

ENROLLMENTS, 1386; REACHES NEW HIGH IN STUDENTS

GUBERNATORIAL SUMMARY

by Stanley Crocker

Leroy Collins

Leroy Collins was born March 10, 1909, in Tallahassee, son of a grocer, one of four brothers and a sister.

He graduated from Leon High with honors in 1927 and was told by his father, as were all his brothers, that every dollar earned for their education would be matched. Leroy earned $500 the first year as a clerk in a grocery store. He went to a business school until funds were gone, returned to earn more and studied law at Cumberland.

Collins married in 1932 his childhood sweetheart, Mary Call Darby, daughter of a former State Senator from Putnam County. Four children resulted, Leroy, Jr., Jane, Mary Call, and Darby.

His public life may be briefly summed. Collins lost his first political election by fewer than 200 votes, for the county prosecutor's job, was elected as Leon Representative in 1934, re-elected 1936, 1938, and elected in 1940 to fill the unexpired term of State Sen. W. C. Hodges, then to a full term without opposition. Resigned from the senate and entered the navy. He was honorably discharged as lieutenant, reelected to the senate, again without opposition. He was elected for a third term and won handily over two opponents polling over 74 percent of the votes.

Governor Collins is six feet tall, weighs just under 200 pounds, black, graying hair, of good health. He is an early riser with a ready smile and seems very much to enjoy meeting people. He is a calm but effective speaker, known for ability in debate and usually speaks from notes without benefit of prepared text.

Fishing is his favorite pastime, likes hunting and enjoys spectators sports, especially football.

Governor Leroy Collins, like a Tampa man, needs no introduction but since he recently qualified for re-election it may be interesting to point out this statement by his office that during his administration State government had achieved stability and integrity.

Collins told a news conference the day the Supreme Court handed down the decision that he was eligible to run, "I believe that I can make the best candidate for governor by being the best governor and I believe the people of Florida would expect me to be their governor first and to do a fine job as governor."

Collins entry assured a six man race. He is opposed by Fuller Warren, Farris Bryant, who at the time this reporter banged out copy, withdrew from the active race for "lack of funds," Sumter Lowry, Peaslee Streets and W. B. Price.

Peaslee Streets

Peaslee Streets, mayor of Lake Park, is 44, a Mason, and father of two daughters. They and his wife, the former Mildred Richards, reside at Lake Park. He is a member of the American Federation of Labor, Building Trades, and among his civic and fraternal activities are the Lions Club, the Boy Scouts, and the Order of Ahepa.

He is also a director of Riviera Beach Chamber of Commerce, a member of Florida Peace Officers Association, the State Firemen's Association, and director of Florida State Civil Defense, chairman of the Inland Waterways Committee of the Palm Beach Resources Board, advisor to the Youth Conservation Program of the Fish and Game Commission, State of Florida, and has recently resigned as Supervisor of the Florida State Motor Vehicle Commission, District Nine. During World War II he served four years with the Army Engineers in a civilian capacity as Maintenance Engineer.

Sumter L. Lowry

Sumter L. Lowry is a native of Florida. He was born in St. Augustine, August 27, 1893. His parents, Dr. and Mrs. Sumter L. Lowry, moved to Tampa when he was a small boy, and promptly made places for themselves in this community. Lowry Park was named for Dr. Lowry.

Sumter Lowry attended Hillsborough High School, graduating in 1911, and thereafter immediately entered the Virginia Military Institute at Lexington, Va. He re-

LETTER To The SENIOR CLASS From BOB MARTOSKI

At the senior class meeting that was held Tuesday, March 6, 1956, a very important motion was passed. Every senior is to pay $.50 to Shirley Keene, secretary-treasurer. This amount is for the senior class project which is yet to be decided upon.

Dick Cole and Walt Minihan consist of a committee of two, to look into the site, and date for a senior class banquet with all the trimmings. They will report to us this Thursday at the meeting.

