

The UT Press journal, Studies in the Fantastic will hold a roundtable in celebration of its recent issue on “Weird Temporalities”

Friday,
October
2nd

3:30pm
E.S.T.

on zoom

Guest-edited by: Jordan S. Carroll (Visiting Assistant Professor, University of Puget Sound), and Alison Sperling (International Postdoctoral Fellow, Technische Universität Berlin).

Carroll and Sperling will be joined in conversation with 2019 Bennett Prize winner Aneka Ingold, whose work is featured and discussed in this issue.

Sponsored by the Department of English and Writing at the University of Tampa

In cooperation with Technische Universität Berlin and the Zentrum für Interdisziplinäre Frauen und Geschlechterforschung.

Please RSVP to fantastic@ut.edu to receive zoom link

Contact slauro@ut.edu with any questions.