The Editor Comments

Finally! — Men Cheerleaders! It has long been the opinion of this editor that male cheerleaders would certainly help boost school spirit and cheering at football games. Now that the initial step has been taken, more organization should follow.

Men should have uniforms as do the female cheerleaders. Both should work together on routines to accompany cheers.

Another compliment — to the brilliant individuals who built the platform for the cheerleaders. This tends to facilitate communication with the spectators.

Why don't the dancettes and majorettes spread out to other areas during the games. Cheerleaders along with the above groups huddle together in front of the student section. Not only do they detract from each other but they leave a vast number of staunch fans unattended. Certainly other Spartans supporters which include faculty members deserve a little encouragement.

There has been talk of extending the student section to encompass a wider area including more of the better seats. Why not some student work to turn this talk into action.

The tempo of the music offered by the university band during the football games has definitely quickened. Lively music has certainly helped school spirit along during the last two games. Ability to follow constructive criticism is a virtue that is often found in individuals and groups.

Along a somewhat different vein — a suggestion for the future election of Senior Clas notables and all similar situations. Why not have nominations qualified by the person who nominates an individual for a title. Qualifications are therefore made known to the voters at large. In this way confusion and criticism are avoided.

On the subject of Homecoming — in compliance with student wishes the Inter Fraternity Sorority Council has arranged to engage a name vocalist, Joni James, for the Tampa University Homecoming Dance. This greek organization assumes liability for the financial aspects of the celebration. Their attempt to help produce a "better than ever" homecoming could be rewarded in no better way than with the cooperation of the entire student body. In this case cooperation means buying tickets to the Dance on Nov. 5, and attending.

Dr. J. L. Keene Is Spearheading Drive For History Frat.

by Norman Blancato

Dr. Jesse L. Keene, Professor of History and Political Science at the University of Tampa, is spearheading a drive for the establishment of a history honorary fraternity on campus during this semester.

Phi Alpha Theta is the name of this national honor society in history. Membership is compiled of students and faculty member interested in the study of history. Nine or more properly qualified persons at any properly accredited four year degree granting college or university may petition the National Council of the society for the establishment of a local chapter.

At present, approximately seven Tampa U. students possess the qualifications necessary for admittance to this honorary. Dr. Keene is also encouraging other history professors in joining.

Teachers of history above the rank of the graduate assistant, are eligible for active membership. In order to qualify for membership, a student must have 12 semester hours in history with a B average in these courses. In addition, he must have a B average in two thirds of all other courses. He must also rank in the upper 35% of his class.

Dr. Keene, who holds membership in the Gamma Eta Chapter of Phi Alpha Theta at the University of Florida stated, "I feel that existence of this organization on campus is desirable for it will bring students and faculty, together. It will give this group an opportunity to hear talks from people noted in the historical field.

"Pause For Power"

by Rev. Thomas S. Simmons

PRAYER

What is prayer? Today our politicians ask us to pray for peace. Our preachers, priests, and rabbis ask us to pray for the advancement of God's kingdom. Even Mr. Khrushchev said, "With God as my witness . . ." If a wide variety of people such as these, request prayer or call upon God then just what is prayer? Can anyone pray?

The first aspect of prayer is talking with God. Before a person can talk with Him, he must meet certain criteria. Some of these are: being on speaking terms with God; having a reason for prayer; and a willingness to accept God's will.

If a person is to talk to the Supreme Being, then he must be willing to be ready to speak to Him. To be ready to speak to God implies a yielding will, an open heart and a clean life (or a desire to clean it).

Also if a person is to pray a valid prayer he must have a reason for prayer. Aimless prayer is no prayer. Many times we should pray just to remind God that we love him. We should spend at least one-half of an hour each day in prayer, with a definite purpose.

The last criterion is a willingness to accept God's will. So many times people pray just to reinforce their own desires or thoughts. God will not answer or bless such a prayer as this. If we ask God for financial assistance, then we must accept the job He may offer. Of course, all answers to prayer are not this evident, but sincere prayer with a purpose, offered by a person on speaking grounds with God, will be answered.

The second aspect of prayer is procedure. There is a definite method of prayer, set down by God Himself. "After this manner therefore pray ye: 'Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.'" —Matthew 6:9-13

KJV. If we follow this pattern of prayer, we have God's promise that our prayer will be answered.

Our definition of prayer could be: Prayer is talking with God for purpose, following a definite procedure that is set down by God.

After establishing this definition, we can now regress to our previous statement: "Can anyone pray?" If a man doesn't have salvation before he feels a need to pray, then the only prayer for that individual is a petition for forgiveness. If a man has walked away from God, he must first come back before seeking things from Him. If a person has sin in his life, then he must first seek forgiveness for that sin — then seek God in praise and petition.

If you sometime feel as though your prayers never go higher than the ceiling, then perhaps you need to search your life, find your fault, and with God's help, correct it. Your prayers are meaningless, useless, and a waste of time unless this is done. "Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding." Proverbs 3:5 KTV.

Mirabile and Alvarez Attend Publications Workshop in Mississippi

Editor in chief of the Moroccan, Andrew Mirabile, and Associate Editor of the Minaret, Pat Alvarez, were sent by Student Senate to attend the First Annual Convention of the Southern Universities' Student Government Association (SU SGA) in Jackson, Miss. This convention was sponsored to further the unity of Southeastern college especially through this publication workshop.

Over 100 delegates were present to discuss and share any information which would help the university publications.

At the convention many important matters were discussed and many brilliant professors were present to discuss local problems.

The evening of Oct. 20 was highlighted by a banquet in the cafeteria and music by the Columbia Recordings stars Art and Paul. The remainder of the evening was spent singing folk songs under their direction.

"St. Paul" Oratorio Will Be Presented

The oratorio "St. Paul" by Felix Mendelssohn Batholdy will be presented in the University of Tampa Ballroom by the combined choirs of the University of Tampa and its Community Choir, under the direction of Dr. Harvey Maier, chairman of the Music Department. A symphonette will accompany the oratorio and Mr. Stephen Parks, professor of music at the University will be at the organ.

Mendelssohn finished the oratorio shortly after the death of his father in 1835. It was first performed at the Lower Rhine Festival in Dusseldorf, in 1836.

