PARKING PROBLEMS ARE SLOWLY ENDING

University of Tampa parking problems have a complete overhauling due in a few days, said Parking Commissioner Ernest C. Segundo. The Police Department has been contacted and has promised to repaint the lines in the parking area as soon as the October budget is approved.

The parking lots on the east and west sides of the building will be all reserved spaces with faculty and administration getting first choice, followed by seniors, juniors, sophomores and freshmen. Persons parking in these areas will pay a dollar for semester parking privileges and will receive a sticker for their windshield showing that they have parking spaces reserved for them.

Any one found parking on the lot without special permission or a sticker will be fined or his car towed away.

Segundo expressed confidence that the situation would be improved in 15 days.

Senate Fiddles While Publications Suffer

By BRUCE ATKINS

James Berfield, President of the Student Senate, said that at Monday's meeting, the Senate would elect editors for both the year book and newspaper. Scheduled for Dean King's office at 12:30, it has left little time between the posting of the notice for applications last Tuesday and the scheduled meeting of the Senate for qualified students to make up their minds.

Berfield himself has complained of the inadequacy of the proper amount of time and sadly lamented the fact that the editors were not picked by the out-going student senate as has been the policy of past administrations.

Other members of the Student Senate are not as confident as the President that editors will be picked at the meeting, but none denied that it would be a chief topic of discussion.

Members were asked if there was anyone in particular that they felt would receive the jobs and all answered no.

THE MOROCCAN

The Moroccan editorship at the present seems almost certain to fall to Miss Florentine Benitez a Tampa girl and a Sophomore at the University this year. Even though Miss Benitez was up against tradition established since the War of electing men students to the post, she is the only one to have shown interest in the job and has gone as far as lining up a prospective staff.

SENATE HOPES FOR NEW YEAR

by JOYCE NEWELL

The school opened with the Student Senate giving the Back to School dance in the Ballroom on Friday, September 24. Richard Mullholland and his orchestra furnished the music. The dance was a success. Many thanks to the Freshman Class for lending a helping hand.

Homecoming is the topic under discussion, and plans are rapidly taking shape for the biggest event of the Fall semester.

The following motions were passed concerning Homecoming: that the overall winning float be entered in the Gasparilla Parades; that the Homecoming Queen be named at the President's Reception, and crowned at the Homecoming Dance; that the candidates for Homecoming Queen must be selected from

She herself feels that she has an inside track to the job, but with the fever of someone loving school publications, announced that if requested she would work with anyone elected to the post.

Her experience has been meager; however she was last year's class editor and "did a little of everything else," she said.

A dark, dark horse in this race is Mike Capitano. It is doubtful that Mike will submit a letter of application, probably preferring to be drafted for the job. He has been Associate Editor for three years and also correspondent for the Tribune which is a full time extra curricular job in itself. Whether or not Mike would accept the job, if offered, can only be answered when the time arrives.

THE MINARET

The Minaret is a little better off as far as prospective applications with three applicants who, while not having as yet submitted formal applications, have let the Senate know they are in the running. They are Joyce Newell, Sally Villar, and Bernard Shufelt.

The Senate is split like an over-ripe pumpkin over these three, and a floor fight is expected unless an unknown or unexpected applicant pops into the race. The editorship of the paper is a ripe political plum and a powerhouse of influence on the campus.

The Senate is reluctant to let this get too far out of hand.

New appointments to the administrative and teaching staffs, and assignments of several faculty members to new posts of responsibility were recently announced by Dr. Ellwood C. Nance, University president.

New administrative officers are William S. Weldon, registrar, who was a teaching fellow last year at the University of Michigan and completed course work for the doctorate there, and Boyd B. Burnside, of Grinnell College, Grinnell, Iowa, now dean of men at the University of Tampa. Dean Burnside holds the bachelor of philosophy and master of arts degrees and was previously a member of the education faculty of Grinnell College.

Capt. Robert E. Bassler, who served for many years in the U.S. Navy and is a graduate civil engineer, has been named director of public relations. Captain Bassler assumed his duties at the University several months ago.

Coming to the University as instructor in drama and speech from Benton Harbor, Mich., where she has been director of a civic theater group, is Mrs. Frances B. Allen, a graduate of Cornell College.

