Spartans maul Parsons College

by Larry Kutney
Sports Editor

A sign over the speaker's stand at the Tampa Quarterback Luncheon following the Spartan's 40-0 loss to Akron last week read:

"Forget it! Season Starts Saturday."

So last Saturday evening at Tampa Stadium the 1969 season again began for the University of Tampa Spartans, and after a week of fundamental football — blocking and tackling, the Spartans put everything together.

Homecoming theme set

The Spartans of U. of T. smashed the young Wildcats of Parsons College 51-0 for their first victory before 15,251 delighted fans at Tampa Stadium. Two stadium records were set during the rout. All American Candidate Jim Del Gaizo passed for 270 yards, and second-string split end Dave Milligan broke another record by catching three touchdown passes. Two of them were thrown by back-up quarterback Dick Frasca, for distances of 38 and five yards and one by Jim Del Gaizo from 29 yards away.

The defense, who held the Wildcats to 240 total yards, put 14 points on the scoreboard, twice with intercepted passes and one on a blocked punt that was driven back for a safety.

In the third period, 174-pound middle guard Ronnie Cox intercepted a pass and ran it back 36 yards to score. Defensive back, Matt MacVane intercepted another pass with 10:46 left in the period and returned it 24 yards for a score.

Between the two interceptions, linebacker Bob Huber broke through and blocked a Parsons punt, bouncing it back through

Vietnam Moratorium slated for October 15

WASHINGTON — The Vietnam Moratorium, a series of national, escalating anti-war actions, will begin October 15. Students at more than 500 colleges are already committed to spending the day in the community with door-to-door campaigns, teach-ins, rallies and vigils.

Accompanying the campus-based actions will be organized efforts by businessmen, clergymen, community groups and labor. All activities are directed against continuing U.S. action in Viet Nam.

The Moratorium has the endorsement of the National Americans for Democratic Action, the National Student Association, the New Mobilization Committee, and the National New Democratic Coalition.

Coordinated by a Washington office, the one-day October action would be expanded to two days in November, three days in December, escalating until the war is ended.

The National office is staffed with veterans of the McCarthy and Kennedy campaigns. Among those are Sam Brown, 26, one of the principle organizers of the youth wing of the McCarthy campaign; David Mixner, 24, another McCarthy staffer who currently serves on the Democratic party reform commission headed by Senator George McGovern; David Hawk, 26, a draft resister and former southern civil rights worker who was an all-American diver at Cornell; Marge Sklencar, 23, the former student body president at Mundein College who is a veteran of numerous political campaigns.

Rejecting recent announcements by administration spokesmen of token troop withdrawals, the coordinators said:

"We will continue to work until a substantial change of policy is affected and the war is ended.

"The discredited policies of the past which have brought about this American tragedy have not changed.

"The token displacement of approximately 60,000 troops simply is not the substantial change of policy that is so desperately needed."

"The Birds" Fact or Fiction

SAN FRANCISCO (CPS) — Mass attacks upon students by militant black birds at the San Francisco State campus has caused some suspicion that producer Alfred Hitchcock may have been foreshadowing things to come in his thriller, "The Birds."

Amateur ornithologist Alberto Duro, an authority on Italian birds, suspects that the birds get drunk on a type of berry that ripens in the spring and summer months on the campus. Resident radical ornithologist Paul Kangas says the birds are using guerrilla tactics. The birds, according to Kangas, have a sense of territoriality and fly at the backs of peoples' heads during the nesting and mating seasons.

"They will not attack if you look them in the eye," assures the bird-watcher. Seems they do fear an eyeball to eyeball confrontation.

Rate hike 10 percent

Civil Aeronautics Board raises youth fair rates

WASHINGTON — (CPS) — Airline youth fares will continue, but not at the current half-price discount.

The five-man Civil Aeronautics Board (CAB) decided here this month that while the fares, which enable persons 12-22 to fly standby at low cost, were fair in principle, airlines should be allowed to raise them to 60 per cent of the regular coach fare.

The reason: steep wage settlements, more expensive fuel, and higher landing fees have lowered airline profits excessively, according to the CAB, and price increases in both regular and promotional discounts are necessary to increase revenue. The major air carriers offering special youth fares — American, Continental, Northwest, TWA, United, Eastern, and Western — are expected to take advantage of the CAB ruling and raise their prices. The new rates will take effect Oct. 1.

A CAB spokesman said further hearings will be held on the "economics" of the discount rate as soon as a court case brought by Trailways Bus Systems against the CAB is settled. Trailways contends it is discriminatory for there to be any discount for youth at all, since adults must pay full fare.

The youth fare issue was forced to a head last January when several bus companies, all of which had lost business to the airlines on account of the fares, filed suit to make the CAB listen to their arguments that the discounts were illegal.

The Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals in New Orleans, agreeing with some of the arguments, ordered the CAB to investigate, and CAB examiner Arthur S. Present subsequently found the fares to be "unjustly discriminatory" and in violation of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958.

Present recommended the fares be abolished, but the CAB delayed action when protest was registered by the National Student Association, the Campus Americans for Democratic Action, the National Student Marketing Corporation, and many students and parents who deluged CAB offices with letters.

Three measures were introduced in Congress in support of the low-cost youth fares.

In its recent decision, the CAB concluded, contrary to Present's earlier findings, that the fares were not discriminatory, but benefitted all travelers. By engendering development of a new market they "have contributed sizably to making modern equipment and convenient schedules more broadly available," the CAB said.

"It is clear that the youth standby fares have generated a significant amount of new traffic," it said. "The 12-22 years age groups are more responsive to price than is the market as a whole. Moreover, in addition to the short-run generative effect of youth fares, the long term traffic impact also is significant. By encouraging persons to travel by air at an early age the fares will inculcate habits . . . which will be reflected in a ready acceptance of air travel throughout their adult lives."

COLLEGES Across the Nation

(W. Va. U. "Daily Athenaeum")—Potential drug users from junior high and high schools, adult groups, 4-H clubs, and even one state college get the fact about drugs from West Virginia U. pharmacy students.

Sponsored by the Students Pharmaceutical Association, students are beginning their third year of lectures throughout West Virginia and in parts of Kentucky and Maryland.

Last year the group reached approximately 35,000 people—mostly students—according to Jerry Boyers, third year pharmacy student and one of the lecturers. Boyers said, "We try to get them before they start using drugs. We don't preach; we just give them the facts."

Using a large slide library, the 30 to 35 pharmacy students do all the research, write, and deliver the lectures. Each talk is divided into four parts: barbiturates, anti-histamines, narcotics and hallucinogens. After an explanation of each type of drug, a question and answer session is held in which the student audience expresses its interest.

Boyers said the students' questions are usually about the effects of continued or extensive use of drugs.

Made up entirely of volunteers, the group operates on contributions from pharmaceutical organizations, citizens, and business.

(U. of Penn. "Daily Pennsylvanian")—WXPB-FM, the radio voice of the University of Pennsylvania, inadvertently broadcast its programs to aircraft landing at New York's Kennedy Airport this summer.

According to the Federal Communication Commission, the station's transmitter began emitting a harmonic frequency which happens to be the landing frequency for Kennedy. One Pilot reportedly heard WXPB broadcasting its phone number and forwarded the number to the FCC.

Palmer warns Nixon

"Lowered draft calls, token attacks on poverty . . . these monuments to failure are what my generation will not buy any longer," stated Charles Palmer, the new president of the National Student Association.

Palmer, of Los Angeles, said that the "system" in general and the Nixon administration in particular must respond to the American crises or "we will do it our way ourselves."

"This is your (Nixon's) last chance to prove yourself to our generation. This is not a threat. It's a warning," said the 22-year-old president, at a news conference in announcing plans for the NSA activities for this academic year.

Palmer is a June graduate from the University of California at Berkeley.

President Nixon has called for the cancellation of the draft calls for Nov. and Dec. in his recent statement on Sept. 19. He also has proposed a system of the "moving age group" to replace the controversial draft law presently enforced. If Congress fails to repeal the section of the draft law that prevents the President from instituting a random selection system, Nixon plans to use the little used power of Executive Order to put this long waited proposal in action.

The draft call of 32,000 men scheduled for inductions in Nov. and 18,000 in Dec. has instead been limited to the 29,000 scheduled to enter the armed services in Oct. This call will be divided among the remaining months of this year so to insure effective useage of the training facilities.

Under the Moving Age

Group system, the draftees would be selected each month from among those who are then 19 years of age on an "oldest first" basis. This would be in the order of the month and day of birth. Since the prime age group would change each month, this would concentrate inductions on men born in particular months, such as the beginning of the calendar year.

Under this plan the amount of time of which the young men are subjected to the draft will be reduced from seven years to twelve months. However in the first year of initiation, the program will also call for men with the A-1 classifications and expired deferments.

West, Bernhardt return from D.C. conference

by Barry Lydon
Staff Writer

Dr. Charles West, Dean of Students, and Jim Bernhardt, President of Student Government, returned last week from Washington, where they attended the Presidents Conference.

The purpose of this conference was to "show the nation the responsible leadership of America's campuses and to draw attention to the true image of the majority of today's students."

During the four days of the conference, Dr. West and Bernhardt participated in four group discussions which were titled Campus Conciliation and Mediation, Codes of Conduct, The Ombudsman, and Drugs on College Campus.

The Conference was sponsored by the Association of Student Governments and attended by 300 Presidents of College's along with their Student Government Presidents.

Among the many prominent speakers were, Secretary of Health Education and Welfare, Robert Finch and General Lewis Hershey, director of Selective Service.

