WAIT RESIGNS AS PRESIDENT OF STUDENT BODY

EKE OUT 57-15 WIN OVER HENDERSON QUINTET

HOLD HENDERSONS TO TWO POINTS IN
1ST, 3RD PERIODSSpartans Practically Clinch
Commercial Loop Crown

The Glenn Henderson team of the commercial league which forced the Spartans into an extra period in their first meeting, and who later challenged the Campus five to a grudge match, were ridiculously outclassed last night as they lost their third game to the Spartans by a 57 to 15 score.

The Henderson quintet, closely guarded all evening by the playful Spartans, were allowed to tally only once in the first period, and were held scoreless in the third quarter, which must be some sort of record. The Tampa U. representatives jumped off to an early lead and after the Henderson team had shot its bolt with a single field goal midway in the first period they proceeded to build up a 23 point lead. The Hendersons put on a brief eight point rally in the closing moments of the first half which ended with the Spartans heading the field by 28 to 10. And then in the third period while the Hendersons were striving vainly to mount their total the Spartans added 18 points to lead 46 to 10 and the final intermission.

To impulsive shooting and eccentric passing on the part of the Henderson cagers was attributed their failure to make a better showing. Willie Godwin, playing a handy-man role at forward, guard and center, was the most spectacular player on the floor, while Eldon Cage, high point man, was the most effective as usual.

In losing only three games of the twenty they have played the Spartans have scored the grand total of 893 points to 578, which figures to an average of approximately 44.5 points to 28.5 for the opponents. The Spartans have scored more than 50

Rogers Speaks Here
Before Big Audience

Mr. Sherman Rogers, Associate Editor of Liberty magazine and Director of the National Recovery Crusade, spoke last Tuesday afternoon as part of the "Faith in America" week program before an audience of University students, faculty and interested outside persons who nearly filled the Music Room of the University. He was introduced by Coach Nash Higgins, who worked with the Exchange Club in bringing Mr. Rogers to the University.

Confidence and pep characterized Mr. Rogers' speech. He stressed preparedness. "In any game or in life you must be physically fit. Parents, friends, money doesn't help at all when you're in the fight. It all depends on you."

Many interesting experiences in his life were brought out in his talk and helped to make it more real and enjoyable. The prize fight ring was his favorite example as he was once an up-and-coming boxer himself. The message which he used all his powers of eloquence to put over was that of self-confidence. "You're never down until you think you are." To prove his point he told the story of two frogs caught in a bowl of cream.

He declared that "the most valuable thing in life is true friendship. This is built by loyalty." Also that there were three sides to every question instead of the preconceived notion of two; yours, the other fellow's and the right side; because people in an argument always see things to suit themselves.

MAKE-UP ARTIST GIVES
PERFORMANCE HERECharacter Portrayals Liked
By Small Audience

Noah Beilharz, known as the "Master Make-Up Artist," was presented Monday night in the university music rooms as the second performance in the series of four entertainments to be sponsored by the university.

In the opening number of his program, Mr. Beilharz presented a comical debate with four distinct characters on each side. The performance then took a more serious trend as he gave an excerpt from the ever popular "David Harum," in which he tells the widow the story of his boyhood and cancels her mortgage.

Other numbers were a character recital of James Whitcomb Riley's "That's Literary"; "How The LaRue Stakes Were Lost"; "The Bird's Christmas Carol"; a character delineation of an Irish widow with nine children preparing to attend a birthday party; and "Uncle Hank of Beaverville, Michigan," a humorous character sketch.

His last number was the story of a schoolboy giving a reading of his composition on "Necks" on a Friday afternoon at the schoolhouse. The audience was enthusiastic in its appreciation of the entire performance.

Two And Two Are-?
Mental Giants Fail
In Simple Arithmetic

Two plus two no longer equals four according to some of the students who took the placement test in algebra given last week by Dr. Guy G. Becknell.

The test was based on junior high school algebra and the results were so astounding that a Math D class had to be organized for deficient students. Octavius Smith, an advanced math student, is teaching the class.

Queer and absurd, careless and ignorant mistakes appeared on the papers of supposedly honor students, students who made high averages in high school and entered the University apparently expecting to pass college algebra without knowing the fundamentals of addition, subtraction, multiplication, and division.

