

HOMECOMING PLANS COMPLETED

SPARTANS PLAY ROLLINS TARS HERE TONIGHT

Homecoming Crowd To See Great Battle

University of Tampa's gridders will take the field here tonight to battle an inspired team from Rollins college in a game which will have a lot of bearing on the "Little Four" championship aspirations of the Spartans. The kickoff will be at 8:15 p. m.

Although Coach McDowell, of the Tars has predicted that his team will win easily over the Tampa U., the Spartans will take the field slight favorites to upset their rivals from Wofford, Newberry and Union college by impressive scores. Tampa U.'s record so far this season is more impressive than Rollins'. Opposing teams have been able to cross the Spartan goal line only once in eight games, the strong Louisiana Tech team scoring the only touchdown when they defeated the Spartans two weeks ago.

Teams in Good Shape
Although the Spartans and the Tars have been going through several rough and tough scrimmage sessions this week in preparation for the battle, both elevens will be in almost perfect shape for the encounter. The Spartans have shown a sudden reversal of form this week from their poor showing displayed in the game with Cumberland.

Indications are that the game will develop into a scoring duel between Rudy Rodriguez, Spartan ace, and little Georgie Miller, whose many long touchdowns gallops have been the feature of the Rollins games for the last three years. The Spartans had Miller nailed to the ground in their game last year, but the mighty mite from Rollins is having his greatest year this season, and it is doubtful whether the Spartan forwards will stop him. The Spartans won easily last year by a 10-6 score.

Rollins Supporters
According to word received by the athletic department, many Rollins students will come to Tampa for the game in a motorcade of over 75 cars. The Rollins supporters will participate in the parade this afternoon and they will have a special section in the grandstand for the game tonight.

Tampa U. sponsors will be Martha Powell, Rosalie Baya, Dorothy Pou and Margaret Rush. Rollins sponsors will be Misses Peggy Jennison and Celestina McKay.

Casts Are Selected For Two Dramas

Truman Hunter, president of the dramatic club, announced this week that the complete casts have been selected for two plays which will be presented this semester. Rehearsals for both plays are already under way. They are being held Tuesdays at 2:00 p. m. and on Thursdays at 1:00 p. m.

The casts for the plays were selected in consideration with free hours that students might have for rehearsals as well as talent.

The cast for "Adam's Evening," a three-act play, is composed of Marvin Lassiter, Alice Williams, Vetta Hammons, Bert Hernandez, Ann McCurdy, George Giglia, Martha Franco, Truman Hunter, James Lindsey, and Idelle McMillan. Carlos Bailiff, Ann Way Peebles, Grace Dayan and Winifred Hill will be under studies for several parts.

The cast for the one-act play, "They're None of Them Perfect," will include Grace Dayan, Julia Mary Neef, Leah Mae Hunter, Ann Way Peebles, Leona Wagoner and Margaret Neef.

Queen for a Day

Students of the University of Tampa yesterday elected Miss Edna Johnson, a junior, to be the reigning queen of the university for the homecoming celebration today. Miss Johnson, who is president of the Sigma Theta Phi sorority, was elected over a field of seven candidates who were nominated in student assembly Tuesday.

Mary Burress, sophomore beauty, was a close second in the voting, while Janie Trice was third. Queen Edna will be at the head of the parade through the downtown section this afternoon.

Student Artists Here Specialize In Several Lines

Art students of the University of Tampa show a variation of interests in their artistic ambitions. Mr. Norman Borchardt, instructor in art, says that several of his former students have found employment in artistic lines. Sarah Bartlett has found employment with The Tampa Tribune and Gladys Vickers, who taught art to children during the summer months, is expecting a job with the art department of the Warner Brothers Motion Picture studios. George Giglia, besides attending school as a regular student, paints daily for a bakery and a large ice cream company.

Mr. Borchardt is stressing sketching in his courses here. He wants the course to be something of practical use for the students when they complete it. As the students are able to go into the commercial field Mr. Borchardt will try to place them.

Students specializing in particular fields are: Betty Dickenson, portraits; Leila Gibbs, animals; Henry Robert, clay modeling; Al Yorkunas, cartoonist; Winifred Hill, modernistic art; Alvin Van Fleet, landscapes; Isabella Hall, decorative illustrations for fairy tales; Ann McCurdy and Mary Sampey, juvenile illustrations; T. L. Ferris, modernistic sketching; Betty Ann Bannon and Jewell Hamilton, sketching, and George Giglia, all-around commercial art.

Mr. Borchardt, himself, has recently completed a Christmas cover illustration for the Infantry Journal of the U. S. army. His biography will also appear in that issue of the magazine. At present he is working on 23 illustrations for children's stories in Scribner's Magazine.

Frasority Craze Spreads; 'Eddie Bay' Has New Rivals

Just as we expected—the fever is on. When the first fraternity was organized here a sorority also sprang immediately; when the men students formed their intramural department the pretty co-eds followed with the W. A. A.; when freshmen were made to wear rat caps, freshmen were ordered to wear baby bonnets. And so "Eddie Bay" Carter, the famous social outcast of two weeks, who originated the first "frasority" here, is going to have some competition.

Perhaps the idea is contagious, like measles, or maybe like the chain letter idea of a few years ago. Whether or not it is contagious, the "Eddie Bay" fever has claimed three victims. Raymond May, Billy Ailor and lanky Mike Wilkerson are now joined together by the bonds of another freak organization. This time it's a "soternity"—whatever that may be.

The following is an open letter from the new trio. (It's a wonder they are

3 FRATERNITIES JOIN IN GIVING BIG FALL DANCE

All Students Invited To Attend Nov. 25

An inter-fraternity dance, sponsored by the Beta Chi, Sigma Kappa Nu and Tau Omega fraternities, will be given Wednesday night, November 25, at the Forest Hills Country Club. It will be an open invitation event for students and faculty.

