His work in building the IBM educational program and in the development of managerial talent has been recognized with honorary degrees from all members of these classes. In order that appropriate plans may be made for the proper number at the luncheon it is urged that acceptances be sent in to Dean Setear's office at an early date.

The Alumni Luncheon will be followed at 3:00 o'clock by the Annual Reception for all graduates and their wives, husbands or parents, at the President's House, 1815 Bayshore Boulevard. President and Mrs. Delo hope that there will be a large turnout this year.

The annual Trustees Dinner will be held at the Tampa Yacht and Country Club at six outstanding American colleges.

The Freedoms Foundation has twice awarded Dr. Orton its "George Washington Honor Medal" for his editorship of "Think" and for "outstanding achievement in bringing about a better understanding of the American way of life."

During the past decade, he has served in many civic and professional capacities, in addition to his work with IBM. In the field of aeronautics he has been a consultant to both the civil aeronautics administration and the U. S. Air Force.

Seniors Select Their 1960 Class Notables

It has been a long established custom for the members of the Senior Class to bestow on their outstanding fellow classmates, the honorable titles they feel have been earned during their four years of academic strife and struggle, as well as in the busy social life of this university. The electing of Senior Class Notables is a time honored tradition which has as usual not been neglected.

Most Popular

Chosen as the most popular male of the graduating class is Gerald Ward Bobier, most popularly known as Jerry. Jerry is a member of Pi Kappa Phi Fraternity of which he was president. He was born in Detroit, Michigan, but has lived in Tampa 10 years. He is a member of the Circle K Club, I.F.C., and Propellor Club. Upon being interviewed, Jerry had this to say: "It is a great honor to be the Most popular male. I thank my fellow seniors for electing me."

The most popular girl in the senior class is Ramona Hernandez, a Tampa girl. Ramona is a member of Alpha Chi Omega Sorority. She was active as a cheerleader.

Wittiest

Angel Arenas has won the title of Wittiest male in the Senior Class. When interviewed he had this to say: "It's not how you play the game; whether you win or lose or cheat. Seriously, I felt very pleased to receive such an honor from my fellow grads. Thanks" Angel, a 22 year old, 6 foot senior, is a member of Pi Kappa Phi Fraternity, Major's Club. He has been Crew Co-captain and has made the varsity team for four years.

Rose Perla, an elementary education major has chosen as the Wittiest female. She is a member of Zeta Tau Alpha Sorority for which she was a secretary. She had been a representative in I.F.S.C. She is a member of S.F.E.A. She was chosen as a Daughter of Pi Kappa fraternity. Rose, a native Tampan, said: "I'm very honored and pleased and I'm happy to be a Senior Notable."

Most Athletic

Billy Barnes Turner is really representative of the title he has achieved. He is one of the few in the school's history who has lettered four times in three sports. He has received an innumerable number of Intramural Awards. He is past Co-Captain of the football team. He is a member of Pi Kappa Phi Fraternity.

Sandra Patricia Perez is a Physical Education Major from Tampa. She is a member of Zeta Tau Alpha Sorority of which she was Corresponding Secretary. She is a member of Sigma Tau Delta the honorary English Fraternity. She was secretary of the Senior Class, a cheerleader, Pan-Hellenic

EDITORIALS

The Minaret editorials represent strictly the views of student members of the staff. Columns in this newspaper represent only the opinions of their authors.

June 4, 1960 will mark a triumphal yet sad day in the history of the University of Tampa. The twenty-fifth class will be leaving the minaret-clad building.

This represents an achievement; twenty five classes of men and women have gained an education in this institution. Twenty-five times the University has enriched the community, state, nation.

For those of us that remain there is also a sad note. We rejoice with the graduates in their success; we grieve for their leaving.

Perhaps, it always seems that each graduating class is the best and that they will never be replaceable. Perhaps, it is natural to think that things just won't be the same without this particular class. Being a common feeling, then, does not keep it from being a sincere and deep one. There is no better way to tell these men and women how much they are esteemed and will be missed than to give—

A FAREWELL TO THE GRADUATES

No one can say what lies ahead
Or say what paths your feet will tread
Of one thing you can be sure
The friendships you've made will long endure.

Your stay within these hollowed walls
Has had its ups and had its falls
The studying, the work, the play
The good the bad of every day
And yet which one of you wouldn't give Anything for these four years to re-live.

There isn't much that one can say
There are no complements one can pay
To make a graduate understand
What powers there are at his command
The world belongs to those who try
Who go out and do or die.

But enough of lectures, sermons and such
Of this you've had way too much
Just one word in ending, before you go,
Just want to let you know—

You've been an example inspiration and guide
For those who have been by your side
You've left a light shining here
We'll remember you by for many a year.

The memories you have to take with you
Are bright and wonderful, that's true
But nothing outshines the memory dear
'60 Graduates, that you leave with your friends here.

Neglect Causes 85% Of Traffic Deaths The Authorities Say

Millions of column inches of valuable space are contributed by American newspapers every year in the never-ending battle to halt the bloody carnage taking place on our highways. It seems incredible that drivers continue to act as they do behind the wheel of an automobile despite the avalanche of grim facts and warnings.

But it is a matter of record; record that is slightly over 50 years old yet already stands as one of the more sordid indictments against our society.

A recent report by The Travelers Insurance Companies states that since the advent of the automobile, more than 62,000,000 men, women and children have been killed or injured on our highways. More Americans have died on our highways than in all the wars this country has fought.

The cause of this slaughter screams for attention. More than 85 per cent of all fatal accidents last year was blamed on human error!

More than 85 per cent of the 37,600 deaths occurred because somebody behind the wheel had shrugged off the countless highway safety news stories and editorials this newspaper and hundreds of others like it across the country printed during the year. "It can't happen to me," he thought.

Perhaps he didn't consciously think that. Maybe the fact that it could happen to him didn't get pats his subconscious. Perhaps it never did happen to him. Perhaps he was the survivor in a horrible crash that maimed and killed those he loved most.

Inattention is the overwhelming factor which figures in 85 per cent of our death crashes. A lapse of attention to the road ahead, a heavy foot on the gas pedal, an unnecessary gamble to save a few seconds that cost an eternity—these are the ways in which the human behind the wheel failed. The supreme penalty was the result for those who erred once too often.