The promising young scholars had been told to prepare for a test in college algebra and some claimed to have studied diligently. On coming to class they were given a simple placement test similar to the English placement test, and some made as low as 15 percent. Loud and long complaints that the test was on nothing they had studied for were heard in the knots of students gathering after the class. They had prepared for a test in college algebra and couldn't pass a quiz on simple arithmetic and junior high school algebra.

Rushees Entertain Sorority
Members At Theatre Party

Last Wednesday night the rushees of the Delta Kappa sorority entertained members at a theater and slumber party at the home of Miss Margaret Rush.

The hostess and guests met at the home of Miss Rush and attended the 9 o'clock show at the Tampa theater. After their return a midnight supper was served.

The members of the sorority who attended were the Misses Edna Frances Prince, Hazel Webb, Carmen Cosio, Valerie Stubbs, Mary Litschgi, Louise Leonard, Dot Pou, Friscilla Henderson and Marguerite Litschgi.

OFFICE NOTICES

Regular and punctual attendance at classes is expected of all students unless satisfactory arrangements have been made for an absence.

1. Students on the dean's list suffer no penalty for absences.

2. Students making an average grade of B must have permission from the instructor before missing a class.

3. Students making an average grade of C have no permits to be absent from classes.

4. A student who exceeds the allowed number of excused absences may, at the discretion of the dean, have his semester grade reduced by 10 points, or the number of credit hours for the course reduced.

5. A student is placed on probation when a grade lower than C is made on as much as nine hours of work. In case the grade is not raised to at least a C within the six weeks after being placed on probation; he shall be required to drop some or all of his courses.

Y. M. H. A. HOOP SQUAD
AGAIN SPARTAN VICTIM,
LOSE BY 52-32 SCOREHiggins' Charges Increase
Lead of Commercial Loop

The unfortunate Y. M. H. A. cage team of the commercial league again fell prey to the red-jerseyed Spartan forces when they were defeated 51 to 32 for the seventh time on the casino court last Wednesday. The Y. M. H. A. aggregation, victimized by the Spartans early in the first round of commercial loop play, was no match for the fast moving University team in their second meeting. After holding pace for the first two periods the "Y" club was clearly outclassed by the Spartans' superiority.

It was the Spartans' seventh straight victory in the commercial league, and with only three more games remaining to be played they have practically clinched the championship.

Red Means regained his temporarily removed throne as high scorer with five field goals and two free throws for twelve points. "Tete Newcomb placed second with three field goals and an equal number of foul shots for nine points. Weisman, Y. M. H. A. forward led the opponents' tally with three field goals and four charity tosses for ten points.

Fouls were numerous throughout the game with eight players being chased to the showers on that count. The

D'Angelo Seeks Male
Voices For Glee Club

Plans have been completed for a University glee club under the direction of Mr. Antonio D'Angelo. The glee club will meet on Tuesday evenings from 8:30 until 10:00 in the music room.

Mr. D'Angelo made a stirring announcement and invitation at the student assembly Monday morning telling of the plans for the glee club and inviting all those who were really interested to join. Before, the glee club has been composed entirely of girls, and this time Mr. D'Angelo is seeking masculine talent.

According to Mr. D'Angelo, the glee club will be used as a publicity medium for the University, making several trips and giving programs over the radio.

LECTURER HERE MONDAY
IN 3RD ENTERTAINMENTBailey Will Speak on "Cash
For The New Deal"

Elwood T. Bailey, known as the second Will Rogers, will speak on "Cash for the New Deal" in the University music room at 8:30 next Monday night. This is the third in the series of four educational entertainments provided by the university.

Mr. Oliver H. Seaver, university music instructor, tells us that reports from other places in Florida say that Mr. Bailey's lecture is not only interesting but interspersed with enough humor to keep audiences in gales of laughter.

"So far he has played to capacity houses in all the places in which he has appeared. This is a real opportunity for students to hear a fine lecture on 'Cash for the New Deal' presented without the usual long, dry dissertations. Students of the University of Tampa who are passing up the opportunity to attend this series of entertainments being presented for the benefit of the student body are missing entertainments that are not only varied but highly pleasing as well," Mr. Seaver added.

"Cash for the New Deal" presents a challenge and timely, suggestive in-

Gallery Arranged To View Gals' Showers,
Will Accommodate 6

Of all the broken windows in the school, perhaps the most tragic and heartbreaking is the one in the girls' shower room in the physical ed department.

