BUSINESS CLUB STARTED; HANNA ELECTED PRESIDENT

Due to the narrow scope of the Propeller Club and the unusual requirements for membership, the Business Club was founded on November 16, 1960.

An energetic group of some 25 Business and Accounting majors voted practically unanimously for this new organization on campus. Its purpose is to further the individual's interest and knowledge of business and its opportunities.

The Club will be designed by the members, to encompass what they want it to encompass. Some of the advantages already established are: Research and extra credit papers, opportunity for part-time and also full-time employment in your desired field, and the opportunity to meet and hear the major downtown businessmen at professional meetings. We also have many invitations to visit local firms and have their operations explained.

If you are a Business or Accounting major or intend to enter Business here or elsewhere you cannot afford "not" to be a member of this Club.

Officers are:

President.....John Hanna
1st Vice Pres.....Ray Martin
2nd Vice Pres....Charles Spicola
Treasurer.....George Paskert Corresponding Coordinator.....Ed Correia
Secretary.....Lee Bentock
Recording Sec...Barbara Baker
Parliamentarian...Ron Govin
Sgt. at Arms...Walter Percy

The Business Club held its first professional meeting on November 30, 1960. The guest speaker was Mr. Tom Fitzpatrick, Manager of the Governmental Officers' Department with the Greater Tampa Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Fitzpatrick's speech was entitled "Organizing Business for Community Action." It covered the facilities offered to the businessman by the Chamber of Commerce and also how the Chamber sets up its work program to aid the community.

At the conclusion of the program members of the faculty, members of the Club and their guest speaker dined at Valencia Gardens Spanish Restaurant.

Other professional meetings will include guests in fields such as: I.B.M., Remington Rand, Montenegro Accounting, Real Estate, Advertising, and Insurance.

A committee was formed to discover the possibilities of becoming an International Professional Business Fraternity. Our faculty advisor is Dr. Apple and the organization has been enthusiastically supported by all members of the Business Administration Dept.

University Presents New T V Series

The University of Tampa is currently presenting the television series "Definitions" on W.F.L.A., Sundays at 12:30 P. M.

The series, produced by John Von Szeliski, will seek to define, in a fairly thorough and interesting way, a different single word, concept, or condition each week. The programs will be unrehearsed panel shows, using three panelists or three panelists plus a moderator. The participants will not serve primarily as specialists on the item under definition but as thinkers approaching it from more than one point of view. The program, which was presented on December 4th, featured a discussion on "A Higher Education" with Professors Dwyer, Haney, and Walker as panelists.

EDITOR REPLIES TO CRITICISM

In reply to the letter which is partially reproduced at the bottom of the page, I would like to clarify points over which there is apparently some confusion.

It is not wise to keep adding salt to an open wound. There is no sense in hashing and re-hashing the judging of the homecoming skits. However, it seems that Mr. Joseph R. Dervaes offered a very poor solution in suggesting audience selection. This would certainly lead to a very biased judgment based upon numbers in attendance and not quality.

Apparently Mr. Joseph R. Dervaes is not aware of the fact that each social fraternity and sorority on campus signed assuming liability for the homecoming dance. Each organization pledged payment of 1/8 of a $3500 budget should the dance be a flop. Furthermore, each group took and sold a block of 150 tickets. This, I feel, justifies the reservation of three tables on the isle for each fraternity. It is interesting to note that sororities did not reserve sections. They felt that they would fit in with fraternities and leave more room for the general public. As for reservations for the faculty and administration — two tables seem like a small enough token, given in view of their status.

The Inter-Fraternity Sorority Council is composed of national SOCIAL fraternities and fraternities. There is no sin in this; rather there is virtue in being selective. The fact that this organization is closed to all other groups is certainly not a detrimental fact. It again brings about the old argument: are people or groups free to pick their associates? There are other groups on campus that enjoy this same type of selectivity. If a union of this type is desired, it would be relatively simple for honorary and service fraternities to form a council.

As for the pictures in the Minaret, or the lack of them, the photographer took more shots of the Kappa Kappa Psi skit than of any other. The Minaret editors chose not to use them believing that the organization would prefer not to have any more publicity along those lines. Therefore, the Minaret ignored the issue entirely and ran pictures only of those skits that were in the final competition for the award.

While "speaking up" should be encouraged, as should be constructive criticism, I would like to inject this thought: Mr. Dervaes attacked the Minaret, IFSC, Student Congress's handling of homecoming, this encompasses almost every "active" leader on campus. It seems more feasible that one individual and not the entire school is in error. It is true that the world can be wrong and one person correct — but this is the exception rather than the rule.

How ironical it is — that those who criticize most, do least. I cannot seem to recall any positive action on the part of "this interested student" during the past months. Student Senate and the Minaret Office have been and will continue to be open to ALL students.

A Bulletin Board Is The Answer

"This is the third time that this meeting has been announced!" Dr. Alan P. Stuckey, faculty advisor of the Political Union, stated in a recent convocation. Dr. Stuckey is not the only person who has felt the frustration of trying to re-organize clubs and arouse student interest during the fall semester. Most of the campus organizations feel this way. The small numbers of students at meetings and get-togethers is not from lack of interest, but from a simple lack of information.

There are an infinite number of bulletin boards within the halls of TU, but not a one of them carries all of the important information. How helpful it would be to find a centralized bulletin board located in the lobby or at the base of the main stairs.

This bulletin board could be divided into areas. One section could be for announcements from the Dean of Men, another for the Dean of Women, still another for honorary groups, another for religious organizations, and so on.

