

JUNE 1952

A challenge for a perspective in education:

Let me not shut myself within myself

Nor dedicate my days to petty things,

Let there be many windows in my life,

The entrance to my heart a door that swings,

Where through I go and come with eyes that smile,

And folk without as gladly come to me,

That, haply I may learn the thing worthwhile,

The art of human hospitality.

Save me from self-preferment, that would gain

Its cloistered place, safe sheltered from the strife.

But purposeful and calm and sweet and sane,

Lord, keep me in the Living Room of Life.

THIS YEAR IT'S DIFFERENT . . . . .

Members of the graduating classes of 1952 will be proud of the fact that they hold the first diplomas to be issued by the University of Tampa as a fully accredited school, and Alumni join them in their pride. Graduates of the University have always been able to make their mark in their after-school life, but holding a diploma from an institution that has an accreditation status equal to that of any other college is a reassuring bonus.

Eighty-five candidates for Bachelor of Science degrees, seven for Bachelor of Arts, makes a total of ninety-two who will be eligible for membership in the Alumni Association of the University of Tampa. One candidate for a Secretarial Science Certificate will also be welcomed.

U. of T. has gone far since its start as a Junior College in 1931. Housed in the Hillsborough High School Building on Central Avenue, classes began after high school classes were over for the day and continued until late in the evening. The curriculum, described in a 15-page mimeographed, brown covered bulletin, was "mainly classical" leading to the bachelor of arts and bachelor of science degrees, including courses in English, Latin, French, German, Spanish, history, mathematics, physics, chemistry, biology, education, art, public speaking and the Bible. The executive board was at first composed of Frederick H. Spaulding, President; V. V. Sharpe, chairman; Charles A. McKeand, secretary; Ernest Maas, treasurer; George B. Howell, Charles F. Blake, Frank D. Jackson, E. J. Keefe, Carl D. Brorein, M. W. Carothers.

Three of our present faculty members have served the institution since October 1931, when, under the name of Tampa Junior College, it admitted its first students.

June 11, 1935, marked a mile-stone in the history of the University, for on that date President Spaulding awarded degrees to the senior class of 12 who had completed the first four-year course offered by the college.

The presentation of diplomas established a precedent and also gave the people of Tampa an opportunity to witness a full-fledged commencement exercise in their own home city. During the three-day program all the ceremony and dignity that is connected with graduation at older schools of the country was observed. The baccalaureate service was held Sunday, June 9, and Class Day was observed on June 10.

The baccalaureate service was held in the assembly room of the University. After extending a word of welcome, President Spaulding introduced the speaker, Rabbi David L. Zielonka of Schaarai Zedek Temple, Tampa.

Rabbi Zielonka said there should be no mourning for the graduates and that the experience of going out into the world in the hard times should be accepted as a challenge to living. "Graduates will be called on for a reaffirmation of the faith of man, and for courage, vision, industry, knowledge and understanding," he said.

At the Class Day exercises Miss Dorothy Pou gave the senior class oration, which was followed by the traditional planting of ivy. The seniors were guests at a luncheon given by the fraternal organizations of the school, and after this they were honored by the members of the faculty at a class reception.

President and Mrs. Spaulding were hosts to the Senior class that evening at a banquet in their apartment on the second floor of the University. Dean and Mrs. M. S. Hale and members of the faculty were present. Four undergraduate girls assisted in the serving.

On commencement day the Senior class formed at the casino for the closing ceremony and proceeded across the campus and into the main building and to the assembly room just an hour before noon, to receive their degrees from President Spaulding. The Commencement speaker was the Honorable Doyle E. Carlton, former governor of Florida.

Those who received degrees were: Julia Burnes, A. B.; Anne C. Crane, A. B.; Irene M. Maas, A.B.; Louise G. Leonard, A. B.; Carolyn E. Manes, A. B.; Dorothy Pou, A. B.; Miller K. Adams, B. S.; Charles V. Collier, B. S.; James W. Moore, B. S.; C. Ted Van Antwerp, B. S.; D. B. York, B. S.; and Alfred W. Taylor, A. B., and Alan P. Stuckey, B. S., who had completed their studies the previous summer.