It seems that some of the "football" boys (nawsty ma-ans) have taken a peculiar fancy to walking on the roof. Accidentally, of course, two or three of them seem to have stepped on the skylight over the shower room, making splendid peanut gallery seats for at least six men.

The most peculiar part is that the seats are filled when the showers are filled. And when the room is empty—so are those choice two-bit seats!

Perhaps the young male sex which hangs out in the north third floor dormitory has turned from the heavier types of amusements such as movie magazines and blackjack to one in a lighter vein. Now we understand that Don William's radio could possibly chase the music lovers from their domain, but why in such an obvious direction?

The serious side of this is those cut feet which were caused by that broken glass which is still on the shower room floor. Perhaps some of those balcony seat spectators would clean it up? How about it boys, isn't that a fair price of admission?

Fla. Intercollegiate Press
Delegates See Times Plant

Last Friday a group of delegates from the Florida Intercollegiate Press association convention in Lakeland motored to Tampa and visited the Tampa Daily Times plant.

The delegates were met at the Times plant by Edna Frances Prince, editor of the Minaret. Ralph Nicholson, head of the Times advertising department, conducted the group through the plant, introducing the heads of the various departments and explaining the operation and capacity production of the presses, the making of plates and mats, the setting of type.

UNABLE TO CARRY
SUFFICIENT HOURS
TO HOLD POSITIONNew President Will Be Elected Next Friday

Wofford Wait, president of the student body, has tendered his resignation from that position.

Because Wait has been obliged to drop some of his courses, he is no longer carrying enough hours to hold a student office under the rules specified in the by-laws of the constitution, which require the carrying of nine hours. This ruling makes Wait's resignation effective immediately.

An election to determine the new president will be held on Friday, March 2, from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m., as announced by the student council Wednesday. The voting will be conducted in accordance with the rules set down in the by-laws which state balloting must be secret and that the polls will be in charge of the election committee.

According to the by-laws an aspirant for office must present to the election committee a petition signed by one-tenth of the voting student body before he is considered a nominee for election. No one name may appear on two separate petitions. If such duplication occurs, the petitioners will be allowed one day in which to correct the error. Nominees must be members of the upper classes.

Petition forms may be obtained today from the dean's office, and all petitions must be turned in to the election committee, consisting of Billy Logan, Mary Litschgi, Dr. A. C. Matts, and Mr. Richard Berry, by midnight Monday, February 26.

Wait graduated from Clermont high school in 1929. After a lapse of two years during which he did not attend school, he registered at the University of Tampa, then known as the Tampa Junior college. Last year he was elected president of his class, and, as a member of the student council presided over by Marcus Hall helped draw up the constitution of the student body. In the May election in 1933 he defeated Theodore Lesley for the presidency of the student body.

This year is the second anniversary

Issue First Call For Baseball Candidates

Baseball practice, which was to have begun last Monday was postponed because of indifferent weather until Monday, Feb. 26.

Tampa University's baseball squad will be under the leadership of Charlie Allen, well-known baseball and football authority, who formerly played professional baseball. He managed the Tampa Smokers of the Southeastern League in 1926, winning the pennant with a very strong team. He then coached the strong Tampa Junior Legion team and had five successful seasons.

Tampa University boys with any baseball experience at all are urged to come out to practice. Those intending to come out are: Buck Torres and Percy Gonzales, who formerly played for Mr. Allen in American Legion ball. Jimmy White, exceptional 3rd baseman, who has played several seasons with the Fire Department team in the City League, Tete Newcomb, Clearwater outfielder, who has played in fast semi-professional company, Ellis Williamson, former Plant pitcher, Willie Godwin, outfielder, Rudy Rodriguez, former Plant infielder, Johnny Mastry, catcher, Ellis Hill, catcher, Johnny Edison, catcher, Crockett Farnell, infielder, Marvin Chaney, pitcher, Ray Hurn, pitcher, Ed O'Reilly, outfielder, and Eldon Cage, infielder, complete the list. See Jimmy White for further information.

Although the Minaret has not refrained, on occasion, from criticizing Wofford Wait and the student council, the notice of his resignation as president of the student body was received with real regret.

At times we have denounced him for his lack of accomplishments since taking office, but we denounced him because we knew of his brilliant accomplishments in student government in the past and felt that he was not living up to his previous standards.

