Dedication . . .

To the faculty of the University of Tampa, whose instruction and influence have been and will ever be our guidance, and whose ceaseless efforts have been our aid, we, the members of the senior class affectionately dedicate the 1939 Moroccan.

FOREWORD

During youth man possesses lofty ideals and mighty purposes. In order, then, that we might have a written record of our stay under the minarets to yield us pleasure in our leisure and inspiration on our labor, throughout all our lives to come, we the staff of the 1939 Moroccan present this yearbook.

In Memoriam

No professor of books, 'tis true, but one from whom a lot of life could be learned; One who, by his inevitable presence and quiet duty, has impressed his shadow on the University's wall.

LOOKING BACK... AT JOURNEY'S END...

Year One saw the class of "39" go to town "a la pajama" to establish a tradition now followed by all freshmen. The first freshmen football team led by Dick Spoto, Al Yorkunas, Beynon, Mandula, Freedy, and Dmytryk, went into action against the frosh of other colleges in this year. Two organizations laid their stepping stones on the University campus during this freshmen year. The "313 Masquers" began their dramatic progress while Rho Nu Delta became the third social fraternity to organize. Year One also produced the first Moroccan with Al Yorkunas, T. L. Ferris, and Dick Spoto helping initiate this annual.

Year Two added two new social organizations which have become quite active in campus affairs. The Alpha Gamma sorority with Evangelina LaFuenta as president became the third sisterhood of the college. Tau Omega fraternity, the youngest frat in the school, was also founded in this same year. In June the inauguration of the University's new president, Dr. John H. Sherman, provided the first step toward a greater University of Tampa. In the fall several new faculty members put in their appearance. The Alpha Psi Omega, composed of outstanding members of the "313 Masquers," became the first national honorary chapter to be installed in this institution.

The completion and dedication of Phillips Field, the Spartan's athletic center, was one of the outstanding events of Year Three. The formation of the Quill club, literary organization sponsored by Dr. Hinckley; the Spanish club; and the International Relations club, were other activities which added prestige to the growing college. The several recitals of the Glee club, formed during this time under the direction of Walter Bethel, were a definite contribution to the cultural progress which was beginning to take place. The Junior-Senior banquet of Year Three carried the Hawaiian theme cleverly collaborating with the entertainment of the evening.

Time soon rolled around with Year Four. The chorus under the direction of Professor Wiltse led the student body in its first Christmas Carol service. Three new organizations, the Math, Home Ec, and Art clubs, were added to the long list of student activities. In this same year the Quill club, the Dramatic club, and the Physical Education and Music departments joined in presenting an original operetta, "Castles in Spain," which became the talk of the town for months after the performance. Late in April of Year Four the first "Front Porch Frolics" sponsored by the Music department established itself as a novelty worthy to be repeated yearly... the work and pleasures of four years comes to a rapid close in three short days... Baccalaureate Sermon... Class Day... Commencement...

This ancient relic, adopted as the class poem for obvious reasons, apparently has no title. It was recently uncovered by a contemporary W.P.A. worker who accidentally overturned a loose stone in the basement . . .

List to an old-time lay of the Students
Laden with learning exposed to the profs,
Steeped in their studies from morning to midnight.
List to the tale of their famous forebearer,
Freshman the Fearless the hero of high-school.
Full many a C from exams he had wrested;
Proof of his prowess in red on report-card
Acclaimed him a champion cheered by his class.
Never was known such a demon on dance-floor;
Dates by the dozen he made in a minute.
Proud was his person with books never burdened—
Of wit never wanting of ready response
(Except in exams where the Man and the Mind
Bade good-bye as they came to the crossroad).
And fearless were Freshman's successors, the Sophomores,
Proud in the praise of their favored forefathers;
Striving to simulate all of his actions.
But glory and gain like rocks in the roadway,
While furnishing foothold will wear down the wheels.
One morn in the First-Month Freshman went forth
To the Chapel of Charlotte a day's journey distant,
Where twice every term in the square 'neath the Circle,
Are mustered the men to do battle with beasts.
Freshman the Fearless in all of his armor
Stepped into sight of the anxious assemblage
Repeating a prayer for strength and success—
A priceless prayer the T. O's had taught him—
And set to the struggle with head in a haze,
With nary a note to conceal in his sleeve.
(For the T. O's had taught him that such things were sinful).
The fighting was fierce and the hero exhausted.
He managed to murder the Bovine with bullets—
Skilled by the Skins in his accurate aim—
But as for answers the test lay untouched.
The hour was at hand the prof was approaching.
All of his energy madly he mustered . . .
Nothing but numbers found in the Phone-book,
And dates of dances and functions of frats
Assailed his senses He slid from his seat
And landed at length with a thump, 'neath the table . . .