The bulletin board could be the responsibility of the News Bureau or one of several service organizations. The group would post the new information and remove the past announcement. Dates of meetings and other announcements could be turned into this group and posted with enough time to allow students to plan their time so that they can attend the functions appealing to them.

An active student body is vital to a good campus and a centralized bulletin board might prove to be a vital instrument in activating many stagnant clubs. We hope so.

WHY I Never Joined A SORORITY

1. I had never danced with a man in my life and I didn't want to.

2. I didn't fill out a sweater and I didn't look very attractive in a sleeveless low cut gown.

3. I wanted to do as I wished and think for myself instead of being led around by a bunch of sorority sisters.

4. I had never gone into women's clubs and organizations before I came to college and I didn't want to start.

5. I didn't like the idea of having to room with the same girl all semester.

6. I am a male.

STUDENT QUESTIONS: IFSC, HOMECOMING AND MINARET

"Has the University of Tampa become like the stiff-backed elders of the Medieval church frowning on all changes on thought and progress, or are we like a modern, present day university with a surging, thriving, progressive, vigorous, pulsating student body?"

"Why were certain members of social fraternities and sororities given authority to evaluate the homecoming skits? I don't think that anyone should be put in the position of having to test his loyalty to a fraternal organization."

After the football game between the University of Tampa and Troy of Alabama, the Homecoming Dance featuring the Showmen and Jil Cory was held at the Fort Homer Hesterly Armory. Here again, there seem to be a bit of foul play also. Kappa Kappa Psi was under the impression that no tables were to be reserved by anyone. However, to their surprise that evening when they arrived, almost every table in the building had someone's name placed on it. Some of the preparation for this had to be done in advance of that night and surely someone had to give some authorization. What's good for one is good for all. But, it seems that this doesn't hold true to common belief, because Kappa Kappa Psi was not informed of the table reserving. Some tables had to be pieced together at the last minute by that fraternity so that they could have a lonely corner of the armory for the brothers and their dates. The reserving of these tables by others was strictly informed, because I personally saw policemen at the request of those who had reserved the tables force other couples from their area.

I understand that the Inter-Fraternity Sorority Council is comprised of social organizations only and has as its purpose and task helping the University of Tampa in any way it can. This is fine. I'm sure that they get a lot done and do what they feel is right. However, at this time they are a select group. The I.F.S.C. doesn't get any of its ideas from the honorary fraternities and sororities on campus. These other Greek Letter Organizations certainly have views that never seem to get out into the open. We now have this select group voicing its opinion which may not necessarily be what a lot of people are willing to back. Why are not honorary fraternities and sororities members of this organization? The wider the variety of suggestions and opinions that are presented, the better the chances for plans that will suit everyone.

There was some bad taste in the mouths of brothers of Kappa Kappa Psi because of the Homecoming issue of the Minaret. There was not even one tiny picture of the Kappa Kappa Psi skit or any mention of the fraternity in the paper, while there were four pictures of one of the social fraternities in that issue. Just because this fraternity was last to present its skit is no reason for the photographer not to take any pictures and have them placed in the paper. Did he go to sleep during the other skits, or did he leave before the presentation? No matter, there still seems to be some prejudice present somewhere in this school toward the smaller fraternities and sororities. If the big social fraternities and sororities are afraid that some good for the school might come from the smaller groups, are they so powerful that they can keep them from voicing their opinions?

Let's get things down to earth and on the collegiate level instead of having the high and mighty run this university like a sissy kindergarten for babies.

Interested Student,

ON THE VALUE OF LITERATURE

Man can live by bread and bank statements alone — many do; but on occasion someone is born who cannot adequately sustain himself by a life dedicated to eating and to scrutinizing monetary statistics. This unique individual, this person who requires more than the necessities of animality, needs a more elaborate and enriched existence, needs more than any collection of facts can supply, he needs literature.

Literature is a necessity to this person who is so fully human and so fully alive that the ordinary activities and the ordinary life of the partial human beings will never satisfy his intense and alert nature. He must have literature — that which involves the senses, the emotions, and the intellect, the total man, and the routine and commonplace pastimes of backslapping, smiling, sleeping, talking, drinking, and making a living do not have the intensity, the profundity, and the complexity to meet the needs of his fully human existence. Literature is a necessity for complete and genuine human beings; the more animal type can live by bread and bank statements alone.

DEAN AND MRS. SETEAR AND LITTLE CHARMIAN

FACULTY INTERVIEW

Minaret Spot Lights Dean Setear

The many students from the North will be interested to know that our Dean of Men, Dean Setear is a northerner and went to school in New Britain, Connecticut.

A graduate of Purdue University, he went on and received his masters degree from the same institution in 1931. He attended Purdue on a football scholarship; he played the position of halfback.

In New Britain he served as a physical director at a boys' club for two years. For a while, he managed three departments in Sears and Roebuck and Co. The next four and a half years found him as personnel director of McGray and Co. Becoming interested in education, he became the dorm director over some four hundred and eighty boys at Northeastern University.

He was also an assistant to the Dean of Men and was a counselor in the guidance office. Under him as dorm director were seven assistants who are now all active in the field of education.

In September of 1958, Dean Setear accepted the position of Dean of Men at the University of Tampa. Since that time he has succeeded in becoming an indispensable member of the administrative staff.

The Dean met his wife, Charmian, a graduate of Indiana University, at Purdue where she was working as a staff member of the speech clinic. At the stroke of midnight on Christmas eve of 1946, they were married. Little Charmian was born on September 12 of 1959.

