Dixon Named B. S. U. Head At Tampa U.

Succeeds Bill Gaventa; Alice June Wright Is New Vice President

Russell Dixon, sophomore, was elected president of the Baptist Student Union of the University of Tampa at the annual business meeting here last night. Russell will succeed Bill Gaventa who has served as president since the organization of the B. S. U. two years ago.

Alice June Wright, sophomore, was named membership vice president; Florence Moore, sophomore, social vice president, and Mary Eleanor Mercer, junior, devotional vice president.

Other officers elected were Betty McCord, junior, secretary; Billy Wester, freshman, treasurer; Mary Laura Lindsay, sophomore, publicity director; Maelma Cowley, freshman, poster chairman, and R. B. Fordyce, Willie Ione Mercer and Eleanor Baillie, Sunday school, training union and Y. W. A. representatives.

New council members will be installed at a banquet May 2. They will attend the state retreat for B. S. U. officers April 25-27 at Camp O'Leno near Ocala where they will plan their work for the coming year.

Sabin Landry, state B. S. U. secretary, who is in Tampa this week, outlined plans for retreat and reported on the latest arrangements for the Florida group at the southwide student assembly June 11-19 at Ridgecrest, N. C.

New and old council officers will study a book on B. S. U. methods tomorrow afternoon in the B. S. U. room at the University. Bill Gaventa, retiring president, will lead the discussion.

Ye Olde Seniors

Paul "C" and Eulabee Are in the Spot With Prexie Zeno

One who hails from Boston, Mass., Paul J. McCloskey, had a definite "Boston" accent when he first came south, but four years of T. U. and C. have beamed that out. Four years of football, track, and handball champion retainer that long have taken up "part" of his time; while studying to become a doctor has been his main goal. Just the other day Paul received his appointment to the St. Louis School of Medicine in Missouri. As for graduating, "These four years have just been a starting point. Wait until after the next four, then ask me!" He's a Beta Chi.

Celeste E. Dervae, called more frequently "C," and according to one issue of the Minaret, the athletic type, favors flying since she took the CAA course when she and Paul were the first girl and boy respectively to solo. Although a D. K., you'd think she was a B. X.—must be Paul's pin. When she considered graduation, "It's been wonderful, but I'll be glad when it's all over. I can't help but think how different things would be if I hadn't come to T. U.—in more than one way!"

Eulabee Jameson—bet you wouldn't even know who it was if you didn't see the last name—is our own Jackie. Right now she is a Sigma Theta Phi and a practice teacher in home economics. In gathering material for this column and asked what she'd done—"nothing scholastically!" (but don't dare print that because Mom always reads the Minaret) I'm interested in sports—like boys' intra-murals! How's that? Graduation?—High collars, and the sooner the better!"

Lastly, a T. O. prexy now, a senior class prexy—Markus Ball. Voted an outstanding senior and "Who's Who" by his fellow seniors, he is also a continuous dean's list student. "My hobby: Girls—and you can add flying. Don't be funny—I don't like them that way. Graduation? I wish I were 18 and a freshman now. These have been the four shortest years of my life." Mark's the boy with the great genial smile—the size depending upon the mood he's in.

Norman Borchardt Draws Place in Faculty Spotlight

By CELESTE DERVAES

"Not only art for art's sake, but an artist for a columnist's sake." Mr. Norman Borchardt, instructor of art, is taking the spotlight this week among the professors.

When the sub-cub arrived at the artist's home, he was quietly indulged in his normal activity—painting. With such proper atmosphere he couldn't help but give legitimate data. Like a true artist, he started even at the age of four, lying on the floor before the fireplace, doing sketches. Why did he become an artist? It all happened when he sent a cartoon home of a roulette wheel whose point stopped at the space of a minister which designated the career of the person spinning the wheel; the cartoon making such an impression on his mother that encouragement to follow this work resulted.

Mr. Borchardt studied art at the Chicago Art Institute, and after graduation did successful paintings for outstanding magazines as Colliers, Harpers, St. Nicholas and Boy's Life. His paintings are not of one type, but of several in that well known writers of all kinds have asked Mr. Borchardt to do the illustrations for their books.

