SPARTANS DEFEAT STETSON, 6 TO 0

University To Offer Degree In Aeronautics

Program Is in Line With Uncle Sam's National Defense

In line with the national defense program, the University of Tampa is offering a new course this semester leading to a bachelor's degree in aeronautics.

Courses relating to aeronautics are available to both men and women, and will help prepare students for various positions in military, commercial, and private aviation. The course is designed to provide a valuable training for prospective pilots, instructors, stewardesses, meteorologists, weathermen, airport managers, and aviation executives.

According to Dr. Mooney, the new course is in line with the modern trend of business and industry.

"Twenty years ago if a college or university decided to start a new school the outcome probably would be the installation of a law or medicine school," he said.

"Today, however, we can see that these fields are not as open as they once were. Aviation is a new industry and a new business, and it is only natural to turn to it as a new course."

The new course in aeronautics will embrace a study of the principles of aeronautics, aerology, navigation, general physics, and math in the freshman year. An advanced course in the principles of aeronautics comprising a study of airplane instruments and radio and the economics of airport management will be offered in the sophomore year.

In the junior and senior years, courses will be developed to train students to enter various phases of commercial aviation, including emphasis on training of youth for apprentice and master instructorships.

The adoption of an aeronautics course leading to a bachelor's degree places the University of Tampa within the select circle of the few institutions of the nation who are pioneering in the new work in the aeronautics field.

Welcome From Dean Sanford

I am very glad to extend a welcome to the members of the freshman class through the columns of the MINARET.

The University of Tampa offers each student its facilities and assistance in building a program of individual achievement and continuing development.

There is no necessity to point out that college and university students today are confronted with conditions essentially unlike those faced 10, or even five, years ago. The environment within as well as outside University halls has been altered by recent national and international events.

For the student these changes indicate much less dependence on the experience and the advice of his elders and far greater reliance upon his own abilities and effort. Self-directed study and investigation for him are now a recognized necessity.

The uncertainty regarding the years in the future requires courage and energetic action on individual and social problems.

I give my greetings to all new students gathered here, and I hope that they may find the stimulus and friendship in this University which they seek.

—DANIEL S. SANFORD,
Dean of Instruction.

Here's Low-Down For the Low-Downs —About Rat Caps

"Rat Caps," a symbol of the "low, dumb and senseless freshman" today, a priceless treasure in years to come. That's the life of a dink, and here's advice for you freshmen boys and girls of the class of '44.

The rat cap is to be worn by all freshmen at all times with the exception of Sunday, and all places with the exception of church. The cap must have the last name of the freshman in LARGE letters with a prefix of "RAT" before it.

If, by any chance, a cap is stolen or lost, the fine is—well the sophomores decide that.

Caps must be worn until Christmas holidays. If a freshman can secure a University of Florida rat cap for the current year he may discard his own rat cap at the Thanksgiving holidays.

Girls' rat caps are to be made and worn at the earliest possible date. Patterns may be gotten from the girls of the present sophomore class. They are to be worn for the first six weeks of school or until further notice from the sophomore jury.

Truly, rats, there is nothing like a rat cap to gain friends and influence people. It's an essential article when it comes to hitch-hiking and identifying yourself with Tampa U.

Wear it always. Remember upperclassmen are Mr. and Miss to you until—And so until then remember—and never forget you are a rat.

Eileen Gutierrez Takes An "Unexciting" Vacation

"Oh, it was just a little vacation—really, it's nothing to write about!" But upon being pressed for information Eileen Gutierrez admitted that she did go to Alaska this summer. As for excitement, according to Eileen there wasn't much although the ship did hit the rocks, coming home and she saw the northern lights.

Traveling with her aunt and cousin, Eileen went about 4000 miles from Tampa to Vancouver on the train. There they boarded the Canadian-Pacific steamship "Princess Charlotte" and sailed for Skagway, Alaska.

After staying a few days at Skagway just enjoying the scenery, they went still further north to West Taku Arm where they saw the northern lights. Eileen described them by saying "they look like a bunch of moving searchlights at the fair."