President Nixon addressed the conference in the East Room of the White House. Later they were greeted by Nixon's daughter, Tricia.

Dr. West stated, "One of the main ideas brought out was to bridge the communication gap between students and administration."

Greeks hold parties to lure prospects

by Sharon Cohen
Staff Writer

Last week the battle of the fraternity and sorority began. During this time the Greeks entertained rushees at a series of social functions trying to lure them into their group.

Tampa University has six national fraternities on campus: Alpha Epsilon Pi, Pi Kappa Phi, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Tau Kappa Epsilon, Theta Chi, Tau Epsilon Phi, and four national sororities: Alpha Chi Omega, Alpha Sigma Alpha, Delta Phi Epsilon, and Zeta Tau Alpha.

To be eligible for the above social organizations one must:

1. be a fully matriculating student at the University of Tampa.
2. carry at least 12 hours.
3. not be a member of any other national fraternity or sorority.
4. have registered for rush and paid the $5.00 fee.
5. have or maintained at least a 2.0 average.
6. not be on academic and disciplinary probation.

During last week twenty girls signed up in Dean John's office, and over 200 boys signed up at the various tables set up by the different fraternities in Plant Hall.

Pool opening delayed to October 25

Vice-President for Business Affairs Edmund P. Sliz has announced that because of the rain, the pools scheduled opening date of October 10 will be postponed. Sliz said the opening now has been set for October 25. He pointed out the rains have softened the fill area around the pool and has halted men and equipment from entering the vicinity. As soon as the ground has dried sufficiently, workers will begin grading the fill area. The pool deck, which will be laid soon after, will mark near completion of the pool, he added.

In 1965, Tampa University's debate team won victories over Harvard and Princeton. Those victories were followed up by a defeat of McGill University (Montreal, Canada), a visiting team from the British Isles, and a second defeat of Princeton.

This year, the University will debate teams from the British Isles and the Soviet Union; both debates will be open to the general public at the Tampa campus.

Anyone interested in joining should contact Dr. Hugh Fellows, Room 245, Plant Hall.

There are also openings for those interested in competing in Public Speaking, Poetry Reading, and Extemporaneous speaking.

Thanks - DR. DELO, DR. WEST, DEAN BENTON, and students for making the TKE OPEN HOUSE a great success. The condition of the house certainly reflects a strong campus image.

Congratulations to Lillian and Kenny Dickson and to Bob and Sheryl Cook on their marriages and to Chuck Birch and Barbara on being engaged. Congratulations to Charley Abel and Wendy and Ron Cento and Babs on their lavaliers and to Larry Albert and Dee who are pinned.

MISCELLANEOUS:

Rumor has it that Abel is taking lessons from his feathered bird. Is it true Grundy has trainer wheels for his bike? Has Smitty gone off the deep, Conti to the dogs, or Beattie to a hotel? Ask Senfleber about the night of acquiescence with eight cheerleaders at Akron.

Alpha Chi

Alpha Chi, University of Tampa's national honor society, will hold its first meeting of the year in the International Room.

The officers for this year are: President, Bob Hanna; Vice-President, Jo Ellen Faraghan; Secretary, Kathleen Stone; Treasurer, Georgia Hopper.

Our thanks go to Dr. Charles West for serving as our faculty advisor last year and for those swinging beach parties. We would like to welcome our new faculty advisor, Professor Robert Spahn, our new Program Chairman, Dr. Robert Harder, and our Social Chairman, Dr. Marlon Ellison. Plans will be discussed for the future induction of all members which will take place in November.

Alpha Epsilon Pi

As the fall semester is under way the Brothers of Alpha Epsilon Pi are once again making the news on campus with a hot dog sale, car wash, car smash, and a few wild parties.

Our congratulations go out to Mike Fineman who will assume the Presidential office as of October 15. We KNOW that he will do a great job.

Coach Tut has informed me that the football team should have its best record ever this year. Some of the

Delta Phi Epsilon

The Deepers want to give a belated hello to everyone and welcome to Tampa. We are all very busy making plans for Fall Rush. Our sorority room has been redecorated and looks really great. Many thanks to all the great guys who gave us a lot of help. We couldn't have done it without you.

We want to thank the sisters of Alpha Sigma Alpha for the party Sept. 23. We certainly enjoyed it.

Plans have been made for all kind of sales this semester. Our cookie sale of Sept. 24 was a great success and we hope everyone stays hungry!

Best wishes to the football team in all the games, both at home and away. Everyone go and cheer our team!

Theta Chi

The Viking "New Year" was officially begun Friday, Sept. 19, with a party at the Phi Delta Kappa Hall. Only a few casualties and one or two minor incidents were reported. One request was made by the band, however, and that was for the return of a psychedelic light which was reported missing. Word of mouth has it that it will be used to light the "No Smoking" sign in the new library.

