FURNACE FIRE GIVES ODOR AND WARMTH

Students Flock To Rec. Room for Good Old Heat

It was on the afternoon of Friday, Feb. 26, that university students hanging around the lobby noticed several things:

One: There was no fire in the fireplace.

Two: People were flocking towards the recreation room.

When they, too, followed the gang to the student hall they noticed two more things:

One: There was a slight oily odor present.

Two: It was definitely warmer than the lobby.

It took quite a bit of investigating and snooping around Sherlock Holmes' style before a grate was discovered in the floor, from which both the odor and the warmth were coming.

Further investigation revealed that a furnace had been installed in the book room, something more than jive to keep the students warm!

As soon as the first smelly stage was over, students began to gather around the grate, some sitting directly over it, others taking a stand on it.

But this didn't last very long. When a new odor of rubber permeated the air, students discovered with alarm that the marks of the grate were slowly but surely causing a new rubber shortage on the bottoms of their crepe-soles and saddle-oxfords.

Now everyone understands, respects, and admires the furnace; but the students are think now that it would be a good idea for the library, too.

Jane Hughey Chosen Delta Kappa Sorority Outstanding Pledge

Formal pledging of the Delta Kappa sorority was held at the home of Ellen Mooney, 4703 Bayshore blvd. The pledging ceremony, which was preceded by a short business meeting of the members, was held at 8 o'clock. The pledges are Martha Goddard, Peggy Lewis, Dot Holcomb, Julia Hayman and Lois Sanchez.

The new members of the sorority were guests of honor at a banquet and dance on Friday night at the Hillsboro roof garden. The sorority colors of red and white were featured in the decorations, and the new members were presented corsages of white chrysanthemums tied with red ribbons, and a box of sorority stationery. The place-cards were in the form of a member pin in gold on a background of a gray shield to represent the past during the banquet.

Mrs. Connally, the sorority sponsor, presented a bracelet bearing the emblem of the sorority to Miss Jane Hughey, who was elected as the outstanding pledge. Miss Dorothy Hill was in charge of arrangements for the banquet, and other committees were: Misses Elsie Gill and Mary Cantrell, place cards; Sooky Jackson, Gregory Lucas Leaves Tampa U.

Gregory Lucas, head trainer at Tampa U., left school Monday to take up similar duties with the Birmingham Barons, Cincinnati Reds Southern Association farm team.

"Doc" began his career at the university as assistant trainer in 1933. He was named freshman trainer in 1936 and took over the job of head trainer in 1937. He has spent two years in the medical corps of the 116th field artillery and expects to enter the army medical corps at the close of the baseball season in September.

Lucas is a member of the Professional Baseball Players of America. This is his second year with the Birmingham club.

Charles Heinmiller

SKN'S NAME HEINMILLER AS BEST PLEDGE

At their weekly meeting Monday night the Sigma Kappa Nu fraternity announced their outstanding pledge and completed plans for their annual daughter's day celebration. Charles Heinmiller will be presented the ring given annually by Rabbi Zielonko to the outstanding pledge. This ring will be given to Charlie at the annual daughter's day luncheon. It is particularly noteworthy that Charlie should win this honor. In addition to being an accomplished musician on both trombone and piano, Charlie has found time to work and be an A student.

Extensive plans have been made for a new and different daughter's day theme. The daughters will be notified

MULLIN HEADS COURSES IN NAVAL ROTC

Many Naval Courses Are To Be Given

Under the supervision of John O. Mullin, several courses in naval R. O. T. C. have been organized in the university.

A course in navigation gives instructions as to how the instruments of navigation such as the compass are used. It also takes up the study of types of time, coast piloting and the use of the nautical almanac. All navigation is based on these things.

Two subjects are combined in one in the course called, seamanship and communication—seamanship includes the rules of the road and small boat handling. Communication teaches the elements of naval communication. It includes the international flag code, radio and light signals, and sending and receiving of Morse and Semaphore codes.

The text used for all courses is the bluejacket, which, according to Mr. Mullin is "the enlisted man's Bible." It is used throughout the navy. There will also be supplementary outlines and notes for study.

Each course meets two hours weekly and gives one credit hour.

A great many of the students in these classes are going into naval reserve, but anyone interested may take the V-5 and V-7 courses no matter what their major is.

Mr. Mullin hopes to have his V-5 and V-7 students organize a separate platoon "and really stand out" at drill.

Later on more courses in naval R. O. T. C. will be added until Tampa U. has a course similar to regular naval R. O. T. C. courses in other universities.

