Forward Fund Surpasses Goal

By DR. RICHARD D. CHESHIRE

I am pleased to announce that the 1978 University of Tampa Forward Fund gift income campaign has met its goal and doubled the amount received last year.

Our goal was to raise $800,000 by December 31, to complete our fiscal 1978 $300,000 gift need as well as fiscal 1979's $500,000 gift need, not counting the scholarship monies generously provided by the local pari-mutuel philanthropy. As of this morning, with some late mail still arriving, we had $801,774.62 in gifts or pledges in hand, plus we are expecting a total of $101,397.76 from Florida Downs, Tampa Dog Track, and Jai Alai. This 1978 result will allow us to begin soon through Forward Fund 1979, to raise funds for the fiscal 1980 budget, giving the University of Tampa one of the few true "Forward Funds" in the country which in fact raises gift income during the year prior to the year in which the income actually is spent. The virtue of this is that spending plans related to gift income are based on monies in hand rather than hoped-for.

Last year at the same time we had received $371,000 plus $74,000 from pari-mutuel. I have no doubt that this doubling of gifts in one year will prove to be one of the most extraordinary accomplishments in college annual fund efforts anywhere in the nation this year.

Our dramatically increased goal was not only to allow us to begin true Forward Funding or advance financing of the gift budget, but also to pay for a new and substantially more ambitious scholarship program which places new emphasis on Tampa Bay area students. With the increases in the Forward Fund we have been able to upgrade our outlays for scholarships from $264,000 last year, to $523,000 this year and we are projecting $739,000 for next year. This year's scholarship program brought 107 new honors scholars to UT of whom 76 are from local high schools.

Our success was made possible in large measure by the excellent leadership of Trustee Fred Learey, the Forward Fund chairman, and by his principal associates and many volunteers. Our special thanks go to three Tampa Foundations that provided a $100,000 challenge grant—the Conn, Falk, and Saunders Foundations—and by alumni and local businesses, whose gifts were up dramatically.

I might add that the $801,774 that we are counting does not include restricted or in-kind gifts that do not apply to our budget needs, but we did increase some budgets a total of $68,000 because of special gifts and these increases have yet to be accommodated.

This extraordinary accomplishment is a major achievement for the Tampa Bay Area and I want to say that it has made all of us at the University of Tampa very grateful. We are determined to increase our service to the local area and the excellence of our programs accordingly.

Downtown Area

Tampa To Host New Gasparilla Events

Downtown Tampa, Florida, will offer stepped-up public festivities for Gasparilla, 1979, beginning Thursday, February 8, and continuing with colorful daily activities through Gasparilla Day, Monday, February 12.

Gasparilla Day, a local Tampa holiday, commemorates the eighteenth-century harassment of Tampa by pirate Jose Gaspar. In defiance of Gaspar's invading pirates, Franklin Street Mall and the Downtown Development Authority in 1979 will sponsor "Rebel Revel: The People's Gasparilla Party."

The "Rebel Revel" will begin February 8 with the decoration of Franklin Street Mall. In the evening, twenty-five feisty couples will embark on a treasure hunt; the winning couple will become Street King and Queen and start to mobilize the city for its frenetic resistance.

Friday, February 9, will feature a special noon competition on Franklin Street Mall, followed at nightfall by a free public Street Festival and Masquerade Ball. A celebrity Prime Minister will crown the Street King and Street Queen in the thick of varied and colorful events—a masquerade ball with live band; dance and costume competitions; and vibrant exhibitions, entertainment, and concessions.

On Saturday, February 10, the Gasparilla Distance Classic Association will sponsor several long-distance running events, including the Gasparilla

The University of Tampa is in the National Register of Historic Places, on the Bicentennial Trail and is a National Historic Landmark. Now, it is the permanent site for the two cannons that are said to be the oldest remaining objects from Fort Brooke, the first settlement in Tampa. The guns date to 1853 and were placed within the Indian

Mrs. Anna Murray Honored

By IRV EDELSON

Mrs. Anna Murray, secretary to the director of financial management at the University of Tampa, received a 15-year service pin this week at the annual Recognition Ceremony for university personnel.

Eight employees received 10-year pins and 13 others were awarded 5-year gold minaret-shaped pins signifying long service at the university.

Ten-year pins were awarded by University President Richard Cheshire to Isabel Areta, Edna Brazenor, Tramel Jimmy Dailey, Elizabeth Freeman, Nilda Martin, Kaete Snook, Janis Staley and Frederick Weiler.

Five-year pins were presented to Louise Agnew, Gail Bauer, Lydia Burquet, Jim Cremer, Gullermina Gonzalez, David Jackson, Kenneth Kackley, Sara Kent, Barry Lydon, Juan Mallea, Beverly Palmer, Hansel Singletary and Gracie West.

war post of Fort Brooke by Secretary of State Jefferson Davis, who went on to become the first and only president of the Confederacy. UT President Richard Cheshire and Tony Pizzo of the Hillsborough County Historical Commission are shown here after removing the covering of the new marker on the guns, which can be seen on the south side of the union. Shown from left are: Dr. J. Mark Lono, secretary of the university; City Councilman Charles Spicola; Dr. Cheshire; City Councilman Tom Vann (rear); Pizzo; James Leigh (behind Pizzo), who conducts the UT antiques clinic, and Cermette Clardy, vice president for public affairs at UT. The guns were said to have been used to repel a Federal landing party during the Civil War.

A Frosh Approach

By TONY DeSORMIER
Minaret Staff Writer

Yes, faithful readers (both of you) I return once again this semester to try and write a column that, although you may not agree with, you'll at least find somewhat enjoyable. I'm going to attempt to write a somewhat more conventional column. But I imagine this will not last long.

Upon returning to school, I noticed a lot of new faces. I soon found that a majority of them were crew teams here for a type of spring training. Then I heard that we had almost 250 new transfer students. But we also lost approximately that many students who transferred away. It's nice to see some new faces around. They add another spectrum to this already interesting place we call home 8 months of the year. I just wish to welcome you and hope that your stay with us will be somewhat pleasant and that perhaps you will grow to at least tolerate this place.

Speaking of crew teams, I realize we have fairly decent facilities here and am a little proud that we are a fairly popular choice with such big league schools as Rutgers, Columbia, etc. But more than one person besides myself has grumbled that these schools are overstaying their welcome. Some of the visiting athletes are pleasant and gracious guests. But other schools have athletes who tend to be a little obnoxious. Like the group that started throwing food in the cafeteria one night last week. And another group who have been acting fairly obnoxious and pushy in the Rathskellar. I don't wish to suggest that we stop these schools from coming here, but I do think we could expect a little better behavior from these people who we are showing hospitality and sharing our already cramped quarters.

