T. U. Bids Farewell To 70 Seniors

Spartan Nine Wins 2 Games In Pensacola

All 3 Are Won in Extra Innings Full
Of Drama and Thrill

By TED BRAVAKIS

The Spartan baseball team closed its 1941 season by defeating the Naval Air Base two out of three games in a series played at Pensacola last week.

In the first game, Forster pitched the sphere to keep the Fliers in check for eight and a half innings as the Spartans batsmen supported him with 8 runs. The fatal ninth inning brought defeat to the Spartans as the Fliers rallied to score a 9-to-8 victory in the last frame.

After the first defeat the Spartans took hold and defeated the Naval Fliers in the second game of the series. The Spartan batting power correlated with John Clement's "fast ball" pitching to bring an easy victory over the first-game victors. Doug Forster, Paul Straub, Arnie Holmes and Joe Magadan wielding heavy bats to account for 11 crisp hits.

"Iron Man Clements"

With the series at a deadlock with one victory for each team, the Spartans again showed their effective offensive punch to defeat the Fliers 14 to 10.

"Iron-man" Clements again took the mound after only one day's rest to throw anti-aircraft shots to keep the Fliers well in hand. Al Jimenez faced the Pensacola pitcher seven times and connected for five hits and accounted for six Spartan runs. Forster and Straub continued to show their accurate batting power to total four hits apiece.

The Spartan victory in the three-game series with Pensacola is very significant in college baseball because the U. S. Fliers have played and defeated the Pensacola Southern association, a minor league team, and also Dothan, Ala. Other teams on their schedule were Purdue, Alabama and the University of Florida.

After the games, Coach Miller's only statement was, "We played the entire three-game series using only 11 men. Forster and Clements alternated on the mound while the other played in the outfield."

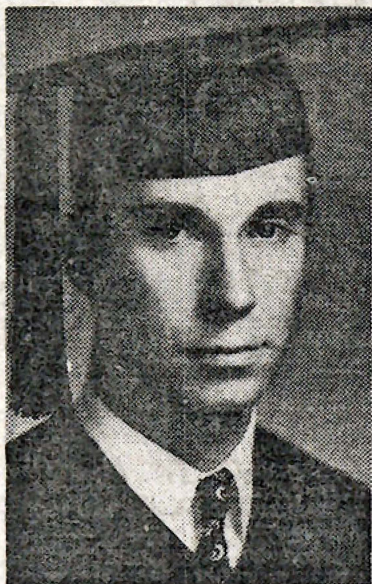

Phelps Announces Plans for Aerial Summer Courses

The University of Tampa will continue its program of aviation training through the summer with a full course of primary and secondary civilian pilots' training, offered under the government-sponsored CAA set-up, Willard B. Phelps, coordinator, announced yesterday.

The primary course may be completed in eight or 10 weeks, including a minimum of 35 hours' flying time and 72 hours of ground school instruction, leading to a private pilot's license.

Minaret Has New Staff This Week

With the journalism class taking over for the last issue of The Minaret of this term, Miss Mary Merle Jones is presented as editor for the edition; Miss Alice June Wright and Jay Sanders, managing editors; Miss Celeste Dervaes, society editor, and Ted Bravakis, sports editor.

Summer Term To Run For Six Weeks

Dates Are Set for June 16-July 25
To Meet Requests

The University of Tampa summer session for this year will cover a six weeks period instead of the customary eight weeks. The term will run from June 16 through July 25.

Many leading colleges have adopted this short term because it permits public school teachers to meet requirements as to summer school attendance and still have a vacation period, or it permits them to attend a second six weeks term elsewhere after the first term at the university.

The same program of courses that are announced in the summer session catalogue will be offered, with daily class periods extended to an hour and twenty minutes.

Recreation and Sports

An addition to the university's summer program is a series of informal activities including beach trips, dances, discussion group meetings, and individual and group sports.

Interest among teachers here is centered in a reading clinic providing diagnostic and remedial work in reading for elementary and high school students to be conducted during the summer term.

H. Oliver Ellison, of Pittsburgh, recipient of a special grant from the Frick Educational Commission to the University of Tampa, is a specialist in this field and will assist in this work.

Walter Metcalf, '39, T. U. Debater, Dies

Walter Livingstone Metcalf, 24, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Walter Metcalf, died Tuesday, May 27, at his home, 2203 Florida avenue. Funeral services were held yesterday morning at the Greenman funeral home, and burial was in the Garden of Memories cemetery.

Walter was graduated from the University, "cum laude," in 1939, and was a member of the debating team. He was a member of the honor society at Hillsborough high school, where he was graduated.

He was a native of Cedar Falls, Iowa. Survivors are his father, pastor of the First Congregational church, his mother and a brother, John S. Metcalf, a student at Grinnell college, Grinnell, Iowa, this month.

