Christmas Band Concert To Be Held Sunday

December 8, at 3:00 p.m., the University of Tampa Concert Band will present a concert in the Christmas theme. The Band which will hold its concert in Plant Park, weather permitting, will be directed by Mr. Hunter Wiley, Chairman of the Department of Music.

Music will include various Christmas selections; the Overture to Hansel and Gretel; the Hallelujah Chorus, and other selections.

The following Sunday, December 15, the Band will appear on the Perspective television program in a concert of Christmas music.

Warning From Southern Association

University Players Rehearse

In response to a spurious radio announcement which stated that the University of Tampa was in imminent danger of losing its accreditation, Mr. Sliz told the Minaret that the University has merely received a warning from the Southern Association, which informed the Administration and Board of Trustees that it must accelerate its drive for increased financial support. As we now stand, the University is existing almost entirely on the money obtained from student tuition and fees and thus we have not been able to build a sufficient treasury reserve to adequately handle emergency expenditures.

The University of Tampa has gone to great expense in the process of converting from a commuting school to a residential institution and has apparently failed to maintain a normal degree of acceptance as established by the Southern Association. Mr. Sliz further stated that our primary shortcomings are; first, our inadequate physical plan and second, our lack of financial support in the form of endowments and gifts.

He said "there was no question in the warning which the University received concerning our academic standing. The Southern Association remains fully satisfied in this regard."

Dr. Delo feels that this advice from the Association, concerns technicalities, which "we can and will correct to the complete satisfaction of the Association."

Spartans To Tangle With Eagles In Home Opener

Tomorrow night the Spartan cagers open up the home season at Howell gymnasium. The 8:30 contest will pit the 63-64 team against Georgia Southern College. The current campaign started Tuesday in a tough battle with the University of Miami.

The visiting Eagles from Statesboro, Georgia have played the Spartan quint 12 times. Each team has won six contests with T.U. taking the last four. Coach Lavoy remarked "I don't know much about their ball club; however, they play tonight in Deland against Stetson and we will have a scouting report tomorrow morning. Although we beat them 91-84 and 69-68 last year I understand they will be much stronger."

The starting lineup should include George Shary and Jim Stephenson at guards, Chuck Andrews and Don Linton at forwards, and Wayne Harden at center. In last year's meetings with the Eagles the big guns were Shary, who tallied 35 points and Andrews, who hit for 40 and hauled in 34 rebounds.

Monday, Florida Intercollegiate Conference action continues against Florida Southern College. "They are not as tall as our boys, but they have been working longer and are definitely set in their positions."

On the entire season, Coach Lavoy commented "I actually believe the team has great ability and hustle. If they stay away from mistakes they should have a real fine season. I have seen them pick off a rebound and score in three seconds, but with the many intan-

Wesley Directs 70 Voice Choir In 'The Messiah'

Sunday afternoon, December 15, the combined University of Tampa Concert Choir and Community Chorus will present Handel's Messiah, an Oratorio which has become a classic in the Christmas season. The performance will be at 3:30 in the Falk Theatre.

Student and town soloists will appear in major singing roles as the 70-voice choir sings under the direction of Mr. Malcolm Wesley, Choir Director, University of Tampa.

Accompaniment will be provided by the Community Orchestra.

This oratorio is one of the two annual concerts being presented by the University Choir. The second will be Mozart's Requiem, which will be presented this spring. In addition to these activities, the University Choir is scheduled to appear on television on January 5, 1964.

TU Chosen As Testing Center For National Teachers Examinations

Dr. Robert L. Mohr, Professor of Education at the University and an examiner for the Educational Testing Service, has announced that the University of Tampa has been designated as a testing center for the 1964 administration of the National Teacher Examinations on February 15.

Scores on the N.T.E. are used by many school districts as a basis for employing new teachers, and by many states for granting teaching certificates or licenses. Also, some colleges require all seniors preparing to teach to take the tests.

Applications and bulletins of information are now available at the University in the offices of Dr. Mohr and Dr. Walker, or may be secured by writing directly to National Teacher Examinations, Educational Testing Service, Princeton, New Jersey. Remember, the completed application must be returned to Educational Testing by January 17.

The student nurses at Gordon Keller School of Nursing expressed their appreciation for the help and guidance given them by T.U.'s Professor Carmony by dedicating their yearbook in the following way: "To you, our own, 'Pop' Carmony, we the class of 1963 dedicate the 1963 Otomy."

Pop Carmony, as he is affectionately called by his students and friends, earned this dedication not only by his dedicated efforts in the classroom (he has been teaching pre-clinical chemistry to student nurses for many years), but also for the help and friendship which he has extended to many student nurses since 1954 when he first took on the role of faculty advisor.

EDITORIAL

REVISIONS SOUGHT

A project worthy of note is that awesome task which Student Congress has assigned to itself, namely the construction of a new constitution. Constitutions do not take shape over night and it isn't expected that ours will be any exception, but at least the ball has been started rolling.

Up to now Student Congress has been hampered at every turn, trying to work with our worn, outdated and even worse, incomplete constitution. The ineffectiveness of the present set up was recently seen when President Eddie Meyerson, not knowing that he needed the approval of th Congress, appointed an entire cabinet; he was called on the carpet two weeks after that cabinet had been in office. This wasn't Meyerson's fault and with but one exception, all of the cabinet was retained after being voted on by the Congress. Who discovered the technicality? No one seems sure, but incidents like this have been common. Trying to interpret the jargon of which our present constitution is composed has made the duties of that body doubly burdensome.

We firmly hope that when the constitutional revision committee gets into high gear that it takes into account the limited size of our present congress and makes every effort to expand it. Greater representation and more division of power, including the establishment of an effective judicial branch are essential if student congress is to keep pace with the growth of the University.

CAMPUS U.S.A.

