Foreword

With a hope that whatever we have learned from books, whatever we have known of honor, whatever we have shared of life and living will be captured in these pages and will more deeply instill in us an ever-binding devotion to the University we love; and that looking backward in later years we may see the minarets, calm and steadfast, reaching upward, shining in the light of new and greater achievements.....

DEDICATION

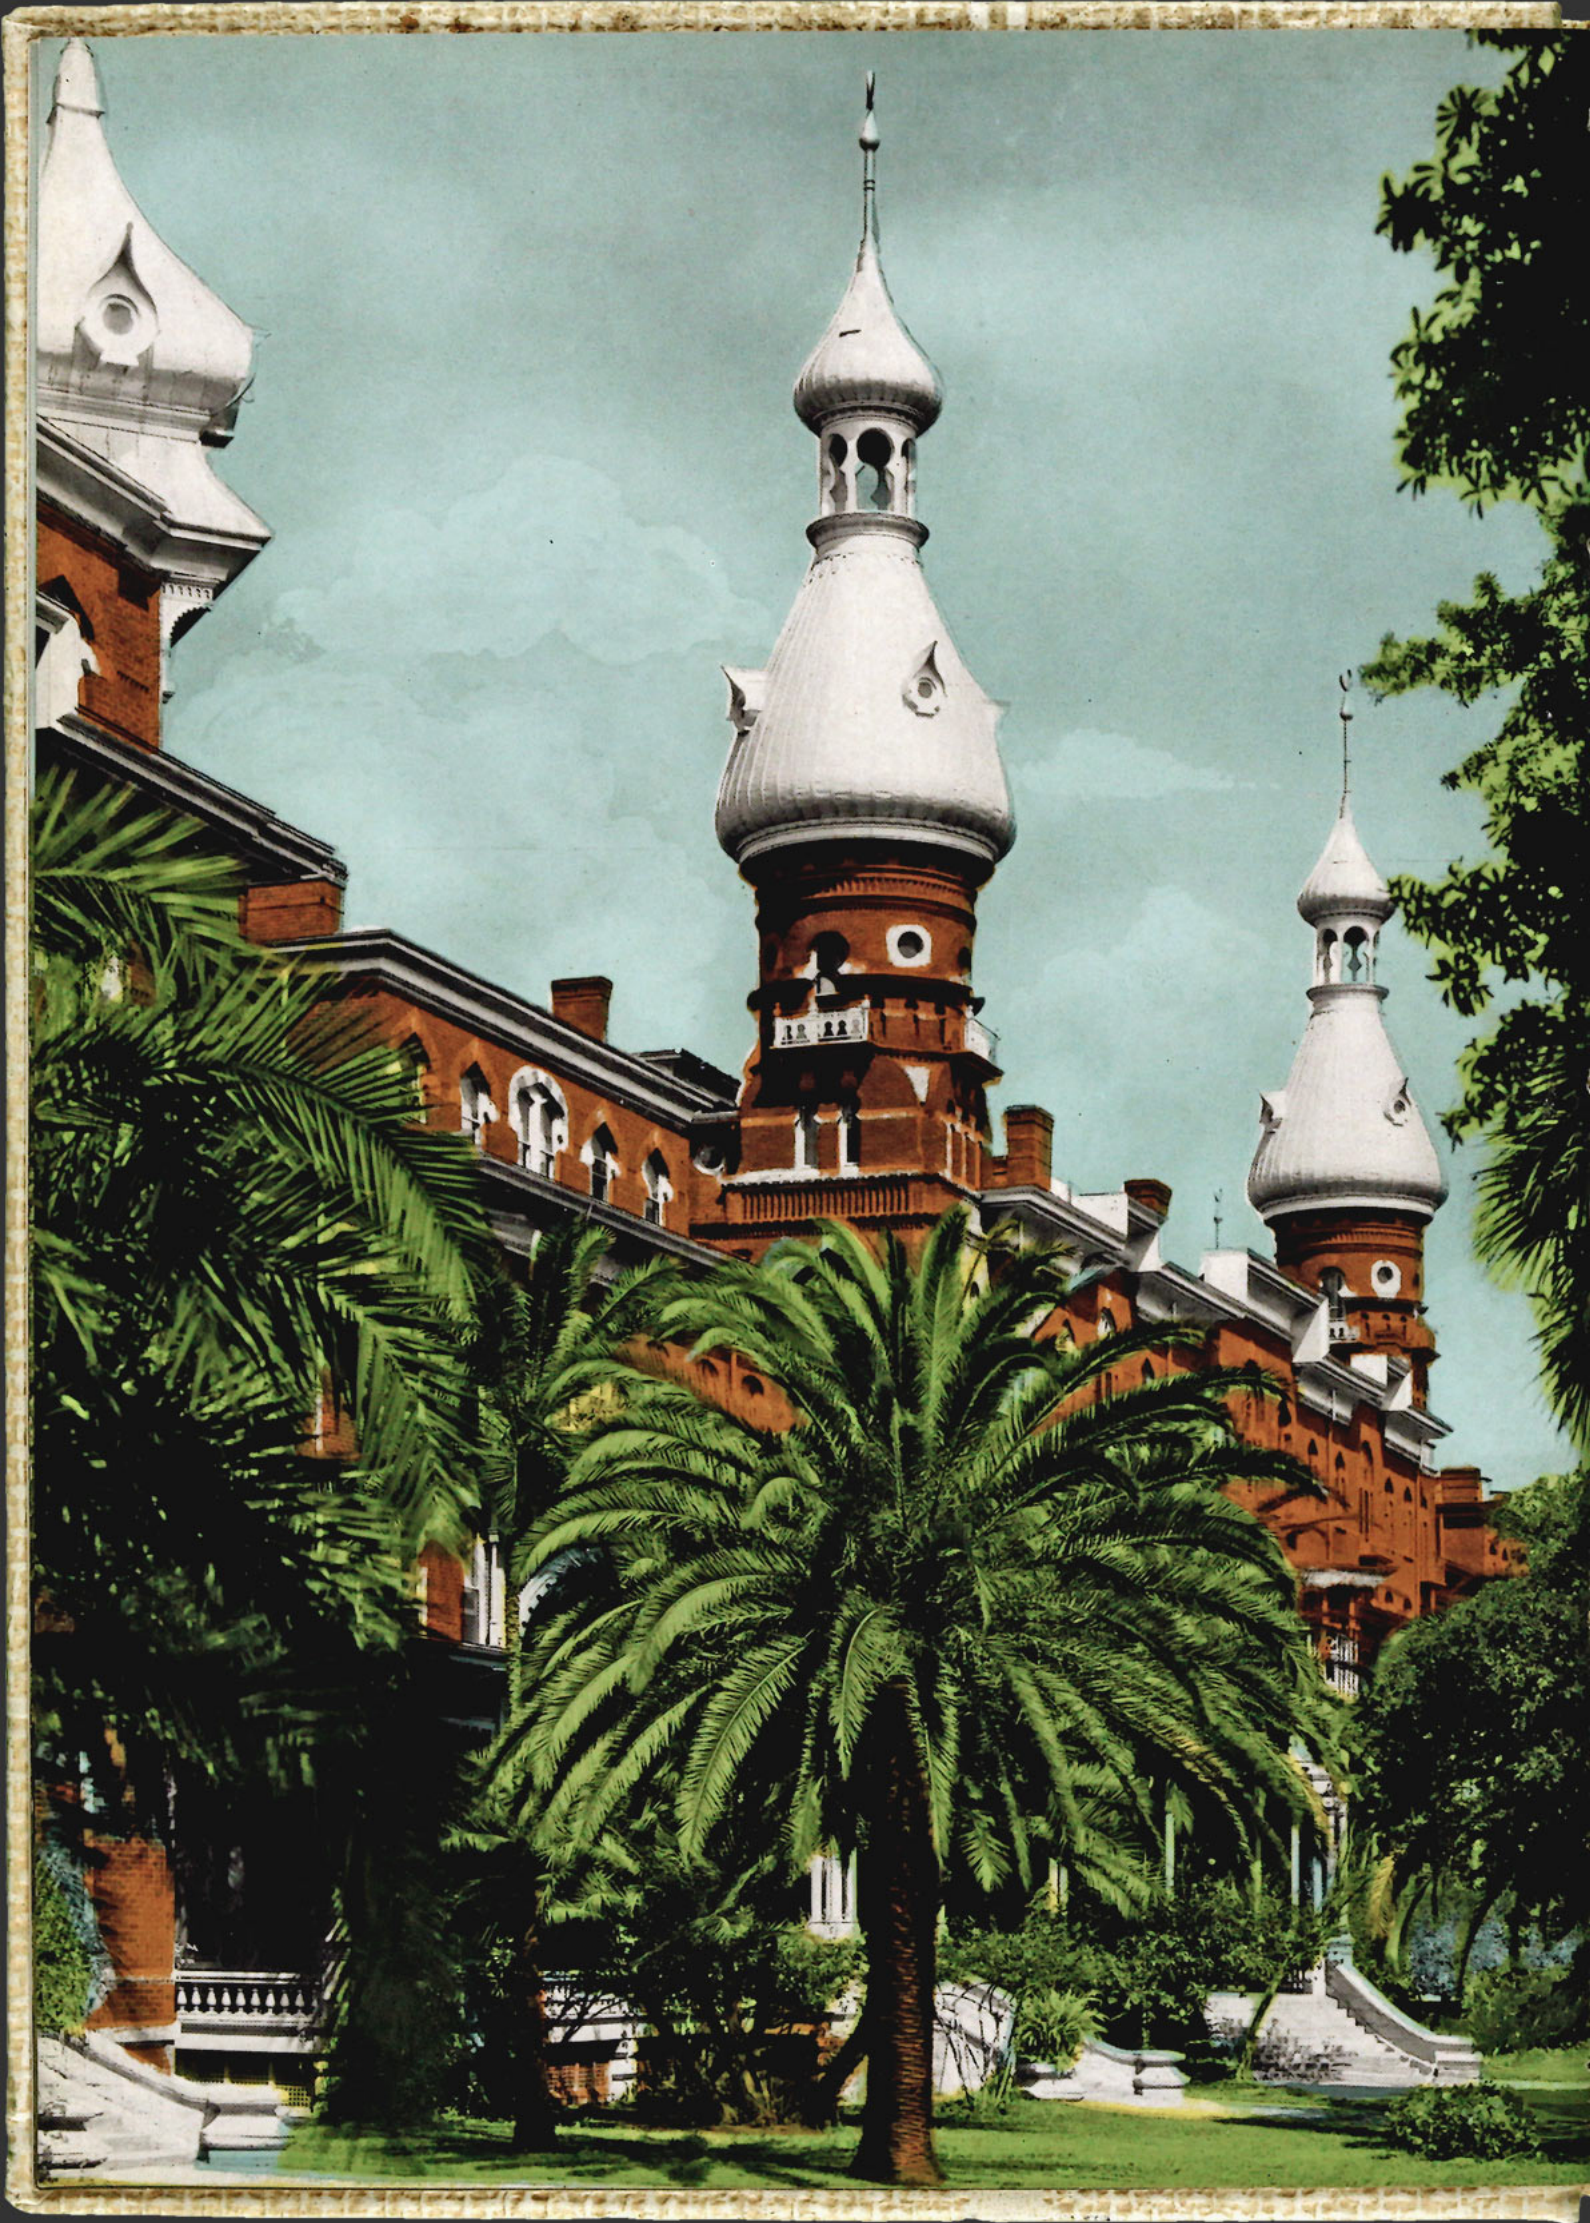

MISS EDITH ROWCLIFFE BROWN

A busy person in crisp blouse and pink sweater being very efficient in the Dean's Office . . . neat dark hair . . . cool grey eyes with a serious gaze and unexpected twinkles . . . warm sympathy and a depth of understanding . . . gracious . . . poised . . . genuinely interested in students as individuals . . . warm smile . . . quick wit . . . soft voice . . . lovable personality . . . Miss Brown. To her, whom we as students have grown to love and admire for her sincere friendship and thoughtful advice, this, the 1940 Moroccan, is dedicated.