DR. LAUB TELLS US that ... ..

Mr. Miller Adams, now associate professor of physical education, was a student in Tampa Junior College, the forerunner of U. of Tampa, 1931-1933. Student enrollment for these two years numbered 70 and 128 respectively.

An early Junior College bulletin warns against "inciting to riot or of participating in riot."

The Library appears to have all Minarets except Vol. I, No. 1.

A men's organization, The Sanitary Engineers, made up of students who cared for the building in the autumn of 1933, took the name Epsilon Delta. It later became Beta Chi fraternity.

Earliest Greek Letter social event was a Delta Kappa Tea, October 14, 1933. It was not yet chartered at this time. Minaret of October 12, 1933, mentions a petition of Beta Chi fraternity.

First degrees were conferred on Pat Alan Stucky and Alfred W. Taylor in 1934. Pat Stucky, who took his Ph.D. degree in History in U. of Florida, Feb. 1952, will teach in the summer session of U. of Tampa, 1952.

Dr. C. Herbert Laub, Professor of history and political science at the U. of Tampa for the past fifteen years.

THE CLASS OF 1952

Fifty-seven men and thirty-five women received degrees at the Commencement Ceremonies on June 6. The Honorable Doyle Carlton, former Governor of Florida, was the Commencement Speaker. The distinguished Chaplain of the United States Senate, and Minister of the Foundry Methodist Church, Dr. Frederick Brown Harris, of Washington, D. C., delivered the Baccalaureate Sermon to the Seniors, at the First Christian Church, Tampa, on June 1. Both of these distinguished gentlemen received honorary doctorates and Mrs. Carl Fisher, prominent writer, club woman, historian and radio artist of Miami Beach, received the University of Tampa Achievement Medal.

So you THINK you'll take a chance ???

If you were born on any day of this year along with more than 200,000 other babies born all over the world, statistics show you would have one chance in twenty of being born in the United States. The chances of being born white are one in three; of being born a Christian one in four. You are more likely to be born a Confucian or a Buddhist, a Mohammedan or a Taoist. If you are born in the United States, you will probably live longer than a year. But if you are born in India, which is more likely, you have only a little better than a one-to-four chance of living more than a year, and only a fifty-fifty chance of growing to maturity.

SORORITY GOES NATIONAL

Accreditation of the University of Tampa has permitted the affiliation of our Greek Letter fraternities and sororities with National organizations. Members of Sigma Theta Phi of the University of Tampa recently became affiliated with Zeta Tau Alpha sorority. Members were pledged to Gamma Sigma chapter. Pictured above are: left to right, Mrs. A. G. Graff, president of the Tampa alumnae chapter; Miss Kay Johnson, president of the active chapter on the Tampa campus; and Mrs. W. Bruce Campbell, of Wauchula, Iota province president, who was in charge of the pledge ceremony. Alumnae members in good standing are to be eligible for admission.

The first chapter of a national sorority recently was established on the campus of the University of Tampa when members of Sigma Theta Phi were pledged to the Gamma Sigma chapter of Zeta Tau Alpha.

Sigma Theta Phi was established on the university campus April 9, 1934, soon after the University of Tampa became housed in the old H. B. Plant Tampa Bay Hotel. Dr. E. B. Hinckley was advisor and Miss Charlotte Ann Thompson was sponsor.

The group was organized as a scholastic and social society with a three-point program — scholarship, thoughtfulness and progress. Since 1934 the alumnae roll of the sorority has grown to more than 200.

Zeta Tau Alpha is one of the pioneer Southern-born groups to bear a Greek name at the time of founding, and to continue immediate expansion in the South.