Because other matters required his attention during his administration, Wait was handicapped by lack of time for the proper discharge of his duties. Those same pressing matters have finally obliged him to tender his resignation from office. He is to be commended on his sportmanlike attitude in unselfishly giving up his position, the highest conferred on any University student, when he felt himself no longer able to fill it.

Opportunities Lost

Mr. Spaulding's timely talk in chapel last Monday should be taken to heart by the student body. We have had wonderful advantages offered us here this year in the form of lectures, concerts, and social affairs, but the only ones we have really bothered to notice were the social events.

This is a serious reflection on our good sense and even on our intelligence—if any is of it. We should make these educational amusements a vital part of our college life as they are in other institutions. A date for a lecture costs no more as a rule than a date for a dance. Furthermore, there are many lectures at times when classes are in session. Would it not be much more interesting to attend a lecture in the library—a free lecture by an excellent and well-informed speaker—would and should this not be more interesting to a supposedly intelligent student body than a ball session in the lobby?

There was a time when a teacher sent a little boy home with a note that it was useless to send Tommy to school any longer, for "he just could not learn." The Tommy of this story was Thomas A. Edison, a genius whose inventions have spread and helped the whole civilized world. People laughed at him when he chose to improve his time by studying, but who knows the name of the conductor that struck him deaf because of his foolishness? who can name the teacher who sent the note to his mother?

We are not all Edisons and most of us are not geniuses in any way, but we will accomplish a lot more while we live if we improve our spare time. Let us make dates for the lectures and recitals as well as for the dances. Let us form interested and appreciative audiences. Most of the time it costs us nothing, and the rest of the time the fees are very small. We can attend these functions and be through in time to reach dances and parties. Let's show the public the sensible side of our student body once in a while.

Borrowers

It's rather a touchy subject, but various articles have been disappearing around the building for some time. There is the well-known case of a certain radio; there is the case of a brand new hat which was, we suspect, taken as a souvenir; then someone or some group has shown an affinity for gasoline, money, books, cigarettes, screwdrivers, and even a grindstone.

There may be a kleptomaniac about, but we dislike the thought that students are responsible for these things. Last year a number of petty thieveries were traced to an organized group of outsiders.

It would be somewhat embarrassing for the University to be forced to take stringent measures in regard to this matter, and we hope that whoever is responsible for this state of affairs will discontinue operations. Of course, those who have lost things will be glad to have them returned if the "borrower" should suffer an attack of conscience, but let us be more careful about permanent borrowing.

Same Old Story

Lost—Something important. At the first of the year we had a lot of excitement over elections. We have forgotten what offices were to be filled, but there were elections and we had supposed that there would be a lot of activity, meetings, plans, publicity, etc. Instead—silence!

Where are the officers we elected? What are they doing? What has the freshman class done recently? What have the sophomore, junior, and senior classes done at all this year? Was there a student council at one time? If so, what happened to it?

Let's have some action. We can't have much school spirit if we don't act as classes and a student body. If these officers do not think up things to do, let's get some new ones!

Critics Premature

Roosevelt's cancellation of the air-mail contracts has caused much comment pro and con. Many people believe that he has made a mistake. This is not the time to criticize a man who is trying his best to be the "savior" of our country, who is doing his best in what he believes is right, and who has already gone a long way toward setting our country back on its feet.

He may be right in this matter; time alone will prove it. At any rate, let's give him this chance. Let's back him in all that he undertakes, and not condemn him before he is proved wrong.

Roosevelt can't save the nation by himself. He must have the wholehearted cooperation of all the people. He has already accomplished wonders, and he is going to do more. His entire interest is in the welfare of the nation.

With an able leader, and with the entire populace back of him, seemingly impossible herculean tasks can be accomplished.

Life Is Fleeting

The Belgian people mourn for their lost ruler. Their beloved king is dead. The whole nation deplores his loss; the sympathy of the whole world goes out to his bereaved family and subjects. One moment he was living. The next came a slip, a fall, and darkness.

We never know what the future has in store for us; we never know whether the next moment will bring us joy, grief, or death. We can't foresee when the light of our candles will shine no more.

"Life is fleeting; time is fleeting." We know not the hour or the day when our time is at hand. When the time of your life goes out will you be able to say "I've done the best that I could?"