THERE WILL BE A VERY IMPORTANT SENIOR CLASS MEETING THURSDAY, TODAY in the BALL ROOM.

ceived, as a cadet, the Cincinnatus Medal for military efficiency, thus showing his early capacity for military affairs.

He was mustered into active Federal Service, August 21, 1940, as a Brigadier General of the Line.

Separated from active service in 1945, he was appointed Major General to organize and command the 51st Infantry Division, a new National Guard Division created under the enlarged National Guard, and composed of troops from Florida and South Carolina.

General Lowry has received many decorations in recognition of his military service. His civilian services have been noteworthy.

After the end of World War II, General Lowry was one of the first citizens who warned of the rising menace of Communism. He has actively fought Communist infiltration into our state universities. In the face of ridicule from left-wing writers and non thinkers, he has led in the opposition to the World Federalist movement and the adoption of the Covenant on Human Rights by the United Nations.

Cecil Farris Bryant

Cecil Farris Bryant was born in Ocala, July 26, 1914, two days before World War I began. The Bryant homestead is on Silver Springs Blvd. in that city.

Attending Ocala High he proved himself an accomplished speaker in 1931 as a finalist in the state declaration contest that year and as a quarter finalist in the state debating contest.

He went to Harvard for his law degree, won it in three years in 1938. His bachelors degree is in Business Administration from the University of Florida. He took his freshman work at Emory.

His first job, except for milking the family cow, delivering the Ocala Evening Star as a boy and running a boarding house at University of Florida, was in the state comptroller's office.

"I had to learn government from the inside," he says "So I took the only job I could get—operating an addressing machine at $30 a week."

He met, courted, and won a Tallahassee school teacher named Julia Burnett. They met on a tennis court on an April afternoon in 1904. He dated her that night. Two days later he proposed. A week later she accepted. They were married Sept. 18.

His first political office was, at the age of 27, as representative from Marion County.

In the spring of 1933, Bryant resigned from the legislature to enter the navy. His war record was "undistinguished," he says. He served two years in the Pacific on a destroyer. Then he came back to the states and was assigned as gunnery officer.

30 MORE THAN LAST SEMESTER

by Charlie Robins

Enrollment for the spring semester reached a record total of 1386 students, a new high for the university. Figures released by the registrar's office indicate an increase of 30 students over last semester's record enrollment, and 224 more than during the fall semester of 1954.

The figures do not include students registered in the evening electronics and adult education courses, nor the 100 students attending the university's extension service at San Julian, Cuba. The latter school is being operated by the University of Tampa for the Cuban Government and the International Cooperation Administration of the State Department.

The record enrollment includes students from 28 states and 9 foreign countries. Four of the new students are from foreign countries—Karin Urbanek, an exchange student from Germany; Betty Serji of Columbia; and Blanca and Margarita Duron from Honduras.

In addition to the new faces among the student body, there are also three new professors on the faculty. Dr. H. E. Sterkxi Dr. Charles Walker, and Dr. Robert E. Wean have joined the staff since last semester, giving the university a total of 77 faculty members.

"SWEETHEARTBALL" TO BE HELD SATURDAY

Saturday night will bring to the campus another one of the Spring dances at the University. The Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity of the University of Tampa will present their annual "SWEETHEARTBALL". This dance has been a tradition among the various chapters.

As may seem appropriate a queen and court are chosen each year by members of the chapter sponsoring the ball; she will compete with the queens of the other chapter of the Region and so on up to the National title.

Last year Barbara Whitley was chosen Queen by the members. As queen she received over $700 worth of prizes and the members of her court received from $50 to $100 in prizes.

What lucky young lady will be chosen this year's Queen?

PLACEMENT

All Seniors who expect to be graduated in June or August are urged to fill out placement forms if they would like to have assistance from the University Placement Service. These forms may be secured from the office of the Dean of Men. Some information concerning placement will be discussed at the time of the Senior Class Meeting on Thursday 22 March in the University ballroom.

OUR BIG CHANCE AT EDUCATIONAL TV

That radiant baity of everyone's living room, Miss TV, has been engaged to Mr. Education for four long years now.