"St. Paul" shows Mendelssohn's singular ability to touch the emotional springs of the listener. The oratorio, composed in the style of Bach, presents the chorus with many challenges to interpret the beauty and feeling inherent in the music.

The performance begins at 8 P. M. on Nov. 13 without any charge to the public.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB TO MEET TONIGHT

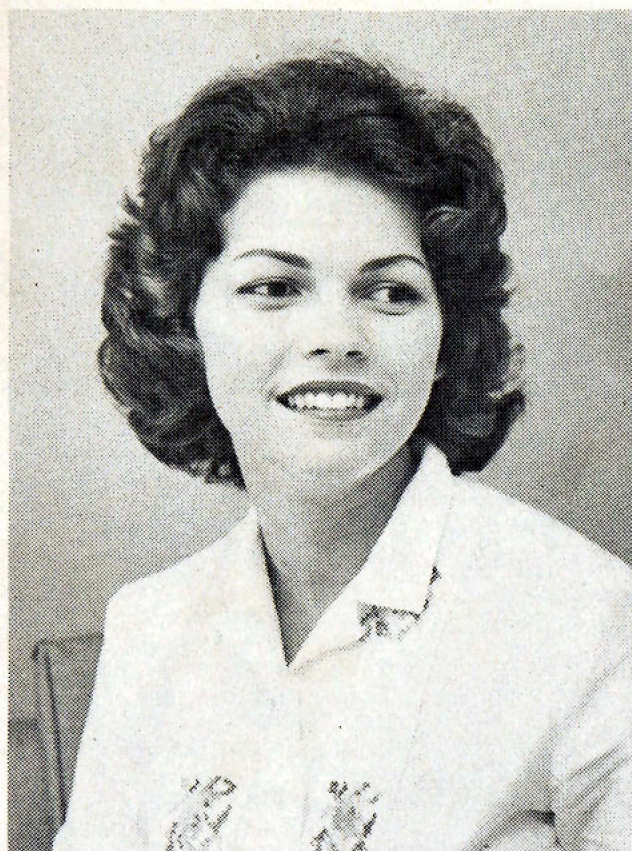

The International Relations Club got off to an excellent start this year. There seem to be a lot more interest on the part of the students than there has been in the past. This young blood should make the I.R.C. one of the most active, stimulating, and worthwhile organizations on campus. Stimulating issues, provocative speakers, and constructive discussion will compose the nucleus of club activity.

International Relations is a much neglected issue. However, in these troubled times it is of vital importance. Better understanding among the people of the world is necessary if peace is to be maintained and prosperity promoted.

When we start discussing something, it is surprising and enlightening to discover the many varied points of view that we had never thought of. We learn that what we see one way, someone else sees in an entirely different way, and his argument is just as logical as ours. In this way, understanding is created, and tolerance and constructive criticism can take the place of blind hatred. This is what we are trying to promote at the I.R.C. We are indeed fortunate in having representatives from many different countries who can teach us a great deal.

Our next meeting is on Oct. 31 at 8:00 P.M., in the T.U. Ballroom. Our speaker will be the handsome adventurer, Nick Piantanida. After the meeting, elections for club officers will be held. In order to vote, one must have paid his semester's dues ($1.00). Refreshments are served at all meetings. Interested students are invited to attend.

THE GREEKS SPEAK

ZETA TAU ALPHA

Yolanda Gonzalez Pledges Zeta

Fall rush was very rewarding to Zetas on campus who have taken Yolanda Gonzalez as a fall pledge. Yolanda, a pert little brunette, is active in campus as Co-head Dancerette. She is also on the staff of the Minaret, the Moroccan, a member of the Newman Club and F.E.A. Intramurals meant another win for Zetas, who defeated the Delta Zeta sorority 2 straight games, and the Westminster girls 2 games out of 3. Linda Boyette is in charge of Zeta intramurals and is ably assisted by Judy Buckley.

The Zeta room has an entirely new decor thanks to the cooperation of the administration and the work of the girls. The Zeta "meeting place" has been painted, new curtains added, and the furniture even has a new look thanks to the upholstery work of Joann Randazzo and Mary Ann Hunt. Plans are in the making for even more fixing up in the near future.

The Zeta Tau Alpha Luncheon held at the Tropics was a success and was attended by a good number of Zeta actives and alumnae.

Zeta activities the past week have centered around Homecoming as final details went into the skit, lawn display and float, and also vigorous campaigning for the three Zetas running for Homecoming Queen.

Zeta Lucy Cabrera has announced that her wedding to Pi Kapp Billy Turner will take place on Nov. 24 at Sacred Heart Church.

THETA CHI

Frat Pledges Five Men

As are all other Greek organizations on campus the Theta Chis are busily working on their Homecoming float, skit, and display. They claim the float "will be more than just original."

The intramural team for Theta Chi lost a game to the men's dorm association, 7-0, and won a victory over the Newman Club, 28-0. Their record is now 2-1.

Theta Chi Fraternity held a pledge party at Ralston Beach. Food consisted of chicken, potato salad, which was prepared by some Zetas, and Cuban bread. The traveling secretary for the fraternity was present.

New pledges obtained by Theta Chi, during fall rush are: Frank Mehok, Paul Apple, Vincent Mandese, and Bob Stuckey. They have one transfer pledge, who is Paul Robinson. Paul comes from Beta Psi chapter at Presbyterian College, Clinton, South Carolina. While at Presbyterian, Paul was vice-president of the pledge class, a member of the Presbyterian College Choir, a member of the rifle team, and belonged to Westminster Fellowship.

Fraternity officers for the 1960-61 year are: president, Rene Carrera, vice-president, Ralph Lazzara; secretary, Andrew Mirabole; treasurer, Louis Guinta; pledge marshal, Joe Andrews; assistant pledge marshal, John Procaccio, Jr.; historian, Sam Sardegna, and sergeant-at-arms, Rudy Reina. Acting as parliamentarian-at-large is Wayne Wilson.

DELTA ZETA

OZ's Celebrate Founders' Day

Sandra Rima is the new Delta pledge for fall rush. Sandy is a sophomore. After her pledging Friday night she was entertained at Carmine's Restaurant.

The D.Z.'s have not been caught napping for Homecoming. They have put much time and energy into constructing their float, skit, and lawn display.

Oct. 24 marked the anniversary of the founding of Delta Zeta Sorority. Delta Beta Chapter observed Founders Day by wearing white and the following day the event was commemorated by a dinner for the alumnae held at Rocky Point Restaurant.