Although 3,000,000 copies of the report by The Travelers Insurance Companies describing the sordid record on our highways last year are being distributed in this country, chances are that you will not see one. If you do, however, read it closely. Your error behind the wheel could be included in the statistical columns next year.

It is safe to predict that you as a driver will be exposed to countless news stories in this newspaper during the coming months describing what happened because the human behind the wheel made a mistake. Read them carefully. They could help you avoid that same mistake.

Pat Dyer receives aid from Tau Kappa Epsilon Fraternity.

FRATERNITY AIDS STRICKEN STUDENT

Members of Tau Kappa Epsilon Fraternity and of the Student Body came to the aid of a former University student, Pat Dyer, recently stricken with hepatitis.

Pat was stricken a short while ago and has required numerous blood transfusions. An appeal was made for the rare "A" negative blood type needed for the transfusions. The Tekes called on their Blood Bank for 11 pints of blood while six other students having the blood type required also donated blood for Pat. The Teke Blood Bank was set three years ago for the use of the members and their families. The blood is available to other members of the Student Body in cases of emergency.

Originally from Pennsylvania and now living in Largo, Pat was forced to leave school because of her illness. She was temporarily released from the hospital over the past weekend but she will have to return for necessary surgery. More blood will probably be needed at that time.

FCRC HOLDS SEVENTH ANNUAL CONVENTION HERE IN TAMPA

By Milton H. Smith

The Tampa chapter of the state wide organization of the Florida Council for Retarded Children played host at the seventh annual convention of the state association held at the Tampa Terrace Hotel. The three day convention started on the thirteenth with registration, followed by a luncheon, the invocation being given by Rev. R. G. Hartnet. The President of the Hillsboro Association for Retarded Children, Mr. John Childon, then gave a welcoming address to the local and visiting delegates.

Groups were then formed which were conducted on tours of the Drew Park School Training Center and the Sertoma Sheltered Workshop. This was followed by a film entitled, "A Light to My Path." Mrs. Veda Byrd, Principal of the Drew Park School, not only introduced the film but also acted as hostess for the convention. Two panel discussions, "The Pre-School Child" and "The School Child—6 to 16," were then presented. Parents and teachers participated.

Dr. David Delo, Program Chairman, gave a very fine introduction of the principal speaker, Mrs. John Tannhouser, whose address was entitled, "Mental Subnormality." Her lecture was based upon the idea of sharing a point of view with each of the handicapped children under observation; gathering dynamic data and using other scientific approaches to develop a course of action toward improved motor development; applying the principles of eye and hand coordination in training through a bilateral concept of systematic pattern development. She also emphasized the correct interpretation of test information because I. Q. is not the determining factor in all learning disabilities a child may have in his personality. The main thing to remember are: to form a hypothesis for action; to observe the child accurately; and to develop scientific techniques for training.

Mrs. Lancaster from the Gateway Training Center in Orlando presented a film showing the retarded children in her school taking the Stanford-Binet Test (object assembly) and the Wechsler Test (flash cards), at the same time giving a running commentary on the children taking the test. In addition to the testing the film showed the activities of the children on the school playground and their reactions before and after receiving training on how to properly use the equipment.

On Friday and Saturday board, committee and general meetings were held which were highlighted by a seminar on programming moderated by Dr. Roy E. Dwyer from the University of Tampa. The final session of the convention was held Saturday afternoon at which time all business was concluded. A banquet in the evening, which included the installation of the new officers, was held in the Palm Room of the Tampa Terrace Hotel where the final address of the convention was given by Dr. Henry C. Schumacher from the University of Florida.

A social hour followed, which was attended by many of the delegates including Tampa University President Dr. David Delo. Mrs. Delo served as hostess. Miss Barbara Brown Goss, pianist from the Tampa University provided entertainment.

The Dreambeat

by Bernie McGovern

"A funny thing happened to me on the way to Congress the other night . . ." Tricky Dicky, much to his annoyance, gave the floor to Humphrey who, after including an article from "The Worker", naming him Man of the Year, in the Congressional Record, proposed his most radical bill. He proposed that no honorable senator be allowed on the floor unless clad in—you guessed it—Bermuda shorts.

After appropriate roars of indignation, the able body recessed. Humphrey supporters bought up all available stock in various companies manufacturing Bermula shorts. Rockefeller bought up Bermuda.

Northern Liberals ran down the block to consult with their leader, Rep. Powell. The dust, however, was thick on his "Out-To-Lunch" sign and his secretary was no help since, no matter how hard she tried, she could not remember ever seeing the man.

Southern Conservatives proclaimed a filibuster against the move which they claimed was a portion of the NAACP platform. The only exception to this was the Florida senator who stated that Bermudas were legally right but morally wrong.

The Old Guard swung in behind the South saying that Bermudas were an attempt of the British Empire to interfere with a purely internal affair of the United States. Castro made an appearance on the Original Amateur Hour and told the Cuban people that an attack on Bermuda was an attack on Cuba. Bermuda offered Humphrey assylum if the measure was defeated. Eisenhower told party leaders that the passing of the Bermuda shorts act would be dangerous to the nation's security and would boost the sales of Montgomery's book.

The Caucus Rooms were filled in the traditional jockeying for votes. On the way to debate, Sen. DuPont of Delaware was reminded of the state's big investment in synthetic fibers by the lobby representing Consolidated Jockey Shorts; being reminded that "As goes Bermudas, so goes Jockey Shorts and Delaware." Up to his waist in the matter, the Senator resolved to vote for Bermudas.

Back in session, the Senate began debate. Kennedy spoke against the measure, stating that the miners of West Virginia would eventually suffer from the measure and he did not want to disappoint his supporters. The Jockey Shorts lobby gave a shudder.

Humphrey charged that opposition to Bermudas was Popery. Kennedy, to refute this, produced pictures of the Cardinal Archbishop of Boston in his clerical Bermuda shorts. He further charged that Humphrey was pushing the issue to embarrass him because he was wearing his first pair of long pants. The Senator from Massachusetts carefully omitted a picture of his wife in Bermuda for that would only have delayed debate.

Barry Goldwater, looking strangely like Robert Taft, adjusted his knee britches and wig and plugged his book. He charged that Bermuda shorts were a "One world" plot. He ended his remarks with his now famous "And as for Moscow, she must be destroyed," and placing his Tribune's helmet on his head left the floor yelling "Veto."

