GARRISON NEW ED OF MOROCCAN

Ernest Garrison, known as "Chub" around the campus, has been appointed editor in chief of the 1948 Moroccan, University of Tampa year book, the Student Senate has announced.

The new editor succeeds Doyle Bluemle, last year's editor, and was named to this office on the basis of his interest and participation in school activities.

"Chub" was graduated from Plant High School with the class of 1940, and attended the university for one semester prior to the war. He spent the next four and a half years in the U. S. Marine Corps.

A business administration major and English minor who expects to enter the advertising field upon graduation in 1948, Chub has announced the year book staff appointments. He plans an early beginning of the task of putting into word and picture the story of the university for the current year.

PAN HELLENIC GIVES CHARTER TO ZDP GIRLS

On Oct. 16, the Zeta Delta Phi Sorority received its charter from the Pan Hellenic Council of the University of Tampa, and it thus became the newest sorority on campus. It was organized in the Fall of 1946 as the ZDP Club, and had been on probation until this time.

Dolores Schjaastad was elected president, and the vice presidents are Louise Aparicio and Cecile Lampton. Katherine Sible is secretary and Meredith Weber is the treasurer. Doris Johnson is the Pan Hellenic representative.

Other members are Jeanne Bradley, Jeannie Poor and Susan McIntosh.

NANCE GETS TYRONE FOR '48

Returning from a two weeks' visit and speaking engagement in Los Angeles, Calif., yesterday (Oct. 26) Dr. Nance reported a profitable and interesting visit.

The purpose of President Nance's visit was to address the Annual Convention of the National Medical Society. Dr. Nance delivered two addresses to the convention and succeeded in getting the convention for Tampa next year. He had a conference with prominent men of the medical profession and reports that the National Medical Society still maintains original intentions of establishing a medical college in Tampa.

While in California, Dr. Nance visited the Twentieth Century Fox Studios as a luncheon guest of Henry King, movie director, and reported that Tyrone Power is enthusiastic about delivering the commencement address to the senior class of the University of Tampa this year, providing he is not in production at that time.

Dr. Nance is leaving tonight to fly to Miami. He will be the guest of Governor Caldwell to attend the dedication of the birthplace of U. S. International Aviation on Tuesday morning, Oct. 28, 1947, at 9 A. M. The ceremonies will be held at Meacham Field, Key West, Fla. Dr. Nance will also attend a dinner commemorating the 20th anniversary of U. S. International Aviation inaugurated on Oct. 28, 1927, with a flight by Pan American World Airways, carrying mail and passengers between Key West, Fla., and Havana, Cuba. The dinner will be given at the Columbus Hotel, Miami, Fla., Tuesday evening, Oct. 28, 1947 at 7 o'clock. The group will fly to Havana for lunch on the 28th.

Dr. Nance will return to Tampa after the dinner in Miami the night of Oct. 28.

BLUMENEAU ASKS STUDENT AID IN CLOTHING DRIVE

The great need for clothing in France and other European countries was stressed in an Assembly of the Student Body on Tuesday, November 21.

Inspired by her own experience during and after the war in her native Luxembourg, Miss Renee Blumeneau, a new instructor at the University, presented a play by which the students of Tampa University may send extra clothing to needy families in Europe. Miss Blumeneau asked everyone to bring all old and unused clothing or blankets to her office as soon as possible. She has undertaken the responsibility of cleaning, packing and sending them overseas.

Because of the urgent need of clothing for the impending Winter and Miss Blumeneau's desire to have them arrive by Christmas, all students are urged to help their needy brothers overseas by getting behind and supporting this plan at once.

All packages will be sent in the name of the University of Tampa.

PARK'S ANNUAL RECITAL HERE TONIGHT AT 8:30

SENATE MAKING PLANS FOR HOP

Plans for a big homecoming dance, to be held Nov. 22, are being by the student Senate. Stevens Solak's band will provide the music and a committee has been appointed to find a suitable place for it to be held.

Preparations are also being made for the formation of a Student Faculty Congress, which will meet to discuss problems that may arise pertaining to the students. A faculty member will be appointed by Dean M. C. Rhodes, while the students will be chosen by the Senate from the Senate.