The Panther Muezzin

By CARL OPP

Big Game Tonight

Tonight at 8:00 at the Tampa Bay Casino a fully recovered Panther five will face the Terrier cage team in the second game of the city championship basketball series. The first game of the series was won by the Panthers, and tonight they hope to be able to gain another victory. With Henry Watson back at center and the other players no longer suffering from colds the team is once again in good condition.

Attempts are being made to have the band present, and we urge all the students to attend this game, since it is a crucial battle for both teams and also the last game our boys will have here this season. So come to the Casino tonight and see two well-matched teams play man-sized tiddle-de-winks. Hillsborough will be well represented; let's see that we are!

Student Council Committees

At the meeting of the Student Council Tuesday morning the following students were appointed to fill various positions:

Richard Rodriguez, Athletic committee; Carl Opp, reporter; Jane Cralle, Infirmary; Jeanie Trice, House committee; Kenneth Hurley and Nell Robey Webb, Social Service committee; Frank Lane, yard committee; Emily Bush, scrapbook.

The chairmen have not announced those whom they have selected as aides. The chairmen of the Cafeteria committee, Richard Rodriguez and Curry Stephenson, reported on the progress of their work.

Teacher Injured

As he was driving to school through the rain Monday morning Mr. Blate, teacher of science at Plant, collided with the Tampa Electric school bus at the corner of Mallico and Barcelona and received superficial cuts and bruises on his hands and head as he was thrown from his car. Mr. Blate was going west and the bus was going north when the accident occurred. The bus driver jumped the curb and ran his machine into a yard in order to stop it. Some of the students riding in the bus received slight cuts from broken glass, but other than these no one was injured.

Mr. Blate was unable to return to school for awhile and a substitute teacher took his place.

Junior Rotarian

From the list of suggestions made by the Senior A's some time ago Carlos Baillif has been chosen as Junior Rotarian from Plant High School. We take this occasion to congratulate him on this honor. Carlos is also the leader of the B. Y. P. U. for this section of the state.

Meeting of Library Assistants

Tuesday morning during home room period Mr. Gay called the new library assistants into a meeting for the purpose of discussing whatever problems may arise during the week and for checking up on the work of the assistants. It is hoped by this practice of weekly meetings to be able to gain greater efficiency in library work.

Impersonals

1. Our idea of an arch fiend: The fellow who parked his little Whippet by the south side, locker entrance Monday morning so that you had to dash ten feet farther through the rain before you could gain the doorway.
 2. Snapshot scene: Sara (How-much) Moore, at one of the latest dances, coming in from the porch with a certain boy and archly exclaiming, "Oh, I didn't think that of you!"

3. Oscar Davis has gone to Tennessee for awhile; maybe he'll get the smoke cleared from his eyes while he is gone. My! what will Betty do now?

4. Julien Pate likes fish food yet, but a certain young athlete here has climbed out of the fish bowl of his own accord, lately.

5. A new, but mythical, organization at Plant is the "Chauffeurs' Club" which is composed of boys on whom the girls in the gay 90's could have relied for transportation. Charter members are: Jack Whitesides, Francis Kearney, Wayne Walker, Curry "Ben Bernie" Stephenson, and Richard Rodriguez (who is reported to have resigned last Friday night).

6. What certain boys think of the opposite sex generally:

Kearney—"They're all a pain!"
 Walker—"I can't speak so hastily."
 (Yah! Lady's man!)

Barber—"Some of them are very sweet." (Speaking specifically, who, Harold?)

Bowen—"I can not be bothered." (What an ambiguous statement, Joe!)
 Hendry—(overheard) "Heck! he didn't ask me!" (We were afraid to, Russell, after what we heard about last Friday nite.)

7. It appears that Minter Clark likes stars—Carl Opp, a football star during football season is now ditched for a basketball star for basketball season.

Negative Campus Types

Get Busy Now

At the last of a semester there is always a great deal of joking about "cramming." In reality "cramming" is not a joke at all, but a quite abominable last resort of the lazy or absent-minded.

Most students do not care to be called lazy, but few are absent-minded enough to forget their studies for a whole semester. This alibi therefore, is invalid for the majority of us. This is the time to get busy and study. No high sounding idealisms need be expressed. All that is necessary is a decision to do work when it is assigned rather than when it is due.

Let's get busy right now and be able to go to a dance the night before exams instead of studying until our heads are whirling so fast that we can't do ourselves justice when the "great day" arrives.