Our dearly loved, incomparable Poppa, Dean Harry Dobson was called to the boys' dormitory Tuesday afternoon at five minutes after 4 o'clock and presented a large box by the boys of the third and fourth floors.

Dean Dobson, unsuspectingly, began delving into the mass of papers found therein. Finally, at the bottom of the box, he discovered various paper packages tied with rope. After untying a number of them and uttering typical Dobsonian phrases, he found in the last one a small match box. By this time our hero believed the whole thing to be a hoax. However, much to his astonishment, when he opened the match box, he found a $40 check good for merchandise at Wolf Brothers with the following note attached:

"Dear Pop—you old thing:

"Us guys been thinking that that rag of yours off long enough to get it cleaned is to provide you with "sumpthin" other than a barrel to hide your maidenly (?) figure."

At this opportune moment boys simultaneously poured from closets, from under beds and dressers, from behind curtains and doors and all began singing in harmonious and in-harmonious voices, "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow." Our Dean, for one of the few times in his life, was speechless. Really! Really! Really!

Wednesday afternoon he and a number of his friends journeyed to the city to purchase "the suit." He "esquired" it Friday night at the Delta Kappa dance with suave and many charm.

Your reporter takes this opportunity in behalf of Dean Dobson to extend his sincere appreciation and gratitude for the splendid generosity extended to him by the boys of the third and fourth floor dormitory.

Alpha Psi Omega Initiates 2 Members

After the ceremony refreshments were served. Decorations carried out the Alpha Psi Omega color motif of amber and blue.

T. U. STUDENTS MAKE PLANS FOR U. S. WAR EFFORT

Many Change Course To Contribute

At the University of Tampa, the student's needs are being reevaluated in terms of the war. President Mooney announced that all students are reorganizing their curricula so that they will be able to make more effective contributions to America's war effort.

The university will have the assistance of a new series of publications, War Service Opportunities for College and University Students, to be issued by the American Council on Education.

This new service recognizes the army's need for thoroughly trained personnel, while at the same time, it is based on a realistic view of student differences in ability, interests and preparation.

An important feature of the program has been made possible through the cooperation of the United States army officers stationed at MacDill and Drew fields. They have addressed the university assembly and smaller student groups on training men to perform specialized types of service in the army.

A summary report to be issued as a special bulletin will seek to answer three questions: "1. What are the training needs in enlisted personnel of the armed forces for which college training may be beneficial? 2. What pre-induction education would be beneficial to men entering the armed forces after one or two years of college? 3. To what extent are the armed services conducting their own training programs to meet these needs?"

This program will be put into effect as soon as complete arrangements have been made.

TO "POPPA" DOBSON

We, the Minaret staff, speaking for the student body, just want to let you know how much we appreciate all that you have done for us and all that you have been to us.

Ever since you first graced the halls of Tampa U. with your inimitable walk you have been a constant source of inspiration to us all. No professor in Tampa U. has ever, or will ever, have to complete admiration of the students which you hold.

We congratulate the dorm boys for their show of esteem for you by their presentation last week. If we had our way, we'd have you in sables and pearls with a crown on your noble brow.
THE MINARET STAFF.

DATE: Every Sunday Afternoon
TIME: 3 P. M.
PLACE: Municipal Auditorium

No, it is not a tea or anything like that, but more important, the weekly "Concert and Community Sing." This is sponsored by the University of Tampa and the City Recreational Department.

It is not what comes to most people's minds when the word "concert" is mentioned, so come from behind those pillars. But, really, why stay at home and sleep when you can listen to the Boogie Woogie and the Conga mixed in with a few Strauss Waltzes?

Honestly, that is a fact. The University Band is under the direction of the capable Professor Wiltze, and he so arranges the program as to suit everyone's taste. If you like that tantalizing Spanish music, the Hungarian Rhapsodies, or perhaps the modern music found in today's "road houses," just come to the Sunday Afternoon Concerts, and you will get a combination of all of these different types of music. One selection of some foreign country is usually included in the program, too. This piece usually describes the different moods of the people found in these foreign lands.

Let's all come out this Sunday afternoon and sing as long and loud as you can. It is really fun, and incidentally a great moral builder. And besides that it is a grand get-together. Let's all come this Sunday and "SING, AMERICA, SING."

Just in case you would like to know just who plays in the band, here are the band members and their respective instruments:

TRUMPET: Robert Price, Marie Hauswrath, Frank Fagan, David Webb, Lee Beinhorn, Robert Wilson.

OBOE: Mary Cantrell, Glen McRae.

SAXOPHONE: William Webb, Dora Anne Berry.

FLUTE: Beverly Bond, Norman Light.