The Tampa Recreation Hall, which the Senate has been working to make a success of, is offered only to the University of Tampa students and their friends on Tuesday nights. Recreational facilities provided include dancing, ping-pong, letter-writing, and a coke bar, plus many other facilities at the disposal of the university students. The hall is located on the corner of North B and North Boulevard.

In a recent Senate meeting, the following officers were selected: Lonnie Vidal, vice president; Richard McIver, treasurer, and Miriam Chastain as secretary.

OPEN HOUSE IS HELD AT REC.

The City Recreation Department will hold open house for all University of Tampa students every Tuesday from 4 P. M. until 11 P. M. at North Boulevard Recreation Center.

A snack bar, games and facilities for dancing will be provided for University guests, according to Miss Mary Ellen Nelson, supervisor of the Center. Veterans are specially invited to attend with their wives and children.

"We will hold University of Tampa Night for about a month to see if enough interest is shown in the program to warrant continuing it," Miss Nelson said. "Since about 50 students came to the first gathering last Tuesday, we are confident that the program will be a success."

UBS Expands and Calls For Ten More News Reporters

By BRUCE C. ATKINS

The University News Bureau this year is off to a flying start said Prof. Roy A. McGillivray, and the amount of news material has so increased that new personnel is needed. This is an excellent opportunity for persons wanting to get into the field of radio. The Bureau is growing rapidly, and anyone who has had some experience on high school newspapers or on other newspapers should contact Professor McGillivray in Room 263. Professor McGillivray also stated that there is an opening for 10 new staff members, and those without experience who would like to get into this field are invited to come up and talk it over. This is a fine way, especially for freshmen, to show their school spirit.

The News Bureau sent out five hundred cards to the Alumni and has established a new contact with the Alumni Association. Chief radio newsmen from the local stations are giving their time and effort to make the news program a success.

The First News Broadcast

The first news broadcast was held on Friday, October 17, at 1:15 P. M., over WFLA and was heard throughout the lobby. It was unusual in that instead of one news commentator there were three news commentators, each giving an item of news in succession. These news commentators, although students of the University of Tampa, were experienced announcers. Hugh Sheppard has worked with a professional network in New York,

Tau Delta Sigma Newest Frat

Tau Delta Sigma, newly accepted fraternity on the campus, was formally presented to the student body at the Oct. 21 assembly.

Officers of the group, which has nine members, are David Baskowitz, president; George Robinson, III, secretary; Irving Elkin, treasurer, and William Watkins, chaplain. Other members are Norman Artig, Gene Fogle, James Douglas, Victor Leff and Henry Hermanski. H. G. Baker is faculty advisor.

An installation dinner will be given soon. A calendar of social activities for the year is being planned, and the group is working on a program of athletic activities which will enable Tau Delta Sigma to compete in sports with other fraternities on the campus.

HAY FEVER TO BE SMASH HIT

By STUART FALCONER

I saw the first without-script rehearsal of "Hay Fever" last night, and this morning I am still walking about the halls chuckling.

The leading role of Judith Bliss, a retired actress, is superbly played by Katie Sible. Her novelist husband is Joe Russo. Their two spoiled, self-centered children are played by Victor Leff and Mildred Girthrie.

Four weekend guests who stumble in on this Bohemian madhouse are a diplomat, Tom Carlin; an athlete, Wylie Bowyer; an innocent teen-ager, Barbara O'Berry, and a woman of the world, Mike Royer.

The amazing situations that ensue in the Bliss home are the most completely funny that I have ever seen.

Most of the cast I have recognized from Hedda Gabler last year, but the three newcomers to the group more than amply uphold the traditions of university drama.

To Be Debut Of First Symphony

By BETTY CATHERINE DEKLE

Stephen F. Park will conduct his Symphony No. 1 when he presents his Annual Composition Recital at 8:30 tonight in the ballroom of the University of Tampa.

All the selections which will comprise the program are compositions of Mr. Park, who is the associate professor of music theory at this college.

This is the first symphony Mr. Park has written and it is his greatest work since his composition of his first concerto, which was written prior to his entry in the army. The first movement of this symphony, Lento-Allegro ma non troppo, was composed on the islands of Saipan and Tinian while Mr. Park was based there with the army. The other two movements, Allegretto con grazioso, and Allegro, were written last spring after his return from the service.

The first movement in a condensed version was used as background music for the Dance Symphony which was presented in the spring of 1946.