Charles B. Varney is assistant professor of geography and geology. He received the bachelor of arts degree from the University of Colorado and the master of arts degree from Clark University, and has completed residence requirements for the doctorate.

Dr. John Adams, who recently returned from Cairo, Egypt, having carried on advanced work at the School of Oriental Studies in that city, has been appointed assistant professor of sociology. Dr. Adams received his degrees from the University of Chicago.

Dr. Clarence M. Pruitt is associate professor of chemistry and physical science, Harold E. Carmony, formerly a member of the part-time instructional staff here, is now assistant professor of chemistry, and Dr. S. M. Siegel has been named instructor in biological science. Dr. Pruitt received his earlier degrees from Indiana University, and the degree of doctor of philosophy from Columbia.

Paul Hutcheson, a graduate of David Lipscomb College, Nashville, Tenn., and of George Peabody College for Teachers, where he received the master of arts degree, is assistant professor of mathematics. Student assistant in the same department is Maxwell Cobbe, who majored in mathematics for the bachelor of science degree at the University of Florida.

Say Hey! You Guys It's Time To Rush

One of the most enjoyable times of the year for the non-Greeks on campus will be next week when the fraternity rushing season commences with the first party Oct. 6.

Eleven days have been set aside for the entertaining of the prospective members starting Wednesday and officially closing Sunday midnight Oct. 17. Each fraternity will be out to ensure that all interested non-affiliated men on campus have an opportunity to learn about the organization and meet the present membership as well as members of the alumni.

Period of Silence

A strict period of silence will be maintained immediately following the close of the last rush party at midnight Oct. 17. From this hour until noon of the 19th (Tuesday), no fraternity man shall approach a non-Greek in regard to influencing him in making a decision.

A Non-Greek will be required to use a new system in making his choice known for a fraternity. This idea was instituted last spring by the sororities on campus. This fall, the student will indicate his choice on a preference card in numerical order and this card shall be kept under lock and key in the Dean of Men's office so that no one other than that office shall know his selections.

To Pick Up Bids

Following the close of the rush parties, each fraternity will submit their bids to the dean's office to be picked up on Wednesday and Thursday. When the bid lists arrive in the office, the staff of the Dean of Men will match bids with the card preferences indicated.

In order to receive his bid, the non-Greek shall go to the dean's office and give his name. Then, if there is a bid for him, it will be given to him in a sealed envelope.

Having received his bid, the student then shall take it to a room set aside by that fraternity for the purpose of welcoming the newly found neophyte into the fold of his choice. From that moment on until after initiation, the pledge can blame no one but himself for the predicaments he may find himself in.

A meeting of the Interfraternity-Sorority Council has been called for Wednesday of next week, according to the Council president, Charlie Archibald. Time of the meeting has been set for 12:30.

THE MINARET

The Minaret is the official publication of the student body of the University of Tampa. It is published bi-weekly during the school year at no cost to the student body. The staff welcomes comments and criticisms. Address all correspondence to the Minaret, Room 205, University of Tampa, Tampa, Florida.

FREE BUT INVALUABLE

Two of the most important books that a student will need during his stay on campus do not cost anything but are worth their weight in gold. Yet, seldom do students regard them in this manner. Instead, the day after registration it is much simpler to ask questions of those who probably do not know the answers than it is to search through either of these two publications and "get the straight dope."

One of these two is the catalog for the year. In it the student will find a brief but thorough review of the University of Tampa; its background and objectives in the community; regulations and expectations of the student body. Also included for the student's benefit are the requirements a candidate must meet for a degree and the courses offered by each department. By constantly referring himself to this book, a student will be less likely to find himself in deep water at the end of the year.

An easy way for the student to be in on the important campus happenings is to keep the Student Handbook in easy reach. Nowhere else will the student be able to find out so much information so far in advance as in this small but compact book. All phases of campus life is governed by the rules contained in the Student Senate section. Social events for the entire year are listed for everyone's convenience. Names of the officers for all organizations at Tampa U. are listed so that they may be consulted or reached without any unnecessary delay.

To be certain what you are doing is right consult the catalog. Know what is happening and will take place and who is what by reading the Student Handbook.

WHICH IS YOUR CHOICE?

There's an old saying, "One never learns 'til it's too late." How true that is in regards to applying oneself to studies. What better example can be given than examination time!

