

HELEN WINDHAM,
VERNA VINING
TOPS IN ANNUALCo-eds Are Chosen by Fredric March

By T. L. FERRIS

Miss Helen Windham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Windham, 810 South Edison street, was chosen by Fredric March as the best photographed co-ed in last year's Moroccan annual. Miss Verna Vining, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Vining, 2914 29th street, was chosen as the next best. Each will receive a picture autographed to them personally from Mr. March.

Miss Windham is a sophomore and a member of Delta Kappa sorority. Miss Vining is a senior and a member of Sigma Theta Phi sorority. Both girls were chosen according to looks, features, and personality by Fredric March, who was elected the favorite motion-picture actor by the student body last year. Ginger Rogers, who was chosen as the favorite actress, has not yet picked the best photographed boys.

The Minaret is sponsoring a popularity questionnaire similar to last year's in which the student body will pick the favorites for this year. In connection to this contest, "Miss University of Tampa-1937" will be elected. Miss Jeanie Trice was named Miss University last year.

The Variety column in this issue of the Minaret lists a set of questions for this year's contest. Each student will be given a ballot with his Minaret. Votes must be cast in the ballot box, which has been placed in the book store, before 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The winners will be announced in the next Minaret.

Intramural Teams
Take Pictures Today

Group pictures for all intramural teams will be taken this afternoon on the tennis courts in back of the Municipal Auditorium. Teams should be ready at 2:30 p. m. The pictures will be used in the yearbook, and organizations desiring pictures for their own use may order them from Edgar Andrews, business manager of the Moroccan.

Beta Chi will use uniforms; Sigma Kappa Nu, black polo shirts; Rho Nu Delta, white undershirts; Tau Omega, black hoods; Sigma Epsilon, white polo shirts and, Plebes, gym shirts.

One group picture will be taken of intramural managers. These include, Ben Watkins, Adolf Ramirez, Billy Hand, Joe Wilson, Billy Ailor, Arnold Donaldson and Linus Upson.

Group pictures will also be taken of the all-star selections in touch football and basketball.

"Betty Dickenson wishes to announce to her public that she gave up portrait painting when her twelve friends failed to recognize the portraits she painted of them. She laid the blame on their ignorance; but when she didn't even recognize the picture she painted of herself, she decided that something was definitely wrong."—Pepper Plant, April Fool Edition.

Exams will start at the University on approximately 11:00-1:4 hrs. from the time you receive this paper.

Co-Eds Honored by Fredric March

Miss Helen Windham, left, and Miss Verna Vining, right, were chosen by Fredric March, center, as the best photographed girls in the 1936 Moroccan, the University of Tampa yearbook. The selection of the best photographed boys by Ginger Rogers has been delayed, but it will probably appear in the next issue of the Minaret.

9 CUPS OFFERED
TO WINNERS IN MUSIC FESTIVAL

The University of Tampa will be host to the tenth annual high school music festival, April 22, 23 and 24. More than 40 Florida schools will assemble here to match music talents.

According to John G. Pollard, director of the festival, the festival will be the greatest affair of its kind ever held in the state.

Because several schools have entered contestants for the first time, two new divisions have been added to the contest. Class D will include all new entries from schools having more than 750 students, and class E will consist of all new contestants from schools having less than 750 students. Other divisions are class A, schools with more than 750 students; class B, including those schools having between 250 and 750, and class C, less than 250.

Many Awards
Aside from 10 scholarships that will be offered by several colleges to winners in several events, there will be nine beautiful loving cups awarded to winners of several group events. Boys', girls' and mixed glee club winners in classes A, B and C will receive these cups.

Ten beautiful plaques will be awarded to winners of several other group events. The cups and plaques are being donated by local business men. Vivian Gaither, principal of Hillsborough high school, is head of the committee for getting the trophies.

Bands from Plant City high school, Lake Wales, St. Petersburg and Cross City will be entered for the first time. Sebring's prize-winning band of last year will enter again this year to defend its laurels. More than 100 contestants will be entered from this school in several of the events.

Ninety-six contestants will come by bus from Orlando and almost the same number will come from Miami high school. Miami again will enter the orchestra which won the highest honors last year.

St. Petersburg high school, which has entered all 10 of the contests held here, will be strong in the glee club competition. Hillsborough and Plant high schools will also have many entries. Hillsborough will present its usual fine orchestra, under the direction of Amado Delgado, and Plant will be strong in the band competition. Benjamin Greene is director of the Plant band.

Head Judge
Captain Graham Overgaard, director of the University of Illinois band, will be the head judge of the festival. Dr. J. H. Sherman is president of the music festival and Dean M. S. Hale is secretary.

Dot Butler, a Tampa U. co-ed, is secretary of the festival director's office.

Tampa U. Band Gets
Honorable Mention
In "States" Parade

For the first time this year the University of Tampa band received honorable mention in a parade in which it has competed when the unit participated in the brilliant Festival of States parade in St. Petersburg last week. The event attracted thousands of citizens of Florida and winter visitors. More than 20 bands were competing for honors.

Prof. August Ingley has been drilling the band daily in preparation for the annual concert to be presented in the Municipal Auditorium. The date of the concert is still indefinite, but it will be announced soon.

The band will play again Sunday evening in the Plant Park bandshell. These weekly concerts have attracted hundreds of listeners.

Sunday afternoon the string trio will broadcast over station WFLA. Sam Harrison and Winifred Hill will sing several selections during the broadcast.