Mr. Park, contrary to many composers, does not wait for an inspiration to write. He plans what he wants to write, why he wants to write it and then he commences work on the composition. He said in planning this fall recital he could not wait for an emotional inspiration for he had already planned what type of selections he wanted to include on the program. So he began work on his ideas and now the complete works are ready to be presented to the public. Mr. Park's theory of "perspiration rather than inspiration" has produced some highly acclaimed works.

A native of Austin, Minnesota, Professor Park is married and has three children. He and his family reside at 102-B South Westland Ave. Mr. Park received his bachelor's degree at the University of Nebraska in 1929. He obtained his masters degree in composition at the University of Michigan in 1937. He has studied composition with Doty, Krenek, and Ross Lee Finney, and now Mr. Park is serving as president of the Florida Composers' League.

The selections that he has chosen to be presented on the program tonight are as follows:

Pastorale-Guarettie for flute and strings. Flute, David Bennett; violin, Jeanne Wiltse; viola, Lyman Wiltse; cello, Kathleen Barkley Wiltse.

Bagatelles — for piano. Margaret Smith, Song Suite from the Rubaiyat, "O, Come With Old Khayyam," "The Grape," "The Moving Finger Writes," "So Red the Rose," "If Today Be Sweet." Glenna Hill Beynon—Soprano, String Quartette in D—Allegretto, Scherzo, Allegretto. Wiltse String Quartette.

Symphony No. 1—(in three movements)—Lento Allegro ma non troppo, Allegretto con grazioso, Allegro . . . University of Tampa Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Stephen Park.

Who's Who For '48 Winners

The Dean's Office has announced the winners of the election for Who's Who in American Colleges for 1948. They are: Seniors . . . Doyle Bluemle, Miriam Chastain, Carmen Palacio, Paul Straub, Pat Tallant, and Leonard Vidal. Juniors . . . Peggy Anderson, Martha Jackson, Dot James, James McNab, James Phillips, and Joan Schwab.

LACK OF FUNDS DELAYS BLDGS.

The construction of the two new classroom buildings on campus has been delayed due to lack of sufficient funds, Dr. E. C. Nance has announced.

Dr. Nance also made public his plans for reconditioning the old passenger elevator, and for the construction of safety gates and repairs on the freight elevator.

THAT OLE FEELIN'

He had been drunk. They were all drunk. It wasn't long before he realized that this wasn't all there was to life. You couldn't live without money, at least not very well—not the way he wanted to live. He missed the luxurious living room at home, the seductively lit dining room, the voices of the gang, and the folks. He had had all these things so long that he needed them now.

Barren dormitory room, chatter of adolescent voices in the hallways, teachers nagging, roaches, and all those unwanted hitches in the run of life; these were not the worst by all means. Something had to be done about it.

It is after 5 P. M. when the day's finished and you are through schooling so to speak, but actually it was just then beginning. Books, books, themes, supplementary reading, sessions with the boys, what was it all amounting to anyway?

Only a few days before, the Student Senate had spoken about helping students in orientation and the like; the Frats of establishing good will; the Pan Hellenic suggesting more courtesy and tact on the part of students at social functions; Math teachers giving extra time to students behind in their work; faculty addressing him as "X" and not Mr. "X" to restore a closer relationship between faculty and student; individual attention, but how did all this help him? Why was he here?

It was all like the words without the music, but no answer. Another aspirin. A slow chaser.

That loud speaker, does it have to squawk just now? His quarters, that's it, he'd go there. Quarters—much better than room; more home-like. They were all alike up there anyway: eight feet square with a window or so, table, chair, bed or cot (with the springs tied to the iron bed support so that his anatomy parts would not touch the floor), and a clothes closet. The floor and walls were of that same cold brick plaster that the entire building was made of. The room looked like a warehouse—winter suits, summer suits, wet towels, trophies, shoes, letters unanswered, mirror, cigarettes, luggage, an early edition of the local newspaper, a book by Hemmingway, nineteenth empty fifth, razor, and Lord knows what else. How did he get all this stuff anyway? Yet he smiled, sort of pleased that he could be that sloppy—and dozed.

The sun was casting a radiant glare on the silver minaret outside the window. The bell! Oh, he'd be late. The students were already herding to assembly. He couldn't be late. But why? That's it, Yeah, HE had it too—That Old Spirit one gets just being around Tampa U. So that's what all that stood for? Now he knew. They're right! "A Little Learning IS a dangerous thing"—It takes a lot of it. He'd get it.