SPOT CHECKS

Yes, folks, WTUN is back on the air and broadcasting once more. General Manager Bruce Davis wishes to apologize for the delay that occurred and hopes that we will have a little better luck this semester.

For anyone who may be interested, the Styx and ToTo concert that is planned for this weekend in Lakeland has been postponed due to a physical problem in the band. The tentative date is March 14.

If you're ever at Tampa Bay Mall and feeling a little hungry, stop in at the Big Top Sandwich Shop. It's similar to a deli and they make a sandwich called "the Rowdie." It's made with ham, roast beef, and turkey, with two types of cheese. It's definitely worth the price.

Editorial Response

To Chris Taylor

By THE PHANTOM

Dear Mr. Taylor:

This editorial is in response to your lackadaisical, opinionated, and feeble-minded editorial called A FORUM FOR INANITY (silliness).

I would like to remind you that the Minaret is supposed to be fun and interesting to read. As you can see, there are very few staff writers and this makes it hard to put out an interesting newspaper week after week. Yet, it is the few students who submit articles each week that keep the Minaret going.

According to you, there shouldn't be any fiction articles in the Minaret because you feel they degrade the newspaper. What do you consider quality? What would the paper be like, if each week, the only articles you could read were Carl Hite's recitation of each page of the student handbook on meal card abuse, and drugs in your room, articles by Fr. Bob Wiesenbaugh on fasting, and advertisements for peer counseling, Rico's, and Rene's Lounge where you can dance with your buddy? If this is all you would like to see in the Minaret, you must be quite a boring person, which you are since I know you well. However, the Minaret is not boring. Luckily, there are a few people here who can come up with funny and amusing stories. I am one of those people, and I don't write these stories just for the sake of writing them. Each student is faced with many pressures and unless a student can relieve these pressures, he can go crazy. Why is there such a high suicide rate in college? Because the pressure gets to students and they crack. So unless you want to "crack" you must relieve some pressure, and the way that I and people like Rock Garramone and Tom Shoonmaker, relieve pressure is by writing these articles. This is an outlet for our frustrations.

You say our stories belong in Quilt. Quilt is published only once a semester—so how much writing can we do for it? You also say that there should be a section in the paper called "Tales from the Minarets." But the stories we submit are not something that would go into a short story or novel. They are fictitious news stories which are written with imagination.

You also said that we are downgrading the newspaper and that the Minaret needs quality articles. If you think it's easy writing stories—let's see you write something. We put a lot of hard work into our articles and we do a damn good job. Without stories like ours, the Minaret would be just like any other newspaper: Boring.

Here's a frightening thought. What if Mr. Taylor was the editor of the Minaret (heaven forbid). Here's how it would be arranged:

- Page 1. Full color picture of Chris Taylor's face on entire page.
- Pages 2 & 3. Chris Taylor's life history up to the present.
- Pages 4 & 5. HEEEEERRRRZzz Carl!
- Pages 5-7. Sports exclusive: The UT Rifle Team talks about the UT Rifle Team.
- Pages 8 & 9. Fr. Bob and friends.
- Pages 10 & 11. Spiro's 1st annual pizza eating contest. Rene's Lounge weekend special . . .

Sound pretty boring? Believe me, it was even boring to write. It has to be terrible to read! Perhaps that's the kind of newspaper Mr. Taylor would like to see.

I hope that many of you Minaret writers feel as insulted and disgusted as I am and hopefully you will all write editorial replies against Mr. Taylor.

Before THE PHANTOM signs off, I would like to explain that the only reason I call myself THE PHANTOM is that I have more fun writing anonymously. I get away from some of the pressures surrounding me when I become THE PHANTOM: UNDERCOVER REPORTER.

If you want to write an article on something you see around the campus, Mr. Taylor, go right ahead. I'm sure it will be terribly interesting (chuckle). And finally, if you actually think that my stories and the stories of others degrade the Minaret, then you can go to HELL.

THE PHANTOM

The Phantom Rites Again

Hollywood is actually coming to the University of Tampa. Under the direction of Dino DeLaurentis, UT is going to be the place of a major motion picture entitled "King Kong meets the Monster of the Minarets." The plot is relatively simple, King Kong swims across the ocean, into the Gulf, and finally into the Hillsborough river where he destroys all of Davis Island first, then continues on to destroy all of the bridges leading to UT. When he finally gets to campus, he climbs out of the river and first destroys the boathouse and the docks. Next, he improves UT by destroying McKay Hall. Next, he helps even more by destroying the cafeteria.

After he finishes with the cafeteria, he hears a loud screeching noise high above him. He looks up in the sky but sees nothing. He hears the loud screeching noise again and he glances up to the largest minaret above the lobby of Plant Hall. Here, for the first time, he sees the "Monster of the Minaret." It's a long, serpent-like creature, one-hundred feet long, wrapped up in a coil on the minaret. It's tongue shoots out about twenty feet, with poisonous barbs on the end. King Kong sees this creature, pounds his chest, and walks over to Plant Hall and proceeds to scaling the building. The creature, being one the smartest on earth according to Milton, disappears into the minaret and moments later appears in the minaret that belongs to Kappa Kappa Psi.

Kong is at the first minaret where he saw the creature. He is very puzzled as to its whereabouts. Before Kong comes to his senses. The serpent-like creature attacks Kong from behind and wraps his body around Kong's neck and proceeds to choke him. Even though I'm an undercover reporter, and one the best I must add, I must respect my sources. If they don't wish me to report any further on "King Kong Meets the Monster of the Minaret," I must respect their requests and inform you that you will have to see the movie to find out what actually happens to Kong. Be looking for this movie in the summer at a theatre near you.

However, my sources have informed me that Mr. DeLaurentis is going to be looking for a two hundred extras for the movie which he plans to film this spring, so if anyone would like to pick up an extra 40 bucks a day this spring, go over to the registrars office on January 33rd and put your name down. Extras will be hired on a first come, first serve basis.

P. O.'d

Oh, you shallow people.

I see you in the Rat, drinking deep draughts to fill your shallow heads. You drink as a safety valve, lay your fifty cents down for your mug of artificial happiness. You bare your libido and drop the inhibitions which, without the excuse of your drunkenness, you are otherwise too afraid to discard. You gutless wonders.

And then, in that yellow-lighted meat rack known as the Rathskeller, you begin your mating dances. Clever hellos, subtle, double-entendre lines, thinly-veiled body language—all of that social foreplay is brought to bear.

In that driving urge to satisfy yourselves, to scratch your respective itches, you crawl. It disgusts me. It's World Series time, you love the Yankees, and you mention it to the girl you're so suavely putting the make on. She informs you that she thinks baseball is silly, and that, furthermore, she thinks the Yankees aren't worth spit. Oh, come on, you reply. They aren't all that bad!

Oh, yes, they are, she responds. Then she tells you that baseball fans are idiots.