By Sandy Weingarten

I will take you in this column around the country and through the nation's colleges giving you a brief look at their activities and their scandals, as the case may be.

The youngest of the Kennedy Clan paid a recent visit to Boston University at which time he acted as a sounding board for student inquiries; running the gamut, Ted discussed everything from Civil Rights to Barry Goldwater.

The B.U. News reported that he was pessimistic about the tax bill being passed in this session of Congress but feels that a Civil Rights bill of some form will be enacted. Sounding actually hopeful, Senator Kennedy later expressed the opinion that the selection of Barry Goldwater as a Republican Presidential Nominee would be good, in that it would allow the American people to choose between two distinct philosophies of government.

MR. AND MRS. BYRON HOLLINGSWORTH

The editors and staff of the Minaret wish to extend their congratulations to our editor-in-chief Byron Hollingsworth on his recent marriage to the former Miss Norma Nancy Blancato. Upon return from Nassau, where they are spending their honeymoon, they will reside in Tampa.

Are You Paying To Park?

By Howard Hossman

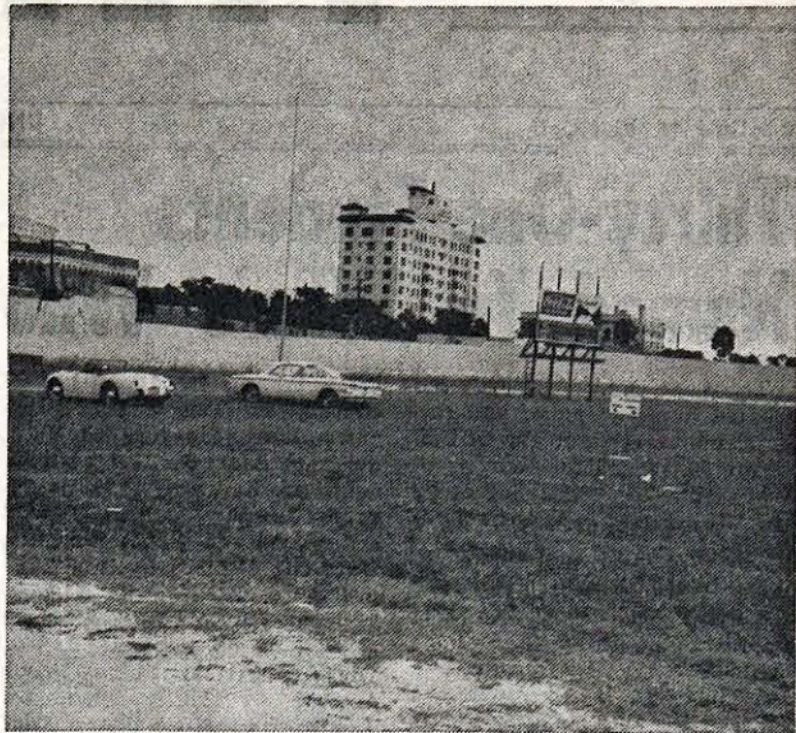

Many unnecessary dollars have been donated in the last few weeks for improper parking. Most restricted areas are marked by signs or yellow paint. People who have parked in the restricted areas in the past have had to pay fines and towing charges. The parking areas are patrolled by either a city "cop" or the university policeman.

People who have purchased a parking permit may share the school parking facilities. These facilities are as follows: The parking lot facing Lafayette, area by the McKay dormitory, across from the library, the fair grounds parking lot from 7 until 4:30, the ABC rows of the tourist lot, and the parking lot behind Howell Hall.

Off campus parking places are as follows: On street from Lafayette to student center on the east side of the street, both sides of the street along Plant Fairground wall across from the school, the Embassy drive on the east side of the street and of course any space designated by a meter.

If there is any doubt, contact Joe Maylone the campus policeman and "save yourself a few bucks." Joe comments he will have to ticket automobiles that are illegally parked. 'One of the serious problems confronting Mr. Maylone is the tourist area. The tourist center has permitted Tampa University students, who have parking permits, to park in rows A, B, C, until twelve noon. We must not revoke the privilege by not cooperating and by showing neglect of the rules.

Another easy way to acquire a ticket is by careless parking. By careless parking I am referring to parking on the lines painted on the pavement for the purpose of partitioning. This procedure not only wastes space but also fouls up the system. So be extremely careful to park between the lines.

FAIRGROUNDS AT NOON

Space has been made available to Tampa University students, but this photo taken at about noon time during a school day, by Minaret photographer Darby Dornblazer, seems to indicate pretty conclusively that there are few hardy soules who are willing to make the long three minute trek from the fairgrounds to the university.

The fines range from five to twenty five dollars. General violations and parking violations are five dollars. No parking permit or expired permit is ten dollars. Serious violations are from ten to twenty five dollars. Failure to correct or pay any of the parking tickets results in an automatic fee of five dollars. This fee is added on the initial bill. Failure to pay the accumulated fines of $50.00 is an automatic suspension from class.

Any funds that are owed to the school without payment will result in the issuance of "no grades."

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor,

The lights slowly descend on the bandstand and lo and behold — the United States Air Force Band appears before our eyes. Here they are, one of the finest bands in the world. And they are here! At Tampa U. But what's this? Nobody is here to see them? The sad fact remains that approximately one half of the audience were outsiders, the others — us. And the whole audience consisted of all of about two hundred people. A pretty poor showing.

It is fine to support hootenannies galore — but when a whole school refuses to support a really grand show such as the Air Force band the crime becomes too serious to laugh off. Here is one student who is publicly apologizing to our Air Force for the laxness of our student body in allowing great music to be trampled on by the stress and strain of hootenannies, rock and roll, etc.