Founded at Longwood College in Farmville, Va., Oct. 15, 1898, Zeta Tau Alpha was chartered as a legal corporation on March 15, 1902, thus becoming the first sorority to be chartered in Virginia, and the only one ever to be chartered by a special act of the legislature. Since then charters have been granted to 90 college chapters in the leading colleges and universities of the United States and Canada. The organization attained international status in 1929 with the establishment of a chapter at the University of Manitoba. The founding of a chapter at the University of Tampa establishes five on campuses throughout Florida—one at Stetson, one at University of Florida, Florida State University and the University of Miami.

Tampa alumnae members are Miss Gladys Anthony, Mrs. Paul K. Bolles, Miss Betty Bolles, Mrs. R. A. Bagby, Mrs. K. C. Bonfoy, Miss Ethel Clann, Miss Enola Cross, Mrs. Aaron Gardner, Mrs. W. W. Lundy, Mrs. Bryan Stewart, Mrs. James Stevens, Mrs. G. M. Smith, Mrs. C. E. Turner, Mrs. Robert Drew, Mrs. C. C. Woodward, Jr., Mrs. C. C. Woodward, Sr., Miss Ada Woodward, Mrs. Robert Larmon, Mrs. J. G. Heyck, Miss Pat Winkleblack, Mrs. C. A. Weil, Jr., Mrs. Glenn Graff, Mrs. J. D. Henry, Jr., Mrs. Anita Archer, Miss Betty Rose Cotarelo, Mrs. Mack Christian.

Active members are the Misses Virginia Musselman and Nancy Wilson, Florida State University; Bobbie Jo Hartnett, Gloria Cermak and Lillian Dietzman, University of Florida; and Nancy Maxwell, Duke University.

The national sorority emphasizes both scholarship and usefulness. Four scholarship funds have been established—the first in 1912. The Chinese Scholarship Fund, operative in 1944-45, provided scholarships for Chinese girls attending Ginling College in Nanking.

Zeta Tau Alpha cooperated with the Cerebral Palsy Division of the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc., in the publication of a much needed manual for which the sorority appropriated thousands of dollars. Since 1947 the sorority's service program has been the treatment and training of cerebral palsied children. Service work is the particular project of the alumnae, and ZTA's alumnae groups cooperate with local units of the National Society all over the country.

Among Zeta's prominent members are Miss Dorothy Shaver, nationally known and much-publicized president of Lord and Taylor, New York City; Miss Faith Baldwin, famous novelist; Miss Gena Branscombe (Mrs. John Ferguson Tenney, internationally famous conductor-composer; Helen Park Fram, outstanding furniture designer; Honor Gregory House, vice-president of the Advertising Federation of America and chairman of AFA's Council On Women's Advertising clubs; Miss Helen Reich, assistant dean of students, University of Iowa; Geraldine Townsend Fitch, well known lecturer, writer and expert on China and Far Eastern affairs, and many others.

NEW DEAN OF WOMEN - PROMINENT OHIO CLUB AND CHURCH WOMAN

Miss Margaret Doty, popular and beloved Dean of Women since 1949 will leave the University June 6th to further her studies toward a doctorate. She will be succeeded by Mrs. Karl King, of Bryan, Ohio. Mrs. King is a graduate of Defiance College and has for many years been active in work with young people and in the national offices of the American Federation of Woman's Clubs. She comes to the University with the highest recommendations, and with bright prospects for a most useful field of service in our University community. She has a very charming personality and exceptional gifts as a public speaker.

Because Mrs. King has held so many important offices in the General Federation of Woman's Clubs of America, as well as in educational, civic and cultural groups we believe that many Woman's Clubs, especially, will be seeking her services as a speaker.

HONORED VISITOR AT U. OF T.

Dr. Harry G. Thomas, father of radio commentator Lowell Thomas and recipient of an honorary degree conferred by the University of Tampa in 1949, died May 6 in New York City. He was in his 82nd year.