Now, mighty indeed were the men of the Fourth-Year—
Bravest of battlers bound to their books,
Soaked in the Sciences salted and seasoned
With savory sauce and served to Society—
Wisest of warriors proud in their purpose
Never acknowledging terror of tests;
Facing the fiercest triumphantly trouncing
The maddest of monsters that profs could produce.

. . . Perhaps there was more to the manuscript but an extensive search through the whole basement revealed nothing else. However, by a microscopic examination of the first scroll there was barely discernable these words . . . "translation by W. Waters . . ."

The Quill Club, an honorary literary organization, was established in the spring of 1938 under the leadership of Dr. E. B. Hinckley, professor of English, by members of the Senior Class interested in finding opportunity for creative writing and literary criticism. Three groups of new members (students, alumni, and occasionally others interested in the work of the Club) have since been admitted to the organization on the basis of original manuscripts submitted anonymously in competition.

At regular and special meetings this year members of the club wrote the dialogue for the operetta "Castles in Spain"; they also prepared a series of skits for radio presentation by the American Legion. The official publication of the Club is the Muezzin, University literary magazine.

THE 1938 FOOTBALL SEASON

Sept. 23—Tampa vs. South Georgia Teachers.

Tampa fans were pleasantly surprised by the effective deceptive offense that was displayed by the Spartans in this opening game. Champ Williams scored the first touchdown with a run from the Teachers 30 yard line, crossing the goal standing up. The Spartans added five more tallies with Mandula making two of them. Final score: Tampa, 40—South Georgia Teachers, 0.

Sept 24—Tampa vs. South Georgia College.

The Spartans resorted to wide runs frequently and had little trouble downing South Georgia by a comfortable margin. Champ Williams and Paul Hance, who ran a kickoff back for 65 yards, were the chief offensive threats. Final score: Tampa, 29—South Georgia College, 0.

Oct. 7—Tampa vs. Miami.

For the first time in five annual attempts the mighty Hurricane team finally humbled the fighting Spartans. Before a crowd of thirteen thousand the Miamians wore down the resistance of a stubborn Spartan and led by Captain Eddie Dunn soon began rolling up the score, with "Touchdown Tommy" booming in triumph at each tally. Fighting gamely, the Spartans managed to cross the Hurricane's goal line. The break came in the second quarter when Al Yorkunas blocked a quick-kick by Dunn and Phil Thomas scooped the ball up and ran 30 yards to score. Final score: Tampa, 6—Miami, 33.

Oct. 15—Tampa vs. Cincinnati.

In a true come-back style the Spartans showed up well against Cincy. Tampa easily outplayed the visitors the whole game after Cincy scored in the first quarter on a long run by Dixon. A long run by Williams put Tampa in position for a score which failed to materialize when Mandula's fourth try was declared short by inches on a disputed decision. Final score: Tampa, 6—Cincinnati, 7.

The shot at the left below shows that touchdown against Cincinnati that was called back. Mandula can be seen over the goal line behind two other Spartans.

Oct. 22—Tampa vs. Florida

Before a homecoming crowd of 10,000, the Spartans battled the Gators on better than even terms for more than the first period before they succumbed to the superior manpower of Florida. A 40-yard pass by Spoto to Sleichter put the Spartans in scoring territory but the drive terminated on the one-yard line. Final score: Tampa, 0—Florida, 33.

Nov. 5—Tampa vs. Boston University

Playing at Boston, on the longest trip ever made by the Spartans, Tampa was vanquished by a superior team. Although the first to score by means of a sustained drive of sixty yards in the first few minutes of play the Spartans proved no match for the Terriers. Final score: Tampa, 7—Boston U., 31.