TROMBONE: Charles Heinmueller, Robert Brets, Haze Carlton.

BARITONE: Roy Parodie.

BASE HORN: Eleanor Fisk, Page Nickols, Dante Bernardino.

FRENCH HORN: Dick Dazniak, Ruth Morgan, Marie Lewis, Don Storms.

DRUMS: Fred Linfesty, John Brockman, Bill Hays.

READ THE BULLETIN BOARDS

How many students never know what's going on around here just because they fail to read the bulletin board?

Many announcements of great importance are made through this source and should be seen by all of us. Faculty notices, sorority and fraternity announcements, lost and found items, and notes from the administration are placed in the lobby for the convenience of faculty and students.

Why not make it a twice daily habit to read over the bulletin boards. Don't miss anything—be on time to meetings or at least know they're being held! Why not cooperate and get a little more out of life? Do this little thing—read notices!

Roll Out The Barrel

This Week In Defense

One of the effects of our war effort has been the fact that certain workers lose their jobs temporarily because of conversion of civilian industry to war production. President Roosevelt has asked congress for $300,000,000 to aid workers who lose their jobs temporarily.

In connection with this readjustment, our university has been doing an important job in Tampa. The University of Tampa, both through her regular college courses and through the free defense courses offered by the University of Tampa in cooperation with the University of Florida, has made it possible for many men to readjust themselves to defense work.

Students at the university may do their part in this readjustment program by referring persons unemployed because of this conversion to the university of Tampa. Each individual so referred will be given a personal interview, his background checked, and an attempt made to re-evaluate his abilities and training along the lines of defense production.

In this program we will help the individual and the war effort.

Poor Esmeralda The Rat Is Dead

Whenever you hear any of the boys in the dorm talking about "Esmeralda" don't be alarmed! Esmeralda is none other than one of the rats that used to live in the rooms of Jimmy Whitehead and "Butch" Wilson. When we say "used to live" we must sigh and say "poor Esmeralda!"

For some weeks several gray fur-coated creatures have been running from Jimmy's room to Butch's room, trying to decide which is best. When in Whitehead's room they ate a raincoat, a pair of pants, two boxes of candy and one box of Quaker crackers from the coffee table.

"Poppa" Dobson adds, "they also ate my Music History book." Quote David Webb, "I wonder how they could stomach that."

Finally the boys set a trap six inches long and four inches wide under Butch's dresser. It worked! The boys caught "poor Esmeralda." The retrieving squad finally removed the rodent and gave it its final burial rites in the lobby. There was pomp and ceremony and great sadness. Esmeralda, the rat, was dead! Poor Esmeralda!

BAND HONORARY GIVEN INFORMAL DINNER PARTY

Kappa Kappa Psi's Guests of I. A. Forlong

The members and pledges of Alpha Sigma chapter of Kappa Kappa Psi band fraternity were guests of John A. Forlong, honorary member and national trustee, at an informal dinner party held at the Cricket Tea Room on Friday evening, Feb. 27.

Special guests were Pres. James E. Mooney, and Nat Holten of New York. After dinner Mr. Holten, a former associate of the famous Houdini, gave a very interesting and amazing demonstration of sleight-of-hand.

Members attending were: Lyman Wiltze, honorary member, David Webb, Glenn McRae, Bill Hays, Charles Slocum, Steve Solak, Billy Webb, Bob Bretz, and Norman Light. Pledges attending were Walter Brown, Jack Liebmann, Dick Wozniak, Hogen Carleton, and Merriweather Williams.

The local chapter has made plans to aid in organizing a music sorority composed of outstanding girl music students as recommended by Mr. Wiltze, head of the music department. Another project of the fraternity, for which plans are being made, is the eventual construction of a separate music building with complete facilities including a rehearsal room, practice rooms and studios. This project is being undertaken with the purpose of expanding the music department into a separate school of music in the future.

The next event on the program of Kappa Kappa Psi is the formal initiation of pledges which will take place Sunday, April 5. Then a few weeks later, the date to be announced later, comes the Front Porch Frolics and May Festival, a much looked forward to event on the campus. A social nature of which will be revealed soon is planned for May 11, the 1st anniversary of Alpha Sigma's induction into the national organization.

STATIC

Did you ever hear of so many outstanding people around one school before? Along with all the other outstanding pledges, the B. X. members think all their pledges are outstanding. They definitely stood out Friday in their clever costumes! Mush Noble was a very pretty girl, and Johnny Read proved he's a sport, white or colored, while some fugitives from card games could take a tip from Warren Loftis, who wore a barrel.