Ingley has been very busy lately making plans to enlarge the band next year. It is expected that several talented contestants in the Music Festival next week will be offered scholarships to play in the band next year.

Dale Peterson, who became a member of the band this semester, is the new business manager and corresponding secretary.

Colleges Laud WPA
Theater Projects

The WPA Federal Theater Project was commended by the National Student Federation of America in a resolution passed by the student Commission on Drama at its 12th annual congress held recently in New York, according to a statement released today.

"The Commission recommends," the resolution reads, "that NSFA colleges aid in bringing the WPA Federal Theater plays to the campus theater, and that NSFA urge that the WPA Federal Theater continue its present consideration of scripts and productions by college playwrights; also that the NSFA commend the WPA Federal Theater for its play service to the college theaters. The Commission suggests that wide use be made of this script service."

SENIORS

All seniors who plan to purchase class rings should see Miss Elizabeth Smith, the Bursar, in order that they may find out about ring sizes, the cost of stones and mailing orders. She is the only one who can give this information and fit the ring sizes. The end of the year is coming; if you are a senior and wish a class ring as a memorial of your four years here at the University, you had better act quickly. See Miss Smith soon!

TRIBUNE PRESS
WILL PUBLISH
SCHOOL ANNUALStudents Want Book
Early

The last contract was made by the Moroccan staff last week immediately after the spring holidays. The Tribune Press, Inc., was authorized to print the 1937 Moroccan.

The Tribune Press published the first issue last year and was very pleased to be appointed printer of the second issue. Mr. Moyses, the manager, said that the company would do all in its power to turn out a handsome yearbook, as a special consideration for the late publication of last year's annual.

To allow space for extra pictures this year, there will be about 130 pages, 24 more than the previous annual, and 375 will be printed.

Students Want Book Early

Many students seem most interested in having the yearbook come out before the end of the semester. This has been an aim for the staff in all its dealings with photographers and printers. If present plans are carried out, the book will be ready by May 30, or about the time that examinations begin.

All pictures and photographs are to be given to the printer April 15. The chief concern of the staff up to the present has been to get the pictures. Because of the reduced rate which the photographers have offered, they were forced to wait until all proofs were returned so that the entire lot could be prepared at the same time at low cost.

It was a case of meeting terms of two contracts, one saying that photographers must be allowed 12 days to prepare pictures after the last proof was returned, and the other stating that printers must have those photographs on April 15, if the yearbook is to be published by examination time. At best, it will be close timing, any delay likely to cause final publication to be late.

Cover Already Designed

One important part of the book, and one that will require the most time to prepare, is the cover. This was the first to be considered after making the printing contract. Covers for almost all annuals are made by a single company in Chicago. Upon receiving appointment to make the covers, this company immediately sent sample covers for study by the staff.

At the last meeting of the staff Sunday afternoon, a committee of four, including Alvin Yorkunas, Mary Eve, Edgar Andrews and Walter Hoy, was appointed to select a suitable cover. Yorkunas designed a very attractive cover, approved by the other committee members, which has been sent to the cover manufacturers for an "okay."

This same company made the 1936 cover and proclaimed it to be among the most unusual and attractive covers they made for the year. Sample 1936

Mass Gathering To Feature Festival

A great mass playing and singing exhibition will be the feature of the Florida High School Music Festival which will be held here soon. Present plans are that on the final evening of the festival, all contestants will gather in a body in front of the grandstand in Plant Field for a program of playing and singing.

It is expected that this unusual demonstration will furnish a sensational climax to the three-day affair. The public will be invited to witness the spectacle.

Military boys from Plant and Hillsborough high schools will have charge of all information bureaus during the festival. They will be under the command of Sgt. Hundley, of the local ROTC.

- To do our part in making student government a complete success.

PERSONALITY

Do you have personality? If not, you should cultivate it. It is a priceless possession. "But how may personality be cultivated?" you will ask. The psychologist tells us that personality may be learned as music or any other art. I fully agree with this statement, for I have seen it grow and develop in many lives while in many others there never seemed to be but the slightest trace. Many fail to discover the value of its magic and as a result allow it to go undeveloped. It is too important to be treated thus.

Here is how personality may be developed: Observe closely those who you are sure possess it. You will note such expressions as pleasantness, confidence, self-control, sympathy, and willingness. All such expressions seem to once trained to behave in such a manner become fixed habits. Thus the individual is said to have personality. If one desires these attractive qualities, he should practice them. One would do well at first to imitate. In this way the emotions will be released to give expression. A candle placed under a bushel measure can give no light, neither can personality develop unless the emotions are freed.

Another factor in developing personality is to unlearn or eliminate such handicaps as fear, doubt, nervousness. Your emotions cannot serve two masters. Two opposite traits are not likely to be of the same intensity as in the case of confidence and doubt. When one is developed the other is lacking. Herein lies the secret of developing personality. It is a process of learning and unlearning the emotions.

ON STUDENT GOVERNMENT

In the few years that are the past of the University Student Government, candidates for office have continually used as their slogan "a more progressive administration." This slogan and its interpretation was voiced with sincerity and with the best of intentions! But how can our Student Government be progressive if it isn't organized to the extent that it commands the respect and confidence of the Dean and the faculty?

