Tampa U. Plays Host To Newman Convention

On Friday afternoon, May first, the Newman Club State Regional Convention got underway. Representatives from Rollins College, Miami University, Dade County Junior College, Jacksonville University, and St. Petersburg Junior College met at the Tampa Terrace Hotel for a weekend of lectures, movies, dances, and a banquet.

A "Splash Party" was scheduled for Friday night, but due to inclement weather an informal dance was held in the Round Table Room in the hotel.

The purpose of the convention was to discuss and solve problems of the Newman Clubs throughout the state. Lectures were given to advance understanding in the Catholic religion and the role it plays on both secular and non-sectarian campuses.

Father Higgins spoke on the preparation for being a Catholic on campus, followed by Father Cunningham on "The Apostolate on Campus." The movie "Catholics on Campus" and a 12:10 mass at Sacred Heart Church concluded the Saturday morning program.

Closing the afternoon lectures were Mr. Frank Gallagher with his discussion of "Newman, His Educational and Religious Philosophies" and Fathers Driscoll and Walcott in a dialogue, panel discussion of "The Divine Milieu" by Teilhard.

Dr. Griffin, a member of the English Department at the University of Tampa, was the after dinner speaker at a banquet held in the Round Table Room of the Tampa Terrace Hotel. Immediately following the banquet a semi-formal dance was held. The Shamrocks, a seven piece band, entertained with popular music. Saturday night activities were continued with a splash party at the hotel swimming pool.

Sunday morning the conventioners went to 7:45 mass at Christ the King Church and a Communion breakfast at the Christ the King Cafeteria given by the Catholic Women's Club of Tampa.

We, the Newman Club, would like to acknowledge the attendance of Tampa University students and hope to make next year's convention as successful as this, the first Annual State Regional Convention.

Also, we would like to announce the names of the newly elected officers of the Newman Club: Ruth Hayward, President; Julian Moroni, Vice President; Joann Russo, Internal Secretary; Robert Terri, External Secretary; Anthony Abella, Treasurer.

Father Cunningham speaks at Newman Club Convention.

STRANGE LETTERS

by Remsen H. Beitel, Jr.

Oh, what strain the nous must bear;
The cause I fear, is their carefree air.

There must be a way to convey,
To those whose fate they could sway,
The despair that's in my heart.

Why must we judge by letters alone?
More harm is done than can be shown.
The rules are set and must be met,
But why destroy the meddling intellect.

Two years ago, I felt the need,
And thought the education I should heed;
An opportunity arose which I chose,
To strive full-time at a school which knows.

There came a time to decide,
What course of action I should side;
To enhance my desire for knowledge
At some appropriate graduate college.

Anxiety appeared because I feared,
That a letter grade might destroy,
The hopes and dreams which have been geared
To achieve that goal set when a boy.

The stage is set and how I fret,
To think I might regret
Asking the sage,
What letter did I get?

Dean's List Released

Dr. Walker commenting on the significance of the Dean's List said, "The primary function of a university is to develop in individual students academic competences and understandings. The primary measure of the degree to which the university succeeds for an individual student lies in the grades assigned to him."

"We assume," he said, "that those students receiving consistently high grades have demonstrated exemplary evidence of the realization of the university's basic raison d'être. It is, therefore, a distinct pleasure for me to give special recognition to the following students who have exhibited outstanding academic achievements."

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

Tonight, I, Robert Harris, was caught redhanded in a devious plot to conceal unwarranted supplies, which added to my enjoyment of good music. One of the librarians asked me if I had brought my own record into the library for listening enjoyment. I had, and admitted to this crime, henceforth. However, upon asking the librarian (actually it was a helper) why a personal record was not allowed, she could only give me a feeble "I don't know. But those are the rules, and I would appreciate it if you would not do such a thing again."

Alas, no more FLOWER DRUM SONG! But I don't give up with-out a fight — regardless of the odds: regardless of my enemy. I ask the student congress to repeal this sham of a law and thus allow students who have records or record albums to be allowed to use them in the confines of our brilliant library.

After all, I'd much rather listen to Peter Nero than to Rimsky-Korsakoff. Better yet, the University of Tampa String Quartet over Borodin.

Thank you.

Robert S. Harris

To The Editor:

Many letters and articles have been carried in the Minaret criticizing the actions and spirit of the student body. Granted, we (the students) have been accused justly. But, as in any educational institution, such as the University of Tampa, there are two parts to the whole. First, the student body. Second, the administration. Ideas might come from the students, but the decisions come from the administration. A good administration is one that can accurately understand the pulse of the student body.

