Here Are Some Facts, In Two Tongues, About El Colegio

El Colegio Militar de México, cuyo equipo de fútbol juega contra los "Spartans" el domingo, Nov. 7, fué fundado poco tiempo después de la Independencia de la República Mexicana, para poder instruir a los oficiales que se necesitan para mantener un ejército bien equipado y disciplinado.

El colegio se encuentra situado en uno de los lugares más bellos de la capital mexicana; en las lomas de Chapultepec, lugar que en un tiempo fué la residencia del emperador Maximiliano de Austria.

El Colegio Militar de México ha sido la cuna de los más ilustres militares con que ha contado el país azteca, habiéndose distinguido sus alumnos tanto en las letras como en las armas. Sería largo enumerar los actos heroicos en los cuales han tomado parte, pero no puede pasar desapercibido para nadie, la defensa hecha por los "Niños héroes de Chapultepec" acto que todo México recuerda con orgullo y cariño.

En el Colegio Militar de México los futuros oficiales reciben instrucción en las distintas ramas de las fuerzas armadas; Infantería, Artillería, Caballería, etc., contando actualmente con 800 alumnos aproximadamente, siendo una de las más salientes academias militares de la América Latina.

Sus actuales alumnos, así como los oficiales que de él se han graduado, han dado a México resonantes triunfos en el extranjero, tanto en tiro de revólver y fusil, como en esgrima, equitación, etc. Entre los más recientes triunfos se encuentra el conquistado por un oficial mexicano en las pasadas Olimpiadas mundiales de Londres, en las que triunfó con gran margen sobre todos sus adversarios en las competencias de salto de obstáculos a caballo.

El Colegio Militar de México, whose football team will meet the Spartans in the Homecoming game, Nov. 7, was founded shortly after the Independence of the Mexican Republic, in order that the officers needed to maintain a well-equipped and disciplined army could be trained.

The college is situated on one of the most beautiful and scenic spots in Mexico, on the hills of Chapultepec—on the grounds that were once the residence of Emperor Maximilian of Austria.

This military college has been the cradle of many of the most famous men of this Aztec nation, who have distinguished themselves in letters as well as in arms.

It would take too long to enumerate all the heroic deeds in which its alumni have taken part, but we cannot leave out the heroic deed of "the child heroes of Chapultepec," an act which every Mexican remembers with pride and respect.

At the "Mexican West Point" the future officers receive instruction in the different branches of service—the engineers, the cavalry, the infantry, and others. The college, with an enrollment of approximately 800 cadets, is one of the most outstanding military academies of Latin America.

Its present students, as well as its alumni, have given to Mexico signal triumphs abroad, as much in pistol and rifle competition, as in fencing and horsemanship. One of the recent triumphs was at the World Olympics, where the Mexican entry won the steeplechase by a great margin.

NOTICE.

Schedule for Sophomore and Seniors to have their pictures taken for the Moroccan: Sophomores, Nov. 8 through Nov. 11. Juniors start Friday Nov. 12. Check bulletin board as of today.

This Story Is Only For T.U. Freshmen

Freshmen take heed. On November the sixth at six thirty o'clock Frosh paraders dressed in pajamas and assorted night attire will assemble in the rear of the University.

The parade will be led by a truck containing the Sophomore committee of members who are responsible for the continuity of the parade.

The participants will surge onto West Lafayette Street and snake back and forth in the streets on their tour through downtown Tampa. The University Cheerleaders will help lead the students in the cheers and yells so a school spirit will prevail.

Sophomore Guards

Placed at various intervals along the parade route there will be sophomores dressed in distinctive Raiment so you will be able to recognize them. (Armbands with the T.U. shield).

The Sophomores are placed here and there so they may quell any rowdiness before it becomes a fact. The guards will not in any way bother anyone who is behaving himself.