By respect and confidence is meant trust in our ability, and in our decisions. Students have complained that in reality we have no student government, that we are never permitted to decide on any important issue without first consulting some committee—that we are puppets! All this may be true but you can hardly blame the Dean for what might be called necessary caution. It is quite obvious that he would be more than glad to be rid of the many problems pertaining to our student government, but first he must be assured that we are capable. It is evident then that we, as a student body, must end this critical attitude, concentrate our efforts, and accomplish something worthwhile in order to have a basis for our claims and prove our capability.

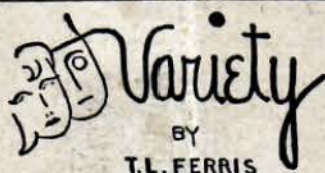

—BOB MORALES.

ON THE STUDENT COUNCIL

Last year Prof. E. B. Hinckley, who was at that time head of the English department, offered a trophy to be presented to the sorority or fraternity which had the highest scholastic standing for a semester. This trophy was to be the property of the winning organization until another organization made a higher record. Since Professor Hinckley is not here in the University this semester, the plan has been temporarily discontinued.

Since no one has taken any steps to continue this plan, why not have the Pan-Hellenic council take it up as one of its duties?

The plan is a valuable one because it helps to stimulate interest and competition leading to higher scholastic achievement of students. This friendly rivalry will improve the scholastic average of the school.

Thursday: A local chump reporter (grrr) known as an "ungentleman of the Press" snooped our copy box and aced the Minaret, which does enjoy a little scoop now and then—but people will take candy from a defenseless child . . .

"To Helen Windham, congratulations," and "To Verna Vining, with all good wishes." These were the autographed words of Frederic March. We all agree that Fredric has good taste . . . We've sent Miss Rogers a second letter urging her to pick the male good looking, but as yet we haven't heard from 'er.

Below is this year's questionnaire. Write your answer beside the corresponding number on the ballot that has been inserted in your Minaret. Cast your vote before Saturday, 2 p. m. in the ballot box at the book store. Tear off one of the numbers on your ballot. Free prizes??

Who is your favorite:
Movie actor?
Actress?
Radio star?
Orchestra?
Dance piece?
Outstanding American man?
Outstanding American woman?
Outstanding Tampan?
Who do you want to play Scarlet O'Hara in the movies?
Rhett Butler?
Do you like to pet?
What is your definition of love?
Who do you consider the ideal girl in the University of Tampa—the girl with the best looks, most personality, most charm, best figure, etc. The girl receiving the most votes will be made "Miss University of Tampa—1937."

Beach!!

The sun wasn't out, but things were plenty hot . . . "Believe half you see and nothing you hear." Those were the words with which most beach combers tried to console themselves—but the truth hurts! The ones who took in the gulf during the holidays enjoyed the usual starvation, hangovers, no sleep, and romances. . . The cottages were Ocoola, Warner, Coarsey, Dennis, McKay, and Loafers Lodge . . . Chaperones included Mrs. Parker (Deke chaperon who was better known as Parker, Fannie) . . . Couples, some new romances and some aged were Blanche Sessions-Ken Hance, Dot Talbot-Joe McDermott, M. G. Coarsey-Lafayette Ingram, Betty Hodgson-Dick Spoto, Betty Bannon-Buddy Gainer, Ann McCurdy-Jerry Nelson, Skipper (Betty Ann's perp) and the pavilion dorg, Virginia Morrow and Phil Patterson . . . The last couple's real love started at the beach a year ago, but it came near splitting this time.

Prof. Bryan unintentionally admitted that his nickname is Dickie Boy . . . An article in Scribner mag says only God knows why such a magnificent building as the Tampa Bay hotel was built in Tampa . . . Perhaps the intended reason was for it to become the home of a young institution in 1932 . . . Next year Dr. Barnard will be dishing out education to millionaires at Williams college . . . Dr. Hinckley won't be back next semester . . . Ha Ha's by Kathleen Shakespeare (pen name for Joyce Turner). Who makes time in the lobby? The clock. Who dances in the lobby and gets away with it? Esmerelda. Who smokes in the lobby and ditto? The fireplace.

Here's the fourth chapter of the Short Story class' continued novel: Ben "borrows" the filthy lucre from his old man's safe and gives it to Gabe. Mr. Travers knows that his son stole the money when he finds Ben's frat pin near the safe, but he doesn't accuse Ben yet. Ben, who thinks his father suspects him, goes out to a hot spot with Sylvia to forget his worries. Here he sees his father drunk with a strange woman. The end of the chapter hints that this woman may be Sylvia's mother who lives in another city. (To be continued).

Pinkey Higgins, Boston third baser, gave his cousin, Dot Orr, a baseball containing all the player's autographs . . . Before the bingo boys were put on ice, one of the deputies, who was playing, won five bucks and gyped an employe out of ten cents. . . The boys were put up at the county hotel until Wally Stovall's dad hocked 'em out. . . We believe Ohio . . . Anne McCurdy did an informal dance for Pres. Sherman at the Dramatic club tea. She usually receives the cheer, Hips, Hips, Hooray . . . Dr. Sherman, Dean Hale and Rabbi Zielonka will speak to the Skins at luncheon today in Parr's. The frat might enjoy supper there. . . A date bureau will soon go into progress here . . .

MUEZZIN CALLS

TO EDNA

Elegies have been written—pure and sweet

Divine, grand symphonies whose awful chords

Nerves can not bear the weight of as they beat

Across the ages: mighty tones or words.