As it did last year, T. C. will be sponsoring a "most valuable player" award to be given to the outstanding Tampa U. football player at each home game. The brothers are proud of the football team at the university and wish to show their appreciation in every way possible.

A cocktail party was held at the Men's Garden Club before and after the game with Parsons College last Saturday.

One question remains unanswered "Is Dennis Carr really married?" D.L.

Alpha Sigma Alpha

Alpha Sigma Alpha wants to congratulate all those who have managed to survive four weeks of college life. But folks, the worst is yet to come, cafeteria food, teachers who insist on giving a two hour lecture in 45 minutes, term papers and no library, mid-term grades and other small disasters.

The Alpha Sigs would like to thank the Alpha Chi's, D Phi-E's and Zetas for coming to our parties. We have enjoyed these informal get-togethers with you all and we hope to have you all back soon.

A bit of warning to all playing in the co-ed volleyball tournament. ASA has the team that can't be beat except when we play. But it is all in fun - 18 stitches, black eyes and sore wrists.

Sigma Phi Epsilon

The brothers of Sigma Phi Epsilon want to extend a welcome to all the new young 'strappers' here at the university. Our house is located at 315 Hyde Park and its red doors are always open.

The brothers are very optimistic about the present semester. They are developing a conglomerate and 'brotherhood' is the theme. The first party to the weekend occurred last Friday at our 'Polish Wedding' at the B.P.O.E. and infamy was the highlight. Bros. Kontantides performed the ceremony and Bros. Reighthoffer was the happy bride. The emotion was excruciating.

The summer was beneficial to most of the brothers and many returned with more moves than Allied Van Lines. Bros. Chuck Hain's modus operandi has definitely been augmented after seeing "Staircase" this summer. Bros. H. Knowlton has acquired a sharp 'dune-tracker' over the summer and enjoys it very much. At the annual Cape Cod convention it was resolved that 'wide-tracking' would be warranted until the brothers are vomiting.

A short on a returning brother. Bros. Larry Elliston's return to U of T was received with discreditability. It was reported that after Bros. Elliston heard that Bros. Johnson was in our fraternity and not an advisor he was said to have answered between crusted lips. Bros. Tom Imms was said to have developed crocodile tears upon hearing Elliston's reply. He said later it was upon hearing that Johnny Cash was going to sing "Peggy-Sue" at Sig-Ep weekend. He answered later that it was a shock!

Bros. Chris Lagi acknowledged that he had a nice summer but was a little saddened about all the sand he had kicked in his face at the beach. Bros. George Schick was applauded for his outstanding costume at the Polish Wedding. George went as a Polish torch.

To close the Sig-Ep Folio for the week I, Bartleby, want to quote something Bros. Joseph Mancusi was reported to have said, "Brothers, if you have any questions, answer them."

Alpha Chi Omega

The Alpha Chi's have planned a very exciting semester. It began with Chi Clinic which worked out well to shorten our very long Tuesday night meetings. We hope they stay shorter! Our first successful event was the picnic we gave in honor of our Big Lyres. Although the day was dreary, the picnic was lively and all had a blast - Thanks to our

U. of Florida hoping for road show of "Hair"

The New York company of "Hair", the Broadway hit musical, is now forming a road show, which will tour the country sometime in the late fall, according to Alan Howes, Student Government Production Coordinator at the University of Florida.

The Broadway musical may play at the University of Florida in Gainesville this fall. Howes has made arrangements to go to New York and discuss the possibilities with the William Morris Talent Agency, the representatives for "Hair."

"The most important consideration right now," Howes said, "is to negotiate a price that will get this act here for students at a low price. So far our negotiations have been successful."

Howes also added that "In keeping with our policy of offering top entertainment at the lowest price possible, there will be some expensive seats, but also some for as low as $2 for this production."

The production will be staged in the Florida Gym because of staging problems, and the capacity will be cut to 4,500 persons.

When asked about censorship problems, Howes said, "I have given censorship some consideration, but "Hair" falls into the category of art and I feel that the administration can't consider this anything else but art."

There have never been any nude scenes in any production at the University.

There's a rumor going around that Tampa is something short of first rate in the entertainment field. This is completely unfounded. To the natives, Tampa is known as Florida's Fun City.

Name your poison and Tampa's got it; you just have to know where to look. Here is a little shove in the right direction.

Beginning with things close at hand, there's the Islands' Club on Davis Blvd. This is a Thursday and Sunday night attraction only.

You must be 21 to get in and big John Yates, 6' 2" and 220 pounds, should be checking ID's so you won't be inclined to argue. Look for Otto behind the beer bar.

The quality of the bands appearing varies. Occasionally, quite a good group plays. The dance floor is small so the main sport is The Pick-Up.

To play correctly, don't be entangled with a date. Lots of local girls come stag and, after all, the place is dark.