But he doesn't stop there—just with painting. During the last war he was in Mexico, but he left for Canada where he enlisted in the RAF and there he met the future Mrs. Borchardt. Then story writing. His first story was accepted by the Red Book. One of the illustrated books was found in Dr. Mooney's collection. New York holds a great fascination for Mr. Borchardt, the influence often found in the sketches throughout the illustrated magazines or books. It was in Greenwich that he established a studio—there to carry further the inspiration it held for him.

After his illness in New York he left for Tampa and Tampa U. "I consider art in a far different light than most people. It is a grand sensation to have the sense of rightness in seeing things. Anything that fascinated me, I could do!"

State Music Festival To Be Held April 17-19

High school music students from all sections of Florida, two or three thousand of them, will have an opportunity to get acquainted with Tampa U. when they come here for the annual high school music festival April 17, 18 and 19—just after the spring holidays.

They'll hold their contests in many various rooms at the University, in the municipal auditorium, at the Baptist church, Legion casino, and anywhere where there's a vacant room available.

The modern girl still likes the spinning wheel—but she goes in for 4 of them with a spare...

TO PITCH FOR TAMPA U. AGAINST ORIOLES Johnny Clements

Spartans Will Play Baltimore Orioles Today

The University of Tampa-Baltimore Orioles baseball game, scheduled at Haines City yesterday afternoon, will be played today, weather permitting, at 2:30 o'clock.

The heavy rains, which continued through Thursday, led to the postponement of the contest, and to a holiday for both the Spartans and the Orioles.

Coach Miller Adams of the Tampa U. team was disappointed over the postponement, as he had the Spartans on edge for their test against the International leaguers.

"However, it will give my pitchers one more day in which to get in shape," he said last night.

"I plan to shoot big Johnny Clements, who held Goody-Goody hitless last Sunday, at the Orioles, with Doug Foster, pride of the West Coast league championship Brandon team last year, as my reserve."

Regulars Will Start

The regular Spartan lineup, with Captain Bill Fisher catching; Champ Williams, Paul McCloskey, Al Jimenez and Arnie Holmes in the infield; and Joe Magadan, Forster and Comparato in the outfield, is ready for action.

The pitching selections for Baltimore have not been announced, but the International leaguers will use their strongest lineup against the collegians.

The program is sponsored by the Haines City American Legion, and a big advance ticket sale indicates that a record crowd will be on hand for the game.

DORM GIRLS ENTERTAIN

The dormitory girls entertained members of the faculty, their husbands and wives at their annual spring party last night from 8:30 to 9:30 o'clock.

Miss Ruth Morgan was chairman and was assisted by the Misses Frances Alderman and Polly Robinson.

Tamp U. Netters Lose to Stetson As Cryan Wins

A well-rounded sextet of Stetson players romped on Tampa U.'s team Friday on Davis Islands tennis courts by an overwhelming score of 8-1. The DeLand boys won all doubles matches and every singles except one in which Jim Cryan, No. 4 man, trounced Harold Smith.

Summary of the match was as follows: In the singles, Bill Davis, No. 1 man, outstayed Tampa's No. 1 man, Bob Henry to win 6-1, 3-6, 6-4. In the last set Davis broke Henry's service at critical times when he was behind 3-4 and when he had Henry 5-4.

Stetson's No. 2 man, Carl Puritz, easily won over Paul Myers, 6-2, 6-3. In the No. 3 singles, George Slayton was extended all the way to eke out a hard-earned 6-3, 5-7, 6-4 win over Dick Schleicher. Jim Cryan, 4 man, took Harold Smith, 6-2, 7-5. In the 5 and 6 singles, Stan Rathborn, Stetson, beat Walt Beasley, straight sets, 6-2, 6-1 and Bobby Brown, Stetson, easily defeated Tom Johnson 6-0, 6-0. Hatters won all games in the doubles. The No. 1 team of Davis and Puritz outlasted Tampa's Henry and Myers 5-7, 6-4, 6-1. Slayton and Smith eked out 6-4, 8-6 win over Schleicher and Cryan. In the three teams, Rathborn and Brown mopped up with Beasley and Bessis 6-3, 6-0.

Tampa U. will meet Stetson in DeLand on April 18th in return match.