It's Our Lucie!

But Her Eyes Are No Longer Glued To
The Carpet

By JAY SANDERS

It's a scoop! It's sensational. At last the hour has come, et cetera. At last has come the real privilege of revealing the most riotous renegade since the revolution, that rebellious little rebel—That's right!—Lucie Lee Marsh.

About four years ago this capricious cyclone (to be) hit these mighty portals. Slowly but surely this timid infant learned about life, and, believe it or not, in her sophomore year she actually mustered up enough courage to scoot across the lobby, with her eyes glued to the carpet.

Ah! but it was in her Junior year this thing began; yes, slowly and surely the symptoms developed. But what would it be? It? Glamour? Oomph? Or a first class case of Hmph? Whatever you call it, after she had it she was never the same; no, never.

And now a sophisticated Senior?—Well, let's see—What's that coming down the stairs three steps at a time?—no it can't be—Who's that ballet

(A Message to the Students at the Close of the Academic Year)

These are great moments in your lives. I wish it might be possible for us to have the echo of the applause "roll from soul to soul" around the world, and that the vibration of this spontaneous acclaim might replace the staccato of machine guns in the war-torn world. Moments like these are a part in the chain of life. I like to feel that youth is emblematic of the words of John Burroughs when he said—

"The waters know their own and draw The brook that springs in yonder height;

So flows the good with equal law Unto the soul of pure delight."

I like to think of education as something which comes from sources deeper and richer than mere books. I think it should be the outpouring of all of the vitalities of life—that "unite to give me faith that nothing dies." Surely the school of tomorrow must unfold a panorama of vital personal growth along the horizons of human achievements, so that those who come after may aspire nobly, adventure daringly and serve humbly.

We all realize that it is not alone

Alpha Gams Win Title in Intramurals

Take 29 Points in Games, D. K.'s Are Second With 25

The Alpha Gammas have won the intramural championship for the year 1940-1941. With a total of 29 points they nosed out the Delta Kappas, who came in second with 25 points. Other standings were: Sigma Theta's, 22 points; Freshmen, 5 points, and Plebes, 2 points.

The A. G.'s will be presented an intramural cup at the first assembly of next semester. Letters also will be presented at this time to the girls who have earned them throughout the year by their participation in girls' sports.

The intramural championship was determined by the outcomes in volleyball, softball, swimming, badminton, shuffleboard, tennis and bowling.

Final results of softball were: D. K.'s first place, A. G.'s second, and S. T. P.'s third. The A. G.'s took both first and second in badminton with Marie Sherman and Nell Clemons as winners.

Next year there will be many of the girl athletes missing. Graduation claims Frances Alderman, Celeste Dervaes, Delina Diaz, Dolores Mendez, Odessa Dietrich, Emma Jane Sacrey, Margie Segall, Frances Sessions, Jackie Jameson, Juanita Guerra and Frances Mathis.

Baptist Students To Attend Retreat

Five University of Tampa students will attend the southwide Baptist student retreat at Ridgecrest, N. C., June 11-19. They are Mary Eleanor Mercer, Alice June Wright, Florence Moore, Bill Gaventa and Billy Wester.

Leaving Gainesville early June 10, the entire Florida group of about 50 students will travel to Ridgecrest in school buses. The round trip, including transportation, room and board, will cost about $24.

At the last council meeting in May, definite plans were made for the Tampa and Southern B. S. U. councils to hold a joint fall retreat at state park September.

The B. S. U. library books will be available this summer for circulation. Students may secure them by contacting Betty McCord.

Graduates To Get Diplomas Tuesday A.M.

University To End
Its Tenth Year With Graduation Program

By ALICE JUNE WRIGHT

Bidding farewell to the spacious halls and silver minarets, Tampa U.'s 70 seniors will climax their college careers when they receive diplomas from President Mooney Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

Leading the graduation procession will be two outstanding juniors, David Webb and Gloria Gutierrez, under the direction of head marshal, Dr. C. Herbert Laub.

That morning students of the University of Tampa will meet two famous Americans who will receive honorary degrees from the institution.

They are George William Gerwig, nationally known educator, and Arthur Holly Compton, noted physicist.

He was to have dedicated the Hall of Aviation in the foyer of the university library. The dedication has been postponed until next fall.

Byrd Unable to Attend

Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd, a third one upon whom a degree was to have been conferred, notified President Mooney yesterday that he had been called on an emergency defense job and would be unable to attend.

Seniors clad in caps and gowns will attend the baccalaureate address Sunday at 4 p. m. in the municipal auditorium. The Rev. Marshall Woodson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will be the speaker.

Immediately after the baccalaureate, seniors will attend their last tea in the university ballroom when they are entertained by the faculty women's club.