Gambling Jim Cryan seems to be having a little competition for the affections of the fair June. John Rando now follows June around as close as she used to follow Jim. Maybe the old saying, "Lucky at cards, unlucky at love," will prove true. And Jimmy is definitely the luckiest card player in school. Wonder how the course of true love is running for Jack Leabmann. He really pours out his heart in those melodies to Jane.

The Varsity show is getting into shape at last. The Rumba dancers are also in fine shape. Doyle Blueble and Mary Collura really swing a wicked-rumba. And it seems the next dance to be resurrected is the "Big Apple."

The 313 Masquers really get around. First they went out to the Tin Can Tourist club where Judy Benson learned the square dance, which she says is "corny but fun." At least she seemed to make a hit with all the tourists, who were trying to dance with her. And Dot Hill really stole the show at MacDill field. The soldiers fell for her performance in a big way. Mrs. Connolly forgot she had Collins W. and got a pass for eight girls in her car. But Collins was glad to hide behind Elsie and when the sentry saw her smile, he didn't bother to look further, so Collins got in and out o . . .

Louise Griffen has been rather scarce around school recently. Unless the navy moves Dick Schleiter soon, Louise's college career may give way to housekeeping.

While some of our girls are going army in a big way, Beth Hotchkiss is still true to her first love, Jack. That's one romance that nothing seems to be able to stop, and why should anything want to, anyway? Another romance that's coming up fast is this Goddard-Shaw combination.

Captain Beynon lost his jacket during that cold spell, but soon found that his roomie, Bill Read, had loaned it out to Giles. It showed up a few days later in Spoltore's room, and we thought that was a thing of the past! If the part of the band who played

SPARTAN SPORTLIGHT

By ART SPOLTRE

The B. X.'s and the T. O.'s played the best game of the intramural campaign last Thursday. The B. X.'s won by a 24-23 score. Due to some yeoman work by "pledge" Roegells and active Watson, the T. O.'s succeeded in stopping the point getting of Straner Thornton and Comparato, and the zone defense of the T. O.'s helped them in stopping the dreaded "fast break" of the B. X.'s.

The "brotherly spirit" of the T. O.'s prevailed in the lobby of the university the other morning when two of its members started swinging from way back. Now the frat is divided into two parties, one from Chicago and the other made up of southern boys. Better do something about their Watson-trouble's brewing fast.

Congratulations to Capt. Jules "Stroke" Fantel of the crew. Jules, a muscle man, won the confidence of his fellow crew members, who elected him captain. A more conscientious man couldn't have been found.

Spring football has been called off till April 1. Coach J. Justice had trouble getting the boys out for practice, due to some jobs the boys were taking care of. By the time the 1st of April rolls around he will be able to assemble most of them for a month or more of practice.

The "T" sweaters finally arrived. It took them a long time to get here, and the boys felt they had to get some wear out of them before they put them away in moth balls when the heat waves come in soon.

The Stetson basketball team, which whipped our varsity two games by huge scores, is rated by many as one of the best in the south. They can do everything and are well coached. They will have the same team next year if Uncle Sam doesn't interfere.

Ad lib: Carl Scott, the pugilist, in fighting his way up to the quarter final of the Chicago Golden Gloves tournament, compiled a record of three knockouts and one decision. Scott is willing to meet anyone in his weight class for a few rounds of friendly sparring. The line forms to the right.

Here's an all-star intramural basketball team that has been chosen by students who have seen all the games played so far:

Girls' Dormitory Group Entertains at Party

The girls' dorm entertained at a party for a group of non-commissioned officers Friday night, Feb. 27, in the Student Union room.

Miss Ruth Morgan was in charge of the arrangements. Flowers and candles were used to decorate and refreshments were served.

During the evening dancing was held and cards and ping pong were played.

Masquers Play To MacDill Field Soldiers

The presentation of the 313 Masquers play, "New School for Wives" Tuesday night at MacDill field was real test for the players, but as usual they came through in fine spirit. The majority of the soldiers were very interested but as it was given at the Service club, some had to be about their business and thus created distracting disturbances.

Dorothy Hill, who took part in the play, even though she was ill, was excellent in her character portrayal and was well received by the audience. After the play was given, Daisy Lewis entertained the appreciative audience with popular vocal selections, Ellen Mooney sang "The Shrine of St. Cecilia," Miriam Quarles gave readings in Dutch and Negro dialect, and Nouna Hitchcock offered various piano selections.

Invitations to perform in Plant City and Tampa have been received by the 313 Masquers.

Beta Chi Noses Out Tau Omega

FRANK TESKE

In one of the closest and hardest fought games of the season, the Beta Chi team nosed out the Tau Omega cagers by a score of 24-23. Both teams played excellent basketball.