Plans for a dance of this type have been progressing for over a month. The night before the Thanksgiving holidays begin was selected as the most appropriate time for a good attendance. This marks the first time that university fraternities have cooperated for the sake of better functions since the Beta Chi-Sigma Kappa Nu dance of a few years ago.

Each of the fraternities has selected a sponsor. The three sponsors are: Miss Ruth Alexander, for Tau Omega; Miss Roslyn Morgan, for Beta Chi, and Miss Virginia Morrow, for Sigma Kappa Nu.

The advisers of the fraternities will be chaperons, including Professor R. F. Webb, of Beta Chi; W. E. Culbreath, of Tau Omega, and Rabbi Zie-lonka, of Sigma Kappa Nu.

Music will be furnished by an orchestra considered by many as the best in the city, that of Frank Grasso. The hours will be from 10 p. m. until 1 o'clock.

A number of invitations have also been issued to prominent persons outside of the university and friends of the fraternities. The dance of a few years ago, similarly jointly sponsored, attracted a great crowd although it was a script dance. The absence of the script idea this time is expected to draw a record gathering. The fraternity presidents plan that this should be the first of a series of annual inter-fraternal dances to be given about the first of each year.

Two members from each fraternity served on the committee for arrangements. They are Willie Godwin and Earl Hatcher, Beta Chi; Lafayette Ingram and Buddy Gainer, Sigma Kappa Nu; Luther Sparkman and Edwin Means, Tau Omega.

A complete record of the results of intramural competition last year has just been completed by the intramural department. All such points as final standings of teams, results of tournaments, scores of games and names of all star players will be available for future reference.

Spartans Well Fed At Training Table

It is said that an army travels on its stomach, so I decided to find out just what kept the Spartan army—defenders of our Alma Mater—in fighting form.

Anticipating an easy task, I set out for the Maryland House. There, I asked for the proprietor, who turned out to be a woman. Alas, she was a barrier in the way of my success. Despite the fact that I was a reporter from the Minaret, she refused to tell on her boys. Nothing would induce her to say just how much food she bought weekly or how much food her boys consumed.

Nevertheless, I gleaned one delicious tidbit.

Daily football practice plus husky specimens of manhood equals very healthy appetites. The boys are not bashful and never stop with the first helping.

One morning a player called for more toast. It seems that more bread than usual had left the Maryland kitchen, so the buxom proprietress decided to investigate. Without batting an eyelash she rubbed the Spartan's tummy (her word) to see if he really needed more . . . He got the toast.

Alma Mater owes her a vote of thanks for she's taking good care of them. Look at any player; watch the Spartan army at the game tonight and you'll see by their stamina that they are not deficient in any alphabetical vitamin.

Dramatic Club Presents First One-Act Play

Students were treated to the first play presented by the University dramatic club this year in assembly last Tuesday when they saw "Sally's Hat Shop," a one-act play which was well received by the largest number of students to attend assembly this semester.

The play, directed by Mrs. Elizabeth Connolly, is a light comedy skit which gave several co-eds a chance to display their dramatic talents before the student body. Mary Pelaez and Helen Windham turned in good performances as the leading characters, but they were ably supported by Winifred Hill and Mary Frances O'Berry, who gained the plaudits of the audience with their fine acting.

Others who had parts in the play were Mrs. Evelyn Allgood, Verna West, and Joyce Turner.

ALUMNI DANCE WILL FOLLOW GAME TONIGHT

Hamilton Holt Will Be Speaker

Celebration of the second annual Homecoming of the University of Tampa will get under way today with a combined student and alumni parade beginning at 4 o'clock this afternoon. This will be the third observance of Homecoming, but the one last year was the first to include festivities commemorating the day.

This year the program, the result of several weeks' planning by active alumni, includes three major events besides the big annual football game to be played between the University of Tampa Spartans and the Rollins College Tars.

Alumni members from throughout the state are expected to gather here for the celebration. Included in the alumni classification are those receiving four-year and two-year degrees since the first exercises in 1934 in particular, and all former students in general.

The alumni will lead the parade, followed by university students, Tampa merchants, members of civic clubs. Then, at 6 o'clock, there will be an alumni banquet; at 8:15, the football game, and beginning at 11 p. m., a dance.

The route of the parade will take the caravan from its place of formation at the Plant field grandstand south on South Boulevard to Grand Central avenue, east to Florida avenue, north on Florida to Cass street, west on Cass to Franklin street, south on Franklin to Lafayette street and then to the university grounds.

Prizes are to be awarded to the Tampa U. organization that places the most cars in the parade, and to the individual car that is best decorated.

The banquet is expected to draw the largest attendance of any similar function with the exception of the Junior-Senior banquet. More than 100 are expected to attend.

Guest Speaker

President Hamilton Holt, of Rollins College, will be a featured guest speaker on the program. He will be accompanied on the Tampa trip by his sister and two guests. Others who have been invited as guest speakers are Dean M. S. Hale, J. Colin English, Coach Nash Higgins and George B. Howell. Miller Adams, president of the alumni, will be the master of ceremonies.

Alumni members will attend the game in a body, and a section will be reserved for them.

After the university band performs between the halves of the game, the freshman class will stage a spectacular parade of some sort, probably with torches.

The alumni sponsors for the game and dance are Miss Margaret Rush and Miss Dorothy Pou, for the alumni, and Miss Rosalie Baya and Miss Martha Powell, for the University of Tampa. Rollins will also be represented by four sponsors.

The dance will be held at the Davis Islands Country Club from 11 until 2 o'clock. It will be sponsored jointly by the alumni and the Tampa Junior Chamber of Commerce. Manuel Sanchez' orchestra will furnish the music. The Junior Chamber is also aiding with the parade.

Committees that have been in charge of the Homecoming activities are: Miller Adams and Carolyn Adams, banquet; Morton Hackney, Edenia Delaney, Bill Carnes, Lois Selvidge, dance; Miller Adams, Dorothy Pou and Marion Ray, parade; William Moody, Bill Carnes and Edenia Delaney, publicity.

