Tampa Spartans follow through again with a fantastic kickoff

Tampa tramples New Mexico

by K. R. Lombardia

The Tampa Spartans came up with win number two Saturday, as they blanked the New Mexico Highlands Cowboys, 20-0.

Powerful fullback, Paul Orndorff, scored twice and running back Bruce Brown once, for the now

2-0 Spartans.

Tampa looked like it would run away with the game on its first possession. The Spartans drove down to the 10 yard line where Buddy Carter flipped a TD pass to Bruce Brown, but it was called back for holding. Jesse Soper then attempted a 35 yard field goal, but it was blocked by New Mexico.

In the second quarter Lew Pytel fired a 28 yard pass to tight end Alex Edlin at the Cowboy's 8 yard line. On the next play, Pytel (Continued on Page 8)

Apartment complex near completion

by John McNeil
staff writer

A new apartment complex, the Oakhurst Square, is being built on North Boulevard across from UT's swimming pool.

According to Lamonte Shimberg's Mike Gordon, the complex, consisting of 120 one, two and three bedroom units, is a federally subsidized development designed to provide housing for low and middle income families. Twelve apartments will be available for single tenants.

Rent for the one, two and three bedroom apartments, including utilities, will be $105, $113 and $123 respectively. To qualify for this low rent housing, prospective tenants must meet certain income and family-size requirements established by the Federal government.

Under the current arrangement, the Federal government subsidizes the building of the apartments provided the owners pass their savings along to the tenants in the form of lower rents.

Lamonte Shimberg has found the Tampa Urban Renewal Council very helpful. The complex is being built on Urban Renewal land and so far all concerned are very happy with the project.

UT students who are interested and think they might qualify as tenants should contact Mike Gordon at Lamonte Shimberg for more information. Some units will be ready for occupancy in late December and the entire project is scheduled for completion by the end of March.

Allison reports on institutional blue print

The committee studying the Institutional Blue Print of the University of Tampa has outlined the institution's primary goals for becoming the kind of institution it desires, according to Dr. Floyd E. Allison, Acting Dean of Faculty.

The blue print study involves a ten year program for academic, financial and cultural development and is a joint effort of administrators, faculty, students and the community.

In academic areas, the university would like to maintain a personalized educational atmosphere and enhance its efforts toward its MacDill and Homestead Air Force Base extensions.

The institution wishes to remain a liberal arts college by putting emphasis on training generalists instead of specialists. The curriculum will remain flexible so that it can change with time. The university will continue to strive for a faculty that is interested in the students and that will continue to teach on an instructional level instead of a research level. The ideal faculty-student ratio that is being strived for is 1-20.

The student body will remain heterogeneous with a size of about 2000-2400 fulltime students. There will be no drastic change in the admissions standards, however, there will be more emphasis put on student aid and scholarship plans for local students.

Renovation of the science laboratories and upgrading of the library to 150,000 volumes are two scheduled changes in the physical plant.

The university plans to increase its placement service, guidance and counseling offices and expand its alumni program. It will also attempt to break away from its "walled in campus" concept by extending itself to the community at large.

According to Allison, "An institution cannot be everything to everybody. We have to limit our goals. With blue print a limited number of specialties will be offered which will reiterate with the university's location and needs. All goals will be reached through evolution, not revolution."

'SPARTAN FOLLIES' Homecoming Theme

by Bonnie Saigh

Spartan Follies will be the theme of the University of Tampa's 1970 Homecoming, November 19-21. This theme will bring the roar of the 20's into the 70's via the skits and lawn displays.

Chuck Smith, Vice President of Student Government, is chairman of homecoming. Smith has arranged all activities, schedules, and entertainment with the assistance of his committees.

People in charge of committees are Bill Burke, skits; Barbara Mills, lawn displays; and Claudia Pontecorvo and Mary Pratt, queen contest. Working directly with Smith on the theme committee are Ron Schagrin and Brian Wormser.

Dates for homecoming have been tentatively set as follows:

1. Oct. 28—In Student Government office complete details and drafts of displays and skits are due. Applications for the queen are due also.