Everyone says the marriage will result in a large family of geniuses; that the couple will make a great contribution to the community good.

But every time Miss TV and Mr. Education start down the church aisle, up jumps a dark, dashing stranger labeled Private Interests and waves a paper under the hesitant bride's nose. The paper is a contract raising her salary as a star of the Golden Calf Network, and it busts up the wedding every time.

THIS, IN BRIEF, is the situation which has been going on ever since April 14, 1952, when the Federal Communications Commission made 242 channels available for the use of non-commercial, educational TV in this country.

Nine such channels were allotted to Florida. Two are in limited use, at Jacksonville and Miami.

The third — the bay area's Channel 3 — is the one with which we are most concerned.

Private interests the nation over are striving to capture the vacuum created by education's seeming inability to take advantage of the new media.

In Alachua County, Florida, the school board recently said it would support efforts to give that area's educational Channel 5 to a commercial station.

Locally, efforts are being made by commercial interests to take over our own Channel 3.

This attempt may prove a blessing in disguise. It has spurred action by West Coast Educational Television, a non-profit organization formed a year ago. Tampa University's professor of speech, radio and TV, Franklin Moody, is executive director.

Tampa's Mayor Curtis Hixon has called for a March 23 meeting of city and county officials from Pinellas, Polk, Manatee, Sarasota, Pasco, Hernando and Hillsborough counties.

Immediate goal, $250,000 in equipment or cash to set up the station, which could be in operation within one year.

Continuing goal, an annual operating budget of $150,000.

Moody believes that this amount can be provided in appropriations from governmental groups, through schools and museums, by gifts, endowments and memberships. (Experience at pioneer ETV stations has shown that all it would take to support a station in any metropolitan community would be 50 cents a year from each of its citizens.)

WE DOUBT IF any thinking person seriously disputes the tremendous educational potential of the greatest mass media invention since printing.

This great and powerful instrument, destined to enrich the lives of millions, comes at a time when our people are beginning a massive effort to lift their thinking, to widen their life horizons to the extent demanded by scientific progress.

TV is the mighty lever by which we can compensate for the decades in which our social and intellectual growth has lagged far behind the atom smashers.

What can educational TV do?

It can familiarize our children and our people with "the biggest business in every city, state and the nation," in the words of Florida Supreme Court Justice Stephen C. O'Connell. He referred, of course, to the "business" of government.

It can go a long way toward correcting a situation which has grown so deplorable locally that we find political groups virtually "beating the bushes" for candidates willing to hold public office.

ETV can help put better men in office and also aid in cleaning up the campaign fund situation.

ETV will prove a life-saver for another huge segment of our nation — the schools, now laboring under the accumulated neglect of decades both as to teachers and facilities.

ETV almost certainly will fill the coming gap of 1970 when some 250,000 new college teachers alone will be needed, only half of which are being trained today.

ETV offers unlimited possibilities. It is now on the air in 20 cities, with an estimated audience potential of 39,000,000. Here are some of the programs offered: Courses in languages, history, art, literature, psychology, geography, sociology, business and secretarial, all offering full high school or college credit.

Family-type programs of drama, music and news; public affairs programs; farm shows; poetry workshops; courses in piano, accounting, physics.

Noncommercial TV stations are acquainting more and more Americans with the best in music, drama, literature and the fine arts; are dealing forth-rightly with important problems that face our communities, our nation, and the world.

CANDIDATES - - -

Later he went to the Mediterranean on a destroyer and won a battle star at Salerno. He was discharged in 1945 as a lieutenant.

He was re-elected to the legislature in 1946 and has been Marion County's representative ever since.

He was elected speaker of the 1953 house, a position his uncle held in 1909 and 1913. This was the legislature whose leaders steered through most of Gov. McCarty's program while the ailing governor was bedridden. Bryant was a strong supporter for the late governor.

He has twice been elected as one of the state's five most outstanding young men by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

"I wanted to be governor long before the issues of this campaign became clear or even foreseeable," he says. "I want to be governor because I am qualified and because I am prepared, because I can provide Florida with the kind of leadership it needs."