The Delta Zeta Sorority is sponsoring Marie Goding for Homecoming Queen candidate.

Tau Kappa Epsilon

TKE's Redecorate Room

The "new look" of TKE is apparent in more ways than one. Starting off the year in their recently redecorated and refurnished rooms, Tekes are hoping to have a unique skit and float for Homecoming. Fraters Bernie McGovern and Mike Hoperich are respective chairmen of these two projects.

The Tau Kappa Epsilon rush party, which was attended by many graduate members, was held at Colonial Beach. Fraters and guests agreed that Victor Borge has serious competition from Frater Ed Van Gelder.

Frater Walter Sadlowski has been appointed Business Manager of the Moroccan.

Alpha Chi Omega

Alpha Chis Attend Sig Ep Rush Party

The Alpha Chis are proud to announce their new pledges obtained during fall rush. They are Joyce Wainwright, Carole McSwain and Pam Seifert.

At the annual Script Dance sponsored by the Alpha Chis everyone seemed to have a great time. The Sig Eps honored the sorority last week by asking it to attend their rush party given at Ralston Beach. This was the first time on this campus that a sorority had been asked to do this.

A Carnation Breakfast will be held Saturday, Oct. 22, in the Morrisonette Room.

Our new "active" for this week is Carole Martin. Carole was born in Chicago, Ill., and has lived in Tampa only seven years. She attended Chamberlain High School where she was a member of National Honor Society, Kiwanettes, Student Council, Future Teachers of America, and the Pan American Club. She was also among the class notables and was active as a major-ette.

Since she has been at Tampa U. Carole has been a majorette and in Student Senate. She is presently employed by W.T.V.T., works as a commercial artist, teaches baton, does some modeling, and is a secretary for one of our professors.

Madeline Parsley

Sigma Sigma Sigma

National President Visits Beta Sigma Chapter

On Oct. 19, Mrs. Curtis C. Dixon, National President of Sigma Sigma Sigma, visited Beta Sigma chapter at the University of Tampa. In keeping with Tri Sigma's plan for triennial national inspection, Mrs. Dixon of Wheat Ridge, Colo., spent several days meeting with collegiate and alumnae members to encourage efficient chapter cooperation and to reemphasize traditional inter-fraternity cooperation. "Accepting Responsibility," the keynote of Tri Sigma's 1960 inspection, pointed to the necessity for continued sorority leadership intellectually, socially, and morally.

While here Mrs. Dixon was taken to dinner by the collegiate members at the new Morrison's Colonial House. Pledge Elaine Marichal was initiated with the president's diamond badge as is traditional whenever a National President of Sigma Sigma Sigma is present at a chapter initiation.

New pledges of Tri Sigma are: Mary Ann Diaz, a junior who is being sponsored by the Newman Club as candidate for Homecoming Queen; and Oneida Roiz, also a junior.

Tri Sigma's Sylvia Fernandez, who is a candidate for Homecoming, was elected Best Looking Senior Notable. Josie Alvarez was chosen Most Likely to Succeed.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON

Frat Ties For First Place in Intramurals

The Sig Ep House is in an uproar over Homecoming activities. All time is taken up with float preparations, lawn display, and promotion of Sylvia Fernandez for Homecoming Queen.

The fraternity took time out from this busy schedule to brotherize Dick Tully and to formally pledge Adrian Stetle, Bill Sargent, and Lou Kovacs. Besides all this, the frat. also moved into a tie for first place in intramural "rag" football.

The SPE's have come up with the most revolutionary idea ever to hit Tampa U., a B.Y.O. dance. Nothing definite has been established as to time and place but everyone will know when!

Keep your eyes open for the fraternity girl of the month!

PI KAPPA PHI

New Men Are Pledged By Frat

It's ribbon time again and those gold and white ribbons of the PI KAPPA PHI Pledges can be seen proudly displayed all over campus. The following men have become pledges of PI KAPPA PHI: Dan Boyt, Tommy Brice, Charles Cullen, Chuck Engelking, Gene Greene, Joan Kern, Bob Pinson, George Romano, James Sasser, Grady Sweat, Buddy Williams, and John Wolfe.

It is with extreme pleasure that the fraternity presents its choice for Homecoming Queen, Miss Roseanne Cinchett.

for self-expression on the life of the campus and community. Leadership, good citizenship, education, and fellowship are just a few more of the privileges offered to the members of this service organization.

Any University of Tampa male student interested in becoming a member of Circle K should contact any of the officers or members of the board listed above, and are cordially invited to attend any of Circle K's business meetings whenever held.

FEA Will Enter Float in Homecoming Parade

Most F.E.A. members are busy hustling to finish the float, rehearse the skit, and plan a lawn display. Well to put it mildly they are confused and bewildered by all the goings on.

The F.E.A. is also carrying on a membership drive so all education majors remember to pay your dues.

On Nov. 12, the annual SFEA leadership conference will be held at the Fort Harrison Hotel, Clearwater, Florida.

In the past 3 years T.U. has won a trophy for top attendance so make plans now to attend and help the SFEA keep this trophy.

T. U. CAMPUS CLUB CUES

NEWMAN CLUB

Mary Ann Diaz Is Homecoming Queen Candidate

The Newman Club, Tampa U.'s Young Catholic organization, began its 1960-61 year with a meeting held on the evening of Sept. 22. A talk was given by Father Higgins, the club's chaplain, and the organization's officers for this year were introduced. Vincent Cakowski was introduced as the president, with Patricia Alchediak as vice-president, Roseanne Cinchett as recording secretary, and Marian Pedersen as corresponding secretary, and Rose Marie Regis as treasurer. Over sixty members were present at this meeting.

Oct. 2 marked the beginning of the club's social year. A "weenie roast" was held that evening on the Courtney Campbell Causeway. The occasion was announced as a great success.

The Newman Club has begun preparations for the Homecoming celebration. The club has selected Mary Ann Diaz as its candidate for Homecoming Queen. Mary Ann is a junior here at Tampa U., and she is majoring in elementary education. She is also treasurer of the Student Florida Education Association.

The next social event of the Newman Club has been scheduled for Nov. 20. A Sunday cruise has been planned, but as yet details have not been released.