Class Day Monday

Monday, class day, will be the final chance for seniors to have their college fun. And they will when Lucie Lee Marsh reads the class history and Jack Goodson gives the class prophecy. And Prexy Zeno Stalaker will get in the last word—the class oration. After the class day exercises in the auditorium, seniors will plant the traditional class ivy.

Monday afternoon Dean and Mrs. Sanford and Dean and Mrs. Bunting will entertain seniors at a garden party at the Sanford home—or in the university ballroom if the weather is bad. That night the University of Tampa orchestra will give a concert for seniors, their relatives and friends in the auditorium at 8:30 o'clock.

Sigma Theta Phi's To Install Officers At Annual Banquet

New officers for the coming year will be announced at the annual installation banquet of the Sigma Theta Phi sorority tomorrow night at the Columbia restaurant in Ybor City.

Seniors of the sorority who will be graduated are to be special guests. They are the Misses Marie Mitchell, Jackie Jameson, Genevieve Sultenfuss, Florence Flanders, Juanita Guerra, Sarah Morgan and Mrs. J. J. Simmons.

The committee on arrangements and decorations consists of the Misses Gloria Gutierrez, Juanita Guerra and Louise Griffin. Miss Caroline Melber, faculty adviser, and Miss Charlotte Anne Thompson, sponsor, will chaperon the affair, that will begin at 7 o'clock.

Those planning to attend are the Misses Beverly Bond, Maxine Graf, Anne Marie Hargan, Marion Neil, Lorraine Nicholson, Elva Parodie, Norma Rollins, Alice Lee Sewell, Dorothy Thonnesen, Wanda Waters, Catherine Whiteside, Gloria Gutierrez, Juanita Guerra and Louise Griffin.

A FINAL TRIBUTE TO THE SENIORS

Graduation is almost here. And to you Seniors, who are leaving, a parting wish.

Our hearts are full as we look back over the happy years you have spent with us. You have helped us on our way and we have learned to love and respect all of you. You have been the leaders; we, the followers.

Now as you go out into the world, our hearts go out to you in wishing you all the success in the world.

And when you find yourself thinking of days gone by, we hope those spent at Tampa U. will be remembered as some of the most precious moments of your life.

Farewell, Seniors, our hats are off to you!

ALL OUT FOR SPARTANS

The school year has come to an end, but the Spartan Gridders are just beginning their training for the '1941-42 season. Coach Stewart has announced that he demands all his boys to return in September in the best of physical condition.

Coach Stewart has been issuing football shoes and other equipment for the boys to use in their summer work-outs. The Coach said practice will begin Sept. 1, at Plant Field.

Stewart pointed out that with the summer work-outs the Spartans would have an edge over their opponents in the contests of the coming season.

In the Social Spotlight

It's the old story of "What Price graduation" over in Tarpon Springs, as a whole family of Prices are walking down the long, long trail that leads only to a diploma.

There's a Price youngster taking an A. B. from elementary school; another taking his doctor's degree from junior high, and a third wearing the cap and gown of dear old T. S. H. S., while a fourth, the only girl of the Price gang, is taking an M. S. (master of singing) here at our own Tampa U. Then to cap off the affairs of the Price family, another brother has just been promoted also—to first-class seaman. He's in the navy.

Spotlight extends a generous handshake and congratulations to Johnny Kaufman, deserving president of Beta Chi, announced at the bowery brawl (since when an issue of the Minaret has not been issued). The Spot looked high and low for a picture of Johnny, but it was unavailable.

Spotlight recommends for the awarding of honorary degrees: Ralph Diaz, Tribune's make-up man who throws the Minaret together every Thursday night (and "Throws" is right, eh, Ralph?) Professor Diaz is recommended for the honorary degree of Make-Up Doctor. Then his name will be, Ralph Diaz, M. U. D.

Incidentally, The Minaret has another name over at The Trib office—it's "Minuet in G Minor."

While we're tossing honorary degrees around, we shouldn't forget Johnny Renz, professor of linotype, who should carry the noble initials of L. L. D. after his name—doctor of linotype letters. Congratulations, Johnny and Ralph.

Before Dr. Denton (pix on page four) leaves us, Spotlight thinks this story should be told as one to remember her by:

It was year before last, when everybody was scrambling for a berth on the "Florida Special" train to Gainesville.

Dr. Denton quietly watched all the enthusiasm. Then she said:

"It'll be a lot of fun, going on the trip, but I guess my undergraduate days are over. But I'd like to find an undergraduate who just can't raise the price of the trip. I can't go, but I still think the price of my ticket should be used for a good purpose."

And it was,

Students who have known her more intimately could easily recall numerous similar incidents.

She's going to be missed after she's gone. And we all wish her the best of happiness.

Folks are agog and a-flutter wondering who are the new Delta Kappa and Sigma Theta Phi presidents. They'll be announced tomorrow night. But here are congratulations to the new prexies and officers in advance.