The same going-on are going on at Dino's which is more psychedelic. Guys have to be 21 to get in, girls 18 if they don't drink.

Here you'll find a tiny dance floor, a band, strobe lights, a bar and lots of unattached people. It's on Dale Mabry.

A similar arrangement is found at the Patio, which also features football player-bouncers and free beer nights.

The most psychedelic of all is new and unique. It's The He and She Scene on Henderson Blvd. Again, no minors allowed.

This place will scramble your mind. The walls flash, the floor blinks and the ceiling reverberates with the recorded music.

Movies, which may feature Donald Duck screaming around the room, are shown on the walls.

There are black lights, strobe lights, flashing lights and whirling lights. If you can't collect your mind enough to dance, you can always drink.

Malt liquor and mixed drinks are available.

This is only one kind of entertainment, but it's a popular one. Welcome to Fun City.

Benton replaces Terry in dean of men's office

by Kathy Roy
staff writer

John Benton, graduate of the University of Florida and Furman University in Greenville, Ill., was appointed new Dean of Men this September, replacing Mr. Alvin Terry, at the University of Tampa.

Terry resigned last spring to teach in the Economics Department.

Benton left St. Leo College, located near Dade City to assume the responsibilities of male housing director, advisor to the intrafraternity council, and assistant the new Dean of Students, Dr. Charles West.

When asked his impressions of Tampa University Benton stated he was, "Very impressed with the student body." He was also fascinated with the history and architecture of the administration building.

Dean Benton is also active on the golf course, and at the bridge table. He is presently teaching faculty members and students how to play bridge every Wednesday night in the Student Center. He enjoys watching most sports including football.

You can't get anything you want at "Alice's Restaurant"

(CPS) — All the Arlo Guthrie fans who are jamming premiere theaters to see his film version of "Alice's Restaurant" are finding the movie isn't at all what they came to see.

"Alice's Restaurant," based on the very popular and very funny song "The Alice's Restaurant Massacre," is not very funny. It doesn't even try to be for the most part. Yes, the funny lines from the song are there in the story of Arlo's being arrested for dumping garbage and his failing the draft physical because of his "criminal" record. But the humor is secondary to the serious, sad, and often depressing side of Arlo Guthrie's adventures as a college drop-out folk artist trying to pick up where his father left off.

The movie is very biographical, and it appears that Arlo no longer has the carefree attitude toward life and the trials life brings that he had when he penned the song. There are poignant scenes in the movie as Arlo thinks of his dying father, folk singer Woody Guthrie, and as he later visits his parents with Pete Seeger.

There are also serious scenes involving a friend of Arlo's who is hooked on heroin, attempts to kick his addiction, and ends up dead from an overdose. The anti-hard narcotic message is almost trite from overuse in the films in the late '60s, but a beautifully photographed cemetery scene with Joni Mitchell singing a eulogy makes it another poignant moment in the film.

There is no indictment of grass, by the way, as Arlo and his friends frequently pass the joint.

There is somewhat of an indictment — or a questioning at any rate — of the "beautiful people" life which Alice and her husband Ray Brock try to sell as the film progresses and more worried over the futures of friends. The couple buys an old church (in Great Barrington, Mass.) and turns it into a commune for hip friends; Alice also starts a restaurant nearby. But even with lots of friends, music, and excitement their unhappiness together and their live. The couple becomes less happy and sure of it-fears show.

Guthrie himself is more of an observer of all these happenings than the star of the movie. His life is rather shy — one of standing in the background observing and feeling. His performing moments come in telling the tale of the song.

And that tale comes off a lot better on the recording. The lines from the song, for the most part, are funnier when one can use his imagination. When theatrically spoken in a technicolor movie with

Likewise the movie causes some scenes which had created brilliant images in the mind upon hearing the record to be reduced to unimpressive reality. Take the garbage dumping scene. Officer Obie calls Arlo and says, "I found your name on a piece of paper under half a ton of garbage." Image. In the film, where the image is drawn out for you, it wasn't really very ridiculous at all. The garbage pile wasn't so big, and there was nothing difficult about finding Arlo's name.

Officer Obie, played by the officer who actually arrested Guthrie on the dumping charge, gives one of the most refreshing touches to the film. To see a real cop portraying himself as a fat, dopey cop is a delight.

The movie attempts to create for the screen Arlo's true-life experiences as accurately as possible, while still providing enough meat to sell tickets to a general audience (not just Arlo Guthrie fans.) Unfortunately for those of us who had expected it, "Alice's Restaurant" is not a slapstick, hilarious sequel to the song. It is instead a presentation of both the happiness and unhappiness in the lives of the people it presents, and the unhappy, serious, and concerned side dominates.

An FCC spokesman said the commission brought the complaint to the attention of the station and ordered it off the air until the problem could be rectified, which it was, nine days later.