Howell Hall has become more like a palace. ("The Castle.") Last year, when the cafeteria was in Howell a lounge was open in which contained a piano, tables, and ashtrays. This room was used and enjoyed by everyone. Many types of discussions were to be heard in this room — from sex to integration (err . . . segregation). There was singing, piano playing — good clean fun. Today this same lobby would be complete if a tombstone were placed in it. If a motion to halt smoking and the wearing of Bermudas in this district had been called for, the object of this decided intention has succeeded. From what I understand a twin lounge will also be constructed in what used to be the television room. Girls and their dates may watch TV in the "Club Room," along with a juke box and candy machines.

The halls of the University of Tampa will never be the same now that the construction of a lobby near the library is complete. (Thank God they took out those pink light bulbs!) The lobby is beautiful. I am sure a lot of money has gone into the renovation with good intention. I am not so sure, though, that these projects had been carried out with much thought. A superficial look would delight one, for the Howell Hall lounge and this new lobby are admittedly attractive. The question is do they serve a purpose? From pure observation the Howell lounge seems to repel more than it attracts. Few students will enter — even to study. The lobby in the corridor of the university is used. People do sit in the chairs and place books on the little tables. And it is attractive. And it is modern — just compare it with our library.

Judgment and a proper sense of values would tell anyone that at an institution of higher learning the content of its educational facilities far overrides the importance of its "outside appearance." If the money invested in Howell Hall and the lobby were combined and reinvested into the library or science department, then the students might be able to pick up some more spirit. If the University is not going anywhere neither will the students. Books and materials, so badly needed by the University of Tampa would be worth a few lobbies. And who knows, by getting rid of a lounge or two, we might be gaining, rather than losing.

Sincerely,
Dean C. Drapen

Miss Bennett Honored At Dorm Director's Banquet

The University held its first annual male dormitory directors' banquet on April 25 in the Student Center in observance of the successful completion of the first year of the new program by which selected senior men students serve as directors of the men's residence halls.

Dr. Delo was featured speaker at the banquet, which was attended by the dormitory directors and advisors and their dates, as well as administrative staff members of the University, Dean and Mrs. Michael DeCarlo, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lovely, directors of Lykes Hall and Miss Evelyn Bennett and Mrs. Robert Marsh, secretaries in the dean of men's office.

A highlight of the evening was the surprise honoring of Miss Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Lovely, and Joe Martineau, assistant resident counselor for men and special assistant to the Dean of Men. Miss Bennett, who will have been with the University 10 years next fall, was presented with a gift from the men's dormitories, Student Congress and the Inter-Fraternity Council for her long service and devotion to the University. Mr. and Mrs. Lovely and Joe Martineau also were honored for their service to the University.

The dormitory directors, in addition to Mr. and Mrs. Lovely and Joe Martineau, are Michael McMillan, main building dormitory; Alvin Terry, director, and Harry Mulhall, assistant director, Smiley Hall; and Bernard D'Arcy, director and Andrew Kurczewski, assistant director, McKay Hall. There are 18 student advisors who assist the directors on each floor and who have the responsibility of promoting high standards of personal appearance, dress and personal integrity among the more than 500 male dormitory residents. All are under the supervision of Dean DeCarlo.

Miss Bennett

According to Dean DeCarlo, the dormitory directors' program provides valuable experience for men students in leadership, administration and personnel work. Work scholarships are provided the students in the program, with substantial increases for competence. Interested freshmen may volunteer for an in-service training program in dormitory supervision, participating in the organization of academic, social and athletic affairs. The second year, the students selected for the program receive free room expenses, and the third year, free room plus 30 per cent board per semester. In the senior year, assistant directors receive free room and board, and directors receive free room and board, plus 50 per cent tuition.

Phi Sorority Wins Track Meet

Phi Sorority, led by Jacqueline Beltram, Marilyn Bressler and Sherri Wallis edged a victory over a fighting Newman Club team in the final round of the Women's Track and Field meet. Phi posted a score of 23 points with Newman Club right behind with 20 points. Alpha Chi, led by Janet Parker, Cherri Ellis and Betsy Madzula came in third in total points, with The Independents fourth and Zeta Tau Alpha fifth.

Rosey Coniglio, outstanding entry from the Newman Club was the winner of individual points with a first place in the 50 yard dash, first in the running broad jump and first in the high jump. Jacqueline Beltram took first in the standing broad jump and Sherri Wallis was first in the softball throw.