Smooth, still water like unwrinkled satin in the pool . . . a brightly polished mirror for the oaks and palms . . . for the clear warm sunlight and the cotton clouds . . . for the tall grace of the silver minarets, so awe-inspiring on our first view of them . . . remember?

Yes, that was the beginning . . . that day began a new life for us . . . a life that seemed broader and deeper . . . a life that made us feel greater than ever before . . . but that was before our first Rat Court . . . Remember what a difference that made? . . . meek lads beneath '40 rat caps doing penance to lordly Sophs . . . bolder ones painting a huge red "40" on the front walk . . . thick paddles . . . belt lines . . . silly antics . . . timid little lasses surmounted by enormous red, gold, and black hair ribbons . . . proposing to professors . . . entertaining football heroes . . . wading in the fish pond . . . yelling at football games . . . the pajama parade . . . that shocking jam session in assembly . . . the Freshman Prom . . . I guess we showed them what we could do . . . firelight and candlelight . . . pine boughs and red ribbon . . . red and green tint overhead and silver icicles . . . Remember?

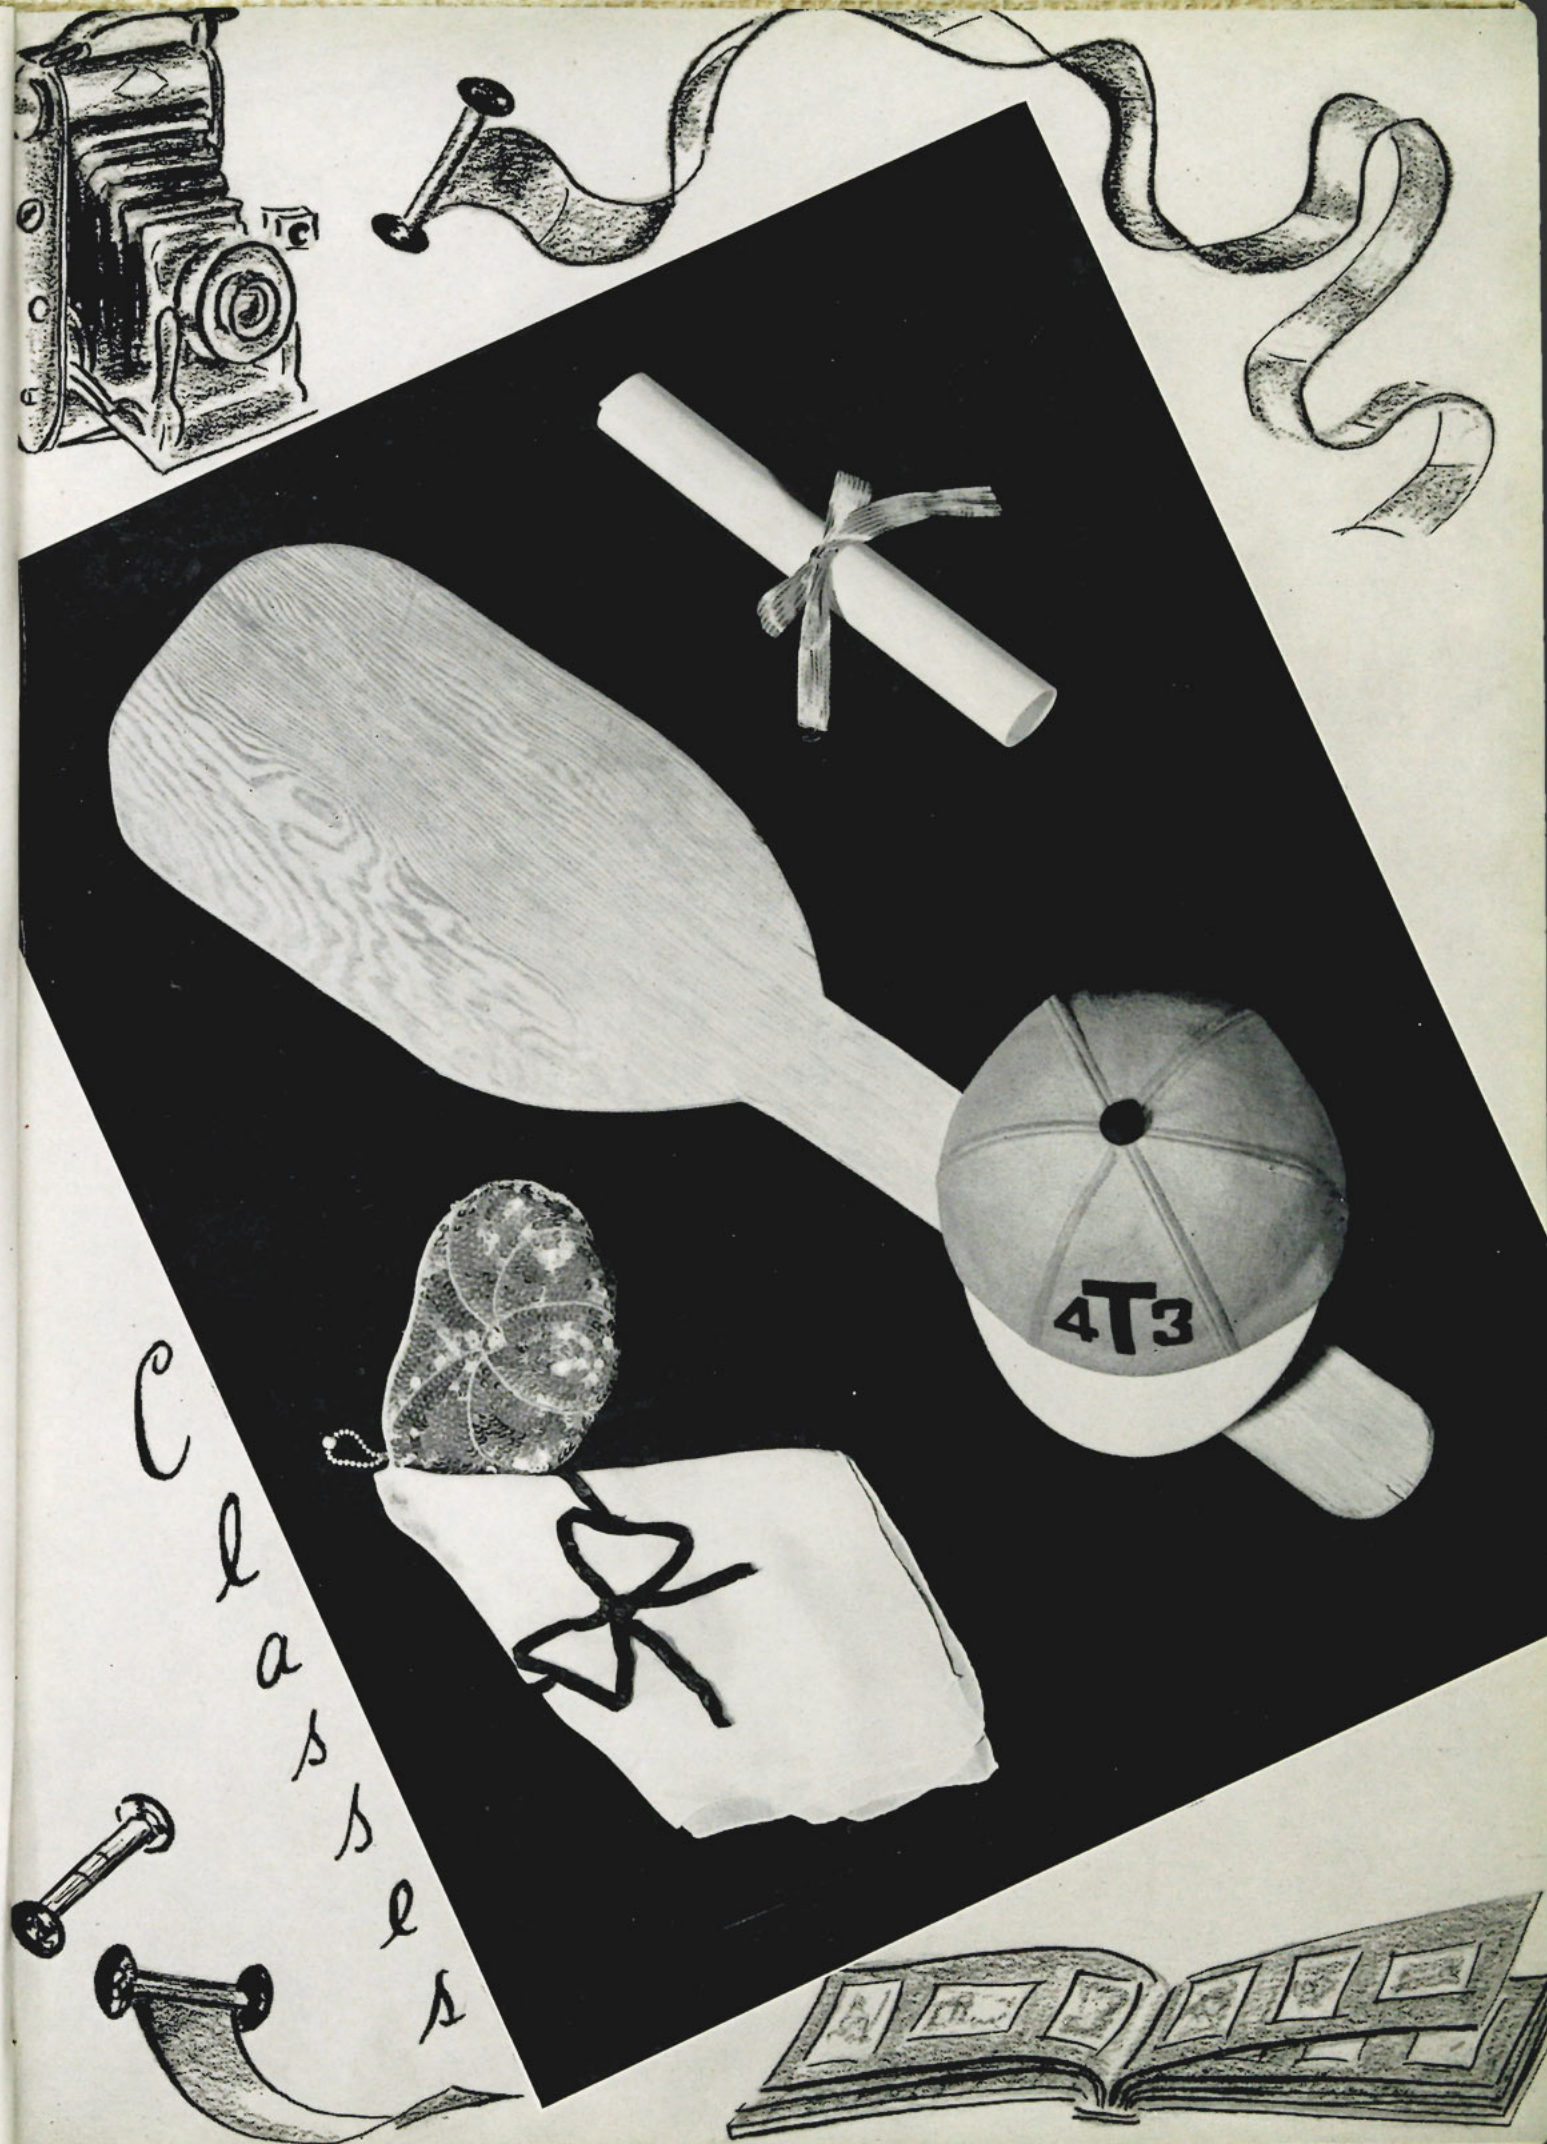

Then, too, there were those bi-annual treks to the library for cramming . . . oh, yes, we studied . . . sometimes . . . for exams were coming and we wanted to be Sophomores.

That was a wonderful feeling . . . being Sophomores . . . looking down on everyone in general . . . heckling frosh . . . starting something new and catching, making the girls wear beanies with long streamers . . . Being Sophs was important . . . new organizations kept us busy on week nights . . . Quill Club . . . Spanish Club . . . I.R.C. . . . dances and what not week ends . . . sleep? . . . yes, sometimes . . . Sophomore Hop . . . football . . . that was the year we harnessed the Miami "Hurricane" 12-0 . . . good old Spartans . . . we lost our voices completely . . . Remember?

