WE'RE HAVING A SPRING REUNION

In Spring a young man's fancy turns to love, or some such thing—and—if he's a little older it might well turn to younger days and old friends and fun. That's the direction ours has been taking and from those fancies has come plans for our first full scale Spring Reunion.

At the regular meeting of the Board of Directors in February a report was given by the committee with an outline of tentative plans for the reunion. This was accepted by the Board and final arrangements are being made.

A discussion of the possibility of having a regular business meeting of the Association at this time is in progress, final decision to be reached at the March Board meeting.

The Spring Reunion will be held on Commencement week, June 6th and 7th, and will provide an opportunity for alumni to visit the University again, meet old and new faculty members in an informal manner, and see the progress that has been made.

These are the tentative plans:

6 June Wednesday

5-7 P.M. Social Hour

7 P.M. Banquet

8:30 P.M. Business Meeting

7 June Thursday

Class reunions. Breakfasts and luncheons to be arranged by the various classes.

2-5 P.M. Forum (by faculty members) Tours of the building.

5-7 P.M. Informal reception (Alumni and Faculty)

8 P.M. Commencement

9 P.M. President's Reception

10 P.M. Alumni Dance honoring graduating seniors, new alumni.

Start making your plans now to join us for an occasion of fun. Some one from your class will contact you about your reunion plans.

GREETINGS FROM PRESIDENT NANCE

Record-breaking enrollments, enlargement of curricula offerings, improvement of physical plant, extending our educational services into the fields of technical aircraft, electronics and special education, and recognition by the Ford Foundation are high points in the evidence of the progress of your Alma Mater during the past six months.

But the human elements in the program of an institution are the most vital and important of all other values. The enrollment of students from thirty states and ten foreign countries, and the addition of ten new professors to our faculty speaks well for our University, but the most encouraging fact of all is that nearly 1600 students, including our technical aircraft school in Cuba and electronic department, are sharing the common fellowship of learning with our teaching staff of eighty dedicated men and women.

And it is heartening to realize that our Alumni throughout the country are supporting this forward-looking, ever-expanding edu-

Report From American Alumni Council

by Virginia Overstreet

During the four days of June 26-30, 1955, I represented the University of Tampa Alumni Association at the 40th General Conference of the American Alumni Council at Bretton Woods, New Hampshire.

Those four days, and a good part of the nights, were spent with people from the length and breadth of the land who make the running of alumni associations their profession. Besides the numerous sessions I attended, there was opportunity to talk individually with men and women who are considered key authorities in the various phases of alumni work.

cational program. Trustees, faculty, staff, students and administration are grateful for your interest, goodwill and support.

Report From AAC - - -

Some of the sessions I attended were "How to Start an Alumni Program From Scratch": "How to Survive As An All-Purpose Secretary": "How to Promote an Alumni Association with Undergraduates and Alumni": "How to Finance an Alumni Association": "Care and Feeding of Urban Colleges": these were only a few and each of them carried much valuable information.

A panel discussion by five college presidents proved not only enlightening but very entertaining. Imagine my amazement at finding each of them considered their own alumni association the most valuable asset the college possessed.

I would like to quote some figures from a survey made by Robert Beckham, alumni director at Brigham Young University. Among 326 institutions reporting, of which we were one, he has come up with some very interesting statistics which will show how we stand. In our geographic district an average of $28,229 per year is spent on alumni work by the various institutions. Private institutions with 5,000 or less living alumni spend about $10,000 per year. Nationwide 64 per cent of all alumni finances come from the institutions — in private schools the percentage goes up to 68.4 per cent. Almost 80 per cent of all private institutions have no alumni dues or no set amount. 81 per cent of private institutions have no plan for life membership. The survey by Mr. Beckham gives many more interesting statistics with food for thought.

Among the many new concepts of alumni work which I received was the realization that we are trying to keep our association geared to the standards of 1900. No longer is the alumni association merely a social organization to perpetuate the perennial freshman and co-ed.

nor does it survive for the promotion of the football team alone. As mature and responsible citizens alumni organizations feel their responsibility to their alma mater. Not until the alumni association becomes genuinely interested in helping in every possible way to promote the welfare and betterment of the institution can it be seriously considered by the officers, staff, faculty and students as a worthwhile organization.