I hope if ever we are fortunate enough again to be visited by this enormously talented band, we will greet them huge in volume, happy in heart. When a band of this magnitude has to play to an audience of two hudnred, the musical intellect of the university, charged with this crime, has dropped to an all-time low.

Thank you!

R. S. Harris, Sophomore

TEP Celebrates First Anniversary At Tampa

November 7 marked the first anniversary of Tau Epsilon Phi on the University of Tampa campus. Last year when talk of a new fraternity on campus was to be organized, they said it couldn't be done; that this new brotherhood would never survive, but the men of TEP have proved differently. This year such talk has been diminished to a mere whisper. Last year's spirited pledge class has laid the foundation of many more to come. Fall Rush has placed TEP second on campus, with 10 proud pledges. Congratulations are in store for Edmund Brett, Howard Engle, Lee Formato, John Garver, Carl McDonald, Rick Mannen, Robert 'Maynard' Padernicht, Richard Risenberg, Louis Wexler and David Yellen. Good luck!

With the conclusion of Homecoming events, TEP placed second in the float competition and third with our unique lawn display, due to the work of our chief engineer, George 'Golden Hands' Rose. Our well remembered 'comedy' skit did not receive university recognition, but did get an offer from Paramount Pictures, unfortunately we were forced to turn it down due to other commitments.

On the sports scene TEP finished an exciting season with a victory over TKE. Honorable mention goes out to Y. A. Epstein, Safety Sam Schwartz, and Dan 'the Man' Nasshorn. Basketball is in the air and TEP has a strong starting five in Kenny 'Hot Rod' Hartman, Marvelous Marv Gordon, W. C. Kalsmith, Alan '4th Floor' Weidberg, and 'Little Stevie' Werner.

On the social scene, TEP's Party at Colonial Beach was a huge success featuring 'Chico and the Immigrants.' In the future we have scheduled our first annual 'Venus Ball' — fun for all. — 'Progress is our most important product!'

Hollywood Hootenanny A Hit!

By Rita Owen

Hollywood Hootenanny made its successful debut in the Tampa area Friday night, November 15. The performance of 30 young folk-music stars was a bit lively, even for a campus 'hoot,' but no one can say the audience did not enjoy it.

The program opened with the Wallybrook Singers, a quartet of two men and two girls. The blending and harmony of their voices was unfortunately deadened by a bad mike and a slightly impolite audience. Their first number, 'Weary and Lonesome Traveller,' gave way to 'Rasputin' which gave the first hint of the kind of evening it was going to be. Comedy and satire was the key-word. Their rendition of 'O Miss Mary' brought hearty applause which led to two encores. Another indication of the way the evening was to go.

Miss Chloe Marsh opened her segment of the program with 'Summertime.' Miss Marsh has an even, beautiful voice, obviously trained, and pleasant to listen to. Miss Marsh has only been singing professionally four months, after three years of training under Ruth Reynolds, a former concert performer. Miss Marsh is interested in musical comedy as well as folk music and with her talent, she will obviously go far. The most unfortunate thing was the fact that the audience, being a bit churlishly inclined towards watching her accompanist, ignored the serious meaning of the protest song she was doing, 'Potland Town,' for laughter and whistles.

Jim and Jean followed Miss Marsh on the program, and once again the microphones hindered good reproduction of their harmonies. The yodeling in their rendition of 'The Cuckoo' was intriguingly different, and the audience was warmed up for 'The Government's View of Billy Sol.' They closed their segment of the program with 'Railroad Bill.'

Yvan, from Tahiti, was, as he said, 'born under a coconut tree,' which he left for a travelling tour of New Zealand, New Caledonia, Australia, Japan, while sparing the time to appear in three movies, the latter being 'Mutiny on the Bounty.' Yvan has recorded several albums on the Phillips label. If you happen to be Tahitian, he says 'laorana.'

Concerning his singing, if reaction was accurate, he was fabulous, winding the audience into the program in 'Jamaica Farewell' and 'Alouette.'

The Villagers include two men and two women, the former being jazz musicians, the latter music teachers. It is a bit surprising to see a woman playing the bass, but there was certainly no visible reason why the combination should not work. 'We Are Crossing Jordan River' led to 'Early in the Morning, Early in the Evening,' an original composition by the group; and 'Run Come See Jerusalem' which gave way to the onion joke which a member of the audience apparently wanted to get across.

The Villagers have sung at Town Hall, Carnegie Hall, Detroit, McCormack Place, Chicago, and their polished performance shows experiences. The group includes Harvey Gerst, Steve Crandall, Elaine Fink,

Alph Chi's Present Their Big Lyres With Surprise

We are proud to announce that ten Alpha Chi's have been selected to appear in the 1963-64 Who's Who Among Universities and Colleges from the University of Tampa. They are Roxanne Call, Alice Carter, Barbara Gardner, Jane Humphreys, Linda Johnson, Elizabeth Madzula, Pamela Seifert, Wilanne Starling, Judith Summerlin, and Barbara Ubell.

At our monthly carnation breakfast Peggy Parise was chosen outstanding active and Janet Parker outstanding pledge. The girls were presented with a red carnation.

Our Big Lyres were certainly surprised Monday, November 25, when we presented them with a pilgrim hat full of fruits and nuts. This was our way of wishing them all a Happy Thanksgiving.

Our annual winter party is in the process of being planned for the Alpha Chi actives, pledges and big Lyres. We are all looking forward to the event.

Sister Pam Seifert well represented the University of Tampa by being chosen a Miss Tampa finalist. Pam competed with fifty other girls in talent, poise, looks and personality.

The Alpha Chi pledges are certainly trying to spoof the actives by having secret pals among the pledges. The actives appreciated their thoughtfulness.

George Rose This Week's 'Greek Of The Week'

Tau Epsilon Phi has elected George Rose of Tenafly, N.J., to represent the fraternity as Greek of this week.