Oh, well—you never were crazy about baseball anyway, were you? You've lost points; tell her how pretty her eyes are or some such garbage.

Or how about: "My Trans Am will do a hundred and ninety miles an hour!"

Oh, my goodness. Isn't she impressed?

Where are your standards? Any principles, convictions you had previously, have been chucked aside and forgotten in an effort to obtain an easy lay.

And never mind the fact that she (or he; let's not be biased) talks like a longshoreman and has the I.Q. of a brick. I mean, she's (or he's) cute, right? What the hell, it's a piece, right? And, even if it turns out that you can't stand her or him, that's after the fact, isn't it? Besides, it's not your fault—you were drunk last night, remember? You are absolved of all responsibility; never mind the fact that you willingly and enthusiastically got drunk beforehand.

You sad bastards. I pity all of you, and I pity none of you. The most distant objective in most of your minds is the next Friday night.

And yes, I can be seen at the White Way on weekends with a White Russian in my hands. Does this make me hypocritical?

I think not. But then, any attempt to explain this lends itself to being justification and rationalization, and I will not let myself be accused of putting myself upon a pedestal, despite my references to my own inflated ego (besides, I'm above that sort of thing).

I will quite truthfully tell you that I do not know where else to go with this column, though I'm sure many of you would be willing to offer suggestions. I've said enough to get most of you P.Q.'d at me, so I'm not even going to touch that favorite of college students everywhere, mari-jay-wanna. Goodness, gracious, no! I mean, I've been stupid enough to give you guys my P.O. Box number; do you seriously think I'm going to tell you how I feel about that and have you all write me and tell me I'm a commie/symp/radical who ought to be held down and inundated with chemical persuaders of various sorts until I see the Way, the Truth, and the Light?

Fool that I am, I probably would, but it is late at night and I really don't feel like it now (a supreme cop-out, I know). Besides, you all know what I'm going to say anyhow, don't you?

Steven R. Boyett, P.O. Box 1493

There—now, any unnecessarily nasty letters and I'll put you on Alcoholics Anonymous' mailing list.

Next week's column will probably be on Why Chivalry is Dead, or somesuch topic that you could care less about.

UT Travellers

By IRV EDELSON

University of Tampa's Travellers, shown here performing before the UT Woman's Club, will join Show Chorus at the big December production next Monday night in Falk Theatre, singing songs from "Pippin." Members of the Travellers also will take roles in the songs and dances from "Pajama Game" and "Hitch Your Wagon" during the regular Show Chorus performance.

Open Auditions For UT Theatre

Try-outs are being held tonight for two one-act plays. The plays, which will be performed April 6, 7, and 8, are titled "Yanks 3, Detroit 0, Top of the 7th," and "The Harrison Progressive School." Both plays were successful a few seasons ago in the Off-Off Broadway theatre.

The action of "Yanks 3, Detroit 0" centers around the pitcher's mound at Yankee Stadium. Duke Bronkowski, taunted by the base runners, loses his fast ball, his self-confidence, and eventually his career. The play is a comic treatment of middle-age, middle-class American values.

"The Harrison Progressive School" is an absurdist look at learning and student-teacher relationships in a futuristic, "progressive" school.

Try-outs for both plays will be held tonight from 7 to 9 p.m. in the Falk Theatre, on Kennedy Blvd. across from the UT campus. Any interested students, or non-students, are invited to try out. Contact UT Theatre director Gary Luter, ext. 351, for further details.

Tampa Theatre Opens With Bach

Tampa Theatre opens its Special Events Series with an evening of musical madness featuring Professor Peter Schickele and the USF Symphony in P.D.Q. BACH on Sunday, January 28 at 8 p.m.

Much to everyone's regret, Professor Pete Schickele has relentlessly and mercilessly pursued the compositions and musical contraptions of P.D.Q. Bach (1807-1742?) since 1963. While touring Bavaria, Schickele made his first discovery—PDQ Bach's Sanka Cantata, so named because a caretaker was wisely using the manuscript as a perculator filter.

Since then, Schickele (professor musicology at the University of Southern North Dakota at Hoople) has shamelessly rescued PDQ Bach's works from the oblivion they so richly deserve. In addition, Professor Schickele has compulsively reconstructed many of Bach's justly ignored instruments such as the left-handed sewer flute.

Despite public outcry, Professor Schickele and the USF Symphony will appear at the Tampa Theatre on Sunday, January 28 at 8 p.m. In the interest of public safety, management is obliged to announce that audience response usually includes fits of giggling with occasional uncontrollable guffaws. Tickets for PDQ BACH are on sale now at the Tampa Theatre Box Office, 223-8981, weekdays from noon until 5 p.m.

Master Charge and Visa are accepted. Free parking is available at the Exchange Bank on the corner of Zack and Florida. Ticket prices are $7.50/9.50/10.50. Tickets are also available at Bay area Maas Brothers.

Dance, Dance, Dance

The Florida Ballet at Jacksonville, a new professional company, is looking for dancers for its spring season. The company is under the direction of Michael F. Byrd and Laurie Picinich Byrd and will be working in Jacksonville from March 12 to April 22.

"We are looking for dancers with a strong technique and performing background," Mr. Byrd explained. "We are offering union level salaries so we can attract the best dancers." Auditions will be held in January in Jacksonville and Tampa. The directors are now accepting resumes and/or pictures.

"We are hoping that this will be a kick-off for a full time company," Mrs. Byrd said, "Hopefully we will be able to offer 40-week contracts in September. Of course, that will include touring throughout Florida. Right now we are in the midst of a fund raising campaign for the spring season."

Resumes, pictures and inquiries can be sent to the directors, Florida Ballet at Jacksonville, 5959 Fort Caroline Rd. #511, Jacksonville 32211.

Gasparilla Needs Float Riders

Applications are now being accepted for float riders for the 1979 Gasparilla Parade, February 12.

Each application must be accompanied by a full-length photograph and must be mailed to the Chamber no later than January 5. Applications postmarked after this date will not be accepted.

The Chamber will act as a gathering point for applications. Companies desiring participants will make all selections and notify prospective float riders.

Applications may be obtained at the Greater Tampa Chamber of Commerce, 801 East Kennedy Boulevard or by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Gasparilla Applications, The Greater Tampa Chamber of Commerce, Post Office Box 420, Tampa, Florida 33601.

Gasparilla Kicks Off With Street Festival

Franklin Street Mall seeks groups and individuals to set up exhibits, demonstrations, and concessions during the Gasparilla Street Festival, February 9 and 10.

Locations will be assigned on a first-come, first-served basis, and there will be no charge for participation.