CIRCLE K

Bill Sargent Elected President

The University of Tampa Circle K club held their first business meeting of the year on Wednesday, Oct. 12 at which time Bill Sargent was elected president for the 1960-61 year. Sargent filled the vacancy left by Al Yourconis, who did not return to the University this year. Other officers for this year include John Mitchell, vice president, and Ross Jett, treasurer. A secretary is yet to be elected as this post was vacated. Sargent held this post prior to his election. Members of the Board of Directors include Joe DeLauri, John Hanna, Joe Andrews, Phil Gauntt and all officers.

Circle K is a college service organization sponsored by Kiwanis International made up of male college students who sponsor activities which promote and better their community and school. Circle K is not a social fraternity, but is strictly a service organization similar to Kiwanis and other service clubs. Circle K offers a young man many opportunities and provides a means of doing things in a college community that service clubs are doing in the business and professional world. It offers an opportunity for joint as well as individual participation in many activities for service to the community and school, and also an opportunity

"GIRL BEAUTIFUL" ATTENDS T.U. HOMECOMING

Homecoming at the University of Tampa, as at every other college, inspires the fashion-conscious female as well as the female-conscious male. In order that both may choose, here is the latest news from the ever-changing world of fashion.

Evidence of the new, firmly established hold that elegant formality has on the current season is provided by the long gowns, lavish furs and luxurious fabrics which are currently being shown at leading fashion stores.

While there are still plenty of clinging cocktail sheaths in black crepe, and colorful silk prints, it is the easy-fitting, two-piece dresses that look newest.

Some designers of note are presenting a series of beautifully cut overblouse dresses in French reembroidered lace and organza. These back-buttoning pullovers skip the figure, ending above accentuated hips. Once the overblouse is removed, a delightful, short evening dress is revealed.

However, to the chagrin of scourged French designers, the sassy look recently presented did not make the scene, and woman are becoming winter conservative in deep, luxurious colors and simple, classic lines.

Swirling, full skirts lend a carefree air to cocktail dresses in chiffon and organza. There is popular demand for tunic flares over slim skirts, mink-trimmed suits, dresses and other apparel which ring a loud bell when the campus dresses up.

This is your introduction to an excitingly dramatic Fall season of fashions. For the style-conscious woman, and even for those who aren't, if there are any, the new color shades should be sufficient to stimulate their interest.

FROM THE FIRST LADY

T.U. Students Prove "First Rate" When Put To The Test

by Mrs. David M. Delo

Recently I had what turned out to be a most profitable and informative day while traveling with our football squad and our cheerleaders. The normally expected two-hour flight to Knoxville which was interrupted, turned into a prolonged and complicated nine-hour trip.

Sixty young men and women sat out five-and-a-half of these tedious hours, on call, in boredom and uncertainty, in an airport terminal. These young people did us proud. There were a credit to the University of Tampa and to our coaching staff.

I was proud of their neat appearance and equally proud of their "neat behavior. At all times it was poised, adult, and mature. There were no "show offs," no "Ugly Americans" among them. Conservation was low and controlled. Good humor and patience prevailed.

As passengers on a cruise ship, experiencing the restriction of space, proximity and telescoping of time, we had an opportunity to learn a great deal about each other and were well acquainted when we finally arrived at our destination. I liked what I had learned. I had been afforded a ready-made opportunity to learn about a representative group of our student body as a group and as individuals. I discovered how they reacted under stress, disappointment and in emergency. I was not let down. On the contrary, I would match them with any student group from any college. As the day wore on, I became increasingly proud of my association with the University of Tampa and with them.

These young people projected the spirit and the image of the University. My day with them was most profitable. I salute them and look forward to more trips in the near future.

For the Homecoming Game, Girl Beautiful will make an elegant entrance in this 100 per cent wool suit. The hazel mink collar contributes to the conservative look so typical of the South. At Raul Vega, $45.00. Beige gloves ($2.00) and a square box purse ($7.50) add a touch of light which brings out the mink trim.

Delo, Saturday afternoon, from 3 to 5. Open House at the University will also be observed during these hours.

The Alumni buffet supper precedes the football game from 5:30 to 7:30 in the George D. Howell Gym.

After the Troy vs Spartans clash in Phillips Field, activities will come to a dramatic close with the presentation of awards during the Homecoming Dance. Awards in the form of trophies will be presented for Best Fraternity Float, Best Sorority Float, Best All Around Float, Best Skit and Best Lawn Display. The queen will again don her robe and crown and be formally introduced. The dance will be held from 11 P.M. to 3 A.M.

During the years this traditional week of festivities has grown and improved. John Mitchell, student body president, was quoted as saying, "The University of Tampa 1960 Homecoming will be a memorable occasion, another step towards a better than ever T.U."

Dean King Defines "Personality"

Dean King

On Wednesday, Oct. 26, Dean King addressed the girls of the Greater Tampa Chamber of Commerce Charm School. Her talk has been an annual feature of the School ever since it was started, six years ago. Her subject this year was "Personality".

Starting with Webster's definition of Personality as "the personal or individual quality that makes one person be different or act differently from another," Dean King proceeded to quote five very different "personalities" whom she had consulted as to their interpretation of the quality. Since her audience consisted of teen-age girls primarily interested in "Charm," the first authority quoted was the owner and manager of an exclusive ladies' ready-to-wear shop. This gentleman expressed his opinion as follows: "I think the first trait in a person's personality is their appearance. Before they have a chance to speak, we size them up, and decide in our own mind if we like their appearance. The clothes they wear, the colors they choose, and the way they wear their clothes, is the very first thing we see."

Mrs. King then consulted a professor on the subject of personality. To the professor, personality was "... how well one is able to express oneself, how well-trained one's mind is, how well-versed one is in good books, good music, good painting, and so on." As she had done in the case of the first man, Dean King went on to make her own comments on this point of view, asking pointed questions, describing concrete situations in which this definition of personality would have real meaning to her audience.

She then quoted an artist. His opinion was: "Personality is that something about us that makes us wear beautiful colors, harmonious colors — it's that something that makes us all beautiful in some way — it's that something that makes us sparkle."