THE ALUMNI RETURN

A great many very personable college students have attended the University of Tampa in the few short years of its life. Those that we think of now have ceased to attend for various reasons; a small percentage has graduated with four and two-year diplomas, and hundreds have left to go into business or other pursuits. Many of them are due to come back today.

Homecoming. It is a pleasant name to apply to the reunion of former students and grads with present-day students. They will bring back countless memories of rare experience which happen only during the days of founding a university. The place has not changed much; we still see the huge, comfortable lobby where they spent interesting hours and made friendships; most of the classes meet in the same rooms and with the same teachers.

The school organizations themselves are changing, growing, adding traditions and prestige. It is these upon which the present student body must depend for its share in Homecoming festivities. Fraternities and sororities, even extra-curricula organizations, may add to the event by welcoming former students who were active in the foundation or progress of those organizations in their day.

To the active alumni who have planned the program for today is due extensive praise for the clever ideas. The enthusiasm with which they have undertaken this task is inspiring, to say the least, to active students. They are showing that they are proud of the young University of Tampa, and to them all students should today assure that Tampa U. also points with pride to its alumni.

Dean Welcomes Alumni

On this the second annual "Home Coming" at the University of Tampa it is a pleasure to extend to our Alumni, on behalf of the officials, faculty and student body, a most cordial welcome back to the campus. As you renew acquaintances and make new friends you will receive a new inspiration and take pride in reviewing the accomplishments of your Alma Mater during its brief but fruitful history.

We are proud of our Alumni and feel that they will in years to come have more reason to be happy that they were permitted to be associated with the "pioneers" in establishing in Tampa the institution of higher learning that the University of Tampa is destined to become. Nowhere may there be found greater opportunity for developing such a center of learning and nowhere has there been such a demonstration of faithful and unselfish service on the part of those who have been connected with this institution during its period of development.

May each succeeding "Home Coming" bring with it greater reason for your faith and belief in your Alma Mater and greater reason for our pride in OUR ALUMNI.

M. S. HALE, Dean.

Student Body Welcome

On this our second homecoming celebration we are proud to welcome back our alumni—proud of the place they are making for themselves in the world; proud of our own advancement. We wish our alumni to keep up at all times a lively and friendly interest in us. At homecoming we feel that their contacts are more intimate, more inspiring to us, and more memorable to them. We hope that the day will be filled with interest for all. Let us all contribute to the success of the crowning events, that is to the game and to the alumni dance, by supporting these affairs with our presence.

WALTER HOY.

OUT OF THE NIGHT

Our private correspondent, Casanova, has been laying an envious eye recently upon the prancing of band-leader Monkey Rhines during the exhibitions at the football games. Monkey's lack of artistic skill with the baton is cast aside by his masterful striding, which seems to be the talk of the town.

Monkey's fast steps on the field are varied. They were no doubt, no doubt, designed, executed and perfected with the "gals" "gals" at the U. dances. These rapid paces no doubt, no doubt, demand the rhythm of the Polka. Some of his feats are comparable to the complete mastication of a piece of steak at a recent steak party accomplished by a certain Mr. Ray Hurn.

And is Joyce Turner's face red these days. Pacing and striding down the lobby lane the other day, she dropped her little hand bag so deliberately that, well... Chester Morgan, following closely behind, retrieved the fallen object onto the mezzanine floor with one continuous motion. No wonder Happy Hayes is so happy... he seems to have that undefinable charm that gives him a strange sort of magnetism with the ladies.

The football boys were guests in New Orleans at the L. S. U.-Mississippi game recently. Asked about the game, none of them could look us straight in the eye and tell us. It seems that Coach and his gridders feasted their eyes upon the ladee cheerleaders, who were more lively than the players on the field... and who wants to look at football players, anyway.

Eight sponsors will parade before the public at the game this evening. Let's all hope petite Margaret Rush will not be lost in the general scramble. Margaret, you know is one of the Tampa alumni sponsors. Perhaps someone should detail Oxo Hurn to escort her. That was a splendid selection for queen yesterday... now to make things complete someone should crown J. S. B. Coniglio king of something or other. Joe claims that royal blue blood flows in his manly veins... but we're from Missouri. Joe. Our friend Casanova had an uncle who claimed family affiliations with Napoleon... and we had to exterminate him with a shotgun.

Kisses, kisses, who wants a kiss? was the theme song recently at a surprise birthday party given for Della Pacheco and Silvia Jardon. The story goes that Bob Tramontana, first in war, first in piece and first in line for the free kisses still has red cheeks to show his friends. Tray doesn't blush much, but when he does it is hard to recover from the shock. If you see Bob Shoun wearing an unusually long face these days it is because he was absent from the party when Della was distributing the free delicacies.

Co-ed knitters have the lobby well under control these cold winter days... and the poor boys are finding it beyond their abilities to traverse the spacious lobby without tangling up with blue, red, green or pink knitting thread that covers the lobby floor (usually near the fireplace).

Orchids to all concerned... the intra-fraternal ball will at last be a reality November 25. All the red tape is out of the way; so students are busily engaged in pursuit of suitable dates for the affair.

Smell of burning wood, yellow flames licking a black chimney, crackling of splitting logs, cozy chatter, clicking of knitting needles, stacked books. What? And the answer, the warm haven in the lobby.

Nothing seems to mellow spirits more than a wood fire. People of nodding acquaintance suddenly grow conversational. Friendships deepen.

Steam heat? No! Leave us our wood fires.

Shoeless Teams Prep In Hawaii Grid Leagues

Football takes its shoes off in Hawaii, and 1375 players in the 55 teams of the barefoot leagues are limbering up their toes for the 1936 season in the islands.

The players in these shoeless leagues punt 50, 60 and even 70 yards. They drop kick and place kick accurately with their bare feet. Aside from the absence of shoes, the games are conducted in accordance with all the standard football rules.

TEACHER ILL

Dr. Barnard, instructor in English, became suddenly ill here last Monday night and was taken to the Tampa hospital. He was unable to meet classes on Tuesday and Wednesday. The nature of illness was not known Tuesday night.