MAGADAN ELECTED

Rho Nu Delta members selected Joe Magadan as their soft ball coach. He was appointed by the president, Xavier Cannella, and was unanimously approved by the fraternity members. Magadan plays center field on the varsity baseball team and first base for Centro Asturiano, inter-city league.

Two Terms This Summer At Tampa U.

First Starts June 16; Second Term To Cover Four-Weeks' Period

Tampa U.'s 1941 eight weeks' summer term will start June 16 and close Aug. 8, and a four weeks' post summer session will be held from Aug. 11 through Sept. 6. Dean Sanford has announced. The short term will mark a new departure at Tampa U.

Three courses or nine semester hours of credit constitute the normal load for the first session, while a maximum of four semester hours may be earned in the second. The latter period will offer a limited number of unit courses of one or two weeks in length but carrying full college credit.

27 Instructors Listed

Twenty-seven instructors and administrative officers will be at the university for the summer term, with courses in 22 departments being offered.

Dr. Robert R. LaFollette, head of the department of social science at Ball State Teachers' college, Muncie, Ind., will offer courses in history here as a visiting professor. Dr. H. C. Laub, head of the history department at Tampa, will join the Ball State faculty for the summer in an exchange arrangement.

Dr. LaFollette will offer a special course in history of the South, with emphasis on the economic, social and cultural aspects of the old south and the influence exerted by the plantation and the frontier.

Special Defense Courses

Special courses will be offered in national defense subjects. They will continue for a six months' period and will be open without charge to qualified high school graduates and to persons who have completed several years of regular college work.

Courses in conversational Spanish for beginning, intermediate and advanced students will be offered and a new feature will be intensive courses of short duration to meet the needs of various groups.

Other classes will be offered in astronomy, biology, business administration and economics, chemistry, education, English, French, German, Spanish, geology and geography; history and government, journalism, mathematics, music, philosophy, physical education, physics, speech and engineering defense.

60 U. of Tampa Athletes Are Remodeling Hall

Sixty University of Tampa men students, most of them members of Spartan athletic teams, have turned themselves into a wrecking and construction crew to renovate the north wing of the university building.

The young athletes, working under the supervision of Fleucie L. Stewart, acting dean of men and athletic director, began work yesterday on "Florida Hall," which will serve as the laboratory section for the university's marine and aeronautical engineering departments.

Dr. James E. Mooney, university president, said the young men would do several hundred dollars' worth of labor before their volunteer job is completed. Hallways will be renovated, partitions knocked down, repair work done, and new coats of paint added.

The same "crew" will clean out and renovate many of the rooms on the fourth floor of the university building in order to provide more dormitory space for students. The fourth floor heretofore has been used chiefly as storage space.

BAND IN PARADE

The University of Tampa band will end its busiest season with the Festival of States parade in St. Petersburg tonight and with its last concert in the park Sunday afternoon, April 20, at 3 o'clock.

NO SMOKING

Smoking in the lobby has become more and more prevalent in recent months. It has even been assumed that there's no rule against it, or that the rule has been withdrawn.

The rule is still in force—even though it is not being enforced. And students are not the only offenders—faculty members and others sometimes are seen smoking in the lobby. Of course that breaks down enforcement.

There is a definite reason for this rule—it isn't just an arbitrary order. The reason briefly is fire protection and insurance rates. Tampa U. has a favorable rate on its fire insurance, with a clause promising protection by eliminating smoking from the lobby and some other sections. This applies especially to the second floor.

One may smoke in places equipped with ash trays, such as the book store.

Please help enforce this rule; it's for the protection of our building.

FOOD SITUATION IS CRITICAL IN EUROPE

While pretty active with their own and the school's activities, Tampa U. students and others throughout the nation have expressed deep interest in the welfare of Europe. One item of interest is food supplies.

The map below tells the picture quite vividly. It points out that all Europe is on short rations. Only tiny Portugal still commands a normal food supply. Before the first of the next harvests can be reaped, five months must elapse.

In some countries, remaining food stocks will have been exhausted long before, when conditions of slow starvation which already exist will become actual famine. Moreover, in several European countries the harvest covers only a few months consumption.

The little, western democracies, always dependent on overseas supplies and now cut off by the blockade, are already on a semi-starvation basis.

