MARION NEIL IS ELECTED EDITOR OF YEARBOOK

Student Council Elects Faculty Advisor

Marion Neil was elected Editor of the senior yearbook at a meeting of the Student Council on Monday, October 25. Marion is very active in student affairs. She is president of Sigma Theta Phi Sorority, president of the senior class, president of the Brush and Palette club, and has been president of La Tertulia, Spanish club. She is also Cadet News Editor of the Minaret and is listed in "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges."

The staff is composed mainly of seniors, since the book is to be a senior yearbook. The staff is as follows: Associate Editor, Dorothy Richieu; Business Manager, Emma Mae Murray; Assistant Business Managers, Eleanor Fisk, Nancy Guinta, Frances Piazza, Vivian Van Wormer; Circulation Manager, Louise Sipes; Feature Editor, Elizabeth Erwin; Art Editor, Hazel Bryan; Senior Class Editor, Marilyn Levy; Junior Class Editor, Karl Chambers; Sophomore Class Editor, Betty Jo Adair; Freshman Class Editor, Betty Faye Cumbie; Faculty Editors, Willie Mercer, Maurine Robles; Organization Editors, Miriam Davis Green, Daisy Lewis, Mabel Auginbaugh; Literary Editors, Virginia Smith, Rosalie Mathis, Dot Mallard; Sports Editor, Muriel Yarborough; typists, Marguerite Royer, Clara Ann Bittman, Alice Arias.

Faculty advisor for the staff is Dr. C. H. Laub.

The yearbook is not meant to take the place of the Moroccan and is not to be referred to as a Moroccan. It is to be merely a senior yearbook, with individual pictures of the seniors and group pictures of the other classes and organizations. The staff is expected to choose a name for the yearbook in the near future.

Last year approximately $3500 was spent on the yearbook. This year only $1000 or $1200 will be spent to edit the yearbook.

Happy Birthday, Dear Teachers

Three of our popular instructors, Miss Moffatt, Mr. Dobson, and Rabbi Zielocka celebrated their birthdays last week, and their students were on hand to help them make it a happy occasion. No one seems to know, however, just which birthday it was, Miss Moffatt.

"Poppa" Dobson met his Russian School class and was surprised and pleased to find a birthday cake, complete with candles. Fisk lighted the candles, and everyone sang, "Happy Birthday!" Later, a group of "Harry's" friends presented him with a box of Charles the Great cigars. When last seen, he was strolling contentedly down the corridors of old Tampa U., puffing on one of his birthday cigars.

Although a day late, the Rabbi's War Social Problems class helped him gladden his birthday. Everyone arrived on time (for a change) and Haylik led the procession with cake in hand, while other students passed the "cokes" around. When the Rabbi cut the cake, he left himself out, prompting the remark, "I went to night school and can never count in the daytime."

Friday a group of Miss Moffatt's girls presented her with a cake and coke party. The group gathered in her office to enjoy the occasion. Many, many happy returns of the day to our three teachers who celebrated this past week.

Two Alumni Meet In England

Eavesdropping Reporter Gets Opinions On Sadie Hawkins

By NANCY GUINTA

With the coming of the Sadie Hawkins Day Dance, there comes to my mind our age old custom: For one day during the year we have the privilege of popping the vital question, or in better terms "to get a man." According to present day statistics, there are six girls to every man—which makes the situation pretty drastic. So I asked the Tampa U. co-eds and faculty what they intended to do about the situation and this is what I found:

Dottie Thonnesen: "I think it fun. It gives you a chance once a year."

Mickey Feagar: "It's our only salvation."

Bette Faye Cumbie: "I think the idea is now progressing—only hope I can run faster this year."

Violet Mae Conte: "Ye gods, who knows, I might get a man yet."

Josephine Perez: "Sisters, here's our chance."

Penn Dawson: "I think it's lots of fun, if the girls can run fast enough."

Ronnie Constantine: "I've always wanted a man and now's my chance!"

Alice Barton: "It's all right if you can catch the man you want."

Troy Smith: "I'm not worried—I'm fleet footed." (What a pity!)

Pop Marzelli: "I think it's a good idea—to be cut out."

Alice Arias: "I want me a man and I don't care how I get him!"

Marea Bordt: "That's all right if you're in desperate need of a man."

Carl Cadet: "Grab as many as you can when you can."

Muriel Yarborough: "This is one day a girl can get a man—I hope!"

Don Hartung: "It's vulgar, it's rude, it should be stopped—but lots of fun, isn't it?"

Laura Richards: "We should have Sadie Hawkins Day more than once a year for us girls who can't run fast."

Millie Tomasino: "If you feel that you really need a man—I guess it's all right."

Marion Neil: "Listen, Mathis and I helped plan this dance—we're not fools! We have our plan of strategy all mapped out."

Emma Mae Murray: "I think I'll run barefooted and save my No. 18."

Rose Ciccarello: "Girls choose men anyway, why wait for Sadie Hawkins Day?"

Virginia Smith: "I'm thinking so much of it that I'm practicing on the 220 hurdle to get me a man!"

Billy Bluemle (alumni): "It's an old custom, it's been done around here before—I know!"

Betty Ludtke: "What I'm worried about is what will I do with another one!"

Maggie Havelik: "I've always wanted a good excuse like that!"

Irene Lefler: "We'll all have a chasing good time."

Paula Pate: Hump—good old Sadie Hawkins Day!"

Dr. Laub: "I think I'm safe."

Student Council and Pan Hellenic Plan Sadie Hawkins Dance

The Student Council and the Pan Hellenic Council are going to sponsor a Sadie Hawkins Day Dance Nov. 6. The Student Council and Pan Hellenic plan to make this a big affair. The committees are composed of two girls from each sorority and two non-sorority girls.