2. Nov. 13—Rehearsal of skits in Falk Theater at 7:00 P.M.

3. Nov. 19—John Sebastian concert held in Falk Theatre at 8:00 P.M.

S. G. A. arouses student participation

by Sharon Cohan
staff writer

The Student Government Association of the University of Tampa has been involved in a program designed to take action on campus issues and to affiliate with and observe national events. Student Government Association President, Jeff Onore says, "In this way the SGA is trying to increase student awareness and participation in events of importance on and off campus."

The dress code has been resolved, to a point. The SGA, along with the Personnel Deans, has had the dress code revised to minimal standards. The methods of enforcement are still pending in legislation in House of Representatives. The student body will be made aware through the campus media.

"Write Hanoi Day," September 17, was a huge success. Pat Lima and Sharon White, wives of prisoners of war, gave moving talks in the Student Union. One hundred students attended this talk, and one thousand letters urging humane treatment of prisoners of war were signed.

Students are encouraged to become active in the SGA. Many more events will occur this year. New students can come to House of Representative meetings held on Wednesdays, at 9:00, at the Student Center.

The House of Representatives is at it again... this week the representatives managed to pass a piece of legislation from the Ways and Means Committee which is, in effect, unwritten.

Quite a vote of confidence, eh?

The proposal (dealing with the formation of a new dress code) was brought forth by the Committee in a rather sketchy manner with the promise of being filled out later. The representatives are certainly confident in this committee's work, for they passed a motion accepting the proposal upon its completion.

If you think that is confusing in print, you should have been at the meeting.

Discussion was virtually non-existent. When John McNeil, Attorney General, pointed out that the representatives had given the Ways and Means Committee the power to write and submit to the "Powers Above" whatever they pleased, no one even cared enough to amend the motion.

That was the high spot at this week's meeting, but don't think it was the only fun.

There was the challenge of trying to hear the previous week's minutes through the urgent Tampa U. gossip or the equally enthralling pass-time of trying to figure out why Chuck Smith was leaning against the speaker's table through half the meeting.

Of course, somethings did get done.

In fact, if Maureen Startt, Speaker of the House, makes it out from under all the lists which she requested volunteers to sign at the end of the meeting, the House should be producing some working committees in another week.

Chuck Smith, Homecoming Chairman, did indeed have a reason for being at the meeting, if not for leaning on the Speaker's table.

Counselors to advise unwanted Pregnancies

You may be a professor, student, counselor, nurse, or doctor, but regardless of who you are, if you are associated with a college or university, you are aware of the problem of an unwanted, unplanned or problem pregnancy.

Girls may come to you every week seeking your help for this problem. Until recently, all you could offer was empathy, a referral to an adoption agency or minister and the empty advice to "grin and bear it".

and psychological aspects of problem pregnancy. The counselor will explore the alternatives open to the woman and help her with whatever choice she makes. These alternatives are: 1. if unmarried, getting married and keeping the child; 2. carrying the pregnancy to term and keeping the child; 3. carrying the pregnancy to term and placing the child for adoption; 4. or terminating the pregnancy under the provisions of the California Therapeutic Abortion Act.

A group of dedicated people from the medical, legal and ministerial fields have formed a service to help women in the Orange, California area.

Persons wishing more information of this counseling service should write to Problem Pregnancy Counseling Service, Inc., 1818 West Chapman - Suite H, Orange, California 92668.

The Homecoming dance, which UT supporters hope will be a victory celebration, commences at Curtis Hixon Hall following the game.

Harold's Club date moves to November 7

It won't be long before Harold's Club, the biggest social event on campus, takes place. For those who are new here, the entire Student Union undergoes a complete transition and the end result is a replica of the famous Reno gambling casino, Harold's Club.

At 8 p.m. on November 7 the doors to Harold's Club will open to reveal the Student Union's dice room, roulette room, black-jack room, chuck-a-luck room and ballroom.

At the end of the night, those who haven't been cleaned out by the house will have a chance to bid on prizes donated by Tampa merchants at auction.

For those who like to dance, continuous music will be provided by one of Tampa's best rock groups in the Ballroom. Dress is semi-formal.

Self-governing program initiated at Smiley

by Chris Kahn
Feature Editor

The elimination of curfew in Smiley Hall may have been the topic of discussion earlier in the year, but at the moment, something else has taken precedence.