Bryant made headlines last fall when he split with the governor on the issue of reapportionment. What was behind the split was more a divergence of thinking on gubernatorial leadership than simply reapportionment itself.

"With our tremendous growth, Florida cannot afford weak leadership," he said. "It cannot afford to postpone the decision of vital issues such as reapportionment and constitutional revision," a platform that our student body president,

Dave Janisik, was recently elected upon.

Fuller Warren

Fuller Warren was born Oct. 3, 1905 at Blountstown, Florida. He is a high school graduate, attended three years in an Arts and Science college and law college. He has been a farm hand, mill worker, newsboy, clerk, seaman, and salesman.

It was not until Warren became student of law at the University of Florida that an ambition to take a part in the actual government began to crystallize. There he began to widen his circle of friends to include men from every part of the State.

Warren first attracted public attention through his genius for oratory, a talent that became apparent in his teens and which he practiced and developed.

He went to Jacksonville in 1929 soon after being admitted to the bar. He achieved political successes there when he began three-term tenure in City Council in 1931; and he knew political reversal when he was defeated for the Jacksonville City Commission. He announced his candidacy for that office from a sick bed and was prevented from actively campaigning until the later days of the race.

Warren went to Tallahassee as governor in 1949 on his 25 plank program which he summed up with the pledge to head an administration "that will give you a dollar's worth of service for a dollar's worth

The Minaret

The Minaret is the official publication of the student body of the University of Tampa. It is published bi-weekly during the school year.

The editor welcomes comments and criticisms. Address all correspondence to the MINARET, Box 28, University of Tampa, Tampa 6, Florida.

The MINARET is a student newspaper devoted to the interest of the student, the professor, the administration, and friends of the University, untrammelled by sinister influence from any quarter—the advocate of the right and the denouncer of the wrong—an independent vehicle for the free expression of opinion of all candid, honest and intelligent minds—a medium for free discussion; moral, religious, social, and scientific.

PI DELTA EPSILON

Pi Delta Epsilon, the national journalism fraternity will hold a rush party Saturday evening March 24th. It will be a Spaghetti Supper for prospective members of the fraternity at the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. G. Baker. Rushes invited to attend are: Bob Leal, Gloria Runton, Bill Kirby, Sandra Pendleg, Howard Suisley, Charles Hampton, Virginia Spayde, Bob Swirbal, Jerry Cremkovles and Jim Gallagher. The speaker for the evening Al Whidden will talk about the advertising field. President Joyce Newell will then present a short history of the fraternity.

Arrangements for the supper have been made by the fraternity advisor Dr. McFayden with the help of members Rita Jackson, Ted Richardi, Nancy Trousdale and Jocelyn Cooper.

DAUGHTERS OF THE SOD

This is a new club composed of young ladies of Irish descent. The Daughters work in conjunction with the SONS of ERIN, and offer the opportunity to meet and know other young ladies of the same descent. One of the main features of the club is the better understanding of Irish folk lore and culture.

The first meeting of the Daughters of the Sod was held mainly for the purpose of getting to know each other and elect officers. The following young ladies were elected to office: Connie Collins, President; Janice Powers, Secretary and Doris Cothorn, Treasurer. These officers will serve as assistants to the officers of the Sons of Erin. At that meeting also plans were made for the St. Patrick's Day Parade and Dance. The Parade began in Ybor

City at six PM after which time all met at the Sulphur Springs Pavilion for a wonderfully successful dance.

SONS OF ERIN

And a fine day it was when the Irish swaggered through Ybor City in their annual St. Patrick's Day Parade. Wearing hats made by their sisters, the Daughters of the Sod, our Tampa U. Irish marched just behind the University's Band fifth, or sixth strong.

The Irish are very lucky to have as one of their advisors Professor Leo H. O'Hare. His knowledge of the Irish verse and tradition are most enlightening and interesting. Many more social events are presently being planned for the future.