Claimed to be the backbone of his fraternity by many of his brothers, George was instrumental in the construction of the second place TEP float and their third place lawn display. He also serves as athletic chairman.

George is head manager of the Spartan football team and enjoys athletic activities in his spare time. He is also active in other school activities, particularly the J.S.U.

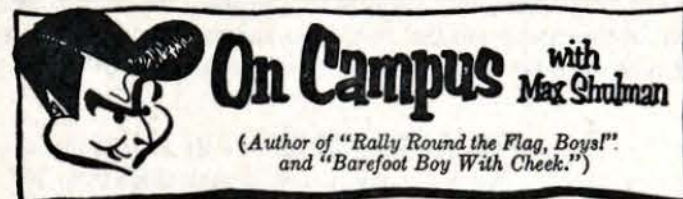

Our Greek of this week is an Industrial Arts major, and hopes for a career in Engineering after graduation. With his past record of successes, we think that George Rose is headed for a brilliant future.

Phi Club Increases Its Membership By Seven

The Phi Club is very happy to announce that it has increased its membership by seven, bringing our total enrollment up to fifteen girls. To welcome our new members, a tea was held this Sunday afternoon, the 17th, at the home of one of our sisters, Sharon Weinstein. Refreshments were prepared beautifully and deliciously by Sharon, with the help of Beth Cooper and Helene Ripling. Our president, Lisbeth Calandrino, discussed some of our purposes in forming the Phi Club and some of our past, present, and future activities on campus. All in all, it was an informative and enjoyable afternoon and a good time was had by all.

Among the campus activities of the Club, there is a spirited participation in Women's Intramurals. The captain of our volleyball team, Marilyn Bronstein, led us to a victory on Wednesday, against the Gusto's an independent team, putting us in the running for the championship. The finals will be played against another outstanding independent group sometime next week.

The girls of the Phi Club would like to extend their best wishes to all for a safe, happy and fun-filled Thanksgiving holiday.

SHOULD AULD ACQUAINTANCE AND JAZZ LIKE THAT

I am now an elderly gentleman, full of years and aches, but my thoughts keep ever turning to my undergraduate days. This is called "arrested development."

But I cannot stop the healing tide of nostalgia that washes over me as I recall those golden campus days, those ivy-covered buildings (actually, at my college, there was only ivy: no bricks), those pulse-tingling lectures on John Dryden and Cotton Mather, the many friends I made, the many deans I bit.

I know some of you are already dreading the day when you graduate and lose touch with all your merry classmates. It is my pleasant task today to assure you that it need not be so; all you have to do is join the Alumni Association and every year you will receive a bright, newsy, chatty bulletin, chock-full of tidings about your old buddies.

Oh, what a red-letter day it is at my house, the day the Alumni Bulletin arrives! I cancel all my engagements, take the phone off the hook, dismiss my resident osteopath, put the cheetah outside, and settle down for an evening of pure pleasure with the Bulletin and (need I add?) a good supply of Marlboro Cigarettes.

Whenever I am having fun, a Marlboro makes the fun even more fun. That filter, that flavor, that yielding soft pack, that firm Flip Top box, never fails to heighten my pleasure whether I am playing Double Canfield or watching the radio or knitting an afghan or enjoying any other diverting pursuit you might name—except, of course, spear fishing. But then, how much spear fishing does one do in Clovis, New Mexico, where I live?

But I digress. Let us return to my Alumni Bulletin and the fascinating news about my old friends and classmates. I quote from the current issue:

"Well, fellow alums, it certainly has been a wing-dinger of a year for us old grads! Remember Mildred Cheddar and Harry Camembert, those crazy kids who always held hands in Econ II? Well, they're married now and living in Clovis, New Mexico, where Harry rents spear-fishing equipment, and Mildred has just given birth to a lovely 28-pound daughter, her second in four months. Nice going, Mildred and Harry!

"Remember Jethro Brie, the man we voted most likely to succeed? Well, old Jethro is still gathering laurels! Last week he was voted 'Motorman of the Year' by his fellow workers in the Duluth streetcar system. 'I owe it all to my brakeman,' said Jethro in a characteristically modest acceptance speech. Same old Jethro!

"Probably the most glamorous time had by any of us old alums was had by Francis Macomber last year. He went on a big game hunting safari all the way to Africa! We received many interesting post cards from Francis until he was, alas, accidentally shot and killed by his wife and white hunter. Tough luck, Francis!

"Wilametta 'Deadeye' Macomber, widow of the late beloved Francis Macomber, was married yesterday to Fred 'Sureshot' Sigafos, white hunter, in a simple double-ring ceremony in Nairobi. Many happy returns, Wilametta and Fred!

"Well, alums, that just about wraps it up for this year. Buy bonds!"

Old grads, new grads, undergrads, and non-grads all agree: that good Richmond tobacco recipe, that clean Selectrate filter, have turned all fifty states of the Union into Marlboro Country. Won't you join the throng?

Esquire's CLUB & CAMPUS FASHIONS

BY O. E. SCHOEFLER, ESQUIRE'S FASHION DIRECTOR

If you'll excuse us while we misquote the Post Office motto, "Neither rain nor snow nor cold of day can keep us from our appointed rounds!" Right now, we're going to tell you about the latest in outerwear for the campus, so that rain, snow and cold of day won't have any effect on your appointed—and fashionable—rounds!

THE LONG AND SHORT OF IT tells the jacket story this fall. Latest lengths range from 34" to 38"—the better to keep those wintry blasts at bay! They're available in a variety of fabrics—warm wool fleeces, practical polyester-and-cotton combinations, or newly-revived corduroys—styled in standard, single-breasted models. The more traditional waist-length jacket, either with zip-front or button closure, is still a standby, especially in gabardine weaves. Most of these models have hoods—attached or zip-on-and-off—for added convenience and protection.