Great emphasis was placed on the necessity for a free flow of information between the officers of the alumni association and those of the institution. Only with such an exchange and full cooperation can there be mutual understanding and helpfulness.

At the end of my four days at Bretton Woods when I had time to think back, I found that many ideas about which I had been adamant, such as a life membership plan and raising dues, had been swept away to be replaced by completely new ones. The few days with experts had given me a wealth of answers to questions and ideas that I sincerely hope will be of benefit to our alumni association for many years to come.

Please don't think that I now consider myself an expert on alumni affairs — I really found out only how little I knew and how much there is to learn. I would like to make the following recommendations to be considered by the association as a basic plan for the growth of our association into one that will benefit the university and alumni:

1. A long range program of development and activities to be directed by one person, other than the president of the association, such as an executive secretary.
2. A free exchange of information with the administration of the university so that the alumni may be properly informed of the development program, academic standards and needs of the university and the university may be fully informed of alumni activities.

3. A system whereby the business office collects from the students as a part of the regular tuition a small fee which will be turned over to the Alumni Association for a special fund to be used only to defray the cost of record-keeping, mailing and publications.
4. A definite program of the alumni association in cooperation with the university to train students as potential alumni from the moment they first enter the building. This may be done by having alumni representatives participate in every way possible in assemblies, commencements, social functions, sports events, etc.
5. A good well-rounded alumni publication, distributed at set intervals, containing articles by the university president, staff and faculty on current happenings and development of the university.
6. A change in the constitution and by-laws of the alumni association to provide for election of the officers and board of directors of the association by mail ballot of all association members.
7. The alumni association should make provisions for at least one officer or board member to attend the annual conference of the American Alumni Association and their district meetings each year.

These recommendations are not ideas of my own, but are taken from the know-how and experience of people who have spent many years making alumni organizations work. They cannot all be accomplished in a month or a year, but merely provide a goal toward which to work.

I am very grateful for the opportunity of attending the AAC General Conference and sincerely hope that our alumni association will benefit from the things that I learned, for many years to come.

Before I attended the AAC I was very interested in alumni work — now I am a fanatic.

Mrs. L. C. Neff of Huntington, West Virginia, who has been in Tampa visiting during the winter organized a Mother's Club in January. On Valentine's Day a tea was held in the Rollins room at the University. Mrs. N. D. McRae, mother of Jean McRae Plummer (52) was elected president. The mothers have helped wonderfully through rushing days.

Friday, April 13th, the annual Cinderilla Ball will be held at the Tampa Yacht and Country Club. New pledges will be introduced.

THINGS TO COME

During the 1954-1955 year of the Alumni Association, the subject of changing the method of election of Association officers was raised for discussion many times.

To many of us it seems unfair that those of our alumni who are unable to attend the annual meeting of the Association at Homecoming in the fall should be prohibited from the privilege of voting. Some of our most loyal members of the Association who have paid their dues regularly for years have never had the right to vote because they were for some good reason, unable to attend the annual meeting.

An investigation of the methods used by other institutions for electing their officers shows that by far the greater majority accomplish this by sending ballots to all members. This, of course, is done after the slate of officers has been published in the bulletin with a comment and record of each. The members of the association then mark their ballots and return them to the home office of the alumni association for counting.

This method would mean that the day to day operation of the Association business would be left in the hands of a few well chosen and trusted people at the University, while the major policies and decisions would be made by the officers and board when they would meet on two or three occasions during the year.

Many of us who have been actually involved in the work of the association feel that this would make a tighter organization whose members would feel that they were really a part of it.

There is of course, two sides to every question, and when this one was brought up on the floor at the business meeting last November, there were dissentors in the crowd. Some of these were members who have been valued workers in the Association. Time did not permit more than a very short discussion of the subject, so that it was impossible to draw any conclusions from the group there, who represented only a small fraction of the total membership.

Now that the University is growing and has some 10,000 alumni our potential for membership in the organization and the good we can do the University is growing by leaps and bounds. In some way we must reach these alumni and bind them more closely to us for the benefit of our University.

Will this change help our Alumni Association to gain its rightful place in the whole scheme of University affairs, or shall we continue to follow the path of these past years

The Board of Directors with the help of Dean B. B. Burnside is making a detailed study of this problem and it will be brought before the Board for a vote in the near future.