Dr. Thomas and his son both received honorary degrees from the University at the June, 1949, commencement, Lowell Thomas having been the speaker on that occasion.

A native of Hollansburg, Ohio, where he was born May 30, 1869, Dr. Thomas received the B. S. degree from Lebanon College, Lebanon, Ohio, the B. A. and M. A. degrees from the University of Denver, and his degree in medicine from the University of Cincinnati.

After the outbreak of World War I, Dr. Thomas served on hospital staffs in England, and upon the entry of the United States into the war was transferred to the A. E. F. and served in France and Italy until the end of the hostilities, retiring as a lieutenant colonel. During World War II he served as physician and surgeon with the U. S. Navy.

THE FUTURE OF SUMMER '51

By Margaret L. Doty

Dean of Women

You never can tell where you will run into an alumni of the University of Tampa! On my first night in Paris last summer I met the tour party I was joining in a small, cosmopolitan hotel on the "Left Bank" near the Sorbonne. As we introduced ourselves, I thought one face was strangely familiar. Then, as names were given, I was really not surprised to find that the person was a 1950 graduate of Tampa U.-Wanda Climes of St. Petersburg! Neither of us knew the other had plans for this extensive trip covering sixteen European countries during the summer. It was interesting for both of us to have friends to share the exciting trips and newsy letters from home.

Later, again unexpectedly, in Dublin, Ireland, I was surprised and delighted to see Charlotte Ann Thompson and her travelingmate, Mable Mabry, board a sightseeing bus I was on. The other tour members were amused at the exclamations of such "long-lost friends". We had expected to meet in Edinburgh, but missed connections here and did not have information about later schedules.

The trip met all my expectations. After covering most of the northern hemisphere ---and enjoying it all -- I found that travel in Europe was more rewarding and stimulating for me than other places I have been including Asia, Mexico, Canada, and Western and Eastern United States. The wealth of historical sightseeing in Europe is supplemented by art, music, architectural and religious shrines, all of which are familiar thru literature and plays. You can see our own civilization with more understanding after seeing the background in which it originally developed.

Yes, I do want to go back again. Every one does, because there is just too much to absorb in one summer, or even one year. Despite my enthusiasm for travel--anyplace--I must remind others that you should not think of travel in Europe as "just another vacation"! It is "re-creation" to be sure, but it is not restful or relaxing. On the contrary, it is physically tiring, and so stimulating mentally, making so many demands on your memory and knowledge, that you need a restful vacation afterwards. It is more like attending a six-week summer school session, than two weeks at the beach! But it is more fun than either !!

I visited in sixteen different countries, and thirteen capitols. These countries used 10 different kinds of money so that making change was a continuing exercise in arithmetic. There were at least seven different languages spoken in these countries, and even the English is widely known, you feel quite isolated from people when you can communicate with them only by smiles, pointing, and shaking your head! We are definitely limited in our international relations by the fact that so few Americans who travel can talk with people in their own language.

Of course you observe many interesting things about the life of the different countries, and you note the differences, especially. It is well to remind yourself, however, that a few days traveling in a country among people who speak a language you do not understand certainly does not make you an expert for interpreting the politics, economics, or culture of their country.

On my trip I learned more about art than I hoped or expected to learn; and I lost track of the number of galleries we visited. I enjoyed the music events even more than I had anticipated. I attended 38 music and dramatic programs in the 100 days I was away from Tampa, including opera in Rome, Salzburg, and Edinburgh, Shakespearian plays in Stratford, Dublin, and London; Concerts in Vienna, Paris, Stockholm, Amsterdam, Brussels, etc. etc. We were entertained at tea by the President of Italy, and had dinner and a debate with two members of Parliament of England, and meetings with several notable political figures. If I were to choose a favorite location, I would have to name two--Italy and Norway--Italy for its culture and history; and Norway for its scenery. However, all the countries seemed wonderful and thrilling to me at the time, and still do as I recall them. Such a trip telescopes years of experiences and memorable events into a couple of intensely full months. I expect to continue enjoying the summer of 1951 in retrospect for nearly as many years as I spent anticipating the trip and saving for it!