With the guidance of Miss Lydia Burguet, one of Smiley's Residence Directors, the residents are about to undertake the formation of their own government.

An Executive Governing Board will be formed consisting of a President, Vice-President, Secretary-Treasurer, Standards Chairman, and Activities Chairman.

In addition to this, there will be a president and two representatives from each of the four wings forming committees under the aforementioned executive offices.

Miss Burguet, who received her B.A. in Spanish Education at the University of South Florida, is currently working on her Masters in Library Science and was one of four resident directors in a similar experiment at U.S.F.

She is hopeful that this endeavor will lead to a greater undertaking of responsibility, as well as interest, on the part of the students.

Radical females motivate formation of Men's Lib, Inc.

Four desperate men in Los Angeles have decided that if men expect to retain any of their rights they had better organize. They have spear-headed the Men's Liberation Movement by forming a corporation called Men's Lib, Inc.

Since men are in the minority in this country, and since women already have 60% of the rights, the Founding Foursome, as they call themselves, have stepped out from behind their wives', mothers', teachers', and secretaries' skirts declaring that they are big boys now and ready to make some demands of their own.

For those other intrepid males who wish to join the crusade asserting men's rights, Men's Lib Inc. at 6820 La Tijera Boulevard in Los Angeles offers for two dollars a package containing a bumper sticker, an identification card, a certificate suitable for framing and a Men's Bill of Rights. The best defense is an offense, and taking their lead from the Women's Lib groups they are prepared to be as offensive as necessary to re-balance the scales of justice.

N.S.A. leaders strike Oct. 3

At least 27 student government leaders, members of the U.S. National Student Association, began a 10-day hunger strike calling for an end to the "beatings, arrests and torturing" of South Vietnamese students in Saigon and the use of American funds to support the South Vietnamese regime.

The hunger strike will take place on campuses around the country and in Washington, at least until the visit of South Vietnamese Vice-President Nguyen Cao Ky, who will speak before a pro-war rally here on Oct. 3. The tactic of the hunger strike is being used to call international attention to the plight of the Vietnamese students, who are now involved in an unlimited hunger strike in protest of government repression in Vietnam.

NSA tried to secure the release of the students through the U.S. government, with no success. So, the hunger strike was called as a way of focusing world wide media attention on the demand for the students' release.

Library appropriates 9000 new volumes

The Merle Kelce Library has added approximately 9,000 volumes to its collection since last June, bringing he total to 90,000.

Dr. Sandor Szilassy, director of the library also reported that thousands of audiovisual materials, pamphlets, government documents and other items have been catalogued and made available for student use.

New volumes range from cookbooks to encyclopedias. The most important aspect of the new additions, Dr. Szilassy notes, is the wide selection of topics which they cover - such as photography, chemistry, history, philosophy and religion.

Quite a few volumes are available in the Special Collections Room which is open Monday through Friday from 10 A.M. to 11 A.M. If he need arises, restricted materials can be made available at anytime during regular library hours.

Old books, rare books, first editions and autographed editions can be found among the new selections. One very valuable edition is a Latin Bible published in Venice in 1498.

Volumes written in Spanish, French and German, or in the English translation, can be found among the new selections, according to Dr. Szilassy. One Spanish classic, imported from Madrid, has over 240 volumes.

For the art buffs on campus, the library now has a collection of framed prints of famous paintings. Students can rent these for three dollars a semester. Dr. Szilassy states that members of the Circulation Division will be happy to assist patrons who would like to decorate their rooms with these pictures.

The library is open seven days a week as follows: Monday thru Thursday, 8 a.m. to 10 p.m.; Friday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Saturday, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.; Sunday, 2 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Upon leaving the library each student may pick up free a library guide and book-marks.

4 freshmen receive awards

Science curriculum got another lift at the University of Tampa today with the awarding of the first-ever science scholarships to four Tampa Bay area students headed toward science careers.

Awards were made to Joseph K. Santos, Leroy Turner, Robert G. Taber and Lance Garrison.

UT President David M. Delo, in announcing the awards, said the scholarships cover full tuition for the entire academic year.