Nov. 11—Tampa vs. Stetson

Lyn Warren led the Hatters in piling up a lopsided score against the Spartans. The Stetson team showed the same power and versatility they displayed in their victory against Florida. Sleichter's punting saved the Spartans several times during the contest. Final score: Tampa, 0—Stetson, 42.

Nov. 18—Tampa vs. Havana

A highly keyed Spartan put on a scoring spree to defeat the scrappy University of Havana eleven. Dick Spoto's passes were deciding factors on most of the scores. The game was played under the floodlights at Phillips field before 6,000 fans. Final score: Tampa, 33—Havana, 0.

Nov. 25—Tampa vs. Rollins

The Spartan line battled the Tar line to a standstill but timely passes by Rollins earned them the victory. Fine defensive play by Paul Alfieri, Al Yorkunas, and Jim Mandula were bright spots in the Spartan's performance. Final score: Tampa, 0—Rollins, 23.

Dec. 3—Tampa vs. Western Kentucky

The swan song of six Spartan seniors came in the tune of defeat against the strong Hilltoppers. Manucy scored the only Tampa touchdown on a pass from Spoto. Taking to the air, the Spartans completed 10 out of 27 tosses to no avail. Final score: Tampa, 7—Western Kentucky, 50.

Paul Alfieri . . . this 175 pound, 5'6" Tampa linesman broke into the starting lineup in his senior year . . . the fine brand of ball he played in the opening game earned him a regular position at left guard . . . his alert defensive work in the Rollins game helped the Tampa line fight the Tar forwards to a standstill . . . won state A.A.U. light-heavyweight boxing crown in Miami in 1938 . . . an honor student.

Bill Dmytryk . . . one of the most consistent performers at end for the Red, Gold and Black during the last three years . . . from Benld, Illinois, 5'11" tall and weighing 160 pounds . . . a capable defensive player, his "head's up" play enabled the Spartans to take an early lead over Boston University . . . recovered a Terrior fumble that set up the Tampa score . . . he took an active part in intramurals.

Orris Beynon . . . an outstanding performer in the Spartan backfield for three years . . . from Youngstown, Ohio . . . 5'11" tall his game weight was about 190 pounds . . . a capable offensive blocker and defensive player, he was a good ball-carrier as well . . . scored Tampa's lone touchdown in the Cincinnati game . . . during the season he converted three times for points after touchdowns . . . elected the Outstanding Intramural Athlete for 1937-38.

Richard Spoto . . . the Spartan's outstanding passer during the last three years . . . a fine running back from Tampa, 5'9" tall and weighing 170 pounds . . . few who saw the game will ever forget the 95-yard run he made against Stetson in 1936 . . . a clipping penalty brought the play back to midfield . . . in the Florida game he completed a 42-yard pass to Sleichter . . . an intramural official in his senior year.

Al Yorkunas . . . 6'2" tall and weighing 190 pounds, he leaves a big hole to be filled in the center of the line . . . from Youngstown, Ohio . . . a sportsman with a fighting heart . . . he was elected Little Four center in 1937 and All-State center in 1938 . . . in his senior year he was named center on the second S.I.A.A. team . . . he took part in many campus activities as well as intramural sports.

The Spartan grid machine as it appeared at the opening of the 1938 football season. The hazards of one of the most difficult schedules undertaken by the Spartans dwindled this crew down by the close of the year to a scant two teams.

MEN'S INTRAMURALS

MILLER ADAMS
Director

INTRA-

The intramurals program for men, directed by Miller K. Adams, was built around a six-team league of four fraternity teams and two non-fraternity teams. About 84% of the regular students took part in the 17-sport-program offered. Fine officiating by Mr. Adams, his assistants, and volunteer officials made the 1938-39 season a most successful one.

Results in sports completed at the time the Moroccan went to press are given below:

TOUCHFOOTBALL

The 1938 season opened with a slow start as wet weather caused the postponing of several touch-football games. Rho Nu Delta fraternity took an early lead and held it down to the final game with Sigma Kappa Nu. The Skins took the lead in the first half and won 6-0. The victory gave them the championship by four-tenths of a point. Sigma Kappa Nu and Rho Nu Delta, the two top teams, each placed three men on the All-Star team. The selections follow:

Ends: Frederick, SKN, and McMullen, SKN; guards: Luxenberg, TO, and Clinton, SKN; center: La Fuente, RND; backs: Gutierrez, RND, Jimenez, RND, and Wilson, BX.