HOMECOMING

Well, Kiddies, the time has come to get out and do or die for good old Alpha Cholera . . . in other words, Homecoming is just around the corner. As you all know, this is THE event of the year. Alumni will descend on our venerable institution, lovingly revisiting old haunts (not the teachers, places) and wistfully breathing "Alma Mater." It's up to us to show our guests the best time they ever had at old T. U. By doing this, we too, will be giving ourselves a rousing good time. Let's all make Homecoming something to remember.

POPPING THE QUESTION

Question: What Improvements do you think should be made at the University of Tampa?

Joan Schwab—I think we should have lockers for the students. I also think we need more school spirit.

Tom Bailey—I think they should take out the museum to make more room for additional classrooms and students.

S. H. Carbin—One of the primary improvements would be a school gym where students could take part and conduct most of the social and athletic activities.

Nelson Jones—I think the recarpeting of the floors and more furniture in the lobby would be the greatest improvement. The exterior of the school should also be improved.

Bill Stalnaker—I think a swimming pool is badly needed because the University should have an aquatic team. Also a crew team would be beneficial, as would lounge chairs on the front porch.

Doris Miller—I think they should have music in the lobby at all times. We also need better places to park our cars.

Bernie Cohen—The school should receive some type of recognition to make it more widely known. This can be done by advocating a large athletic program, with emphasis on football or gaining accreditation.

NOTICES

The Dean's Office requests all students to read the bulletin boards for notices concerning pictures to be made for records in the Dean's Office. Students should report to the latter for an application for respective classes posted to have pictures made.

The University of Tampa now has 742 G. I. students, including P. L. 16 and P. L. 346.

The Business Office is the "Lost and Found Department."

Social News

RELIGIOUS ORGANIZATIONS

The Canterbury Club gave a picnic Sunday, Oct. 26 at the Hillsborough State Park.

Those on the food committee were Credo Schwab, Madge Kleinhammer, Nelson Jones, and Isabel Bennet. Frank Dombey was in charge of transportation. Faculty advisor to the club, Rev. Charles E. Wood, chaperoned.

Earlier in the week, Sunday, Oct. 19, the club attended an 8 o'clock Communion at St. Johns Episcopal Church. The service was followed by a breakfast.

Those present were Nelson Jones, Victor Fresh, Credo Schwab, William Bush, Dee Robinson, "Chub" and Barbara Garrison, Myrt Sperry, Margie Stalaland, and Joan Schwab.

The Presbyterian Student Union celebrated its first meeting of the year Oct. 14 with a coke party. Plans were discussed for closer affiliation with the Presbyterian churches of Tampa.

Officers elected for the coming semester were Armando Rodriguez, president; Jeanne Wiltse, vice president; Betty Trimble, secretary; Charles Crompton, treasurer; and Mr. Jesse Keene, faculty advisor.

The next meeting will be held Wednesday, Oct. 27 in the Presbyterian Room. All members and those interested in becoming members are invited.

The Methodist Student Organization had a swimming party and picnic Saturday, Oct. 18 at Raymond Spear's lake home. Those who attended were: Dr. Herbert Laub, Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Denny, Rev. and Mrs. W. L. Joyner, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pinch, Lucy Peleaz, Edith Morgan, Betty Dumas, Nita Benton, June Anderson, Peggy Anderson, Laura Meadows, Pancho Stevenson, Helen Gilliam, Elvira Blackwell, Albert McNab, Nelson Jones, David Deen, John Willows, George Robinson, George Harford, and James Cantrell.

SORORITIES AND CLUBS

Alpha Mu Tau, provisional chapter of Sigma Alpha Iota, national honorary music society, held its first social meeting Oct. 21 in Prof. Lyman Wiltse's studio.

The short informal business meeting was followed by solos by Jean Wiltse, violinist, and Betty Trimble, pianist.

The date of the next social event which is to honor faculty members, their wives, and Alpha Mu Tau patronesses is as yet unannounced.

The Delta Kappa sorority held its annual Night-club dance, Friday, Oct. 17, at the Elk's Club from 10 P. M. till 1 A. M. Three hundred guests danced to the music of Steve Solak and his orchestra.