The Street Festival will coincide with a free Masquerade Ball — featuring a live band, costume competition, and the crowning of a Street King and Queen — on February 9, and the Gasparilla Distance Classic on February 10. The entire weekend has been designated "The People's Gasparilla Party" and is sponsored by Franklin Street Mall and the Downtown Development Authority.

For further information, please call 223-8518.

Catch The Count Live

Due to a special television appearance on the West Coast, the Count Basie Concert, scheduled for February 14 at the Tampa Theatre, has been cancelled. Count Basie will not appear in Florida in February. Please call the Tampa Theatre Box Office, 223-8981, weekdays noon until 5 p.m. for further information.

Hoffman Players

By IRV EDELSON

An expanded series of Hoffman Family Concerts will begin Tuesday, December 19 at 8:15 p.m. in the University of Tampa Plant Hall Ballroom. An additional program is scheduled March 23.

The annual "Family Players" program will feature the entire Hoffman family Esther Glazer Hoffman, the University of Tampa's artist-in-residence; with her husband, Irwin, maestro of the Florida Gulf Coast Symphony, on the violin; Toby on viola, Joel on piano, Gary on cello and Deborah on the harp.

In addition to works by Robert Schumann, Camille St.-Saens and Jean Francaix, an original work by composer Joel Hoffman will be performed.

The Hoffman String Quartet is in residence at the University of Tampa, along with Ms. Glazer.

The concert is free and open to the public.

Jobs And Europe For The Summer

Job opportunities in Europe this summer... Work this summer in the forests of Germany, on construction in Austria, on farms in Germany, Sweden and Denmark, in industries in France and Germany, in hotels in Switzerland.

There are these jobs available as well as jobs in Ireland, England, France, Italy, and Holland which are open by the consent of the governments of these countries to American university students coming to Europe the next summer.

For twenty years students made their way across the Atlantic through A.E.S.-Service to take part in the actual life of the people of these countries. The success of this project has caused a great deal of enthusiastic interest and support both in America and Europe. Every year, the program has been expanded to include many more students and jobs. Already, many students have made applications next summer jobs. American-European Student Service (on a non-profitable basis) is offering these jobs to students for Germany, Scandinavia, England, Austria, Switzerland, France, Italy, and Spain. The jobs consist of forestry work, child care work (females only), farm work, hotel work (limited number available), construction work, and some other more qualified jobs requiring more specialized training.

The purpose of this program is to afford the student an opportunity to get into real living contact with the people and customs of Europe. In this way, a concrete effort can be made to learn something of the culture of Europe. In return for his or her work, the student will receive his or her room and board, plus a wage. However, student should keep in mind that they will be working on the European economy and wages will naturally be scaled accordingly. The working conditions (hours, safety, regulations, legal protection, work permits) will be strictly controlled by the labor ministries of the countries involved.

In most cases, the employers have requested especially for American students. Hence, they are particularly interested in the student and want to make the work as interesting as possible.

They are all informed of the intent of the program, and will help the student all they can in deriving the most from his trip to Europe.

Please write for further information and application forms to: American-European Student-Service, Box 70, FL 9493 Mauren, Liechtenstein (Europe).

Effective Living Using Your Potential

Director of Counseling

Have you ever said to yourself after failing to achieve something, "If I only tried harder I could have made it?" If you are like the rest of us, you have probably made this statement more times than you care to remember. As a matter of fact, one psychologist, Herbert Otto, asserts that we only use 10% of the potential available to us. Why is this so? Are we short-range hedonists? Are we unaware of our abilities? Have we had too few successes? Are we reluctant to try for fear of failure?

There is probably a little bit of truth in each of these. In order to succeed, however we each may define success, often requires hard work and perseverance. Putting your strengths to work requires that 1) you recognize them and 2) that the goal is important to you. Identifying goals as personally important is a function of our value system which guides our behavior. The person who has not examined and clarified his or her personal values may feel aimless, not motivated, or may underachieve in one or many situations. Once a person finds direction or meaning, vast stores of energy suddenly become available and facilitate goal directed activity.

Finding purpose is no easy task, but there is a systematic means available to help you confront this issue. The Counseling Center is offering a Human Potential Seminar this semester, the goals of which are to help the student become more fully-functioning in order to enjoy a more enriched life.

The objects of the Seminar are to help the student 1) become more self-affirming; 2) become more self-determining; 3) become self-motivating; and 4) to develop greater empathic regard for others.

The Seminar will meet from 1 - 2:30 p.m. on six consecutive Wednesdays starting on January 24. If you are interested in participating, sign up in Plant 300 before January 22.

Next Week: Dealing with Depression.

TV Course On Mainstreaming

By IRV EDELSON

New federal and state legislation requiring the placement of exceptional or handicapped children into the "mainstream" of education will be thoroughly examined in a University of Tampa Channel 3 graduate level course Jan. 11 through March 29.

The course, "Mainstreaming the Exceptional Child," can be used either for graduate credit or to renew a Florida teaching certificate. Cost is $84, which includes tuition and fees.

"Mainstreaming the Exceptional Child" provides the teacher with role-play episodes to explain the individual roles and responsibilities of teacher and parent in dealing with the exceptional child.

Personal insights of teachers, parents and students in dealing with the mainstreaming approach to education are also presented.

WEDU-TV will televise the course Thursdays from 6:30-7:00 p.m. starting Jan. 11. In addition to viewing the half-hour program, students are required to attend four Saturday morning seminars from 9:30 until noon, write a mid-term and final examination based on readings from the text, "Educating Exceptional Children," and television and seminar materials.

Instructor will be Dr. Helene Silverman, a reading teacher and consultant in the field. Dr. Samuel Brick, professor of education at the University of Tampa, is program director, and Dr. Howard Kratz, UT associate professor of education, is coordinator.

Deadline for enrollment for graduate credit is Jan. 26 in the Division of Education, University of Tampa.

The Minaret or Hite's Highlights?

Notes From The Dean:

SMILEY BY TEN

At the end of 6 events to determine the best residence hall on campus, Smiley Hall has taken a 10 point lead. Smiley has 510 points; Delo is in second with 500 points; and in third is Rivershore Towers with 358 points. Following is an update on the last three events that have been included in the contest scoring:

MOST IMAGINATIVELY DECORATED ROOM ON CAMPUS

On Tuesday, November 21, 1978 the contest to determine the most imaginatively decorated room on campus took place. The judging was difficult; there was a good number of qualified rooms on display. I want, at this time, to personally thank those students who were involved in the competition. The winner of the competition was room 104 in Delo Hall. The students living in that room are Oscar Laboy and Larry Jefferson. Coming in second was the room of Miss Lisa Granoff of University West - Room 205. Coming in third was Mr. Ron Garon of Rivershore - Room 210. As a result of their participation in the contest, Delo received 100 points, University West received 75 points and Rivershore Towers received 50 points.