Phi sorority leads so far this year in the overall events won since they took the volleyball trophy and the track and field trophy. Newman club won the basketball trophy.

All organizations were well represented and competition was close in all the events with the winner being decided in the final track event, the 200 yard relay. Our last intramural activity for the year, coed softball, got underway this week with the first game between the Alpha Chis and Phi on Monday and on Wednesday the Z.T.A.s met the Delta Zetas. The teams may have as many as four boys to help out and from the first games it looks as if coed softball will be even more fun than our recent try at coed volleyball. Entries are being accepted in the Women's P.E. office room 244 for team and individual entries in the Coed Swimming Meet. The meet will be held May 15, Friday, from noon until 3 p.m. at Davis Islands. The events for women will include 25 yd. free style, 50 yd. free style, 25 yd. back stroke, 25 yd. breast stroke, and 100 yd. free style relay. Please enter your teams as soon as possible. Individual ribbons will be awarded with the team having the most points overall winning the trophy.

THE BULLETIN BOARD

by Mike Moore

Many things are needed at the Athletic Department and right at the top of the list is a new shell for the crew team. The boys, Coach Jonatis, and Athletic Director Sam Bailey all are hoping to have one for next year. For the many students who wonder why we just don't go out and get one, the answer is MONEY.

Coaches D'Agostino and Prinzi are speaking softly these days because of all the shouting they have been doing at practice. Coach Charles McCullers, whose job is to stop the great teams the Spartans play next year, had his defense working so good the first few days of practice the offensive coaches wouldn't speak to him.

Athletic Director, Head Football Coach, Baseball Coach, and Business Manager, Sam Bailey, still finds time to work out on the basketball court once in a while and demonstrate to Coach Lavoy how a left-handed hook shot should be executed.

For you who missed the Spartans' first home baseball game, Vice President for Business, Mr. Sliz, threw out the first ball of the season. Mr. Sliz, an avid sports fan, stayed around to cheer the Spartans on until duty called him back to the office. It would be nice to see more of the Faculty and Administration members at some of the athletic events.

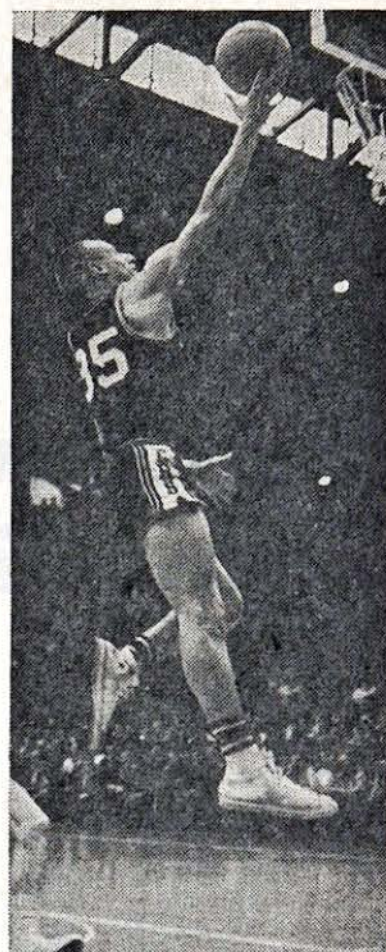

The latter part of May the F.I.C. votes on the eligibility of George Shary for next year. Coach Lavoy said he is hoping for the best, but it doesn't look too hopeful. A couple coaches in the conference are taking a very poor attitude on the situation. They may regret their actions some day if they find themselves in the same position.

Lavoy Signs Two

Basketball Coach Bob Lavoy, has announced the signing of two new players for next year. Ronald Stone, a top-notch service player, inked with the Spartans early in April. Stone is 6-5, 205 lbs., and will be used both at center and forward. He averaged 24 points per game with the MacDill Air Force Base Team and was voted the Most Valuable Player in the Base Tourney. "We are very glad to obtain a boy of Ron's size with the agility and great shooting eye he has. He will be a great asset to us next year," Lavoy said.

The other player to sign at this date is Vic Thixton. Vic is from Columbus, Indiana where he played for number one ranked, Columbus High School. He is a 6 foot guard that can dunk the ball. This past season he averaged 13.2 points per game and totaled 171 assists. He was voted to many All-Star teams and was ranked as one of the top players in his state. Very pleased to get a player of Vic's caliber, Coach Lavoy said, "This boy has as much promise as any basketball player we have signed while I have been at the University of Tampa."