Darkest, immediate spots in the picture are Belgium and Poland. Here, actual famine already prevails. People are dying of sheer hunger. But Spain, France, Holland, Norway and Finland are not far behind. The map will now darken quickly from month to month. The terrible food emergency in Europe, so long forecast by food experts, is now but a step away.

They're Haywire

Goofy Studes Can't Find Classrooms—It's April First

If a sleepy-eyed stude wanders into the wrong class, it's 8:30, but if a whole class swarms into the wrong room, it's April Fool's day.

That's what happened at Tampa U. Tuesday (April 1); as Puck and his mischievous imps held sway on the campus. Students branched out into unknown fields to broaden their avid search for knowledge, as history professors were greeted by English students and a miscellaneous group of stoogents turned philosophers for an hour.

You can fool some of the people some of the time—but you can't fool Tampa U. profs on April Fool's day. They arose to the occasion with splendid presence of mind.

"The philosophy and Spanish students who attended my class didn't know any history and I didn't know any philosophy or Spanish," said Dr. Laub, of the history department. So he told them of "boners" found in student examinations.

"H-m-m-m—Er, ah, I'll tell you this one after class."

"I think the April Fools' exchange of classes should become an annual tradition," commented Dr. Berry. "It gives students an opportunity to get better acquainted with profs with whom they've had no classes, and, if worked out right, could develop into an interesting orientation in the various fields of study."

Dr. Berry said he would turn in the names of visiting students, "to show that they attended class somewhere anyway."

Another April Fool's stunt was the mysterious and anonymous publication of "Minefoo," offspring of the Minaret, stude publication, heralding a wild holdup in the Minaret office in which Handy Handerson, the bandit, sprung a daring "cootie ta."

It also heralded a tragic loss from the business office, and told of some amazing things of which various profs were guilty.

Former Tampa U. Student To Be Married in Atlanta

Miss Mary Ashmead, Tampa U. student last year, will be married in Atlanta April 20 to Hugh Griffith, son of Samuel W. Griffith, Atlanta. Miss Ashmead is the daughter of Mrs. Ulric C. Ashmead, 1806 Morrison avenue. She was graduated from Atlanta high school and Meredith college at Raleigh, N. C.

He: Darling, every day I love you more and more. Do you know what that's a sign of?

She: Sure—you're going to run out of gas!

BOYNTON'S PLANE BALKS

Oliver Boynton learned the old saying that "you've gotta learn how to fight before you learn how to fly," in a close call Tuesday when he went into a forced landing.

He was only 600 feet up, in the CAA plane, when the engine went dead, forcing him to land. He looked about frantically for a landing place.

Below was the Bradenton road, the Twenty-second street causeway road, a railroad, and a field of pine trees and stumps. With cars on the highways, he was forced to head for the field. It was a bumpy but fortunate landing.

Oliver and the instructor called the airport to report the landing, and all they got in reply was a skeptical "April fool."

JUST A LITTLE COOPERATION

Previously comments have been made about the maintenance of the recreation room in an orderly fashion, but it seems that it was such a mild application that little good resulted from it.

Is it lack of consideration of other people's property, laziness in that ashes are dropped a mere few feet from the ash trays, the "what's the difference" attitude, or what?

After all, the recreation room is one of the first asked about and inspected rooms of our university. It is the envy of outside students as well as of students from our more exclusive schools.

So it's up to us—have it taken away like a toy from a baby when it misbehaves, or keep a normal attitude towards a splendid recreational pastime which supplies enjoyment for each and every one of us.

SAFETY FIRST

Several coin purses have been taken from girls' handbags recently, while the handbags were left in public places, for an hour or two or for a few minutes.

There are two ways to eliminate these thefts. Catch the culprit—or remove the handbags. But as long as the pilferer remains unidentified, the best thing to do is not to leave your handbags where things may be taken from them.

Of course it is deeply regretted that there's anyone among us who would do things like this, and something should be done to stop it. But among four or five hundred people, it seems that a few must be dishonest.

Hundreds Attend T. O. Ring Dance Banquet At Forest Hills Club

Beautiful Ceremony Marks Annual Event; Score of Faculty Members Attend

The ring ceremony was the highlight of the annual spring dance given by the Tau Omega fraternity at Forest Hills Country club last Friday night.