Bonfire and Pep Rally

It is required of all Frosh on Friday, November the fifth, that they help gather wood for the bonfire under supervision of their old "Haze Masters" who had charge of them in the opening days of the semester.

The wood gathered will be used in the bonfire which is to be held next to the old American Legion Building on the University grounds. The Pajama Parade will return to the University of Tampa but instead of disassembling everyone will take part in the bon fire and pep rally.

The Sophomore committee chairmen are, Howard Vail, Marshall of the Guards; Helen Gilliam, General Publicity director; Bill Benson and Owen Keene, parade marshalls.

If you are in doubt or puzzled in any matters pertaining to the

An Open Letter

From The Troupers

The Spartan Troupers will present an informal open-house dance on Thursday evening, Nov. 4, in the Dome Theater.

This dance will serve the double purpose of opening the Homecoming festivities and of expressing the deep appreciation the Troupers feel toward the student body for the spirit of co-operation displayed during

"Gold in the Hills."

The dance will be free, and music will be from records. Cold drinks are to be sold on the South porch.

The Troupers hope that the entire student body will turn out on Homecoming Eve and fill the Dome Theater, since this is probably the only time all year that the Troupers will offer anything free.

We wish to express our sincere appreciation to the students and faculty for their fine support during our recent production.

Annual Homecoming Events Scheduled To Start Friday

Many Secret Plans For Parade Floats

By E. Kelly Tagliarini

Secret activity, plans and whisperings are being observed these days and they all lead to the many lovely, original, and decorative floats to compete for prizes in the Homecoming Parade which takes place Saturday morning Nov. 6th from 9:30 till 11:00. The floats include: Alumni Sponsor, Football Sponsor, KSK Float, Sigma Theta Phi, F.T.A., T.D.S., The Minaret, R.N.D., Alpha Gamma, T.D., SKN, D.K., ZDP, Beta Chi, and Ace Club. The Boots and Saddle Club will have horses behind the Police escort.

The route for the parade this year will be longer than any other previous year. It will go down North Boulevard, to Cass, down Cass to Franklin to Platt, down Platt to Magnolia down Magnolia to the University of Tampa where the parade will disband. The Parade will form along the side of the Fair Grounds in the order made public by the Parade Marshal at a later date. Our Parade Marshal for this year will be Tommy Waugh and he must know the name of all organizations entering something in the parade this year, before Monday, Nov. 1.

Tommy announced that they are working to make this the biggest and best Homecoming parade in the history of the University, so how can it miss?

The Honorable C. Hixon, mayor, will lead the parade off, directly behind him will be the sponsor for homecoming. Also in this car will be the Homecoming Queen.

Let's show the people of Tampa that the University of Tampa Football Team is back to stay and that they are out to win this big homecoming game against the Colegio Militar. There will be music and beauty, noise and excitement, floats and pretty girls, (who those majorettes), so let's all be there to give our team a big send-off!

Festivities Will Include Dances, Banquets, Game And Parades

Beginning Friday night, Nov. 5th at eight o'clock and lasting through Sunday, Nov. 7th, the University of Tampa will hold its traditional Homecoming celebration.

Banquets, parades, luncheons and a Homecoming Queen contest sponsored by the 1949 Moroccan are but a few of the scheduled events.

President's Reception

E. C. Nance, President of the University, will inaugurate Homecoming by giving a reception (at 8:00 in the evening) for the alumni of the school in the University Ballroom.

November the Sixth

On Saturday at 9:30 a.m. the homecoming parade will form along the North B Street and at 1:00 there will be a Homecoming Luncheon given by fraternities, sororities, and societies for their old graduates.

After the Alumni Business meeting and Banquet which is to be held at 6:00 P. M. in the Tampa Terrace Hotel, there is to be an Alumni Dance in the Hotel's Palm Room.

Among the events of Saturday Nov. 6th is the Pajama Parade, which forms at the rear of the University at 6:30 P. M. The paraders, after marching through downtown Tampa, will return to the University of Tampa where a bonfire and pep rally will be staged.