Tampa Crew Wins 4, Loses 4

The University of Tampa Crew team split the season with four losses and four wins. The victories came over LaSalle, A.I.C., American and Purdue. Rollins, Florida Southern, Jacksonville, and Amherst were all victorious over the Spartans.

Three seniors graduate from the varsity shell this year. They are: Bob Mahar, Phil Powers and John Viet. With some strong boys gaining that much needed experience in the JV shell this year and the possibility of a new boat, next year's picture looks bright.

Festival of Arts

Shakespeare — the plays, art and music of his times will be featured in this major festival.

Renowned artists and lecturers from Britain and the United States will appear in lectures, public seminars and concerts. The June 23-August 9 festival will include 21 performances of six Shakespeare plays, three each by the Ashland Oregon, and San Diego Shakespearean Repertory companies. Festival related courses will be offered by the Stanford drama, music, English and history departments.

Spring Grid Practice Starts

Spring practice has been sparkling with some hard hitting football the last couple of weeks. Head Coach Sam Bailey and his staff are hard at work finding replacements for the six lettermen lost from last year's squad. With some 20 lettermen returning and the addition of 10 transfers and junior college grads, the coaching staff is finding it hard to decide who will play where.

Heading the list of newcomers are tackles Ken Sands of Lenoir Rhyne and Charles Fours of Hardin-Simmons. Another newcomer, Frank Vinning, quarterbacked Coffeyville Junior College to an 8-2 record last season and is expected to be a leading contender to fill the vacancy left by the graduation of Vaden Bessent.

Bailey said fundamentals and techniques will occupy most of the spring drills which will be climaxed May 21 with the annual Spring Game. The Spartans are also working on a new offense. "It won't be entirely new, but a slightly different formation," Bailey explained. He also added, "We'll definitely have a better team because of increased depth over what we had last year."

T.U. Baseballers 8-11 For Season

The Spartan baseball squad has compiled an overall record of 8-11 and stands 3-8 in F.I.C. play. Al Ward, the catcher, is leading the team at the plate with a .340 batting average, and Len Cimador is hitting .333. Ward's hits have been coming mostly in the Conference games. He is sporting a .433 average in 11 Conference games. Wayne Harden has proved to be the toughest pitcher for Tampa in Conference action so far. He has a 1-1 record, with his only loss coming on a one-hitter against highly touted Florida Southern. Steve Moore and Dave Villari have credit for the other two Conference victories. Moore threw a 4-hitter against Stetson and refused to give up a walk while facing only 25 batters. With the season drawing to a close, the Spartans are hoping to have at least a 50-50 season.

Organization News

TEP

April 24-26 was our gala TEP Weekend and Sweetheart Dance, held in the beautiful "Aloha Room" at Hawaiian Village. Friday evening highlighted a filet mignon dinner, followed by the crowning of our sweetheart, Bitsy Amoroso, and the presentation of trinkets to each girl in her court: Nancy Hafetz, Francine Levy, Lizbeth Calendrino. Following days activities included a barbecue and splash party — and topping it all off, a dance was held at Ralston Beach.

Everyone acknowledges the work and planning that made our affair such a great success. The members of the social committee were Dick Reisenberg, Steve Bronstein, and David Yellen.

In softball intramurals, we beat Smiley Hall 7-3. Moe Van Goe was the 'big gun' as usual!

Glad to see our chancellor, Alan Kalsmith, out of the hospital and back with us again — we missed you Kal!

SPRING IS HERE, and it's time for a tonic—for your wardrobe, if not for you! Here are some pepper-uppers for you to consider.

HARMONIC TONES TELL THE STORY

in Spring suits. These are new, close-harmony combinations of multicolored threads, interwoven in smooth-finish sharkskins, birdseye and herringbone patterns for an intermediate color effect.

WEAR THE MUTED BLUES

—instead of singing 'em this Spring. The new Muted Blues are a low-keyed blend of several shades of blue—just one part in the quartet of Harmonic Tones. The theme of Chromatic Browns is implied, rather than boldly sounded, with brown tones subtly mixed with gray, green or blue casts. Look for them in suits of worsted flannel or lightweight tweed.