GO, SPARTANS, GO!

Films Will Be Used To Aid Collegians Learn Languages

The exhibition of foreign films in universities throughout America having doubled in the past year as a valuable aid to language study has caused John S. Tapernoux, president of the French Motion Picture corporation, to announce the creation of a new student's language film department, under the supervision of N. Vaillancourt. Films of international importance, not necessarily French productions, will thus be made available to colleges everywhere in the United States.

"The new department," said Mr. Tapernoux, "will devote itself entirely to the furthering of college interests, and will feature foremost a specialized service for all language professors and language organizations."

"We hope, in this way, to further increase college business to the extent that we shall be in a position to demand, and receive, more foreign films having college texts, than has ever before been available in America. Increased interests by students and professors in the foreign cinema must necessarily result in a larger number of outstanding film importations during the latter part of this year, and in the future."

Special film requirements and problems facing language classes will be immediately attended to by the new department executive, N. Vaillancourt.

Co-ed at Southern Extends Invitation

Editor's note: The following letter was received by the Minaret this week from a co-ed of Southern college in Lakeland.

Dear Editor,
Of course Tampa university is the best college—besides Southern. Southern is really "going places" this year. We started the year by having a good crop of freshmen, and "rats" will always be amusing. And by the way, do the Tampa U. freshmen show a flair for independence and look at upper classmen with scorn? The ones here do, and we have a time trying to keep them impressed!

Southern's campus is being beautified, and it will look fine if we give the grass and shrubbery a chance to grow. Besides our citrus fruit one thing of interest here at Southern is are strawberry plants which are used as a border for our walks. I'll bet you can't boast of something like that. Come on over, and I'll treat you—to an orange!

We now have two national sororities on our campus. Chapters of Delta Zeta and Alpha Chi Omega. These sororities are doing well, and we are proud of them.

Southern feels like strutting since gymnasium is well on its way, and the new dormitory was finished. The plans are being made for a new entrance road.

Please pardon the boasting; we're just proud of our college and would like for you to come to see us!

Yours very truly,

A SOUTHERN CO-ED.

Why didn't you shave this morning?

I thought I did but there were 12 of us using the same mirror this morning and I must have shaved some other guy.

MUEZZIN CALLS

HEART CHANGE

I opened wide the windows of my heart one day
When warm October winds were sweeping by
In fitful gusts to tease the autumn leaves at play
Upon the grass; and from the cloudless sky,
The radiance of the sun was dazzling to the eye.

Into a hidden corner, so remote and dark
That light had penetrated ne'er before,
The sunbeam of your love, a fragile glowing spark,
Imbedded there; and to the very core
Of me I felt its light, and loved you more and more.

But when the dusk drew nigh, so stealthily and cold,
My windows still were open to the air;
And some ill wind, on malice bent, grew bold
And entered: chilled the love-spark hidden there
Until it died, and left my heart all dark and bare.

So now, alone within my heart I find
No more this love of yours and mine that used to be;
I hear without, the sighing of the wind,
The steady sobbing sorrow of the sea
Mixed with love's outworn reminiscent melody.
MARY FRANCES O'BERRY.

COME? LET US WATCH

Come, let us watch the moon rise from the gate!
We'll think not of the future or the past;
Or how the world is breaking much too fast
Upon intolerant rocks of ruthless hate...
Come, let us watch before it is too late!
This youth (in which we revel) will not last;
And age's sober shadow will be cast
Upon us with tenaciousness sedate...
Come, let us watch the mounting, autumn moon!
There is no time to linger or to waste;
No time to wander with a cherished tune
Thru rural streets where leaves are raked and placed...
Come, let us watch and carve a haven hour
Out of the granite of life's grudging power.

SPARTANS WILL CLOSE SEASON WITH KENTUCKY

The curtain will fall on the 1936 schedule of the Spartans December 5, when Coach Nash Higgins' warriors will battle the Western Kentucky Teachers here in the only afternoon game that the Spartans will play at home this season. The Teachers last year upset the Spartans 18-0 in a Thanksgiving Day intersectional game played in Bowling Green, Kentucky. The Kentuckians have been among the leaders of the SIAA conference for the last few years, and they should give Tampans a thrilling afternoon in their first appearance in Florida. Judging from the records of the two teams so far this season, the Spartans should rule slight favorites. The Kentucky record this year is not very impressive, while Tampa U. is enjoying one of its best seasons in its brief history.

Good Will Tokens

When the Spartans journeyed to Blue Grass state last winter they carried with them several boxes of Florida oranges and a live Florida alligator to present to their opponents before the game as tokens of goodwill. Members of the football squad who were on that trip will not forget very easily the turmoil that arose in the bus when the gator broke out of his cage and decided to take a stroll through the dangling legs of the players, until he was returned to his abode by the sturdy hand of Willie Godwin.

This year the Kentucky boys are not forgetting their Florida rivals. Officials of the team have announced that they will bring to the Tampa team something characteristic of Kentucky. The teachers will bring with them a collection of horseshoes worn by famous race horses in the great race tracks of that state.

Volleyball games in the women's intramural league scheduled for this week were postponed until after the Homecoming celebration.

The Sigma Theta Phi were to meet the strong freshman team on Tuesday and a good fight was expected. Holding first place with the Delta Kappa team, the Freshmen girls do not want a defeat at the hands of any other team to mar their record.

These two teams, the Delta Kappas and the Freshmen, are scheduled to meet after the postponed games are played off. This game will decide who is to lead the league in the largest number of victories.

A second round will be played before the champions are determined. Every team meets every other team at least twice during the tournament.

The league standing is as follows:

	W.	L.
Delta Kappas	1	0

Ping pong enthusiasts are fighting for the top place in the "Pyramid" tournament which started last week.

Miss Helen Windham drew the number one position at the top of the pyramid at the start of play, but lost her place to Miss Betty Dickinson, who came up from the third row on the board by a win over Miss Martha Franco with close scores of 21-12, 21-15.