YOUR LOVE CAN KEEP YOU WARM—but linings do it better! And there's lots of latitude for you to choose from, both in color and type of lining. Pile fabrics are very big indeed, ranging from the natural-fiber, natural-color (tan and brown tones) alpaca pile to acrylic fiber piles in blazing colors—reds, blues and gold shades. Plaid wool linings are popular, particularly when they're backgrounded or accented with brilliant color—any color, as long as it's red! Quilted linings get their quota of votes, too, usually in colors to contrast with the jacket. And many of these linings spill over onto the collar facing for a bright exterior accent.

SWEATERED SUEDES are making news. Confusing? Not at all—these are simply suede jackets with knitted sleeves and back, for smartness, comfort and flexibility. The knit portions of these campus cover-ups are often bonded to foam backing—extra insurance against the cold.

BANK ON BULK—Bulky knits will add new dimensions to your sweater wardrobe. The real smashers this season are rough and ready rib-knits and sweaters with a textured tweed look. Cardigans are candidates for re-election to top office, both in button-front shawl-collar models, and in smart, border-stripped styles. Look especially for the new cardigans zipped and border-stripped up the front and leather-patched on the sleeves. Pullovers with crew or outside turtle necks are knitted of soft, Shetland wools—bulky, of course!

TOPFLIGHT TWEEDS TRANSLATE into topcoats, as well as into the suits and sport jackets that are making their mark this season. Look for rugged overcheck and herringbone patterns, styled with slash pockets and raglan sleeves. If you're in the market for a more formal topcoat, why not consider an adaptation of the famous British Warm? It's double-breasted, with set-in sleeves, and often comes with leather button closure. They're usually found in herringbone or heather-mixture tweeds with a somewhat smoother finish.

YOU DON'T HAVE TO BE MAD TO BE HATTED—even on campus! And you'll be headed in the right direction if you choose one of the new rough-textured felts, or a sport hat made of corduroy or tweed. Colorful tweed caps are also making a comeback, to add a jaunty, country-squire look to your casual outfits.

So much for this appointed round. Next month, a Command Performance—a run-down on the formal dress that almost reaches uniform status during the holidays. We'll be there in plenty of time for you to get it organized. See you then.

Summer Job Directory Now Available Here

A directory listing 35,000 summer jobs throughout the United States for college students is now available. Students can begin their summer plans during the Christmas Holiday vacation.

The 1964 "Summer Employment Directory" gives the names and addresses of 1,600 organizations which want to employ college students. It also gives positions open, salaries, and suggestions on how to apply.

The many types of jobs are found at summer camps, resorts, various departments of the government, business and industry. National parks, ranches, and summer theatres listed also need college students.

Students wishing summer work apply directly to the employers, who are included in the directory at their own request.

Ask for "Summer Employment Directory" at the bookstore or send $3.00 (special college student price) to National Directory Service, Dept. C, Box 32065, Cincinnati, Ohio 45232. Mark "rush" for first-class mailing in December.

Mass. Club Plans For Its Vacation Activities

The Massachusetts Commonwealth Club will hold its next meeting at 9 p.m., Tuesday, December 10 at the Student Center. All students from the New England states are invited to attend this particular meeting, as one of the items to be discussed will be the obtaining of rides to and from New England over the Christmas vacation.

Also on the agenda for this meeting will be a discussion of the effectiveness of personal contact in the recruiting of students from the New England states and the possibility of having a party in the Boston area during the vacation.

Officers for this semester are Dick Perrier, Governor; John Hines, Lt. Governor; John McGibney, Secretary of State and Don Brasier, Treasurer.

Hootenanny In Review

and Janet Perlstein. All have a background in the jazz field and this added liveliness to their act. They have a single coming out in January entitled 'He Was My Brother' and they have an album out, on RCA called 'We Give A Hoot.'

Intermission was followed by the Pine Valley Boys who have mastered the Blue Grass country style to perfection. They have been singing together for three years and perform at campuses and coffee houses in the San Francisco Bay - Berkeley area. They appeared with Hootenanny '63 at Carnegie Hall October 11, and for good reason. They have also appeared at such notable clubs as the Troubadour and the Ice House in the Los Angeles area.

The members of the group were Herb Pedersen, banjo; Butch Waller, mandolin; Tiny Hollis, bass; and Rick Conley, guitar.

Their performance of 'Come All Ye Fair' and 'Tender Ladies' was true blue grass at its best, and the finger-flying of 'Rawhide' showed what mandoline and banjo picking should look like.

The highlight of the program was the performance of Mr. Peter Evans on Flamenco guitar. His musicianship was unquestionable, his training showing in the exquisite perfection of melodies, harmonies, and runs which were coaxed from his guitar by hands well aware of feeling, depth and intensity. Mr. Evans performed classical Spanish flamenco works from different areas of Spain, and whereas perhaps someone not a musician could not tell the difference between one style and another, the exquisiteness of the performance held most of the audience in silence. Mr. Evans received applause well due to him, and many persons listening wished probably that this had been a serious concert stage of nothing but Mr. Evans' playing. We hope to see him back.

'Nature Boy' Gypsy Boots is not a musician. That can be said for certain. His 'Hairy Hoots' are, and quite good ones. Tumbleweed Tom and Rovin' Grove did an excellent job of 'Moonshiner' and 'Crawdad Hole.' Rovin' Grove is a graduate of the University of Cincinnati, and Tumbleweed Tom writes novels and poetry under the name of Tom Everett.