One pilot, who was monitoring the signal, had but one complaint. "They're playing that damn hippy music again," he commented.

(U. of Miss. "Daily Mississippian")—A student product is making good.

It's called PerfectA-Footnote, and it's a spacing guide for term papers that has been on sale at book stores across the country.

It has been so successful that the inventor, K. S. Fowler, a graduate student in forestry at Berkely, decided to expand his limited promotional activities.

The product is a backing sheet used in the typewriter to indicate where to stop typing for proper margins. It was originally designed as an aid to spacing footnotes, but has found extensive use as a margin guide even when footnotes are not involved.

Fowler often confronts a vicious circle, however. Most students don't know the product exists, so they don't ask for it. Stores then don't order it . . . and the students still don't know it exists.

(Stanford U.)—A relatively new medical test, designed to detect infectious mononucleosis, was challenged last week by a Stanford University pathologist.

The spot test, tried recently on two Stanford patients, indicated a positive diagnosis of infectious mono. But on further examination, the two patients — both college-age males — turned out to have a more serious disease: lymphoma, cancer of the lymph gland tissues. In another case what appeared to be mono was actually viral hepatitis.

Speaking at a meeting of the American Society of Clinical Pathologists in Chicago, Dr. Paul Wolf said, "The test is too sensitive and other diseases can cause a positive result, leading to the wrong diagnosis."

The test in question has been widely used throughout the United States. It uses horse cells, and takes only two minutes to perform.

Mono, often called the "kissing disease," usually occurs where large groups of 15-to-25 year-olds associate, as on college campuses.

(U. of Arizona "Daily Wildcat")—A free university at the University of Arizona completed its trial run this summer and received a successful rating from Mark Ginsberg, president of the Associated Students of the U of A and a founder of the free university.

The university was created by an act of the student senate last semester to promote group leadership and effort in a learning situation.

The free university has no connection with the administration or the student government. It is run by interested persons with classes at religious centers, apartments or any free space.

Class subjects during the summer ranged from science fiction to the Vietnam War to sensitivity training.

Ginsberg termed summer attendance "excellent" with approximately 150 people attending the sessions. A mass meeting is scheduled for early October to organize the next session of the free university.

(U. of North Dakota)—A student and a faculty member from the University of North Dakota have been named to a committee to study the feasibility of moving student publications off campuses of North Dakota institutions of higher learning.

The committee was established as a result of a motion adopted by the State Board of Higher Education. The feasibility study is the outgrowth of controversies of the past year about alleged vulgar words in student publications. One student and one faculty member were named to the study committee by all institutions under the Board's control.

Tampa U. Drama Department presents "Our Town" by Wilder

"Jane Crofut, Crofut Farm, Grovers Corner, Sutton County, New Hampshire, The United States of America, Continent of North America, Western Hemisphere, The Earth, the solar system, the universe and the mind of God," "Our Town" Thornton Wilder.

The University of Tampa Drama department will present "Our Town" Wednesday, Oct. 8 - 11, with matinees and evening performances at 1:30 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. in Falk Memorial Theatre. Students may obtain tickets I.D.'s at Falk Theatre.

According to Vincent J. Petti, theater director of Falk Theatre, "Our Town" is being presented because it is a great American classic and because the play presents the fundamentals of every day life, and it shows what most people have forgotten, how to show feelings for others.

"Our Town is a beautiful, intriguing story of the simple life of a small New England town and its citizens. You are taken into the intimacies of two families—the Gibbsses and the Webbs. We experience with them the many encounters that take place in their lives, their loves, and their losses. The play is touching, affectionate, and heartwarming.

A professional actor, Dave Upson, will play the leading roll of stage manager. The rest of the cast will be University of Tampa students. The leads include: Dr. Gibbs, Art Langan; Mr. Webb, Neil Viceno; Mrs. Gibbs, Holly Taylor; Mrs. Webb, Lissa Sawyer; George Gibbs, Jan Vest; Emily Webb, Mary Quigley.

Rounding out the cast will be Tom Rumana,

Sailor faces 35 years in prison; freedom of the press in question

WASHINGTON (CPS) — What the popular folk group Peter, Paul, and Mary sing about in its song "The Great Mandella," parallels the recent experiences of a Washington, D.C.-based sailor who faces a possible 35-year prison sentence for publishing an anti-war newsletter.

Roger Lee Priest, 25, a native Texan, is the main character in a much-publicized case involving the Navy, the D.C. Department of Sanitation, and those organizations which attempt to bring public indignation to bear on cases involving freedom of speech and press.

Priest began the publication last April (while stationed at the Pentagon). His newsletter is called "OM — The Serviceman's Newsletter," an anti-war, anti-military publication which claimed a circulation of 1,000 by its second issue. Near the end of June, the Navy filed official charges against Seaman Priest. On August 28 a general court-martial was ordered.