The present term has been in session about two weeks and already there are students who have not completed the first week's assignments. Why? Because they intend to catch up with the rest of the class "next week." Wonder what ever becomes of that good intention? Will it eventually snowball into a month and then, "These second nine weeks are going to be different, no foolin' around anymore!"

Too often that is the case. And, what a forlorn feeling it is to enter a final exam and know for a fact that you may as well have stood in bed. Some have the ability to "cram" but, alas, how many more will "jam." Remember the expression, "You can't beat City Hall?" Do you think you can outwit the professor at his own game? Try it and you'll last about as long as a snowball in Florida's sunshine.

The professors at Tampa U. are old cranks and delight in making college life miserable for all whom they can. They enjoy giving a heavy load of research work so they can spend their time checking to determine whether or not you did the assignments. Certainly these same "impossible" creatures had rather stay up late several nights a week grading hundreds of papers to learn how you are progressing than enjoying moments of leisure with their families and friends. It tickles them to be able to call you on the carpet for not paying attention in class.

Shunning what criticism may fall their way, these wonderful, kind and considerate people steadfastly refuse to budge from their calling and continue in the same path for one reason only—to give you an education. They have never demanded respect, but surely no others deserve it more. Though ready to aid you, they prefer that you help yourself first so that you may learn by doing.

Do today's work yesterday, tomorrow's assignments today and the second nine weeks will take care of themselves. Certainly it is much easier to "stay up" than it is to "catch up!"

THE END OF A LONG WAIT

At last, the editor of the '54 Moroccan will no longer be harassed by the question, "When is it coming out?"

For the past two days, the yearbook office has been swamped with students seeking last year's collection of gems and the highlights of the '53-'54 academic year. It hasn't taken the graduates long to return home to pick up their copy, either. Now, practically everyone is happy, or that is, all those who paid activity fees last year.

Congratulations, corsages and condolences are very much in order for the entire staff of the Moroccan. This edition was well worth waiting for. Though bathed in simplicity, it is saturated with beauty. Each section has distinction without partiality. Every organization was treated in a like manner.

By delaying the publication until the summer session had been completed, the staff was able to include all the activities for the past year. Heretofore, only the fall semester and about half of the spring semester was covered.

In dedicating the yearbook, the Senior Class of 1954 could not have made a finer selection for the recipient of this honor than Dr. Guy G. Becknell. It shall serve as a reminder of his leadership, the inspiration he gives and the knowledge expounded by him.

FROM THE PRESIDENT

WORDS OF WELCOME TO OLD AND NEW STUDENTS

You older students are returning to an intellectual, spiritual and social environment with which you are familiar. You do not face the problem of adjustment as do our freshmen. You are coming home to old friends, to share with them the joys, trials and excitements of intellectual development. Welcome home! May you have a pleasant and successful year.

Be kind and gracious to our freshmen who are just now starting up the ladder of fortune—you may meet them on your way down sometime.

You, dear freshmen, are our favorite guests. If our prayers are answered, we shall soon be good friends and equally enthusiastic about this fraternity of learning. We are pleased that you chose the University of Tampa for your college training, and we sincerely hope that neither you nor the University will ever have reason to regret your decision to come here.

We will do our very best to make your years with us happy and profitable. But you understand, I'm sure, that we have now signed a mutual contract that becomes a joint operation. A great amount of scholarship and many, many years of academic training are represented on our faculty but, I am sorry to report, we have not discovered a magic way to give an education to our students. We afford them the opportunities, facilities and directions for an education, but the students must search and dig it out for themselves.

Assuming that you have carefully studied your Catalog and Student Handbook, you may still have some unanswered questions. Do not hesitate to ask questions. Our faculty and staff want you to get off to a good start on your college career.

Your happiness is very important to us. Friends mutually contribute to each other's happiness. If you desire new friends, be friendly. Have fun growing in intellectual and spiritual stature.

My heart and door are open to you.

WTUN Resumes "On The Air" Broadcast Schedule Monday

Presenting better programs and boasting improved facilities, University of Tampa's radio station WTUN is ready to inaugurate their broadcasting schedule for the Fall semester.

Monday, October 4th, WTUN will be "ON THE AIR."

WTUN, like many other departments at the University, has its share of new faces. The most prominent is the new director of radio, Professor Franklin A. Moody. Although this is Professor Moody's first year as director of radio, he is by no means a stranger to the students at the University. For the past two semesters Professor Moody has been director of dramatics, turning out such sparkling performances as, "School For Husbands" and "Pygmalion."