The dance will be held at the University ballroom and will be decorated in Dog Patch fashion.

The dance is for the cadets, and Tampa University boys. The girls included are Tampa University girls and alumnae.

Those in charge of refreshments are: Marea Bordt, Muriel Yarborough, Betty Jo Adair, Marjorie Brorin, Lorraine Oglesby, Eleanor Fisk, Betty Ann Smith and Nancy Guinta.

Civic Music Will Sponsor Five Artists

The Civic Music Association has begun plans for the concerts that are to be given this year. There will be five outstanding artists whose names have not been announced, as yet. Admission to the concerts will be by membership card only.

All students of the University are eligible for membership cards. Those who desire them will please sign in Mr. Marzelli's office. You will receive the tickets as soon as they are available.

Members of the Sigma Alpha Iota, national honorary music sorority, will act as ushers for the concerts throughout the coming year. Miss Daisy Lewis is in charge of the ushers.

Lt. R. B. Fordyce and Sgt. Bob Hach Meet Again in England

Students of Tampa U. will all remember their former classmates, R. B. Fordyce, now Lieut. Raymond Fordyce and Bob Hach, now a staff sergeant. Our alumnae will especially remember them as former football and track stars. These two Florida men who have been through Tampa U. together and a considerable amount of U. S. A. A. F. as well, have met again at a Flying Fortress in England. Lieut. Fordyce, left, of Miami, is the station photography officer. Staff Sergeant Hach, of Tampa, is a waist gunner on a Fortress regularly bombing Hitler's Europe. A former football and softball star at Miami-Edison High school, R. B. met Bob in that Southern Florida city, and together they attended our Alma Mater. They left college together for the air force, then were separated by different assignments. They met again on this busy heavy bomber base.

All T. U. students hope that they have good luck over there with abolishing Hitler and return soon to Florida.

Who's Who Is Elected by Seniors And Faculty

Dean Rhodes today announced in assembly the names of students who have been selected to appear in the 1943-1944 edition of Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges. Every year a small percentage of the senior and junior classes is chosen to represent the colleges and universities all over the country.

This election creates a great deal of excitement and much speculation every year, because the honor of belonging to Who's Who is attained by few in a college career. Besides being an honor, Who's Who is greatly beneficial in helping the graduate to acquire a position in the business world. Every year H. Pettus Randall, editor of Who's Who, helps scores of college graduates to find the job of their choice. Many outstanding business firms refer to Who's Who when they have positions to fill.

Here at the University of Tampa the students are selected by an impartial vote. The members of the faculty and regular students of the senior class have an equal vote. This year the list consists of two students who were previously selected in their junior year and seven students, six seniors and one junior, newly selected.

The following are the students who have been chosen to represent the University of Tampa:

Marilyn Levy, a member of the senior class, was chosen for Who's Who last year. She is a member of Phi, honorary society and has been chosen senior class editor of the yearbook.

Marion Neil, president of the senior class, was also selected last year. She is president of Sigma Theta Phi and editor of the senior yearbook.

Elizabeth Erwin, senior, is president of the student body, president of Alpha Gamma sorority, and feature editor of the yearbook.

Margie Casal, senior, is a student council representative, a member of the varsity cheer-leaders, and a member of Alpha Gamma sorority.

Maurine Robles, senior, is a pledge of Sigma Alpha Iota, president of the Baptist Student Union, and faculty editor of the yearbook.

Willie Ione Mercer, senior, is vice-president of the Baptist Student Union, a member of Phi honorary society, and faculty editor of the yearbook.

Dr. Glen Johnson

DR. JOHNSON TO LEAVE FOR THE ARMY NOV. 6TH

Says He Has Enjoyed His Teaching Here

By BETTY FAYE CUMBIE

Dr. Glen Johnson, head of the psychology department, and one of our most well-liked professors, will leave for the army Saturday, November 6th.

Dr. Johnson came to the university in March, 1942, from Adelphi College in Garden City, New York.

A native of Wardner, Idaho, Dr. Johnson attended the University of Idaho where he received his Bachelor of Arts degree in psychology and philosophy. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, national scholastic fraternity. After graduation Dr. Johnson served as assistant in the philosophy department of that university and later taught in the public school system of Mackay and Idaho Falls, Idaho. Dr. Johnson also held the position as head of the education department at Yankton College in Yankton, South Dakota.

In 1933 Dr. Johnson received his Masters Degree from Columbia University in New York. In 1941 he received his PhD from the same university. At the University of Tampa, Dr. Johnson has been teaching the complete department of psychology which includes general, social, applied, educational, child and adolescent abnormal psychology and principles of education.

Dean Rhodes when questioned by your reporter said on the behalf of the university, "The university is losing the services of an excellent instructor in Dr. Johnson's leaving for the army's service. During his stay, Dr. Johnson has shown himself to be a man of deep understanding, sympathetic with the conditions of the university, and always ready and willing to cooperate in any endeavor toward the improvement of the university."

Dr. Johnson's comment on his departure for the army was, "teaching the students and working with the faculty has been a source of enjoyment to me, which I shall long remember."

Home Ec. Club Takes Four Through Museum

The Home Economics Club took a tour through our Museum Oct. 21. Mrs. Davis took them around explaining and giving the historical background of the pieces in the Museum. The girls enjoyed the visit very much. The club had an executive meeting Thursday, at which time they drew up a list of interesting facts that will be discussed at the next meeting.

BIBLE THOUGHT

PROVERBS 22:1

A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving favour rather than silver and gold.