Priest is accused of: soliciting members of the military forces to desert and commit sedition (concerted revolt or violence against the government with intent to cause its overthrow); publishing statements which were designed to promote disloyalty and disaffection among members of the U.S. armed forces; and publishing statements urging insubordination, disloyalty, and refusal of duty by members of the military with intent to impair loyalty and discipline. In response to all this, Priest, a journalism graduate of the University of Houston, contends:

"If I can be put away for a number of years in prison for the mere writing of words — an act so basic to the founding of for saying the same thing many newspapers and Americans have been saying for years.

"But for some reason the fact that he is in the military means he no longer has the right to hold these opinions and express them. This kind of thing just has to be stopped. We're not trying to destroy America; we're just trying this country that it finds its basis in the First Amendment to the Constitution — then my crime is speech."

The case has begun to reach the ears of the public. At a concert in Washington this month, Peter Yarrow of the Peter, Paul, and Mary group dedicated "The Great Mandella," an anti-military song, to Priest and commented that "this man exemplifies what we're trying to say in the song. This man may be jailed for 35 years for saying the same things a candidate for president of the United States (Gene McCarthy) said last year, to save what is good about it. And that means saving men like Roger Priest from the injustices perpetrated by the military. Man; like it's just his life we're talking about — 35 years."

Reprints of news stories related to the case were distributed with the message: "Write your Senators and Congressman, send copies to John H. Chafee, Secretary of the Navy." As the investigation proceeds, Priest's off-duty actions have not been restricted, although he reports extensive surveillance.

Akron loses to Eastern Michigan, 10-3

AKRON, Ohio — After upsetting powerful Tampa, 40-0, Coach Gordon Larson's squad lost for the second year in a row to Eastern Michigan, 10-3, while trying to avenge one of its 1968's two losses. Tampa had beaten the Zips 24-9 and Eastern Michigan stunned Akron in the closing minutes with a 100-yard TD pass Interception for a 16-7 victory.

"The 40-0 win over Tampa in the 16th annual Acme-Zip Game was a super effort by the entire football team," said Coach Gordon Larson. Tampa University came into the Rubber Bowl ranked number six in pre-season polls. Larson added, "Although our offense put 40 points on the board, our defense was the key to the victory. For the second straight week our defensive unit, nicknamed the "Executioners," shutout the opponent, kept us in excellent field position, recovered three of six fumbles and intercepted three passes. Defensive tackle Dave Holian, who turned in his second straight outstanding performance, had 15 solo tackles and has lived up to our expectations of being a Little All-American candidate.

"Going into the game we felt our offense could move the ball, but we were concerned with stopping Tampa's 9.7 sprinter Leon McQuay and quarterback Jim Del Gaizo. We held McQuay to 39 yards and got to Del Gaizo nine times for a — 52 yards.

Field trips to state parks and beaches have been planned for the ensuing weeks. As well as being a prepared exercise in biology, these excursions are an excellent source of "relaxed" learning.

The club is open to biology majors and other interested students. Questions about the organization can be directed to the club president, Jim Applin, to faculty sponsor, Dr. M. L. Ellison, or to other members of the biology staff.

Spartans vie with S. Illinois saturday night

by Larry Kutney
Sports Editor

This Saturday afternoon the University of Tampa Spartans challenge the Salukis' of Southern Illinois University at Carbondale, Ill. Last season the Spartans were defeated 23-20 at Tampa Stadium in the only meeting between the two schools. The Salukis' led by Coach Dick Towers have a sound offense and rugged defense. Last week they defeated Youngstown State 43-14 as veteran quarterback Allen Barclay and Soph Bob Hasberry led the offensive attack. Hasberry, a 6-1, 205 halfback is a 9.8 sprinter and has good power and could be one of SIU's best. Quarterback Barclay took over in mid-season and Southern won 6 of the last 7 games. Combining with Barclay is fullback Wilbur Lanier, a 5-10, 195 pounder who averaged 3.5 yards a carry last season. SIU's top lineman include sophomore Lionel Antoine, a 6-7, 240 pound end, who could become a great one, Terry Cotham, 6-2, 235 lb. guard and Mark Solvis a 6 foot, 195 pound linebacker.

On October 11, 8 p.m. at Tampa Stadium, the University of Tampa will attempt to repay the Golden Hurricanes of the University of Tulsa for a 77-0 loss in 1967. Last week the Arkansas Razorbacks routed Tulsa 55-0. It was the first time Tulsa has been shutout in 26 games. Under Head Coach Vince Carillot, the Golden Hurricanes are led by two All Missouri Valley selections in Doug Wyatt, 6-1, 194 pound halfback, and Luke Blair, 6-0, 225 pound linebacker, Sophomore Defensive Player of the Year in the conference. Two strong men up front are end Doug Macauley, 6-6, 238 and tackle Dennis Kemp, 6-2, 240.

the end zone for a safety.