Consider Others' Rights

Courtesy, a cardinal virtue of a gentleman or a lady, is sadly lacking in some people around this university. They show no respect or regard for the rights of others.

A private office should be private. It belongs to a person or a group of persons. Certainly it is only common courtesy to knock on the door before entering. Many people unceremoniously walk into an office with no thought of announcing their arrival. With most people this is only carelessness that they could avoid if they tried.

Let's have a little more thoughtfulness, a little less carelessness, and a little more consideration for the rights of others.

INGLING SNOWED UNDER S SPARTANS REGISTER RECORD COLLEGE SCORE

Painters Swamped Under Top-Heavy 83-31 Score

The Spartan hoop squad completely overwhelmed the Ringling College painters here Wednesday night at the casino court running up an 83 to 31 score, the record high college score for this city. After the Tampa U. team had jumped off to an early lead the Painters managed to hold their own during the first quarter, but the Spartans asserted themselves to lead 34 to 20 at the half time intermission. From that time on Coach Nash Higgins used his second and third stringers, substituting continually.

The Spartans were expecting a tight game with the Painters, who were defeated by only a ten point margin last week by the K. M. I. cagers who had previously triumphed over the Spartans. However, the Ringling representatives were unable to side the competition looked for and the Spartans made a Roman Holiday of the affair.

Eldon Cage, ace forward put on a show by himself with his uncanny passing ability and his spectacular scoring. During the course of the evening he rang up ten field goals and a pair of charity tosses for twenty-two points. Tete Newcomb was not far behind with seven field goals and one free throw for fifteen points. Hannan, Painter center, led the visitors in scoring with four field goals and two foul shots for ten points.

Spartan Sport Slants

By ELDON CAGE

The Spartans first two athletic teams, football and basketball, have thus far been very successful under the guidance of Coach Nash Higgins. Sport Slants wishes the Spartans like success in future ventures.

Baseball and track, the coming major sports, will begin soon. Coach Higgins will coach the track team, while Charlie Allen, widely known football and baseball authority, will have charge of the Diamond squad.

The boxing, wrestling, tennis, golf, fencing and swimming teams are in the making. More boys are urged to enter these activities.

"Sully" Higgins, versatile coach, Professor, Engineer, Donkey rider, and an attentive Daddy seems to have the "Indian Sign" on Coach McQuillan of Stetson University, whose main duty is coaching. Sully holds three victories over McQuillan in their only competitive meetings of their present schools.

Not forgetting the Spartanettes, we must congratulate them for their fine play in basketball, especially their commercial league play, where their record is as good as the Spartans.

The closing of the Tampa Downs dampened the spirits of several of our University boys (ask Wilbur Gunnoe), as most of the boys working at the Downs really needed the money, etc. (ask Wilbur).

Marion Lee, Pat Patterson, Willie Godwin, Bert McCollum and Hart Overstreet are teaching the kiddies how to play now at the school playgrounds. After a long season of learning to take it and like it, teaching children should be a bit easier.

Oh, yes! have you seen Coach Higgins' new car, "it's a darby," has knee-action, no-draft ventilation and all dressed up in the latest of automotive creations; however, Johnny Mastry still contends it's the same make as Rudy's "Green Sedan."

Monkey Rhines sprained his ankle in a basketball game last week and his tap dancing, carrioca, hula-hula, etc. were sorely missed by the dormitory boys for a few days.

"King Kong" Hurn undoubtedly had a busy football season, with practice after practice, and game after game, but with his "rush season" on now, it's "blonde after brunette" and "red-heads after blonde." "Yours 'twant the only heart to be broken, Katie."

Plebes Smother South Side By 60-24 For Second Win

Friday afternoon saw a vicious Plebe cage team run rough shod over the South Side Basket Snippers by a 60-24 score for their second straight win in the intramural league.

The unstoppable dribbling of Jimmy White, the uncanny basket eye of Ellis Hill and the possum antics of Joe Carr were features of the Plebes' successful encounter.

The ability to miss easy crib shots caused the downfall of the South Side team. John Flannery, Billy Hand, Walter Hoy, and Monkey Rhines were unusually clever in the art of missing easy baskets.

Monkey Rhines was the defensive star of the South Side team but was chased on four personals late in the game.

Ellis Hill dropped thru eleven field goals for twenty-two points, the highest personal score thus far in the league.