A PRAYER FOR PEACE

Yesterday, John Doe died at the front, fighting for what he knew was right. He put country above himself, and God above country. He fought for peace—not a temporary one—but a lasting, permanent peace. We know that John went into every battle with a prayer in his heart. He knew that such a peace as we are fighting for can be obtained through a constant knowledge of one supreme, and a never ending faith.

We, at home, can play a great part in this present struggle by following the example of boys like John. We can take a few minutes out of every day to pray with those on the front for permanent peace.

The Dormitory girls have already taken a step in that direction by having an informal prayer on Tuesday night. The group consists of Seniors, Juniors, Sophmores, and Freshmen, some clad in pajamas, while others have just come in from their evening dates. Though their outward appearances are all different, the inner feelings are all the same—all united for one cause, a prayer for peace.

Won't you dedicate a few minutes every night to a permanent peace, and follow the example set by the Dorm girls?

KNOW YOUR STUDENT COUNCIL

This year more than ever before we do want to support the Student Council, for it is the means by which we, the students, are represented.

First, do we know the people who are representing us? If you are displeased with a plan in your state, you tell your Senator or Representative thru means of a letter or person to person. Why not tell your student council representative your plans for a better student government? Do you know your representatives, to tell him or write to him. If you don't make it your duty and responsibility to find out.

Our school must be democratic and based on ideals upon which our hearts will be proud, and forever will go forth to praise thee, our alma mater free!

LET'S SUPPORT THE JUNIOR CLASS

It has been part of the tradition of the University through the years for the Junior class to sponsor a carnival and dance during the first semester. Due to war conditions the carnival plans are impossible. But a dance can be made a great success if all the students will cooperate. The proceeds of this dance will go to provide the Junior-Senior Banquet, which usually occurs in May.

The Juniors really need help this year with their dance. In the first place, most of the class is made up of girls and they really need some masculine help to put up decorations for this dance. Surely, there are enough men in the University to see that they don't lack help.

Not only do they need your physical support, but also your moral and financial support.

Loosen up and help the Juniors give the best dance ever!

CO-EDS, ATTEND THE CADET DANCES

At least once a month the air crew cadets, here at the University, entertain the University girls at a dance.

The girls that have turned out for these dances have been greatly composed of high school girls and other out-of-school girls. This isn't right! The only reason that this has become necessary is because the University girls are not turning out. This is very unfair to the cadets. They're really a swell bunch of fellows and really want to get acquainted with the girls. Many of them are former college students, taken away from the nice associations, in which case, they would like to meet college girls.

Let's let these cadets take the place of "our boys" who are located in other colleges while they are getting similar training.

Let's do our part to make Cadet dances of the future strictly University affairs by pulling with the Cadets and backing their dances with our presence.

Ask Aunt Carrie

CO-EDS!!! Have you got any love problems? If so, let me solve them for you. Just drop a note in the school mail box addressed to Aunt Carrie's Column, care The Minaret, and all your troubles will be over. Don't make your question over 75 words, and all problems must be in a sealed envelope. Don't delay.

Dear Aunt Carrie:

Today I got a letter from my boy friend that he is coming home from over-seas and will see me in about a week. Yesterday, I got a letter from the Marine that he will see me in about a week, also a Lieutenant I am quite fond of is here for a week's leave. And I have a date with a cadet this week-end. What shall I do? Two-Timin'-Theresa.

Dear Two-Timin'-Theresa:

Have you tried arsenic? If that doesn't do any good, the Hillsborough River hasn't frozen over yet.

Dear Aunt Carrie:

A certain cadet in Section X just refuses to look at me. I've tried and tried, but he just walks around with a blank look on his face during the ten minute breaks. How can I attract him? I, too, am lonesome during the ten minute breaks.

The Forward Type.

Dear Forward Type:

Wear a red flower in your hair next Thursday and walk around in the lobby during the 11:00 break. He'll be sure to notice you, especially if you've got anything to eat with you.

Dear Aunt Carrie:

One of the girls that works in the library has been ignoring me thoroughly every time I go in there. I even go up to the desk and talk to her but she still ignores me. Now I know she is just putting on because all the rest of the girls like me. What can I do to make her see her folly?

Conrad Cadet (Section VIII).

Dear Comrade (correction, Conrad): 'Tis indeed sad when some girls can't see when they're missing their big chance. But since such is the case, try standing on your head in the middle of the library. This should attract her attention (as well as the instructor's).

Dear Aunt Carrie:

Last week, a fellow cadet of mine got me a date with a Tampa U. co-ed to go to a sorority party. Since that time, this girl has not asked me for any more dates. What should I do?

Perplexed.

Dear Perplexed:

Swallow your pride, and ask her out. I'm sure she would go if you asked her to go to the Columbia.

Dear Aunt Carrie:

A cadet I know has asked me out several times and I would go but for one little thing—he's married. I found out only by accident, because for some silly reason he never mentioned the matter to me. Should I go out with him, or should I make a suggestion to the C. O. that all the married cadets should wear identification that they are no longer on the loose.

Don't-Let-This-Happen-To-You.

Dear Don't-Let-This-Happen-To-You:

Why are men such cads? But that's beside the point. Do not date this cadet if he is married, even if his wife is thousands of miles away. I've heard something about then new long-range guns and you may be sorry. If he asks you out again, pretend you don't hear him. After about the first 1800 times, he'll probably get discouraged and you'll have a week of peace—before a new section arrives.

Sigma Theta Phi Holds Its Formal Pledging Ceremony

The Sigma Theta Phi formal pledging took place last week in the Rawlings Room at the University. This was an impressive candlelight ceremony.