The Spartan offense finally put it together. The passing game, divided between Del Gaizo and Frasca picked up 313 yards and the running game, with Willie Miller, Bruce Brown, Leon McQuay and Paul Orndorf carrying, earned 281 yards. Leon McQuay was the leading ground gainer with 65 yards and one touchdown. The fleet-footed Willie Miller picked up 50 yards, while Bruce Brown gained 40 yards in the tight situations.

The Spartans were the leaders in the statistics department. They gained 14 first downs to Parsons 5, gained 118 on the ground and 177 in the air as compared to 70 on the ground and 23 in the air for the Wildcats.

Head Coach Fran Curci on the sidelines as the game neared the finish, stated, "We still were a little sloppy, but better." Now that the Spartans have the winning attitude, we'll be a lot tougher for the remaining games.

Probably the happiest person after the game was 6-4, 235 pound freshman Bob Brown. Last year he was red shirted and also in the fall practice this year, but he has given all his heart, and it finally paid off this game. Bob recovered one Parson fumble and also intercepted one pass in his first college game.

The University of Tampa opened its 1969 Football Season in Akron, Ohio, and returned home and in the air, gobbling up 140 yards rushing and 151 yards passing. If one star had to be picked from the Zip squad the honors would go to 155 pound Jack Beidleman, the man who can do everything.

Beidleman scored four touchdowns for Akron; he gained 95 yards on the with a 40-0 loss. Not since 1969 in Tulsa has any team scored as many as 40 points against Spartans as did the Zips of Akron in that opening game in the Rubber Bowl. The last team to blank the Spartans was nationally Number 2 ranked Tennessee 38-0 also in 1967.

Not too much can be said about the Spartans in their opening game loss. Tampa was never really in the game, either offensively or defensively. They played most of the game in their own territory, with their deepest penetration to the Zip 11, where a Jim Del Gaizo pass was intercepted to end the Spartans only threat.

The Zips outplayed Tampa both on the ground ground in 31 attempts and 72 yards as a receiver. He slanted off tackle, followed fullback John Vargo in drives through the middle and took pitchouts to the outside. He was "Mr. Disaster" to the Spartans, and "Mr. Everything" as he tore up the turf to the delight of the 42,869 fans at the Rubber Bowl.

Intramurals open with billiards October 6

by Ron Wegner
Staff Writer

Horseshoes and billiards will open up the 1969-70 men's intramural competition. The entry dates for these events have been changed. Entries for both horseshoes and billiards will close Thursday, October 2, and play will begin October 6.

Tug of war is tentatively scheduled for Tuesday, November 4. Sign up dates will be announced.

The 1969 Intramural football campaign got under way with the first annual Jamboree. The football festival was held September 25. Not only was the team turnout good but approximately 500 students showed up to cheer on their favorite dorm or fraternity.

Competition opened with the champs of last year's dorm league playing the champs of the fraternity league. These teams were the majors club (P.E. majors) and Sigma Phi Epsilon, respectively. The majors club came out on top by a score of 6-0. SPE was without the services of all star Craig Cerrone.

Outstanding performances were put in by Larry Youkum — Independents, John Magnolia and Jay Franks — Majors club, Ed Lilley and Bart Travaglio — Theta Chi, Doug Howell — Sig Ep and John Napier — McKay Hall.

Basing the season predictions on the showing made at the Jamboree, Theta Chi looks like the power in the fraternity league and the Independents look like a winner in the dormitory league. Overall, the dorm league looks like a stronger, more competitive league.

T. U. marching band numbers 50

The University of Tampa Spartan Marching Band is an all male musical marching organization numbering about fifty students representing virtually every academic area of the university. Under the direction of Richard Rodean, Chairman of the music Department, the Spartan Band has become a vital core of the collegiate spirit both on and off the campus. Designed to provide good half time entertainment within the limitations of a small varsity band, while making possible a valuable laboratory arranging experience for music education majors, the men of the Spartan Band take an active role in all college athletic functions.

Complementing the marching band is the corps of majorettes and silhouettes, under the direction of Mary May. Spirit is further supplied by the help of the eight girls and one male cheerleader.

Theta Chi's award outstanding player

Dave Milligan, a split-end from El Paso, Texas, is the first recipient of the Theta Chi Fraternity Most Valuable Player Award, for his outstanding performance in the Parsons home opener.

Milligan broke a stadium record by hauling in three touchdown passes, two of which were thrown by second-string quarterback, Dick Frasca, for 38 and 5 yards, and a 29 yard reception from Jim Del Gaizo.

DAVE MILLIGAN

An engraved plaque will be presented to Milligan at half-time during the Tulsa game, Oct. 11, by Theta Chi's own "Joe Spartan," Joel Medjabow.

The fraternity will again award a plaque to the outstanding player in each of Tampa's home games this year.