PING-PONG

In the finals of the ping-pong tournament Dick Sexton, seeded star representing Beta Chi, defeated Hubert Mobley, Sigma Epsilon player, 21-15, 21-9, and 21-7. Sexton went into the finals by defeating Carr, independent entry, while Mobley won over Comparato, BX player.

CROSS-COUNTRY

Lincoln Dowell, SKN distance star, won the two and a half mile cross-country run for the third straight year in the time of 10:21.4. Oswald Delgado, RND, and Jones, TO, finished second and third.

FENCING

Raymond Mabrey, representing Sigma Epsilon, defeated Mayhew Ingram, SKN player, in the finals of the fencing tournament to become the champ in this event. Score 5-3.

MURALS

HORSESHOES

The Beynon brothers, Howard and Ozzie, both of BX, met in the horseshoe finals and Ozzie, the reigning champ, retained his crown.

VOLLEYBALL

Beta Chi fraternity took the volleyball championship by virtue of an undefeated season. Easy winners in all their games the BX players showed a fine passing and net game. Rho Nu Delta finished in second place.

SOCCER

Wet weather, the Christmas holidays, and the DeSoto Exposition were instrumental in prolonging the soccer season from December to the deciding game in April. Rho Nu Delta fraternity became the champs for the second successive year. Fine passing, excellent teamwork, and tight defensive play prevented them from losing a single game. SKN and BX finished second and third.

TENNIS

Dick Sexton, BX ping-pong champ, completed his net sweep by defeating Jack Alvarez, RND player and former champ, in the finals of the tennis tournament. The score was 6-2, 6-2, 6-3.

TRACK

The intramural track and field meet, held at Phillips Field for the first time, was won by Beta Chi with 65 points. SKN was second with 26, and TO third with 24 points. Lincoln Dowell, SKN runner, set a new record for the mile run with a time of 5:10. Fordyce, TO, was the individual star with 12 points. He took first place in the shot-put and javelin and was third in the 120-yard low hurdles.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Grace Moore, all-state guard in her high school days, will be back to play her last year for the Varsity. It was Grace's skillful playing that was greatly responsible for the team's wins this year.

The team will suffer at the loss of Jane Pratt, forward, who graduates in June.

Rita Higgins, who knows how to roll up the scores for Tampa U. has won her place on next year's Varsity, as have "Mickey" DeWolf and "Jackie" Jameson, accurate forwards.

For the guard positions on the team, Celeste Dervaes, Frances Alderman, and Emma Jane Sacrey have already proven their consistency.