Rayburn relayed a message from the House. This body had decided on a course of moderation and to prove their good faith, the House members were presently out buying up Capris for the next day's session.

The Stock Market took a severe dip for the day. Frantic Humphrey supporters tried to unload their stock.

Lyndon Johnson rose and stated that the Texas legislature was drawing up a bill to tax Bermuda shorts. Rep. Powell conferred with Northern Liberals, saying that in the process of assimilation his constituents had abandoned Bermudas. They decided to oppose.

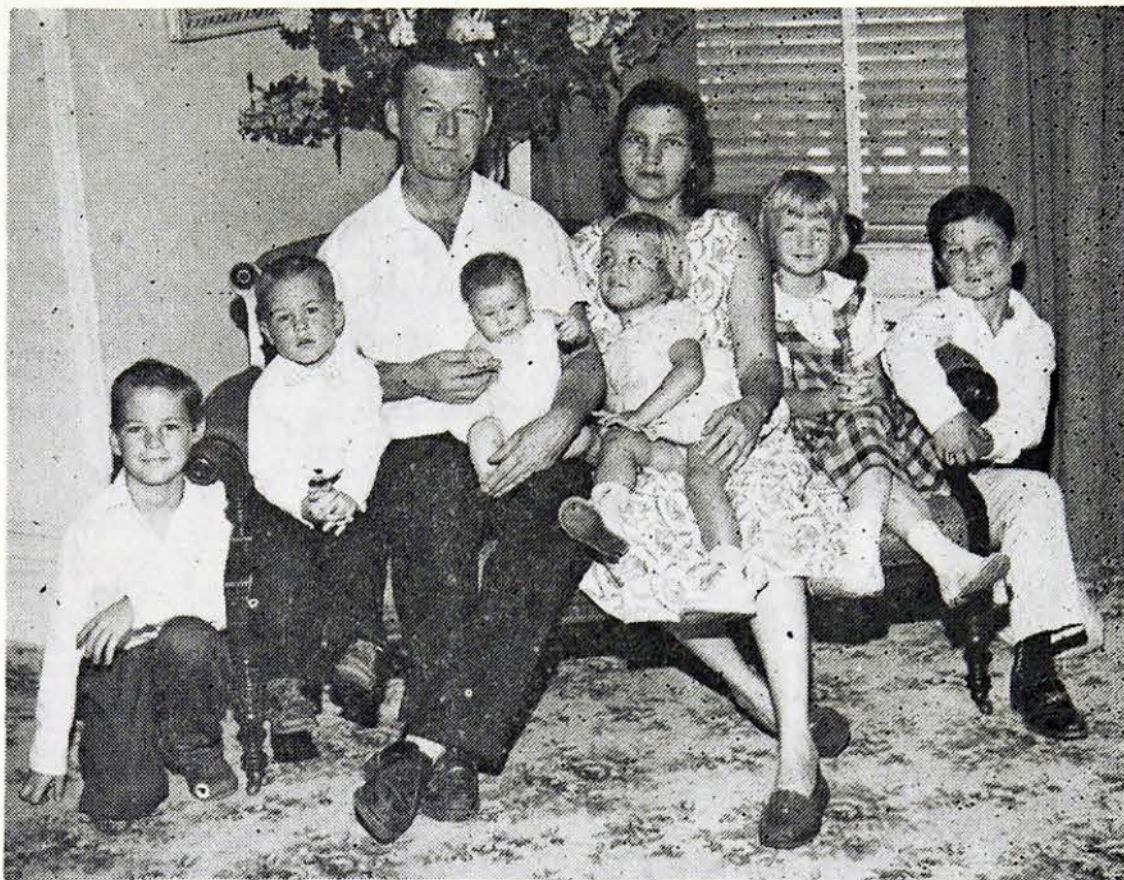

When Jockey shorts sales fell off in the South, their lobby prevailed on Delaware to disregard their earlier advice.

The Humphrey measure was eventually defeated and H. H. and his Bermuda shorts faded into oblivion.

John, Michael, Dad and Cecilia, Mom and Elizabeth, Kathleene, and Owen Joseph Reynolds form a beautiful family portrait. A Dedicated and respected professor and father, a wonderful wife and mother, six beautiful children — The Owen Reynolds family.

FACULTY FAMILIES

INTRODUCING THE OWEN J. REYNOLDS FAMILY

by Kathy Fiorito

Want to meet a man with a busy schedule? Then let me introduce Prof. Owen J. Reynolds, professor of mathematics at T. U. and the father of six children. Each of these can be a hectic job in itself, and when one man has both, it takes some real planning to keep up with the pace.

Professor Reynolds met his wife, Margaret, when she was a student in his math class, and they were married in 1948. The rest of his family includes Owen Joseph, 10; John, 8; Kathleene, 7; Michael, 4; Elizabeth, 2; and Cecilia, 3 months.

In 1934 Prof. Reynolds graduated with B.A. and M.A. degrees from Alfred University in Alfred New York. He then worked until 1942 for a Glass Works Company. In 1946 he went into the Army and was placed in the medical. Here, Prof. Reynolds got his "first taste of teaching," and he added, "I like it." During this time he was giving instructions to soldiers who couldn't read or write, and he says of them "these were the most enthusiastic students I've ever had. It was a real pleasure to teach them."

After the war, Prof. Reynolds came to study education at Tampa U. Upon completion of this education course, he went to the Catholic University of America and studied psychology. He graduated in 1954. The following year he returned to teach at Tampa U.

Next Sept. Prof. Reynolds plans to take a leave of absence from his teaching to go to the University of Florida and study for his doctor's degree.

"Students who don't work and then blame the professor," and those who "interfere with others who are trying to concentrate" are his pet peeves.

Asked about hobbies, he only smiles and says "With six children and a professor's job, who needs any?"

Inquiring Reporter

by Tony Shostak

Question: What do you think of the education you received at the University of Tampa?

Interviewed: Graduating seniors.

Merry Mack: The education as a whole was adequate, but I feel that future teachers should intern before their senior year. By the time their senior year comes around and possibly the student realizes he or she shouldn't go into the education field . . . well, it's too late.

Isley Barnes: Overall the education I received was a good one, but I feel that the Instructional Staff could be improved as is being done at this time.

Ramona Hernandez: I believe Education Majors should visit schools much sooner than their senior year. I also believe that more stress should be placed on practical experience rather than book learning.