Dean Setear lists three sports as his favorites: bowling, golf and tennis. However he says that unfortunately he finds little time to indulge in any except bowling.

"Pause For Power"

by Rev. Thomas S. Simmons
"GODS IN OUR LIVES"

So many times in our modern day life we are told about the heathens of the African nations that serve pagan gods. We are told that they are made of wood or stone and placed in the homes of the people to be worshipped. Each person has his own individual god plus the so-called community god. Many times we become so skeptical concerning these people that we forget to sweep around our doorstep first.

When our men of God came out against multiple gods, the people oppose them because they don't like anything that might upset the applecart, so to speak.

However, we live in one of the most pagan nations in the world. There are more gods in our country than in any other of the so called pagan nations. Other countries look to the United States as the great cradle of freedom. How long will we keep this freedom if we continue to forsake the living God? Many of you will say, "What gods could I have in my life?"

According to God's Word anything that comes between service to God and obedience of man is sin. Paul said, "For whatsoever is not of faith is sin." Romans 14:23 (KJV). What are some of the things that comes between ourselves and God? One thing might be loved ones. Another thing might be studies in school. Some others could be: sleeping when we should be in church; failure to study God's Word; failure to place God first in sports, work, associates with others, and many, many more.

Another type of god in our life is the god of habit. So many times we let something get into our lives in such a manner, that we must perform this action or it seems as though we will die. As individuals we must be careful that the actions of our lives are pleasing to God. We must also be cautious that our habits are not harmful to our bodies. So many times we fail to realize that something could be very harmful, yet we continue to tear down our bodies. In Romans 12:1 (KJV) we find, "I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service." It is the duty of each person to keep not only his life clean, but also to keep his body clean, strong and pure. Habits that cause a falling away from God are little gods in our lives. We must turn from these gods by ceasing to take into our bodies such substance that will bring about this godless attitude, and this harmful effect on our bodies.

In summary I would like to say, "Introspect into your own lives. Are there these gods in your life that you know keep you from the true God? Are you a subject of the gods of habit. Do you oppose God's love for you? If so may I offer you the forgiveness through God. He is the only way to find peace, forgiveness, and love. The only way to come to God is through real, earnest, heartfelt repentance of our sins, gods, and all the other things that God condemns. God is a mighty God and He will forgive and forget if you will only believe in Him. Won't you?"

UNIV. OF TAMPA DELEGATES ATTEND PHYSICAL EDUCATION CONFERENCE

by Norma Blancato

Physical education majors from colleges throughout Florida gathered in Gainesville, December 2-3 for the Eleventh Annual Working Conference, sponsored by the Florida Association of Health, Physical Education and Recreation.

Program theme for this year, "Future Directions of Health, Physical Education, Recreation," was stressed during the conference, at sessions and committee meetings.

University of Tampa delegates, departed for the University of Florida on Tuesday and Friday for the two-day conference.

Scheduled events for Friday included registration, general sessions, and meetings in various fields as Fitness Testing, First Aid, and Guidance Functions of Health, Physical Education, Recreation. These sessions were highlighted with speakers, films, and slides.

"How We Do It" sessions were held in fields of Golf, Gymnastics, Social Dance and Synchronized Swimming. Rounding out Friday's events were a General Session and Fun Night.

Activities continued promptly Saturday morning with program sessions in Men's Athletics, Women's Sections, Health, Recreation, Elementary School Physical Education. This was followed by a barbecue luncheon and more Program Sessions.

Harry Stuhldreher, assistant to the vice president of U. S. Steel, was guest speaker for the last General Session. Concluding the Conference was a dance.