Selection was made by a special scholarship aid committee headed by Dr. Floyd Allison, Acting Dean of Faculty Criteria was based on academic achievement, potential contribution to the science field and financial need.

"These scholarships represent another step in the University of Tampa's efforts to promote and improve our overall science program by attracting students with an expressed interest in science," Dr. Allison said.

"CHOICE CUTS" by O'GRADY

Lee Michaels' "Barrel" on AM records is somewhat of a departure from the usual Michaels fare. The album is a little more subdued and coincidentally more consistent than his previous offerings.

He has added another dimension to his music in the person of Drake Levin, ex-Raider, on guitar. Levin's work is in quite a few cuts above what he did with the Raiders and it fills in nicely with Michaels and his drummer.

Michaels' treatment of the traditional song, "When Johnnie Comes Marching Home" is extraordinary. He has taken the melody line from the Rolling Stones "Street Fighting Man" and added his own lyrics. The only similarity between his version and the original becomes evident at the end of the song.

"Barrel" is a good solid offering from Lee Michaels.

An album that has been out for a while which bears mentioning here is Les McCann and Eddie Harris' "Swiss Movement" on Atlantic. Recorded live at a Jazz Festival in Switzerland, McCann and Harris managed to combine Jazz with Rock but still retain the Jazz flavor.

One song that demands special mention was written by Gene Chandler and is called "Compared To What." The total accuracy of the lyrics are what makes this song so excellent.

Most live recordings suffer from technical imperfections but this album doesn't. McCann, Harris and Co. play with the precision of a Swiss watch.

For the second year in a row Delta Sigma Pi will operate a check cashing service in the lobby of the Student Union every weekday from 10:00 am to 3:00 pm. The Student Union Office will cash checks from 3:00 pm to 11:00 p.m. daily and all day weekends.

Decision makers bridge generation gap

Students are joining the decision-makers at the University of Tampa this fall.

The generation gap has been narrowed by letting students have their say as members of several key administrative and faculty committees. In some instances, students will carry voting rights.

In an unprecedented move announced by Fisher S. Black, chairman of the Board of Trustees, two students and two faculty members have been named non-voting associate members on three committees of the board — those pertaining to planning and development, student affairs and educational affairs.

These committees previously had been restricted to trustees and counselors.

Black said the move is being made to implement total involvement and continuity of effort at the University in keeping with "our modern democratic society."

Dr. Floyd E. Allison, acting dean of faculty, said the appointment of students this year to faculty committees for religious activities, special events, curriculum and student life is being done for the first time.

Previously discipline and publications committees included students. "They will continue to have student members," Dr. Allison stated.

Dr. Allison said the faculty committees will include two or three students chosen from a wide variety of study departments to provide "a fair balance of representation."

Student committee members at the University of Tampa are being selected on the basis of scholastic standing and good citizenship.

Most people say you have to start at the bottom no matter how high you want to climb.

Is that really so?

Maybe it's a story they tell just to get people to start at the bottom.

The United States Air Force lets you start climbing as soon as you get out of Officer Training School. If you have a college degree you become highly responsible, fast, as an Air Force pilot.

You become a space-age leader on the Aerospace Team.

Lots of people start at the bottom.

We're asking you to start on executive row.

The football season is well under way now, with two games under the Spartans' belts, and nine big ones to go.

I can't help but look ahead and see a long, hard road.

Why? The Spartans will be facing some of the toughest opponents in the history of the school, not to mention some of the greatest individual players.

Players like Tommy Nelson of North Texas State who replaces the graduated Steve Ramsey, the holder of 9 NCAA passing records. Miami has players like All American Tony Stawarz at safety, and record setting quarterback Kelly Cochran. Miami also has offensive tackle, Tampa resident, Wiley Mathews, running back Don Brennan and top receiver, Joe Schmidt. Xavier brings in Joe Abramowicz, brother of Danny Abramowicz who led the NFL in receiving last year for the New Orleans Saints. Joe is said to be a better college ball player than his brother Danny.

Louisiana Tech has Ken Lantrip who backed up the brilliant Terry Bradshaw at quarterback. John Adams is their top running back and he's a good one.

Southwestern Louisiana has six returning players on offense and seven on defense. All in all 36 lettermen return to SW Louisiana.