SCHOOL OF NURSING

Twenty-eight members of the Future Nurses Club of Punta Gorda and Fort Myers visited Tampa Municipal Hospital and the Gordon Keller School of Nursing Saturday March 10th. Some of the student nurses took the girls on a tour of the hospital and the nurses home. They told them about the school and its curriculum and answered any questions they had concerning the school.

The first year students of the school attend classes in the basic sciences and English at the University. They also study the basic nursing techniques in classes which are held at the school of nursing.

The student Nurses are presently discussing the possibility of a party with some of the Tampa U men in the near future.

best Beach Parties in its history. Their house has already been secured and only awaits occupancy, when classes are suspended for the Easter holidays.

Last Wednesday night at about midnight twelve charming young ladies were pleasantly aroused from their slumber to be informed that they had been chosen as this year's Daughters of Pi Kappa Phi. Tonight a banquet will be held in their honor at the Crystal Ball Dining Room. This event is expected to be one of the highlights of the Spring semester.

The Pi Kappa pledges are well underway in their indoctrination courses. They are being supervised in this task under the capable guidance of Dickie Harte, Gene Peoples, Bill (Bullet) Shields, and Kip Felentzer.

Last Sunday the Pi Kapps held a party with members of the Alpha Chi Sorority, their sister sorority at the lake home of Miss Sally Wolfe. A wonderful time was had by all. There was plenty to eat and drink—plus plenty of water to swim in.

Last Monday night the fraternity installed three new members into the Alumni.

During that same week four Pi Kappa pledges invaded against overwhelming odds the TKE house at Florida Southern College and successfully carried off the chapters highly regarded and respected flag and four of their trophies plus retrieved their own fraternity plaque from the Teke's. The spoils were presented to the Pi Kappa brothers the following Sunday at their party.

The Pi Kapps are looking forward to the coming ALUMNI-VERSITY football game this coming Thursday, March 29th since they will have some of their alumni playing and coaching. Crockett Farnell is the ALUMNI coach and some of his playing brothers will be: Jess Davis, Jim Mayo and Holland Applin.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON

The Sig Eps have recently held an election of new officers. The new officers will be installed at a future date as yet undisclosed. Al Howell is the newly elected President; Jim Gallogly, Veep; Bill Doran, Secretary and Frank Kretzmer has the office of Historian.

ORGANIZATIONS - - -

Jim Pudeback has been trying out the Comptrollers Position and has been doing a very fine job of it.

Brother Mickey Payne is expecting a new addition to his family in the near future. Odds at the house are running high for a future little Sig Ep.

The Sig Eps and the ZTA's recently had a party together, which turned out so good that it may have been the first of many.

The pledges over at the Sig Ep house are being kept very busy. They see to it that the tables are kept clean the lawn watered and raked. If you should happen to pass the house sometime in the near future and hear ominous sounds coming forth it will more than likely be the pledges cleaning the attic or getting paddled. Outside of this the only thing I have on the Sig Ep pledges comes by way of a few Sig Ep brothers. They were discussing geography and remarked how far away Virginia is (They were not talking about girls).

TAU KAPPA EPSILON

All pledges are presently engaged in growing mustaches and securing full particulars on campus beauties for the fraternity file. (Give me a tape measure!) The Tekes' Neophytes must obtain a girl's name, age measurements, etc., and produce them on the request of an active member. The girls will be classified according to height, age color of eyes and hair, and as to whether they dance drink and so on.

The Teke pledges have just announced their pledge class officers for the present pledge class. They are: Jim Dallas, President; Hays Wilson, Veep; Troy Townsend, Secretary and Don Montgomery, Treasurer.

The Tekes' are now planning for their annual 'Carnation Ball', which will be held April 29th. The atmosphere will be enhanced by the Tampa Yacht and Country Club and the mood set by the music of Victor Ruiz. All in all it promises to be one of the highlights of the campus social season.

TAU OMEGA

Last Friday night the TOs had what was considered the best Ring Dance in their current history. Besides having all the members at the dance many of the Alumni appeared with their dates to enlighten the gay atmosphere.