Following is a list of room chosen for the competition:

Smiley - 131, 220, 247
Rivershore - 210, 602, 710
Delo - 104, 406, 501
Howell - 506, 509, 510
Alumni - 215
University West - 205
University South - 202
McKay - 138

ROOM INSPECTION—FALL SEMESTER

Smiley received 300 points for the best percentage of rooms that passed inspection. 93% of the rooms in Smiley met the minimum requirements. In second place was Delo Hall with a percentage of 71% and for their efforts they receive 200 points. Rivershore came in third with a percentage of 68% and therefore received 100 points. Howell was in 4th place with a percentage of 62%. In 5th was University South, West & Alumni who came in with a combined total of 49%. Bringing up the rear was McKay Hall with a percentage of 38%. If you would like to know how your floor or wing did in the competition, the hall directors have a list and the percentage that was achieved by each floor and wing on campus. This part of the competition will again be conducted in spring semester.

BEST DECORATED DOOR FOR THE HOLIDAY SEASON

The best decorated door on campus as determined by the judges was Room 410 of Howell Hall. The inhabitants of that room are Judith Leshner and Rhonda Clossum. For their efforts Howell Hall received 100 points. Coming in second and receiving 75 points for Delo Hall was Room 509, occupied by Linda Marcus and Dawn Davis. Coming in third and bringing in 50 points for University South and the outer buildings was Room 204, occupied by Shirley Wos and Pierre-Louis Martine. The judges had a very difficult time in that a large number of doors were decorated on campus. Again congratulations to those who were winners but also thanks to all those students who participated in the competition.

Very shortly after the beginning of the spring semester, the results will be announced on the grade point averages for the various residence halls on campus. Also, keep on the lookout for additional events taking place in the spring semester to determine the number one residence hall on campus.

University Housing

By CARL HITE
Dean of Students

Approximately 1,000 students lived in our residence halls at the University of Tampa this past fall. The purpose of the residence hall is to provide the students who live in that residence hall a comfortable environment to live and learn in.

And yet there are a handful of students who believe that is not the case. They believe the purpose of the residence hall is to have fun at other people's expense. Students should be able to study in the residence halls without being disturbed by others. Students should also be able to sleep without being disturbed by others. But I have been informed that that is not always the case. Just because you attend the University of Tampa, it does not mean that you have a right to live in the residence halls. It is my feeling that those students who cause a disturbance to others whether it be by being loud, disruptive or causing damage to the building, have no right to live in that building. Beginning immediately, a new policy is being implemented by the Office of

We Need Your Help

By PATRICIA WATTS
Housing Officer

The assistance of all students residing in UT Residence Halls is necessary for Physical Plant and the Housing Office to improve life on campus. Employees of these two offices begin work at 8:30 a.m. and are expected to complete the days scheduled tasks by 5 p.m.

Many students refuse to allow repairman to begin working in their rooms before 10 a.m. which hampers workman when they are trying to accomplish the necessary work. This may appear to be a small problem each day, however; if we multiply that one hour by five days a week and then again by the fifteen weeks that students are on campus we have several working hours wasted. The salaries here are paid through your tuitions and room charges and the repairs are made to improve your lifestyle. Please try to help us by allowing employees to begin work by 9 a.m. We are all working for the same goal so let's all pull together and give each other the cooperation that is necessary for a better life on campus.

Residence Life and Housing at the university. A list will be established of students who are disruptive during the spring semester of 1979. These students will not be allowed to sign up for housing for the fall semester of 1979. The list will be based on information gained from the following:

1. Report of Incident Forms
2. Incident Communication Forms
3. Opinion of Resident Assistants
4. Opinion of Hall Directors
5. Opinion of any other university officials that have come in contact with you during the spring semester.

If you want to live in university housing and take part in the many programs that are made available to students, then make sure your actions do not warrant a report of incident form or incident communication form being filed. Residence halls provide you an opportunity to live and learn and engage in a number of programs. A few students are not going to jeopardize this program because of their selfish aim. If you have any questions concerning this policy, feel free to contact the Director of Residence Life and Housing—Ms. Jan Jardieu.

Financial Aid Students

All students who wish to receive Financial Aid for the 1979-80 Academic Year should:

1. Submit to the Financial Aid Office a completed University of Tampa Financial Aid Application No Later Than March 1, 1979.
2. Submit to the College Scholarship Service a completed 1979-80 Financial Aid Form (FAF) No Later Than February 1, 1979.

Remember, all funds are limited! Therefore, your UT Application and the results of your FAF must be received in the Financial Aid Office No Later than March 1, 1979, to be considered for financial aid. Applications received after March 1, will be considered late and awards will be given only if there are still funds available.

If you have any questions, please contact the Financial Aid Office Immediately! Plant Hall, Room 306, Ext. 378.

Financial Obligations: Again

By CARL HITE
Dean of Students

It seems about once every three weeks of any semester I need to run an article in the Minaret concerning financial obligations. For some reason, a number of students at the University of Tampa have difficulty in writing checks with sufficient funds in their account to cover those checks. I receive at least one call daily from some business establishment in the city of Tampa concerning a bad check written by a University of Tampa student. A number of these companies and business establishments are refusing to cash checks from UT students because of these bad checks. I would like to believe that the students who graduate from the University of Tampa are responsible but bad checks are not a responsible action by anyone. Now in some cases there are mistakes.

However when 4 or 5 bad checks are written within a week, I don't think it is a mistake. When an employer calls this office, I inform them to take action against that student as they would anyone else who writes a bad check in the state of Florida. In the state of Florida writing a bad check is a misdemeanor or felony, depending upon the amount of the check. In some cases, the University of Tampa will take action against the student who has written bad checks.

If you have difficulty in balancing your checking account, feel free to stop by this office and some instruction will be provided to you concerning the balancing of your checking account. As I said, it is not fair to the majority of students who can handle their checking accounts properly that they be penalized for the action of a few.

Wanted: King and Queen No Experience Necessary

Do you have aspirations to royalty?

Franklin Street Mall seeks couples (one male and one female) who would like to reign as Street King and Street Queen during "The People's Gasparilla Party," February 9 - 11.

A secret committee will narrow the field of applicants to twenty-five couples, who will compete in a zany treasure hunt February 8. Besides taking home some great prizes, the winning couple will be crowned Street King and Street Queen February 9 during a Street Festival and Masquerade Ball on Franklin Street Mall. Runners-up will serve as courtiers.

To be considered for the treasure hunt, just write briefly to the Mall office, explaining why you and your partner would make a good Street King and Queen. Include addresses, phone numbers, and photographs of both.

At least one partner must have a valid driver's license, and both must be available for appearances from Friday evening, February 9, through Monday, February 12.

Address letters of application to Franklin Street Mall, 512 N. Florida Avenue, Room 251, Tampa, Florida 33602. They must be received by January 31. Call 223-8518 for further information.