Next on her list came a minister. "I believe," said the minister, "that personality is that inner thought, that inner spirit, that inner drive, that makes us as we are. Some of us think good thoughts most of the time, some of us think cynical thoughts part of the time; most of us believe in God. But this is true

49 T. U. Interns Go Into School System

In the fall of '60 history was made at T. U. There was the adoption of a new intern system by Dr. Roy Dwyer. Dr. Royal Dwyer is the head of the Education Department. Dr. Umboltz, as elementary director, and Dr. Mohr, secondary director assist him in this capacity. There are 49 members of the two groups of interns, 23 in the primary education group, and 26 in the secondary education group at the present time.

Interns are divided between Hillsborough County and Pinellas County visiting the public schools as classroom teachers under this directing teacher program. These interns face their first classroom teaching assignment. All their education, initiative, and fortitude will be needed to accomplish this first assignment. They will utilize most of the experience gained in college in facing and solving their problems.

The interns are well distributed throughout both the local county school systems as the announcement suggests. Some of the schools and interns are as follows:

In the primary group, Manfred Rietenbach, is at Buffalo Avenue

School; Emily Knecht, Mary Ann Federico and Prudye Maniscalco are at Grady. Two outstanding interns, Victoria Caplinger and Millicent Adams are at Ballast Point Elementary School.

Interns who will serve in both Hillsborough and Pinellas counties in the secondary group are listed as follows. At Northeast Senior High in St. Petersburg there will be Susanne Gould; Barbara Torrace will be at the new Pinellas Park Junior High School. Rose Nousiainen, Cecilia Dyal, Robert Scott, and Edmund Spencer will be teaching social studies while Patricia Hanshaw, Wallace Brown and Harold Scott will be teaching physical education.

Chris Fagot, Irene Cabot are interning at West Tampa Junior High School while Ed. Varon will be at Mann Junior High School in Bradenton.

The interns plan teaching sessions with their cooperating teachers this week. How does the intern meet the problems of teaching in a regular school?

Rose Nousiainen, who is now interning at Meadowlawn Junior High, describes the task as being perplexing and difficult at first, but greatly rewarding to the student teacher.

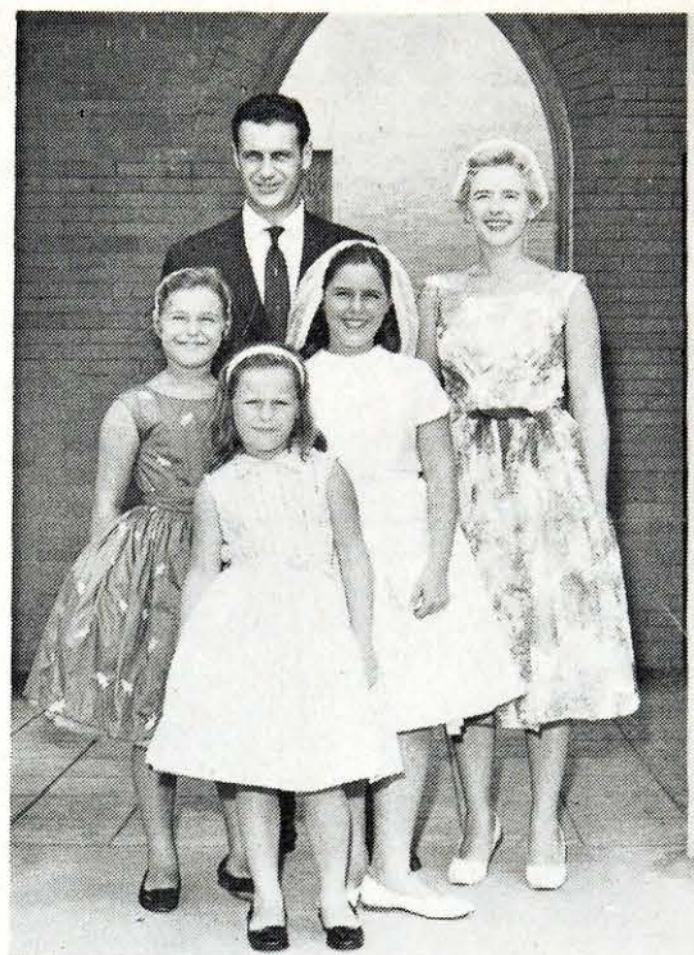

JUDD AND SHACON ADDRESS STUDENTS AT CONVOCATION

The University of Tampa was honored to have as guest speakers, Congressman Walter Judd and Mr. John Sharon, who addressed the students on Oct. 28 and Oct. 27 respectively in the Municipal Auditorium.

Congressman Judd, a Minnesota representative, was the keynote speaker at the Republican Convention. He received his Bachelor of Arts degree at the University of Nebraska and his medical degree at the University of Minnesota. He served as Medical Missionary in China from 1934-1938. From 1938 to 1940, he lectured extensively throughout the United States on American foreign policy and interests in the Pacific. Congressman Judd served as United States delegate to the 12th general assembly of the U.N. He is credited as founder of the Air Refugee Chinese Intellectual, Inc. and co-founder of World-Neighbors, Inc.

Mr. Sharon, presently a Washington lawyer, attended Exeter Academy, Princeton University, and George Washington University Law School. He served as special assistant under Secretary of the Army in the Korean War as one of the six persons in the 1952 Draft Stevenson movement, his services included that of Administrative Assistant to Hon. Adlai Stevenson. In 1956, he was the director of the National Stevenson - Kefauver Campaign Headquarters and in 1960, served as campaign manager of the Draft Stevenson movement.

He will accompany Governor Stevenson on a ten day tour of the West Coast in behalf of the Kennedy-Johnson ticket.

Faculty Interview

PROFESSOR JAMES D. PETRIANGELI IS IN THE MINARET SPOTLIGHT

by Lee Ann Belz

Professor James D. Pietrangeli, a faculty member of Tampa University since 1956 as Assistant Professor of Psychology, has a part-time private practice as a state certified clinical psychologist.

Professor Pietrangeli was born in Monaca, Pennsylvania but is from Maissillon, Ohio. He is highly qualified for his position, having earned his B.A. at the University of Virginia, his M. A. at Kent University, and having done advanced graduate work at the University of Florida. He has spent three years as a staff psychologist at Massillon State Hospital. Working with R.C.A. as training instructor at the Millille Test Center at Cape Canaveral for one year, he developed and taught a supervisors training program for one hundred R.C.A. managers.