It is an odd fact that Harvard was two hundred years old before the first college for women was established, and that co-education was a still later development. Wesleyan, founded in 1836, antedated by one year the admission of women to Oberlin College, the first coeducational institution. Thus, in enlightened America, men had a two hundred year start on women in the matter of college opportunities. Secondary schools were reserved almost exclusively for male students up to a century ago. It is interesting to note that all state universities now admit women to some, if not all, divisions.

HERE AND THERE

PROFESSOR ROY MCGILLIVRAY, Director of University Broadcasting Services, conducted the Board of Directors of the University of Tampa Alumni Association through the new radio studio on the second floor of the University after the Board meeting the other night. The studio is very attractively decorated, and is completely equipped with the latest broadcasting equipment, including air-conditioning and built-in refrigeration and kitchen equipment for the Home Economics broadcast. The broadcast comes on from 1:45 to 2:00 P. M. Monday through Friday over WFLA AM and FM, and every Sunday at 1:00 to 1:15 p. m. poetry lovers may hear Dr. Nance in a program entitled "Brief Visits with the Poets and Writers of Our Day." Be sure to listen in when you have the opportunity.

PHIL CALHOUN, who took his pre-law course at UT, has been elected President of the Student Bar Association of the University of Miami Law School.

ROBERT McARTHUR '51 is attending Leadership School in Fort Jackson, S. C. Wife RAMONA is going to keep the home fires burning, staying on to help Miss Pate in the business office at the U.

ELOISE McSWAIN BRADLEY '45 is awaiting sailing orders to join her husband in England, who is stationed with the Air Force there. They have three children.

COTTON and BARBARA CONNELL will soon move into a new home on Vasconia Avenue, Tampa.

LESTER RYALS is now a Certified Public Accountant associated with Cliff Edwards, Tampa.

We'll want to see the record of MADGE KLEINHAMMER'S trip to Europe which she will keep in a European Tour Diary presented her by the faculty of Dale Mabry School, where Madge teaches fifth grade.

NANCY TAYLOR is back home after a leave of absence spent in Hawaii, looking better than ever.

Since the last bulletin, baby girls have arrived to thrill the following proud parents: Mr. and Mrs. COTTON CLINTON, Mr. and Mrs. LEE DUNCAN, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Skokan (OLGA MARTINEZ). In each case the family boasted one or more sons and were wishing for a daughter.

VEDA BYRD teaches a special class for handicapped children at Bayside School here in Tampa.

Law seems to be a natural for JIMMY LINDSAY '38, who practices it during the day as an attorney associated with his uncle, Charles F. Blake, First National Bank Bldg., Tampa, and teaches a class in law at Veteran's School evenings. Jimmy graduated from the U. of Tampa in 1938 then attended Law School at the University of Florida.

Another young alumnus practicing law in the Stovall Professional Bldg., Tampa, who is perhaps best remembered for his football feats who went up to Gainesville for his law course is HARRY HOBBS.

CECELIA SULLIVAN MARSHALL is as good a pianist as she was when she went along with the University Band in its concert performances back when Prof. August Ingley was Band Director. We heard her on program at the Federated Clubs Building as an accompanist recently. Cecelia has a little girl, Ann, age 5.

JAMES BRYANT '37 is manager of Margaret Ann's store on Memorial Highway, Tampa.

FRANK LEWIS, WILLIAM LEE, JACK McCLUNNY and JOHN LYNN, former classmates at the U who are "in the Army now" were lucky enough to stay together all through Basic, and have recently graduated from OCS in Ft. Benning, Ga., and Paratrooper school. Frank and William will continue on together through Ranger training at Ft. Benning. John has his leg in a cast as the result of an injury received on his sixth jump.