Idaho State has the Big Sky Conference's passing leader, Jerry Dunne, who tallied 1570 yards passing and 16 TD's. His top receiver is Carlis Harris who has caught 81 passes in the last two years in the shadow of New York Jet Ed Bell, who had 96 receptions last year for 20 TD's.

Vanderbilt's Commodores, slated for Homecoming weekend, November 21st, are bringing their version of Archie Manning with a fellow by the name of Watson Brown. Brown is a winner who runs and passes with equal effect. He brought Vandy three of their last five victories when he took over for John Miller, now playing flanker. Vandy also has Brown's younger brother Mack at running back, along with back Allen Spear, split end, Taylor Stokes and top receiver Curt Chesley.

Florida A & M follows up with their controversial quarterback Steve Scruggs and another very strong A & M team. This game will be one to watch because when A & M and Tampa get together, anything can happen as was displayed in last year's game in which A & M was victorious.

Although the above teams are as tough as they come, players like Leon McQuay, Paul Orndorff, Noah Jackson, "Sudden" Sammy Gellerstedt, Harry Smith, Lew Pytel, Buddy Carter, Eddie Caldwell, Joe Hernandez and Bruce Brown will be there to show 'em the Tampa Spartans are there to play.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

"I've waited five years for someone to ask me that stupid question."

4 at Kent State's "deserved to die"

NEW YORK—The "real tragedy" of the four students killed at Kent State is "that some people think they deserved to die," asserted Erich Segal, author of Love Story.

"And when I say some people, I mean many people . . . Americans all over the land," sated Segal in an article in the current (October) issue of LADIES' HOME JOURNAL. "These sentiments were, by and large, expressed by men of good will" who "obviously felt that the crimes committed by the students deserved the death penalty."

Segal noted that though "very few offenses nowadays warrant capital punishment. . . people all across America considered the deaths at Kent State not only justified but desirable."

The week that wasn't

PORTLAND, Ore. — (CPS)—This city, its residents will frankly tell you, is the biggest small town in the world. Nothing ever happens in Portland.

So when the American Legion decided to bring 15,000 of its members to town for its annual convention at the end of August, and people started rumoring that 50,000 Yippies were also coming to protest at the same time, whoo boy!

And you know what happened? nothing.

The Legion came to town, as did the guardsmen and a herd of national press. But most of the long-haired young people in the city left. And it turned out that the massive influx of protestors into the area predicted by the state press constituted about 1,000 people.

That's what you get for believing a Yippie rumor. The people of Oregon, however, still won't admit they were put on. They feel the joke was on the demonstrators (who called themselves the People's Army Jamboree

According to Segal, "if the good folk in nearby Ohio towns do not understand Kent State, how will they understand Jackson State, or Augusta, much less what happened in the far-off little village of My-Lai? . . .

"If we are so confused that we cannot distinguish a campus from a battlefield, if Kent State and Khe Sanh look the same, then we had better stop and look around and see what is happening," Segal asserted in his JOURNAL article.

The author said that a moment before Allison Krause was shot and killed by National Guard bullets, "she stopped to look around to see what was happening." Maybe if we had, she wouldn't have had to."

Tickets hard to obtain

He has secured John Sebastian for the Homecoming concert, with the regret that ticket sales will be limited since the concert had to be booked into Falk Theatre.

If Chuck can maintain the degree of organization he now has and gain the cooperation of the various organizations, homecoming should really be great.

In parting . . . Freshman elections are close at hand, so some of you conscientious upperclassmen should get those freshmen to a few House Meetings so they can decide if they want handle such antics.

Students who went to the Delta State game on September 12th will probably agree that the ticket situation hasn't improved. Many students waited in line almost fifteen minutes to receive tickets for the game. Last year, students complained that it was too much trouble to pick up tickets at the bookstore, so this year the ticket office was moved to Gate 2 at Tampa Stadium. Realizing it would be much easier to pick up tickets before the game, students would like to have the ticket office switched back to the bookstore.

Spartans beat Cowboys 20-0

tel hit Orndorff with a screen pass and Orndorff ran over two Cowboys to score. Jesse Soper made an attempt at the extra point but the kick was wide.