The climax of the evening, and some may say 'thank Heaven' for it, were The Yachtsmen Quartet. This group, regulars at Disneyland, and recorders for background music in several movies and 'Wonderful World of Color' programs on television, probably overturned every stone on the beach and unlocked every skeleton in the closet to wind up the evening's festivities. From the deceptive quiet of 'Billy Won't Play Dis Banjo Anymore' to 'I Was A Holy Roller' and the 'Old Blue' spool is a long jump, and every highspot on the way was well-lighted. Perhaps it was just a bit too lively in places, but the evening came to a pleasantly sharp-witted end with this comedy. If applause judges, the Yachtsmen edged into the lead for the evening, and a very successful night of imported entertainment ended.

Hollywood Hootenanny was a unique experience on campus, and for those who saw it, a memorable one. Good talent inevitably gets its recognition, and the near future will be seeing the names of many of these performers prominently placed in the music world.

FOOTBALL — 'To be, or not to be . . .'

On the night of November 23 the Spartans concluded the 1963 football schedule, and, in doing so, made University history. Will we know this text as an epitaph? Or will we know it as a segment of the story of the advancement of football?

At the present, the future is indefinite. The only thing that is definite is that the University can no longer afford to issue the needed scholarships. Thus, those who are familiar with similar situations have predicted the death of the sport at T.U.

There is no question as to the support given by the administration. The University has fought to save football and has already extended its life by two years. What more can one ask?

Football has steadily been improved at Tampa U., and 1963 was another step up the ladder. This is surely evident after a look at the competition we faced. Two of our opponents are to play in post-season bowls; a couple others are bowl candidates; and then, there is Mississippi.

Throughout last year and early this season a schedule was set for a schedule '64. It included East Carolina, McNeese, Buffalo, Chattanooga, Presbyterian, Mississippi, Wofford, Southwestern Louisiana, and Northeastern Oklahoma. This is certainly no cream-puff schedule. Now, with the life of football temporarily snuffed out, only three teams are still certain opponents.

Although the team ended 4-5-1, it was much stronger. An example came in the Mississippi game. Although we didn't keep up with the Rebels in the scoring column, we outthit them and their head coach knew it and admitted it.

It seems that people do realize that we have produced a high calibre team and can do so in the future. So what happens now?

The Tampa alumni is in a current drive to raise $100,000 by Christmas. This means that, if successful, the drive will entirely support football before it continues and the 1964 chapter unfolds. This money would not only be used to adequately pay the school for the scholarships to be allotted, but it would also be used in the purchase and upkeep of the many articles required to equip a team. Therefore, all attendance receipts would be additional money to be put in use for the betterment of the program.

The annual drive is intended to keep football securely on its feet for each of five years. With this type of program, a definite upgrading should be evidenced. A bigger and better team could be produced each year and the toughest of competition faced. At the end of the five year period, a self-supporting program is visualized. From this entire project should emerge large attendance and great enthusiasm among area fans.

All of these things remain a dream. The harsh reality of our predicament is that accomplishing these goals will require much work and effort. The WATERSPOUT would like to salute the Tampa alumni for their gallant effort to revive football at Tampa University. It is our hope that their goal will be reached and their dream come true.

Theta Chi Wins T.U. '63 Bait Casting Tournament

The Theta Chi Fraternity, behind Norman Cohen and Bob Mintz, won the University of Tampa Bait Casting Tournament of 1963. Norman Cohen scored a total of 26 points to lead all other participants registered for this event. Combined with Bob Mintz's total score of 16 their two competitors led the field.

Second place was secured by the Pi Kappa Phi Fraternity with Len Stovall and Dave Villari scoring 18 and 10 points respectively.

Third place found a tie between the Sigma Phi Tpsilon and Tau

Sig Eps Blank McKay Hall 13-0 To Win Rag Football Crown

On November 14, the battle for the rag football championship had narrowed down to two teams. Sigma Phi Epsilon had advanced to the finals by defeating the Independents by a score of 12 to 6. This enabled them to carry a perfect record of five wins into the final game against a strong McKay Hall team that had swept to the finals with only a tie marring their otherwise perfect record. They had defeated the Pi Kappa 25 to 6 in the semifinals and now on this cold and windy day, one team would emerge overall champion.

The Sig Eps won the toss and elected to receive. From then on, the game became one of hard hitting, missed opportunities, and perhaps too many penalties. A long run by Fred Conte of Sig Ep was nullified by a clipping penalty, but he later made up for this by running the left side behind a wall of blockers who eliminated everyone on that side and Conte's speed provided the rest as the Sig Eps went out in front by 6 to 0. This was in this writer's opinion the best executed play of the day. A McKay drive which started going late in the first half was stalled by a crucial penalty after they had driven to a first down near the Sig Epp goal on a pass play. The first half ended with Sigma Phi Epsilon out in front by 6 to 0.

The second half was highlighted by fine defensive play by both teams; a touchdown pass that was dropped by a McKay boy after the Sig Ep covering him had slipped to the ground; a beautiful punt by Bill Haggis which with some help rolled dead at the one; and an intercepted pass by another Benjie Benequisto who managed to roll into the end zone for the second and final touchdown of the game. Final score of the game read Sig Ep 13 and McKay 0.

Spartans To Tangle . . .

gibles which surround a basketball game I just don't know how they will react."

An example of pre-season play has shown that the giants are definitely ready. A 45 minute inter-squad game on November 20 resulted in a 72-71 win for the grey squad. The leaders for both teams in scoring were Chuck Andrews, 24; Jim Stephenson, 22; George Shary, 20; and "Pistol" Pete McKinnon, 19. A highlight of the game was the foul shooting of the black team as they made 23 of 24 attempts.

Finally, Coach Lavoys' comment on spirit: "The basketball team plays for the student body and not just for themselves. The cheering of the students is essential to the team's winning the game. I also hope the student body will be courteous to the visiting team. The more enthusiasm you generate, the more the team will generate."

