THE CANTERBURY CLUB

The Canterbury Club of Tampa U held its first organization meeting in the Canterbury Room of the University, on October 16, at 12:30.

The Canterbury Club is composed of all Episcopal Church students, and has as its aims, to provide opportunity for student to receive the teachings and life of Christ through faith and practice of the Episcopal Church. Its aim is also to bear witness on the campus of the Lordship of Christ over the whole life of mankind.

At this meeting, the adviser to the organization, The Reverend Clarence W. Brickman, appointed Jim Stoutsenberger as chairman of the club, and Beatrice Peters as Secretary-Treasurer.

The Canterbury Club is looking ahead towards a full schedule of social entertainment and Christian fellowship, and all Episcopal students are invited to attend the regular meetings held every Tues. at 12:30 P. M. in the Canterbury Room on the floor above the library. Jim Stoutsenberger

MUSSIN' AND FUSSIN'

by Walter Weber

A student has suggested that a return match with the fighting Hatters of Stetson would be an excellent method of filling the stands at Phillips Field. Perhaps he has something there. With 18,000 seats in the stadium, a try at filling them is certainly worth the effort.

FSU, although having its share of trouble in promoting school spirit, is well on the road to success thanks to a clever utilization of the school symbol, a Seminole Indian in native dress.

A Seminole Indian jacket in the original colors has been designed and its sale is being promoted on the campus. The students are being encouraged to wear these jackets at pep rallies and at football games.

Be nice, wouldn't it, if the students of Tampa U had something like that to wear to pep rallies (if we had pep rallies).

The administration was kind enough to pay for the recovering of the lobby chairs. The chairs look very well, indeed, and it is too bad that certain of the students see fit to abuse them by placing their feet upon them. Pushing them around the lobby in a rough manner isn't going to keep them looking particularly nice, either. Perhaps it is too much to ask, but still we do ask that these student wake up and realize that their behavior is a reflection on the whole student body. We ask that they realize too, that the rest of us would like to keep the chairs in good condition. They are not the only ones using these chairs. They are, however, the only ones misusing them.

An aside to Marcello Maseda---- This may interest you. A certain Senior Student Senator was standing beside a student who was sitting in one lobby chair with his feet displayed prominently upon another chair. Our Senator did not see fit to rebuke the offender or even to ask him to remove his feet from the chair. Not a very good example is it!!!

LAND HO

It is surprising what one can hear in the movie theaters. The other night I was sitting in one of the rear seats when I heard a feminine voice behind me, "Hands off, Columbus, you've discovered enough for one night."

ALPHA PHI OMEGA REORGANIZES

Here is your chance to become active in a live fraternal organization!

Interest shown at the first meeting last week indicates that this fraternity will be one of the most popular on the campus.

Cliff Palmer, Jr., who founded Tampa U's chapter in 1949, says, "Now that the college is about to become recognized, we can really go to town!"

Invitations are extended to men who have had former activity in scouting; a good scholastic standing; and a desire to have fun helping the college, to join.

The next membership meeting will be held in the Rawlings Room, (where you had your pictures made) at 12:30, Monday, October 29.

If you want to make good friends, enjoy college life, and help out, then show up Monday! This is your fraternity! Be there!

A moral for professors: Don't catch cheaters. . . .

At a school in Teheran Persia, Dr. Abdul Hamid Zangeneh caught a student cheating on an exam. The student promptly whipped out a pistol and shot and wounded the professor.

We are not the only school with Alma Mater trouble. Pity the poor male students at the University of Miami. The pitch of their Alma Mater is so high that very few of them can even attempt to sing it all the way through.

This we deny: That Lou Randall wrote the article that appeared in a recent issue of the Minaret entitled "Over the Coals With Louella." Miss Randall did not write the article in question and states that she considers the article unfair and an inconsiderate piece of writing. The writer of the article will remain anonymous.

MEMO: To the members of the band who called the Minaret and complained bitterly about the article "Over the Coals etc.": It is your privilege to criticize that or any other article. We hope to see an answer to the article in the "Letter to the Editor" column in the next issue, asking us just what we mean by publishing that type of article. The Minaret will give space to any student who writes a letter to the Editor on a matter of student interest.