Miss Jeanie Trice moved up from the fourth to the third row by a win over Miss Olive Castro, and Miss Marjorie Dennis advanced to a higher row by defeating Miss Legia Vega.

After a five-week period, one week of which has already passed, the player holding the number one position at the top of the pyramid will be declared champion. The period closes Saturday, Dec. 12.

If a player has not played at least one match in two weeks, her name is automatically dropped from the board.

Mrs. Selina Klein, director of women's athletics, has begun to take an account of the material she will have for the varsity and freshman basketball teams this coming season. In all probability, both teams will enter the city recreation basketball league for women, playing in separate divisions.

Intramural basketball contests will provide opportunity for selection of players to represent the university in the city tournament.

Spartans Lose Ed. Carter; Was Most Valuable Player

The University of Tampa Spartans have lost the services of one of their most valuable gridders—Ed Carter, who has completed his grid career for all-time because of an injured leg which prevents him from playing.

The veteran quarterback hurt his leg early in the training season this year, but with determined effort he kept on playing for the first few games this season. Although the injured leg pained him dreadfully, Carter continued to turn in splendid performances for the Tampa eleven. But about two weeks ago, Ed wrenched his bad leg in a tough practice session and has been on crutches since.

A senior this year, he will be one of the several Spartan veterans who graduate next June.

Carter has been praised for his playing by every one who has ever seen him in action. Although not spectacular, he is the most consistent player on the team.

Here is what Coach Nash Higgins thinks of him: "Carter is one of the best players ever to play on the University of Tampa team. He is a good blocker, a fine defensive player and is always consistent. We miss him lots."

When spectators see the brilliant back, Rudy Rodriguez, streaking down the field for large gains, they usually see Carter in front of him leading a beautiful interference. Carter is one of the best blockers in the smaller colleges of the south, and has substantially aided the Spartans in establishing the record they have.

He played fullback for Plant high school several years ago. In 1932, he was outstanding on the Tampa Junior college team, the forerunner of the University of Tampa Spartans eleven. He is five feet, 10 inches in height and weighs 175 pounds.

He was shifted to quarterback when the first Spartan varsity squad was organized. He has proved a heady field general, speedy safety man and a general all-around defensive man.

Last year Carter was awarded the Junior Chamber of Commerce medal for being the "most valuable" player on the University of Tampa squad. The selection was made by vote of the players themselves.

in the PRESS BOX with HAMPTON DUNN

After charging that the University of Miami, in order to get a first-class grid team, has "sent out of the State and got top-notch prospects," Wilson "Red" McGee, sports editor of the Orlando Reporter-Star, is wondering very much how and where the University of Tampa has got such a good freshman team this year.

"Will the other small colleges in the state keep step with Miami in their rise to football prominence?" he asks in his daily column "Big Time Stuff." "One of them will anyway. That team is the football squad of the University of Tampa. Rollins will roll along with their usual teams and so will Stetson, but not Tampa."

The Central Florida sports writer continues: "Tampa's coach, Nash Higgins, has the dnerdest freshman squad you ever saw this year. It is huge in size and plenty smart. Where did the players come from. They didn't come from Florida, we'll tell you that. What induced them to attend Tampa U? That is another story."

"Financially, Tampa U. is not so well off. Nash Higgins makes so little on his job that he has to become affiliated with the recreation department, be president of this and president of that to earn his daily bread. What induced the players? You tell us, we'd like to know!"

Then Mr. McGee goes on to comment on the future prospects of the Spartans. "Tampa fought Miami to a 0-0 standstill this year," he says. "With their freshman squad coming up, the Tampans will lick the socks off any member of 'Florida's Little Four' and give the 'Gators' a bad afternoon any day in the season."

Personally we think the Orlando writer is slightly unfair in his charges, probably because he is biased in his opinion as Rollins is next door to Orlando. A glance at the roster of the Baby Spartans will reveal that most of the boys are from Tampa and the west coast of Florida.

For instance, the mainstays of the backfields of both Plant and Hillsborough last year are proudly representing the U. of Tampa this year. Lit Velasco, flashy Terrier back, and Billy McDuffie, Plant ace, are doing nice work for the yearlings here.

Only one or two are from out-of-state and if it is their desire to come south and go to school, there should be no objection.

Coach Higgins is interested only in producing a good football team to represent Tampa U. and he has the right to use any method, as long as its fair, to get the best players he can for the Spartan squad.

Women's A. A. Holds Meeting for Organization

The executive board of the Women's Athletic association of the university met last Wednesday for the purpose of drawing up a constitution for the organization.

At the next meeting of the association the constitution will be read to the members who will then be given an opportunity for discussion of the paper and will be allowed to vote for or against its adoption.

Those present at the meeting were Miss Mary Eve, president; Miss Dorothy Talbot, vice president; Miss Jeannie Trice, secretary; Miss Marjorie Dennis, treasurer; Miss Marjorie DeWolf and Miss Frances Keating, class managers.

IT ISN'T FUNNY—

To laugh at another's expense.
To laugh at your own jokes.
To point out another's faults.
To bring up old gossip about a person who has redeemed himself.
To play practical jokes.
To say unkind things.
To make a fool of yourself in public.

INTRAMURAL RESULTS

The intramural touch football race was thrown into a wide open affair last week as the strong Rho Nu Delta team, which has been setting the pace for the league since the early part of the season, was tied in two contests by Tau Omega and Beta Chi.