With the nucleus of a fine staff returning from last semester, Professor Moody is quite confident of making WTUN a byword of not only every University student, but every Tampan as well.

One of the experienced personnel returning from last semester is Bryan Webb who succeeds Paul Hansen as Station Manager. Along with Bryan's acceptance of his new position is Jack Carew who succeeds Jerry Scaglione as Program Director. Jack, acting in a dual role, will also be Director of Sports for the station.

Another of the "veterans" returning from last semester is Joe Higdon who has been appointed Chief Announcer. Al Berry will be the Chief Engineer this semester with Nancy Trusdale as Traffic Manager.

Graduate Record Exams Dates Told

Princeton, N. J.: The Graduate Record Examinations, required of applicants for admission to a number of graduate schools, will be administered at examination centers throughout the country four times in the coming year, Educational Testing Service has announced. During 1953-54 nearly 9,000 students took the GRE in partial fulfillment of admission requirements of graduate schools which prescribed it.

This fall candidates may take the GRE on Saturday, November 20. In 1955, the dates are January 27, April 30, and July 9. ETS advises each applicant to inquire of the graduate school of his choice which of the examinations he should take and on which dates. Applicants for graduate school fellowships should ordinarily take the designated examinations in the fall administration.

The GRE tests offered in these nationwide programs include a test of general scholastic ability and advanced level tests of achievement in sixteen different subject matter fields. According to ETS, candidates are permitted to take the Aptitude Test and/or one of the Advanced Tests.

Application forms and a Bulletin of Information, which provides details of registration and administration as well as sample questions, may be obtained from college advisers or directly from Educational Testing Service, 20 Nassau Street, Princeton, N. J., or P.O. Box 27896, Los Angeles 27, California. A completed application must reach the ETS office at least fifteen days before the date of the administration for which the candidate is applying.

Scholarship Exams To Be Given By State

An examination to fill vacancies for $400 - a - year General Scholarships for the Preparation of Teachers will be held Tuesday, October 19, in five centers over the state. In order to encourage students to prepare for teaching in the Elementary Schools where the need for teachers is most urgent, applicants will be restricted to those majoring, or who will major, in Elementary Education. This examination is being held for the benefit of students already enrolled in college, and successful applicants may receive payment for the fall semester of this school year. Tests will begin at 8:30 A.M. at the following locations in Tampa: Hillsborough High School (White), Mr. Wayne Hamilton; Room 18, County Court House (Negro), Mr. F. D. Miles.

To be eligible to participate in the examination, the applicant must be a bona fide resident of Florida (must have been living in Florida for at least one year and must have resided in the County represented six months). Furthermore, he must be enrolled in the school, college, or division of education of an approved institution of higher learning in Florida and must be preparing to meet requirements for obtaining a Graduate Certificate to teach in the Elementary Schools of this state.

There are approximately 125 General Scholarships open to white and Negro boys and girls to be awarded in October to the highest scoring applicants from the state at large. Undergraduate students of any college year level who are majoring in Elementary Education, or who plan to major in Elementary Education, are eligible to compete, provided they are residents of Florida.

Tests will cover high school English, science, social studies, and mathematics. A scholastic aptitude test also will be given. If a student has taken the scholarship test since 1947 and desires his previous test score to count, it will not be necessary for him to repeat the test. However, he must submit another application to the examiner on October 19, indicating the previous test date and the county in which his residence is located.

A winner of a General Scholarship for the Preparation of Teachers will be asked to sign a pledge to teach, following graduation, in a public elementary school for at least the number of years for which he receives scholarship aid. A General Scholarship may be used for undergraduate work, only, and may not be held for longer than four years.

Successful applicants may attend one of the following state-supported universities or junior colleges: Florida State University, University of Florida, Florida A. and M. University, Chipola Junior College, Palm Beach Junior College, Pensacola Junior College, St. Petersburg Junior College or Washington Junior College; or one of the following private institutions of higher learning approved for 1954-55: Barry College, Bethune - Cookman College, Florida Normal and Industrial Memorial College, Florida Southern College, Jacksonville Junior College, Stetson University, Rollins College, University of Miami, or University of Tampa.