THANK YOU

Many thanks to the alumnus who sent a check for $150.00 to be used in the Woman's Dormitory. Although she wishes to remain anonymous, we hope she will read this and know how much we appreciate the gift.

SPRING SPORTS

by John Hall

When Athletic Director Marcelino Huerta, Jr., drove his brand spankin' newly presented Station Wagon through the gates of Phillips Field on the night of December 3rd, at the conclusion of the FSU football classic, many fans felt that the pressure was off, and that their popular and animated coach was due for a richly deserved interim period of relaxation. After all, the season had ended and his assistants, the Spartans and he had given a "top drawer" account of themselves by digging deep into the gridiron pie to come up with an 8 win 2 loss plum. Variety was to become his relaxation, however. Recruiting for next season, establishing as formidable a 1956 football schedule as possible, preparing next year's budget, and providing Alumni and friends with an interesting "Spring Sports Activity," were some of the immediate problems to take to the woodshed. The first three enigmas are still in the mill, but our vigorous Athletic Director in his all out-effort to please y'all, got together with his operating staff to plan the latter. Chef Huerta and his assistants cooked up as savoury and as tasty a platter of "Spring Athletic goodies" that will whet the appetite and tempt the palate of the most discriminating sports gourmet.

These delectables are offered to alumni and friends residing, visiting, or passing through Lakeland, Winter Park, Miami, De Land, Tampa, Statesboro, Georgia, or as far north as Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Devotees of shell racing can find the Spartan crew bubbling with exuberance under the colorful leadership of Coach Bill Stalnaker on the Hillsborough River course, participating in the Florida Championship Regatta, May 5th, and a race against LaSalle College Philadelphia is scheduled for March 27. Other home dates are Amherst College, March 31, and American International College, April 3rd. The Spartan oarsmen open their season in the Founders' Day Regatta at Lakeland March 8. Other racing engagements are April 7, at Florida Southern; April 14, Rollins at Winter Park; May 12, Dad Vail Regatta at Philadelphia. (A toast to the Crew . . . Well, Fellows, Bottoms up! . . . Oops, Sorry, I mean "Here's to you, Best of Luck.")

Alumni and fans of baseball will be happy to hear that, after a year's absence, a baseball team has been organized under the guidance of "Sanibel Sam" Bailey, and will be playing Florida, Miami, Rollins, Stetson, Florida Southern, MacDill Air Force Base, Parris Island Marines, Valdosta and American International College. For the convenience of local alumni, students and fans "Ole Casey Bailey" is planning to play at least one of his more significant home games at the Al Lopez field after the White Sox depart. Marcelo Maseda will umpire at home plate. You remember him, he's the former baseball player whose eyes went bad.

Basketball enthusiasts will be interested to learn that Coach Gene Bittner's charges after completing the season with 11 wins and 11 losses, have been invited to compete in the 25th District NAIA Tournament at Statesboro, Georgia, along with Georgia State Teachers, Mercer and Stetson. The Spartans are seeded fourth. A victory in this tournament brings with it the privilege of going on to the NAIA tournament in Kansas City on March 15.

The frosting on the spring's sports cake is being whipped up by Backfield Coach Angus Williams. He is currently finalizing plans for the Spartans to play the "Old Grads" at Phillips Field in a spring game climaxing the pre-season training period. This inevitable Donnybrook should provoke wide spread alumni appeal inasmuch as York, Rudy, Luke, Orrie, Paul and Ernie as well as Al, Bob, Bill, Ted, Fred, Tom, Nick, and Harry coached by Crockett have all agreed to participate. The Alumni team has already warned the Spartans that they are out to upset the applecart. The tentative date for this event has been announced by the sponsoring Quarterback Club as March 29. (Bring Iodine.)

That's it, folks! Here in this program one finds all of the ingredients of what a well integrated Spring Athletic Program should be . . . Like a well prepared meal, it is orderly and expertly planned and like the piece de resistance, it is liberally seasoned but with the smoothest of blends. Football, basketball, baseball or crew, when the boys participate in your vicinity this spring, you can be assured that your appearance would fan the flame of athletic progress at our University and go far in maintaining a sports program which could only result in being a credit to the University, Townspeople, Alumni, Students and Friends. In the final analysis an athletic event is as one critic once wrote on music: "Here is Tchaikovsky at his best. Music so beautiful it has to be heard to be appreciated" . . . (A lot of music it like that!!!)