This could set an example for us. At the Purdue-Miami game a group of over 600 sailors joined the cheering section of the University of Miami. They were crew members of the USS Bower and the USS Cabot and had been invited as guests of the University. In less than four days, the sailors had learned every Miami yell and they made a spectacular addition to the cheering squad. In view of this it seems a shame that it takes four years or more for our students to learn all of the cheers for this school.

Until further notice the Student Senate will meet every Monday at 12:30 p.m. All students are invited to attend Student Senate Sessions and we hope that they will take advantage of this privilege. Your representatives will be better able to serve you if, through your own first-hand knowledge of Senate procedure, you can let them know your wishes.

BIOLOGY FIELD TRIP

Little Miss Muffet decided to rough it

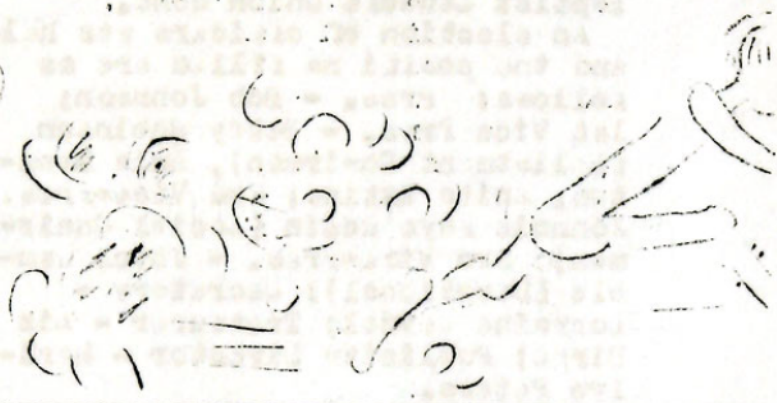

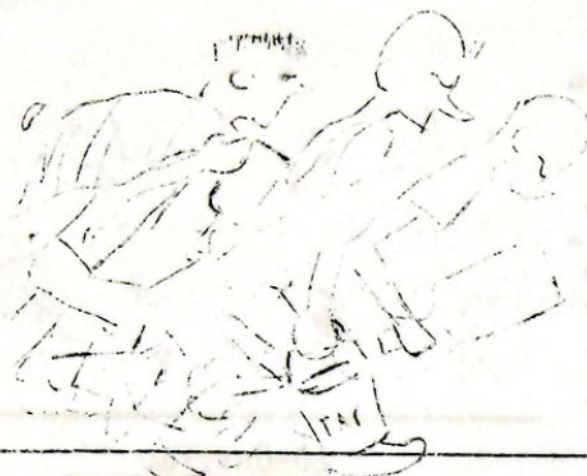

In a cabin quite old and medieval;

A student espied her and plied her with cider

And now she's the forest prime evil.

ORGANIZATIONS

THE NEWMAN CLUB

by Mickey Smarse '54

The down to earth Father Murphy gave an enlightening talk on his travels in Brazil at our last Newman Club meeting. After the meeting a musical depreciation song fest was held with the vivacious lead of Father Mallen (who incidentally hasn't got a bad voice). After a few little ditties the group romped off to Howard Johnsons (out on Dale Mabry) to help settle their yearning appetites.

Say you party going Catholics--don't forget to keep your eye out for the notice of the party held in honor of the members. The notice will be on the bulletin board. Come one and come all--and no strings attached!! Transportation will be arranged by Jim Heffren.

A bigger and better Tampa U, simply depends on what you do.

METHODIST STUDENT ORGANIZATION

The Methodist Student Organization is having a luncheon-meeting each Thursday, at 11:30. The luncheon idea is particularly set up for those members who must rush off to work as soon as the meetings are over.

During our last few meetings we have elected new officers, discussed plans for a party in the near future and started revision of the budget.

At the meeting on October 18, Dr. Laub, our faculty advisor, will present the introduction to a book we will study for several weeks, "Gods on the Campus." A guest speaker will lead discussions on each chapter of the book.

BAPTIST STUDENT UNION EVENTS

by Marilyn Peters

The Baptist Student Union held their weekly business meeting Thursday, October 10, with twenty-one members present. We are very proud to have this wonderful attendance and invite all Baptists of the University and all other students interested in Christian fellowship to meet with us every Thursday night in the BSU Room at 8:30. ### FRATERNITIES

ACE CLUB

by Mickey Smarse '54

The Ace Club started the year off with a bang! Their back to school dance was quite a success, what with sort music and pretty girls, everyone had quite an enjoyable time. President Harry Walston did express some regret, however, because there wasn't as impressive a freshman showing as had been anticipated.