Many a man, worn out and ready to fall,

After the pitting weather of his years Returns for solace to the funeral

Indited by some earthly God whose tears

Endowed his dear friend's death with a sad charm.

Should you become one such, should you one day

Have need of power lacking in the arm,

And need of solace, I pray that you may

Return in thought to one who would give all

Power he has to ease your final fall.

—ZORRO.

MARIE

Expect no more from man. He has no more;

Dregs of despair cool in his crucible.

Not chemist enough to alchemize at will

All that has poisoned him and his bright core,

Man can do naught but give his being up

At last to hidden illnesses and death.

Return his reeking self to that great Cup

In which all things are cleaned: Mind, soul, and breath.

Expect no more from man, I say: instead,

Surrender up to Beauty what is hers.

Hold to the service that her quick and dead

Attend. Beauty alone can bring no curse;

Rather her blessed hand will bless your own,

Placing your liege to her immortal throne.

—ZORRO.

TO A SANDFLY

Though you're just a tiny speck

Sitting there upon my neck

To pidge you from your painful sting

You'd be a simply monstrous thing.

When you gather up a pack

Of your comrades on my back

In self defense I have to dive

Beneath the sheets to keep alive.

Oh you vicious wee sandflies

Pick on someone your own size

Please stop keeping me awake

Let me sleep for goodness' sake!

—Mary Frances O'Berry.

To All the Poor Devils Who Have

Fallen Prey to the Column:

Blessings on thee, nerve-racked folks

With thy trite, old, worn-out jokes,

With thy ears made sharper still

Trying to hear some dirt to fill

You spave-it seems a small amount

Till you have to write-it then you count

Each verb and pronoun in its place

And make more to fill your space.

From my heart I wish you well

Cause writing a column sure is inconvenient.

—Pine Cone, Exchange.

IMPOSSIBLE INTERVIEWS

Blanche Sessions: "I'll never dance with a Hancesome man."

Mary Frances O'Berry: "Picked up my pen and ink. Wrote a poem 'bout a guy called Link. Showed it to Fay. She said, 'Take it away.'"

Bob Tramontana: "There is nothing more restful than the bark of a dog."

Billy Handley: "I could never like Betty Jo. 'She Ain't Got Rhythm,' you know. But even if she did. Well, she's just a kid."

Dean Hale: "Hey, you on the front row, don't you know that seat is reserved?"

Bill Reid: "Those pretentious S. K. N's—not a pledge in the bunch."

Joyce Turner: "Really, I haven't a word to say."

Dick Spoto: "Girls! Quit flirting with me."

Pat Patterson: "Put off today what you can do to-morrow."

Wenona Manson: "The price of love is my biggest Bill."

T. L. Ferris: "Oh, hello Suzanne. Gee, I had a lousy time at the D. K. dance."

Luther Sparkman: "Let's call the game off."

Prof. Reuben D. Webb: "Hi, there, toots. Give the book a fling and let's scam."

The institution of Pantherilla at Plant High School does not instigate the following suggestion. Let us establish a similar group and call it Spartanilla. However, there would be little differences in organization and practice, the Spartanilla being night raiders rather than commercial pirates by day. In case the chief pirate of Spartanilla is to have a harem the leading candidate is none other than Alphonse X. Casanova.

Plans have not been completed for the grand function of the junior class which will take place on May 14 and have as its guest the senior class. Speculation is on as to whether or not it will be as good as last year's. Students are looking forward to this with great interest because the lack of dances has recently caused them to spend much more time than usual with their studies and the movies.

The old title of "Pop goes the weasel" has been changed to "Bingo's the weasel." Jay (1) Toulane was among the guests of the city last week end. It is truly the incarceration of the worthy, i. e., those worthy of incarceration.

The only contributions to the game of Reversed Perspective were made by athletes. One was about a reveler who lit his cigarette on the wrong end. Another was about Adolph Ramirez running down the hall avoiding the advances of a co-ed.

Our students came back to the University worn to a frazzle after the Spring holidays. Many students insist on calling the duties at the University work.

A new secret society has sprung up. It goes by the initials A. G. Do these stand for "Ain't Going" or "All Gone?"

How could Dr. Barnard escape getting sand in his shoes? Congratulations upon the new position and the new salary. Even though Dr. Barnard has avoided the sand flats he has not entirely avoided the sand for his freshmen and others still bring sand to class, in their shoes and in their hair.

Our new president, Dr. Sherman, is sincere in his wish to become personally acquainted with every student of the University. He is such a complete man that everyone likes him upon a first meeting.

Two students went out for a glorious evening. They were in the highest of spirits; their clothing was of the newest; their dates were of the oldest. They decided to go to a cabaret where diverse entertainment was furnished. They had a marvelous time and spared no expense, but when the time came to leave and they looked into their pocket books and found them bare, like Mother Hubbard's cupboard, the embarrassment registered on their respective faces led to the voluntary aid by one of their dates which bailed them out. We hope that Jack Williams and Alfred Maney have since been able to repay the kindness extended to them by their guests.

Masterpieces in our own game of Reversed Perspective were found in the April fool editions of the Pepper Plant and the Red and Black. These two publications are to be congratulated for their contributions to the fine art of being silly.

Capturing first places in three tournaments and a third in another, Beta Chi took the lead in the intra-mural race from Rho Nu Delta, who dropped to fourth place in the standings. Tau Omega is a close second, with Sigma Kappa Nu a few points back of them. The Plebes and Sigma Epsilon are in a tie for the cellar position.