Piano Teacher From Juillard Joins Faculty

Miss Mary Haverstick Comes to University On Foundation Grant

The first of several anticipated foundation grants for the University of Tampa was confirmed this week with the arrival of Miss Mary Haverstick, New York city, as the head of the piano department of the university.

Miss Haverstick is furnished by the Juillard Foundation of Music, New York city. The grant provides for the payment of Miss Haverstick's salary by the foundation for the coming year.

Miss Haverstick has served as an accompanist to the classes of Albert Spaulding, the ensemble groups of Felix Salmund, cellist, and with the ensemble group of Carl Friedberg, pianist.

The new head of the University piano department attended the Institute of Musical Art of the Juillard School of Music for several years, graduating in 1932. She received her post-graduate diploma in 1934, and entered the Juillard Graduate school. Upon the completion of the normal period of three years in graduate school, Miss Haverstick was honored by the faculty with a fellowship for an additional year.

Miss Haverstick also was with the London Opera company, London, England, on a season's tour of Canada culminating with several weeks at the Little Theater in New York city, and for several summers was associated with William Willeke at the Summer Musical colony at Pittsfield, Mass.

Commenting on the grant of the Juillard foundation, Dr. James E. Mooney, president of the University, said, "We are fortunate to receive a grant from the Juillard foundation in New York city, and we welcome Miss Haverstick to the University of Tampa feeling that she will make a definite contribution in assisting to develop the piano department of the University. This is among the first grants received by the University and the administration anticipates a further development in the way of foundational grants and funds."

PAN-HELLENIC ELECTS

Paul Myers, Beta Chi, was elected president of the Pan-Hellenic council yesterday, at the first meeting of the year, and Walter Frederick, Sigma Kappa Nu, was named vice president. Phyllis Flanagan, Delta Kappa, and Jacob Dunn, Tau Omega, are secretary and treasurer, respectively.

Class Elections To Take Place Wednesday

Two Presidents, All Secretaries and Vice Presidents To Run

General student elections will be held Wednesday for president of the freshman and sophomore classes, and secretaries and vice presidents of all four classes. Zeno Stalnaker, president of the student body announced today after the first meeting of the council for the semester.

A student desiring to run for office must be taking a full course of study. He must obtain a petition from the bookstore which must be signed by one-tenth of the students in his class.

Previously only the freshman presidency has been vacant at the beginning of the year, the three top class presidents being elected in June. However, Paul Burns, sophomore president, did not return to school this semester, necessitating a new election.

Frances Alderman was elected recording secretary of the council and Bill Gaventa was named corresponding secretary and chaplain. Mark Ball, as president of the senior class, automatically is vice president. The executive committee is composed of Ball, Stalnaker and R. B. Fordyce, junior class president.

Beverly Bond, Dot Thonnosen, Louis Housrath and Carl Lauther were named as members of the freshman guidance council.

Pan Hellenic Council Announces Plans for Issuing Bids This Year

Here are rules governing the issuance of fraternity and sorority bids, as passed by the Pan-Hellenic council:

Rushing season will be officially closed tonight at midnight.

Students to receive bids will be notified Monday morning through notices in the lobby mailboxes.

Girls will receive bids from Miss Moffatt in the girls' athletic office and boys will receive theirs from Mr. Adams in the boys' athletic office. Bids will be given out only until 5 o'clock Monday afternoon.

A student must accept the bid of his choice by 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, signifying acceptance by wearing the ribbons attached to the bids.

T. O. SPONSORS NAMED

Miss Charlotte Mols, escorted by Billy Hand, Miss Mary Merle Jones, escorted by Jimmy Whitehead and Miss Martha Smith, escorted by John Brandenberger were sponsors for the T. O. dance last night.

ADVISORY COMMITTEE

The following students have been appointed to the president's advisory committee on student affairs: Merry Williams, Florence Flanders, Norma Myers, Henry Vest and Zeno Stalnaker.