After the bonfire and pep rally the students are invited to attend the Alumni Dance in the Palm Room of the Hotel Tampa Terrace.

The dance will begin a 9:00 so the students will have time to return home and dress in the proper attire for the semi-formal affair.

November the Seventh

The big game planned between Colegio Militar and University of Tampa Spartans will be held at Phillips Field. The game starts at 2:30 P.M.

Student Senate Dance

Following the President's Reception Friday Nov. 5th a semi-formal dance sponsored by the Student Senate will be held at The University. Tables and loudspeakers will be placed in the ballroom and around the well.

There is no admission charge and the dance will last from 9 through 12 with music being furnished by the ever popular Don Francisco orchestra.

An added attraction of the Student Senate dance is to be the crowning of the homecoming queen chosen from among these five contestants: Helen Gilliam, Frances Saxon, Mildred Mooney, Mike Royer, Margie Staland. The lovely ladies were selected from a group of twenty six entrants. The judges, prominent business men, were Paul Jones, Program director of Radio Station WFLA; Bill Bond, advertising manager of Maas Brothers; E. M. Leighton, Manager of Sears Roebuck and Co. Store; and Larry Adler, Photographer for Bryn-Allyn Studio.

The four girls who are not chosen queen will reign as the queen's court.

Homecoming Parade

Forming at 2:15 P.M., Saturday along North B Street, the Homecoming parade will feature many floats sponsored by various organizations. There will be a prize awarded for the best float.

Led by the Honorable Curtis Hixon, mayor, the parade will go from North B Street to North Boulevard, down North Boulevard to Cass Street, down Cass to Franklin, down Franklin to Platt, down Platt to Magnolia Ave., and back to the University where the parade will be disbanded.

On Saturday November 6th starting at 9:00 A.M. and lasting throughout the day, the University of Tampa opens its doors to the people of Tampa. Alumni students will be registered at desks in the lobby. Tentative arrangements have been made for guides for the open-house day.

Homecoming luncheons will be given at 1:00 P.M. by various organizations for their old graduates. Nothing is planned for Saturday afternoon but beginning at 6:00 P. M. the alumni will hold their business meeting, banquet and dance at the Hotel Tampa Terrace.

At the same time the alumni Business meeting is being held, the Freshman Pajama Parade under the supervision of the Sophomore class will form at the rear of the University and move toward downtown Tampa. After roaming through the business district the paraders will return to the University where they will hold a bonfire and pep rally.

Football Game

Ending the three day festivities on Sunday, November the seventh a program, helping to sponsor friendly relations between our country and other countries, features a football game. The contest is between Colegio Militar de Mexico City, the West Point of the Republic of Mexico, and the powerful University of Tampa Spartans. The Latin American Fiesta Association will sponsor the Mexican team.

During the time between the halves there will be a presentation of the sponsors and the gifts presented to the Queen of Homecoming.

KEK Busy Preparing Week-End Surprises

Another issue of The MINARET comes off the press and it finds the KEK boys busily making preparations for the HOMECOMING weekend. For a number of weeks, the boys have been working on various projects to entertain our Alumni. Of course, we will welcome the Alumni of the school as well as its friends.