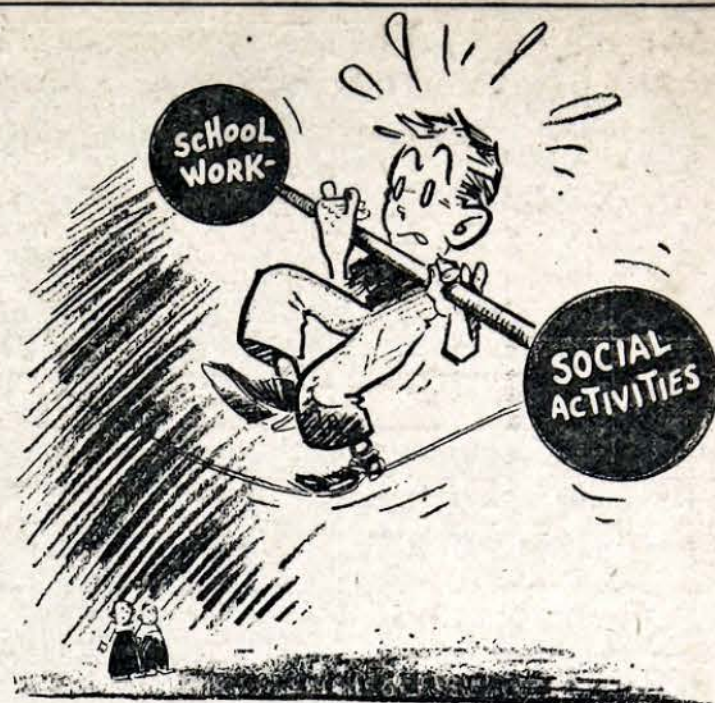

Sorority bracelets, engraved with the Greek letters of the sorority, were presented to the pledges.

After the ceremony light refreshments were served.

Pledges and their sorority "mothers" are: Alice Arias and Margaret Jackson; Ronnie Constantine and Mary McDuffie; Betty Faye Cumbie and Betty Lou Curtis; Mims Davis and Billie Davis; Marie Gibson and Dena Royal; Laura Hester Hoffman and Betty Jane Brownsey; Laura Mayor and Betty Jane Chadwick; Mary Julia Mena and Dorothy Gonzalez; Emma May Murray and Irene Lefler; Marion Neil and Mike Royer.

The pledges of Sigma Theta Phi Sorority of Tampa U. held their first meeting in the University Assembly Hall on Thursday, Oct. 14. Marian Neal, the Sorority president, presided until the following officers were elected:

President Marguerite Royer
V. Pres. Billie Davis
Secretary Margaret Jackson
Treasurer Betty Jane Brownsey
Reporter Irene Lefler
Advisor Miriam Davis

The Joys and Sorrows Of a Bus Rider

By ONE WHO KNOWS

Have you ever ridden on a bus? What I mean is, a crowded one! If you have, bear with me, while I give those less experienced ones a few words from the "unwise and more experienced." Well, it all started one fine morning about a week ago. I was only coming to school, so how was I to know the bus was going to be so crowded (not that I had the brains to know anything.) Finally after wasting a full half hour the cracker box buggy arrived. As I got on (deliver me from ever doing it again), my one remaining coin was lost in the torn lining of my bag. (Who said every purse had its silver lining?) I began scratching in my pocket book like a terrier after a buried bone. Oh, did that conductor give me the sad eye (as if all concerned were not doing likewise—all were on glaring terms.) Finally I succeeded, rather the conductor did—he found it for me. I grabbed the rail—(too bad I couldn't put my foot on the rail—bar rail.) My heart goes out to a sardine. (So does my stomach.) I feel like his sister, just before canning. Oops! We, then, hit a bump—and relation to my condition now and when I stepped into the bus, is purely coincidental, and could not happen again in a thousand years. I found myself, now, hanging from the rail.

One nice thing about riding the bus was the fact that the gentleman standing two persons down the aisle had a newspaper (not a Minaret). He was reading a comic strip, so I decided to share it with him. The only trouble, here, was that every time the bus stopped I made a mad plunge into his back upper rib!

Much to my disappointment, the man with the paper got off the bus, after asking the lady next to the man standing beside me to ring the bell. I expected to get one wholesome molecule of air from this absence of nothing, but, alas, a tubercular victim took his place. (He, incidentally, was reading a health magazine—"Even your friends won't tell you!") Finally after casting a dozen "glad eyes," a dear, sweet old lady got up and gave her seat. I, being an eager beaver, grabbed it!

I was comfortably seated in her place, when again the bus gave a suicide jerk. The most adorable cadet fell in my lap, as I say to myself:

"A line is the shortest distance between two dates." He got up, altho' I held on tight, reclaiming his begrudged space. The girl next to me, (what a sad sack!) had the nerve (you get them on a bus) to try and make time with him. You really have to work fast on a bus.

I was so tired and upset (and it was only 7 o'clock in the morning and I hadn't danced the whole night through!) All of a sudden I was startled by something—the man across the aisle, in other words, five people over, gave up his seat for the last lady standing. I guess the lady he had been sitting on didn't mind either, at least she didn't say anything—mainly, because the breath in her was gone!

Behold! The Minarets were at last in sight. At last I had reached my Alma Mama and me in one piece. After stepping over 15 bodies—already climbing up the walls, I reached air—fresh air!!

Now, all of you, take a tip from one who knows, you'll get there safer, quicker, and cheaper if you walk!

Here's to the girl who is mine—all mine.
She drinks and she bets, and she smokes cigarettes.
And sometimes, I am told, she goes out and forgets—that she's mine—all mine!