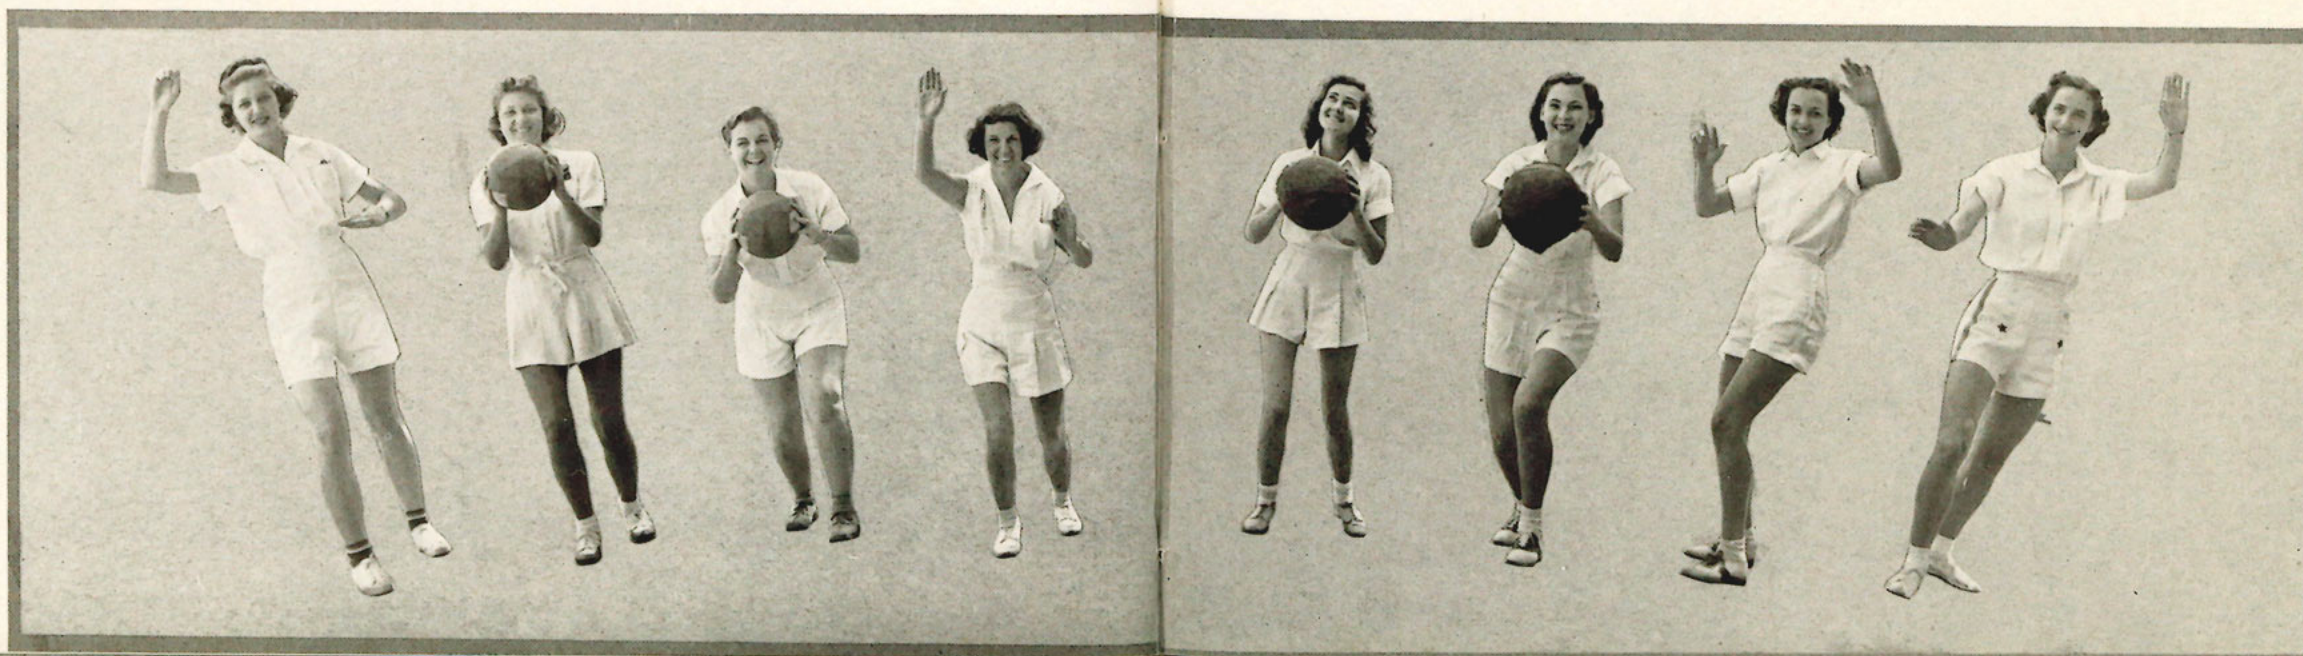

Among the Freshmen who will be eligible to play next year can be found plenty of good material. Of these, "Jackie" Wells, forward, looks most promising. Louise Griffin, Kitty Ann Sweat, Lois Thomas, have also played some good games. Basketball fans will remember the playing of Freshmen Gloria Gutierrez, Phyllis Flanagan, and Louise DeLoach.

The Varsity basketball team opened the season by entering the City League Tournament, in which, after winning four out of six games, they were ceded a place. Throughout the entire tournament the University team was pointed out for its strict regard for all of the rules governing good sportsmanship.

The Varsity also made a creditable showing in the two games played against Brooksville, one of which was a return game. In this series the position of roving center, provided for under the newest basketball rules, and previously unknown to the team, was held down remarkably well by Grace Moore.