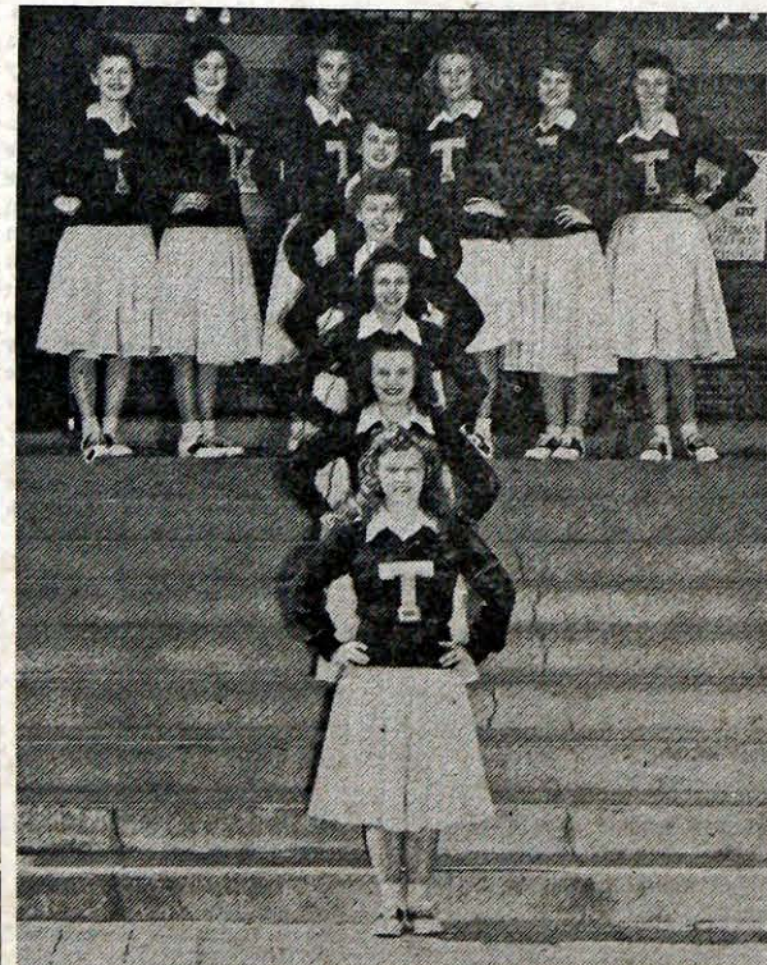

I can't tell everything that we are going to do for homecoming, but I will give you an insight as to what may be expected. To the organizations who are planning to enter floats in the HOMECOMING parade, may I remind you that KEK took top honors last year for the prize float (we are still awaiting the trophy to be given to us by whoever was supposed to award it. Perhaps we will receive two this time.) We will have a bid in for the first prize, anyway. The theme of the float is ??? (your guess is as good as the next one.)

We are very proud of the young ladies that we are sponsoring for the beauty contest.

Our hats are off to the Purple and Gold football team for the hard fought game that they played against the strong Independents. The score, 0-0, is an indication of the tooth for tooth and eye for eye game. Playing heads-up ball on the line were Joe Capitano, Ralph Diaz, Roy Jaudon, Charlie Hammond, and strong man Jay Bragg. They were in the Independents backfield continuously during the entire game. In the backfield F. Hammond was a vicious blocker and played a good game on pass defense. The usual

WELCOME ALUMNI

Meet Dook Blount . . .

"Dook" Blount is a good man to have around."

That's a statement that almost any coach would make. Blount is a shifty halfback, a tricky ball-handler, a sharpshooting passer, a charging fullback, and a better-than-average hider. Oh, yes, he is also a vicious tackler and blocker.

Edward, as his parents call him, began his football career at Jesuit High School here in Tampa. Playing under Coach Gaddis, Blount led Jesuit to a successful 1946 season. Although he was third in the city scoring race, he led all other ball-carriers in total yards gained. Local sportswriters nominated "Dook" to the all-city squad.

That he chose to come to Tampa U. was a decided break for the Minarets. Playing for coach Paul Straub in a Knights of Columbus charity game last year, "Dook" sparked his team to a 54 to 0 victory. He scored one touchdown and passed for two others.

Although he is only 19 years old, "Dook" flatly announces that he is "anti-women". At least until football ends.

ROSEY • RAMBLES

We've got a football team! Yes sir, kids, old Tampa U. has a team that's slightly more than terrific. The pasting they handed Stetson last week was a very pleasing sight.