Tips And Rules For Cotton Hopefuls

Memphis, Tenn. (Special) — An exciting six-month international tour and a fabulous wardrobe of 50 costumes may be waiting for some cottonland college girl in 1955.

The National Cotton Council has announced that the 1955 Maid of Cotton contest is now open. And the Council says, Cotton Belt colleges have supplied 15 out of the 16 Maids in years gone by. If this year's contest runs true to form, it is likely that the 1955 Maid of Cotton will be found on a college campus in one of the 18 cotton states.

Any girl born in a cotton-producing state who is between the ages of 19-25, has never been married, and is at least 5 feet 5 inches tall is eligible to become Maid of Cotton. Entry forms are available from the National Cotton Council, P.O. Box 18, Memphis, Tenn.

Entry forms must be completed, and returned to the Cotton Council's contest headquarters postmarked no later than midnight, Dec. 1. Two photographs must accompany the completed entry forms. One must be a head and shoulders picture and the other a full length view.

The Cotton Council emphasizes that the Maid of Cotton competition is not a beauty contest in its usual sense. Judging is on the basis of intelligence, personality, and poise, as well as appearance.

From the group of entries, approximately 20 girls will be selected to come to Memphis for contest finals. The two-day contest finals will include personal interviews, photography, and a final appearance before an audience at Ellis Auditorium. At that time, the 1955 Maid will be announced.

The girl who is chosen 1955 Maid of Cotton has an action-packed, six-month adventure ahead. She will tour some 40 major cities in the United States, Canada, and Europe to carry news of American cotton fashions and a good will greeting from the cotton industry. The itinerary of the Maid will be extended in Europe next year, and it also will include the Pacific Northwestern states and Vancouver, B. C., for the first time.

As official envoy from the land of cotton, the Maid will appear as featured model in all-cotton fashion shows in each city she visits. She will present a good will message to mayors, governors, city and civic leaders at each tour stop.

Throughout her whirlwind travels, the young cotton emissary is constantly in the spotlight. Her activities are widely featured by radio, television, newspapers, and magazines.

At the beginning of her cotton tour, the Maid of Cotton will go to New York to spend the month of January. There she will be completely outfitted in a fashionable year-round cotton wardrobe. Best-known designers in the United States will create smart cottons for every occasion and for every season for the Maid to wear on her tour. The wardrobe will show latest developments in cotton fashion fabrics and will illustrate the season's pace-setting fashion trends. European designers will add cotton fashions to the Maid's collection during her visit abroad.

Sponsors of the Maid of Cotton are the National Cotton Council, the Memphis Cotton Carnival, and the Cotton Exchanges of Memphis, New York, and New Orleans. An official chaperone representing the Cotton Council will travel with her.

Texas Western College supplied the cotton industry's 1954 Maid. She was blue-eyed, 20-year-old Beverly Pack of El Paso, an outstanding junior student at the Texas college. Beverly has returned to school this fall to complete work on her degree.

State Exams - - -

A supply of applications will be sent to each County Superintendent and to the Dean of Education of each of the approved institutions of higher learning. Applicants should be instructed to complete the form in full and submit it to the examiner when they report to take the test on October 19.

vision in both eyes to a degree constituting virtual blindness.

The law requires that eligible veterans wishing to take advantage of this benefit must apply within three years after October 20, 1951 or three years after separation from active service, whichever is later.

Fame and Fortune Await 1955 Orange Bowl Queen

Based on past Miami Orange Bowl Queen contest records, college charmers have an edge on younger high school lovelies in the 21st annual version now under way. Seven of the last 11 winners came from campuses of three universities in the state.

Corinne Gustafson, in 1949 a 16-year-old Coral Gables junior high school girl was the youngest to take the tiara during the last 11 years. Barbara McCrick, the current and 20th annual Orange Bowl Queen, was a 1953 Miami high graduate. She succeeded Marion Ettie, a University of Miami coed, who won the Florida Citrus Queen's crown the same year, which led to two European tours for her.

In addition to Marion, the other U.M. "Hurricane Honeys" who triumphed in the glamor race were Muriel Smith, 1944; Vernell Bush, 1945; Jeanne Biegger, 1948, and Mary Davison, 1951. The other beautiful collegians to rate the Orange Bowl throne were Mary Delma Brice, Stetson University, 1947, and Ruthie Garst, Florida State University, 1952.