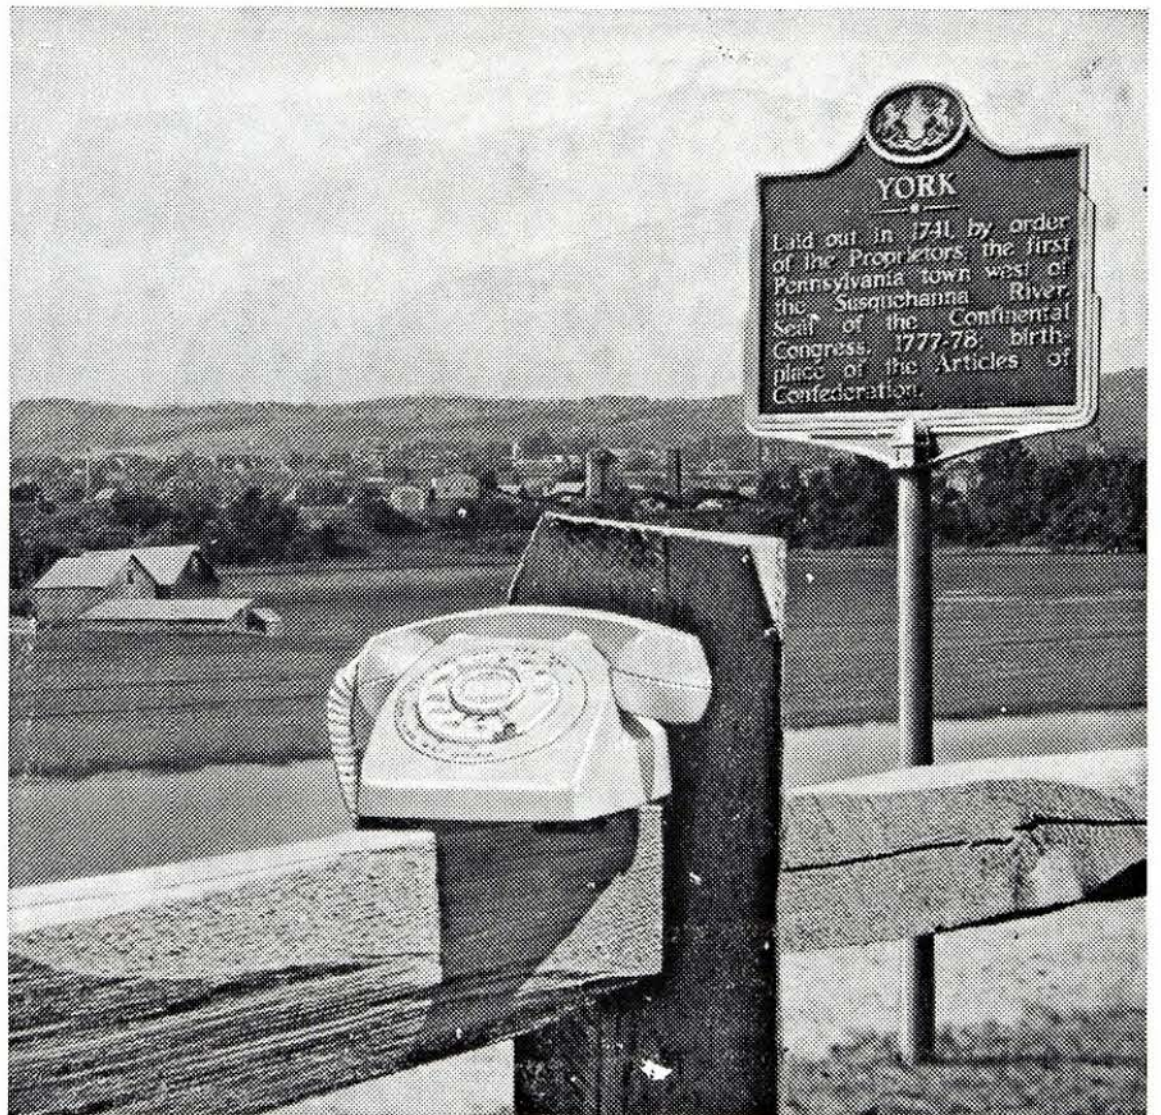

"I think every major should have made every attempt to attend the Working Conference," said Miss Alice Rodriguez, women's physical education instructor. "They would have had the opportunity to meet outstanding people in their field as well as other majors and physical education teachers," she added.

Among one of the most outstanding speakers was Dr. Leonard Larson, Director of Physical Education for Men at the University of Wisconsin.

Stanley Salonsky, president of Tampa University Major's Club, feels that "all professionally minded majors at the university should make every effort to attend the conference."

This conference is especially important to Stan and other Major's Club officers as they were installed as state FAHPER officers. This honor is planned on a school rotation system, with Tampa's Major's Club officers in line for state duties this year.

Stan had hopes that "we would have the largest group ever to represent the University of Tampa."

Marking another Milestone

Rich in history and rich in promise, too—that's York County, Pennsylvania.

And the telephone company covering this prosperous and progressive community has recently become a member of the General Telephone family.

York's pattern of growth is typical of the areas Gen Tel serves in 31 states. Long famous for its fertile fields and well-kept farms, the county has enjoyed a remarkable industrial expansion since World War II.

Typical, too, of these growing areas is their growing need for more telephones. And that is where Gen Tel comes in with the experience to provide improved service and the willingness to invest in modern communications equipment.

This is just one of the ways we are working to supply more and better telephone service for a growing America—present and future.

FEA MINUTES

Dr. Dwyer Speaks On Methods and Content

The F.E.A. meeting of November 9, was held at 8:00 P. M. in the ballroom. The meeting was brought to order by President Pat Alvarez. Miss Ira Parker led the LORD'S PRAYERS. The minutes of the last meeting were read by Secretary Judy Dunigan. It was brought to the attention of all that there would be a Leadership Conference held in Clearwater the ninth and the eleventh of November. President urged all to participate. She also brought to our attention that the University of Tampa holds the permanent trophy for membership at the convention and has done so for the past three years. The meeting was then turned over to our guest and principal speaker, Dr. Roy E. Dwyer, head of the Education Department. Dr. Dwyer spoke to us on METHOD AND CONTENT, his objective being to open our minds to problems in this area of teaching. He concluded his talk of the misconceptions of method and content. The floor was then opened for discussion. Announcements were then made by the president.

Meeting was adjourned and refreshments were served in the rear of the ballroom.

DZ's Adopt New Project

The Curtis Hixon Foundation of Tampa has been adopted as the current local philanthropic project. The Delta Zeta actives and alumnae will spend several hours each month to assist the staff personnel as volunteer clerks, receptionists, aides and entertainers. They will also spend several hours visiting with patients of all ages.

At a recent standards meeting, a representative from the League of Women Voters spoke to the chapter. The young voters of the sorority found the talk most informative and helpful.

Alpha Chi Omega

Four Sisters Make Who's Who

For the first time in the history of Tampa University a sorority won Best All Around float. The sorority also had two girls in the Homecoming court — Judy Yavornik and Sue Foster.

The Alpha Chis also received five of the ten class notables: Sue Phillips won Best All Around, and Most Popular; Ann Burton, Most Dignified; Judy Yavornik, Most Talented; and Emily Palmer, Wittiest.