Professor Pietrangeli was working on his doctorate at the University of Florida when he decided to come to Tampa University. Here he is psychology consultant with the United Cerebral Palsy Clinic. Currently he teaches management training courses at Manatee Junior College, aside from his work at the University of Tampa. He also teaches management training courses at Tampa Electric Co.

He met his wife Margaret Ann (Peggy) in Massillon, Ohio, and married her in 1947. She is very active in episcopalean church activities. She worked as a legal secretary for three years while in Tampa. She belongs to the Hillsborough Legal Secretaries Association.

As if all this isn't enough to keep the two of them busy, they have three daughters, Ann 11; Debbie 10, and Judy 8. All are active in school, sports, scouting and music. They live at 190 Corsica St. on Davis Islands with (if they come is herds) a herds cats.

How has Professor Pietrangeli managed to survive through all this? Give up? He was stationed at Okinawa and Taiwan as an aerial gunner on a B-29, and that needs courage.

of all of us: what we think, what we believe, what we are, shows in our face, and all of this is our personality."

Dean King's final consultant was an actress. "It's our looks, our appearance, our carriage, our voice, why — it's everything about us," she declared; but then went on to say, "I think our voice is a most important part of our personality."

Summing up, Dean King said to the Charm School girls: "Now let's see what we could look for in a normal personality. First, it should be an adequate personality, emotionally acceptable . . . with a positivized conscience . . . Another thing about a normal personality is poise. When we lose our poise, we often have lost our head and part of our senses. And one more thing in a normal personality is a little imagination; creativeness. It takes imagination to improve our appearance, to improve our carriage, to improve our voice, and to keep ourselves, as the minister would say, 'on even keel.' And another thing always to remember is the value of accepting oneself. If we accept ourselves, then we can go on from there and try to improve . . . This I want you to remember the rest of your life: you are now creating and making your personality. You are building a foundation upon which your life will rest the remainder of your days. If you wish to have a high goal, if you wish to accomplish things, if you wish to be somebody of importance, build your foundation solid today. If you wish to be a drifter, a roamer, a nondescript personality, just sit idly by without using your mind, your wits, and our senses. Build today for tomorrow."

Twenty three Elementary Education majors and 26 Secondary Education majors are interning this Fall.

The prints are from the collection of Dr. A. Suheyl Unver who is well known for his artistic works.

A complete history of Turkish miniature painting has not yet been published although it is known that the first Islamic School of Miniatures was founded in the 12th century in Baghdad by the Seljuk Turks. Turkish miniature painting attained its highest level between the 16th and 18th centuries; however, many Turkish painters from the 13th, 14th and 15th centuries are mentioned in old chronicles and some of their works may be found in libraries or private collections in Turkey.

In the present collection on display, both original watercolor scenes and calligraphic designs as well as copies of famous miniatures and other compositions are shown.

INTRODUCING

CORETHA VASSET

by Cookie Rodriguez

What would we do without our elevator operators who take our eager, energetic, vitality stricken Spartans to and from classes? One of our favorite operators is Coretha. Coretha has been an elevator operator at T.U. for seven years now and she just loves it. She won't give her age just laughs and says "don't ask me."

She has been a native of Tampa and attended high school at Don Thompson. Coretha has been married for five years to Herbert Vasset.

When asked about the University and if it has seen any changes she answers "land yes it sure has." She enjoys her work because the students treat her so nice and are so well-mannered.

She admits to having made one big blunder she says "I was talking to someone and kept going, before I knew it I passed the four floor (in case you don't know the University only has four floors) and hit the ceiling with a bang."

When asked about her hobbies she says she loves sports, especially football; she loves progressive jazz like Dave Brubeck and Julian "Cannonball" Adderley and enjoys healthy eating especially cooking them.

Her favorite person is Mr. White. She feels he is a "wonderful man and a terrific worker."

Ewing Esch Is New President, Night Division

A special required convocation of the Evening Division students was held at 7 P. M. Tuesday, Sept. 27. Final changes were made in the Evening Division Constitution, and officers were elected for the 1960-61 school year. Those elected to office were: L. Ewing Esch, president; Litty Vance, vice-president; Jackie Malone, secretary; and Robert Miller, treasurer. Margaret Amo, May Bunch, Pat Miller and Al Watton were elected to the Evening Division Student Council.

At a special meeting of the Evening Division officers and Student Council the following committees and chairmen were appointed: Litty Vance, program chairman; Margaret Amo, Litty Vance and Ewing Esch, Executive Council; Al Watton, Mary Bunch and Pat Miller, Judiciary Council; and the Curriculum Committee composed of Nancy Montes de Oca, Ila Reel and Lloyd Graham.

SPARTANS CHEERED ON BY "THE MAGNIFICENT SEVEN"

by Roseanne Cinchett

Tampa U.'s mighty Spartans are cheered on every Saturday night by seven vivacious cheerleaders yelling "Two Bits," "Hot By Golly," "Victory" or any one of the newly chosen Spartan yells. Led by Gail Davis, head cheerleader, are Vilma Tamargo, co-head; Heidi Chapman, Linda Boyette, Roseanne Cinchett, Sis Ferlita, and Marie Tramontana.

After a summer of practice, the cheerleaders are sporting an entirely new style of cheering and form due to the help of Miss Alice Rodriguez, the 1960 cheerleading sponsor, who was previously sponsor of cheerleaders at Hillsborough High School.

As most returning students have noticed, most of the cheers used are new at Tampa U. and others have been revised and are fast producing results. Also soon to come are new uniforms provided for by Student Senate funds. With all this the girls are ready to lead students in some real T.U. yells during the remaining home games and the away games in Alabama and Texas.

The cheerleaders, with the co-operation of the band, began the season with a Friday night pre-game pep rally, and are trying to arrange for more rallies in the future. Other plans for building up good student body spirit are also in the making. Vilma Tamargo expressed the feelings of the cheerleading squad as a whole in commenting on the games. "The girls feel that they have an important job to do every Saturday night from 8 to 10:30, and they need the help of each student. So far, spirit has been terrific, and we think things are going to get better yet, especially with such enthusiasm being demonstrated by our large freshman class."

Spartans Stomp Elon College 31-0 Before 3500 Home Fans

by BILL SARGENT
Sports Editor

The Tampa Spartans, after losing two big games in a row, came back on their own gridiron on Oct. 15, to defeat Elon College by a score of 31-0.