Rho Nu Delta dropped to fourth place due to a poor showing in the swimming meet held Wednesday.

Beta Chi, which was in fourth position with the first four sports completed, assumed the lead by virtue of three first places in basketball, volleyball, and fencing. Rho Nu Delta, the former leaders, received thirds in basketball, volleyball, and fencing.

Sigma Kappa Nu gained ground on the Rho Nu Delta team by getting a second in volleyball, and thirds in basketball and fencing. Tau Omega, with seconds in fencing and basketball and a third in volleyball, is rapidly showing itself to be a large factor in the intra-mural race.

The Plebes received entrance points in basketball and volleyball. The Sigma Eps took second place in the fencing and received entrance points in volleyball.

SIGMA EPSILON 16; PLEBES 14

The Sigma Eps beat the Plebes in a slugfest by a score of 16-14 in the first diamond ball game of the intra-mural season. On the short end of a 11-1 score at the beginning of the fifth inning, the Sigma Eps put across 12 runs in that inning to take the lead. Each team put across three runs in the last two innings. The high lights of the game were the home runs hit by Barker, of Sigma Epsilon, and Landers, of the Plebes.

VOLLEYBALL TOURNAMENT

Rho Nu Delta advanced to the semi-finals of the tournament over the Plebes in a three-game match. Rho Nu Delta took the first game and then lost the second, only to come back strong to take the third game.

Tau Omega advanced to the semi-finals by a straight set win over the Sigma Eps. In the semi-finals Tau Omega lost to Sigma Kappa Nu in three games. The scores were (15-9) (0-15) (15-9).

Beta Chi advanced to the finals in a straight set match with Rho Nu Delta. The scores of the games were (15-13) (16-14).

In the finals of the tournament, the Beta Chi team took Sigma Kappa Nu in four games. After having lost the first game, Beta Chi came back to win three straight. The scores were (15-10) (9-15) (14-16) (15-9).

Spartans Assured Of Grid Game With Florida Gators

Announcement has been made over the Associated Press that Josh Cody, Athletic Director at the University of Florida, has completed plans with Coach Nash Higgins for a football game between Tampa U. and the Gators in 1938. The game will be played in Tampa Oct. 29.

Although no formal contract has yet been signed for the meeting of the two elevens, Coach Cody said that the faculty athletic committee had approved playing the game next year.

The Associated Press dispatch said that the University of Miami and Tampa U. were invited to submit proposals for the 1938 game. The Tampa offer was better.

Cody was in Tampa last week to confer with George Howell, treasurer of the University of Tampa Athletic Department. The Florida coach was well pleased with the terms offered and the following day presented them before the Florida U. committee.

Tampa U. and Florida started athletic relations this year when the two schools played two basketball games. The two teams broke even in the contests.

The Freshman girl's basketball team won the intramural title last week when the Delta Kappas were forced to default in the final game.

Second-time intramural winners, having won the volleyball championship in the fall, the Freshmen had no trouble in disposing of the Sigma Theta Phis to reach the finals.

Close guarding on the part of the Freshmen held the Sigma Theta score down to 9 points while their own forwards piled up 24.

In the best game of the tournament, the Delta Kappas nosed out the more experienced Physical Educators, 11 to 10.

With the DK's trailing most of the way, it looked like a win for the Physical Educators who were the heavy favorites at the start. In the last minute of play the Delta Kappas scored their upset, winning by one point.

Women's intramural diamond ball games next week begin with the Delta Kappas playing the Physical Educators on Tuesday. On Wednesday the Freshmen meet the Sigma Theta Phis.

A single elimination tournament in beach-tennis is being drawn up this week. Each intramural team may enter an unlimited number of contestants, and play will start Monday, April 12.

Events in the women's swimming meet, the date of which has not yet been decided, will include both speed and form swimming. Each team may enter two contestants in each event. The meet will probably be held at the Tampa Aquatic club.

Swimmers Off to Miami for Contest

The University of Tampa swimming team will journey to Miami today to participate in a triangular meet tomorrow with the University of Miami and Rollins college. The meet will be the first in which a Spartan aquatic team has ever competed. The meet will be held in the spacious Miami Biltmore pool, scene of many outstanding swimming feats by America's leading stars.

Arnold Graf has been elected captain of the team for the season. Lee Barker, the outstanding swimmer in the squad, and Tampa city champion in many events, is alternate captain. Linus Upson is the team manager.

Coach Johnny Upson will take four swimmers to the meet. Guy Cutolo or Oswald Delgado will make the trip with those already mentioned.

In the Florida A. A. U. meet held recently in Fort Lauderdale, Barker shattered the meet record in the 150-yard backstroke, swimming the distance in 1 minute and 46 seconds.

GRACE MOORE

The trophy awarded yearly to the outstanding girl basketball player in the university was awarded this year to Grace Moore, a guard on the girls' varsity team. This is her first year in school here.

Hollywood Movie Actor Is Visitor Here for a Day

Grady Sutton, the great "Alabam," was in town Tuesday. Just for curiosity, he came to the university to see how the old hotel has changed since turning into a home for collegians. Grady will be remembered as the drawing southerner in "Valent is the Word for Carrie," and is now temporarily a movie actor on vacation.

One of the first persons to recognize him when he walked into the lobby was Jay Toulme, who approached and asked if he happened to be Grady Sutton, to which he replied:

"Yes, I guess I'll have to plead guilty."