He was only sixteen, yet he had Pink Razor Blades.

Sigma Kappa Nu Triumphs Over Beta Chi 24-17, Belt Line Finale Is Added Insult

The Sigma Kappa Nu frat quintet gained a hard earned 24 to 17 victory over the Beta Chi five in an intramural game on the casino court last week.

The first half was a tight, close guarding affair with the Sigma Nus holding a 7 to 6 edge at the half intermission. As the second half opened the victors pulled out in front to a comfortable lead that was maintained the remainder of the game.

The losers were invited through the belt line after the game and all available belts were unsparingly used. Patrick Stuckey apparently enjoyed the applications for he voluntarily took a second dose.

The two teams will meet again soon as a game in the regular intramural schedule. Flannery, Sigma Nu center was high scorer with three field goals and a pair of foul shots for seven points. L. Sullivan, also of Sigma Nu, was second with two field goals and three charity tosses for seven points. The lineups and summary:

CONCERNING THE SPARTANETTE

Our girl basket-tossers are still going strong. Undeclared in the City League they have only two more games to play. The game with Coca-Cola has been postponed until March 12th., and will be played at the Legion Casino. On Friday night, March 2nd, the Spartanettes will play the American Legion, a team which has shown a great deal of improvement lately and which is expected to give the local girls some keen competition. If the Spartanettes are successful in winning this game, the Tampa University-Coca-Cola game will decide the city championship. The award for the winning of this championship, a beautiful silver trophy, will be awarded at an informal basketball party, sponsored by the City Recreation Department, which will be held at the Legion Casino at the close of the season.

This week end the Spartanettes are playing in the Gold Medal Tournament at Clearwater. They wish to express their thanks to the Dean and to Mr. Price for their willing support and to those who have so kindly offered their services in other ways.

In a girls' intramural basketball game the "Larks," captained by Dorothy Pou, will meet the "Pebbles," captained by Betty Stone. According to rumors the game promises to be a good one in spite of the fact that it is not a grudge game and the losers will not have to go through the belt line.

The Spartanettes defeated Bill's Bakery team from Tarpon Springs at Clearwater Tuesday night, by a score of 19-9.

This was a return game, the Bakery girls having been defeated on the Casino court 45-24 last week. The Spartanette offense was not working as smoothly, however, as before, evidenced by the small lead which was garnered in this second game. The defense was clicking, for they allowed the Bakery team only 9 points in the whole game.

This game was the last on the schedule before the State Tournament at Clearwater this week-end, and this one more victory should give them a good start on the way to more wins.

Intramurals

Intramural basketball games last week represented a wide variety in scores. The Pi Epsilon trounced the Sigma Kappa Nu 47-16 in Monday's game. Traina and Newkirk led the Pi Epsilon sharpshooters, while Gilbert totaled half of his team's points.

The Pi Epsilon squad returned to the court Tuesday and scored a 25-14 victory over the South Side basketeers, for two straight wins. Traina was again the big scorer for Pi Epsilon, while Norris led the South Siders.

Wednesday saw the Sigma Kappa Nu drop their second game of the week, this time to the Plebes 31-20. Wooten was the high point contributor for the Kappa Nu cause. The Plebes scoring was well divided, Sanford holding a slight edge over his mates.

Pi Epsilon defeated the Plebes Wednesday of this week 39-18, in a rough but fast game at the Legion Casino. At the half, Pi Epsilon led by one point, 8-7, but the uncanny eye of Traina found the basket, and dropped them through one after the other.

The lineups and points made follow:

Plebes (18)	G.	F.	Tp.

Wait Resigns as President Of Tampa U. Student Body

of student government in the University of Tampa.

At the beginning of the school year 1932-33, on the petition of the students it was decided to organize a form of student government. Marcus Hall was elected to the key position of president of the student body and chairman of the first student council. Under his leadership the council composed of Wait, Jacqueline Bettis, Bill Hippenmeier, Theodore Lesley, Morton Hackney, and Winston Fowler worked out the plan of the present student government, drew up and presented to the student body the constitution, and immediately began the organization of extra-curricular activities which formed the beginning and proved to be the base for those of the present day University.

The council appointed Miller Adams as chairman of an athletic committee which put out a football and basketball team for boys and a volleyball and basketball team for girls. Edna Frances Prince as chairman of a publications committee and editor of a bulletin which was the forerunner of the present Minaret, and Theodore Lesley as chairman of a social committee which staged many successful dances for students and their friends.