Rose Perla: I received a fine education. I only wish more students would understand the importance of extra-curricular activities. True, the formal classroom work is the most important, but to develop a well-rounded personality nothing can beat participation in the clubs of your choice.

Jack Smallwood: My education was adequate, however I feel that much more individual attention is needed here at the University.

Jerry Bobier: I've had a fine education here at our University. You don't need ivory-covered walls to get an education.

Sandy Perez: I received a good education at our University. In the beginning much was needed, but within these last two years a terrific change has taken place. Our standards are already much higher.

Kathy Labubruzzo: My education at the University of Tampa was good one. I think an education is what you make it.

Plans are being made by the Letterman's Club, to have its formal dance next spring. At this dance, the "Spartan Warrior" Queen, elected by the Letterman's Club will be announced. ## Tampa University Will Lose Several Faculty Members

by Mildred Walker

Several members of the faculty will not be at Tampa U. next term. The Minaret is paying tribute to them in this last issue. Upon surveying their departure, several have made comment about their stay at T. U.

Professor Leo O'Hare received his degrees at Woodstock College, Woodstock, Md., and has been on the faculty here 12 years. His plans after leaving are "to continue teaching in some capacity in this locality and perhaps find opportunity to try to write." His comments on the university are that our motto "Esse Quam Videri"—to be rather than to seem—has been admirably fulfilled by us. "We have always had a superior college—too bad that so many unable to penetrate beyond appearances have remained in ignorance of this fact."

Miss Tomlinson, who has taught here one year, received her B.S. from Appalachian State, her M.A. from George Peabody, and Dir. of P.E. from Indiana University. Her plans are indefinite after leaving T. U. She comments, "the University of Tampa definitely has a promising future. With Dr.

Delo at the helm, and with the cooperation of the faculty and administration, the U. will continue to grow and produce worthwhile citizens."

Having received his B.A. and M.A. from Boston U., Professor Worthington has taught at T.U. for three years. He now hopes to be an economics instructor at St. Pete Junior College. He says, "experiences gained at T.U. will never be forgotten. Most noteworthy will be the friendships made among both faculty and students. I have found my students to be friendly, cooperative, and eminently fair in my professional and personal dealings with them."

Dr. Neilson earned his B. A. from Iowa State Teachers College, and his M.A. and Ph.D. from Columbia. At present, his plans are indefinite. He states, "I have enjoyed the friendships made among the faculty. It has been a pleasure to help the students advance in their work and to see some go forward to get honors, scholarships, and fellowships at graduate schools." He has taught here for four years.

Professor Duttonhofer and Professor Seiber are two more of the instructors T. U. will lose.

RABBI ZIELONKA AWARD GOES TO MILLICENT ADAMS

Among many of our honor students, we would like to take time to spotlight Millicent Adams.

"Milly" was born and raised in Tampa and graduated from Plant High School, where she was a member of the Honor Society. She is the daughter of Dr. Adams (one of our professors).

Millicent is a junior at Tampa U. and since being here, she has been on the Dean's List. In her Freshman year, she received an award for having the highest grades of her class. Some of her recent honors include a $50 check from Rabbi Zielonka and a medal also being mentioned in this year's Who's Who.

As for her career, she plans to go to graduate school Presbyterian School of Christian Education in Richmond, Va. (for two years) after which she plans to go into church work.

Asked about clubs, she says, "I belong to Westminster Fellowship and am Youth Director of Ybor City Presbyterian Church." With all this, who has time for anything else.

of Coach Marcelino Huerta, who donated a fine television set to the Letterman's Club. As evidenced by this and other earlier accomplishments, the club is growing continuously and expecting greater things to come.

To coin an old phrase, "last but not least", recent initiates to the Letterman's Club include, Everet Bennett, Tony Booth, Don Boyt, Bill Paskalakakis and Dick Plom.

Circle K International Will Meet In Toronto

Al Yourconis, John Mitchell, Joe Andrews, and Bill Sargent will be among the 300 members of Circle K International from U. S. and Canadian colleges attending the fifth annual convention of the college service organization in Toronto, August 24-26.

Circle K International is a service organization for college men, sponsored by Kiwanis International, and maintaining the same ideals and objectives. There are more than 5316 members on its rolls, representing a total of 264 clubs on as many college campuses.

High point of the three-day meeting will be the election of 1960-61 International officers and trustees—a president, two vice-presidents, a secretary and 12 trustees—on Friday, August 26. The current presidential incumbent is Robert A. Maxwell, a junior at Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio. Maxwell was elected to the post in Delaware in 1959. He will preside at the Toronto convention.

Hosts for the fifth annual Circle K convention will be the Circle K Clubs of Ryerson Institute, and Canadian Memorial Chiropractic College, both of Toronto. Assisting them will be the Kiwanis Club of Toronto. Headquarters for the convention will be the King Edward Sheraton Hotel, in the downtown area.

Principal speakers, in addition to Maxwell will be Mr. Stary Gange, a Kiwanian, vice-president of the Pacific Olive Company, Visalia, California, who will speak at the Fellowship Luncheon on Wednesday, August 24; Mr. Arnold Edinborough, Editor of SATURDAY NIGHT, Toronto, a Publication similar to TIME in the United States, will speak Wednesday evening, August 24; and Mr. J. O. Tally, Jr., who is currently serving as President-Elect of Kiwanis International, Fayetteville, North Carolina. Tally will speak at the Friday August 26th Farewell Luncheon.

Two other highlights of the convention will be the annual Circle K International activity contest, and the annual oratorical contest.

Activities judged will include service to campus, service to community and cooperative projects with Kiwanis clubs or other organizations. Winners will be announced at Toronto.

The subject of the Oratorical Contest will be "Build Individual Maturity" — the Circle K theme for 1960. Elimination trials will be held in closed sessions and the three top orators will compete publicly for the grand prize.

Other convention activities will include the adoption of convention resolutions and a theme and objectives for 1961, a social program highlighted by a group visit to the Canadian National Exhibition, in Toronto, and the installation of newly-elected officers and trustees.

Several weeks ago Circle K elected new officers for the coming year. At a recent meeting the Kiwanis Club in the Tampa Terrace Hotel the following men were installed: Al Yourconis, president; John Mitchell, vice-president; Bill Sargent, secretary Ross Jett, treasurer. They have promised continued growth and service to the campus and community through Circle in 1960-61.