In Who's Who, we have two seniors — Sue Phillips and Judy Yavornik, and two juniors — Tina Sichel and Sue Foster.

The Alpha Chis and the Pi Kappas had a party November 19, and the Alpha Chi carnation breakfast was also on that day. Our Scholarship Banquet was held November 22.

The sorority is looking forward to having the province president, Jayne Smith visit with them next week. Pilgram's Day was held November 23. At this time our pledges were raising money for the Tampa Cerebral Palsy Clinic.

This week, the Alpha Chis would like you to meet Diane and Donna Beniger who are twin sisters from St. Paul, Minnesota. They graduated from Sacred Heart Academy where they were active in many activities. Donna was in the Homecoming Court in high school, was social chairman of her class, and was in chorus. Diane worked on the school newspaper staff.

At Tampa University, Donna has been activities chairman of her pledge class and now is sophomore standards representative in Alpha Chi.

Both girls are interesting in bowling, tennis, water skiing, and are presently employed by Maas Brothers.

The annual Spartan Salute Dance was held on November 29 in the Lobby after the Appalachian-T.U. game.

An addition has been made to the newly decorated Sigma Room. That is the highly coveted trophy for best skit. The skit was written by Josie Alvarez.

Tau Kappa Epsilon

Now with homecoming over, the fraters of Tau Kappa Epsilon, their wives, and sweethearts can get a little sleep and resume their studies. After hand-making nearly five thousand carnations, the rest is well deserved.

Judy Yavornak, second maid in the Homecoming Queen's court, is the sweetheart and queen of the Epsilon Beta chapter of Tau Kappa Epsilon. To celebrate her fine job, all fraters joined in a toast in her honor at the homecoming dance.

Three of our brave fraters decided to do some outside research work in psychology a few days ago and paid a visit to the "Retreat." Just as they were about to enter, an elderly citizen stopped one of the fraters and said, "Please! Please son, don't go in there!" The experiment was a success.

Theta Chi

Jewels Are Back

The traditional Theta Chi jewel has again become a familiar sight on campus as the four new pledges begin their pledge training. These pledges and their big brothers are, Paul Apple, Bennett Jones; Vincent Mandese, Sam Sardegna; Frank Mehok, Rudy Reina; Bob Stookey, Mickey Jackson.

Five brothers have been named to "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. They are: Rene Carrera, Andrew Miabole, Wayne Wilson, Charlie Lyle and Ralph Lazzara.

The Theta Chis have also done well sportwise, having placed in every sport thus far. They placed fourth in fencing and in horse-shoes. Jim Gatto has worked his way up to the handball finals.

The Theta Chi intramurals football team has also done well. They tied the tough Major's Club team and then came back to beat the TKE's. They lost to the Sig Eps but still finished with a 4-2-1 record.

Brother Anthony Muley was recently engaged to Helen Diaz. After the meeting on November 14, the brothers serenaded Wanda Jordan, pinned to John Procassio, and Rosalie Perrone, pinned to Wayne Wilson.

Judy Yavornik is the Theta Chi candidate for Moroccan Queen.

Phi Kappa Phi

Christmas Dance Scheduled

Brothers Marlin Clark and pledges Chuck Engel King and Dun Boyt are the major threats to Tampa Spartan opponents this season. In the opening game with Florida State, Chuck staged an outstanding performance as leading scorer for the contest. Marlin Clark followed Chuck's example with a magnificent display of talent against the Florida Seminoles.

Pi Kappa Phi joined with Zeta Tau Alpha last Friday night for fun and folly. The occasion was a pajama aprrty which was held at the Pi Kappa Delta house. As a result of the success of the party, it may be slated as an annual affair.

Another big event on the social calendar for this month is scheduled — the Christmas Dance. The Christmas Dance, sacred celebration in the hearts of all Pi Kaps, solemnizes the reign of the Pi Kappa Phi Rose Ball Queen for the year of 1961.

Sigma Phi Epsilon

Pam Seifert Is November Sweetheart

Now that homecoming is over the Sig Eps attention has turned to our sensational B.Y.O. Dance. Particulars on the dance so far are: Date: Saturday, December 10. Music by the Satellites. Posters will tell of time and place.

The Sig Eps have taken over first place in the rag tag football by tying the Majors Club, 0-0, and thrashing Theta Chi 36-0. A win over the Pi Kaps will clinch the championship.

Brother Toby Holbrook picked up some points for us by coming in second in horseshoes.

Sig Eps November Sweetheart

Pam is known around school for her active participation in the band, orchestra and as an Alpha Chi Omega pledgee. She is also one of the lucky ones on the Dean's List. Pam is not only a very active student at Tampa U., but is well known nationally due to the fact that she was the 1958 National Accordion Champion.

The Sig Eps feel that all this coupled with her wonderful, sweet personality make her an ideal November Sweetheart.

Zeta Tau Alpha

Yoli Gonzalez Is News Editor Of Minaret

Zeta Tau Alpha has had great success with intramurals this season. The Zetas have won two straight games, beating the Delta Zetas and the Westminster girls. Zetas are now looking forward to the championship games.

Linda Boyete and Pat Fussell, both Physical education majors attended the physical education convention in Gainesville last weekend.

Yolanda Gonzalez, Zeta pledge, has recently been appointed as news editor of the Minaret. Yoli is also active on the Moroccan staff as well as co-head of the Dancerettes.

The four Zeta cheerleaders: Vilma Tamargo, Linda Boyette, Heidi Chapman and Roseanne Cinchett made it a point to visit the Zeta House at the University of Alabama while in Tuscaloosa, Alabama. The girls spent some time with their sisters and had the opportunity to tour the Zeta house.