Phi Club Fights To Finals With Win Over Gustos Team

A strong "Gustos" team under the leadership of Captain Jacques Beltram went down two out of three to an overpowering "Phi Club" team fought their way into the finals of the current intramural tournament. Along with Jacques the "Gustos" team was composed of: Bill Devitt, Andy Trazewsky, Eddie Meyerson, Hope Harbison, and Leslie Burkhart.

Helping Marilyn in a strong bid for the championship were: Ronnie Lieberman, Bobbie Sarns, Rhona Waxenberg, David Biedenberg, Jeff Kraemer, John Mahan, Steve Werner, Norman Cohen, and Alan Weidberg.

The finals of the coed-volleyball tournament pitted the "Phi Club" against a well balanced, strong Independents team led by Miriam Pellegrino. The Independents made short work of their opponents and remained the team to beat throughout the tournament. Along with Miriam the Independents team included: Betty Thornberry, Judy King, Judy Alvarez, Marilyn Young, Sherri Wallis, Bruce Betty, and Lennie Cimador.

Our many thanks to all of you for your help and cooperation in making coed-volleyball a success.

Our special thanks to Miss Marilyn Bressler our referee and Miss Ruth Bragg our time keeper.

The first scheduled game of basketball intramurals will be Monday, December 9. We will follow D.G.W.S. rules and games will be played on Mondays and Wednesdays at 4 p.m. The teams may be coached by boys but play will be restricted to all girls teams. We are looking for an entry from all the sororities and independent teams so sign up today, we'll see you on the court!

PROFESSION: STUDENT

BY DAVID MATTHEW

"SO, WHEN HE GAVE ME THE USUAL HARD-LUCK STORY ABOUT BEING SICK, I JUST SAID 'THAT'S OKAY, YOU CAN MAKE UP THE TEST ANY OLD TIME.' ...WHAT'S WRONG WITH ME, ALICE?"

'New College' To Be Planned After Its Namesake — Oxford

When New College opens its doors to students in 1964, with about 120 students of a planned enrollment of 1200, "an exciting new experiment in the field of higher education" will have been started, according to Dr. John W. Gustad, dean of the new institution. The school expects to have a library of over 300,000 volumes at the very outset.

Dr. Gustad explained that this initial library expenditure of $3 million is indicative of New College's desire to establish itself as a top undergraduate school. New College grew out of a discussion among representatives of the Ford Foundation, Carnegie Corporation and the Congregational Church. According to Dr. Gustad, initial endowment will provide the school with $15 million.

New College is being planned in part after its namesake, New College of Oxford University. The college will be divided into smaller units called houses. Each of these houses, like Harvard and Yale, will be equipped with their own libraries and will have tutors living among the students. The tutorial system, also used at Oxford, Yale and Harvard, provides for a great deal of independent study by the student under the guidance of a tutor.

A New College student will progress at his own speed and consequently there will be no grade levels. In addition there will be no marks at New College, nor will there be a credit system for courses. A student will work at a specific subject until he reaches "proficiency" in that field, at which time the student may move on to more advanced study.

Besides their own substantial library, New College students will have an opportunity to use the facilities of the Library of Congress, through an electronic hookup. Another unusual plan for New College is a language lab that the student can use on his own until he attains reading ability in a language at which time he will begin studying under a professor. Dr. Gustad explained that this language program is representative of the academic independence that a student will enjoy at New College.

Although New College will be expensive, it plans to maintain an active scholarship program in order to insure the attendance of capable students despite the students' means.

Christmas Party Plans Take Shape At Pi Kappa Phi House

Our fall pledge initiation program is under way and Pledgemaster Dennis Faust has announced that the following pledges have been elected to office: President, Mike Irvin; Secretary, Tim Holloway; Treasurer, Harry MacGrotty; Historian, Ken Weiss; and Chaplain, Rick Spindler. We still have two more pledge offices to fill.

Recently Brother Mike Busacco was appointed to a highly specialized position in the functioning of the house, Brother Busacco was labeled coordinator of the second and third floors. We hope everything works out, Brother.

On the social scene Brother Rich Nicolosi has announced a Christmas party and Brother Lou Morrizo, a versatile and accomplished musician, has agreed to provide entertainment. Our social committee is searching for a Santa Claus to squeeze down the chimney. We'll have to alter our suit, Brother Dowd.

John Veit says, "our intramural program is picking up a little steam with our second place in bait casting." Thanks to Brothers Len Stoval and Dave Villari. Brother Broderick 10-4 Pisano is toughening up his hands for the coming handball competition.

A certain number of the Brotherhood has been lucubrating at the Pi Kap Casino quite extensively these past few weeks. The subject matter numbers 48 and they come in a pack state sealed, you guessed it — PINOCHLE.

Congratulations to Brother Bob Pisano who pinned Miss Barbara Scalzo of Zeta Tau Alpha.

Two Freshmen Receive Scholarships For '63-4

Two University of Tampa freshmen have received $500 scholarships for the 1963-64 year from the Rapid American Foundation scholarship fund.

Selected on the basis of academic achievement, the scholarship winners are Miss Patricia Louise Collins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Collins, 810 Cleveland St.,

Tampa, and Karl H. Schmitz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Johann Schmitz, 6051 N. Tuttle Ave., Sarasota.

Miss Collins, a business education major at the University, is a graduate of Brewster Vocational High School, where she was valedictorian of her class. Schmitz, a pre-law major, is a graduate of Southeast High School, Bradenton, and has held an Elks District Leadership Award.

The University was presented with the initial $1,000 of a $5,000 scholarship grant from the Rapid American Corp. of New York last year. The grant came through the Harris Standard Paint Co. of Tampa, a division of Rapid American, on behalf of the Rapid American scholarship fund. The total $5,000 grant will be paid to the University over a five-year period, providing annual scholarships of $1,000 for students of the University.

