez and Captain Leslie Alderman have a baby boy.

Edenia DeLaney Terry has a son, and Gladys Guthrie Canary has a daughter. Juanita Gerring Kocka has a son, Mary Burgess Clayton has a daughter, Verna Smith has a son.

Among our navy women are Lula Satterfield who is with the communications department at Port Everglades; Phyllis Flannegan, Ellen Mooney, Frances Mathis, Marguerite Guterrez are all at Hunter College, N. Y. Margaret Readding is in Washington—a seaman second class. Jackie Barnard and Ella Mae Dale are both in cadet nurse training at Emory University. Laura Hester Hofman is now attending the Eastman School of Music in Rochester, N. Y., and she and the former Mabel Auginbaugh get to see each other often on weekends. Marion Neil is working with Robertson and Fresh, and hopes Frank will be able to get a discharge from the army to go back into the Marines. If he does, they plan to be married immediately. Frank's brother, Bob, is in the infantry in California. Cherry Konnersman is in school in New York.

Lula Blake Gibson Reich is living with her husband's family in New Jersey. He expects to go overseas soon.

Jewell McWilliams is working with the Pan American Airlines in Miami. Mary Merle Jones Tylander is working at FSCW while her husband is practicing law in Tallahassee.

Dorothy Maritt is working for the Council for the Blind.

Maureen Robles is attending Southern Baptist Seminary in Kentucky.

And now for the men in the armed forces:

Roy Pinch expects to graduate from O. C. S. in Virginia about the middle of next month. Karl Chambers is attending a naval school in Great Lakes; James Gibson is attending a naval maintenance school in Memphis, Tenn.; Billy Webb is in gunnery school in Charleston, S. C.; Bill Mueller is in a naval medical school in Atlanta, Ga.; Bill Gaventa is in a medical school in Philadelphia; Billy Lester is with the Army engineers in Louisiana. Hank is with the Infantry in Blanding; C. M. Barnes is the C. O. of O. C. T., Washington, D. O.; Paul Fernandez is at Enid, Okla., with a base weather unit.

Paul Schraub is playing football with the Maxwell team, and was in the benefit game at Phillips Field the 19th of this month—guess he felt at home! Larry Gunter is with the Infantry overseas, Glen McRae is in the navy—Atlantic; Glen Philson is in the Caribbean; Bobby Poage is a B-17 navigator—overseas; Gene Dooner is a paratrooper; Pvt. Charlie Slocum is in the Pacific along with Buddy Crabtree. Some of the boys in England are: Vic Hatch, Tom and Bob Johnson, R. B. Fordyce, Bob Slek, Claud Hudson and George Jack.

Larry Gunter is in the infantry somewhere overseas, Maj. Madison Post is with the army; Deacon Rains is in New Guinea as a radio operator; George Moore is flying with the navy; Lt. Charles Burrow is with the Air Transport Command; Jimmie Abiri is an electrician's mate 2/c on the U. S. S. Frank Knox; Jackie Brockman and Robert Price are both overseas with the army. Pug Read has received a medical discharge and is in Waterloo, Iowa. Paul McCloskey is entering the Jackson Memorial Hospital in Miami. Bill Brennan and Jimmy Lindsay have recently returned from overseas. Capt. Ben Filipski is at Drew now—he just returned from overseas, too.

Major Louis Zendegui is now commanding officer of the Bartow Airfield and a P-51 pilot. "Buddy" is stationed at Venice, Florida, and is the pilot of a P-40. Johnny Read is in France, and Joe Scruggs is right there too, though Joe was wounded. Albert Jimenez is in Norfolk, and Bill Read is there too—awaiting orders to go to sea. Corp. George Burham is one of the lucky boys stationed in Florida. Walt Shiver is in Jacksonville with his wife.

Hilda Sweat is serving with the Civil Service in England, and Ginger

Roberts is connected with the mobile unit now in France.

Frank McLane is in the Southwest Pacific with the Marines.

I guess that is enough of the calling back of memories. Let's live in the present and future for another year, and hope we will be able to talk with these people personally at the next Homecoming. See you then!

Methodists Hold Thanksgiving Service

The Methodist Students of the University held their traditional Thanksgiving Worship Service in the assembly hall last Sunday at six o'clock. Mrs. Billie Higgenbotham was the leader of the program, and Dr. H. H. Waller, pastor of the Hyde Park Methodist Church was the guest speaker. Miss Dorothy Nylander played "Nearer My God To Thee" on the violin, accompanied by Professor Josef Baker, pianist. A trio composed of Misses Eugenia Exum, Glen-na Hill and Evelyn Jewell sang "Prayer to Thanksgiving," and Marie Gibson led in prayer.

Students in charge of arrangements were Misses Dorothy Jackson and Gladys Ford.

"NOTHING ELSE LIKE IT"

"Letters come from war plant managers telling how a pause for Coca-Cola is welcomed by workers. If you had to stand up to a hot furnace, you'd see the word refreshment in a new light. And as for refreshment, that's what ice-cold Coca-Cola is. No wonder everybody agrees that the only thing like Coca-Cola is Coca-Cola, itself."