Familiarities

This column, again, informs those to whom it may concern, telling them Who's Who and if not, why not!

These freshman girls seem to be doing all right with the cadets. Oh, well, upperclassmen, don't be envious. Another Alumni Frances Alexander and Ensign Albert Moshell were married recently.

Good work, Betty—Philip Know is Ok!

What about that West Point Cadet, Mallard??

What is this about Sara Jane Knight and the nightly drug store episodes.

The girls over here are looking forward to a Navy dance in a few weeks.

We hear that the dorm girls are making big plans for a party to be given soon.

Well, looks like Frances P. got her wish sooner than expected—Bud came home several weeks ago.

Jane Hughey, an alumni, was seen at school sporting a beautiful ring on the "right" finger.

Two of our former football players, Bob Hach and Robert Fordyce, recently met in London.

Pat Pollard, lonesome for Tampa U. has once more deserted the halls of Tally and is frequently seen around, moaning over the "good old times."

The halls of Tampa U were livened again with the coming of the Navy boys.

Peggy P. was in for some excitement—Billy came home for a short leave.

Another one of our girls who is sporting a beautiful ring is Mabel Auginbach. The Navy!

Marilyn better watch out for that third party if she wants to keep Andy.

Betty Fays was another girl who had a nice surprise—Craig C. came with the Navy boys. What about Wiley and Bill, Betty ???

It seemed like old times were here again seeing Glen Philson and Kathryn Lowry around.

Who is this tall, handsome cadet that Sanchez is worrying about? Watch out—he's married.

Marion Nell's heart still belongs to "Merchant Marine Frank."

Wonder why everyone has started using the library lately—could the attraction be the cadets or the lack of something better to do?

Nancy has finally gotten the fever—she, too, is dating a cadet.

Congrats to Mims. You really have a swell catch!

Lorraine is really sought after in the library. We envy you kid!

M. C., why not give the boys (namely cadets) a break!

Several have asked Aunt Carrie about you.

New faces seen at the D. K. party Saturday night:

Katherine Bowen and Cadet Star-buck.

Old faces:

"Kayo" Mullins and Rosalie, Peirana and Smith—"Ball of Fire."

(Dirty faces: not mentioned).

Until next time then, come to Aunt Carrie with your love problems and me with your dirt!

Lieutenant Morgan Is Transferred to Louisiana

Second Lieutenant Edward C. Morgan who has been acting in the capacity of Tactical and Supply Officer, is being transferred from this station. Returning from the Central Instruction school at Randolph Field, Texas, where he took a course for Commandants of cadets, Lt. Morgan was notified that he was being transferred to Northeast Junior College at Monroe, Louisiana. He has been connected with this station for the past seven months and has been instrumental in forming some of the basic policies of this organization.

Delta Kappa's Formal Pledging Held at Terrace

The Delta Kappas held formal pledging October 15 at the Tampa Terrace. The ceremony took place in the Lafayette room by candlelight. Following pledging, members entertained pledges at dinner in the Coffee Shop of the Terrace. Each daughter received a lovely wrist corsage of red roses tied with white ribbons from her sorority mother. Rosalie Mathis, president, welcomed the pledges and Virginia Smith presented her with a corsage of roses. The centerpiece of red roses and white chrysanthemums further carried out the sorority colors.

D. K. pledges held their first meeting last week. Joyce Palmer was elected president, and Peggy Mack, secretary-treasurer.

Members and pledges to the sorority were hostesses at a party Saturday evening, October 23. The lawn of Catherine Bowen's home in Gray Gables was decorated to carry out the Halloween theme. Entertainment included a program by the pledges, fortune-telling and typical Halloween games.

Why I Am A Cripple Today

Tonight I went stepping—or rather, somebody went stepping on my number eighteens. All I did was walk in the door, minding my own business, when Don't-Let-This-Happen-To-You comes up—I say, comes up, he blew in—and gives me the once over. I say once-over, because he looked at me once and went and asked somebody else. By this time, I was looking for another one of Brooklyn's (draft) dodgers. The only catch was that he wasn't looking for me. I started to make a home run at this time, but when somebody made a pass at me, and I thought maybe I could get to first base. I lost the game. Well, I can't just stand there, so I make my way to the dance floor, (hint, hint). Here's where the comedy stops and this becomes a tragedy. Well, as I was saying, I stood there—I probably would be just standing there if I hadn't been the forward type and tripped Johnny Doughboy, just as he was making his way toward another girl. We were dancing—I'm still trying to convince myself. Everybody has his ups and downs but I think I had mine all in that one dance. He told me later that he used to perform on a trapeze—I believed him. After sixteen or seventeen dances, I decided that I better get somebody to break on me or in a minute I might get stuck. So I asked him if he would like a coke. He said, "Yes, but I'd be taking you away from the other boys" and left. Not that he was trying to get rid of me, but that was all right—on the eighteenth dance, I found out that he was waltzing and I was jitterbugging. Oh well, we all make mistakes. And the mistake these boys made was coming to the U. S. O. the same night I did!

Library Rules

Hours—8 to 5 on Monday through Friday; 8 to 12 on Saturday.

1. Books may be charged for a period of two weeks unless otherwise indicated.
2. Books may be reserved for a period of two weeks, unless previously reserved by another student.
3. A fine of five cents per day is charged for each book returned after the date on which it is due.
4. Reserve books are shelved at the circulation desk. They may be used in the Library throughout the day, and may be reserved in advance of the time desired both for use in the library and for checking out overnight.