As Oscar Wilde said: "We know the price of everything and the value of nothing" is plainly shown in the following—we pay our President $75,000 a year, a movie actress $490,000, the Chief Justice $20,000, a radio crooner $320,000, and a good cook $10 a week.

Champ, Tower of Defense, Drags Hatter Down On 6-Yard Line

Dixie Howell, Spartan's speedy end, snagged Tampa U.'s first state grid victory since 1937 from the air in the last few minutes of a see-saw duel last night and the Tampans took the big end of a 6 to 0 score from the Stetson Hatters.

The aerial was tossed by big Fullback Levin, a series of several that clicked in a desperate wide-open attack that carried the Spartans across the Hatter's goal line as 6500 wild fans rose to their feet and cheered wildly.

But it was Champ Williams, faithful and hard-plugging senior, that pulled the game out of the fire half a dozen times, saving the Tampans from defeat, in a defensive game that held the Hatters scoreless.

Spartans Open Strongly

The Spartans opened with impressive strength, counting off 15 yards at a whack. Then there was a fumble, and, after that most of the first half was played in Spartan territory.

Both teams were somewhat ragged, the Spartans probably more frequently on the ragged edge. But the Hatters pulled more serious boners that counted out several possibilities of scoring.

The Tampans fumbled and both committed early season errors. But the Hatters' fullback let the Spartans rush him behind his line of scrimmage; their punt receiver caught a punt on his own line of scrimmage, and they took more penalties than the Spartans.

Hold On Goal Line

Early in the game, the Tampans braced nobly and held the visitors for four downs on their six-yard line. It was nip and tuck after that, the Tampans, on defense throughout the first half, gained an edge over the Stetsonites during the last half.

The drama of the game brought the audience to its feet when Champ Williams, a threat throughout the game, dove to tackle a Stetson ball-carrier on the Tampa six-yard line, then, on the next play intercepted a Stetson pass and got away for long yardage with but one man between him and 70 yards of open field.

Both teams opened up in the last quarter. Stetson threatened seriously with pass after pass tossed under Tampa's goal posts, but they failed to click. Then the Spartans got away with a series of passes, Levin to Howell, the last one tossed for 23 yards and the victory.

Brush and Palette Club Will Elect Officers

New officers will be elected when the Brush and Palette club meets for the first time this year on Thursday night in the art room.

Art students who wish to apply for membership are asked to submit three pieces of their work to Norman Borchartt, faculty adviser. Additional plans for new members will be formulated during the meeting, and club activities for the semester will be discussed.

I. R. C. WILL MEET

All students interested in international affairs are urged to attend the first meeting of the International Relations Club Thursday night. An executive meeting was held this week and plans were made for the coming year.

Diner—Will the orchestra play anything requested?

Walter—Certainly, sir.

Diner—Well, ask them to play a few rubbers of bridge.

THANKS

The prevailing spirit of the University for the past two weeks has been one of hearty welcome and helpful guidance to freshmen and new students. Faculty members and upper-classmen have endeavored to make the task of entering upon a college career a pleasant experience.

From all appearances their efforts have not been in vain. We freshmen and new students are entering into the swing of college life with the idea that there are great things ahead for us.

We recognize the fact that only a part of our education will emanate from the class room and are therefore engaging in the various extracurricular activities with the same enthusiasm and energy with which we pursue our studies.

We sincerely hope our appreciation for the extended fellowship will be evident in our everyday life in and out of the class room, but may we sum up this feeling in an inadequate but sincere THANKS.

—By A FRESHMAN.

BOOST TO ROOTERS

There will be no more strained tonsils among our cheerleaders.

Why? Because the student council went into action this week and bought four new megaphones to be used in announcing yells to the cheering section.

Last night these "throat-amplifiers" proved very satisfactory in that everybody knew what yell was coming next.

The student council deserves credit for this splendid improvement.

MERCHANTS BOOST TAMPA U.

Tampa merchants are boosting the university and the Spartans to a greater extent than ever this year. Guaranty Title Company has distributed free pencils containing the football schedule to all students and townspeople. Weil-Maas is printing the schedule in the sweatbands of all men's hats in its store as novel publicity. All over town there is evidence of an increasing loyalty and interest in the University of Tampa.