Art Exhibit Opens In T. U. Ballroom

by Mildred Walker

An art exhibit sponsored by Kappa Pi Art Fraternity opened May 15 in the Ballroom. The Art Department, Fine and Industrial, contributed to the display.

Visitors enjoyed a tea on the opening day of the exhibit, which remained open for student observation during week following May 15. Professor James Bignell of the Industrial Arts Department said that the purpose of the exhibit was not for judging, but for enjoyment. He added that no blue ribbons or prizes were to be awarded, for the display was not a contest.

The work shown included paintings, drawings, handicrafts, wood shop and metal shop work, sculpture, mosaics, and art education aids. These works showed that amateur artists can produce professional work by taking any of the several art classes offered at Tampa U.

Cheerleaders Chosen From Twelve Finalists

Thursday, May 12, finals were held for cheerleaders. Some of the judges were members of the Student Congress, Miss Tomlinson and a few others.

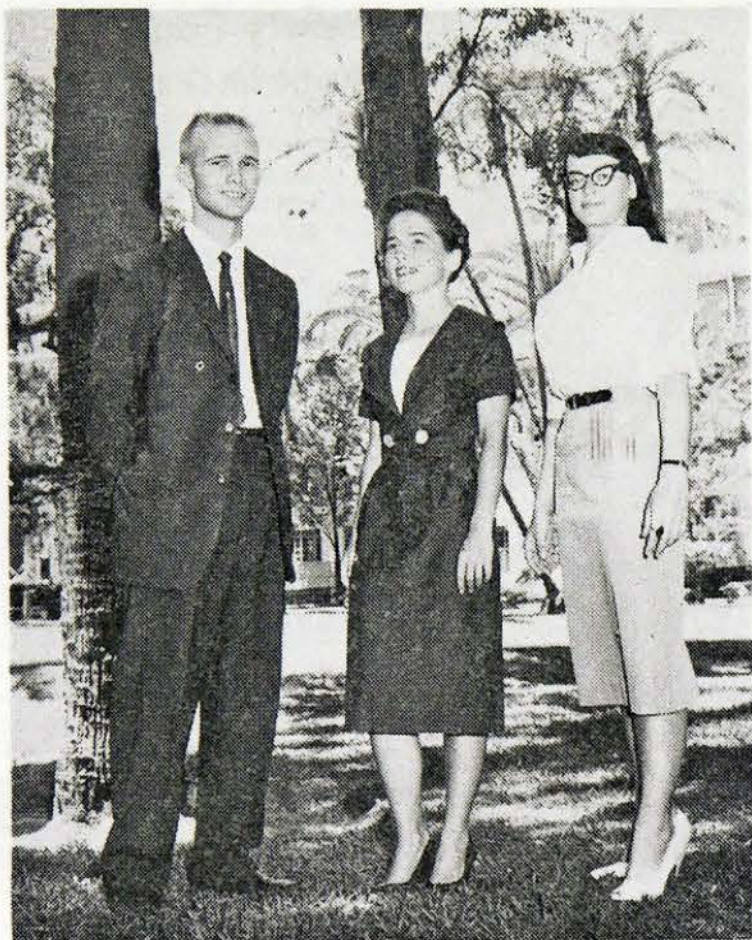

Of the finalists, these are the ones who were voted in: Josie (Sissie) Ferlita, Roseanne Cinchett, Linda Boyette, Heidi Chapman, Marie Tramontana. Vilma Tarmargo and Gail Davis are the co-captains.

The cheerleaders, during the football and basketball season, are responsible for better school spirit by cheering our teams through victory.

Wonderful plans have been made for this season's girls. They are now in the process of making new cheers and better organizing the group. Their main goal is getting better material for new energetic cheers.

Lots of luck, girls!

GEORGE CLEMENT, VALORIE KREBS AND ARDIS PHI ARDIS — NEW MEMBERS OF PHI SOCIETY.

Phi Society Initiates Three New Members

To most of our intellectually-inclined students in the fields of science and math, the Phi Society is one of the highest honors they can receive while in college. This year, three of these outstanding students were honored by the Society for their high scholastic achievements at the recent, award - presentation convocation held at the Municipal Auditorium.

The proud inductees are:

Ardis Phi Ardis, a most outstanding sophomore, feels that admittance to the Phi Society is half of the reward for her favorite self-indulgence. It is a Phi shaped pin and it is also recognition to the primary reward of having become aware of the extensive fields that knowledge affords.

Ardis is an independent and states with a demure smile, "I indulge in the apparently extra-curricular activity of studying—except come springtime." Last year, she was awarded the Borden Freshman Prize and will probably continue trying for even higher stakes.

The Pennsylvania born brunette is practically fresh out of the U.S. Navy. She loves Florida life and has lived in Miami for four years.

The only boy of the three is George Clement, and he shows the many qualities which he has, other than scholastic ability. His social life includes being secretary of Pi Kappa Phi Fraternity.

George originates from Arkansas where he graduated from Little Rock Central High School. Last year, he won the Freshman Chemistry Award and he also holds the Lamp Award for Scholarly Achievement. Aside from his many extracurricular activities, he manages to maintain an above 2.5 average, which is one of the main requirements for membership in the Phi Society.

The third is a Tampa girl, Valorie Krebs. She graduated from Plant High School and says, "reading the University of Tampa Catalogue before enrolling here in 1958, I became aware of the Phi Society. Becoming a member of the Society has been in the back of my mind ever since."

This petite young lady is, among other things, historian for Alpha Chi Omega. Last year, she was secretary-treasurer of the Freshman Class.

W. Wilson Comments On SUSGA

SUSGA is the Southern Universities Student Government Association. The University of Tampa joined this organization in 1958 after the Florida State Student Government Association disbanded.

This year's convention was held at Mississippi Southern College at Hattiesburg, Miss. and the organization was represented by some 35 colleges and universities from 8 southern states: Tulane, LSU, Auburn, U. of Alabama, U. of Florida, Florida State, Georgia and Georgia Tech were just a few of the outstanding.

John Mitchel, president of the student body, and Wayne Wilson attended this conference to represent Tampa U. and I would like to say that the knowledge gained by both of us has been considered as phenomenal. We attended conferences separately dealing with 'Campus Entertainment', Organization and Function of the the Executive Cabinet, Student Government and Greek Relations, Student Legislatures, and Student Government Role in Foreign Student Affairs." The Congress will receive a written report on these phases as will other organizations in this school which have a direct relationship with the areas covered.