Reserve books may be charged between 4:30 and 5:00 p. m., Monday through Friday, to be returned by 8:00 the following morning, and between 11:30 and 12:00 on Saturday, to be returned by 8:00 on Monday morning. A fine of ten cents is charged for each reserve book returned after 8:00 a. m. on the day on which it is due. The fine increases ten cents for each night the book is kept out overdue.

Music Department Plans 2 Concerts To Open Season

Two concerts, scheduled for November, will open the season of performances by University Musical organizations. The all-girl orchestra and chorus and a dance group will present a program at the Federated Clubs building on Monday, Nov. 15, at 8:15 p. m. The all-girl group will play and sing music by Victor Herbert, Sigmund Romberg, Cole Porter, Ernesto Lecuona, as well as accompany the dancers. A feature number will be Tchaikovsky's "Waltz of the Flowers," sung by the chorus and danced by Miss Moffatt's group. Soloists with the chorus are Ruth Hardy, Daisy Lewis, and Laura Hester Hoffmann. The program will be repeated for the December assembly.

The Fifth Annual Rectal of the Compositions of Professor Stephen F. Park will be held in the Federated Clubs building on November 23rd, sponsored by the University and Friday Morning Musicals. Professor Park's Piano Concerto, which was performed last year, was received enthusiastically by a large audience. This year the compositions will include a sonata for the piano, a dance group for two violins and piano, two songs, with choreography by Miss Moffatt, and a quartet for violin, cello, and two pianos. Mabel Auginbaugh and Hazel Bryan, pianists, Olive Beebe, soprano, and the faculty trio, Professor Wiltse, Professor Park, and Mrs. Wiltse, will perform the new works. Guest artists will be Pfc. Adelbert Purga, graduate of the University of Michigan School of Music and Pvt. Zecchino, former member of the Boston Symphony Orchestra.

Mrs. Van Vlack Is Appointed Head Dietician

Mrs. Ilm Van Vlack has been appointed head dietician in charge of the Army Mess Hall at the University. She will commence her duties Nov. 1, 1943, replacing Mrs. Jean Rourke, who is going into the hospital at Drew Field. Mrs. Van Vlack comes to the University from her job as assistant dietician at the Tampa Municipal hospital. She previously was employed as dietician at the University of Texas and at the Station Hospital at Fort Benning, Georgia. She is a graduate of Florida State College for Women with a B. S. in Home Economics and a major in dietetics, and is an active member of the American Dietetics Association. We welcome Mrs. Van Vlack to the campus and trust that her stay with us will be an enjoyable one.

Dorm Riots

There's never a dull moment in the girls' dormitory these days. Mims really surprised us all with the announcement of her wedding. Of course we knew it was one of those things that "had to be" sometime, but weren't expecting it quite so soon. The best of everything to you both from everyone in the Dorm! The reception was beautiful, thanks to the efforts of Daisy and Vivian and the cooperation of all the rest of the girls. As is usually the case, Eleanor took her place as supervisor of the kitchen.

Teddy's little puppy has become the idol of all the girls. We'll be sorry to see her take it home again. Sara Jane goes out the nights of the week-ends, then stays in through the rest of the week. Could it be because of being campused? Saturday afternoon was a busy one with all the girls getting ready for the Officers dance that night. Formals were taken out of the moth balls and put in condition. This effort wasn't in vain because a marvelous time was had by all. In fact they even made an impression on the bus driver. He came to visit last night. One of the lieutenants also spent Sunday with Doris.

School teacher Richelieu is now spending quiet evenings in her room trying to understand the content of the third grade reader. That's all right Dotty, we take it all back when we notice your honor pin. Gloria N. should keep a file of her various telephone calls. How can one girl receive so many calls in one day? Kitty is running you a close second, Gloria!!

The first nip of cold weather brought all the winter suits, sweaters, and blankets out of the closet. That cheerful fire in the fireplace really brightens up the date rooms. Miss Hanley has appointed a social committee of Daisy, Dotty, Kitty, Bette, Margaret, Mims, Sara Jane, and Eleanor to make arrangements for functions at the house. We've needed that for a long time. Jeanne Hill is still walking around in her sleep. Are these dreams pleasant ones Jeanne?

Yours truly must sign off to run hear the latest gossip as is being narrated by Bette and Kitty.

Girl's Varsity Bows To WAC Team

The Girls' Varsity volleyball team is going right ahead. Of course they were pretty badly defeated by the W. A. C. team, Athena, but they made a brilliant comeback when they defeated the University's Frosh team in two straight games.

This was a very good and hard-fought game. The Frosh, which is potentially a fine team, was a little frightened by the thought of meeting their "big Sisters" in competition. They'll do much better next time.

The following girls have shown much interest in the game. They really play well.

Frosh: Peggy Mack, Kitty McSwain, Louise Feeger, Paula Pate, Annie Pullara, Jackie Barnard, and Mary Lerios.

Varsity: Esther Baker, Catherine Bowen, Lois Sanchez, Millie Tomasino, Violet Conte, Angie Castellano, Marilyn Levy, and Nancy Guinta.

Next week the Varsity plays Sacred Heart and the Frosh meet the Wolverines.

Coast Guard SPAR Speaks to Co-eds About Enlistment

A representative of the Coast Guard Spars, Mrs. Helen Darland, spoke to the girls of the Senior class on the requirements for enlistment procedures.

Mrs. Darland stated, "It is very important for a girl to go ahead and complete her education and then consider military service."

"We need educated women. Ability and brains are necessary to win the war," she further says.

Mrs. Darland and Miss Emma Weber, another recruiter, remained several hours in the Rawlings room to give further information to the girls.

Before the applicant is sworn in she must pass a thorough physical examination by U. S. public health service doctors.