In the next play the defense then went to work again. "Sudden" Sam Gellerstedt, Noah Jackson, Bobby Brown, and Harry Smith all proved to be invincible on running plays. New Mexico had to punt out of the end zone and Pete Scaglione returned the ball to the New Mexico 11.

Three plays later Orndorff scored his second TD. Pytel hit Alex Edlin for the two point conversion and the score was 14-0.

On New Mexico's next set of downs they came their closest to scoring. They made a field goal attempt from the 25 but it was short.

There was no scoring in the third quarter, but at the end of the last quarter, with only 4:41 left on the clock, Bruce Brown took a handoff from Buddy Carter and raced down the sideline for a 51 yard touchdown. The snap try for the extra point was fumbled but it left Tampa with its second win in as many tries.

The quarterback situation is still very tight. Lew Pytel completed 13 of 17 passes for one touchdown and Buddy Carter looked almost as impressive with a 9 for 15 record and a 96 yard gain.

Coach Curci indicated that Pytel will be the number one quarterback, but Carter will still see plenty of action.

With two men capable of leading the team in the most vital position, the Spartans are very strong where they need it most.

Masolino, Nagle, Kalafus World Kayak Champions

by Alice Garcia
staff writer

Kathy Mosolino, Linda Nagle, and Nancy Kalafus of Tampa U. represented the United States in the World Canoe and Kayak Championships held in Denmark this summer. After two and a half weeks of training at Olympian and World Champion Medal Winner Eric Hansen's canoe club in Holstebro, the girls went on to Copenhagen for three days of competition.

During the three weeks of training and actual competing, the team traveled to Denmark and Sweden. There were two things that impressed the girls during their travels. They were the size, agility, and strength of the other women competing against them and the cleanliness of the cities.

All three entered the four women kayak finals and were among the seven finalists.

The next race for the trio is scheduled for October 17th at Inverness, Fla. It will be a 17 mile canoe race. The girls also hope to attend the National Collegian Championships on November 7th and 8th at St. Mary's College in Maryland where they will represent the University of Tampa.

In another race this summer, Miss Mosolino and Miss Nagle won a bronze medal for the United States. The girls were competing in the North American canoe championships. The girls won their medal for defeating a Canadian women's team.

Tampa Wrestling Team Shapes Up

by Reid Cory
staff writer

The Spartan wrestling team is looking forward to one of its best seasons this year.

The team has been strengthened by the initiation of a scholarship program for the team and the aggressive recruiting of Coach Jerry Epsy over the summer.

Funds for the scholarship program were raised, in part, by a summer wrestling clinic conducted by Epsy and some of last year's team members. The scholarships have helped in recruiting new wrestlers with impressive records.

New members of this year's team will be: Rich Randolph, who was undefeated last year; Kevin Wolf, also undefeated; Randy Cyman, with a 15-1 record, and Tom Keough, 8-1 last year.

Returning team members include: Fletcher Carr, winner of 41 straight matches, who placed fourth in national competition last year in the 190-lb. class; Louis Mancusi, who placed second in the state, and Joel Medgebow, who had a winning season at Tampa last year.

Coach Epsy, who wrestled at Indiana State, described a good wrestler as a "knowledgeable animal." "Knowledgeable" as he must know the moves and strategy of the sport, and "animal" for he must be aggressive and determined to beat his opponent. In addition to these qualities, a wrestler must be dedicated to his sport, for the conditioning required to enable him to endure eight or nine minutes of "hard wrestling" can be described as "brutal".

Tampa's first home match will be against Louisiana State University on November 20.

LIFE features Tampa U

LIFE Magazine editors plan to include the University of Tampa in a photo story on old hotels now operating in other capacities. The leading competition for the space was the Ponce de Leon in St. Augustine, now Flagler College, but restoration projects by the Chislers and other benefactors pushed UT out front. Because LIFE wants to engage a "big-name" photographer for the job, the project must be scheduled well in advance of publication. The LIFE entourage is expected on campus in the Spring.

In the late 1800's two men named Henry, arch-competitors in the transportation business, were leading Florida developers; Flagler on the east coast, Plant on the west. Today the contest continues. The Ponce de Leon was Flagler's building; UT's main building was Plant's.