It wasn't all work however, for SUSGA and Miss. Southern had arranged for the Brothers Four to entertain the first night and had as hostesses the famous "Dixie Darlins." The second night they were entertained by the Cumberland Trio.

One point, which might be of interest, is what they learned about Student Unions as they stand on other campus. Practically every institution represented there has had to struggle in this area. In most cases, the Student Union Buildings were built after the student body approved an increase in their activity fee which financed the building. There are still schools which have NO Student Unions, one of which is LSU.

The problems that exist in this University are no greater than those which exist in others throughout the country. In fact in the discussions after the various panels, John and myself agreed that the University of Tampa is, generally speaking, in good shape. We have brought back many ideas which we feel will be helpful in the future so long as the Student Body will HELP.

ROSE MARTINEZ IS THE SPANISH CLUB PRESIDENT

The University of Tampa Spanish Club had a reorganizational meeting in which new members signed up for next year and plans were made for a bigger and better club.

Among other things, the members discussed a welcoming party for the incoming freshmen next year. In past years, such a party was given by the club and it was always a great success.

The club got off to a fine start with the elections of new officers: Rose Martinez, president; Jerry Riles, Vice-President; Sylvia Elias, Secretary; and Yolanda Gonzalez, Historian.

The membership is definitely not restricted to Spanish-speaking students. As it stands right now, more than half of the members don't speak the lan-

T. U. GRADUATE WRITES BOOK: JOHN RINGLING

Richard Thomas, graduate of the University of Tampa, is the author of the new book, John Ringling.

Mr. Thomas attended the University of Tampa from September '51 to June '54 where he received his Bachelor of Arts degree. During this period, he took all the courses he could under Dr. Howard G. Baker. He also studied art under Norman Borchardt.

His book is mute testimony of the excellence of the instruction of these two gentlemen.

The biography of John Ringling is dedicated "To all those who love either art of the Circus." A copy is being donated to the University of Tampa library.

Richard Thomas developed an interest in the circus at a very early age. As an adult, he attended circus performances at every opportunity and because a member of the Circus Fans Association of America. Mr. Thomas resides in Clearwater.

guage but hope to do so fluently by the end of next year. For the moment, they address their new president as "Senorita Presidenta."

Among other activities, the Spanish Club hopes to put on some very piquant skits and is planning toward putting on a musical in Spanish, which will be for the enjoyment of all. New members are welcome and sure to find a very lively part in the club's activities.

THE GREEKS SPEAK

PI KAPPA PHI PLEDGES WERE INITIATED SUNDAY, MAY 22

Zeta Tau Alpha Four Zetas Make Cheerleaders

Zeta Tau Alpha has repeated its success in the cheerleading field with four Zetas chosen as cheerleaders for 1960-61. Linda Boyette, Heidi Chapman, Vilma Tamargo, and Roseanne Cinchett were chosen from twelve finalists. Vilma will share co-head honors with Gail Davis.

The Sig Eps honored the Zetas by choosing Yvonne Bretz and Vilma Tamargo as members of their Sweetheart Court at their dance held in May. This is a second honor for Yvonne who is also a maid in the Theta Chi Court.

The annual Big and Little Sister Breakfast was held on Sunday, May 22 at the Morrisonette Room. The pledges honored the Zeta advisors, and Anna Lee Katzinger, pledge trainer, with gifts. Judee Buckley was presented the Zeta loving cup for having been chosen Outstanding Pledge.

The pledges held a very successful cake and pizza sale in the lobby on May 25th.

The Mother-Daughter Tea will be held on Sunday, May 29th with the mothers of all actives and pledges present.

The Zetas took over the Bretz home for a general get together on Friday, May 20th. Plain "ole" gabbing and popcorn munching was the order of the evening. At least 20 girls were present and the general consensus is that a good time was had by all.

TAU KAPPA EPSILON NEW OFFICERS NAMED

Teke announces the election of its new slate of officers for school year 1960-61.

Charley Henry is our new president. Congratulations to Charley on his new office and on his receiving the Outstanding Sportsmanship trophy for his play in intramurals.

Mike Hoperick gives up the treasurer's books to become Vice-president while Hank Moore takes over the treasury. Walter Carmony takes over for graduating Frater Col. Sjöding as Secretary. The Colonel will be leaving for the University of Mainz, Germany, after graduation.

In other offices, Lou Mixon was named Pledge Trainer. Bob Caltagirone was named Chaplin and Pete La Russa Sargeant-At-Arms.

The Fraters, their parents, dates, and guests got together Saturday evening for our annual Commemoration Banquet. Awards were presented and Dean Setear was the guest speaker.

Delta Zeta DZ's Chosen As Dancerettes

Dancerette and cheerleading tryouts have come and gone with Delta Zeta taking its place among the ranks once again. Joining the ranks of Spartan Dancerettes for the 1960-61 academic year will be Norma Fernandez, pledges Marie Boykin (co-head), and Mary Teresa Papia, with pledge Diana Barbary and Carrie Hernandez serving as alternates. Gail (Chuckie-Cluckie) Davis will cheer our mighty Spartan Warriors on to victory for the second straight year.

In track Intramurals Delta Zeta placed third on overall competition, which proves that the sorority has quite a few athletes. In softball Intramurals DZ's defeated Alpha Chi Omega to become defending champions. We now must play those "tough independents" for the championship.

Tau Kappa Epsilon Fraternity cleaned up our "junk" room, which is adjacent to our sorority room. This room houses our odds and ends for sorority functions. This fraternity certainly exemplifies cooperation and willingness to help.

At their annual Rose Ball, held May 20, Delta Zeta chose as the Man of the Year two outstanding "men" who have helped in every possible way this past year. These two are Henry Vallin and Herman Valdes. The outstanding pledge award went to pledges Diana Barbary and Josi Pendino. Outstanding active collegiate award went to Diana Ray. She received another charm for her "full" charm bracelet. Favors for the dates were little traveling clocks, engraved with the Creek letters D Z and the date's name.

Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity honored Delta Zeta at their recent formal dance by placing Gail Davis in their Sweetheart Court.