Height, at least 59 inches tall. Weight, at least 95 pounds and weight must be in proportion to general body build. Vision, normal or correctible to 20/20 in each eye. Hearing, ordinary conversational voice distinguishable at 30 feet in each ear separately. Teeth, natural teeth in sound condition or satisfactorily replaced.

For still further information, either write or visit the Coast Guard recruiting sub-station, 205 Zack Street, Tampa, Fla.

Frosh Beat Wolverines In Bang-Up Game

The girls' Freshman Volley Ball team defeated the Wolverines in a bang-up game held Thursday night at the Trailer Park gym. The girls lost the first game by 10-15 score but made a brilliant comeback by taking the next two games by 15-10 and 15-8.

The Wolverines is a city league team comprised mostly of City Recreation Department workers. They played a nice game and it took a lot of effort to defeat them.

For the Frosh, Peggy Mack played a most spectacular game while Irene Lefer fooled the opponents with her cannon-ball serves.

The following girls that make up the Freshmen team also played a very fine game: Katherine McSwain, Louise Feeger, Jackie Sells, Dena Royal and Annie Pullara.

The Varsity was not as fortunate as the "rats." They played the experienced Sacred Heart team, which at present holds the State Catholic title, and came out on the bottom of the deal. The girls however held this foe to a close score and should be recognized for this. The final score was 15-8, and 15-11.

The following girls make up the Varsity team: Esther Baker, Catherine Bowen, Lois Sanchez, Millie Tomasino, Violet Conte, Nancy Guinta, Angie Castellano, and Marilyn Levy.

Sigma Thetas and Plebettes Battle For Championship

Girls' Intramurals have really been quite exciting. The Sigma Theta Phi's and the Plebettes are fighting furiously for the volley ball championship which will be played off this week.

Tuesday, October 19, the Alpha Gammas defeated the Plebettes in a very hard-fought game. The scores ran 15-13, 8-15, 15-10. Mickie Feeger was high scorer for the Alpha Gams by making 16 of their points while Nancy Guinta tallied 11 for the Plebes.

The Alpha Gams, however, lost a game also. The Sigma Theta Phis fooled them and came across with a great rally. This was a bang-up game with the score close throughout the game. The final scoring was 15-13, 12-15, and 18-16.

On Tuesday, October 26, the Sigma Theta Phi's defeated the Delta Kappas to clinch a run-up position for the volley ball championship. The final score was 16-14, 15-9.

At the same time, the Plebettes played a return game with the Alpha Gammas who defeated them the week before. The Plebes took this game after a long fight and therefore obtained the other run-up position. The final score was 15-12 and 15-9.

Each of the teams had a very representative group participating:

Alpha Gamma—Mickie Feeger, Violet Conte, Louise Sipes, Marea Bordt, Elizabeth Erwin, Muriel Yarbrough, and Kathryn McSwain.

Sigma Theta Phi—Emma Mae Murray, Marion Neil, Betty Faye Cumbe, Betty Jane Brownsey, Ronnie Constantine, Lorraine Oglesby, and Alice Arias.

Delta Kappa—Catherine Bowen, Ruth Hardy, Lois Sanchez, Gloria Stathis, Esther Baker, Mary Jo Jones, Virginia Smith, Peggy Mack, and Kitty Martin.

Plebettes—Annie Pullara, Angie Castellano, Millie Tomasino, Nancy Guinta, Paula Pate, Jackie Barnard, and Mary Lerios.

Tennis is now under way under the supervision of Margie Casal. The schedule has been posted on the bulletin board. The first round should be played-off by the end of this week.

Margie Casal and Norma Rollins have been seeded first in their respective divisions. Other outstanding players that have signed up are Lois Sanchez, Esther Baker, Marea Bordt and others. Many Frosh are playing and will probably offer quite a bit of competition.

Cadets Are Urged To Participate In Extra Activities

This issue of the Minaret marks the first appearance of the Servicemen's Page. It is devoted exclusively to the men of the 18th C. T. D.

The potentialities of a newspaper are great. It can serve as the sounding board of student opinion; as a clearing house for information; as a spring board for greater student activity, and numerous other functions which defy listing.

At the present time, the detachment is buzzing with activity. The past few weeks have seen the formation of an orchestra, a glee club and a drama group. The success of these ventures depends entirely upon the amount of consideration and cooperation shown them by you.

These extra curricular activities are not required. There is no power within the 18th C. T. D. which can compel the soldiers stationed here to join these new organizations. They represent the desires of certain students who feel that these new groups will add a pleasant note to their stay here. To those of you who engaged in sports or belonged to clubs at high school or college, the fond memories are not those spent in a classroom but rather in the furtherance of extra curricular activities.

A further point is that the true basis of leadership is acquired not within a classroom, but in the planning and operation of student functions. Since it is the aim of all of us to become commissioned officers and leaders of men, what finer opportunity to grasp the fundamentals of leadership is there than to join one of these organizations?

The Servicemen's Page needs reporters; the band and glee clubs need more members. Why not make it a point to join today?

Tintypes

The following thumbnail descriptions are intended to introduce to you, your new student officers:

John King Kilbane was born about twenty-five years ago. He's six feet tall and weighs 178 pounds. Hails from Detroit, Michigan. Before coming to Tampa U. he was located at Scott Field, Illinois, where he held the rating of P. F. C. Prior to his enlistment in the Army on March 4, 1943, he attended the University of Notre Dame. At college he was President of the Detroit Club and was active in the Radio and Glee Clubs. Graduated with degree of A. B. Hoped to be a pilot and believes his previous flying experience will aid him. He's now student Squadron Commanding Officer. (Girls of Tampa U.—he's unattached.)