It's been six long years since a Spartan squad played before the hometown fans. The lucky ones who saw that game are still talking about it. You hear, even today, talk of HoHand Applin's glue-fingers, of Jerry Jackson's brilliant running, of Julian Schamberg's hard charging, of John Malczewski's great line play, of Joe Morris' fine signal calling and of the "fine job that Gaddis has done".

An it's true. The boys played fine, thrilling football. The brand of ball that the fans go for. Coach Gaddis is deserving of all the praise he's been receiving. The Spartans are an exciting, hustling, fighting aggregation.

By the way, some of the best intramural football games since the sport's inception have been taking place before very few spectators. The game between Rho Nu Delta and Beta Chi was a real thriller. The Chi's were forced to surge back in the closing minutes in order to score a touchdown and earn a tie.

The fraternities seem to be very evenly matched. Some future games that should prove interesting are: RND-TO; BX-TO; SKN-BX; and anybody that plays the Independents.

We don't think that anybody in this school favors Communism or the Communistic way of doing things. This is America. The land of free speech. The place where you can come right out and say your piece. The method of talking behind someone's back or writing anonymous literature are the Commies' pet tricks.

Dr. Nance has always advocated a straight-from-the-shoulder policy. That is in keeping with the Democratic principles upon which the governing of this institution is based.

Therefore, when you see or read something that disagrees with your way of thinking don't gripe to your intimate friends or send unsigned missives to this office. Rather stand up and talk out. Let's practice what we preach.

Spartans To Meet Mexican Team Sunday

Through The Years—

Two Stories You'll Like

THRU THE YEARS
By JIM CARLEY

Shirts were on sale that year at a local Tampa store for 79 cents a throw; haircuts were 25 cents; women's skirts were long, similar to the style today; and the nation was singing the current hit, "Who's Afraid of the Big Bad Wolf". This was the year that beer came back. All the nation was talking about the New Deal, and the new President, F. D. R.

It is to the years 1933-34 that we turn our attention now. It was destined to be a year of many firsts throughout the land. Tampa, and especially the University of Tampa, got into the spirit of the times. This was the first year in its present location, the year that the first Minaret was published, and the year that the first president of the student body was elected.

Tomes could be written about the activities of that first year here and of the student body. We are going to concentrate our space to those who, in the past 15 years, have held the editorship of The Minaret and presidency of the student body.

Who were the people that have led the school diplomatically and through the fourth estate for the past 15 years? In '33 they were Bill Miller, president of the student body, and Edna Francis Prince, editor of The Minaret. Those early issues of the paper were joint operations . . . "edited and published by the student body of the University of Tampa," read the credit lines. It was Miller and Prince who had the honor of being the first in the history of the University. Their jobs were not easy ones. They started from scratch and made something from what they had to work with.

This, the University's 16th year, let's look back and see who has come before. Of the 16 presidents of the student body, four have been girls. The first girl to hold the office was Dorothy Thonnesen, '42-'43. That year the male citizenry was busy elsewhere. The years from '42 to '45 were lean male years. It was at this time that the weaker (?) sex took over.

Elizabeth Erwin '43-'44; Virginia Smith '44-'45; and Catherine Bowen '45-'46 four straight years of coed student administration. The male side of the picture includes: D. B. York '34-'35; John Smiley '35-'36; Walter Hoy '36-'37; Lyton Ashmore '37-'38; Richard Powell '38-'39; Robert Kasriel '39-'40; R. B. Fordyce '40-'41; Doyle Blumlein '47-'48 and Dick Saxon '48; make the complete list of student presidents.

For some reason, call it the law of nature, of equalization, or law of something, the girls seem to shine as Editors of The Minaret. Of the 162 sorry 17-joint editors this year) 13 have been girls.

Edna Francis Prince '33-'35; Leah Mae Hunter '36-'37; Julia Mary Neff '38-'39; Beth Morsby '39-'40; Lucy Lee Marsh '40-'41; Ann Simpson '41-'42; Jane Hughes '41-'42; Virginia Smith '42-'44; Frances Saxon '46-'47 and Nancy Ellen Humes '47-'48.