We have received a membership contribution from CAROL ARLENE BARNES (51) of Route 1, Box 275, Tampa, since our last publication.

JAMES L. BERFIELD (55), has returned from the Northland, and wanting to settle in Tampa, secured a nice position with the Waterman Steamship Company through the efforts of the new University placement service. James is a contributing member of the alumni association and resides at 1607 East Ida Street, Tampa.

ED and LORRAINE CASELA give their new address as 1102 West 20th Street, Erie, Penn.

He hopes to get out of the Navy in July 1956 and plans to go on to get his Master's at the University of Florida. His present address is U.S.S. Tingey, DD-539, F.P.O., San Francisco, California.

Through a newspaper item we are informed of the fact that S/SGT. and MRS. RAYMOND E. CRAWFORD of Tampa, living on Eielson Air Force Base in Alaska were unhurt when a jet fighter plane crashed into a row of houses there killing about a dozen people. Mrs. Crawford is the former BETTY ROSE WAGES and an alumnus of the Univeristy.

It was nice to receive a welcome sizeable contribution from VIOLA BURR DONNER (50), when she sent us her blank for membership in the Alumni association.

From Baltimore comes word from MIRIAM GREEN (MRS. J.

ELLIOT GREEN, JR.), 316 Rositer Avenue, Baltimore, with her membership.

CHARLES RAY HAR- GRAVES (52) was around recently. He is now living at 112 Magnolia Avenue, Tampa 6.

MRS. PAUL M. HANCE, formerly BETTY JO MIMS, wrote some time ago giving us some names and addresses to add to our needed list of alumni and says "you are doing a swell job and all of the 'busy and lazy' alumni do appreciate it. I think the only answer to the problem of keeping things rolling for us is the hiring of an executive secretary, whose salary the U should pay" — in the sweet bye and bye we hope that may be possible. Thanks for all the fine information, and your good wishes.

MRS. GRAHAM JONES writes giving us information about her daughter MRS. ROBERT D. TYLANDER, who is now living in West Palm Beach at 1 Melaleuca Lane, Route 5. Her husband is an attorney and they have two girls—8 and 5 years of age.

CAPT. NELSON H. JONES has returned from an assignment in Germany and is now attending a school at Ft. McClelland. His address is 1831 Thomas Ave., Anniston, Ala. His brother ROBERT G. EDWARD T. KENDRICK (48) received his MA at Tulane University (52) in social work and is now Executive Director of the American Red Cross Chapter in Richmond, California. His address is 1676 Shasta Street, Richmond, California. The Contra Costa County Chapter covers the Richmond area—175,00 population. Nice to get you off the "lost Alumni list."

We were glad to hear from PAUL KEENAN (56), who is perhaps our most recent graduate who has written in. He lists 1462 Islington Street, Portsmouth, New Hampshire as his present address.

SARA KATHRYN KIRKLAND (53) of 615 Remshart Street, Tampa, with the State Department of Public Welfare, is now a full-fledged contributing member of the Alumni association.

LT. JEROME MAIER writes, "I have received the November issue of the Alumni Bulletin and wish to express my congratulations to the staff and all concerned, for a very interesting and informative publication. Please accept this small contribution to help with the many expenses you must encounter." His contribution was more than nominal. Many thanks.

JOE MCKEE (53) returned to Tampa recently and, with some assistance from the University Placement Service, is now working with the Orange State Motors in the Sales Department, Orange State handles International trucks. His home address is 1422 E. Hanna, Tampa, Florida.

BETTE GARRISON MORRIS of 512 Battleground Road, Lincolnton, N. C., a former Minaret Staff member, gave us much news and information. Her husband, BILL MORRIS, is in his first year in law school and she is teaching private art classes. They have two children, Bill Jr. 9 and Rose 6. Mrs. Hanley and Mrs. Pate have been properly greeted for you. Mr. Borchardt is very much here. Bette also gives us news of MARY CATHERINE MARTIN, now MRS. I believe we have been one of the biggest boosters for the U. of Tampa in the North since we left. Our home-away-from-home at U. of T. creeps into our conversation in a glowing way ever so frequently. In addition your stature has risen (in our conversation) to being one of the most humane, understanding and subtle university presidents on record as well as a number one publicity man! No, it's not flattery, we do think so and don't mind admitting it."