Pat Tallant, Tampa U. song stylist, and Bill Rhodes, magician, entertained during the floor show. Each fraternity and sorority participated in the entertainment by singing their own organization's song.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiltse, Dr. and Mrs. Griffin, and Mr. and Mrs. Sheppard chaperoned.

Decorations were on a college theme with colored pennants from various colleges making the room a "College Inn." Adding to the atmosphere were red "Delta Kappa" match folders and white napkins inscribed "College Inn."

Newly elected D. K. officers are Margaret Anderson, president; Peggy Anderson, vice president; Dorothea Harra, secretary; Dorothy James, treasurer; Evelyn Hopper and Leone Jones, sergeant at arms; Mary Jo Glenn, historian; Nan Vincent, intramural manager; Gene Frances Caraher, corresponding secretary; June Nance, reporter; and Pat Tallant, Pan Hellenic representative.

Sigma Theta Phi sorority held its annual Harvest Ball Oct. 24 from 9 'till 12 in the ballroom of the University. Music for the costumed dancers was by Steve Solak and his orchestra. Prizes were awarded by Dr. Laub to the persons with the most realistic Harvest costumes.

The Harvest theme was carried out by decorations of moss, pumpkins, scare-crows, corn stalks and bales of hay. Those in charge of decorations were Madge Kleinhammer, Elena Riviero, and Betty Blitch.

Chaperoning were Dr. and Mrs. H. G. Baker, Miss Charlotte Thompson and Miss Thelma Jones.

A luncheon in honor of the Sigma Theta Phi sponsor, Miss Charlotte Thompson, was held at the Tampa Yacht and Country Club Saturday, Oct. 18.

Following a fall theme, decorations consisted of fall leaves as place cards, bronze chrysanthemums and yellow gladioli as a centerpiece upon the main table.

Miss Thompson was presented with a gift from the sorority. Among the invited guests were Miss Thelma Jones, Mrs. Calvin Baker, Mrs. C. V. Handley, Mrs. Fred Manuey, Mrs. Juanita Kolka, and the Misses Betty Jane Brownsey, Nancy Taylor, Marion Mackey, Vivienne Nelson, Joanne Stewart, Alice Arias, Mary Mena, Barbara Hammett, Dee Robinson, Kathryn Wilson, Mary Jessica, Barbara Pinard and Lorraine Oglesby.

The FTA had a get-acquainted party Tuesday, Oct. 28, to enable all members to become acquainted with one another.

Members of the committee in charge of the party were Clifford Mott, Rose Beiro, Vincent Cacciatore, Blanche Higham, and Bruce Atkins.

Boots and Saddles Club is being re-organized this semester. The first meeting was held Tuesday Oct. 21. Officers will be elected at the next meeting.

This year's club activities will center around the Tampa Yacht and Country Club Stables. All students interested in riding or learning to ride are invited to attend weekly meetings which

CHORUS BEGINS XMAS NUMBERS

Under the direction of Prof. Lyman Wiltse, music department head, the University Chorus has already begun preparation of songs for the traditional Christmas Candlelight Service.

The chorus is also preparing choral novelties to sing in regularly scheduled assemblies or before local clubs and other organizations in the city. At present the chorus is working on Negro spirituals, Russian church music, and several carols.

The chorus this year consists of about 40 members who, under Prof. Wiltse's direction, are presently engaged in developing choral technique—correct pitch, timing, harmonious blending of voices, and other phases of choral work.

360 REGISTER FOR COURSES

Dr. D. W. Robinson, Dean of the Adult Education Department, announced that over 360 persons have enrolled in the different courses offered in that department, and that, although the courses primarily are for adults, quite a number of Tampa University students are taking advantage of the opportunity to further their education.

Spartan Sports

By HOWARD JONES

This week Gerry Scott, assistant sports editor, has taken on the task of picking some of the college football scores. Gerry has picked Florida over Furman by 6; Rollins over Stetson by 12; Notre Dame over Navy by 18; Army over Washington and Lee by 12; Boston College over Georgetown by 6; Kentucky over Alabama by 12; Penn State over Colgate by 18; Pennsylvania over Princeton by 12; and Michigan over Illinois by 18. That last one puts Scott out on a limb.

Another blow has fallen on Tampa's basketball squad. Rene Alvarez, letterman from last year's squad, has resigned. That leaves Coach Adams with only three lettermen to build his squad around.