Helen Hill pupils really go in for Spanish dinners—especially when they are for Olga Martinez. After the dinner, they gave her a present, in appreciation—well, just in appreciation of Olga.

Dr. Boce, (also pix on page four) another prof who'll be missed around these corridors, was really surprised at a surprise party students of all his classes gave him at his beach home at Indian Rocks. He, too, received an attractive gift.

(P. S.—The staff artist was tempted to draw in his mustache, in the picture on page one, so stoogents could recognize him.)

It'll be a curious combination when Dr. Berry (see page four for pix) teaches ethics and journalism, after his exhaustive elucidations upon the irreconcilability of the two subjects.

But for all o' that, the popular Doc Berry will be missed by his many friends. He'll be remembered for his enlightening bookstore chats, and for his most colorful and successful operetta. Bon voyage, K. K.

Well, so long, stoogents. It's been a pretty swell year. We'll be looking for you undergrads back in Sept., and to the seniors, you'll be missed more than you know, and in years to come many a yarn will be spun around the things you've done and said.

—The Spotlight.

Beta Chi Names Officers at "Bowery Brawl"

The Beta Chi fraternity's seventh annual Bowery Brawl was held at Diamond Lil's. The sponsors were the flora doras, Celeste Dervaes, Jean Pryor and Louise Griffin. Val Antuno's noise makers provided music.

Bouncers were Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth K. Berry and Dr. C. H. Laub. Special guests were Dr. and Mrs. Flucie L. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel S. Sanford and Mr. and Mrs. Zendequi.

Prizes for the best dressed couple went to Queenie Hilda Bethea and James Whitehead.

During the evening the fraternity's newly elected officers were announced. They are: Johnny Kaufmann, president; Howard Beynon, vice president; Ed Howell, secretary; David Webb, treasurer; Jack Tanner, sergeant-at-arms.

Mrs. Zendequi was presented a gift as a token of appreciation from the fraternity.

We, the Frosh

EUGENE ZIELINSKI

At last we come to the parting ways. No longer will we be able to enjoy those super Brandy wisecracks—no more will we see that smiling face of Lucie Lee as she gathers news for The Minaret—or maybe Billy Martin, the man who has sounded a thousand notes for Tampa U.

No longer will we be able to chew the rag with Mack—or ask Connie for a coke—no longer will we hear those swell compositions by "Jo" or see some grand tennis and football by Paul and Dick.

Together with "Chip," Zeno, the three Franceses, Celeste and Juanita—no longer will we see that smiling face of Champ—that perfect example of a real football player. We frosh will try hard to fill that big gap in the backfield—but, who knows, it may take more than one of us to fill Champ's shoes.

Words cannot express the appreciation for the guidance rendered to us lowly frosh. At times we were in a heck of a fix but always without fail rescued by—maybe Mark, Brandy or YOU.

In departing, all we can say is the very best wishes and loads of luck for whatever the future may hold. Who knows, we may meet again some day—maybe in the battlefield across—maybe on Madison street in Chicago or maybe in an executive office somewhere in upper New York. But wherever it may be, we shall enjoy recalling the happy days spent at Tampa U. Who knows? Only time can tell.

You proud graduates holding that sheepskin already have passed through the gates of knowledge, but in time we frosh also will reach that stage and pass for the last time as students through the gates of our Alma Mater. In the meantime we shall strive to reach that goal and some day graduate like you.

Remember—wherever you may be, think of us as we have thought of you.

So long now—

what a man tries to do that counts.

"It is how much of himself he puts into it. It is what he is: his character, his personality, what he stands for. He who truly gives of himself can give no more. He who throws himself into a service projects his living personality into dynamic action, making those who contact him feel his living presence."

You have exemplified by your actions this philosophy.

Recreation Program Listed at Tampa U.

A program of recreation and social activities for the University of Tampa's six weeks' summer term was announced yesterday, including tennis and table tennis tournaments, two informal dances, a picnic and a faculty-student softball game. The term will continue from June 16 through July 25.

After registration Monday, June 16, and first classes Tuesday, President James E. Mooney will give a reception Friday, June 20.

A class in social dancing will be held each Tuesday night, after the first week, at 7:30 o'clock, and a harmonica class will be formed by the recreation department, meeting each Tuesday night at 8:30.

The co-ed tennis tournament will start Tuesday, June 24, and the first informal dance of the summer term will be held in the ballroom Thursday night, June 26. Friday, June 27, a picnic will be held at the state park.

Dean Daniel S. Sanford, dean and director of the summer term, has announced the rest of the social and recreation programs as follows:

July 1, co-ed table tennis tournament starts; Friday, July 4, holiday; Thursday afternoon, July 10, faculty-student softball game; Thursday night, July 10, informal dance; Friday, July 18, trip to sponge markets and picnic at the beach; Thursday night, July 24, informal dance.