"STANDARDS ARE A MIRROR"

by Mrs. David M. Delo

This fall, Dr. Delo and I and the entire University of Tampa family, have had many occasions to be proud of the reflections of our University which is being mirrored in the community through University events. These indicate that not only "things are happening at the University of Tampa" but that "good things are happening."

One dictionary defines "standards" as "a measure or test of a thing's quality." In many instances this measure or evaluation is determined by what is seen or heard as measured against some preconceived conception. This conception is not always a true picture.

One of the fine things that happened at the University this fall was the Homecoming Parade. The floats, which indicate thought, pride, zeal, care, and high standards on the part of the students body, are still the subject of congratulations at social gatherings in Tampa. And one float has been requested for the Gasparilla Parade.

Another evidence of high standards was the beautifully executed and blended performance of the oratorio of "Saint Paul," attended by more than 400 people who thronged the Ballroom and corridors the evening of November 13. (Where were the students?)

We can point with pride to the quality performances of the Stringed Ensemble, the University Players and the student guides during our Open House. The excellent exhibitions of fine art which we are sharing with the people of Tampa are creating interest not only locally but in national news media.

Thus, we mirror our University. The reflection benefits us all.

Stephen Kovacs Gives Concert

Stephen Kovacs, noted concert pianist, was presented by the University of Tampa Sunday, November 20, at 3 o'clock in the ballroom.

Mr. Kovacs, native of Hungary, entered the Franz Liszt Academy of Music in Budapest at the age of five and completed some 14 years of study there. In 1928, after two additional years of post-graduate study, he gave his first recital in Berlin.

Since that time, he has been highly acclaimed by critics in the leading music centers of Europe.

The concert by Mr. Kovacs was one of the continuing series of lectures and musical performances planned by the university for the benefit of faculty, students and the community, and was open to the public at no charge.

Mr. Kovacs played "Prelude, Choral and Fugue," by Franck; "Sonata Number Nine in E. Major," by Beethoven; "Dante Fantasy," by Liszt; selections of Szelényi; "Capriccio in F. Minor," by Donnanyi; and "Dances of Moroszek," by Kodaly.

GALA ANNIVERSARY BALL TREMENDOUS SUCCESS

The University of Tampa's Second Anniversary Ball was held last Saturday night in the Ballroom. A select number of five hundred guests were invited at $25.00 a couple. The proceeds go to Tampa U's Scholarship Fund.

The Ball has been held the last two years in commemoration of the opening of the Tampa Bay Hotel in 1891. The Ball started at 9:00. Breakfast was served at 12:30 in the morning. Johnny Long and his band provided the music for this gala event.

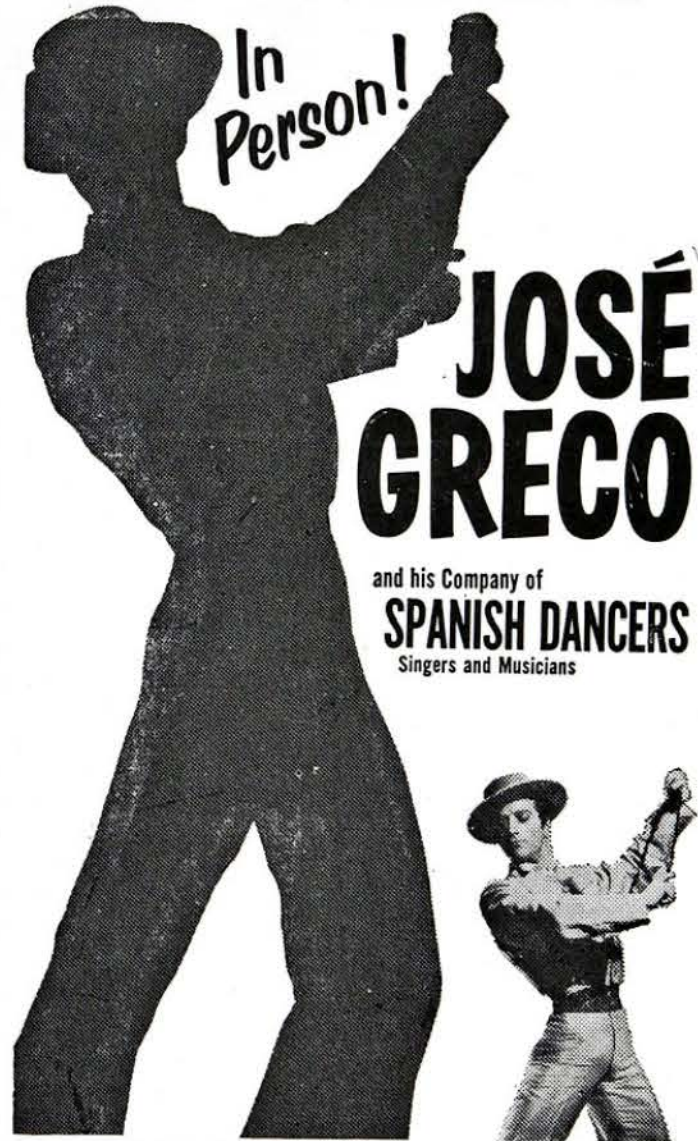

On display, were many beautiful and valuable relics of the old hotel; among them were the first register, pieces of silver cutlery, china, and various other ornaments. Also some of the gowns which were worn by the former Gasparilla Queens. Many of the gowns were modeled by some of the students at the University of Tampa.