Thoughtfully sending a nice donation to the scholarship fund is HENRY ZARANSKI '50, who lives in Buffalo, N. Y. We appreciate this.

It isn't every student who is able to leave such tangible evidence of having "been here" as did JAY SANDERS '48, to whom we are indebted for some of the beautiful murals depicting the "Air Age" painted on the walls at the University. Jay received his B. A. degree at UT in '48, then took his MS in Radio and Speech in February of this year at the University of Florida, where he has been serving this past semester as Assistant Professor of Speech.

With Alumni - - -

A full program of varsity sports has been approved for the new academic year; Football, Basket ball, Baseball, Crew, Fencing, etc. Eight of the scheduled football games this season will be played at University of Tampa Stadium. Season tickets for the games are now on sale. Marcelino Huerta, B. S. (1950) has been promoted to Athletic Director and Head Football Coach. He succeeds Mr. Frank Sinkwich who resigned in March.

MARJORY DeKINDER writes us a newsy letter and sends pictures, which we pass on to you. Says she:

"This is my first job with an all-girl trio (3 months so far). I have always worked with men in the orchestras and combos and I have had a very simple reaction: 'I like it.' This month we're working in Lake Charles, La. We have three pieces -- I play trumpet and maracas, too. I mention maracas because my last job was with a Latin Combo for two years. We wore the long sleeved, ruffled "rumba" shirts and played about 90 per cent Latin music. I have been a member of the Atlanta Local 148 Fed. of Musicians, for the past several years. In Atlanta, two of my ex-University of Tampa roommates visited me -- MARTHA JANE COLER ('46 class) and GWIN (Exum) HOLSTEN ('45 Freshman), now in Augusta, Ga. I hope I can see you this Fall at Homecoming."

Wedding bells rang out for Alumni Association secretary JOAN SCHWAB '49 and alumnus HOYT GOODSON '50. And GRACE BRUTON '39 is now Mrs. H. C. Kelly. Her husband is a U. of Florida man, but we forgive him, since he came to our Homecoming festivities last year. Both couples have bought homes here in Tampa.

The vacancy caused by the departure of Vice President ROSEMARY BERGWIN, who has joined husband CHIP in Idaho, will have to be filled by the appointment of a Veep Pro Tem.

Alumnus CALVIN BAKER is an accountant with the firm of Wilkins & Harvey, CPA's, and P. J. Harvey, Jr. has just been admitted as a full-fledged partner in this business.

VIOLET CONTE '46 and MARIAN NEAL '45 have been teaching in the public schools in Las Vegas, Nevada.

We hope that by the time this Bulletin is off the press that MAJOR CHAS. F. STECK, Director of Alumni Affairs, and DR. HOWARD G. BAKER, Dean of Men and Alumni Advisor, are out of the hospital and back with us once again.

Lunching at the Ritenclif the other day, President FRED RODGERS said concerning Alumni work, "I think you get out of anything just as much as you are willing to put into it." We took him at his word --- he's helping put out this issue of the Bulletin!

Re-elected to public office were alumni J. CROCKETT FARNELL, Superintendent of Public Instruction for Hillsborough County, and TOM JOHNSON, Legislator.

And while we're on the subject of politics --- we appreciated the complimentary remarks about the University of Tampa which Senator Estes Kefauver made down at the Courthouse Square while here in Tampa about our being nationally known. However, inasmuch as alumni are spread all over the world, we feel that we can amend his statement and say "internationally known". For wherever an alumnus is, we know that the University is being well represented.

Sincerely,
Gladys Canary,
Editor

THE MEMBERSHIP LIST

Know Anyone Who Can Use This Form?

--but it is still going to take a lot more of you alums out there to join up with us before we can reach the standard we hope to attain!

"Tops" in getting memberships is GEORGE CRITES, JR., '51 local representative for Acacia Mutual Life Insurance Co., who really has been on the beam. Hats off to George!