Phi Alpha Theta

Phi Alpha Theta is an international honor society of history. The University of Tampa's chapter, Theta Gamma, is accepting applications for membership. The membership of Phi Alpha Theta is composed of students and professors who have been elected to membership upon the basis of excellence in the study and writing of history.

All students are eligible for membership, regardless of major, if they meet the following requirements:

1. You must have completed at least 12 hours of history courses.
2. You must have a B (3.0) average in all history courses taken.
3. You must have a B (3.0) average in $\frac{2}{3}$ of all non-history courses taken.

If you think you meet the above requirements, leave your name with either Prof. McCord in Science Rm. 201, or the Division of Social Sciences Office Rm. 224.

If you are interested in getting together with students, teachers, and writers of history both intellectually and socially, then apply for membership. We are looking forward to meeting you and having an active year.

Pi Kappa Phi

By BRAD HYMAN

The brothers of Pi Kappa Phi want to wish everyone a great semester and to start things off right this Friday night, January 19. The Pi Kappa brothers will be hosting the first open party of the semester. Super-Lu will be providing the tunes for the first annual welcome back, "drink till you stink" hat party. Admission will be $3 without a hat and $2.50 if you wear a hat. A competition will be held to determine the most outrageous hat. Remember it all happens this Friday night behind the Pi Kappa house at 9. Be there! aloha!!

"ACHTUNG!"

There is something new at the University of Tampa. It's the German Club, and it's open to all students who want to learn something about Germany: its culture, language, the way Germans sing, dance, and have fun. Why don't you become a member? The fee is only two dollars, and it's fun. If you want to experiment with something new, come and meet Frau I. Harris in room 408, or come to the Rathskeller for our meeting at 3 p.m. every Friday. There will be a lot of fun and many things to be discovered. So come and join us, and celebrate Oktoberfest every week! Hope to see you soon. Auf Wiedersehen.

Ash Wednesday Services

FR. BOB WISENBAUGH

Beginning Sunday, Jan. 21, Sunday mass will be held at 6:30 p.m. in the Dome Room. Monday through Friday mass will continue at the usual time — 12:05 p.m. Room 338, Plant Hall. There will be two masses Feb. 28, Ash Wednesday: the first mass will be at 12:05 p.m. and the second at 5 p.m. in Room 3 of the Union. Ashes will be distributed during both masses. Everyone is welcome at all of these services.

Special Prayer Service

By FR. BOB WISENBAUGH

Thursday, January 25, at 9:30 a.m. a special prayer service will be held for the entire university community in the Dome Room. The occasion is the final day of the Church Unity Octave commemorated in many christian churches at this time each year. This will be a chance for all christians on campus to actively demonstrate their faith to one another, share some fellowship, and pray that all christians and their churches will take the steps which will enable them one day to say that the Lord Jesus' prayer that "they may be one" (Jn. 17:21) has been answered.

Dr. Jack Munyan, Fr. George Cave and Fr. Bob Wisenbaugh will lead the service. The Madrigal Singers will give musical support and coffee and danish will be served afterwards.

Be A Miss Continent

Applications now are being accepted for a preliminary of the Miss Continent of Americas Inc. Pageants to be held at the Bradenton Woman's Club, 1705 Manatee Ave., West, at 7 p.m. on Saturday, January 27.

In the pageant, five age categories will be represented including: Mini, 2 to 5 years old; Little Miss, 6 to 10 years old; Pre-Teen, 11 to 13 years old; Teen, 14 to 16 years old, and Miss, 17 to 27 years old. Candidates will be judged on poise, self confidence, modeling potential, attire and over-all appearance.

Winners will receive trophies and $2100 in scholarships from Barbizon Schools. Winners in the Mini Miss and Little Miss Divisions will receive modeling scholarships from the Wendy Ward Schools. All winners and runners-up will be eligible to compete in the state Miss Continent finals planned this summer.

The Miss Continent Pageants were founded in 1976 by Mr. Bob Vallee for the purpose of offering opportunities to young women interested in entering the fields of modeling or fashion. Vallee's experience includes ten years with the Miss America as a certified judge and Executive Director of the Miss Hillsborough County Pageant.

Applications for the Miss Continent Pageant of Bradenton may be obtained by writing to Mr. Bob Vallee, 852 S. Newport, Tampa, Fla., 33606 or at the Bradenton Woman's Club. For more information on the Miss Continent Pageants, call Mr. Vallee at 251-0212, (813), Tampa, Fla.

Paralegal Institute At UT

By IRV EDELSON

A 20-week, 160-hour Paralegal Institute will be offered at the University of Tampa Feb. 20-July 12 through UT's Office of Continuing Education.

Course director is Vincent V. Versurah Jr., graduate of Florida State University law school and attorney for the University of Tampa.

Paralegals are trained legal assistants who provide a variety of legal services, working under the supervision of an attorney.

The Paralegal Institute has been recognized by the Florida Bar since 1975 and it is virtually a new profession with unlimited horizons, Versurah said.

Curriculum for the UT institute covers a broad area of legal work, taking in such subjects as contracts, property, commercial law, tax law, family law, wills, trust and probate; labor relations law, accounting, tort litigation, legal research, reasoning and writing and trial preparation.

Paralegals are trained to investigate and analyze facts and documents, and under the supervision of an attorney, to conduct client interviews, do legal research, write legal memoranda, to draft court pleadings and prepare legal work for new corporations and business organizations.

Faculty in addition to Versurah will be Dominic J. Baccarella, assistant state attorney, Thirteenth Judicial Circuit; Richard D. Hamrick, associate, and Frank Quesada, partner, with Anderson, Thorn, Grose & Quesada, P.A., and David J. Sayer, labor relations officer and chief negotiator, Hillsborough County.

Classes will meet from 6 p.m. to 10 p.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays.

For additional information about registration and fees, contact the Office of Continuing Education at the University of Tampa.

COLLEGE BOWL®

Alpha Chi Presents:

Alpha Chi is pleased to bring you a different kind of sport. College Bowl has been called "the varsity sport of the mind."

We would like to begin intramural competition at the beginning of next semester; therefore we ask that you submit to us the names, addresses, and social security numbers of your team members.

A team consists of 1 coach, 1 captain, 3 players, and 1 alternate. Each registered student is eligible. This combination calls for broad, general knowledge and a combination of brightness and quickness, so field of study is not important.

Each organization may submit as many teams as they can compose. Each team needs to be given a different title Each student may participate on only one team.

Any individual may participate independently of an organization by submitting his name, address, and social security number to Box 499. He will be assigned to a team which is short of members, or he may band together with other independents to form his own team.

Please make two lists of your team members, one for your records and one to be detached and sent to Box 499 no later than the second week of January. Your participation is appreciated.