This year the council has made several rulings concerning the students such as prohibiting the wearing on the campus of letters other than those presented by the University of Tampa, has budgeted the student activity fund, has appointed such committees as the election committee, the executive committee, and the social advisory committee, and at the beginning of the year provided a charter for the college publication.

Wait's statement is as follows:
To the Students of the University of Tampa:

In the time I have been a student here, I have been deeply interested in the growth of the University from a shoestring junior college into an institution of which students and townsmen are justly proud. It has been a rare privilege to have a small part in forming and continuing student government, and, needless to say, the accomplishments of the students have in some cases been little short of miraculous.

I wish to express thanks and appreciation to those who have tried to cooperate with me in establishing precedents and institutions within the Student Body. Undoubtedly the Minaret stands out as a college paper second to none published by schools of this size. It will be found to compare most favorably with organs of public appeal in far larger and older colleges and universities. May this infant of ours, not yet past its first milestone, continue to carry on with true Spartan courage! I want to thank and commend Editor Prince, Director Webb, Paul Daniels, Helen Aronovitz, Bill Miller, Roy Hunter, Gettes Smith, Winston Fowler, Marcus Hall, Florence Lenfesty and the others for their untiring efforts to give Tampa U. the best college paper in the south. Much credit is due the social advisory committee, especially Mary Litschgi, for the signally successful events thus far enjoyed by the students. To President Spaulding, Dean Coulson, Mr. Robert F. Webb, Mr. Berry, Dr. Becknell, and the other members of the faculty I want to express personal thanks for the many bumps they have helped me smooth and for the advice they have given the council at various times. There are others to whom I am under deep obligations. Let me acknowledge these with a word of appreciation to Theodore Lesley, Pat Stuckey and the other members of my fraternity, Bill Hippenmeier, some of the members of the football squad, the cheerleaders and above all, to the members of the Student Council, past and present.

A few parting thoughts before I go. Students, work hard to maintain our present clean politics; think well before you make constitutional changes, fight your battles as fairly in the future as you have in the past; keep your paper from becoming a political football; consider well before you stumble into the pitfalls of an honor system based on the principles of one in our nearest large institution of higher learning, one which has become corrupt and the laughing stock of students and patrons; and above all, cherish our few legends and traditions. - Make those live forever.

Due to the press of outside obligations which entail the dropping of class hours sufficient to render my schedule below the constitutional minimum for officers of the student body, I must drop my active part in student body affairs.

For the present, anyway, I shall watch and participate in the activities of the University in the role of an interested and enthusiastic spectator rather than that of leader.

Quitting is sometimes the hardest job of all. I find it so in tendering for your approval my resignation of the Presidency of the Student Body of the University of Tampa.

On thy cold gray stones, oh sea,
But if you should break a thousand years
You'd ne'er be as broke as me.

This parody on Tennyson's immortal poem certainly pictures my financial state for the month of February. The combination of the Fair Valentine Day, and the Valentine Dance is reason enough for this state. It was well spent, however, particularly on the last. Those who couldn't beg, borrow, or steal the 40 cents to get in surely missed a good floor show... it was worth $1 to see Julia Folsom doing the Carrioca... What could have been Joe Carr's remark to the orchestra leader about Ben Bernie? That's one thing that has been puzzling me since then... Could the reason that one tall, dark femme didn't come at the first of the dance be that he didn't have the price of admission? The blonde that A. C. was sporting around was a sight for sore eyes...

It seems that Barbara Alexander and Julia Folsom know where their history book is but they can't get up to the 3rd floor to get it...

The Delta Kappa rushes went to town on their party Wednesday... The combination of a theater party, a midnight supper, and a slumber party worked out very well... The thing that got the boys down was two words, "no dates"... what a shame!

Just what can the old students do? The new ones are certainly going to town and wrecking several romances around here... unintentionally, of course. What is wrong with the two Oglethorpe boys? All the University femmes are well-aware of their existence, but I think they don't even know that this is a co-educational school... The new girls are far from being injurious for the eyesight, either.

We all killed a big one in the memory of Washington as there was no school on the 22nd... I hope you laid your plans and got your girl well in advance... Here's to more and more holidays, lead us to them... we can take them.