Your response to the Bulletin has been commendable, so keep up the good work in assuming the responsibility for getting YOURSELF a place on the roster of active, paid members.

We were interested to note that the Auburn Alumni Bulletin carried a list of their paid members in its last issue, too. Several names were inadvertently left off our list, and the committee was mighty glad some of you brought it to their attention, and will appreciate hearing from others whose names may have been omitted.

By democracy we do not mean getting business done, but participating in getting business done.

The ordinary citizen does have a vitally important share in the protection of our democratic freedoms. He does not have to lead a parade, but he can think straight and he can live in his own neighborhood as a man of justice, tolerance, and integrity.

We hope the future holds something better than we have dreamed of in the past. We know we must defend the ideas. We must educate on-coming age to keep high the standards we talk about but often forget.

For Every Giver, A Receiver

Education is where you find it, but many anxious students have been helped along the road of progress by the granting of scholarships.

It has always been one of the chief hobbies of the President of the University of Tampa and of its Trustees to assist as many young people as possible to get a College education. No one knows better than the student who has "athirst for knowledge" but without means of securing an education beyond the public schools just how much the granting of scholarships has meant to hundreds of worthy young men and young women the world over.

Dr. Nance is at the present time trying to raise $10,000, with the approval of the Trustees, for the granting of scholarships this forthcoming year. During the last six or seven years, most of the fees from the addresses which Dr. Nance has delivered over the country have gone into this fund, and he has also gathered some contributions for this Scholarship Fund while on these trips. It amounts to something like $20,000, and about 135 young people have been helped through college by these gifts. People who have donated to Dr. Nance's Special Scholarship Fund this year include the following: Rep. Charles Bennett; R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company; Flora W. Martin; C. O. V. Kienbusch; Florida Institute of Accountants; Mrs. Joseph E. Goodbar (wife of our Prof. Goodbar); Henry Zaranski; Los Picaros; Mrs. P. V. Williams (Colonial Dames of America); Harold Heiser; and George Hove.

ACROSS THE EDITORS DESK . . . . .

Last year when President Rudy Rodriguez appointed me Executive Secretary and Editor of the Alumni Bulletin and I found myself in the Alumni office over at the University, I felt that here was the most challenging opportunity for any one group of people to show their grit and ability to get themselves organized into a useful, able body and further the advancement of their Alma Mater that I had ever seen. The tremendous amount of work that extended out before us made us humble in our small ability, but willing to accept a place of service. To attain accreditation, the University needed its alumni, and its alumni didn't let it down.

Most of us are willing. All we ask for is direction. We want to know that we're headed right before we put full steam ahead.

The Alumni Association of the University of Tampa was organized as a means for any one who had obtained credits at the University to express an interest in the institution, and membership in this organization is the most expedient way to show individual usefulness in its advancement.

We think that the best example of what can be done through the medium of the Alumni Association can be shown by the Spartan Alumni Club. This group was chartered under the auspices of the Athletic Committee of the Association, to help raise the standard of athletics at the school. It has been outstandingly successful in raising funds for feeding the football boys and generally promoting the athletic program.

This is only one department of the University, and in order to have a well balanced curriculum, we should extend our attention to the other departments. For example: we think that those former members who attended the University on Band scholarships might well follow the lead of the former football players and organize a group of their own to raise money for band scholarships and help create a bigger and better band. Mr. Wiltse has been terribly handicapped in securing good, trained musicians because he has not been able to compete with the other colleges and universities in his offer of scholarships. You know what that means. And yet the University Band represents us to the public all during the year, and always in a position for constant appraisal and comparison with bands of other schools.

We hope, and are confident, that as time progresses the Alumni Association will be a veritable pillar of strength to every department of the University. We are all together in building a heritage . . . a heritage for ourselves, our children, and anyone who knocks upon the door of learning.