League Standing

Team	W.	L.	T.	Pct.
Rho Nu Delta	5	0	2	1.000
Tau Omega	3	1	2	.750
Sigma Kappa Nu	3	2	0	.600
Sigma Epsilon	2	4	0	.333
Beta Chi	1	3	2	.250
Plebes	0	4	2	.000

Leading scorers:

Name	Points
A. Ramirez, R. N. D.	37
Toulme, T. O.	27
Prado, R. N. D.	24
Schaub, S. K. N.	24
Wilkerson, S. E.	19
Ginesta, R. N. D.	16
Rhines, T. O.	13

Rho Nu Delta 6, Tau Omega 6

Rho Nu Delta, leading candidates for touch football supremacy at the University this year, were tied for the first time this season by an alert team of Tau Omega fraternity by a 6-6 score. It was the first time that the Rho Nu Delta goal line was crossed this season. The T. O.'s took the lead in the first half when Virgil Harris tallied on a well executed hide-out pass from Rhines. Prado, Rho Nu Delta wingman, who was the star of the game, scored for Rho Nu Delta on a long pass from Ramirez. Rho Nu Delta made a desperate attempt to break the deadlock in the closing minutes of the game, and the final whistle found them perched on the T. O. two-yard line after they had completed two long passes from Ramirez to Prado.

Sigma Eps 19, Plebes 7

Displaying a strong offense which has been lacking in the team in previous games, the Sigma Epsilon Engineers took the measure of the lowly Plebes, 19-7. Fine blocking by Love and Morgan paved the way for all of the Engineer's scores. Turner scored twice and Hunter once for the

S. E. team, while Keathley tallied for the Plebes.

Castellano's fine punting for the Plebes was one of the outstanding features of the game.

Rho Nu Delta, Beta Chi Tie

Rallying in the last four minutes of the game to score 13 points, an inspired Beta Chi team fought the league leading Rho Nu Delta team to a 13-13 deadlock last week. Two passes from Cocke, one to Jordan and one to Pittman scored for Beta Chi.

Rho Nu Delta breezed to an early lead of 13 points during the first half, but was completely outplayed in the last quarter. The Rho Nu Delta scores were made by Ginesta and Prado as the result of passes.

It was the second successive tie game for the leaders this week.

Tau Omega 19, Sigma Eps, 7

The strong Tau Omega team, minus the services of Monkey Rhines, who was suspended last week by the Intramural Board for the next three games, romped to an easy victory Tuesday over the Sigma Eps team. The T. O.'s took an early lead and were never in danger.

Linus Upson, T. O. back, threw all three of the touchdown passes for his team, Toulme scoring twice and Harris once.

Rho Nu Deltas 7, Plebes 0

Rho Nu Delta continued to show poor form as they won a close game from the last place Plebes Tuesday by a 7-0 score. The Rho Nu Delta touchdown came three minutes from the end of the game as a result of long pass from Ramirez to Sierra, after the Plebes had outplayed the league leaders throughout the game. The victory marked the fifth win for Rho Nu Delta, who are the only undefeated team in the league. Ginesta, R. N. D. end, was the outstanding player of the game.

For the Plebes Castellano continued his fine punting and passing, his long kicks time and again keeping the winners within a few yards of their own goal.

Spartanettes Lose to State Volley Ball Champs

Holtsinger's women volleyball players, the Florida state champions, crushed the Spartanette sextet of the university, 15-3, 15-7, at the Lee playground last Tuesday night.

The Spartanettes won the toss and elected to serve first. They won the first three points of the match, but lost the ball and the game in almost straight points to their opponents whose excellent teamwork is unequaled in the state.

In the second game the varsity girls managed to score 7 points but not until Holtsinger had as many. The Spartanettes were unable to hold their own, however, and lost the match in two straight games.

Those playing in the match from the university were Legia Vega, Olive Castro, Martha Franco, Adelfa Diaz, Leila Turner Clark, Waverly Floyd, Elisa Alvarez, Betty LeDuc, Carmen Fernandez and Dorothy Talbot.

On the Holtsinger team were Emaline Noa, Florence Duggan, Mercedes Fernandez, Olympia Diaz, Zoraida Diaz and Julia Lane.

THE SOCIAL SPOTLIGHT THIS WEEK

By FIFI

Dear Annette:

A big surprise is in store for someone! A Queen of Tampa University is to share honors with Miss Margaret Rush and Miss Dorothy Fox at the dance to be given at the Davis Islands Country Club tonight. Preceding this alumni dance Miss Rush and Miss Fox will sponsor the football game for the Spartan team representing the alumni association.

Miss Rush will wear a green alpaca crepe gown made along princess lines, and also featuring a high neckline with gold clips fastening at the shoulder. Her Schaperilli Cap will be of brown suede which matches her other accessories.

Miss Fox will wear a stylish model of green crepe faille, made with a gored skirt, shirred bodice, and square set-in sleeves with flat opaque buttons extending down to the wrist. Her brown hat which is ornamented with a single bow at the crown, matches her other accessories.

You will be interested in hearing about the annual banquet for the "Homecomers" at the Crystal Dining Room of the Tampa Terrace Hotel! Ed. Carter is to share honors with the other special guests, which include Dean and Mrs. M. S. Hale and Coach and Mrs. Nash Higgins. Mr. Miller Adams, president of the Alumni Association, will act as Master of Ceremonies.

The Thanksgiving motif will be used in the decoration of the dining table. Place cards for each guest will consist of small printed tickets.

Oh, yes! Congratulations are in line for three other young ladies, who are to be sponsors. The inter-fraternity dance is just around the corner so the fraters have chosen their sponsors for this affair. Miss Roslyn Morgan will represent the Beta Chi Fraternity, and will be escorted by Willie Godwin. The Tau Omegas have chosen Miss Ruth Alexander as their sponsor. Rudy Rodriguez will escort her. The third to be congratulated is Miss Virginia Morrow, who will be escorted by Phil Patterson, and has been elected as Sigma Kappa Nu sponsor.

This is an event we hope no one will have to miss! Just think—Forest Hills Country Club, Frank Grassie's Orchestra, and everything including the stars up above!

The Rho Nu Delta's are having a luncheon today at the Brackett Grill for their members, pledges and alumni members. Don Giunta, former president of the fraternity, will be among those returning to take part in the social activities of the week-end.

All in all this is going to be a week-end to be remembered! We all like to return home. We like to gather our friends around us and tell them of all the wonderful things we have done. For this reason we enjoy these alumni reunions. We are proud of our school, and the alumni should show their appreciation by making these reunions a success, and by so living as to merit the respect of all who follow in their footsteps.