Larry's present address is 6957 S. Hermitage Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

HARVEY R. REILICH, 19234 Botrobeck Drive, Detroit 19, Michigan, writes, "I enjoy keeping in touch with the sport events that are going on at the university. I kept up with the football team, and they sure had a splendid season. Is Tampa going to play in the cigar bowl this year? If so whom?"

I wish to have you please send me a schedule of the Spartans basketball ball games for this season . . ."

Harvey also says, "it would be nice if the alumni news could keep us informed of the sports events." We are trying to do that, Harvey, through John Hall's articles. There was no cigar bowl game this year. We, too, are sorry.

MICHALEE SLAVIN (54) was married to STANLEY T. CROCKER (55) in November. She is teaching at Plant High School. He is still at Tampa U.

KATHRYN SIBLE (50) was the first Spar yoeman to be enlisted in the Coast Guard Reserve Unit in Tampa. Congratulations Katie!

LEONA SPENCER (54), 1635 Laurel Street, Clearwater, Florida, is a teacher and personel counselor at Largo, Florida. It was a pleasure to meet her at the conference of the Florida Association of Deans and Counselors at Stetson University.

MRS. JOHN N. STEWART (52), formerly LORRAINE WEDEL, 16 Sixth Avenue, Atwater, California, writes, "I was so very glad to receive the Alumni Bulletin. I learned where a lot of my classmates were living now as I've been out of contact with them for a few years.

"My husband is in the Air Force stationed here at Cattle AFB, and we are hoping soon that we will be transferred back East so that we may visit our many friends in Tampa again."

We have received a membership registration from JAMES CLIFTON STOUTSENBERGER (53), 3603 T. Street N.W., Washington, D. C. Would like to have had some news.

THEODORE W. WALTERS, who is with the YMCA at 140 N. Louise Street in Glendale 6, California, writes Dr. Nance to say, "Thank you also for the Alumni paper and the information concerning the History of the University in general. It was also interesting to learn, that many of the old and new Professors had received their Master's and Doctor's degrees . . . I have seen literature of the Government's four point program and was very interested to learn of Cuba's advancement in Technology. I would be very interested in receiving a report of the History of the University of Tampa, and would also like to contribute to the Alumni fund. Would you send me forms for this purpose, and I will draft a check later if the bank doesn't put me in jail."

ALUMNI CONTRIBUTIONS

The Board of Directors of the University of Tampa Alumni Association at their regular monthly meeting, September 26, 1955 approved a motion to eliminate the Two Dollar ($2.00) annual assessment for membership in the Association.

Beginning with registration at Homecoming and thereafter any monetary contributions to the Association will entitle the contributor to membership in the Association if contributor is otherwise qualified. Membership cards will be issued as contributions are made.

It is important to note that contributions made at registration on November 18 and 19th during the 1955 Homecoming were for membership during the 1955-56 year.

The authority for the above quoted change is contained in Section II, Article III of the First Amended by-laws of the University of Tampa Alumni Association. It is hoped that through this means we may increase the total amount of giving by alumni and that members will not feel limited to any certain amount. If we are to build a real reserve for possible service to our University in the future we must increase our contributions. With the growth of our Alma Mater comes increasing need for better facilities and before we can seek outside aid we must show that we are really interested in our own. However, no one should feel that they must contribute more than their share or what they feel they can afford and so any amount will constitute membership in the Alumni Association.

This is in line with what other Alumni Associations are doing.

Word comes to us from Fort Bliss, Texas, that HUGO F. WINDHAM (50) is attending the Army's Anti-Aircraft and Guided Missile School at Fort Bliss, Texas. Captain Windham was taking the associated anti-aircraft artillery officer advance course. The course ended March 6.

DOT WOLFE (45) writes asking us to change her address to: MRS. DOROTHA E MALLARD WOLFE, 918 Knollwood, Tampa 4, Florida. We are glad you liked Homecoming, Dot. We did too.

MEREDITH WEBBER WILMATH and husband just returned from a tour of Florida. Their two sons, two years and eight months, were left home with grandmaw.