The new water fountain presented as the annual gift of the graduating class, by the graduates of '40, will be a welcome addition to facilities of convenience and use of the university. We're looking forward to its installation. The present water fountain has come into some disrepute, and, as a result, it has boosted the sale of cold beverages at the book store. But we should have adequate facilities for providing free "aqua pura."

RESPONSIBILITY—AN IMPORTANT ASSET

The developing of a sense of responsibility is one of the primary duties of a university toward its students. Responsibility is one of the important necessities in the living of a successful life. We may study mathematics and the sciences, literature and the arts, accounting and other details of the business world. But until we develop a sense of responsibility, these studies will lose much of their value to us.

Responsibility means meeting the demands of our instructors, our organizations and clubs, our friends, and families, and ourselves. And we should be dependable in meeting these demands. Dependability should be the rule—not an exception. And yet we so frequently find a small handful of "old stand-bys" carrying the load, part of which should be carried by others.

Let's realize the importance of this thing called responsibility—in our classroom life, on the football field, in Minaret assignments, in doing the work of our clubs, fraternities and sororities. It's important. Think it over.

Stubs From the Sub-Cub

By THE SUB-CUB

Well, my only excuse for the appearance of this column is that it was as unplanned as a hiccup and so the sub-cub must not be snubbed. Just in case you Freshies haven't heard of the sub-cub—I'm it. And since all's fair in this game, be careful 'cause I might tag you!

I first want to commentate on the upperclassmen—particularly the men (?). Every grin given a Freshie glamorous is more than just a smile—it's a little sonata in three movements. So beware if you see other's faces starched stiff with disapproval because you're on promised property.

Hatzoff, however, to the newcomers. They seem to be doin' just fine without us. That is, with their lectures, games, etc., they seem very capable of entertaining themselves. But the time has yet to come when they will entertain us!!!

What's news? Asks the inquiring reporters. Tsk, tsk, such snoopidity. Example? Quentin (Alias Champ) and Jack Goodson receiving letters from a little Audrey and dated simultaneously (at the same time, dope!) Levin—"The Great Levin"—"Stoo bad he had to leave his little mountain-eers."

Casanova say "Only thing harder to carry than a ton is a "torch." Take it from me—I know.

Oh what a difference love can make. Sara Morgan and Bill Gregory. Maybe—From the song title of the same name—Kitty Ann Sweet and Walker Gilmer.

Exit our last year's freshmen Belle Myers and Dottie Leonard; a lost duet now.

Rat news—What happened to the Freshman; will have to wait.

At last—Betty Jo and Paul Hance in "Some fun, Eh?"

Tour to Plant City went Phyllis Flanagan and Willie Paxton.

Steadying-it—Elsie Gill and Collins Whitehead—anyway almost.

Beta Chi's Entertain With Smoker, Lunch; Lake Party Tonight

The Beta Chi fraternity opened its rushing season with its annual smoker at the home of Lee Duncan Tuesday evening with a large number of members and rushees present.

The fraternity held a luncheon Thursday noon at the Old Vienna restaurant. Dr. C. Herbert Laub, adviser, Paul Myers and Dick Sleichter gave short talks.

This afternoon and evening the Beta Chi's will close their season with a lake party at Luis Zendequi's on Key-stone lake.

Swimming, aquaplaning, dancing and a hamburger fry will form the entertainment. Dr. Laub and Mr. Zendequi will be chaperones.

Delta Kappa Tea-Dance In University Ballroom Opens Social Season

Marking the opening of the new school term, the Delta Kappa sorority entertained at a tea dance in the university ballroom last Friday evening from 6:30 until 9:30 o'clock, with about 150 in attendance.

Hostesses were the Misses Mary Frances Mathis, Emma Jane Sacrey, Mary Sears and Frances Sessions. Chaperons were Mr. and Mrs. George Strauss and Prof. and Mrs. David E. Bunting.