Virginia Smith must have been a very busy girl in the year '44-'45. That year she held the presidency and the editorship. The first and only student to hold both positions simultaneously. From the girls with the green vision, let's take a look at their male companions.

To Hampton Dunn fell the honor of being the first male editor of the Minaret. That was in '35-'36. Not until '45-'46 was there another male editor when Duane Locke took over the blue pencil. Today our Co-Editors are Bruce Atkins and Leonard Gotler.

It is not the purpose of this writer to start a feud of any sort. Look at the record and you will see that the boy vs. girl battle for the two school positions is evenly matched:

Editors of the Minaret
Girls—	13
Boys—	3
Total	16
President Student Body
Girls—	4
Boys—	12

What have we got? Just a list of names and dates of past students? No! This list of names and dates contains the names of those who

OUR FIRST HOMECOMING
By TOM PLESSNER

Until the Homecoming of 1935 Tampa had not witnessed a parade to compare with that of our first homecoming. A partial holiday was declared by Mayor Chace and merchants were invited to send advertisements and personnel to participate in the festivities. Four highschools were also invited to parade and enter the occasion. Leading the parade was the University of Tampa band and following the band were numerous cars owned by the students. All the cars were painted with the school colors and carried the student body, following the students came the University of Stetson's 59 piece band and numerous cars bearing the colors green and white. Almost the entire city of Tampa turned out for our first homecoming parade, and an estimated 1000 people participated in the parade.

Stetson was our opponent during the homecoming game of 1935. There was a dance in the University ballroom, to which Stetson students and the citizens of Tampa were invited after the game.

The spirit both in the city and at the University was very high, and the University of Tampa was given grand support both from the populace of Tampa and the merchants.

At the Banquet which was held in the Crescent Grill, the tables were arranged in the form of a "T" and the color scheme was devoted almost entirely to Tampa U's colors, red, gold and black. Attending the first Homecoming Banquet, was the first football team. Among them was Miller Adams, who is at present an instructor at the University.

Mayor Chace sent this encouraging message to the University, called "The Homecoming Day Proclamation." "The people of Tampa will be given a real treat. On next Friday, November 13th we will celebrate Homecoming Day of the University of Tampa.

The University since its very early days has meant a great deal to Tampa and to the Cultural life of our people, both young and old. Tampa is proud of the University and I know that our citizens will be glad to join the alumni, the student body and faculty in making Homecoming Day a memorable event.

Therefore, I as Mayor, consider it a privilege to declare a holiday in Tampa on Friday, November 13th, beginning at four o'clock in the afternoon, the time of the parade, and to urge the active support of our entire citizenry in this celebration, which means so much to the University and our city."

Remember this was a proclamation made by the Mayor of Tampa on the 13th day of November in 1935.

have helped to write the student history of the university. It is a history that lives in the minds of the alumnus, and which we share today. They gave their time and spirit to the University—they gave, and received in turn.

ly reliable Augie Suarez was at the fullback slot and did most of the passing and kicking. There were times that we wished that "Big" Bill Benson had not been on the line for the Independents as he was tops on line play, with Joe Walwer and Max Bagley outstanding in the backfield.

Tampa U. Wins Hometown Game With Stetson Hatters

By BUDDY SCOTT

The University of Tampa Spartans entertained a crowd of 6500 fans, as they mixed power, passes and deception to completely befuddle the helpless Hatters. The men from The Minaret scored twice went through several difficult maneuvers.

The second half began with the Hatters on the short end of a 0-18 score, but the Deland boys came back with a rush led by the hard in the first period, once in the second, and once in the final stanza.