Yours,
FIFI.

Freshmen Win From Abraham-Baldwin

The University of Tampa football team won its second game of the season last week when they defeated the strong Abraham Baldwin eleven 6-0 in Tifton, Ga., last Saturday. Abraham Baldwin upset the Baby Spartans in Tampa last year in the first meeting of the two schools.

Coach John Edison was well pleased with the work of his boys both on offense and defense, and he is now getting the team ready for their important meeting with the Stetson Rams in early December.

The Stetson freshmen will have the strongest team that the Baby Spartans will face this season. Stetson played the strong Miami university freshmen to a 13-13 deadlock Armistice day. The Miami yearlings who have a squad of 30 men, recently beat the Rollins Baby Tars by 14-0. The Baby Tars also lost to the Tampa U. freshmen by 6-0 here.

In the game in Tifton, Bittie McDuffie crossed the goal line late in the game after having threatened to score on several occasions. A lateral from Phil Thomas to Mumbauer had placed the ball in position for the tally.

The Baby Spartans lost the services of Paul Alfieri in the game, who received a bad injury to his ankle and knee.

We'll have to teach these freshman girls wrong from right. Okay, pal, you teach them what's right.

Delta Kappa To Fete Pledges at Breakfast Party

Members of the Delta Kappa sorority entertained last Saturday night with a girls' bid dance in the University ballroom. The dance lasted from 9 until 12 p. m., and music was furnished by Bob Porton's orchestra. Hostesses were Stella Rogers, Mary Ann Sampey, Blanche Sessions and Jeanie Trice. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Nava, and Mrs. Louise Barr were chaperons.

Next Thursday morning the sorority will entertain their pledges with a Thanksgiving breakfast at 9:30 at William Parr's Drug Store. The colors of the sorority will be carried out in the center piece of red and white flowers on the table, and the corsages at each place.

Honor guests will be the following: Katherine Jane Armstrong, Ella Berry, Lucille Bull, Minna Dennis, Suzanne Jackson, Gladys Jacobs, Waverly Floyd, Jane White, Leona Wagner, Dorothy Orr, Joyce Turner, Peggy Neef, Ann McCurdy, Evelyn Robson.

The following active and alumnae members of the sorority will be hostesses: Jeanie Trice, Margie Dennis, Mary Ann Sampey, Stella Rogers, Helen Windham, Betty Jo Mims, Betty Dickinson, Blanche Sessions, Lois McGucken, Mary Eve, Carmen Moran, Jane Pearson, Priscilla Henderson, Laura Ellen Webb, Virginia Morrow, Kitty Lea, Ginger Roberts, Dorothy Pou, Martha Powell, Charleen Leonard, Maurine Powell, Marguerite Howard, Edna Frances Prince, Irene Haas, Margaret Rush, Helen Knight, Marguerite Litschgi, Daisy Stubbs.

At a recent meeting of the sorority Carmen Moran was elected parliamentarian to fill the vacancy left by Louise Taylor.

Hundreds Pay Visit To Museum Here

University co-eds who work in the museum have had a busy week guiding approximately three hundred people through the 10 rooms of the museum. There have been many interesting visitors, among them the consul from Honduras. Practically all marveled at the valuable pieces, and many complimented the University for the progress it has made.

The registration book shows that people came from twenty-four states and five foreign countries which were: Germany, Mexico, Canada, Italy and Honduras.

The ruby red and flaming yellow majolica vase and the Venetian mirrors attracted the most notice. Visitors were also interested in the French furniture. The French table with 1700 pieces of inlaid natural colored woods drew much attention.

Students working in the museum are writing a folder. This will contain stories of pieces in the museum, will tell the history of the Tampa Bay hotel, and birth of the University. Each visitor will receive a folder.

A new sign over the entrance of the University welcomes people to the museum. Students working in the museum are: Ann McCurdy, Leila Turner Clark, Marion Gunn, Waverly Floyd, Marjorie DeWolf and George Giglia.

There is no medical aid supplied by English colleges for injured athletes, asserts the "Crimson and White." Don't they play football over there?

An exchange points out that the only difference between the student body and the faculty is that one of them is intelligent. That's what we've always thought too, but gee, we didn't want to rub it in, because the faculty does work hard.

Frogmore: "I wonder what has become of the old-fashioned mother who spanked her son for smoking cigarettes?"

Fishneck: "Oh, she's the grandmother who spans her grandson for swiping her cigarettes."

Charter Is Presented To Tau Omega Frat

The Tau Omega fraternity made plans to enter wholeheartedly into making the inter-fraternity dance a success at its last meeting. Miss Ruth Alexander was elected to represent the fraternity as a sponsor for the event. She will be escorted by Rudy Rodriguez. Ed Means has taken a leading part in planning the dance and has requested all members and pledges to support the undertaking.

The standing of the fraternity scholastically has been computed by Carl Dahm since the end of the last grade period. The average mark for the members was one point higher than that of the pledges, and the mean average is approximately 76. High man among the pledges on grades was Richard Powell. The majority of the pledges are well above the 12-hours-of-"C" requirement.

Although there was a slight delay in receiving the charter, the document is now a definite possession. It was granted on basis of purposes set forth in the petition and constitution and named 18 students as charter members.

Members who have taken part in intramural football have been able to develop a fairly successful team. Those usually seeing action in the games are Milford Rhines, Linus Upson, William Hand, Jimmy Lindsay, Jay Toulme, Virgil Harris, in the backfield; Wilmet Paxton, Albert Hand, Albert King, Carl Dahm, Bob Shoun, Edgar Andrews and Ronald Graf on the line.

Sigma Kappa Nus Have Pledge Court

The Sigma Kappa Nu fraternity held a guidance court last Tuesday at the University for their pledges who are Billy Handly, Albert Massey, Louis Houston, Henry Roberts, Bob Thomas, Spencer Diamond and Alfred Manney.