DON'T OVERLOOK OVERTONE GREENS

—soft chords combining notes of blue-green and gray-green. These look great in muted glen plaid patterns and herringbones. And Tritone Grays can be music to the eye, with the basic gray pointed up with polychrome threads. A suit in any one of the new Harmonic Tones can make a winter-weary wardrobe sing!

WEIGHT'S THE WORD

to keep in mind when you're shopping for your suit. The new worsteds and worsted-and-polyester blends are lighter in weight, as well as in color. If you're looking ahead to Summer, you may prefer a tropical-weight worsted or blend. All of them can be found in your favorite Natural Shoulder suit—and in the Harmonic Tones color scale!

THERE'S SOME SUMMER LIGHTENING

in suits to weather the heat waves in, too! If you're planning to visit New York, Washington or any other tropical zone, plan on poplin or seersucker. Stripes are broader and bolder this year in the traditional black, gray or blue and white seersucker combinations. The addition of polyester fibers adds crispness, and prevents that old "walking bundle of laundry" look. All-cotton or cotton-and-polyester poplins look cool, comfortable and new in the natural tan range of color.

THE BOLD LOOK

in shirts gets bigger and better all the time! Stripes are stronger and more colorful—some in 2-color combinations. Even oxford gets into the act—the white threads are woven with reds and bright yellows, as well as tans and blues. Button-down styling remains a standard, but here's a trend to watch: the button-down collar itself is getting a little longer. The 3¼" measurement gives you more flare in front—if, and as you like it.

THE BOLDER LOOK

in ties continues to grow, too. Small-figured foulard and challis ties and the regulation regimental stripe find the future brightening by the day! And just in case we haven't mentioned it lately, the square white edge of handkerchief in the chest pocket is as square as it looks! Check into patterned silk squares instead—related to the colors of your tie. Worn puffed out and bottom-side-up, they make a strong point of additional color.

FASHION UNDERFOOT

concentrates on cordovan, especially in plain-toe slip-ons. Wing-tip styles continue to be popular, both in cordovan and black. And take a look at the new man-made materials for shoes. These practical poromerics have extra lightness and ease-of-care—in most cases they look freshly polished with the flick of a handkerchief. Not that new chest pocket handkerchief, though!

Around final time next month, we'll be checking in with the Final Word on sportswear. See you then!

Nun Blasts Formal Scriptures

Monmouth, Ill. — (I.P.) — A Roman Catholic nun who has been setting off fireworks in her church's educational system struck fire recently at Monmouth College with a speech on the importance of confronting new ideas.

Sister Jacqueline Grennan, S.L., told a Monmouth College student convocation that religion must shed its "memorized set of principles" and "formal strictures" and "pay the price of acting on its own behalf in its own time."

The executive vice president of Webster College, a small Roman Catholic women's college in Webster Groves, Mo., said that "the knowledge of the past has no price." It is an indictment of the church, she asserted, that "one could be baptized, take the Eucharist, die, and never touch the real life at all. The image people have of nuns — the 'shock troops' of the Catholic church — terrifies me," she added.

"When a nun joins a group, the conversation suddenly shifts to safe topics as though the people were saying, 'Be careful kids, sister is too young to know.' We all must go out into the world and ask people, 'Who are you?' she said. "We must ask everyone . . . and we must never say, 'Don't talk to me about those dangerous things because I want to remain a Catholic.'"

The speaker, the only woman and the only Roman Catholic on the President's advisory panel on research and development in education, charged that Newman Foundations, Roman Catholic student groups on college campuses, tend to be merely "social organizations to keep the Roman Catholics together and help them find a Catholic marriage partner."

"I have been urging that we throw out Roman Catholic textbooks whose chief merit is that they are Roman Catholic," she said. "In education, we don't want Catholics who write Catholic texts from the Catholic point of view for Catholic students. It is terribly important, however, that we get some good Catholic texts."

She referred to a Time magazine quotation of a statement she made to a group of Webster freshmen: "Unless you have questioned the existence of God by the time you are 19, you're either a liar or a fool."

"A lot of priests have written to me," she noted, "and asked which they are."

At Webster College, she said, she expects half the faculty will be lay teachers in the near future — and half of these lay people will not be Catholics. "We need a mixture on the campus, because our answers cannot be strong unless we have strong questions."

"The energy of the industrial world is invention," Sister Jacqueline concluded, "and education in general and Christian education in particular must have this same energy . . . which leads us to ask who we are and confront those not of our own tradition."

Much of what she termed a "new spirit" in religion was begun, she said, by Pope John — "a grand old man of 81 who had started this before he died."