Alpha Chi Omega Lead Out Dance Is A Success

The Alpha Chi Lead-Out dance held May 13 at the Tampa Yacht and Country Club was a gala affair. The girls sang "Girl of the Golden Lyre" to Romana Hernandez as she received the award for her loyalty and friendship to Alpha Chi in her four years attending Tampa U. Mickey Jackson was chosen the Alpha Chi "Sweetheart" for this year. Mickey has always been a loyal friend of all the sisters and a faithful worker for the sorority. Ross Jett received the "Recognition award. Although this is the first year we've given this award, we hope to continue giving it each year to persons as deserving as Ross. Ross has rendered outstanding service to the sorority this year with his unselfish help during homecoming and rush.

Also, for the first time, this year Alpha Chi chose two outstanding pledges. There was even a difficulty limiting this award to two, as all of the pledges have been so outstanding this year. Diane and Donna Beniger were chosen for this honor.

At the Carnation breakfast this month, Angela Hunter was chosen Carnation active and Sis Ferlita, Carnation pledge. Sis has also been selected as one of the cheerleaders to lead on the fighting spartans next fall.

The steak fry held May 15, was also quite a blast for all those who attended.

PROFESSOR STEPHEN F. PARKS RECEIVES RECOGNITION FOR OUTSTANDING CONTRIBUTION TO THE MUSIC DEPARTMENT

KAPPA KAPPA PSI INITIATES PLEDGES

Final initiation ceremonies were performed on Friday, May 13, for eight fraternity pledges. The following pledges were installed as regular members at the meeting — George Nousiainen, Nelson Roccaforte, Lonnie Keen, Joseph Dervaes, Robert Calafell, Gilbert De Meza, Lee Otto, and Jim Klapps. After the initiation, a banquet was held at the Columbia Restaurant in Ybor City.

Professor Stephen F. Parks was honored in recognition for his outstanding contributions to the music department and the advancement of students at the University of Tampa. He gave a short speech pertaining to music after the award was presented. Also honored was Joseph R. Dervaes when presented with a trophy for the most outstanding pledge in 1960.

Preceding the banquet, the band was invited to perform a concert for the Exchange Club on Monday, May 9. The Exchange Club is composed of prominent business associates throughout the city. A luncheon was given for the occasion at the Hillsboro Hotel. The Exchange Club had previously donated money for the purchase of a baritone saxophone for the band.

Another concert was performed on Sunday, May 22, at the Tampa Yacht and Country Club at Ballast Point. Featured on the program were three Broadway hits — "Oklahoma", "My Fair Lady", and "The Music Man". A host of other notable pieces accompanied these well-known selections.

Suncoast Beauty Contest To Take Place In June

FIESTA BEAUTY Pageant
A free five-day all expense air tour to Mexico City is being offered to the three winners in the Tri-City Suncoast Fiesta Beauty Pageant scheduled to be held in Tampa in late July.

University of Tampa students are being invited to enter the competition and entry blanks with rules and regulations are available from Al Gomez, Publicity Director and Business Manager of the Athletic Department, who has been made University of Tampa chairman for the event.

The big pageant is being conducted throughout Hillsborough and Pinellas counties as one of the spectacular events of the month-long Fiesta program in July. The area has been broken down into three zones with Tampa, St. Petersburg and Clearwater as central points. Ben Hoover, public relations director of Treasure Island Chamber of Commerce, is general chairman of the three-zone committee while Jack Bradford, manager of Hotel Thomas Jefferson, Tampa, is chairman of the Zone 1 (Hillsborough County) committee. Applicants may also apply to Mr. Bradford for entry blanks.

Three flights are being offered, one for each zone finalist, assuring each area of a winner. The Tampa preliminaries will be held on Thursday, July 21 around the pool of the Rocky Point Beach Motel at Tampa. Ten finalists from each zone will make up the field of 30 who will vie for the three top awards on the evening of Friday, July 22 in Tampa. After the three zone winners have been chosen, one will be named Miss Suncoast Fiesta and the two runners-up will serve as her princesses.

The three winners will be flown to Mexico City as honored guests on a Suncoast Good Will flight via Guest Airlines with the large party being made up of business and civic leaders of the Suncoast-Tampa Bay area. Department date

Experiences of A Skin Diver

by Bonnie Moore

Early last Sunday morning, I made my way down to the University, armed with swim fins, face mask and borrowed air tank, to meet with a relatively new group at school, the Skin Diving Club.

It was my first outing, and I must admit I was rather afraid at first. I had heard of the Club from a few of my friends, but when it was suggested that I go with them on their next outing I gave out with "Who, me?" To be perfectly truthful, at the time I wasn't quite sure what skin diving really was. The only contact I had ever had with skin diving was through watching television and seeing men fighting with sharks and running out of air hundreds of feet beneath the sea. I didn't take all this quite literally, but I still had the impression that skin diving was a rather dangerous sport, and not something for a girl to attempt.

I was finally talked into going, and all the way up there I schemed about playing sick and saying I had a headache or something so that I could just watch. Soon however, my fears were completely dispelled. We left from school in various cars and traveled about 90 miles to Crystal River. There we rented two boats and went out into the middle of the river where there was a spot about seventy-five feet deep with underwater caves and various types of marine life. It was perfectly beautiful and I had a marvelous time.

I found the club members to be a congenial, informal group with just enough supervision to keep anyone from getting hurt. The more experienced members were more than willing to teach the others how to breathe through the aqua lung or anything else they wanted to know.

We started back to Tampa about four o'clock to be back around suppertime.

As for the expense, everyone goes in for gas money, then renting a lung and food you might want to buy. I believe about $3.50 for an outing is enough.

Members of the club who attended the outing were: Mike Malloy, Dave Andrews, Sam Hawkins, Al Harty, Bud Adams, Sal Mangameli, Lorraine Esposito, Connie Moos, Ardis Phi Ardis, Ed Lombardi, Dick Montross, and myself.

It was a wonderful experience and I'll be ready to go whenever they have an outing.

FACULTY NEWS

President Delo was elected to the Board of the Tampa Chapter of the American Red Cross at the annual meeting this week.

The President concluded the address before the Florida Association of Universities and College last Friday, with these thoughts: . . . For decades we have stood by while public taste has swung constantly closer to the material and farther from the values of the mind and spirit, which constitute our treasured heritage. Yesterday's and today's passive repetition will no longer suffice for tomorrow. If we have a conscience as educators, we will no longer short change our students through administrative timidity. Rather let us stand boldly for that which we know to be right and "Raise a standard to which the wise and honest can repair."