Crimson Tide Swamps Tampa Spartans 34 - 6

The University of Tampa Spartans suffered their sixth loss of the season on Saturday afternoon, November 19, when they were defeated 34-6 by the Alabama's Crimson Tide.

The Spartans offered little trouble outside the lone Tampa scoring thrust in the third quarter, but they were able to intercept three Alabama passes and were able to stop Tide drives with two of them.

On the opening kickoff Alabama drove to the Tampa seven yard line after receiving the ball. They then lost the ball on downs after being held by the stubborn Spartans line, but got the ball back when an Alabama guard recovered a fumble at the five. Three plays later, fullback Mike Fracchia drove over from a yard out for the first TD of the evening.

The second Tide touchdown came in the second quarter when their quarterback capped a 39-yard push with a three-yard run for their second score.

Again in the second quarter the Alabama eleven struck paydirt. This time they passed for 66 yards in three plays, the last play going for 30 yards and the score.

In the third quarter, it was the same story. The Tide rolled again. An intercepted Tampa pass set up Alabama's fourth touchdown. The interception was returned to the Tampa 23, and was followed by the score.

In the fourth quarter the Tide rolled for 63 yards before sending one of their backs over from the one yard line, thus ending the Crimson Tide afternoon of scoring.

Tampa's only touchdown came in the third quarter when quarterback Ronnie Perez got the ball rolling by passing to halfback Billy Rouse on a 69-yard play that carried the ball to the Alabama three. Perez then flipped a short three-yard pass to Spartan end Charles Truelock for the touchdown on a fourth down situation.

That was the only sight Tampa got of the Alabama goal for the remainder of the afternoon.

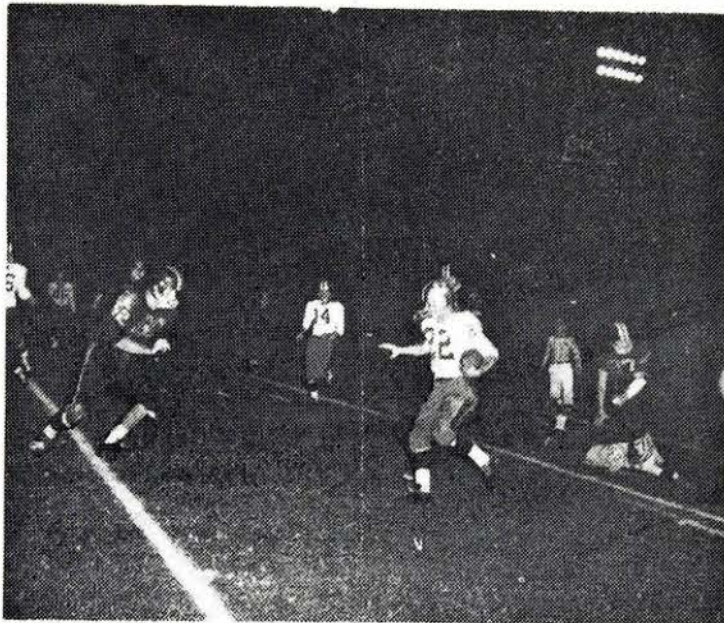

The Tide permitted the Spartans only 34 yard rushing, but Perez managed to hit seven of 19 passes for 116 yards with two interceptions. Tampa made only five first downs.

Alabama racked up 229 yards on the ground and added 201 yards through the air waves, despite the fact that only 10 of 28 pass attempts were completed. The three interceptions were as many as the Tide has given up in eight previous games.

The big gun for Tampa was fullback Tony Booth who netted 32 of the 34 yards rushing for Tampa on five runs.

McMurray Slaughters Tampa University Spartans 41-8

Sports Editor

The McMurray Indians scored in almost every possible manner on Saturday, Nov. 12 to defeat the University of Tampa Spartans 41-8 before some 5,000 fans in Abilene, Texas.

The maroon-shirted Redskins scored five touchdowns, two running and three by air, added four single placements and a double conversion, then made a field goal and a safety for their highest point total of the season.

It wasn't until the Indians were out in front by a 30-0 margin in the fourth period that Tampa could crunch across a touchdown. The Spartans did so when Billy Rouse, with 2:52 left in the game, scampered around left end for 20 yards and the touchdown. Ronnie Perez added the other two Spartan points on a dash around right side.

With just few second left to play, one would have considered the game finished. But McMurray wasn't through, they quickly marched for another touchdown and then boot a field goal before the referee mercifully whistled end to the contest.

The Spartans were never able to generate much of an offensive punch during the first half. Late in the first quarter they took over on the Indians 47 yard line after a punt and moved to the seven where the Redskins held and took over on downs. In the second quarter Tampa's net gain was only 39 yards and its farthest penetration downfield its own 32.

Spartans Lose Closing Game

by Bill Sargent, Sports Editor

The University of Tampa Spartans closed out their 1960 football season on November 26, by losing to Appalachian State Teachers College by the score of 22-15.

The game played before some 3,500 Spartan fans closed out the season for the Tampa eleven and closed what turned out to be the worse season the Spartans have suffered in 9 years of football. During the entire season the team won 2 games, tied 1, and lost 7.

At halftime the Spartans led by a slim margin of 15-14, with freshman Dick O'Brien leading the way. O'Brien went over for both Tampa scores with Ronnie Perez throwing for two points after the first TD, and kicking the second conversion.

At the opening of the second half, the Mountaineers put together two drives of 71 yards and dealt a death blow to the Spartans.