This answer was typical of the casual manner of Sutton. He looks and talks exactly as he does on the screen, except when playing character parts. Usually he plays the part of a big, drawing, effeminate man in short subjects. In conversation he uses actually the same drawl as on the screen in a high-pitched voice. He was dressed very well for a large man, and was in sport clothes when here.

He appeared to be about 33 or 34 years of age, is heavy and a very amiable sort. Staying here only about 20 minutes, he said that he might return to Tampa again next week and hoped to come to the university again. Among the few remarks he made was that he felt "out of place;" that he was surprised to find that the hotel had changed into a university, and that the place has certainly run down during the years since he was first here but was glad it was being repaired.

"And then there was the tramp who asked a man for $500, which man said, 'Why don't you beg for it little by little?' And the tramp sang, 'I'm putting all my eggs in one basket!'" —Erskine Mirror (via Stetson Reporter).

SPARTAN
SPARKLES
By SAM HARRISON

We salute the Beta Chi athletes for their sudden rise to first place in the intramural race. Two weeks ago, they were 50 points behind the leaders. Today they are out in front by 21 points, and seem likely to hold this lead to the finish.

For two years, the Beta Chi's have been undefeated in the basketball and volleyball, and it was victories in these divisions of the intramural program that accounts for their lead in the race.

Dr. Sherman is a great believer in athletics. Having once been a college athlete himself, he appreciates the advantages of sports competition in a well rounded college program.

The doctor has a plan that we believe would be an excellent lead to follow up. He proposes to develop intramural competition to an equal level with varsity sports, without decreasing the stress on the major sports, mainly football. This would give practically everyone in the university a chance to take an active part in athletics, instead of the limited number who can be accommodated in varsity sports.

With this as a nucleus, it has been proposed to inaugurate annually several days of minor sports, a sort of "Intramural Olympics," sponsored by the University of Tampa. To this festival would be invited all of the small colleges of the state. Entertainment in the varied forms could be arranged, and we believe the idea could be developed into a popular annual affair.

Dr. Sherman's idea is to develop the social aspect of mixed sports competition between small co-educational colleges. This, we believe, is an excellent point to emphasize—one that has been neglected.

It seems that our recent remarks concerning the "Phillip's Field Project" (the famous stadium) have created quite a commotion. The delay in beginning of the construction seems to be a question of title on part of the property and attempts to change the source of a stream which runs through the site.

Genuine and conscientious efforts to make the stadium a reality are being put forth by certain Spartan supporters. To these the university owes, at least, its gratitude. However this does not alter the fact that we had previously been informed that title of the property was clear and that actual work would begin immediately. This was about six months ago. Whence this mis-information?

The University of Tampa has been definitely scheduled to meet the University of Florida on the gridiron here in 1938. This is certainly a progressive step in Spartan athletics. . . . Other big games should be scheduled. . . . We would personally rather see the Spartans remain unattached to any athletic conference for a while. . . . We believe a member of the S. I. A. A. is hindered, and cannot progress beyond a certain level. . . . Tampa is at least as strong in football as Sewanee, which maintains membership in the Southeastern Conference, although not winning a conference game in several years. . . . It would be better to lose by a touchdown or two to a team like Florida or South Carolina or V. M. I. than to win by seven or eight touchdowns over Newberry or South Georgia State. . . . The Cincinnati Reds' recent spring training sessions proved a boon to many of our football heroes, for Bill Culbreath, the versatile professor, furnished them with employment taking and selling tickets, acting as strong arm men at gates, selling programs, etc. . . . Oxo Hurn, champion of the "beef trust corporation" became a great pal of the would-be knot-hole gazers—small boys, the true lovers of baseball. . . . Co-ed members of journalism classes were thrilled at receiving autographs from such baseball personalities as "School-boy" Rowe, "Pepper" Martin, "Dizzy" Dean and other famous players. . . . Speaking of "Dizzy" Dean, the recent fistic free-for-all at a local hotel in which he and brother "Daffy" supposedly precipitated the entire "Gas House Gang" in riotous ire upon the heads of two cherubic sports writers, strikes us as an excellent bit of publicity for Dean, Dean and company, but having little intrinsic value as a good fight. . . . Ho-hum. . . .

T. O. Wins Swim Meet at Tampa Aquatic Club

Tau Omega fraternity captured the intramural swimming meet Wednesday to win its second tourney of the year. The winners had a total of 39 points as against 23 for Sigma Epsilon, 18 for Beta Chi, 14 for Sigma Kappa Nu and 2 for Rho Nu Delta.

Lee Barker, Tampa U's aquatic sensation, was easily the outstanding star of the meet, capturing four events in record time. Barker won in the 50-yard backstroke, the 100-yard dash, 75-yard medley and the under-water swim. Phil Thomas, of Beta Chi, was second high with 11 points, and Ronald Graf, of T. O., was third. Linus Upson, also a T. O., scored seven points. Barker was representing Sigma Epsilon, scoring 20 of his team's 23 points.

Thomas was winner in the 50-yard dash and Graf won the 50-yard breaststroke.

Jay Toulme, Tau Omega, took first place in the low-board diving. Cotton Clinton was second and Jim Mandula, third.

Points were scored on a 5, 3, 2, 1 basis.

Tau Omega also came in first in the 200-yard relay.