Another Detroit, Bruce George Davidson is the new Second in Command. He's 22, six feet tall and weighs 178. Unlike Kilbane he's married and has been so since January 9, 1943. Swimming is his favorite sport and he won several meets in his high school. Is a three letter man in that sport. Naval welding was his field of endeavor before he got his Jap hunting license. Was with the Air Corps unassigned before he transferred to cadet training. He was born in Canada and obtained his citizenship through the U. S. Army. His goal is to be a pilot.

For a change, our No. 3 man, First Sergeant Thomas E. Walsh is from Detroit. This eighteen year old is six feet tall and weighs 160 pounds. He entered the Air Corps February 17, 1943 and was stationed at Scott Field as a dit dit da man. Held rating of P. F. C. Before the Army claimed him he was a radio announcer for radio stations WJLB and W49B, Detroit. He also played bit parts in radio skits. At high school he participated in basketball, swimming, baseball and choir. His one claim to individuality is that he has been home for 24 hours. That of course, was long ago. Has a girl, of course, but is in love with the world and Mr. Shelton. ("Keep your nose up.") He wants to be a pilot, naturally.

Junior Class Will Sponsor Jook Dance

Since the Junior class is small this year, they have decided not to have the annual Junior carnival, but will have a Junior Jook in the University ballroom December 4. The room will be decorated in collegiate style. Those in charge of decorations are: Nancy Marsh, Eleanor Fisk, Virginia Smith, Rosalie Mathis, Laura Mayor, Vivian Van Wormer and Lorraine Oglesby.

The cadet band will play for the dance, and the freshman girls will put on a floor show under the supervision of the Sophomore class.

A small admission will be charged so that the Junior class will still be able to give the Senior class a banquet, in spite of the war.

Sadie Hawkins Day Dance Offers Many Opportunities

FLASH! ! ! Word just received from Dog Patch—Sadie Hawkins Day is just around the corner, November the sixth to be exact and that means the gals will be on the loose. To Try and Get Her A Man. Do you, Cadets, know what I mean when I say Sadie Hawkins? Well, for the benefit of those who have never lived through this day of experience (and probably never will again) I'll try and relate a few detail facts; Sadie Hawkins is the gal who wants a certain cadet—it may be you, who can tell? Even if you aren't from Dog Patch there is still hope for you so watch out for Sadie. She may be tall and thin, she may be short and fat, you won't know until you feel her grab your arm and you are a claimed man from then on. Now young man don't give up hope if you aren't the first gent chosen 'cause we all can't be lovely, now can we? By all means don't play too hard to get cause she will get you in the long run anyhow—and I mean long run, too. In case you are still as stupid as you were when we started this notice (you probably are), it will be a long run—from the University lobby over to the Tourist Center. So you had better go over a few hurdles and get in shape for that 50-yard dash to freedom. Now to tell you more in case you are still interested (I'll tell you anyway). Sadie will then honor her man at a Dog Patch Ball over at the Tourist Center—sorry we can't have the ball in the original Dog Patch, but no gas and a scarcity of shoe leather so we will be tourists again for an evening. I know Sadie will enjoy it and Mammy and Pappy Yokum (Abner can't come due to circumstances beyond his control, mainly the fact of a five letter word—d-r-a-f-t) will be there. Well, I hope by now you know enough about what Sadie Hawkins has planned for you on the night of Nov. 6. So Cadet, you are a claimed man. Even Uncle Sam's greeting couldn't have had more claim on you than Sadie will have on her day of days. I extend my heart-felt sympathy for you on behalf of all the conscientious bystanders—may you live to tell how you tried so hard to get away, but was caught by a Sadie Hawkins.

Laura Richards Elected To Head Alpha Gam Pledges

The pledges of the Alpha Gamma sorority had their first meeting of the year last week. Officers elected were: President, Laura Richards; Vice President, Alice Barton; Secretary and Treasurer, Mickey Feeger.

The alumnae of the sorority entertained the active members and pledges Friday night at the home of Miss Elisa Alvarez, 815 South Edison. Get together games were played in order to get better acquainted. Prizes were awarded to Katherine Perdicaris and Mary Jane Ryals. Light refreshments were served.

The pledges are planning a party for some time in the near future, which will be for alumnae and active members.

B.S.U. Hears Speakers At Lake City Conference

A grand time was had by all members of the Baptist Student Union who attended the Lake City Conference, October 22-24. Outstanding speaker on the program was Dr. Mauriel Trimmer, southside student speaker. Other leading speakers from this state were Dr. Angell, Dr. Campbell, and Dr. Bolton. The highlight of the convention was the banquet held October 23. The group is now looking forward to the Sunrise Thanksgiving service to be held on the banks of the Hillsborough river.

Batter Up

The airman climbs into his ship and speeds toward Axis land. He dropped his load of calling cards with cool and practiced hand. But as the bombs crashed far below on railroads, guns and tanks. The airman's thoughts are far away; He's doting out the Yanks.

A sailor on a LST is blasted off the deck. He flopped into the water from a twisted flaming wreck.

This doughy far went under twice; yes, he was damned near drowned. He murmured as he slid below "will Chandler take the mound?"

The grimy doughboy crawls along a hillside raked by shells. Big Jerry guns have made his world the hottest of all hells.

But, as he races to the charge what does this doughboy do? He hollers at a buddy "50 Live on St. Loo."

Now even in the German lines where aryan blood runs purer. The Wehrmacht talks of baseball and just ignores their Fuehrer.

The Cards to them are strictly Greek, but states if that be true. "He! anyone who beat the Yanks. It's more than we can do."