Comparato, center, led the B. X.'s scoring with three baskets and one free throw, while Hill, center, made four baskets and a free throw for the T. O.'s.

Near the end of the game, the score was 24-22 in favor of the Beta Chi's when the Tau Omega's got two free throws. They made one and elected to take the ball instead of trying for the other. The game ended 24-23.

The Tau Omega fraternity will hold its third annual banquet and ring dance Friday, March 13, at the Hillsboro hotel. The banquet will be held in the "Arbor room." The theme of the banquet will be analogous to the theme of the ring dance. Honor guests are to include President and Mrs. James Elliot Mooney, Dean Harry Dobson, Mr. and Mrs. Willard B. Phelps, Jack Williams, Sigma Kappa Nu, Albert Jimenez, Rho Nu Delta, and John Kaufman, Beta Chi.

The dance will begin at 9:30 o'clock and during the traditional ceremony will be reenacted. The ceremony is a very picturesque affair in which each member and his partner dance through an elaborate ring. Inside the large ring are hanging small souvenir rings which each member presents to the girl of his choice.

The music will be furnished by Manuel Sanchez and his orchestra. Formal will be the mode of the evening. There will be special dances reserved for the Beta Chi, Rho Nu Delta and Sigma Kappa Nu fraternities.

Tau Omega fraternity held its formal pledging ceremony Feb. 26, at the Hillsboro hotel roof garden. New pledges are William Treadway, Charles Whitehead, Joe Fonti, Albert Hayden, Carl Munson, Onell Rogells, Karl Chambers, James Elsinger, Robert Doherty, Lee Blenhorn and John Brockman. The pledges were welcomed into the pledge affiliation by their "pledge fathers."

The weekly Tau Omega fraternity luncheon was held Monday in the school cafeteria. Special guests included Jack Williams, Sigma Kappa Nu, Jose Ganolis, Rho Nu Delta, and John Kaufman, Beta Chi.

Sigma Epsilon Defeats SKN's

The Sigma Epsilon cagers defeated the Sigma Kappa Nus in a one-sided game by a score of 46-6.

The Sigma Eps had a field day, the lowest man on the team scoring six points, while the highest man scored 12 points.

Johnson scored three of the Skin's six points.

T. U. Cagers Lose To Powerful Team

The Tampa U. cagers wound up the season by dropping a one sided 85-17 decision to a powerful Stetson squad, February 26, at DeLand. It was the Spartan's fifth defeat in six starts.

Inexperience and lack of practice facilities were the main thorns in the side of Coach Adams' boys all year. In spite of these handicaps, however, the squad turned in some creditable performances, walloping Southern 38-18 and losing a close tussle to Miami 38-34.

Beta Chi Cagers Defeat SKN's

Playing fast and experienced basketball, the Beta Chi intramural team, led by their forward, Frank Straner, swamped the Sigma Kappa Nu's 41-3.

Using a zone defense with a fast break, the Beta Chi's shot their forwards down into the Skins territory and tallied repeatedly. Evidently they have had more experience than the Skins, although the latter came through with fine plays that were scoring threats.

Straner was very much in evidence throughout the game, scoring seven field goals and one free throw. He was all over the floor at once, making beautiful shots.

Shaw and Johnson, both centers, scored a free throw and basket, respectively for the Sigma Kappa Nu's.

DROOLISM

Well, now that all the hustle and bustle of rushing has died down, and the new freshmen have been properly pledged, we can settle down to the old grind—and "grind" it will be with six weeks tests coming up.

Speaking of pledges, the Kappa Kappa Psi's have been putting theirs through the old one-two. But the pledges didn't suffer as much as the students around school. For instance: Merriweather Williams had to twirl his baton in the lobby Wednesday afternoon, but it was Andy Anderson whose head caught the baton when Merry missed.

You'd think there were other initiations going on around school if you run into some of the girls in the Varsity show. Don't get excited though—they're just recruits from Miss Moffatt's dancing crew getting in practice for the show.

The S. K. N.'s are keeping mum about their daughter-day this year—not an inkling of their theme has leaked out so far. The only thing we can find out is that it will be the first day of spring as usual—something else for the girls to get excited about.

With thoughts of spring, come thoughts of spring holidays—Easter—the beach parties! Already you can hear murmurs and rumors of which beaches hold the students' favor this year, and debates over which is the best, as usual. It doesn't really matter—everyone is looking forward to a good time anyway.

Last, but not least, we'd like to give a whole bunch of orchids to the boys in the dorm—they know why.