Libby Walker, a Coral Gables model won in 1946; Ladine Van Wagoner, an air line stewardess, 1950.

Girls from other states enrolled at the University of Tampa or other Florida schools are eligible to compete with the rest of the field limited to Florida residents. None must ever have been married. The winner and four runners-up princesses agree to devote their Christmas vacations to the Orange Bowl Festival at Miami, Dec. 25 through Jan. 3.

In deference to costumers and stylists who create wardrobes for the court, a deadline for hopefuls to submit three required photos of themselves as initial contest bids will be earlier than in past years. Pictures and accompanying vital statistics should be sent without delay to the Orange Bowl Committee News Bureau, 615 S. W. 2nd Ave., Miami 36, Florida.

Neither entry blanks nor sponsors are required but coed candidates frequently are nominated by fraternities, sororities and student newspapers or magazines.

New Scholarship For Education Majors

J. T. Kelley, State Director of the Division of Teacher Education, Certification and Accreditation, has notified Superintendent J. Crockett Farnell that an examination to fill vacancies for General Scholarships for the Preparation of Teachers will be held in Tampa on Tuesday, October 19.

The scholarships available are for use beginning with the fall term of the 1954-55 school year; therefore, the examination will be open only to students already enrolled in college this fall.

Superintendent Farnell is making arrangements for the holding of the examination for white and Negro college students. Applicants for vacancies available for White students should report to Hillsborough High School, room 144, at 8:30 o'clock. Negro College students desiring to take the examination should report to the Courthouse, second floor, northwest wing, Board of Public In-

URSO, GRECO STAR FOR RND.

The '54 intramural football season got under way yesterday with a fast moving Rho Nu Delta squad soundly trouncing Kappa Sigma Alpha 30-0.

It was the spectacular running of Phil Leto that broke the back of KSA. Showing speed and deception, Leto scored three touchdowns for 18 points.

Two TDs on Passes

Ernest Urso threw a ten yard pass to Joe Greco to account for another RND score and Labota heaved a 15 yard toss to Hank DiStefano for the final tally of the game.

All six tries for the extra point after touchdown were unsuccessful. KSA's Rouge was a definite threat to score, each time he carried the ball but was never able to cross the double stripes.

Line Play Rough

Both Rho Nu and KSA fielded a capable line, though the latter had a couple of men who were new to the squad.

Outstanding for RND in the line were Urso, Menendez, Di Libertis and DiStefano.

Pete La Bruzzo and Charles Archibald were responsible for a large share of the KSA stops.

The losing team suffered a minor casualty. Don Oleson, who played some heads up ball for KSA, suffered a broken wrist watch but was able to resume play after a time out.

Students Selected

Two students have been selected to represent the University of Tampa at civic clubs in Tampa.

Michael Capitano was chosen for the Tampa Rotary Club and Hugo Menendez will be the representative for the Exchange Club.

The Exchange Club will have a new representative selected each month by the University.

FRESHMAN PLANS FOR NEW YEAR

Freshmen at the University have much fun and lots of excitement ahead of them, according to Sophomore Class President Rey Yvars, as he outlined present plans for the freshmen for the coming months.

First on the list is a pep rally for all students but especially freshmen Oct. 8. Noon of that day will find all freshmen in the lobby giving their favorite upperclassmen a pack of gum or a cigar, as the case may be, and that evening a giant pep rally to get everyone in the mood for the big game Oct. 9.

The day and night of Oct. 9 is Pajama Day, starting with a pajama parade to the game and the Rat Hop afterwards, to which all freshmen will wear pajamas. No freshman will be admitted to the dance not wearing pajamas.

A pep-squad is being formed of freshmen for football games and is under the direction of Miss Daphne Myers, director of girls' physical education.

Rey also said a freshman variety show was being planned, and they are looking for a snappy name for it, something starting with S— to go with Spartans, but he said any good name that is snappy will be accepted for consideration. He is also looking for freshmen with talent, so all talented freshmen should see Rey Yvars, president of the sophomore class.

Rat court will be held Oct. 13 for all Rats who forgot to wear their ratcaps to the first home game and have committed any other offenses.

Tonight's Game To Be Rough Win or Lose

The University of Tampa Spartans, with their initial grid victory for the 1954 season already under their belt, left for Chattanooga, Tenn., yesterday morning, where they will battle the tough University of Chattanooga Moccasins tonight.