Led by their president, Mark Ball, escorting Miss Maxine Graf, of Haines City, each member of the fraternity and his date passed through a large ring, the member pausing in its center to take a ring bearing the fraternity seal from the top center of the large ring and place it on the finger of the girl.

As each couple passed through the ring they joined the fraternity dance, to the strains of the fraternity song, "Roses of Picardy."

Dances restricted to members of the other fraternities of the university preceded the ring dance, dedicated separately to the Sigma Kappa Nu, Beta Chi and Rho Nu Delta fraternities present and their dates.

Faculty Members Attend

Among the guests of the fraternity, were President James E. Mooney, Dean Daniel S. Sanford and Assistant Dean Bunting and their wives; and a number of faculty members and administrative officers, including Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Wiltse, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Leimbach, Dr. and Mrs. Loomis, Capt. and Mrs. J. A. Holland, Mr. and Mrs. George K. Straus, Mr. and Mrs. Flucie Stewart, Harry Dobson, Russell King, Miss Mary Haverstick and Miss Caroline Melber.

Fraternity members and their dates were Miss Maxine Graf and Mark Ball, Miss Martha Smith and John Brandenberger, Miss Carroll Thomas and Zeno Stalnaker, Miss Rosalynne Fuller and James Whitehead, Miss Miriam Quarles and Jacob Dunn, Miss Martha Darling and Billy Martin, Miss Lou Ellen Armstrong and Robert Bretz, Miss Bernadet Fisher and Jaul Byars, Miss Merle Jones and Mervin Beattie, Miss Lucille Moore and Willard Driskell, Miss Carol Hart and Edwin Ericson.

Miss Kitty Capello and George Jack, Miss Betty Jo Mims and Paul Hance, Miss Dorothy Ann Kelly and Ben Hatcher, Miss Frances Alexander and Carl Lauther, Miss Lois Sanchez and Clarence Lovejoy, Miss Juanita Guerra and Tony Kolka, Miss Beverly Bond and Glenn McRae, Miss Daisy Lewis and Frank McDrea, Miss Shirley Smith and Charles Slocum, Miss Lola Ann Sparkman and Walter Shiver, Miss Frances Alderman and Henry Vest, Miss Dorothy Hill and James Calhoun.

Sanfords To Entertain Students at Open House

Dean and Mrs. Daniel S. Sanford will entertain members of the Pan-Hellenic council, Student council, and the departmental heads of the Minaret staff at an informal party at their home, 2313 Bristol avenue, tonight at 8 o'clock.

Dancing and other entertainment are included in the program for the evening.

President and Mrs. James E. Mooney, Russell King, Miller Adams, and Coach Flucie Stewart will be special guests.

Mrs. Sanford will be assisted in hospitalities by Mrs. Stewart and Miss Ruth Moffatt.

About 35 students will attend.

The Social Spotlight

Dear Maudie:

The B. S. U. party Saturday night was really original. All guests were given identification tags made like the front page of a newspaper and their name was the headline. Everything at the party carried out the news theme and the party was a huge success.

Words can't describe the T. O. ring dance. At least words in my vocabulary can't. The rings given to the girls were very pretty and—well, you who were there know. I heard one of the faculty members say it was the prettiest thing he had seen given at Tampa U. Nice going, boys!

The juniors have really got some wonderful ideas for the Junior-Senior banquet this year. It's to be held at the Palm Room and the theme, which is to be kept a secret, is a grand one. May 15 will bring this event around. The senior court has something in store for them—extra, I mean.

Every one is looking forward to the house parties which come around this next week. And warning to all those guys who come around early in the morning wanting a broom and a mop—you might get it thrown at you this year.

S. K. N. daughters are really getting some publicity... and it will appear in the form of pictures in the magazine, "College Humor."

See you at the beach, I hope. S'long.

Love, M. M.

Miss Marie Mitchell To Wed Jimmy Whitney In June Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Mitchell of Edgewood have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Marie Mitchell, university senior, to James Hugh Whitney, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Whitney of Auburndale. The wedding will take place in June.

Miss Mitchell was graduated from Winter Haven high school. She is president of the Sigma Theta Phi sorority, associate editor of The Moroccan, a member of the Phi society and is listed in "Who's Who Among American College and University Students."