The Haven Beach Hotel will be the site of the TO Beach Parties. They are having Open Hopse Saturday March 31 from 7-11 P.M.

Presently the ZTA pledges are helping decorate the fraternity room.

Next THURSDAY, MARCH 29th, many of the TO's will make their final appearance on the Tampa Grid field in the ALUMNI-VARSITY football game. It will mark the end of this year's Spring practice. The following TO's will be playing in the game: Ken Nuznoff, Mario Maffeo, Bill Minahan, Al Leathers, Sherril Borders, Ted Green and Tom Mahin. Some of the TO alumni will also be appearing in the game whose names are well remembered by Tampa Grid fans are Ed Peck, Pete McCloud, H. L. Hires, Bob Hillard, Nick Waytovich and Joe Zalupski.

SIGMA SIGMA SIGMA

Las Saturday Miss Idamary Casey and Miss LyLa Thisse journeyed to Claromont Florida for a regional Tri-Sig meeting to discuss the celebration of their founders birthday.

The Tri-Sigs are joining the Delta's for a house at the beach for the coming Beach Uarties at Indian Rocks Beach.

The Cinderella Ball will be held on April 13th at The Tampa Yacht and Country Club. Ida Casey is the dance chairman and Jay Ellis is in charge of the decorations.

The tri-Sigs pledge officers for this semester are: Arlene Swertfegir, President; Julie Merrit, Veep; and Fran Prochazka Secretary-Treasurer.

ZETA TAU ALPHA

The new Zeta pledges were honored by their sisters with a dinner at Bartke's the day after they picked up their Bids. Their formal pledging was held the following day at which time each pledge was assigned to a big sister who will be her guide through pledgship.

The active members and pledges of ZTA are looking forward to a good time at beach parties come the Ester holidays. A house has been secured at Indian Rocks Beach and final arrangements have been made.

The chapter's traditional formal dance, the 'STARDUST BALL,' will be held at the Tampa Yacht and Country Club again this year. The dance will be held April 20th, from 9-1 o'clock. The highlight of the dance is the formal presentation of the chapter's new pledges as they walk through a gleaming blue and white star. Another main feature of the evening will be the announcement of this year's sponsors. Each year, the Zetas honor five fraternitq men on campus.

Those in charge of arrangements are: Invitations; Nancy Persbacker; Music, Ann Cagno and Mickey Rumore; Flowers, Pauline Bransford and Virginia Spayde; Decorations and Favors, Pattie Clark and Mary Lou Roos.

After the TO Ring Dance a group of the girls and their pledges met at the home of their newly President, Miss Mary Lou Roos. When all had arrived they swooped through the darkened roads towards Virginia Spades' lake place—object 'Slumber Party.' Swimming and water skiing were more prevalent than slumber and by noon sunburns had won out. A wonderful time was had by the members and

MISS APRIL

BEVERLY BROWN

Well prepared for those April showers is, Beverly Brown, our Miss of the Month. This Vision of Aphrodite has the distinction of being Miss Florida Hospitality for 1956. Another title which this blissful Miss holds is that of Florida National Guard Queen.

Beverly, a transfer student, was selected to be a Sigma Chi Sweetheart at the University of Alabama.

This Venus with arms is a professional model who is noted for her dazzling smile. The doll of dolls appeals to the esthetic sense of anyone and has caused more than one to throw the old "perfect 36" ideal out the window.

Zeta Tau Alpha Sorority has claimed the effervescent Sophomore with a radiant personality as a pledge.

Alumni Girds For Grid Battle . . .

Cloak-and-Dagger experts report strange goings on over at Phillips Field, especially in the last couple of weeks as top-secret security measures have been placed on activities there.

But, confidentially, the results of those unnatural happenings at this time of the year will erupt before the public next Thursday night in a non-traditional gridiron classic.

Well-informed sources report that former Spartan football players are girding themselves to do battle with the youngsters to climax Spring football training.