Spartan Billy Rouse was the most help to O'Brien but the flashy back did most of the gaining for the team as he picked up 42 yards.

On defense, linebacker Tony Yelovich, who has been a leader all season, came through being the toughest in this division with Charlie McCullers and Charlie Lyle fighting it out right behind him. Yelovich made at least four unassisted tackles and had help from Linemen Lee Moore, and end Charles Truelock with four also.

The hometown Spartans riddled by injuries opened with a sophomore and freshman line-up while Appalachian, with two weeks of rest since their last start, was able to go with 10 experienced seniors.

O'Brien carried on all but three of the 11 plays as Tampa counted on the first play after the start of the second quarter. O'Brien leaped into the end zone from the three yard line after hacking out 28 yards to set up the score.

Perez threw a flat pass to O'Brien who dove just inside the right corner of the goal line for the double extra point and an 8-7 lead for Tampa.

The Mountaineers returned the kickoff but fumbled the ball and guard Nelson Guggino covered for Tampa on the Appalachians' 20-yard line.

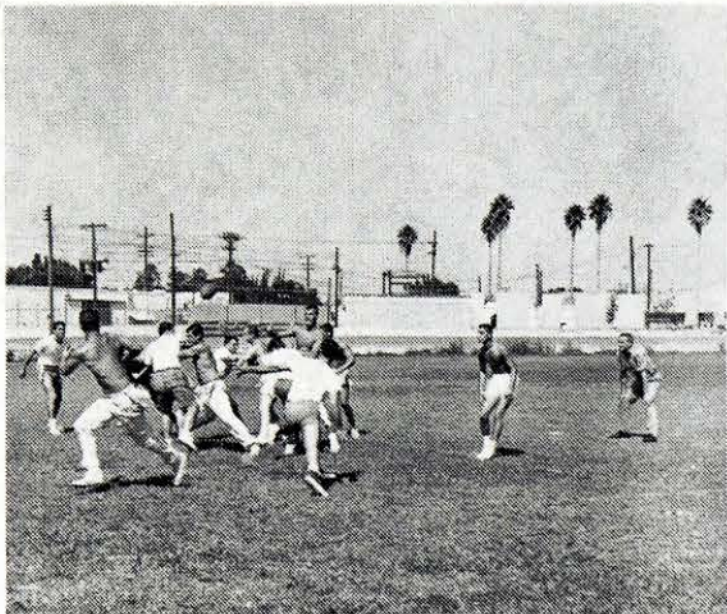

Four plays later O'Brien was in the end zone again with the pigskin. He went across from one yard out and he, Rouse, and fullback Sam Rodriguez moved the ball to the one. Perez kicked this time and it was good. Score—15-7.

It was here though that the Spartans were stopped for in the second half they were unable to score, but the Mountaineers were and they went on to do so and victory was theirs.

Sigma Phi Epsilon Is Rag Football Champ

by Bill Sargent, Sports Editor

The Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity came in first place at the close of the scheduled season, and thus became the Champions for Intramural "Rag" football for the year 1960.

The Sig Ep's displayed a fine 6 win, 1 tie record, tying in one game with the P. E. Major's Club which came in second.

The SPE's not only walked away with the championship but also managed to place three of their players on the 1960 All-Star team. They are Sam Reina, who held the quarterback slot, Thad Chapman, halfback, and Tom Vann, guard. Bill Davenport, another big gun for the Sig Ep's was named to the second All Star team.

to the All-Star team. They are Bill Bishop, Will Gaillonardo, and John Palios.

Third place went to the Men's Dorm. Association as they had a 5 win, 2 loss record for the season.

I HAVE ALWAYS HAD AN abiding hatred for the bottom crust of rye bread. There is no particular reason for making this point, except that whenever I think of Fort Lauderdale, I think of rye bread. There is no particular reason for that either, but I have been thinking of Fort Lauderdale. Fort Lauderdale is "where the boys are." Right now, that is. Most of the time, serenity reigns in Fort Lauderdale. (The Chamber of Commerce will hate me; they say it never rains in Fort Lauderdale.) But, for two weeks, twenty thousand collegians descend on this peaceful community and take it apart, peace by peace. They call it Spring Vacation, but it's more like amateur night at Cape Canaveral. They capture Florida and throw the Keys away. But I shouldn't joke—not while people are holding mass prayer meetings for an early hurricane season.

This is "where the boys are." And girls, too. Such girls, it makes you dizzy to look at them. If you look long enough, you reach an advanced stage of dizziness called aphrodisia. It's like being in love. That's what happened to me, and it will happen to you, too. Everywhere you turn—beaches full of them, motels and hotels full of them, cars full of them, pools full of them, bathing suits full of them. Ah, bathing suits... when the man said, "It's the little things in life that count," he must have been thinking of bathing suits. But mostly, it's the girls.

Girls in love, girls in trouble, bright girls with a future, not-so-bright girls with a past, rich girls in the lap of luxury, poor girls in any lap that'll have them, girls of every size and discretion. It isn't any wonder that this is "where the boys are." And the things that happen are wacky and wild and wicked and warmly wonderful "where the boys are." Someone should make a movie about it. Hey, someone did! M-G-M calls it "Where The Boys Are," starring Dolores Hart, George Hamilton, Yvette Mimieux, Jim Hutton, Barbara Nichols, Paula Prentiss, with Frank Gorshin and introducing popular recording star Connie Francis in her first screen role. You'll want to see all the things that happen "Where The Boys Are."

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer presents