After seeing every intramural football team in action, this column will put itself on the spot by picking the Buccaneers to walk off with the championship. The Buc's have one of the finest running attacks seen on the field this year.

An ill wind seems to blow over the basketball squad this year. The loss of three lettermen should have been enough bad luck but now we find termites are hindering the team. Coach Adams had planned to take his boys indoors to practice at the Trailer Park Gym but at the last moment he finds termites have feasted on the floor. Repairs are necessary.

One of the best football games to be played in Tampa this year will take place between Florida and Furman this Saturday. This game gives the Tampa people a good chance to see many West Coast boys perform for the old Orange and Blue.

A complete basketball schedule has not yet been released but the first game will be played at the Armory, December 2 against Edison Junior College of Fort Myers. Let's hope the student body supports the team better than in previous years.

SPARTANS NEAR PEAK CONDITION

The Spartan basketball team this past week were getting to a point where their condition was not affected by scrimmage, even though the weather continued to be warm. The majority of the squad showed definite improvement in their physical condition after three weeks of hard work.

Coach Miller Adams was not ready to commit himself on a starting lineup, but indications are that Dave Barksdale is a fixture at his forward position. Due to the loss of Rene Alvarez, George Harris has been working in the center slot. "Broom" Escobar, former all-state from Hillsborough High, is leading contender for the left forward job vacated by Bob Fabian.

At the guard post, Lin Hall, Carlos McNair and Louis Alvarez may alternate. Herb Elkins is in and out and around in both guard and forward positions. Elkins, a sharp ball handler and great floor player may be capable of unseating any guard or forward on the team.

This year's schedule calls for an opening game here in Tampa with Edison College from Fort Myers on December 2nd. The next day, the Spartans journey to Gainesville to take on Sam McAllister's fighting Gators. The last game between Florida and Tampa was a see-saw affair with the winner in doubt until the final minutes, with the Gators taking a last minute victory.

Beta Chi's, SKN's, And Buccaneers Lead Opponents

By GERALD SCOTT

Sparked by the brilliant play of Bud Rhinert, the Beta Chis defeated the Ace Club on Tuesday, Oct. 21, by a 12-0 score.

The Chi's first score came when Rhinert intercepted a pass and ran it deep into Ace Club territory. On the next play he tossed to Wright for six points. The conversion failed. The second tally came when the Chi's completed a pass which was good for 60 yards. Rhinert then bucked over from the two. The attempted conversion again failed and the score remained 2-0. The game ended shortly after.

Independents Lose

Also on that day the Skins defeated Rothkrugs Independents, 12-0. David Barksdale scored first for the Skins on a pass from Don Ohlson. Dick Saxon later connected with Fred Barksdale for another score. Roger Birt converted both extra points and the Skins lead 14-0. The final two points were scored when Clanton tagged Rothkrugs in the end zone for a safety. Final score: SKN-16, Independents-0.

On Thursday, Oct. 23, the Buccaneers outscored the Tau Omega, 9-6. The T. O.'s scored on the initial running play of the game when Bob Grimsly threw a long pass to Eston Hope. But—the strong Bucs refused to be outdone and scored when Blount passed to Louis Alvarez, rangy pirate end, to tie the score. Blount then passed to Monk Mills for the extra point and the T. O.'s trailed 6-7 as the half ended.

In the third quarter, a bad pass from center left Bob Grimsly stranded in the end zone. Alvarez quickly tagged him and the Buccaneers led 9-6.

A closely fought fourth quarter followed, but the Bucs' defense proved invincible, and they held their two point lead as the game ended. Final score: Buccaneers 9, Tau Omegas-6.

Another contest on Oct. 23 found a rejuvenated Rho Nu Delta team emerge victorious for the first time in two years. The 6-0 win was at the expense of the Kappa Sigma Kappas.

Both teams were held scoreless during the first half of the game, but on the very first play of the third quarter Joe Gomez took a long aerial from Tony Ippolito, which was good for the only score of the game.

The Skins returned to the gridiron Oct. 23 and downed the Ace Club 12-6 in a closely contested battle. Ohlson passed to Hayes and later to Barksdale for both Skin touchdowns. Todd tallied for the Ace Club on a long pass from Escobar.

The final game of the day found the high flying Beta Chi nosing out the Rho Nu Deltas by a 12-6 count.