Tampa took the opening kickoff and went 65 yards in a sustained drive to score the opening six-pointer, as Jerry Jackson raced the last seven yards for the score. Stetson couldn't gain, and kicked to Jackson, who took the pigskin and scampered down the sidelines for 76 yards, before a desperate Stetson tackle brought him down on the visitors 4-yard line. Julian Shamberg then bulled his way through for the score, and Tampa was ahead 21-0.

Late in the first half, Holland Applin, Tampa's triple threat end rambled to the Hatter 1-yard line, from where P.B. White exploded through, to make it 18-0.

The University of Tampa's crimson clad band put on a very impressive halftime program, as they running of reserve fullback Jim Olsen, the Hatters scored on a fourth down pass, then kicked the point to make the score 18-7.

In the final quarter the Spartans pulled a 26 yard "end around pass" with Applin tossing to James Hill for forty yards and a touchdown.

The Hatters scored again just before the end of the game, but by then Tampa had it sewed up. It would be difficult to select any outstanding players, in view of the fact that every ball player played excellent ball. The boys were definitely "up" for this one, and gave the Tampa fans a demonstration of wild, wooly and wide-open football.

Holland Applin, the best end in the State, "Crazy legs" Jerry Jackson, Joltin' Joe Morris, and both Tampa tackles, Malczewski and Powell, were impressive in the spartan attack. Another bright spot was the great running and fine defensive play of Julian Shamberg, the plunger' man from Florida U.

Tampa Chamber Head On First UBS Series

Mr. Lewis H. Day, general manager of the Tampa Chamber of Commerce, will be on the panel of the first University Broadcasting Service radio forums "Tampa Talks" to be heard over WFLA at 7 P.M. on Nov. 6. Prof. Hobart T. Grace, of the geology department will represent the faculty on the panel with Prof. Roy A. McGilvray as moderator and Jim Carley as student announcer.

"Tampa and Its Future" is the subject of the Nov. 6 broadcast. This is the first of a series of UBS forums to be heard weekly over WFLA until May. The first portion of the series will be devoted to Tampa's industrial and economic future, and the remaining programs will devote their time to subjects of national and international nature.

The UBS is pleased to have Mr. Day as guest on this first program and to have the support of the Chamber of Commerce in this undertaking to acquaint the people of the city of Tampa with the possibilities of a greater Tampa in the future.

Points to be discussed on the forum will include: What are the basic factors required for a city to grow industrially and economically and thus increase its prosperity? What types of industries would come to Tampa and why?; and, What are the difficulties that exist for new industries settling in Tampa? Mr. Lewis Day, as general manager of the Chamber of Commerce, will contribute greatly to answering these questions which are of interest to the Chamber and to all the people in Tampa. The subject "Tampa and Its Future" for the first forum will be expanded in the second program which will devote time to the subject of the development of the home industries and their place in the Tampa of the future.

Girls' Volley Team Loses Two Openers

Tampa University girls' volleyball team was overpowered by Jack's Cookies team in two games Tuesday, Oct. 19, at Plymouth Park. The scores were 15-6 and 16-9.

Madeline Boyd is captain of the T. U. team. Other players are Laura Lopez, Evelyn Jewell, Pat Scott, Scotty Branch, Alice Thompson, Alice Rodriguez, Goldie Haverstock, Ramona Wright and Catherine Cappello.

Practice is held on Thursday nights, and games are played every Tuesday night at Plymouth Park.

Sports Glances

By Charlie Haynes

Formal football returned to the campus this year for the first time since the war, but this is not the only sport that will arouse the students cheers. Coach Art Trubiano promises us a fine rowing crew and Mr. Julio M. Costello, Coach of our fencing squad promises us a fine team. First let's take a look at our fencing squad.

We have perhaps the best fencing coach in the U. S. today in Mr. Costello. He spent 22 years at New York University as head fencing coach and has a fine record there. His first year at N. Y. U. his team won 7 championships in intercollegiate competition. He has also coached U. S. Olympic teams. Mr. Costello is the Pres. of the International Fencing Association.