A big aggregation of ex-Spartana warriors have been assembled and have been going through the paces in preparation for the encounter. Among them are three All-America players who intend to show the "upstarts" just what is what out there on the playing field. For instance, Nick Waytovich, Bob Lovely, Ted Greene and "Luke" Aplin.

Also recruited for special duty include former greats, "Sprocket" Farnell, and Ex-Coach Nash Higgins, who were successfully negotiated into sticking their heads into the noose. They will act as co-coaches.

Here is a run-down on the Alumni roster, classes in parentheses:

Ends—Bill Hovance (1956), Aplin (1951), Ray Escobar (1950), Jim Mayo (1955), H. L. Hiers (1953), and Pete McLeod (1954).

Tackles—Tom Mahin (1956), Jass Davis (1955), Mario Maffeo (1956), Bob Lovely (1956) and Eddie Diaaz (1949).

Guards—Nick Waytovich (1955), Jack Marley (1951), Joe Zalupski (1955) and Ed Duray (1952).

Centers—Ted Greene (1955), Byer DuPree (1952), Joe Onderko (1955), and Bob Hillier (1953).

That should raise the curtain a little and give you a peek at what the aggressor will launch next Thursday night.

Coach Huerta Reports . . .

Of course Coach Huerta realizes his team of "youngsters" haven't got a chance against the Alumni forces, but he expects to show up for the game. And, of course, Huerta's cheerful smile when he thinks about his contingent of more than 40 strong athletes, belies this.

Huerta said he was pleased with the spirit and hustle the boys have shown. Their attitude is tops, he said. "We have several top prospects to fill vacancies left by graduating players and right now it appears our weakest spot may be at center and tackle," he said.

Mike Skaroulis, back seeking his quarterback post after a short stay (non-athletic) at the University of Florida, strengthens the signal-calling spot left lacking when Bill Minahan finished his college career this past season. Other positions appear strong.

SPARTAN DIAMONDMEN OPEN SEASON; SPLIT IN TWO EXHIBITION CONTESTS

By Tom Bragdon

University of Tampa baseball team opened its season Tuesday against the MacDill Air Force team, but gave fans a preview of its potential in a pair of games with the Bill Virdon Baseball School, training at Cuscaden Park.

In the two contests, Tampa split. The Spartans copped the first game, 11-5, then dropped the second encounter by a close 2-1 margin. Both of the games showed that Tampa has plenty on the ball, both offensively and defensively.

Plays Valdosta

Tampa meets the strong Valdosta, Ga., nine tomorrow and Saturday in a two-game series.

Some of the more noticeable standouts in the two exhibition games were Bob Hutchison, Fred Panoast and George Card.

Coach Sam Bailey said he was looking for top service from the boys this season and mentioned the following players as top prospects: Ron Osler, Bob Gambrell, Gus Cue-

There's one thing to be said of ignorance — it sure causes a lot of interesting arguments.

Ron Osler Heads Intramural All-Star Basketball Team

by Charlie Robins

Players from 5 difference organizations, led by Tau Omega's Ron Osler, make up the 1956 intramural basketball all-star team. Osler, a unanimous selection on all ballots, was named honorary captain of the star team.

Closely following Osler in the voting was Dave Janasik of Pi Kappa Phi, the league's leading scorer. Janasik polled 11 votes to end up in the No. 2 slot, followed by J. C. Miller of the Independents and Jim Puderbach of Sigma Phi Epsilon with to each. Augie Paniello of Rho Nu Delta rounded out the first team with 9 votes.

Pi Kappa Phi and Rho Nu Delta dominated the second team with 2 players each. Dickie Hart and Larry Voetburg represented the Pi Kap's while Rho Nu Delta placed Tony Scionti and Joe Souto on the squad. Mike Whitwell of the Independents complete the second team.

Other receiving votes were Bill Minahan (TO), Bob Parsons (TKE), Ed Duray (ACE), Bud Powers (PKP), Mike Menendez (RND), Bob Curry (PKP), Tom Mahin (TO), Bradley Wickersham (TKE), Phil Leto (RND), Bill Nuznoff (SPE), Henry Garcia (TO), Wallace Story (ACE), and Dave Hernandez (RND).