Juniors at last . . . what fun we had! . . . Homecoming . . . we played Florida for the first time . . . Phillips Field Stadium alive with people . . . our goose-stepping band . . . what music, too! . . . we were so proud of them . . . P.S. we didn't win the game, but we didn't care . . . we won a moral victory . . . New Clubs—Home Economics, Art, Math . . . Carols the chorus sang . . . vestments . . . greenery . . . candlelight . . . "Castles in Spain," our first operetta . . . everyone humming "Silver Sails" for months afterward . . . the Front Porch Frolics . . . Remember? . . . Suddenly it was time for the Junior-Senior Banquet . . . Junior Jook . . . $2.18 . . . but that wouldn't feed all those hungry Seniors . . . worry, worry! . . . dashing madly and making plans . . . and then, the night . . . soft lights . . . Spanish patio with a splashing fountain . . . music . . . and afterward the jitterbug contest . . . oh, it was fun . . . Remember?

Yes, we went to Summer School, and then we were Seniors . . . looking forward to graduation . . . eager for our job . . . to earn our first million . . . maybe . . . football again . . . trek to Gainesville . . . supper at the bookstore . . . little handful of Spartan boosters noisy as all of Florida's gang . . . somebody stole our dear old battered megaphone . . . (that means we get new ones) . . . our red coated band stealing the show . . . 'Gator bait nothin'! . . . our Spartans held the 'Gators scoreless the first half . . . one touchdown couldn't beat our spirit . . . long trek home on the train . . . singing "Roll Out the Barrel" . . . cheerleaders and profs and students, dusty and hoarse, but happy . . . remember? . . . Another operetta . . . "The Man in the Moon" . . . two performances . . . "I'm Looking for the Window of Your Heart" . . . Easter Holidays . . . blistered noses and backs and knees . . . pardon me, suntanned . . . the Junior-Senior banquet . . . for us this time . . . now, suddenly, we realize how close we are to the end of these four short years . . . Solemn seniors in caps and gowns . . . Baccalaureate Sermon . . . Class Day . . . planting of the Ivy . . . Commencement . . . The beginning of a new life for us . . . though we go forth with eyes toward the future, may we often look back to the happiness, for pleasure . . . for courage to the slender silver minarets holding high their crescents . . . to the ivied walls for strength . . . and to the reflections in the pool . . . for Peace . . .

The Quill Club, an honorary literary organization, was established in the spring of 1938 under the leadership of Dr. E. B. Hinckley, professor of English, by members of the Senior Class interested in finding opportunity for creative writing and literary criticism. New members (taken from students, alumni and occasionally others interested in the work of the Club) have since been admitted to the organization on the basis of original manuscripts submitted anonymously in competition. This year the club became affiliated with the Tir Rune of the American College Quill Club. At regular and special meetings this year members of the club wrote the dialogue for the operetta, "Man in the Moon." The official publication of the club is the Muezzin, University literary magazine.

The 313 Masquers, one of the most active extra-curricular organizations on the campus, has a limited membership awarded only after try-outs held each semester. Candidates are judged on voice, interpretation, abandonment, and memorization.

By virtue of a point system based on stage production, acting roles, and general loyalty, 313 Masquers may achieve membership in the honorary dramatic fraternity, Alpha Psi Omega.

Productions during the last year include: "Smilin' Thru," "What a Life," "Weatherman's Secret," "Inn of Return," and "Poor Dear Aunt Maria."

SEASON

Sept. 22—TAMPA vs. SOUTH GEORGIA COLLEGE:

To Champ Williams went the honor of scoring the season's first touchdown on a brilliant 30-yard runback of a punt. Sharing honors was Dave Patton who crossed the goal line three times. Final Score: TAMPA, 27—SOUTH GEORGIA COLLEGE, 0.

Sept. 30—TAMPA vs. CINCINNATI:

Playing against a heavier team who found the ankle deep mud of the Cincinnati gridiron more to their liking, the Tampans were unable to release their aerial attack. Buchan accounted for the only Spartan touchdown. Final Score: TAMPA, 7—CINCINNATI, 26.

Oct. 14—TAMPA vs. MIAMI:

Our homecoming game, but the Hurricanes proved to be a wet blanket. The crowd of 8000 had only one opportunity to cheer when Patton snagged a pass from Hatch and galloped 28 yards through the Miami team for the score. Final Score: TAMPA, 7—MIAMI, 32.

Oct. 21—TAMPA vs. FLORIDA:

Florida was touted to take this game by a huge margin, but instead they ran smack into a scrappy Spartan team that refused to bow to pre-game dope. The determined stubborn defensive play of the entire Tampa squad that continually stemmed the Gator goalward marches outshone the lone touchdown Florida managed to score. There is no doubt we won a real moral victory. Final Score: TAMPA, 0—FLORIDA, 7.

Oct. 27—TAMPA vs. LOUISIANA POLYTECHNIC INSTITUTE:

The Spartans journeyed to Ruston, La., for this game. A downpour of rain prior to the game made the Bulldogs' field a sea of mud on which the Spartans were unable to get going against the heavier L.P.I. team. Final Score: TAMPA, 0—LOUISIANA POLYTECHNIC INSTITUTE, 13.

Nov. 4—TAMPA vs. STETSON:

A see-saw fight with both sides occasionally flashing fine form, but bogging down when the teams were in pay dirt. The Spartans' strongest bid for a score was stopped by a "wrong down" decision by the referee as the Tampans were on Stetson's 6-yard marker a few seconds before the final gun. Final Score: TAMPA, 0—STETSON, 0.

Nov. 18—TAMPA vs. ROLLINS:

Joe Justice—'nuff said! Final Score: TAMPA, 0—ROLLINS, 46.

Dec. 1—TAMPA vs. BOSTON UNIVERSITY:

The Spartans really fought a bruising battle that was thrilling from start to finish. The real attack clicked and the Spartan team gained 120 yards on passes thrown with deadly aim by Beynon and Hatch. But Tampa relaxed just twice and Boston scored twice. Final Score: TAMPA, 0—BOSTON, 12.