Tau Omega Fraternity Will Entertain Rushees At Lake Party Tonight

The Tau Omega fraternity will entertain rushees at a lake party tonight at the lodge of Bill Culbreath. Members, rushees and their dates have been asked to assemble at the university at 5:30.

Swimming, boating and dancing will be enjoyed and a big surprise has been promised by the members. Miss Caroline Melber, Mr. Harry Dobson and Mr. and Mrs. Willard B. Phelps will chaperon the affair.

Native—George Washington threw a silver dollar across the Rappahannock while standing right on this spot.

Tourist—I can easily believe that. They showed me where he pitched his camp across the Delaware when the British were after him and it was a lot wider than this.

"Lady," said the beggar, "could you give me a quarter to get to where my family is?"

"Certainly, my poor man, here's a quarter. Where is your family?"

"At the movies."

Here Are Rules For Tampa U. Social Activities

All campus organizations are required to file in the Dean's office twice a year, once during each semester, a list of their officers and members.

All groups desiring recognition and all local recognized groups contemplating national affiliation, must file petitions with the secretary of the faculty committee before any publicity appears, and in ample time to allow committee to act upon petition. Proposed constitutions and by-laws of petitioning organization are to be handed in with the petition. The name of the faculty advisor must appear on the petition.

A student may be president or other presiding officer of only one organization and may not hold office in more than two at the same time.

A student must be carrying at least 12 hours to become a member of any Greek letter organization. Students carrying less than 12 hours shall not be permitted to attend business meetings of such organizations.

A student must be carrying at least 12 hours to hold office in any active organization within the student body.

Social Functions

Blanks, which may be secured in quantity from the secretary of the committee, must be handed in, in duplicate, to the Secretary of the Faculty Committee on Student Organizations and Social Life at least two (2) weeks in advance of the date being requested.

Dates for social functions may be requested in advance by reserving them with the secretary; semester schedules are kept so there will be no conflict in dates. If blanks for a date previously reserved do not come in to the secretary by two weeks limit before that date, the date may be given to another organization, if there has been another request for it.

A function is not considered approved until one blank is returned to the organization, with proper signatures. No publicity is to appear concerning proposed functions until this requirement has been met; failure to observe this rule will incur disciplinary measures.

At all social functions except those in a private home, chaperonage must consist of one of the following groupings:

- (1) 2 faculty members and wives.
- (2) 1 faculty couple and 2 individual faculty members.
- (3) 4 individual faculty members.

When social functions are given in private houses, parents are considered adequate chaperons.

In all cases, whether chaperons are parents or faculty members, their signatures must be secured on blanks in the proper manner.

Petitions for social functions to be held at any place having a bar, must be accompanied by a note from the manager stating that the bar will be closed to students and their guests during the function.

Two functions of similar nature may not be given by two organizations at the same time.

Hours of Social Functions

Functions in the university building must end at 12, midnight.

Functions at places outside of the university building must end at: 12 midnight on Saturday nights; 1 o'clock on Friday nights.

Functions are limited to Saturday afternoons, Saturday nights and Friday nights.

No Sunday functions will be approved.

Delta Kappas Sorority Entertains Its Rushees At Round of Parties

Annual Bingo Party and Luncheon, Skating Party, Begin Fall Activities.

Alumnae and active members of the Delta Kappa sorority jointly entertained rushees Monday night at a bingo party at the home of Priscilla Hunt.

The sorority colors, red and white, were carried out in the decorations, and novelty prizes which were awarded at the end of each game, were tied with red ribbons. The committee in charge of arrangements was composed of Francis Mathis, Bertie Elinor Helms, Margaret Davis, Suzanne Jackson and Priscilla Hunt.

Rushees attending were Lola Ann Sparkman, Hilda Bethea, Frances Alexander, Mary Cantrell, Caroline McDowell, Kathleen Grant, Dot Hill, Carol Thomas, Jean Pryor, Beth Hotchkiss, Elizabeth Edwards, Dorothy Ann Kelley and Alma Hanson.