Thank you,
Nancy Cox

Anne Strusz Named UT Coordinator

Anne Strusz, a Midwesterner with an extensive background in coaching and sports administration, has been named Coordinator of Women's Athletics at the University of Tampa.

Spartan Athletic Director Bob Birrenkott, who announced Ms. Strusz' appointment, said that the Round Lake, Illinois native will coach volleyball and basketball and serve as UT's liaison with the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for women. A.I.A.W. is the national governing and regulatory body for women's sports in postsecondary institutions.

Strusz, who was selected for the position from among over 50 applicants, earned her master's degree in physical education at George Williams (Ill.) College. Her undergraduate degree is from Western Illinois University.

Head basketball coach at North Central (Ill.) College in 1976 and assistant coach last year at George Williams, Strusz was most valuable player in basketball and female athlete of the year at Wright College in 1970.

"Anne is going to make some very positive contributions to our women's athletic program," said Dr. Birrenkott.

"We evaluated many very fine candidates, but we're convinced Anne is the person for the job," he added.

In addition to her college experience, Strusz is a veteran junior high and high school athletic administrator.

Spartans Get Ready For New Year

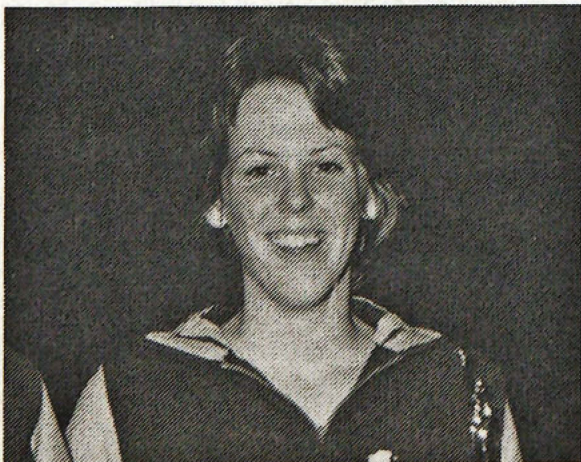

Kropper's Korner

By JOHN KROPP
Editor

The champagne has been popped, we've extended our best wishes for the new year, most of us have thawed our "tootsies" after several weeks up north, and now a new year at UT has begun.

As in most years I'm sure 1979 will provide both the expected and the unexpected in athletic competition. Let us look ahead, for a moment, for a few predictions of what the new year may bring.

The Spartan baseball team won't match last year's record-breaking finish, but they will pass the 500 mark. They're in the process of re-building so it's likely that a post-season bid will be out-of-reach. Nevertheless, the Sam Bailey diamond will be "where the action is" this spring so don't be surprised if a couple of our players receive national recognition. Bill "Cuttin" Counihan and Frank Yurchak are a few national recognition possibilities.

Quality Perseveres On Swim Team

By MARGARET McNIFF
Sports Editor

The Spartan swim team may not have the quantity but it sure has the quality.

The swimmers may go through a winless season but that does not stop their individual drive.

In a tri-meet last Saturday the Spartans swam against the University of the South and St. Louis Community College. The Spartans lost the meet, 64-49 and 66-45, but strong individual performances erased any gloomy feelings about losing.

Against the University of the South, UT won every event except the two relays and the diving. If Tampa had the bodies a win could have been easily accessible.

Nick Mooney grabbed first place honors in the 1000, 50, and 100 yard freestyle with times of 10:27.1, 23.6, and 52.0. Matt Fisher swam to first place finishes in the 200 yard free (1:53.1), 200 yard butterfly (2:05.3), and 500 yard free (5:02.2). In the 200 Individual Medley, 200 yard back, and the 200 yard breast stroke, it was Joe Lee all the way. Joe turned in times of 2:05.8, 2:06.6, and 2:16.0 in each event.

"We were kind of tired," said Coach Brad Glenn. "We have been working twice a day and even on the day of the meet we had a practice. But as a result, they are still swimming well: better than you would think under those circumstances. They did a good job."

About the small numbers Brad had the following to say: "We just don't have the swimmers. When I got here it was too late to recruit but the swimmers I have are very good. I've had swimmers who have walked on this year and then crawled off. The recruiting for next year is coming along well. I think there are around 80 kids interested. I've just got to see how it goes."

In the meantime, Spartans' swimmers will concentrate on improving individual marks rather than shooting for an undefeated season.

Bowlers Roll Up Big Wins

Last weekend the UT bowlers played six home matches winning five and losing only one. Saturday the Spartans smashed Florida A&M twice 47-8, 45-10. Steve Cooley rolled a 614 series while winning six individual points. Eric Fangmann chipped in with a 554 series while also winning six individual points. In the second match with Florida A&M, Eric kept on stroking, averaging 193 while freshman Stan Mardula averaged 191. Both Eric and Stan won all six individual points.

Fred Stribling rolled a 618 series and Jim Pietsch won six points to lead the Spartans over Valdosta State, 41-14 in Saturday's third match. Averaging 193, Jeff Shugart led the Spartans to victory in Saturday's final match. Jeff and Jim both won six points.

Sunday, the UT Keglers hosted the powerhouse University of Florida Gators. Indeed the Gators blew out the Spartans 47-8 in the opening match. However, the Spartans regrouped and came out smoking in the second match. The Spartans shot a team score of 985 with individual games: Glenn Davis 201, Ron Fuerst 169, Fred 233, Steve 200, Eric 182 with everyone winning their match. The Spartans shut out the Gators in the first game. The Gators rallied in the second game to pull within four points. Although the scores were not high in the final game, the Spartans came through in the end. After Fred won his match, Steve threw two strikes in the tenth frame to clinch the victory 29-26. This marks the first time UT has defeated the University of Florida Bowling team.

This weekend the Spartans travel north to bowl Florida State, Florida A&M and Valdosta. Good Luck Keglers.

The Women's Basketball team will retain the UT Invitational silverware. Jane Castor and Rhonda Hushey will repeat the heroics of last year's graduate Jackie Langley. Unfortunately Stetson will be a menace throughout the season.

Coach John McKay will wear a bright orange golf cap during the Buc's first time ever, post-season game. Doug Williams will prove he can make the foot ball whistle "Sweet Georgia Brown."

Montreal will win it's "ump-teenth" Stanley Cup and my ex-teammate Brian Englom will score a goal during the final game.

The UT Swim Team will be represented in the NCAA again this year and they'll continue to have one of the most aggressive programs on campus, provided some of the expelled members return.

Nancy Siegmund will refuse to take tennis seriously but nonetheless she'll whip all male and female challengers.

Baseball coach, Pete Mulry will win the best-dressed coach award.

The men's crew will make up for last year's disappointing season and will accumulate several awards during the President's Regatta.