The highlight of the season, however, came on February 9th, when the team made a trip to Southern College, in Lakeland. The game marked the beginning of what is hoped will turn out to mean annual participation in inter-collegiate games.

Idiots DELIGHT

Nothing delights Porter more than a good stiff diagram which makes his economics classes swoon with curiosity. Some of the chalk talks turn out to be lovely surrealistic pictures.

Assembly without the 313 Masquer announcement just wouldn't be assembly. Truman Delights in telling convocation that the dramatic club meets such 'n such . . . etc.

A mirror is bound to spell delight for a co-ed. Beth Hornsby is happy about the whole thing.

Jam and Cram Sessions are typically idiot's delights with Frances and Blanche. The first five weeks and five days they jam, the last day they cram.

Two hundred idiots can't be wrong. The fact that the studes here enjoy jooking is no Ferdinand! "Blowing your own horn" is certainly an idiot's delight. A lot of hot air passes through that pipe.

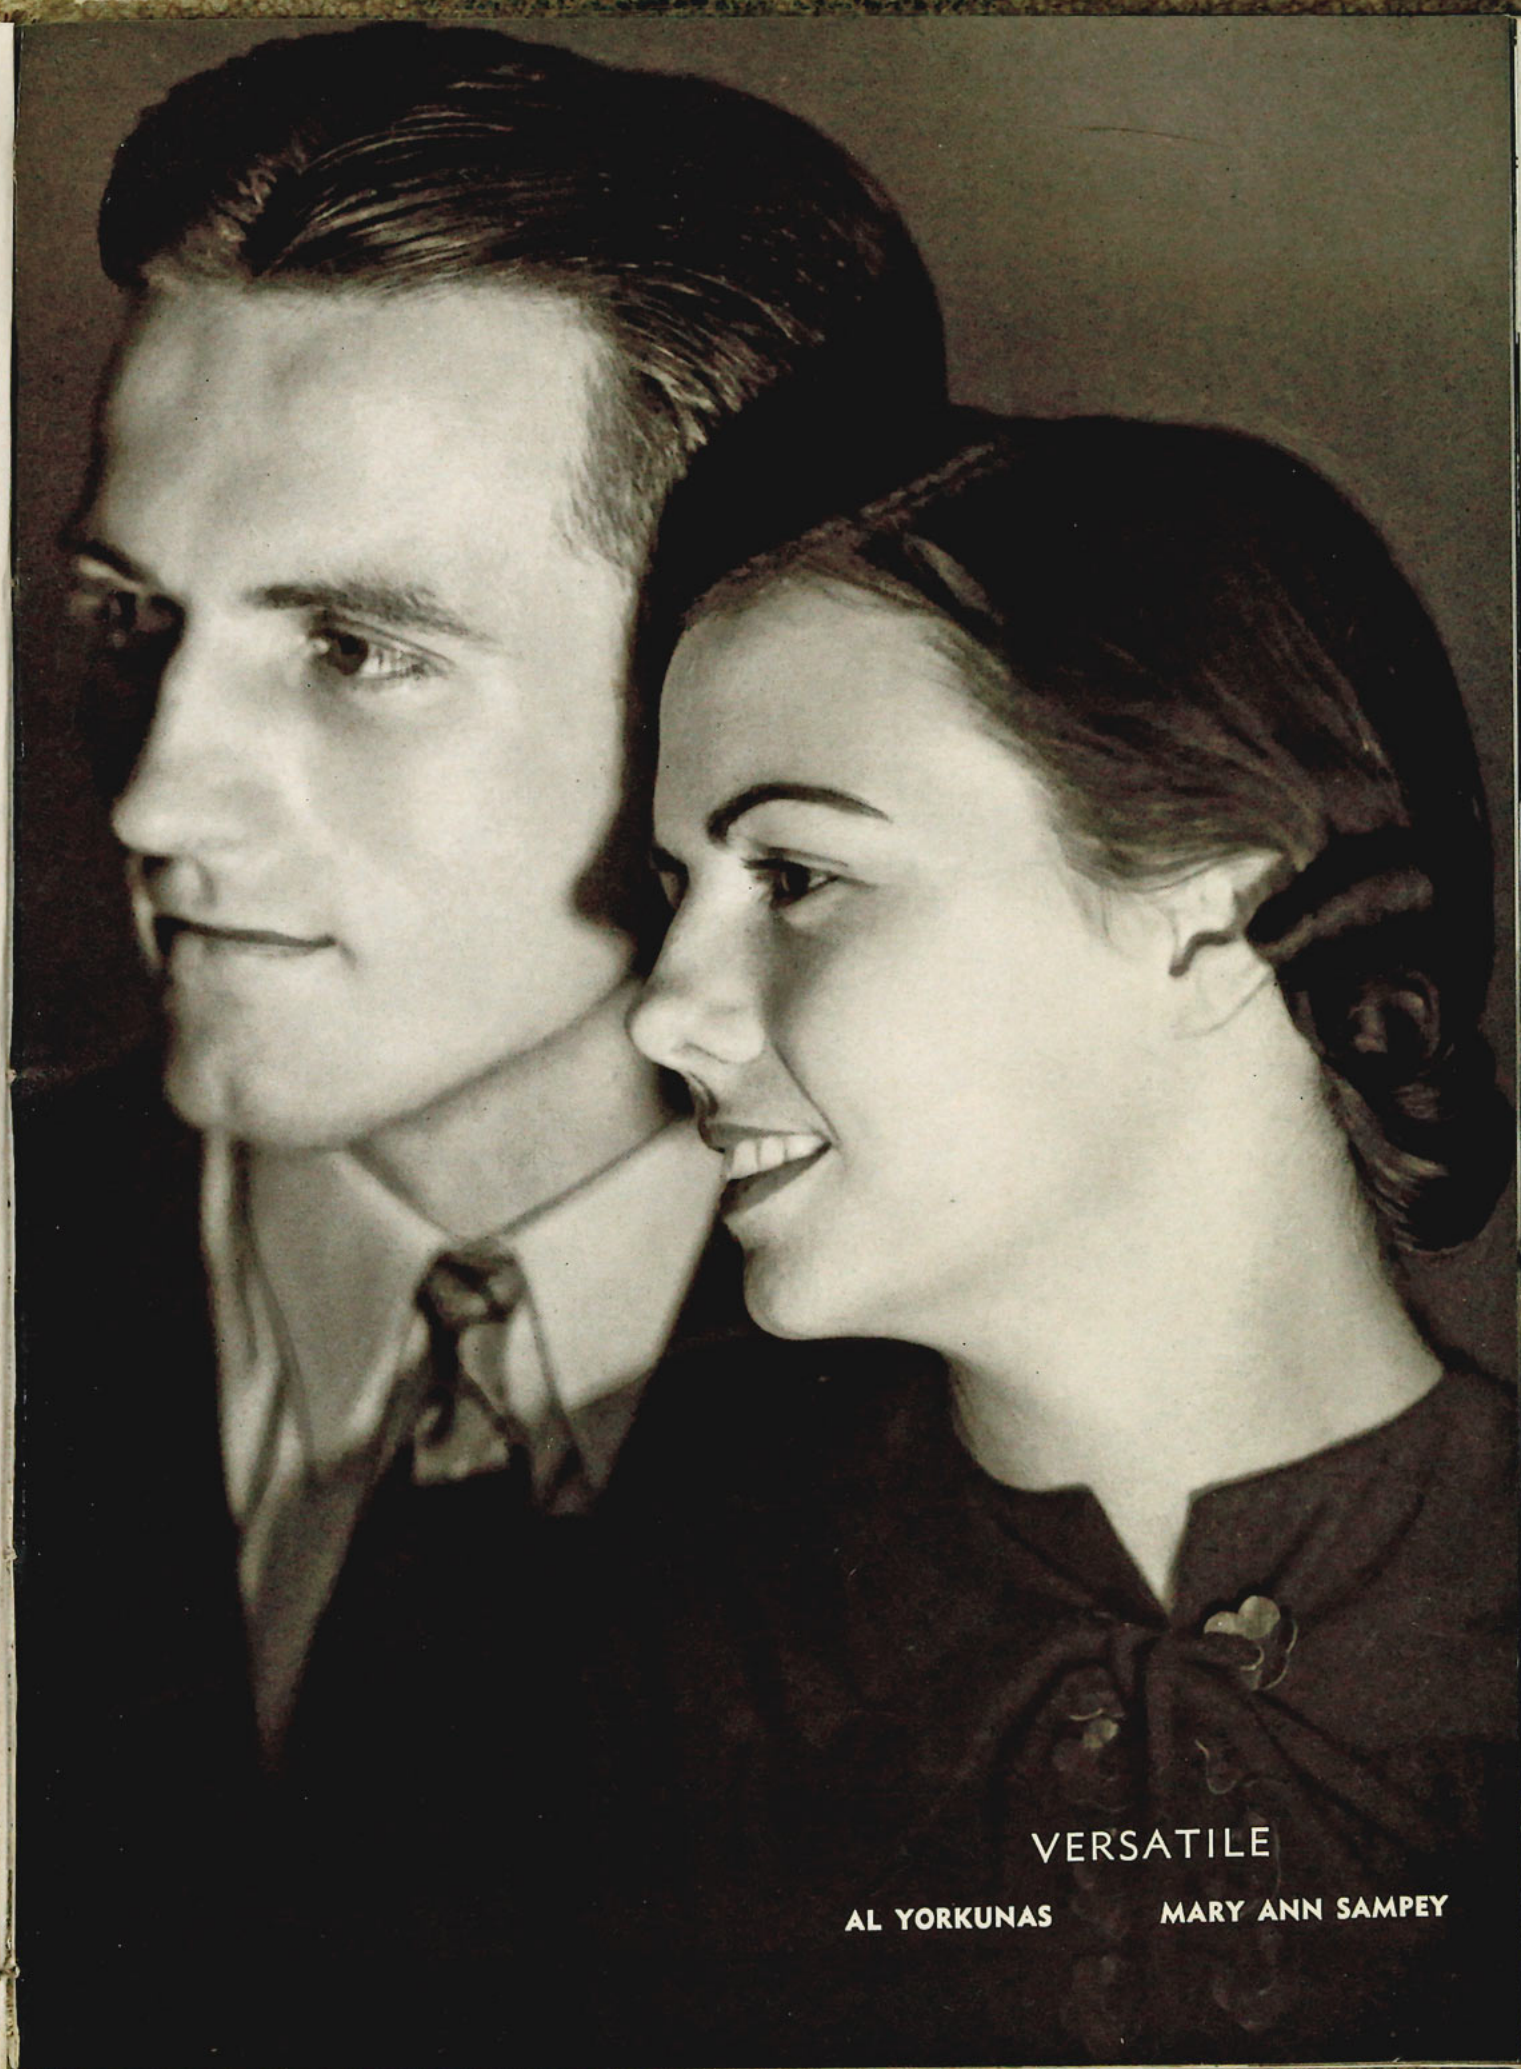

This seems to be a jam and cram session too. 250 pound Emory Brown admits that his special delight is in consuming four square meals a day. The food shown is evidence enough.

A SADIE HAWKINS DAY—IN REVERSE

Lest we forget . . .

"CASTLES IN SPAIN"

Directed by Mrs. Connally, Dr. Hinckley, Miss Moffatt, Mr. Wiltse

The story hinges on the imagined discovery, in the Tampa Museum, of a Vase which has the power to reproduce events which happened four hundred years before, if it is placed in a certain position. The Vase brings back from the past Dolores, lovely daughter of one of De Soto's captains; a Spanish soldier from De Soto's army; and an Indian of that period. All of these characters meet and mingle with University students of today; but when the Vase is moved out of position they disappear.

"A NIGHT IN HAWAII"

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET-'38

While the South Sea moon shone through the open roof of the Davis Islands Country Club, the Junior Class played host to the Seniors at the annual banquet and dance. Hawaiian dancers, coconut palms, guitars, beat of drums, the shower of blossoms, flowered leis, and menu carried out the theme.

GOIN' PLACES WITH TAMPA U-ERS

The above group slipped off one sunny aft to Ole Virginia and took in the Internash relation convensh at Williams and Mary College. John is adressng the photog while Dale and Oswald are agree- ing to disagree. Dale had a late date and was locked out of the dorm. So . . .

Going somewhere, Miriam? Careful there . . . Sam is ready for a jaunt down the road and seems to be enjoying it. Senor Mumbauer is shooting Ferdinand to the Innkeeper's daughter in Havana. . . .