POST SEASON

At the close of the regular football season the Spartans accepted an invitation from the University of Havana to participate in a sports carnival to be held during the Christmas holidays in Havana, Cuba. We played two games, one with Rollins and one with Havana.

Dec. 27—TAMPA vs. ROLLINS:

In this viciously fought contest Tampa thoroughly squelched Justice who gained nothing in yardage the whole game. Both teams had blood in their eyes figuratively and actually; in the heat of the fray tiny Fred Manucy was ejected from the game for fighting with giant 6'7" Phillips, Rollins tackle. Final Score: TAMPA, 13—ROLLINS, 26.

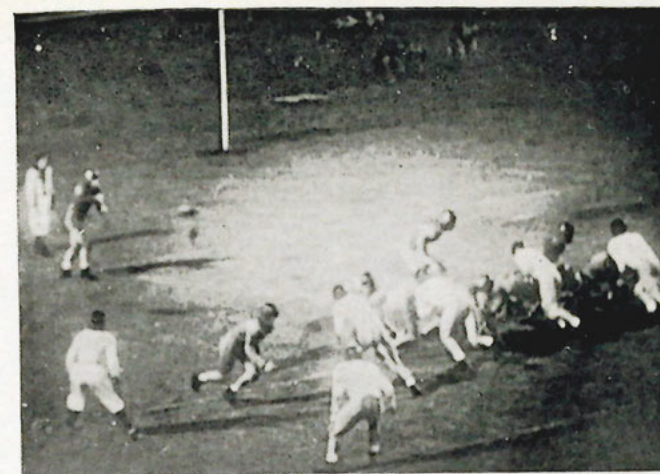

Dec. 31—TAMPA vs. HAVANA:

In their second post season game in festive Havana, the Spartans displayed their newly found offensive power and ripped into the Havana team. The outstanding play of the game was Williams' 80-yard touchdown sprint on the return of a punt; he scored twice more in the game. Buchan went over the goal line for the other touchdown on a long pass from Beynon. Final Score: TAMPA, 28—HAVANA, 6.

Here is Beynon punting in the shadow of his own goal posts. The game was highlighted by booming punts such as this one which continually stemmed the Gator advance. The success of these kicks was due largely to the stubborn defensive blocking of our Spartan linesmen.

Time and again, Florida's fleet-footed swivel-hipped backs penetrated deep into the Spartan defense only to be stopped by inspired Tampa safety men. This shot shows Kaufman launching a vicious tackle that ruined the touchdown hopes of a Gator back.

SPARTAN MEETS GATOR

The Spartan Aerial Attack: In this sequence of pictures we see the developing and completion of a successful forward pass. The first picture shows Hance faking out to the sideline to decoy the Florida secondary just as the ball is snapped. In picture 2, Beynon, ace passer, has faked to Hance and is about to heave the pigskin far down the field into the waiting arms of Kolka, end. Picture three shows Kolka near the end of his long run after the completion of the pass.

Steiner of Miami is about to meet Williams who has knifed inside the Miami interference.

Miami's Noppenberg is brought to the ground by a desperate shoe string tackle of Beynon, outstanding Spartan defensive back.

ACTION

Buchan and Williams close in on a Boston ball carrier in the season's final home game.

A brilliant piece of open field running by Williams eluded this Boston tackler, and our Spartan back carried the ball nearly to the goal line.

Student Athletic Managers Goodson and Ball in one of the training rooms.

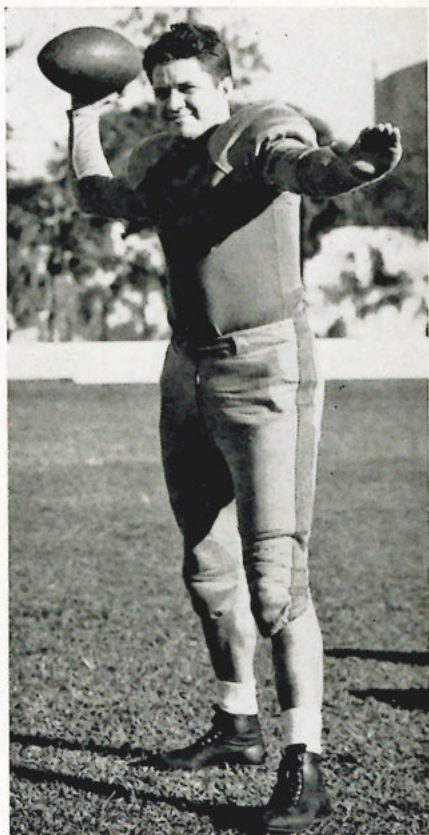

Spartan Trainer Lucas in the training room.

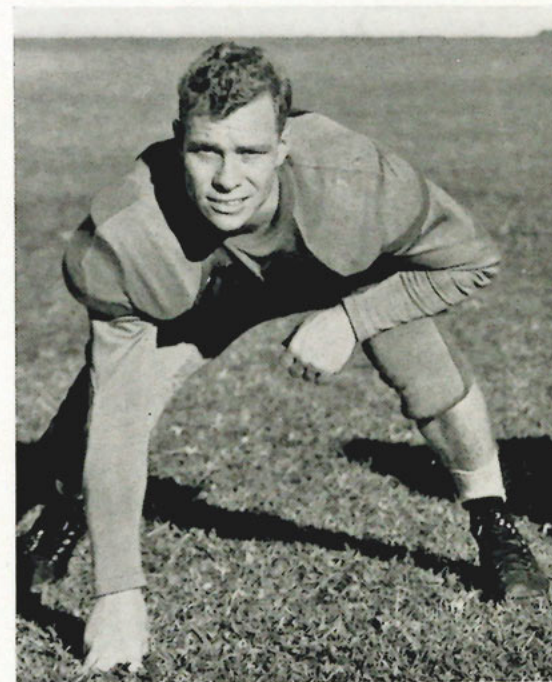

"Ben"

Ben Filipski—5'9"—185 lbs. A hard-blocking linesman from Dudley, Mass. A dependable blocker whom the backs liked to see pull out of the line to lead them around the end. A fast-charging, hard-hitting man on the defense. He was hard to keep out of the opponent's backfield. Ben is one of our boys who will become a teacher.