The sorority gave a skating party Wednesday night at the coliseum, after which light refreshments were served. Chaperones for the party were Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Witse and Dr. and Mrs. D. D. Bode.

The alumnae closed the rushing parties with a buffet supper at the Hillsboro hotel before the Tampa U.-Stetson game last night. Small corsages tied with ribbons carrying out the school colors were presented as favors.

After the supper members and rushees went in a group to the football game.

Sigma Kappa Nu's Highlight Rushing With Dinner Dance

The Sigma Kappa Nu's entertained a group of rushees at a smoker Monday night at the Crescent Grill. The program included music and talks by several alumni. Light refreshments were served.

The highlight of their parties was a dinner dance Thursday night at the Crescent Grill. Effective decorations in silver and black were used. Music for dancing was provided by Bob Porton's orchestra. Marus Hall, first president of the fraternity, presided at the dinner.

Closing the season, the fraternity will give a spaghetti supper tonight at the Crescent Grill. Novel entertainment has been planned for the evening.

Tau Omega Grid Dance Tops Week-End Program After Stetson Game

The Tau Omega fraternity entertained at an informal dance in the University ballroom last night after the football game. Fraternity rushees and the Stetson Squad and cheerleaders were guests of honor.

Sigma Theta Phi Has Party, Mexican Supper; Formal Luncheon Today

The Sigma Theta Phi sorority began its rushing season with a game party Monday night at the Knights of Columbus hall. Ping pong, pool, shuffleboard, darts and dancing were enjoyed during the evening.

On Tuesday evening, the Leisure house was the scene of a Mexican supper. Brightly colored flowers were used on the center table. A real Mexican table cloth was part of the decorations.

A hay ride to the country was turned into an informal get together at the Knights of Columbus Recreation hall where informal games and dancing were enjoyed.

Preceding the football game yesterday afternoon a buffet supper at the home of Anne Marie Hargan, 801 East Louisiana, was held as the last informal rushing party.

A formal luncheon today at Rubin's restaurant will conclude the sorority's parties. Season corsages will be presented to the honor guests.

Guests at these functions include Elizabeth Edwards, Dorothy Wadsworth, Mary Cantrell, Alice Lee Sewell, Dot Thonnesen, Wanda Waters, Dorothy Ann Kelly, Bille Winkinson, Marion Neil and Norma Rollins.

The Social Whirl

With the freshmen all running around in their rat caps and the football season well under way after last night's game, the school spirit has got us again.

The T. O. dance last night was a gala affair as was their smoker last week (so we hear). And they are also to be commended on their original idea of inviting all the freshmen to this smoker. A grand idea, boys!

The Skins' dinner dance was a top-notch affair, and their spaghetti supper tonight promises to be the same.

Congratulations to the new cheerleaders — Johnny Wainwright, Hilda Sweat, Louise Griffin, Tom Johnson, Mary Merle Jones and Kitty Ann Sweat. And special congratulations are in order for Jimmy Whitehead on being selected head cheerleader for this year. They did a bang-up job last night. Let's keep behind them the whole season with that good old school spirit.

The three sororities seem to have gone in for novel invitations for rushing parties.

The Alpha Gams gave their rushees some adorable white boxes tied with green ribbons, inside of which were the invitations to the box supper Wednesday.

The Dekes had some cute invitations folded up into a triangle to form the letter "delta". They were sealed with a tiny white sake and to the strings of the the skate were tied the admission tickets to their skating party.

The S. T. P. invitations to the game party were targets with an arrow stuck through the center. On the stripes of the target was written the time, place and kind of party.

'Tis rumored that the M. S. O. and B. S. U. are planning some social events soon. More about these affairs later, though.

The Spice Of Life

Flo Flanders was quite burned up the other night when Jim Huber, her date, ditched her for Jackie Jameson.

We hear that the football managers left broken hearts in North Carolina. . . . Ann Marie Hargan has refused to let J. Liebman double date with her any more 'cause Jack Dromey makes eyes at J. L.'s gal friend.