Albert Massey, president of the pledges, gave a report of the pledge meetings to the members while Bruce Kelly presided.

After the court the members of the fraternity discussed plans for the inter-fraternity dance. Miss Virginia Morrow will represent the Sigma Kappa Nu's as their sponsor for this affair.

Plans for the annual Christmas dance given by this fraternity will be discussed in the next meeting.

School Art Exhibit Held in University

University of Tampa for the last two weeks has been host to the Public School Art Exhibit. Miss Blanch Cahoon, supervisor of the art exhibit, stated that all drawings and paintings were made by children ranging in age from six years to high school age. Children were encouraged to use their creative and imaginative ability. Free expression in drawing was stressed to the pupils by the teachers in the Tampa Public Schools.

The art exhibit was opened one night with approximately 200 people visiting it at that time. Pupils from Hillsborough high school presented a puppet show entitled "Punch and Judy."

Several members of the Plant high school band provided music for the occasion.

Sigma Theta Phis Will Play Santa To Needy Families

The Sigma Theta Phi sorority held its regular meeting at the University with a large number of members and alumni present. Miss Charlotte Anne Thompson, sorority sponsor, gave a very interesting talk upon the aims and purposes of the sorority. She also offered many helpful suggestions for activities during the coming year. The sorority made plans for a Thanksgiving basket which is to be given to some needy family.

A sorority scrapbook, containing all news of the sorority, is to be kept by Winnifred Watson and Mildred Allison. The annual magazine of the sorority is to be under the leadership of Lelia Gibbs, who has taken an active part in the printing of past issues. Helping her will be three members, chosen from the pledges, active members, and alumni.

The sorority has planned to give Christmas gifts to a family and a committee composed of Verna Vining, Wenona Manson and Margaret Hitchcock was appointed to make complete plans for this.

An active interest is being taken in the homecoming plans for this week-end. The next regular meeting will be held Tuesday night at the University.

Rho Nu Delta Has Luncheon Today

The Rho Nu Delta fraternity will have its own miniature homecoming this afternoon when it will entertain several of the fraternity alumni in a luncheon at the Brackett Grill. Many of the old members of the organization have accepted the invitation to the affair.

One of the speakers will be D. Valenti Giunta, former president of the organization, who will come down from Gainesville for the occasion. Mario and Hugo Zacchini, stars of the human bullet act of the Ringling Brothers circus, will also be honored guests.

Plans for the annual Charter Night banquet of the fraternity are almost complete. The banquet will be held either at the Columbia restaurant or the El Pasaje restaurant in Ybor City Dec. 18. It will be the most important function of the fraternity this semester.

Pledges of the fraternity are planning a party for members and their dates sometime in the near future. In the meeting last week the pledges elected officers. Armando Corcos was elected president, Guy Cutolo, vice president, and Jack Alvarez, secretary-treasurer.

Beta Chi Frat Will Have Luncheon for Alumni

The Beta Chi fraternity will observe homecoming with a luncheon today for its members and alumni. Al Yorkunas, Earl Hatcher, Bill Pittman and Albert Day have arranged a program of entertainment which will precede the luncheon.

Final plans were made for the inter-fraternity dance and a committee was appointed to decorate a float for the homecoming parade. A business meeting will be held next week at the university.

Welcome Alumni!! With all the former students here today, it seems like old times. . . Chrysanthemums to the gay and lively Dot Pou and the gorjus, blonde Margaret Rush, alumni sponsors. Miss Pou will be escorted by Miles Russell and Miss Rush-Joe Wilson. The crowd will beat a trail from the parade to the banquet from the game to the dance and wotta dance, wait'n'see!! Some former students back on the campus are the John Smileys, Clarence Young, Edenia Delaney, and Edith McLeod.

We don't need a homecoming to get us worked up; these on-coming marriages are enough. Our Dr. Barnard, the living Shelly, has confessed of his urning-ba-uve-la for his fiancé. The Doc's been engaged for three and a half years but he hopes "it won't be three'n'half more." The wife-to-be is Brilliant, Beautiful, and Bakes the best biscuits you ever tasted. She was a student of the prof's in a college up Nawth. . . Which reminds us—what faculty member thinks the Southern gals are—sil and what other faculty member agrees? . . . Another Tampa U-er is altar bound in the near, near future!!

Seen in Scenes: Dr. Bode directing traffic on Armistice Day. . . Krist paying more attention to Minna than to the game—well? . . . Edna Johnson and Red Means lingering on corners Franklin and Madison. . . Harold Balcom sailing 'round the bay. . . Betty Jo Mims eating peanuts at the circus. . . Marvin Chancey and Howard Stephens eyeing the gal on the flying trapeeze. . . Kitty Lea, former Deke pres. and Majorie Dennis, present vice-pres., acquiring horse sense at the Derby Duster open house. . . Lucile Bull and Anne McCurdy seasawing at Ballast Point park. . . Leona Wagner and Waverly Floyd doing same at Plant park. . . Dean Hale watching Santa Claus come to town in a seaplane. . . Dot Bradley romancing on church steps.

Eddy Torial says Tampa U oughta start right quick-like on the Moroccan so we can get 'em before school lets out. . . Congrats to the cheer leaders whose hard work comes not only during the games but during extensive hours of practice. . . One leader has turned her affectionate cheering toward Albert Massey—it's not Mary Frances and it's not Mary Ann, so— . . . Martha Powell is doing all right. Watch her and Carr swing it tonite! . . . The Deke dance last Saturday was a swell. . . Elks—nuff sed! . . . Two Tampa U ribs (that's the American lingo for femme) hopped off the trolley to catch a ride with a friend. When they reached the place where the car was parked the friend was gone. The gals were flat so they had to hoof it home. . . The inter-fraternity dance will be a gala affair—confratulations to the three sponsors.

Sounds in the Lobby:

Dormer: I just brought home a skunk.

Roommate: Where ya gonna keep him?

Dormer: I'm gonna tie him under the bed.

Roommate: What about the smell?

Dormer: He'll have to get use to it like I did.