Mr. Whitney was graduated from Auburndale high school in 1936 and from the university in 1940. He is a coach and teacher at the White Springs high school. He is a member of Sigma Kappa Nu fraternity, and a charter member of the University T club.

Students Entertain At Zephyrhills

Several University of Tampa students entertained at Zephyrhills Monday night for the benefit of the Zephyrhills Woman's club chorale group.

The string quartet, composed of Marie Lewis, Frances Alderman, Bill Hayes and Ruth Morgan, played "Minuet," (Boccherini); "Traumerei," (Schumann); "Andante," (Dittersdorf); and "Air on the G String," (Bach).

Marie Hausrath, soprano, sang the aria from Plotow's opera, "Martha," entitled "Ah, Sweet Flower," and "One Kiss" from Sigmund Romberg's operetta, "New Moon." William Fricke presented a tenor solo, "Old Man River," (Jerome Kern); and as an encore "Smilin' Thru," (Arthur Penn). Wanda Waters accompanied them.

Miss Lewis played the violin solo "Perpetual Motion," (Carl Bohm) with Miss Waters' accompaniment.

CONGRATS—This columnist extends a hearty welcome to John Clements, Tampa U's star right hander who pitched a no-hit, no runner against a strong West Coast team, Goody Goody last Sunday. According to reports, Clements is coming major league timber. Boys who know say his fast one hops like a bullet. Doug Forster, our other star pitcher, pitched two no hitters in a row when he played on a Wisconsin high school team.

ATTENTION—With the brand of pitching named above, and with a veteran team on the field behind Miller Adams' capable coaching, Tampa U's baseball team should repeat and win the state baseball championship. SOOOOO—Students, why not back our team by watching the games? With a nominal price of 15 cents for students, say, and 25 cents for outsiders, this money will help pay expenses for the season. Last year over a hundred dollars was spent on baseball. So you see it does cost. Show some school spirit and help keep baseball in Tampa U.

THREE CHEERS—If you don't believe me, ask the football boys. Are they glad spring practice is over? Yes. Are they in condition? Yes. Ask Coach Stewart. Good condition will not lose ball games, so it should help. Some of the injured boys can now recover for fall session.

TENNIS—Stetson tennis squad showed Tampa what practice and some good tennis coaching does to a squad. They humiliated our team Friday.

JOKE—If anybody who likes to bet on sports would like to lose some money, see Jim Cryan, he never loses. What a guy! He's the Jack Doyle of Tampa U.

INFORMATION—What's the latest on the baseball, basketball and track teams going to Havana over the Easter Holidays for some intra-country colleges competition?

Baptists Entertain At Unique News Party

News in all its forms went to the B. S. U. party Saturday night at the Seminole Heights Baptist church. From the time guests were greeted with a welcome of "No Noos is a Good Noos" until newspapers were passed out in place of napkins, news was featured at the party.

The walls of the room were papered with newspapers and funny papers, newspapers were used in every game that was played, and guests wore identification tags made in the form of miniature newspapers.

Guests included members of Southern College's B. S. U. and a group of Baptist soldiers from MacDill field.

Tampa U. students who attended were Louise Bledsoe, Joyce Mueller, Dot Marett, Willie Ione Mercer, Mary Eleanor Mercer, Wanda Waters, Alice June Wright, Florence Moore, Lucie Lee Marsh, Helen Berwanger, Betty McCord, P. J. Harvey, Billy Wester and Bill Gaventa.

Moroccan Deadline Is Set for Today

All pages for the 1941 Moroccan must be in today if the annual is to come out May 15 as scheduled according to Mary Frances Mathis, editor.

"Ads are still being solicited. If anyone knows where we can get an ad or where he can sell one himself, he should report it immediately," R. B. Fordyce, business manager, said.

About $420 of the necessary $500 from advertisements has already been collected. The remainder must be raised within two or three weeks.

It's Chesterfield

FOR THERE'S NO BETTER GIFT THAN THE CLEAN WHITE PACKS WITH THEIR

Milder, Better Taste

Easter shoppers and all smokers, who are after smoking pleasure at its best, are asking for Chesterfield . . . because the finest tobaccos from our own Southland blended with costly aromatic tobaccos from far-off Turkey and Greece give Chesterfield a definitely Milder, Cooler, decidedly Better Taste.