Jean Pryor does a top notch job of blushing whenever Art Burrows' name is mentioned. . . . we wonder why? . . . Paul Byars denies even being engaged, when his wedding was announced for sometime last August.

Lola Ann Sparkman, freshman Minaret reporter, really put herself on the spot the other day when she wrote that "Mr. Witse led the student assembly in singing." Hmmm, maybe we should name him "Bad Boy Witse."

Bradenton's Betty Battle came up to Tampa U. for just one short eve this week and was about to chisel in on Yolanda's "Bills." But then maybe Yolanda has enough to go around.

At least four T. U. co-eds wish Joe Mills would make up his mind—could be he's gettin' to be a regular Adam Lazonga.

Ben Hatcher, freshman Minaret reporter, has been renamed Ben Dover to the sophomores.

Baptist Organization To Entertain Friday; Council Meets Monday

The annual BSU party for all Baptist students and others who are interested in the BSU will take place Friday night, Oct. 4, in the recreation hall of the First Baptist church.

This party will be the first big get-together for Baptist students this year. It will give the older students an opportunity to meet the freshmen and will give the latter some introduction to BSU activities.

All Baptist students are also urged to keep in mind the state BSU convention which meets at Stetson University in DeLand Oct. 25-27 this year. The cost will be approximately $3 per person, according to Bill Gaventa, BSU president.

Monday evening at 7 o'clock has been selected as the regular time for council meetings. At the meeting this week plans were worked out for keeping a complete BSU roll on file. Each council member will be responsible for about 10 members and will keep them informed about BSU activities.

SPARTAN BAND LEADERS

Drum majors who strutted for the Spartans last night with the 54-piece band, were Merriweather Williams, Mervin Beatty and Kathleen Grant.

Alpha Gammas Have Box Supper; Entertain Rushees With Party

Will Close Rushing Season With Luncheon Today at Tampa Terrace Lounge.

The Alpha Gamma sorority entertained rushees at a lawn party Monday night at the home of Odessa Dietrich. Appropriate games were played. The sorority colors, green and white, were carried out in the decorations and refreshments.

Betty Holton won the prize in a game in which each member of the sorority represented a character of a book, and rushees were asked to identify the characters. Mary Collura played several selections on the piano and Ena Robb entertained with a vocal solo. Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth K. Berry and Miss Odessa Morris were chaperones.

The sorority held a box supper at 2411 Riverside Drive Wednesday night at which refreshments were served picnic style. After the supper, members and rushees sat on the lawn and had an old-fashioned community sing. Dr. and Mrs. Berry and Mrs. Creek were chaperones.

The Alpha Gammas will close their rushing activities with a luncheon today at the Terrace lounge.

Dr. and Mrs. James E. Mooney and Mrs. Kenneth K. Berry will share honors with the rushees. Dr. Berry will be the guest speaker. Mary Borelli and Olga Martinez are in charge of this affair.

VETERAN CENTER—He's in the fight as Spartans battle Hatters to 6-0 victory.

By FRANK MANISCALCO

Football briefs from here and there. . . . Floyd Wolf, 215-pound Dunkirk, Indiana, boy who is in line for a first-string berth on the Spartans claims that charging against football lines should be easy after this summer's work in the steel mills, charging a hot furnace. . . . Tennessee is having to refund $40,000 to folks who wanted tickets to the Duke game but no could get. The only blues at Notre Dame are in uniforms, even though eight starters are eligible for the draft. . . . Assistant Coach Pix Pierson, graduate of the University of California, was a member of the famous 1921 Rose Bowl Champions.

Champ Williams and Hollywood Read, halfback and guard, respectively, on the Spartan eleven, both gained experience in teaching and conditioning as they instructed and demonstrated swimming at Cusca-den pool this summer. . . . University of Miami expects to have one of the best football attendance records in the south this fall. The attendance in the last three years has exceeded 100,000 each season. This year, 150,000 may be passed. Auburn and Alabama do not meet at football because of an ancient feud.