"Jap"

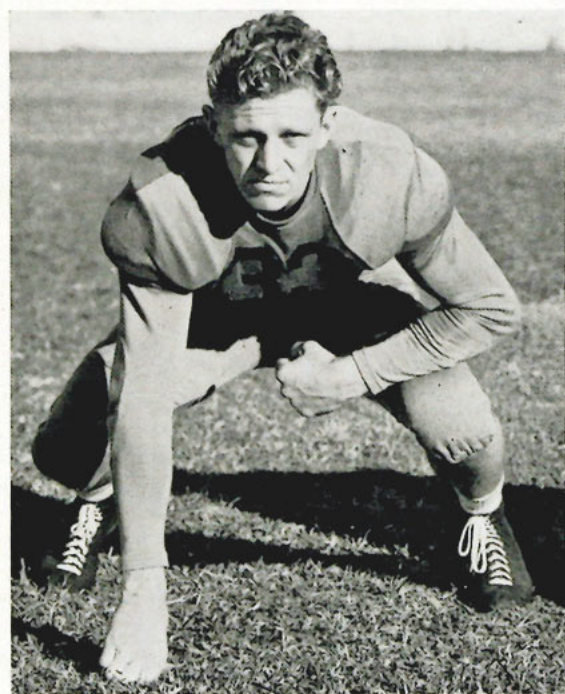

Jasper Simmons—5'11"—180 lbs. Chunking demon from Due West, South Carolina. His stock in trade was the long, bullet-like spot passes. When he lined up the rifle sights on his pitching arm, he could hurl accurate passes far down the field, setting the Spartans in scoring position many times. Jap intends to take up teaching as a profession.

"Moose"

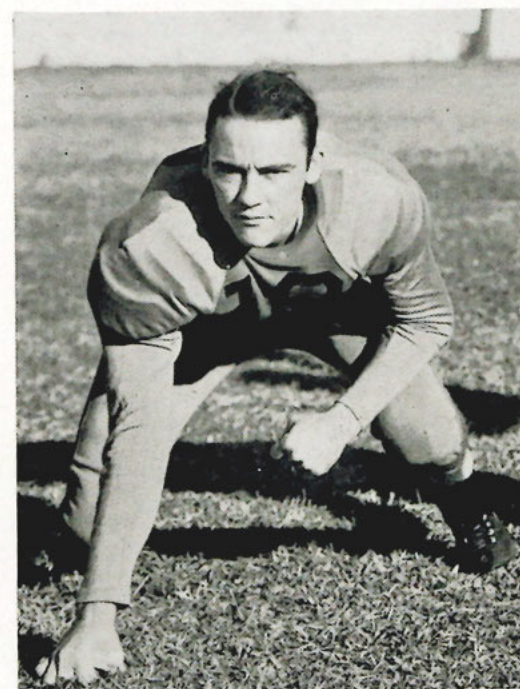

Fred Manucy—5'9"—155 lbs. Diminutive guard from Tampa, Florida. Time and again opponent backfield men found themselves looking this half-pint red-head in the face before they got started. Biggest thrill was scoring on a pass against Western Kentucky in 1938. A vicious, slashing little man that made many larger men feel plenty foolish. Moosie's ambition after graduation is to take a nice long rest.

Howard Stephens—6'2"—195 lbs. A husky end from High Springs, Florida. This blond Adonis was a tower of strength on defense in the line, smashing plays that came around his flank. A hard line blocker on offense. Steve hopes to enter business.

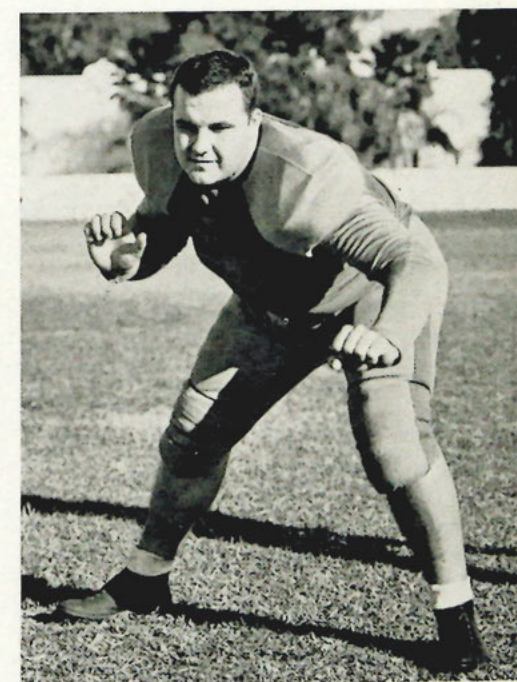

"Big Steve"

Russell Mumbauer—6'1"—165 lbs. Pass snatching end from Lakeland, Florida. Another rangy lad who could get up in the air and snatch 'em down. Scored twice against Havana in 1938. Also showed good defensive work in stopping plays developing around the end. Russ hopes to discover some "leisurely profession."

"Russ"

Emory Brown—5'11"—235 lbs. Giant tackle from Largo, Florida. Always a strong spot on defense. Played in the Spartan's half-ton backfield of 1935. Renowned for his locker room speeches. An aggressive hard-charging linesman. Brownie hopes to enter the field of law.

SPARTAN BASEBALL

Basing their claim on comparative scores, the Spartan squad, undefeated for two seasons, claims the Florida Intercollegiate Baseball Championship. Scores of the games played up to the date the Moroccan went to press are: Tampa 7, Miami 5; Tampa 5, Rollins 0; Tampa 6, Rollins 3.

Safe at first: Peck beats out an infield hit as the ball reaches the Tar first baseman for the put-out.

Champ Williams, Spartan shortstop, scores as the Rollins catcher makes a futile dive to tag him out at the plate.

1940 SEASON

The track team engaged in three meets. The Spartans placed second in a triangle meet with Havana and St. Petersburg Junior College. In the State A.A.U. meet our squad won third place. The final meet of the year found the Tampans emerging victorious in the dual meet with St. Petersburg Junior College.