In volleyball, Tau Omega outclassed the field to win the intramural championship easily, defeating TKE 15-3 and 15-11 in the final round of the tournament.

Tau Omega reached the finals by defeating Pi Kappa Phi 15-3 and 15-10 in the opening round, and outlasting Rho Nu Delta 15-4 and 15-13 in the semi-finals.

In other games, Pi Kappa Phi defeated the ACE Club 15-9 and 15-8 in the semi-finals, after drawing a first round bye. Rho Nu Delta reached the semi-final round by beating Sigma Phi Epsilon 15-10 and 15-6 in first round play.

Crew Loses First Race; To Face LaSalle Tue

The University of Tampa crew team will go after its first win of the season next Thursday afternoon on the Hillsborough River course when it meets LaSalle College's oarsmen in a duel meet.

The Spartans lost their first race—a 9/10 mile encounter with Rollins and Florida Southern in the Founders Day Regatta at Lakeland—but showed good potential and will be out to upset LaSalle, regarded as one of the nation's top crews.

Coach Bill Stalnaker plans to go with the same starting lineups as in the first race with the possible exception of Larry Mason, captain, who has missed several days of practice due to illness.

Stalnaker moved Nick Nichols to Mason's No. 7 position and put Henry Valencini in Nick's spot in the bow. Others rowing in the varsity the pledges.

ALPHA CHI OMEGA

The Alpha Chis are presently recuperating from a visit with their Province President, Mrs. Marion Conner. Mrs. Conner was very much impressed with the Tampa U. chapter as were the members with Mrs. Conner.

At present the Alpha Chi's are making plans for their pledges. The sororities Bunny Day is coming some day next week, that is the day when the pledges dress like Bunnys and sell Easter candy for charity. So don't forget this worthy project the girls are putting on.

A beach house has already been secured for the Beach parties and the girls are hoping to see many of the students over at the beach during the holidays.

The Alpha Chi pledges have elected the following young ladies to offices during pledging; Connie Collins, President; Beth Carr, Veep; Joyce Beecheer, Secretary; Joan Jones, Treasurer; and Gloria Otero, Historian.

DELTA ZETA

The Delta eZtas have just elected new officers and will soon have their installation ceremony. The newly elected officers are Valentine Greco, President; Gordan Ann Summer, 1st Veep; Doris Hapton 2nd Veep; Louis Erk, Treasurer; Jeanette Maniscalco, Recording Secretary; Florentina Benitez, Correspondence Secretary; Shirley Alney, Historian; Nora Midulla, Guard; and Rita Jackson, Guard and Parliamentarian.

The DZ's are looking forward to the coming Easter holidays with enthusiasm. Their house will be in the vicinity of the Haven Beach Hotel.

The DZ's formal pledging was held March 12th. The following have been elected as the pledge officers: Joyce Capitano, President; Shirley Pullara, Secretary; and Romana Lopez, Treasurer.

no opportunity prior to employment to see a company in action. To help solve this problem, the Vick Chemical Company offers summer employment together with training opportunities for a group of carefully selected undergraduates. This type of experience should add a real 'plus' to your academic work in the following year."

Vick Chemical Company controls a number of other companies and offers a wide range of experience. Summer training programs are possible in the fields of ADVERTISING, SALES AND MERCHANDISING with such companies as Vick Products Division, Alfred D. McKelvy Company, Prince Matchabelli, Inc. (dealing in drugs and cosmetics), The William S. Merrell Company (Pharmaceutical Detailing), Hess and Clark, Inc. (Animal health products).

In the field of SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT the William S. Merrell Company (Prescription Pharmaceuticals); in the ACCOUNTS AND FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT field there are possible opportunities with the Vick Comp-troller Division, the Wm. S. Merrell Company, J. T. Baker Chemical Company and Hess & Clark, Inc.

Sophomore and Junior men interested in these possibilities should contact the Dean of Men.