Bill Fisher, veteran Spartan center, was a busy boy this summer. "Wild Bill" took three classes in summer school, played with Frostproof baseball team, umpired in the city's softball league and worked out with a football between jobs to protect his center position on the Spartans. Nineteen nationalities are represented on the Notre Dame squad including, strange enough, a few Irish. . . . With Texas Christian and North Carolina U. meet Oct. 12, all the coaching will be done by Texas Christian graduates. . . . For descriptive football, try to match this one from North Carolina State: "It's the "Sally Hand" play. Coach Doc Newton says it describes a naked reverse.

The University of Tampa Spartans not only will be able to fill the air with footballs this year, but they can also fill the air with planes. Eight members of the football squad have already gotten their wings. . . . Miami U., which has won at least one intersectional football game annually since 1934 plays two such tilts this fall, with Catholic U. and with Texas Tech. . . . If you want to know why Tulane is playing Clemson fifth this year instead of first, look at the scores of the last three years: 7-0, Tulane; 13-10, Clemson; 7-6, Tulane. . . . They say Vanderbilt has the finest freshmen crop in the Southeastern Conference this year.

Rollins has proven the toughest opponent for Tampa during their seven years of rivalry, having topped the Spartans in six out of seven games played. Tampa won its only game in 1935, 19-6. . . . Miami, on the other hand, has only been able to win two out of seven engagements with the Spartans, losing three and tying two. . . . Centenary has had secret football practice, with gates barred and husky freshmen patrolling all roads leading to the Stadium.

Coach Nash Higgins spent eight successful years at the University of Florida before coming to Tampa. . . . The new offensive which the Spartans are working has been described as "a mixture of Notre Dame, Warner, the old Heisman (Ga. Tech) jump and Nash Higgins' tricks." . . . Talk about reducing football prices, Willamette U. out in Oregon really slashed 'em—four bits gets you into any of the five home games and that includes tax. Zaiko is playing steady football this year and also on his gal friend's visits.

Girl's Program Of Intramurals Opens Thursday

Girls' intramurals will begin next Thursday with volley ball and shuffleboard. Two members from each sorority, freshman, dormitory, and plebe teams are asked to sign up immediately for the shuffleboard tournament.

Practice is still going on every afternoon for freshman and varsity volley ball teams. All those who are interested may still come out.

The girls who have attended practice are Odessa Dietrich, Marie Sherman, Nell Clemons, Helen Berwanger, Alice Lee Sewall, Dolores Menendez, Deltina Diaz, Margie Segall, Louise Griffin, Marilyn Levy, Norma Rollins, Evelyn Fernandez and Muriel Yarbrough.

Pat: I hear ye and the missus had wurds last night.

Mike: Shure, but I didn't get a chance to use mine.

Museum Relics Are Redecorated For Protection

A number of historic pieces of furniture have been reupholstered by the WPA in various shades and designs according to their period. The pieces in the French gold room have been done over in embossed satin, while the Victorian suite of carved rosewood has been done in rose and ivory brocade.

Besides these changes, glass tops have been cut to fit all tables inlaid with ivory and other precious materials to prevent further picking by souvenir hunters. The Spanish inlaid table of ivory and tortoise shell, was the last victim of such thievery.

For the benefit of all Freshmen and new students, this museum is open daily from 9 a. m. until 4 p. m. and is directed by its curator, Mrs. W. F. Miller, assisted by a group of university girls.

HERE'S THE CHAMP—He was the team in the Spartan defense, and paved the way for its victory.

It's der Alma Mater, and a chant; no, a yell, ach vot difference does it make, why hits on der Franklumb Street or is it Tampa Street? Maybe both. Could be!

And ah see a pajamie parade and more, and more, and more, but listen, rats, and mices too, ya betta enjoy it whilst ya can and blease go gently mit der gail in der lobby. You knows vich von ah means, she's a swell gail, she is, she puts up mit der lubin,' or maybe ah should say der rubin' of der rats, like you, and you, and you. And not vun void does she say, not vun; chust sits dere she does, fer its mit her as mit Joe Mills. Mum's da void, and she don't mean Zip. So vatch it boys, don't slip.