In their first outing this season, Head Coach Marcelino Huerta's charges scored a 31-26 win over Mexico City College in Mexico City.

Upon arrival in Chattanooga yesterday, Coach Huerta led his Spartan squad—33 strong—out to Chamberlain Field for a brief limbering up workout and a glance at the grid-iron which will be the scene of tonight's clash. The red, black and gold climaxed its practices in Tampa Thursday afternoon with a one-hour drill. The drill was devoted mostly to brushing up on offensive plays and means of stopping the Moccasins' T-formation attack.

Chattanooga will also be seeking their second win of the season tonight in their battle with the Spartans. In their first outing of the youthful grid campaign, the Chattanooga decisively trounced Jacksonville Alabama's State Teachers and in their most recent outing took a 45-0 drubbing at the hands of Auburn, a strong South Florida Conference entry.

A few of Coach Huerta's first stringers are on the doubtful list hence there may be several new men in his starting lineup tonight. Pete McLeod, fiery end, has an injured elbow and will not see action. Fred Chicago (speedy back, has an injured arm and may see limited action only.

Alpha Chi's Plan Founders Day Tea

In honor of Alpha Chi Omega's 69th year, actives, alumnae, and pledges will join together at a Founder's Day Tea, on September 17th. Preceding the tea, pledging will be held for Delta Kappa alumnae. Those to be pledged are Gwen Finney and Joan Irvin Wagner.

October 18th, Gamma Pi chapter will initiate Nan Nivens, Dixie Patterson, Mary Taylor, Helen Powell, Kay Clements, Mabel Galbreath, Sylvia Petteway, Doreen Ross, Marilyn Sollish, Diane Achenbach, and Carol Sandman, in ceremonies conducted by the active chapter and the Tampa Alumnae.

Officers Elected

Eleanor Ebsary has been elected President of the chapter for this year. Other changes in officers are: Treasurer, Jerry Davis; Assistant Treasurer, Mickey Bailey; Lyre Editor, Martha Thrailkill; and Scholarship Chairman, Doreen Ross.

Some familiar faces are missing from our ranks this year. Those who graduated were Jayne Anderson, Pat Neff, and Barbara Billett. Marilyn Viscusi, Carolyn Spoto, and Dolores Hood have married and left school. Those transferring to other schools are: Sandra Matheson to Emory University, Jo Danahy to State Teacher's College in Mass., Myrna Durham to Bible College, and Charlotte Brunke to the University of Florida. Dawn Palmer is assistant band director in a Virginia high school. Norma Jean Spoto is job-hunting (again).

A possible Spartan starting lineup may consist of Jim Mayo and Dickie Harte, McLeod's replacement, at ends. Reggie Colvard and Captain Bob Lovely at tackles with Nick Waytovich and Joe Zalupski at guards. Ted Greene will be at the pivot post.

Tampa's T-formation attack will be directed by "Bullet" Bill Minihan with Lamar Lipsey and Don Herndon or Ken Nuznoff at halfbacks and Al Leathers at fullback.

Coach Huerta is hopeful his crew will get revenge for a 30 to 7 lacing administered by the Mocs in the only other meeting between the two teams.

In addition to the 33 players, three coaches and three managers made the journey to Chattanooga.

The travelling squad:

Coaches — Huerta, Bailey and Williams.

To Poem Or Prose?
That Is A Question

All college students are cordially invited to submit original verse to be considered for possible publication in the Annual Anthology of College Poetry.

This is the Twelfth Annual College Competition.

The recognition afforded by publication will reflect definite credit on the author, as well as your school. Over a hundred thousand mss. have been submitted to the National Poetry Association in the past 10 years. Of these, about 4,000 have been accepted for publication.

Rules are simple—as follows:

Mss. must be typed or written in ink on one side of a sheet. Student's home address, name of college and college address must appear on each ms.

Students may submit as many mss. as is desired. Theme and form may be in accordance with the wish of the student contributor. In order to give as many students as possible an opportunity for recognition and because of space limitations—shorter efforts are preferred.

Closing date for submission of manuscripts is Nov. 5. Manuscripts should be sent to Dennis Martman, Secretary, National Poetry Association, 3210 Selby Ave., Los Angeles 34, Calif.