INTRAMURALS

Under the guidance of Miller Adams, the intramural sports schedule of the University of Tampa offers one of the best rounded programs among the colleges of the state. As the leading extra-curricular activity, intramurals involves the active participation of over 80% of the regular students who play on the various fraternity and independent teams. A variety of sports is offered so as to enable everyone to take part in those appealing to his individual taste. Various action shots of actual competition are shown on these two pages. The final results of those sports completed when the Moroccan went to the printers are found in the opposite column.

HORSESHOES

GIRLS' VARSITY BASKETBALL

The team, strengthened by the addition of Louise Griffin, Ruth Jolley, Marie Sherman, and Nell Clemons, entered the City Tournament and made a name for our school by their enduring sportsmanship in the tournament. Grace Moore, the only Senior on the squad, was captain this year. Grace played good guard in every game and her leadership will not be forgotten. The girls journeyed to Florida Southern College early in the season only to be defeated by a more experienced team. The loss of Rita Higgins was felt the latter part of the season when she was unable to participate. Other members of the team are Maxine Graf and Jackie Jameson.

SHUFFLEBOARD

CHAMPS: ALPHA GAMMAS

GIRLS' FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

The team brought honor and glory to our university this year by winning the Blue division of the City Tournament. For this they received a Trophy with the school's name engraved thereon.

Arline Taylor and Elvina Traina were the two outstanding forwards and Marian Sampson and Alice Lee Sewell took care of most of the work of the guards. These girls will help to strengthen the Varsity next year.

VARSITY VOLLEYBALL

The girls' Varsity Volleyball Team, strengthened this year by Marie Sherman, showed good sportsmanship in the City Tournament. In April, they played good ball at the All-States Play Day by defeating Rollins 35-15.

TRACK

Celeste Dervaes took all honors in the sprints of the track meet last year. Frances Sessions ran second and also took honors in the broad jump.

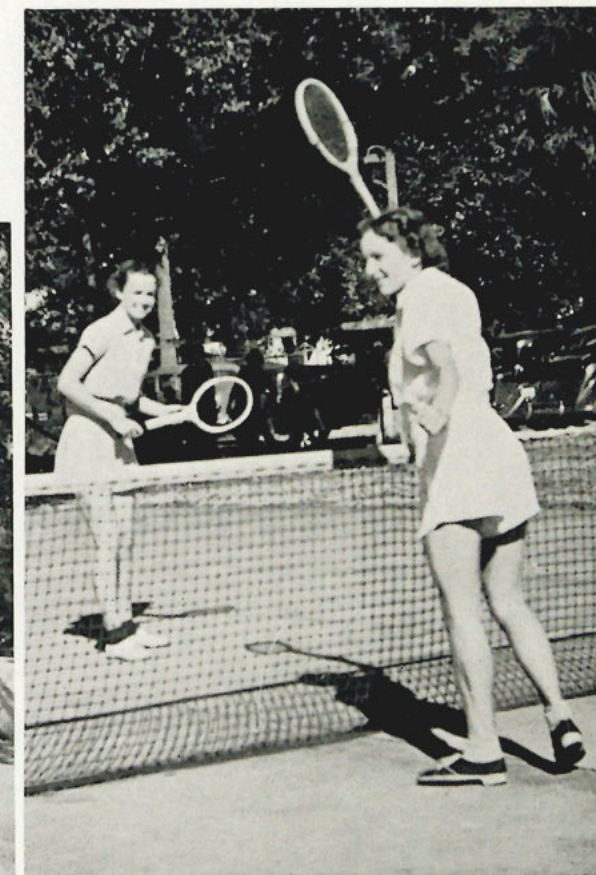

FRESHMAN VOLLEYBALL

The first year girls also entered the City Tournament only to be downed by teams that had more practice.

TENNIS

The tennis team, composed of Frances Alderman, Kitty Ann Sweat, and Arline Taylor, a newcomer, was defeated by University of Miami and St. Petersburg Junior College.

ARCHERY

There was a great deal of interest shown in Archery, even though it was a new sport introduced this year. Ruth Jolley and Marianna Harrison represented us at Stetson on April 15.

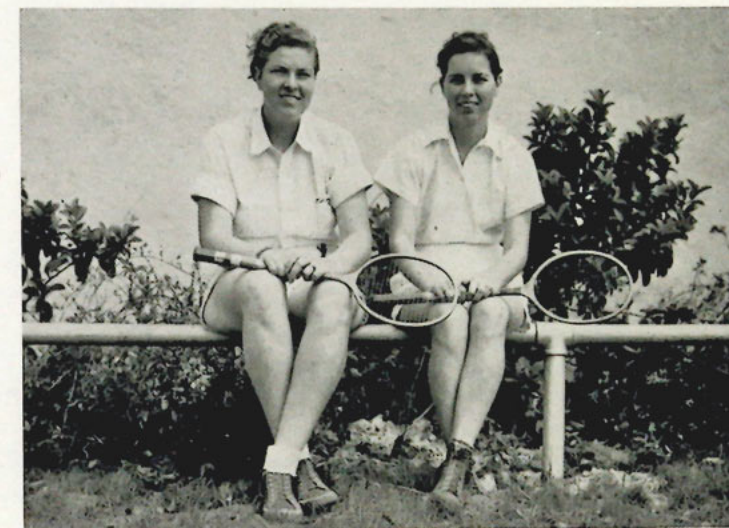

SWIMMING

Louise Griffin, a Sophomore, took all honors for her Sorority last year in the Swimming meet held at the Aquatic Club. Norma Myers, a freshman, is a newcomer this year, but was very good in high school. Others shown are Frances Sessions and Yolonda Finney.

BADMINTON

This being the first year we were equipped for Badminton, Marie Sherman and Nell Clemons brought surprise and honor to our school when they upset St. Petersburg Junior College.

DIAMONDBALL

This is a good sport in which practically everyone is interested. Keen competition is shown in all Intramural games.

Based upon a Jules Verne novel "From Earth to Moon," the scene of which was laid in Tampa, the second annual operetta told the story of a group of "moon" scientists who visit the earth to learn of this world's customs but instead were ensnared by the charms of young romance.