Coach Costello says that in two years Tampa U. can compete in this sport with the best schools in the country. The boys are already hard at work and anyone else who may be interested in trying for the squad may contact any member of the fencing team for information. Mr. Costello is now on a trip up North trying to arrange meets with his Tampa U. team.

Now a look at our rowing crew for this year. Coach Art Trubiano has not released the full dope on our 1948-49 crew yet, but one thing sure, we will race against the best schools in the business. Coach Trubiano was a member of the University of Tampa 1942 Championship team, he also rowed no. 1 position on the Harvard Crew in 1943. Most of us here at T. U. haven't seen a race or even a rowing shell so here are a few facts about the boat, or shell as they call it. The length is 60 feet; it is 24 inches wide, weighs approximately 350 lbs.

These shells cost about $1800 and the University has two of them. Carrys 8 oarsmen and a coxswain. The past Tampa U. crews have a pretty good record, in fact they set a record on the lake at Winter Park that hasn't been surpassed in the U. S. The time for that race was 4 minutes 40 seconds for one mile. Men who are interested in trying for the crew should start getting in shape now because it takes plenty of beef to pull that shell along. The season will get under way in Nov., Tampa will now row the best schools in the trade when we get under way, just for example—old T. U. will row Boston University here in Tampa.

The Hillsborough River will be used for the races with the finish line near the Platt Street bridge. We all agree that Tampa U. Florida.

EAGLES RATED THIRD BEST MEXICO ELEVEN

By Larry Rosenbaum

On Sunday, November 7, the University of Tampa, in its Homecoming game, plays host to the Colegio Militar of Mexico. The Aguiluchos or the Eagles are rated the third best team in Mexico. They are coached by Major R. V. Whitlow, USAF, a graduate of the U.S. Military Academy.

Major Whitlow, asked to coach the Colegio team after they had a dismal 1946 season, has surrounded himself with many high-class football players. He will be able to throw a forward wall against Tampa that averages 197 pounds and a speedy, shifty backfield averaging 169 pounds.

Some of the backs on the Eagle squad that the Spartans will have to watch are Jose Sanchez, a bruising 193 pound fullback; Mario Bermudez, the quarterback and eagle-eyed passer, and Pablo Salazar, halfback who is rated a great climax runner.

Last year and the first year under Major Whitlow, the Aguiluchos lost just two games. They lost to the University of Mexico and to the University of Technology. Both were rated at the top of Mexican football.

With all of his regulars returning, and with vastly improved reserves coming up from a championship freshman team, Major Whitlow has been quoted as saying, "I think we will have a better team than last year."

Goslings Trim T. U. In Thriller, 37-32

In one of the most sensational football games ever witnessed in Florida, the University of Tampa bowed to the powerful Pensacola Navy by a 37 to 32 score. The game, witnessed by 15,000 fans, was an aerial circus that had the spectators in an uproar throughout.

The Spartans, a four-touchdown underdog, spotted the Navy a two touchdown lead in the opening quarter. They came surging back and took a 26-24 lead midway of the third period. It was at this point that the game became exceedingly rough. The officials halted the contest and warned both teams to refrain.

Jim Hill, Spartan end, was easily the outstanding man on the field. Hill, almost singlehanded turned defeat into victory. All he did was to intercept two passes, recover a fumble, and score a touchdown.

Also starring for Tampa were Holland Applin, who scored a touchdown and played great defensive ball; Julian Schamberg was a bear on defense and sparked the Spartan offensive with some sensational passing.

The Spartans are at home November 7 when they meet the Colegio Militar at Phillips Field.

can not compete with big schools in the football but we can be a giant killer in such sports as fencing and rowing. We should all get behind the teams and back them 100 percent. If we can beat some of these big schools in fencing and rowing maybe some of these people in Tampa will wake up to the fact that the University of Florida isn't the only sports center in Florida.