The Spartans, cheered on by a crowd of some 3500 fans, depended mainly upon their superior team speed, in the form of hard running backs, and literally romped and stomped the Elon College Fighting Christians of North Carolina.

It was thought before the game that possibly the spirit of the Tampa eleven had been hurt the week before when they themselves were stomped by Tennessee 62-7. But it was very obvious from the start of the game that this spirit was still with the boys.

The scoring came in all but one quarter. In the opening period Tampa struck for one touchdown, two TD's in the second, and another pair in the final quarter. The touchdowns in order were made by fullback John Mitchell, a one-yard smash; quarterback Ronnie Perez, 10-yard run; halfback Charlie Lyle, 18-yard dash; halfback Buddy Williams, 5-yard sprint; and halfback-turned-quarterback Charlie McCullers, with a 14-yard dash in the final 10 seconds.

These payoff runs topped off Tampa drives of 58, 72, 42, 65, and 29 yards.

Elon's deepest penetration into Tampa territory came in the third quarter when they came all the way down to the Spartan three yard line in the third quarter.

A fine running exhibit was put on by freshman left halfback Dick O'Brien, a 165-pound service returnee from Keansburg, N. J. Although O'Brien didn't get into the scoring column, he did rip off 92 yards in a dozen charges, to make him the top man in the rushing laurels.

After the game, the head football coach for the Spartans, Marcelino Huerta, was quoted as saying, "The boys were sharp out there. They were hustling and they didn't make as many mistakes as before."

skiing hour. It is easy to see the advantages of a group rate. This club with willing participants will do more for the interested student than any other club in the history of the university.

Those who are interested either learning how to waterski or in further increasing advanced skills should contact a known member of the club and plan to attend a meeting. The next meeting will provide the list of charter members. Watch the club bulletin board for day and time.

Throughout the next two weeks members will be seen on campus wearing name tags and/or various ski club jackets. Walk up and say, "Hi, I'm John Doe." They will do the rest.

UNIVERSITY OF TAMPA SKIING CLUB FORMED

The sport, water skiing is sweeping the country and becoming the hobby of tomorrow. Tampa U. students first became interested in this new challenge when George Jackson and Joe Edmund started attending school here last Spring. They had been members of the 1959 Intercollegiate Championship team of St. Petersburg Junior College.

Once here, they decided to start a ski team. After a lot of time and effort on the part of Jackson and with the cooperation of members of the faculty, athletic department and school administrators a nucleus of a team was formed. The membership grew and their eagerness made up for their inexperience.

Jackson and Edmund coached the group into shape at Lake Carroll. They were fortunate to be able to borrow a boat and Lee and Pomeroy, Inc. contributed the gasoline. If the members were not so willing to learn there were many obstacles such as rain, the far travelling distance to the lake and conflicting class schedules that could have been responsible for the termination of the team. The hard work proved true when at the Inter-Collegiate Tournament both the men's team and the women's team made an excellent showing against the toughest display of competition in the twelve year history of the Tournament. The men's team placed an overall fourth place and the women's team an overall third place.

Following the tournament the team took a back seat to examinations and summer vacation. Interest flared up again as the fall semester was launched. Joe Edmunds co-captain of the squad of 59 and Phil Gaunt a principal member of the men's squad started discussing the possibility of a waterskiing club. Progress was halted by the non appearance of George Jackson by the time school had started.

The boys were wondering where he was when after the first several days of school the news broke over radio, TV and in the local newspapers. He was en route to Tampa on water skis from Santa Claus, Indiana. His two week trip was responsible for a tremendous amount of nation-wide interest in water-skiing from the extensive press coverage received.

When he landed at Tampa several members of the team greeted him by saying, "Hi George, when do we start?" Within the next few days plans were underway for the formation of the club. One of the objectives of the club is to give the students from the icy climates an opportunity to learn about and enjoy waterskiing.

The club had its organizational meeting and has found a sponsor and has drafted a constitution. All it needs now are interested members. Through the club one is able to sit at an unusually low cost, learn tournament skills and if are capable be able to qualify for the ski team. To have these aims materialize it takes a large number of skiers. For twenty students it is an expensive sport, for fifty it is still expensive but for a hundred it is very reasonable and for two hundred the amount of available time could be tipled.

For those who do not know the cost of skiing please take note. The lowest rate on the gulf coast is fifteen (15) dollars per hour. The operation of a personal boat for the first year will cost approximately thirty-six (36) dollars per water-

INTRODUCING THE SPARTANS FOOTBALL BOSSES FOR 1960

By Bill Sargent,
Sports Editor

Head Football Coach and Athletic Director Marcelino Huerta, Jr., has been on the coaching staff of the University of Tampa since 1950, and has been Head Athletic Director since 1952. Upon graduation from the University of Florida where he was a former star, Coach Huerta joined the University's coaching staff, and two years later he was promoted to Athletic Director and Head Football Coach, which is the same post he holds today. That year, he was the youngest Athletic Director and Head Coach in the entire United States.

In the eight years Huerta has been at T. U. the football program has changed to a sharp upward trend both in quality of teams and also opponents. Instead of playing teams as Livingston and Jacksonville, Ala., that no one has hardly ever heard of, Tampa now plays teams like the University of Tennessee and University of Alabama.

Since Coach Huerta joined the staff at the University and became Head Coach, his teams have won .650 percent of all the games they have played. This is considered creditable to the school considering the University's mark before his entrance was below the .500 mark. In addition to his fine coaching job, Coach Huerta has produced two bowl teams, both of which were victorious.

The Chief Spartan coach and his lovely wife, Gloria, have two children, Susan 8 and Bubba 7.

Assistant Athletic Director of the University of Tampa is Coach Sam Bailey, who also holds down the posts of Head Line Coach, and Head Baseball Coach.

Coach Bailey the versatile "Jack-of-all-trades" of the Tampa University coaching staff, came to the University the same year as Coach Huerta, and both of these fine men have worked shoulder to shoulder in building the athletic program here at the University. Through their hard work they have built a program that is held in high esteem by all opposing coaches.

Coach Bailey is a graduate of the University of Georgia and for four years following graduation he engaged in professional baseball, basketball, and football. Bailey began at the University as Head Basketball Coach, and football line coach. In 1952 he became Head Baseball Coach, the Post he still holds today. In 1954 Coach Bailey relinquished his basketball duties to Gene Bittner, who was Head Basketball Coach before the present basketball mentor Bob Lavoy took over.