"DUEL OF THE TITANS"

A typical historical muscle movie starring Steve Reeves and Gordon Scott.

Tampa U. came out on top once again with their victory over Manatee Junior 5-4, in St. Petersburg. The game was well played by both teams, but Tampa proved to be too much for Manatee. The game was highlighted with a single, double, and triple by Judy Alvarez, backed up with a homerun deep in the right field corner by Marilyn Bressler.

Hope Harbison did herself proud with two well placed doubles to booster the team.

Marilyn Bronstein is credited with a beautiful double play, ably assisted by Judy Alvarez at first base.

In her first game as catcher, Jacque Beltram played excellent ball and aided the team's battery tremendously.

Currently Tampa U. has a 2-2 record, with 2 games left to play — one against St. Pete J.C. and one with Manatee Jr. College. These will be played at Hyde Park field December 2 and December 4, respectively.

The team would like the support of Tampa U. in the final games.

SPE's Plan Party With AX's

Congratulations to Brothers Tony Yelovich, John Hines, Don Koechlein and Ed Theobald who were elected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

The Sig Ep All Star football squad, sparked by Quarterback Brother Y. A. Sallo, led us to an undefeated season by defeating a strong Independent team 14-6 and McKay Hall 13-0 to capture the Intramural Football Championship. He was supported by a strong line and such outstanding backs as 'The Little Guy from Conn.' Sniffer Kalman, 'The Fairlawn Flash' Fred Conte, 'The Montclair Murderer' E. J. Mearan and 'Hawthorne Horror' Sam Hedderman. Our defensive team led by its Captain, Cecele B. Benaquesto held all opponents to only 18 points.

Other than winning the Championship, the biggest moment came in the last 30 seconds of the final game after 5 years of scoreless intramural football Benny 'The Beachball' Benaquesto finally made a T.D. by making a dramatic interception and rolling over the end zone.

All the Brothers are again looking forward to our annual Christmas party with Alpha Chi Omega Sorority bringing to a close the first half of this semester in fine spirits and ready for the long trip home.

CHAPTER TWO

"Bum luck is right. And speaking of bums, where's that Sue. We haven't even checked in at the motel. 'Gotta go to school. Gotta go to school,' he said in mocked female tones. 'That's all I've heard from her since we hit the outskirts of Tampa. 'Gotta go to the school first.' There's something dern queer going on around here and I'm gonna find out what. Let's get together tonight after the barbeque. Mike, you look great pal. See you tonight."

(Sue mysterious — Wonder why Hank said that — Had Sue given him reason for such a remark — Beautiful Sue — always chose me to escort her when Hank was out of town with the team . . . Good old Mike, he used to say . . . Trust him with anything — money, car, best girl, anything — He never knew how it hurt to be trusted then — She never knew either — or did she . . . Sue — in love with me all these . . . Impossible — but where did she go on her mysterious quest?)

Mike climbed the stairs to the second floor, rounded the corner, and with his mind completely occupied on beautiful Sue Lake, crashed — head on, bosom to bosom into some frail object sheathed in black. The innocent victim fell backward against the wall with a resounding thud, but at least it saved her the embarrassment of sprawling face up or down, an at Homecoming, too.

(What in the name of heaven is the matter with me — I live in the world everyday — walk in buildings everyday — talk to men and women everyday — WHY in less than twenty minutes should I be provocatively kissed — imagine my best friend's wife has yearned for me hopelessly and now plow with the drive of a John Deering into some helpless female . . . I'm being cursed for not telling Julie . . .

He picked up the black zippered purse that had been flung to the far side of the hall, crammed the lipstick and comb inside and muttered an apology.

"Mike. You don't remember me." It took courage for Mike to look her in the face. When he raised his eyes he saw a well-groomed woman step back and nervously pat her dark blonde hair, then fumble with the small white collar at her neck.

"I'm Margaret Binson."

"Margaret." He clasped her hand and tried again to apologize.

"It's been a long time."

"You're right there, but I could never forget you. Chemistry 205? Dr. Levy? Right?"

"Right. That was the year he retired. We were too much for him. Remember he used to say at the rate we were going we would have the world blown up in ten years. He didn't know how close he was to being right . . . Where's Julie?"

"Home with the kids. The two younger ones sprang a fever Wednesday night. One's got the mumps and the other has the measles. Fine predicament, right at homecoming, too."

"Say hello to her. I've got to run now, Mike, but I'll be seeing you soon." She glanced down at her watch. "Soon. Bye."

(Margaret Binson, the brain — Could it be? — Never can tell about people like her — always kept to herself except of course with poor Dr. Levy — Used to drive him crazy — didn't mean to . . . just one of those hyper-inquisitive types — always wanted the answer to the unanswerable — Margaret Binson she said — Binson — never married — she's the type to be a torch bearer . . . could have kept up with me through the alumni news — anybody could get the letter postmarked in Tampa if they tried — that's one way for an old maid to get a ring. Think I'll let her keep it. Boy! Am I nuts or something?)

Sachetti Secretary-Treasurer of Intramural Council

The month of December finds the boys on Newport Street anxiously awaiting the Christmas holidays. They have finally gotten back to normal after a very riotous Thanksgiving vacation. Once again a Theta Chi has been placed in a very important post here on campus. Brother 'Salty Paul' Sachetti has been elected Secretary-Treasurer of the Council of Intramural Representatives. We know Paul will do an excellent job. The fantastic luck and unerring skill of Norman Cohen netted him first place in the bait-casting intramurals. The brothers would also like to note the excellent work of Brother Alex Kinnaird as the fraternity historian. (He also wrote this article.) A brother we expect great things from this year is Jerry Quinn who is showing signs of becoming a great linguist. By the time this article is published the brothers will have chosen their candidate for the Moro ccanQueen title. I am quite sure she will be a winner.