Rob Foreman will box 1-3-5 at the Tampa Fronton this spring and will spend all his winnings on pizza, pretzels and more pizza.

Gerry Dralik and company will make it to the finals in intramural tennis but will decide against a professional career. But he will corner the Georgia processed meat market upon graduation.

Margaret McNiff will refuse to let the women's crew team slip and the Spartans will continue to be a competition to consider in the southeast.

GO SPARTANS

Kenny Dartch will give me $10 bucks for putting his name in the paper.

Woody Hayes will be offered the head coaching job for the Wing Ding University boxing team, which is located just northwest of Anchorage.

Jack Nicklaus will play in fewer tournaments this year. However, he'll win a major.

Harry Rosen will buy a brace just in case his ankle slips out again.

Everyone will ask the whereabouts of tennis star Mary Lopresti. Her internship may have kept her away from campus last semester but it won't keep her away from the state finals this spring.

Steve Williamson will finally take you know who to Bern's.

Have a great new year!

McNiffer's Crew Talk

By MARGARET McNIFF
Sports Editor

You could be standing in line at McDonald's, eating dinner over a friend's house, in the midst of doing your laundry, or running the streets of Tampa and the excitable subject may arise.

What is this subject that has the whole Tampa Bay area bubbling with interest and getting people of all ages energetically pushing their bodies into great shape? Its the Gasparilla Distance Classic on February 10!

The bug has even caught the crew at UT! Coaches Tom Feaster and Dave Thomas have their crews running every day with the grueling nine mile psyching them on. Each week the rowers are increasing their mileage because nine miles is a long way and if you aren't ready for it, the pain feels twice as bad to your body. You are in misery.

The course will start and end on Florida Avenue near the courthouse. The runners will go over the Platt Street bridge and turn onto Bayshore Blvd. For approximately 4½ miles the runners (8000 predicted) will follow the Bayshore route and then turn around to give everything left to finish.

It is rumored that 10 of the best runners in this country will compete. All finishers under one hour and 40 minutes will receive coupons and a patch.

Just think, later on that afternoon while you are guzzling down the beers as though they are going out of style, you can pat yourself on the back for putting in those nine miles.

For a couple of years now, the women's crew has been struggling with inner turmoil thus causing the crew's downfall. With great joy I can say that this year's crew is comprised of women, mostly novice, who want to row and learn all that is possible to know about the sport. Three cheers!

Every morning (except Sundays) the women meet at 7 a.m. for practice. Coach Thomas has the crew running, lifting, running stadium steps, plus rowing. The women are catching on quickly and attitudes are friendly and encouraging. Simply put, the women are having plain old FUN. I want nothing more than for this optimistic attitude to continue so women's crew will be a powerhouse. To be the best takes time and preparation and most of the women are freshmen/sophomores so the future for women's crew looks favorable.

Interested In Bowling??

The Spartan Bowling League has openings for men and women. The league is a handicapped league so bowlers of all averages compete on a relatively equal basis. Come on down to Dale Mabry Lanes, Tuesday at 9 p.m. or drop your name and box number in box 2747.

'Murals

By DAVID THOMAS
Coordinator of Intramurals

Intramurals at UT are off to a good start once again with 29 entries in men's basketball and 8 entries in women's softball. Men's basketball will be played in Howell Gymnasium from 7 p.m. until 10:30 p.m. Women's softball will be played on the intramural field in the fairgrounds from 3 to 5 p.m. Both basketball and softball promise to be exciting, so support your team.

The intramural office is still accepting entries for intramural Co-Rec Flag Football, which will be played from 3 p.m. until 5 p.m. on the intramural field in the fairgrounds.

Those of you who are observant have noticed Schlitz Intramural Olympic signs all around campus. The intramural team which scores the most intramural points, for both women and men, has the opportunity to compete in regional competition in Atlanta, Georgia. Schlitz pays most of the travel expenses. If your team does well in regional competition, you then have the chance to compete nationally at a site which is yet to be determined. The four intramural sports which will be used in the Schlitz Olympics are: swimming, track, volleyball, and basketball. It would be a great honor for the university and your team to compete in the Schlitz Intramural Olympics.

Why Bowl Games?

By TONY DeSORMIER
Minaret Staff Writer

As we return from the holidays, there is a confrontation in the news that many people have a view on but no one has an answer for. No, it has nothing to do with the Shah of Iran, or the latest Middle East peace talks, or even the recent "recognition" of Red China and the U.S.'s seeming abandonment of Taiwan. No, it has to do with who is number one in the national college football ratings. This may not sound important, but no other issue has more sides to it, with as many arguments to back each view. You ask almost anyone about Pres. Carter's foreign policies, and you're likely to draw a blank stare. But ask who should be number one in the NCAA and you have got the scene set for a debate.

I don't intend to impress you with my views on who should be number one. What I do intend to discuss is the great amount of bowl games now being played across the country and to question the purpose they serve. Think about it for a second. If you're an average American person (male or female) you probably saw more football in the last four weeks than you did all last semester. Again, for what? None of the games mean anything. No draft picks depend on it as it does in the pros. Is it just for entertainment? But who would call seeing Woody Hayes make himself, his team, and his school look low entertainments.

The most common answer is that the schools that participate receive enough revenue to support their programs. For example, Notre Dame, of Southbend Indiana, in a recent financial disclosure, revealed that it makes enough from its football revenue to support the rest of the school's sport programs and also has money left to fund some academic programs. So football may be termed a necessary evil. But aren't we milking it just a little bit? This season's bowl line up consisted of: the Hall of Fame Bowl, the Holiday Bowl, the Sun Bowl, the Liberty Bowl, the Tangerine Bowl, the Peach Bowl, the Fiesta Bowl, the Blue-Gray Game, the Gator Bowl, the Bluebonnet Bowl, the Cotton Bowl, the Sugar Bowl, the Rose Bowl, the Orange Bowl, the East-West Shrine Game, the Hula Bowl, the Canadian-American Bowl, the Senior Bowl, and the Japan Bowl. That's enough football to make even the most die hard fan yawn and take an interest in anything else.

But I can hear the yells already. What about the prestige that playing in a bowl game brings to a team; not to mention the individual prestige that the team members enjoy. Would you spread the fact that you played for a man that physically accosted another player after he intercepted a pass? Or the fact that your team won a touchdown that had no right being called a touchdown? Or playing for a team that had been undefeated and ranked number one yet couldn't score in three tries from inside the three yard line? Or being a highly ranked team, picked to blow out the opposition yet winning by just a single point in a game that you had to come from behind in? Of course, the converse is true, but that savage animal, the public, seems only to have a memory for the worst. And besides...ah, what's the use? There are so many arguments to go with this topic, I could write a book. Why can't sports be without controversy?

When did you say spring training started?