THE SOCIAL SPOTLIGHT THIS WEEK

By FIFI

Dear Annette:

President John H. Sherman was guest of honor last Saturday afternoon at a tea given at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Connally, sponsor of the University Dramatic club. Invited guests included members of the Dramatic club, officers of student council, class officers and members of the faculty. Today the Sigma Kappa Nu fraternity will have the honor of having President Sherman's presence at their weekly luncheon at Parr's.

Miss Mina Dennis, pretty co-ed, has set the time limit for nose-powdering for her own convenience, but much to the dismay of other fair co-eds! Three minutes a day really is a small amount of time to spend on nose-powdering, especially when it can transform one's looks so well!

Dr. Ellsworth Barnard, instructor of English, has announced that he has accepted an invitation to teach at Williams college, Williamsburg, Mass. We hate to lose him; he really is a good sport and it is only recently that we have had the opportunity of knowing him well.

Joe Carr will drive our dog-track boys to Sulphur Springs tomorrow night in the galloping for the last time this season. The track closes after the midnight race, and vacation time begins. That is, until something else turns up to chase!

The Misses Betty Hodgeson, Edna Johnson, Margaret Richards, Susan Jackson, Jane Pierson, Jane White, Catherine Jane Armstrong and Gladys Jacobs will assist the Tampa children in the winding of the May pole at Plant field on May the first. They will not wear ruffled tulle dresses, as is customary of the dancers, but will wear white satin slacks with purple blouses.

Reservations have been made at the Tampa Yacht and Country club for the junior-senior prom to be held May 14. Don Francisco's orchestra will furnish music for dancing. Miss Alice Elizabeth Wilson has been seen going here and there making plans for the affair, and has planned many novel decorations for the dining table, which include place cards bearing the university seal. The university colors will be used in all of the decorations.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard S. Berrey had as their house guest last weekend Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Metts. Dr. Metts, instructor at the University of Florida, is the former head of the education department of Tampa U.

Mrs. Richard W. Bryan, sponsor of the Alpha Gamma sorority, will be hostess tomorrow at a luncheon given at her home on Magnolia avenue. The guests will include only members of the Alpha Gamma sorority.

An invitation Bowery Ball is being planned by the Beta Chi's. It is to be held in the university ballroom. Music will be furnished by Bob Porton and his orchestra. Sponsors who have already been chosen are the Misses Waverly Floyd, Catherine Jane Armstrong, Margaret Rush and Betty Hodgeson.

The class notables of the graduating class of '37 were elected this week, but as yet your guess is as good as ours as to who's who. Announcement of notables will not be made until the first publication of the year's Moroccan.

The S. T. P.'s are planning for another progressive supper to be given some time in the near future. Plans also are being completed for their annual "Kid" dance to be given next month. Don't miss that dance, 'cause it will be a swell opportunity to act kiddish and get by with it!

T. L. Ferris has finally announced his secret, (one man's chain of beautiful girls), that has been worrying the university co-eds. Our congratulations to the girl of Frederick March's choice! And while we are on the subject of movie actors we might mention that Grady Sutton was visiting here at the university last Tuesday.

Yours,

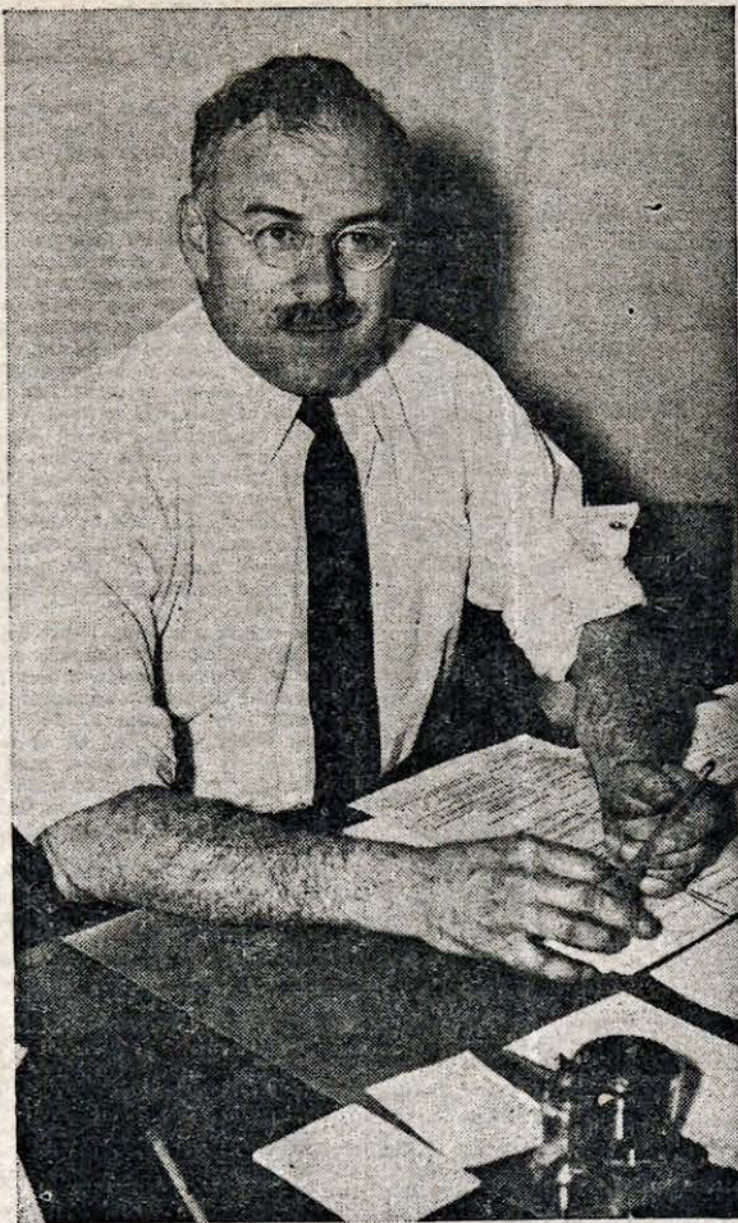

FIFI.