Dr. Covington, Prof. Fernandez, Prof. Weiman and Dr. Speronis are the faculty advisors and members of the steering committee of the newly organized Institute of International Affairs on the campus. Officers and members will be elected from the citizens of the community. Plans are being made for a series of foreign affairs panels to bring diplomatic personnel for special events on our campus.

Prof. Chambers and Intern Jack Smallwood attended the preschool orientation at Central School in Sarasota, on May 3.

Prof. Weiman attended the meeting of the American Society of International Law which was held in Washington the past week.

ON APPLE POLISHING

by Marian Pedersen

On revisiting Webster's Student Dictionary, we note that the verb "to polish" lists as its first definition the following: "To make smooth and glossy, usually by friction; to give luster to."

It strikes us that polishing the apple of one's professors by friction could easily lead to dire and sad results. Let us imagine, if we can, the plight which might arise should a student take Mr. Webster a bit too literally.

Sam Lackluster, having read the above definition, immediately began his friction campaign by becoming rather obstinate.

If the professor asked for pen and standard size notebook paper, Sam obliged with pencil and note pad. (He couldn't understand why he made no "points".)

Sam didn't laugh at the numerous jokes told in his classes, even if they were funny. (No points earned, no apple polished.)

Turning in assignments a week late, and being conspicuously absent from his front row seat brought forth no recognition either.

Snipping his fingernails loudly during lectures created friction, all right, but hardly the desirable kind.

Large, billowing clouds of smoke from cheap cigars was of little good, either.

Nor was arriving in class hot with perspiration and wearing gym shorts and tennis shoes to Sam's advantage.

Knuckle-cracking, throat-clearing, foot-tapping — all brought signs of distaste.

At the end of his two-week "E Pluribus Unum" campaign, Sam reverted back to his former hard-working, attention-paying self.

It seems Sam had created friction all right, but had "rubbed" his professors the wrong way!

Next year, the Spartans have one of the toughest schedules in their young history. It includes such teams as University of Alabama, University of Tennessee, powers of the Southeastern Conference, and other teams like McMurry, McNeese and Southeastern Louisiana which take a backseat to no one.

At the conclusion of spring practice the Spartans named the captains for the 1960 season. They are Joe Glisson, Charlie McCullers, and Ron Tecza. Glisson will be a senior next year and hails from Claxton, Georgia. He attended Middle Georgia College before coming to Tampa University where he was an All-American quarterback. McCullers calls Plant City his home and enters his final year at Tampa. Charlie has been an asset to the Spartans in all his four years. Ron Tecza also in his senior year, served as Spartan co-captain last year and did a creditable job. It is felt that all these men will do justice to the Spartan uniform and credit to the University of Tampa.

BASEBALL

Spartans Display Great Fielding

Baseball at the University of Tampa is on the way up the ladder. The Spartans fielded one of the best teams in the school's history but due to the lack of effective pitching they did not do as well as was expected. At first base was Chuck Engelking or Toby Holbrook. Engelking known for his basketball prowess exhibited his baseball ability also. Holbrook who was an All-Stater from West Virginia, provided that extra punch in the closing days of the season. Joe Vega and Jim Gatto handled the chores at second base. Vega, who has been playing ball for the Spartans for the past three years, came through with some clutch hits in the course of the season. Gatto hails from Brooklyn, New York and played ball for the

The Major's Club Storms To Victory

by Mel Baume

The All-Intramural Championship at the University of Tampa was won by the Physical Education Major's Club for the year 1959-60. The strong Major's Club stormed to an early lead and had to withstand late surges by runner-up Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity and 3rd place Theta Chi fraternity.

A total of 18 activities comprise the Intramural Sports program at the University, under the direction of Professor Ben F. Scherer and Student Director Stan Salonsky. This wide variety of activities encourages a great many students to take part in the program.

Professor Scherer states that approximately 35 percent of the full time male enrollment at the University actively participate in the program. Untold numbers of students, men and women, take part as spectators and rooters from the sidelines.

runner-up to the city Championship as well as for many inter-social leagues. Stan Salonsky, "the old pro", played nearly every game at the shortstop position and proved to be one of the best fielding shortstops in the conference. Manuel Perez and Joe Lopez did a good job at the hot corner. Perez concluded his senior year in a blaze of glory as he took the hitting honors for the Spartans.

Lopez, a freshman at the University of Tampa, is slated to see a lot of action in the years to come because of his exceptional playing as a freshman. Joe Ciccarello, also a freshman, batted clean-up for the Spartans and hit those needed long balls in that position. Bill Rouse, an All State selection from last year, did an admirable job as he patrolled centerfield. Around in right was Bill Yeagle, one of the fastest men on the team and one of the best competitors. Tommy Brice and Charlie Lyle handled the catching chores for the Spartans. The pitchers were Thad Chapman, Ream Wilson, George Barcelo, Joe Canzoneri, John Heim and Bill Sargent. Utility men were Bill Turner and John Proccacio who can play nearly every position on the field.

BASKETBALL

John McNamara Spurs Team To Victory

Basketball took the spotlight next at Tampa University. Coach Lavoy who had a freshman dominated squad shaped them into a well-organized unit by the close of the season. John Pelligrino, Don Boyt, Billy Turner, Chuck Engleking, Lamont Craft and captain John McNamara provided the nucleus that gave Tampa one of their best overall records since 1953. John McNamara for his sportsmanship and leadership received one of the most coveted honors given by the Jewish community center, the sportsmanship trophy. Coach Lavoy is in the mist of releasing the 1960-61 schedule which promises to be one of the best in the school's history. Lavoy has a fine crop of prospects that are planning to attend the University in the fall. These will give Tampa that extra power which will enable them to give some of the national powers in the basketball world a fight for their money. The Spartans lose Bill Turner, Bob Swigert, John McNamara and Lamont Craft via graduation.

CREW

Tom Addison, Angel Arenas Set Pace

Crew rounds out the sport scene at the University of Tampa. Coach Bill Stalnaker was faced with one of his toughest jobs as a Coach at the University. Captains for this year's races were Tom Addison and Angel Arenas. Both of these boys have rowed for the past four years. Main stalwarts in the varsity boat were Dan Robbins, Dan Uickard Tom Addison, Angel Arenas, Buddy Williams, Wayne Davis, Chris Jorden, and Ralph Griffin and Coxswain Larry Arnold. The J.V.