There are few coaches in the country that have the knowledge and belief in conditioning of a team as does Bailey. Bailey's bywords are hard work, fundamentals, and fine conditioning, and he is a perfect example of what he preaches. Through this strong belief in conditioning he has helped produce five All-American Linemen, five All-State basketball players and six All-State baseball players. No one can ask for a better record than this.

Born and raised on Sanibel Island here in Florida, Coach Bailey and his lovely wife, the former "Cookie" McCook of Mulberry, reside in South Tampa, and have a little girl, Teeann, who is just two years old.

Backfield Coach for the Tampa Spartans is Coach Fred Pancoast. Diligence and hard work are the only words one can use when describing this 1955 University of Tampa graduate. Ever since he joined the football staff in 1958, Coach Pancoast has done the job exactly as anticipated which is doing an excellent job of handling young and inexperienced backs.

Besides being the backfield coach for the Spartans, Pancoast is also in charge of the recruiting program which is responsible for bringing in the fine talent witnessed on the Tampa gridiron in the past several years.

Before coming to the University as a student Pancoast attended Pensacola High School. Upon coming to Tampa Coach Pancoast played as a top-flight defensive back on the Spartans. Following his graduation he spent a time on the Hillsborough High School football staff here in Tampa.

Coach Ray Ellis former back and field coach at Georgia Tech is now helping Coach Huerta and his staff as a coach. At the present time Coach Ellis is connected with the educational TV station WEDU here in Tampa.

Coach Bob Lovely a former All-American at Tampa University in 1955, is now assisting the Spartan coaching staff. Coach Lovely, besides assisting the coaches, holds the post of Physical Educational Director replacing Coach Ben Scherer.

Coach Reggie Colvord, the Assistant Line Coach for Tampa is a graduate of the University of Tampa. Coach Colvord's job besides assisting Coach Bailey with the line, is conducting the scouting of future opponents of the Tampa Spartans.

Tampa Eleven to Face Troy State for Homecoming

by BILL SARGENT
Sports Editor

The University of Tampa Spartans will be taking on the Troy State College Red Wave here next week for the annual Homecoming game, beginning at 8:15 at Phillips Field.

The Red Wave which comes from Troy, Ala. has played the Tampa Spartans for eight consecutive years now, losing to the Tampa eleven all eight times. It is expected that again, Troy State will be battling all the way to attempt to spoil the Spartan Homecoming and also attempt to break their long losing streak against Tampa.

The Wavemen from Alabama might have some surprise for the Spartan eleven this year, however, as they have ten returning lettermen, who form the nucleus of the '60 squad. They will be captained by senior quarterback Fran Marriott, who has completed 50 per cent of his passes and who ought to be at his best for this contest. Marriott is the center of the Red Wave offense, and it is expected that the Troy Staters will be doing much passing to go over the heads of the larger Tampa line. Troy usually runs out of a single wing T formation or a straight T formation.

In the past series between these two teams which was initiated in 1952, Tampa has scored 251 points against the Red Wave, as compared with the 54 points Troy has pushed across the Tampa goal line.

Last year Troy had an unsuccessful season as they won only three games and lost five.

This will certainly be an interesting game to see, as Troy will most likely be taking to the air, while Tampa will stick to the ground, attempting to go through the smaller Troy line.

McNEESE FIELD GOAL PROVES FATAL TO TAMPA SPARTANS

by BILL SARGENT
Sports Editor

The University of Tampa Spartans suffered another set back last Saturday night, Oct. 22, when they were defeated by McNeese University 3-0.

The McNeese Cowboys, despite Tampa's fine defensive struggle, managed to send a wobbly field goal between the uprights with four minutes gone in the second half, and were able to hold their small lead to the end, thus defeating the Tampa eleven.

When a McNeese drive was stalled on the Tampa 4 yard line, Lenny Kahn, a 198-pound center for McNeese, stepped back to the 12 and kicked from a sharp angle left to the center of the field. The ball barely made it through the lower right hand corner of the cross-bars, but somehow it did, thus giving Kahn credit for a 22-yard field goal, and 3 points for McNeese.

It was mistakes again that hurt Tampa. A clipping penalty on the second half kickoff put the Spartans in the hole and they were never able to dig out until the McNeese field goal.

Tampa's only big drive came in the beginning of the second quarter when the Spartans drove a long eighty-six yards only to be climaxed by a field goal try from the 17-yard line which failed. Ronnie Perez, who attempted the field goal, received what the films of the game revealed as a bad hold. The ball fell shy of its mark and dribbled into the end zone.

In the closing minutes of the game, with Tampa in possession of the ball on the McNeese 39, two more errors evolved, this time closing the doors on the Spartans for good.

Women Intramurals Are Now Underway; Rodriguez Directs

by Norma Blacato

Enthusiasm and excitement highlighted the back courts Oct. 13, as opening games for the 1960-61 Women's Intramurals got underway.

Of great interest to those participating was the announcement by Miss Alice Rodriguez, intramurals director, of the new ruling of a maximum of two varsity players per team. This decision was adopted by intramural managers Jane Adams, Westminster Fellowship; Beverly Ardisana, Delta Zeta; Diane Beniger, Alpha Chi Omega; Linda Boyete, Zeta Tau Alpha; and Elaine Frye, Independents, in an effort to develop keener team competition.

Despite the new ruling, the Independents, whose membership usually is predominantly varsity, proved themselves as mighty as ever as they handed the newly organized Westminster Fellowship team two straight losses, 15-2 and 15-1.

Zeta Tau Alpha sorority won their first game against the Delta Zetas 15-6; however, they found a more determined DZ team during the second game as they narrowly won by a score of 15-11.

the first game against the Westminster team, 15-4. The second game was keynoted with excitement as the Westminsters narrowed out the Zetas 15-11. At the end of the timed 8 minutes, third game, the score was 10-12 in favor of the Zetas.

On Oct. 20 no scheduled games were played as the Independents and Tri Sigs each forfeited and the Delta Zetas received a win due to a forfeit by the Alpha Chis.

All intramural games are played on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 11 and can be viewed by the student body. Games are refereed by members of Miss Rodriguez's HPR 260 class.