Alpha Gammas To Be Guests of Mrs. R. W. Bryan

Among those who were given invitations were: Misses Mary Ellen Knight, Evangelina La Fuente, Sylvia Jardon, Grace Dayan, Mabel Odell, Emily Noe, Olive Castro, Angelino Martino, Mary and Onelia Pelaez, Delia Pacheco, Angelina Cusmano, and Mary Dominguez.

The decorations which will be used are the sorority's colors, green and white. After the luncheon, games will be played.

"Maria" Off to Good Start in Role of Minaret Reporter

Skeeters, skeeters everywhere, not cars—bugs! What's the difference between skeeter bugs and skeeter cars anyway? I betcha you don't know. Well, I'll tell ya. A skeeter car has four wheels and no wings, while a skeeter bug has two wings, legs and no wheels. The U. aint had many skeeter cars around, but my goodness, they sure did have the skeeter bugs around for a while. But haint you noticed we aint got nary a skeeter bug now or almost nary a one? Well, we aint, cause a man named Mr. W. A. Matheson, who is with the W.P.A. told the city about hit and a big bunch of men cum over in 2 trucks with 2 great big whooper tanks filled plum full of sum kind of oil that the skeeter bug just can't stand when they ain't got their oil masks on, and they squirted it on them. When they all wuz unawares of an enemy attackin' them. They squirted it in the basement, under the front porch, on the porch, in the cubby holes, and jest everywhere I guess. Some of those fellers what wuz on the killin' squad told me they had done killed millions and billyuns of the skeeter bugs. They said that there wuz jest swarms of them flying around like bees do when they're after their queenie. 'Tis said it was one of the biggest skeeter bug disaster that ever happened in the skeeter bug history.

Then a man who was kinda mornful 'bout the situation said that it was an ill wind that blew no good, cuz he reckoned that the skeeter bug tragedy was about the best thing that could of happened for the students in Tamper U.

(Note: This story is bein' reported by Maria. Im jest lernin the repertin' bizness.)

Albert Day Is Winner In Fencing Tourney

Albert Day, Beta Chi's energetic "little man" of the hour, captured the intramural fencing title last week after a hard-fought match with Willie Godwin, also a Beta Chi entrant. The final score of the match was 34 to 29, but Day was victorious only after a see-saw battle in which the lead changed several times.

The number of entrants who competed in the tourney this year was the largest in the history of the sport here.

Tribune Press Will Publish Yearbook

Moroccan covers were widely distributed as an example of their work.

The staff will be saved much time and labor in cutting and mounting of pictures. The engraver has agreed this year to do all such work, which means that their experience and skill will contribute to making well-balanced, attractive pages.

A great deal of stress is being put on division of pages. They make up the tone of the book by carrying the theme and all the color. Al Yorkunas is devoting most of his time now to plans for division sheet designs. His rapid improvement, as seen in his cartoons for the Minaret, will also be shown in the Moroccan. The printers have promised to give more color and better material.

Senior Notables Elected

The Blakeslee-Klintworth studio makes a specialty of producing fine feature pictures for annuals. Four pages will be devoted to large photographs of the eight notables of the senior graduating class. These notables, four boys and four girls, were chosen by secret ballot two weeks ago and will remain unknown until publication. The group includes the most attractive boy and girl, the most intellectual, the most athletic, and the best all-around.

Tau Omegas Honor Outstanding Pledge

The Tau Omega fraternity honored Lytton Ashmore at its weekly meeting last Wednesday. Ashmore, who recently became a member, was selected as the most outstanding pledge of the first semester. For winning this honor, the fraternity presented to him a silver statue and plaque upon which his name and the year are engraved. The plaque will remain in his possession until next February when it will be turned over to the next pledge who receives the title.

The fraternity will have a luncheon next Wednesday at Parr's Drug Company. Several prominent young Tampa business men are expected to attend and President John H. Sherman has been invited to speak.

MASQUERS HAVE INFORMAL TEA FOR PRESIDENT

The 313 Masquers entertained at an informal tea for the faculty and student council that their members might meet Dr. J. H. Sherman, the new president. The tea was held at the home of Mrs. Connally, dramatic instructor and advisor of the dramatic club. Guests called between 4 and 6 o'clock.

Mrs. Connally's home, of the bungalow type, was attractively decorated with bouquets of spring flowers. Mrs. Tom Whitaker and Mrs. Carl Bock, friends of the hostess, poured coffee and tea for the guests. The lace-covered table was beautifully set with a low bowl of mixed flowers and tall yellow candles to carry out a pastel theme. Sandwiches of cottage cheese and ice-box cookies were served with the coffee and tea.

Those who assisted were: Misses Anne McCurdy, Anne Way Peebles, Leona Wagner, Julia Mary Neef, Leila Turner Clark, Joyce Turner, Leah Mae Hunter, Barbara Connally and Catherine Bock, respectively daughter and friend of the hostess.