A special message to the student body from President Walston, "I extend a hardy welcome to all the new students as well as the old ones, and I would like to see as many of you as possible join the Ace Club this coming semester."

A bigger and better Tampa U, simply depends on what you do.

TAU OMEGA

by Mickey Smarse '54

The other day, about noon, the TO frat. had its own little horseshoe meet. After a brief warm-up period the boys set out to have an elimination contest to decide just who was to represent the frat in the intramurals. The games were hot and furious and above the crowd came such notables as Ernie Reed, Carl Cowden, and Mike Rovnak, who virtually assured themselves of a spot on the team. The fourth spot is still undecided and many are still competing for the position. This last Tuesday night four new members under went an awesome ceremony and were formally initiated. Congratulations men--the TO frat welcomes you.

If there are any second semester freshmen who may be interested in our frat. please consult president Carl Cowden or any member of our noble organization.

A big and better Tampa U simply depends on what you do.

Baptist Student Union cont.

An election of officers was held and the positions filled are as follows: Pres. - Bob Johnson; 1st Vice Pres. - Betty Robinson (Enlistment Chairman), Eula Braxton, Anita Lxtine; 2nd Vice-Pres. - Johnnie Faye McLin (Social Chairman); 3rd Vice-Pres. - Joyce Wamble (Devotional); Secretary - Lorraine Weydel; Treasurer - Liz Birge; Publicity Director - Marilyn Peters.

Oliver Willbanks, Tampa Bay Association advisor to the BSU and Prof. Grace of the university is our school advisor.

One of the main points stressed at the meeting was to have a freshman Party in the near future. We have a grand bunch of new kids with us and we want them to feel right at home and enjoy the fellowship to be had. Watch for a later announcement on the time and place.

There are plans being discussed for a morning worship service to be held early one morning each week. Anyone having attended morning worship service in the past has found it very inspiring. Keep an eye on the bulletin board for a definite date on this meeting. Everyone is invited to come--let's make it a success this year!

RHO NU DELTA FRATERNITY

At its first meeting of the fall semester, held October 1, the Rho Nu Delta fraternity elected Steven Alfonso as its new vice-president.

Steven, better known as "Duffy" do his many friends, succeeds Bruce Renner, who has transferred to the University of Florida at Gainesville.

Other matters on the meeting's agenda were concerned with preparations for the coming rush week for new pledges. Two parties were planned for the prospective pledges.

The first affair will be a beach party at President Tom Spicola's beach house at Clearwater, on Oct. 14. All eligible members and their dates are invited to attend.

The other party, to be held on Saturday, Oct. 27, will be a stag that will take place on the estate of a former brother. Plans are still being formulated, and just as soon as they are completed the announcements will be made.

The planning committee for these affairs anticipated an enjoyable time for all that attend and urges all future members to mark these events in their activity books.

SORORITIES

THE DELTA KAPPA

The Delta Kappa Sorority started the year off with a very successful dance after the first home football game. The dance theme was "College Inn" and the lobby was decorated with banners and sorority and fraternity emblems.

With Homecoming only a few weeks off, the Delta Kappa's got an early start on their float and it is coming along very nicely.

Mary Esther Bartlett was the sorority's choice to represent them in the Orange Bowl contest.

New officers of the sorority are: President - Doris Henson; Vice President - Joan Irvin; Secretary - Frances Stevens; Treasurer - Alice Thomas.

ZETA DELTA PHI

The members and guests of the Zeta Delta Phi Sorority were entertained by Helen Lear, President, at an informal buffet supper at her home, October 5. The following afternoon, Joan Davis member sponsored a swimming party for her sorority sisters at Lake Ellen.

Joke of the week. . . . .

A hold-up man dashed into a tavern shooting two guns in all directions and yelled, "Okay, all you dirty skunks scam out of here."

The customers rushed out in a volley of flying bullets--all except one little timid man who stood at the bar calmly finishing his beer.

"Well," snarled the robber, brandishing his two smoking guns.

"Well," replied the little man, "there sure were a lot of them, eh?"
